That race is called an international event. True enough, many nationalties were represented among the contestants ,but most of the cheering was done for an Italian, while an American rider was booed most frequently. The crowd, however, probably never thought of that, for it did not come to the Garden to cheer an American team on to victory. Neither did it come there because the annual Garden race is practically a unique event, nor because this happened to be the thirty-first holding of it. Despite the sensational victory of Alfred Goullet in the final hours of the race, there is no Babe Ruth of six-day racing, and the popularity of no one man attracted the crowds. Most of the spectators arrived at the race without knowing who their favorite or favorites were, whether they left in this state of non-partisanship or not. Certainly no one of these reasons, nor a combination of them, was responsible for the big crowds of last week.

The explanation lies deeper than that. The American public is taking sports more seriously to-day than ever before. More people and more kinds of people are interested in sports. Always naturally competitive, Americans are finding new chances to exercise this competitive instinct through the medium of sports. The kind of sport is of secondary importance so long as the keen spirit of competition exists. In all likelihood a six-day roller skating race would have found lines of men and women eagrly waiting a chanc to pay almost any price for a ticket.—New York Times.

LABRADOR BOUNDARY DISPUTE COMING UP

Matter Before the Privy Council For Decision.

ST. JOHN'S Nfld., Dec. 13. — The question of the location and definition of the boundary as between Canada and Newfoundland in the Labrador peninsula, is now before the Privy Council of the Empire for decision, and Hon. W. R. Warren, Minister of Justice, is presenting the case for the "Ancient Colony".

Some surprise was caused here by a press despatch quoting Bram Thompson, Barrister of Regina, Alberta, and editor of the Canadian Law Times, as saying that Newfoundland had never been given any rights of ownership to any parts of Labrador, but was, "as a matter of administrative expediency, given administrative control of the country." Mr. Thompson was further quoted as saying that the whole of Labrador belongs to Quebec. To this, Alfred B. Morine, a prominent local lawyer (formerly of Toronto) replies that,—"nobody has ever claimed that Newfoundland had any right to ownership in the soil of Labrador for she has no 'ownership' in her own soil, as most lawyers understand that word. The title is in the crown."

It is not, however, understood here that Canada or Quebec is disputing Newfoundland's jurisdiction over the Labrador coast line from Blanc Sablon about midway of the straits of Belle Isle north and west as far as Cape Chidley. What is disputed, is Newfoundland's claim to a portion of the hinterland, contained in a strip of territory extending inland from Cape Charles to a depth of 300 miles and from Ramah to a depth of 225 miles, including about one half of the country washed by Ungava Bay.

Some years ago Canada combatted the right of Newfoundland to collect customs duties at the bottom of Hamilton Inlet, claiming that this indentation extends so far inland from the maior coastline that the territory forms part of New Quebec However, Newfoundland continued to collect customs duties there. F. C. Berteau, who was Newfoundland's collector of Customs for the whole of Labrador north of Red Bay from 1881 to 1889, collected customs duties not only at the bottom of Hamilton Inlet, but also at the bottom of Ungava Bay, which is west and south of Cape Chidley, the western termination of the Labrador Peninsula. During the nine years Mr. Berteau says that the only protests he received were made by Mr. Fortescue, then Chief Factor of the Hudson Bay Company at Riglet, and this protest was more in the nature of a joke between friends than a serious objection.

Mr. Berteau points out that in the case of goods shipped from Montreal or Halifax to Ungava or North West River at the bottom of Hamilton Inlet, Canadian Customs officials issued a certificate addressed to the Newfoundland Customs authorities, thus recognizing Newfoundland's jurisdiction in districts now claimed by Quebec. According to Mr. Berteau, the present dispute is due to the establishment of lumber mills and new fur trading posts, the former by W. C. Edwards and the Benjamin Company, and the latter by Révillon Freres, at the bottom of the Hamilton Inlet.

Newfoundland was given jurisdiction over the coast of Labrador as far back as 1763, and originally it had control of the Labrador shore on the littoral of the Gulf of St. Lawrence south and west of the Straits of Belle Isle. Sometime after Quebec became a possession of the Crown by conquest; the administration of this coast was handed over to the Quebec authorities, because it was felt they would be more in sympathy with the inhabitants who were mostly of French origin.

FORGERY CASE TRIED AT COBOURG COURT

Valentine J. Chaplin Charged With Forgery and Changing Document.

Only one case was entered in the quarterly sessions of the Cobourg county court and general sessions of the peace that opened on Tuesday before Judge Ward. That was the case of Rex. v. Chaplin for forgery and changing a receipt. According to the evidence, Valentine J. Chaplin rented a farm in Seymour township from Thos. Tyler, in April, 1919, for which he was to pay $150 a year, the rent to be paid monthly in advance, a lease being drawn up. That fall, Tyler sold the farm, and when Chaplin was ordered to vacate, he claimed he had made an agreement to purchase the farm. Chaplin brought action to have the farm conveyed to him and produced two receipts, supposed to be signed by Jas. Mann, Tyler's father-in-law, who collected the rent. One receipt was for "$25 for payment and rent," and the other the same. Mann claimed one was a forgery altogether and that the "and" in payment and rent had been altered from "on," the change making it appear that part of the payment was for the farm. Chaplin's suit then dropped, and the new owner of the farm, J. Cutcliffe, brought action to have Chaplin evicted as an overholding tenant. This was ordered and the forgery charge was started by Mann. The grand jury brought in true bills on both charges, the case going before the judge and the petit jury.

The jury brought in a verdict on both charegs against Chaplin, with a recommendation to mercy. He was allowed to go on suspended sentence. —The Cobourg Sentinel-Star, Dec. 15, 1921.

7,000,000 ON SOVIET GOVT'S CIVIC PAY-ROLL.

Strength of Army 5,000,000 —Size of Navy Unknown.

MOSCOW, Dec. 14.—(By a Staff Correspondent of The Associated Press).—There are 7,000,000 on the Russian Government's civil payroll, says a report just made by Yourey Larin, the former Social Revolutionist leader and Chairman of a committee selected by the Central Government to reduce the number of institutions supported by the Government and to eliminate unnecessary bureaus.

Karl Radek; Bolshevist leader, stated in a recent article that the strength of the Soviet army is 5,000,000 men. The size of the navy is not known.

Granting that the figures of Radek and Larin are correct, the Bolshevist Government has at least 12,000,000 persons on its civil and military payrolls, or one person out of every ten in what constitutes Soviet Russia.

In the civil list 2,070,000 persons are engaged in industries, according to Larin's statement, and 1,500,000 are in transport service. The employes in Government offices and institutions number 2,100,000. Timber work and farm work under Government control employ 400,000.

Larin says the most sweeping reductions will be made in the Department of Education, which is headed by Lunacharsky and has 1,200,000 employes. At least one-third of these will be discharged. Teachers in the ordinary schools will be unaffected, but Larin says his commission intends to lop off all sorts of museums, dramatic academies, dancing studios and various side institutions which, he declares, are sapping the life from the education system and squandering money which should be devoted to strengthening free schools and paying better salaries to teachers of ordinary subjects.

By reducing the number of employes on public payrolls, Larin says it will be the purpose of his commission to afford more food for the workers in essential industries which have starved to support superfluous and faddish institutions.

BAILIEBORO

BAILIEBORO, Dec. 15.—A number of young people of the Methodist Sunday school met at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening before League to organize a teacher training class. The members of the class hope to receive much benefit from this under the careful instruction of the pastor, Rev. R. M. Patterson.

Epworth League Notes.

The weekly meeting of the Epworth League was well attended on Tuesday evening. The Missionary vice-president occupied the chair, and after the singing of the opening hymn the pastor led in prayer. the topic was very efficiently taken by Wm. Lang on 'The Missions in West China.' The meeting closed with the usual benediction.

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Patterson on Sunday the services were taken by Mr. A. Monk, of Bethany, who preached at the three appointments on the Fraserville circuit. Mr. Monk took his text from Revelations, 3rd chapter, 20th verse, 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock, if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and with me.'

AND URGENT AND IMPORTANT APPEAL

Whereas a number of the men of this city who are interested in the P.S.A. Movement as it is conducted in England, Scotland we have a desire for a similiar work here; we have decided to organize a Men's Sunday Afternoon Class to be conducted in a manner similiar to the P.S.A.

It is our fixed purpose to make the character of this class such that all who attend shall find it both profitable and pleasant being assured that our motive is preeminently and only the highest spiritual welfare of every member.

It will be our aim to make the most careful selection of all speakers and singers, having regard first always to the spiritual standard. To this end we cordially invite all interested in such a class to gather at Bethany Tabernacle on Sunday, December 18 at 3 p.m. that orginization may be affected.

GRAND JURY FINDS CONTENTMENT IN PETERBOROUGH'S INSTITUTIONS

VISITED ALL THE PUBLIC HOMES AND HOSPITALS IN THE COUNTY AND REPORT THEM CLEAN AND TIDY AND COMFORTABLE — A FEW RECOMMENDATIONS.

The public institutions in the city and county of Peterborough were found exceptionally clean and tidy by the Grand Jury, who made their presentment to Judge Huycke late on Wednesday afternoon as follows:

"The Grand Jury of the county of Peterborough summoned for this court, which opened on the 13th inst., desire to present their report to Your Honour E. C. S. Huycke and agree with Your Honour that the present state of lawlessness throughout the country is deplorable. We think that this state of affairs is largely due to the unsettled condition in the country as a whole and to the lack of employment. We must add, however, that this condition is a world-wide one and not by any means confined to this county or this country.

Seventeen in Jail.

"We have visited the several institutions in accordance with your instructions. At the County Jail we found seventeen men and one woman confined on various charges of assault, theft, violation of the Ontario Temperance Act and six vagrants and two trespassers on the railway. The most serious of the charges against those confined being two charges of forgery and one of fraud. We regret that a large percentage were youthful offenders.

House of Refuge.

"At the House of Refuge, of which D. S. Campbell is the Superintendent, we found twenty-eight male and eleven female inmates. General conditions are excellent, heating and ventilation being satisfactory. The interior of this building, with the exception of the attic and basement, has been newly painted. Two fire escapes have been provided, but do not extend to the top floor, which is used as sleeping quarters for a number of the inmates. We recommend that these fire escapes be extended to provide for this floor. The inmates are satisfied with the treatment provided and their general health is good, though a few cases are confined to bed. The exterior of this building and the out-buildings are apparently in good condition. The twenty-one head of cattle are in good condition and there are three fairly satisfactory horses. We would also recommend that two chemical fire extinguishers be provided.

Protestant Home.

"Peterborough Protestant Home, Miss Lancaster, Superintendent. We inspected this institution, finding fourteen male and fifteen female inmates. The building is comparatively new and provides every accomodation. This institution has about eight acres of land, all of which is under cultivation and provides sufficient vegetables the year round for the inmates.

House of Providence.

"At House of Povidence, Mother Superior in charge, we found twenty-five males and forty-eight female inmates. This is the largest institution of its kind which comes under our inspection, and is splendidly conducted in every way. All the inmates seem to be contented and well cared for.

"St. Vincent's Orphanage, Mother Superior in charge. Here we found forty children, most of who are attending school. There is no sickness here, which speaks well for the manner in which the institution is conducted.

Children's Shelter.

"The Children's Aid. We inspected the Shelter, of which Mrs. J. Rogers is matron. There are seventeen children, thirteen of whom are going to school. The children are healthy and happy and well cared for. This is certainly a large family for one matron to attend to, and in the opinion of your Grand Jury Mrs. Rogers is to be commended on the efficient manner in which she is performing her duties.

The Hospitals.

"Nicholls Hospital, Mrs. Leeson, Superintendent, and Miss Archer, Assistant Superintendent, fifty-four patients. St. Joseph's Hospital, in charge of Sisters, thirty-seven patients. A magnificent new wing is now being added to this building, which will provide accommodation for fifty more beds. Both these institutions are efficiently conducted, and splendidly equipped, including modern X-ray apparatus.

"Every one of the institutions visited by us were exceptionally clean and tidy, and provision for the comfort and welfare of the inmates has apparently been made by those in charge.

"We are also very glad to commend the manner in which the administration of justice is conducted in this Court, not only by Your Honour, but by all the officers of the Court.

"Dated at Peterborough this fourteenth day of December, 1921.

"E. F. Mason, Foreman."

Thanked by Judge.

"I thank you for the very efficient and speedy manner in which you gentlemen have performed the duties of your office—very important duties, I assure you. Your report is a very pleasing one, and I am sure the public will be glad to know that gentlemen of your position have found things as satisfactory as they are in our institutions."

His Honour said he was quite aware that the present social unrest and criminal tendencies were world-wide, and the saddest part of it all was the number of the younger generation who were affected by it. Something was wanting in the education, either in the home or school or elsewhere.

His Honour thanked the Jury for their kindly references to the Court, and dismissed them with wishes for a happy Christmas season.

Mrs. A. Crawford Tells How Cuticura Healed Little Girl

"My little girl's trouble started with small pimples on the back of her head and they spread down her back. The pimples were hard and red and they itched and burned terribly. She scratched and irritated them and they later developed into sore eruptions. Her hair fell out and became thin and dry, and scales fell off on her clothing.

"I used a free sample of Cuticura and the pimples commenced to dry up. I bought more and when I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Alonzo Crawford, 83 Parker St., Bangor, Maine, Jan. 22, 1920.

For every purpose of the toilet and bath Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are wonderfully good.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold throughout the Dominion. Canadian Depot: Lymans, Limited, 344 St. Paul St., W., Montreal. Cuticura Soap shaves without mug.

HALIFAX EXPLOSION WRECKED HER NERVES

The reader will, no doubt, remember when a few years ago there was a collision in the Halifax, N.S., Harbor and one of the munition ships was blown up, causing great loss of life and laying a large portion of the city in ruins, and causing a great deal of suffering and distress among the inhabitants.

Mrs. Winfield Dill, now of Windsor, N.S., was lying in Halifax at that time and went through this trying experience and the shock wrecked her nerves. She writes as follows:—"I was living in Halifax at the time of the explosion, and it wrecked my nerves so that I could not do my housework. I would take such nervous spells I would be under the doctor's care.

I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised, so I took two boxes and they helped me so much I took six more, and now I am completely relieved. I can recommend them to anyone suffering from heart and nerve trouble".

To all those who suffer from nervous shock we would recommend our

CHURCH MUST HELP FOR LIMITED ARMS

PROJECT IN A WORLD DETERMINED TO FIGHT WOULD BE IN VAIN.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—(Canadian Press)—In a message sent by Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British delegation to the Armament Conference, to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, the English statesman declared that limitation of armament in a world determined to fight would be a vain undertaking. The Federal Council opened a three-day session here today.

"More is required and that more the churches must help to provide It is not that I desire to see the churches take any corporate share in current political controversy. The churches have a higher mission for it is their supreme duty to raise the ideals of the community and to create the atmosphere in which these ideals can flourish."

INDIA EXTREMISTS DISMAYED

They Have Taken Irish Fight Against Britain as Their Model.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Ireland's acceptance of continuance in the Empire as one of the points in the peace agreement, says a despatch to The London Times from Lucknow, India, cuts the ground from under the feet of all advocates of the total independence of India, since the extremists have largely taken Ireland for their model.

The correspondent adds that this statement is made as an obvious observation after having talked with many well-informed persons, both Indians and British officials. All of them were agreed that the probable re-action of the Irish settlement on the Indian situation was likely to be good. The settlement probably would help, it was said, to speed up the demand for the establishment of the Dominion status in India increase the momentum of the movement for constitutional reform and shorten materially the period of Indian pupilage.

"The quotation is," says the correspondent, "by what process the intensification of India's fitness for self-government can be sufficiently accelerated by the statesmanship which found a way through the Irish difficulty surely will solve the Indian difficulty."

A GOLD MEDAL FOR MR. ALFRED O. TATE

Is Brother of Chief Engineer of Midland Division, G. T. R.

For his electrolytic process of water-prooofing textile fabrics, the Franklin Institute of the State of Pennsylvania has conferred the Howard Potts gold medal and diploma upon Alfred O. Tate of New York City, who is a brother of Fred Tate Chief Engineer of the Midland Division of the Grand Trunk Railway.

Alfred O. Tate was for years T. A. Edison's private secretary; and Edison built him a house at Menlo Park N.J.

This electrolytic process of waterproofing originated by Mr. Tate marks a distinctive advance in the art and of the superior excellence of the product produced by the process.

The Franklin Institute was organized in the year 1824 to meet a demand in America for an institution similar to that founded by Count Rumford, in London, in 1799. The founders intended it not only as an appropriate memorial to the name of Franklin, but as a means of continuing for all time a work which throughout his long life he perhaps regarded as his best, namely, the discovery of physical and natural laws and their application to increase the well-being and comfort of mankind.

As these awards are made only after the most exhaustive investigation on the part of the leading scientists of this country, and as but few of these awards are made, the honor conferred is a most notable and distiguished one.

OIL REPLACING COAL FOR FUEL

C. P. Steamers Most Modern Type of Oil Burners.

In view of the fact that the new Canadian Pacific steamships, the "Montcalm," "Montrose," and "Montclare," which will be in the Montreal-Liverpool services next year, are the most modern type of oil burners, it is interesting to note in the annual report of Lloyds Register of Shipping the remarkable increase in the use of oil fuel to replace coal, as illustrated by the following comparative figures recorded in the Register:

	Oil Fuel Vessels Gross Tons.

It is stated that the position indicates that industrial conditions generally during and subsequent to the war have given tremendous impetus to this important economic movement. Some impression of the industrial significance of the change will be obtained when it is realized that the steamers now in existence which are fitted for oil fuel would represent a consumption of coal approaching 20,000,000 tons per annum, or about 8.7 per cent. of the quantity of coal brought to the surface in the United Kingdom during 1920.

Apart from the question of the relative cost of coal and oil as fuel, there is undoubtedly, in the case of vessels using the latter, an all-round economy of labor, bunker space, accommodation for crew, and time in port; factors which have an important bearing on running costs, are especially in the case of passenger steamships of the type represented by the "Montcalm" and her sister sips and the "Empress of Britain."

OUR CHRISTMAS HOME CLUB

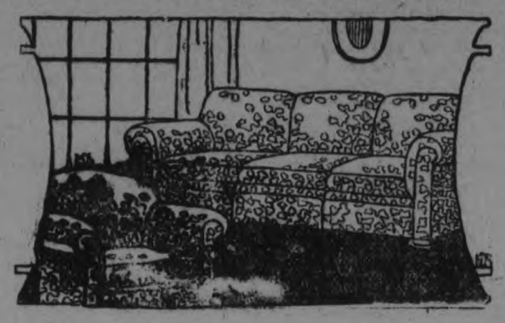
COMMENCES FRIDAY - MEMBERSHIP LIMITED - EASY CLUB TERMS

IT IS OPEN FOR YOU - JOIN TO-DAY

On Friday our famous "Christmas Home Club" will open for new members. This year there are four of the most useful home comforts possible to have on the club list — the Eureka Vacuum Cleaner, the Kroehler Davenport, the Knechtel Kitchen Cabinet, and Chesterfields—all of which may be had on our famous Christmas Club plan, and it provides the easiest way of bringing comfort to the home without the laying out of a lump sum of money. The membership is limited and it will pay you to make your selection early as the number last year was reached very quickly. Delivery—Members of the Club may have their purchase delivered when desired, either now, or a few days before Christmas. Club Terms—You make a deposit on the article you wish to purchase, the balance is paid in regular instalments, according to arrangements made at time of purchase.

The Kroehler Davenport

By joining our Christmas Home Club, you may use this elegant Davenport while you pay for it, and in case of emergency it can be used as a Double Bed, simply by pulling the seat outward and lifting the top back up. Complete with set of Springs and well tufted and filled Mattress. The wood is fumed oak and upholstered in leatherette. During this Club they may be purchased for (regular $90.00) $75.00
Regular $75.00 for $55.00



Two Only, Chesterfields, Regular $185.00 for $135.00

Two of these most comfortable Chesterfields, two different designs of French tapestry to choose from; double stuffed, buttoned back finish, with loose Down-filled cushion, spring seats and spring roll-shaped arms, 6 ft. 3 in. long, deep-seated, with sumptuous oil-tempered steel springs, and fillings of curled hair. Luxuriously comfortable. Extra bargain in Chesterfields for Christmas Club,

The Knechtel Kitchen Cabinet On Christmas Club Plan

This handsome piece of kitchen furniture is, without the slightest doubt, the saver of thousands of steps by the housekeeper or wife during the day. It has a capacity great enough to hold in a convenient place all the necessities for everyday use, and for a day's baking. The automatic lowering flour bin does away with the strenuous task of lifting a bag of flour up in the air to pour into the bin. It lowers to the level of the work table.

The solid porcelain top work table is another of its supreme features, the top is absolutely solid. The outer walls are made of 4-ply veneer, making a wall that will not warp and one that is practically unbreakable. There are only 5 more of these wonderful Kitchen Cabinets left, so join the Club to-day.

The Eureka Vacuum Cleaner Free Attachment Offer is Good for This Club

The Eureka Vacuum Cleaner

Relieves you of that back-aching task of beating rugs and carpets. It keeps them absolutely clean, without removing them from the room, and does it in a way that is perfectly harmless to the rug. "It gets the Dirt, not the Carpet." There is no other Vacuum with a higher velocity of greater volume than the Eureka, and it is this alone that determines the worth and value of a Vacuum Cleaner. It does not have to beat or do anything else that is harmful to your expensive rug to remove the dirt. The EUREKA has the power to suck the dirt from out the carpet.

Free Attachments

From now until Christmas there is an extra special offer with every Eureka Vacuum Cleaner purchased between now and Dec. 24th, a free set of attachments is given. They are used for cleaning behind and around radiators, upholstered furniture, curtains, draperies, etc.

Make arrangements for Demonstration in your home. It will certainly make an ideal Christmas Gift. Join the Christmas Club to-day. Price of Cleaner $60.00

A.Y.P.A. PRESENT A BRIGHT LITTLE PLAY

MERRY PERFORMANCE IN THREE ACTS IN ST JOHN'S PARISH HALL.

St. John's Parish Hall was filled last evening for the initial production of "Safety First," the bright little comedy put on under the auspices of the A.Y.P.A.

A merry performance in three acts this well-enacted amateur offering kept the audience laughing from the start to finish. Every one of the actors showed careful training, and took their parts with a finish that make a very likeable play. Mr. Elmer Brown as "The Terrible Turk," made the hit of the evening with his part, and Miss Dorothy Currie was very funny as the Irish cook lady. Messrs. Eric Roberts and Cyril Flowers, as Jack Montgomery, and Jerry Arnold, were the heroes of the piece, who get into a terrible tangle in their efforts to extricate Jack's cousin, Elmer Flannel, an unsophiscated college boy, played by Teddy Bourne, fom the clutches of the "tender Turksh maiden," Zuleika, played by Miss Minnie Long, in fetching regulation harem costume.

Jack and Jerry, the former an innocent young husband, and the latter engaged to his sister-in-law, Virginia, in attempting to bribe Zuleika to release Elmer Flannel, are thrown into jail with her on a charge of fortune telling. They invent a trip to Florida to cover their absence from their lady loves; Mable Montgomery—Jack's wife—being played by Miss Kathleen Cuffe, and Virginia Bridger—her younger sister, engaged to Jerry, played by Miss Ada Shelton. When enquiries at the steamship office fail to locate the missing pair, they are given up as having been lost at sea, and the bereaved survivers don mourning.

Abou Ben Mocha, "The Terrible Turk," played by Mr. Elmer Brown, is Zuleika's father, who ferociously demands his daughter, also languishing in the lock up, and Mrs. Barrington Bridger, the leader of the social set," enacted by Miss Muriel Bridge, is the girls mother, who accuses the young men of having eloped with the missing Turkish maiden. Mr. McNutt, a very harmless Irish detective, played by Rex Evans, and Miss Dorothy Currie, as Mary Anne O'Finnerty, the Celtic cook lady, with whom Jack run off in mistake for his wife, complicate matters with some real funny comedy, and the play tangles itself into a fine knot before the final curtain.

Costumes Correct.

The various costumes were chosen strictly according to the action of the dialogue, and added a great deal to the attraction of the performance.

The Messrs. Bellegheim Brothers kindly loaned the pretty stage furnishings. A well received vocal solo was rendered by Miss Ruby Quartermaine between the acts, and the pianiste of the evening was Mrs. George Evans. Much credit for the production is due to the untiring efforts of Miss Jean Horsefield, in coaching the different parts, a nd the assistance rendered by Mr. J. Swan.

"Safety First" will be repeated tonight at the Parish Hall, and will doubtless attact a crowded house.

ROLLER SKATING OVER FOR SEASON

BROCK STREET RINK IS BEING PUT INTO SHAPE FOR ICE SKATING AND HOCKEY.

The Roller Skating Season came to a close last evening with the arrival of the cold spell of weather. In closing the management desires to thank the patrons of the rink for their patronage during the past two months and to assure them that the same consideration for their pleasure and convenience will be given during the ice skating season now at hand.

Manager Jack Thirnbeck will be in charge of the ice rink again this winter and if at all possible will have ice for Saturday skating

REFLECTS HONOUR ON PETERBOROUGH

APPOINTMENT OF G. L. HAY AS HIGH PRIEST AND PROPHET RAMESES TEMPLE.

A truly brilliant Masonic function was the annual ceremonial of Rameses emple, A.A.O.M.S. in the Masonic Temple, Yonge street Toronto, on Wednesday, when distinguished brethren from all over the province were present. Rameses Temple is a degree high up in Masonic artistry, with a membership more or less exclusive, and the fact that Noble G. L. Hay, of this city, supported by 25 brother Nobles in attendance from Peterborough, has been distinguished by his election as High Priest and Prophet reflects a full measure of honor, not only on Mr. Hay himself, but also on his home city. The distinction is also flatteringly emphasized by this being the first time so high an appointment in the Rameses Order has come Peterborough's way.

The other officers appointed ade; Potentate — Noble Dr. W. H. Wright, Toronto.

Chief Rabban — Noble Frank Walker, Hamilton.

Assistant Chief Rabban—Noble R. J. Cluff, Toronto.

Oriental Guide—Noble W. F. Eaton, Hamilton.

Recorder—Noble Albert Macomb, Toronto.

Treasurer — Noble J. Webber Payne, Toronto.

NEARLY BURIED UNDER SEVERAL TONS OF COAL.

Wm. Tierney, of Curtis Brickyard, Had Narrow Escape.

Wm. Tierney, an employee of Curtis brickyard, who with two fellow-workers, was unloading a car of coal on the Auburn siding yesterday, found himself in an uncomfortable position by being almost immersed in several tons of coal. The hopper of the car being open, the unfortunate man, who was on top of the car, quickly sank almost up to his neck, and was in danger of being completely buried. A companion procured aid from the carpenter shop near by, and by placing a rope under his arms and a plank for him to pull himself up with, the coal was shovelled away and the victim extricated. He was slightly bruised on his hands and limbs.

RECEIVED DONATION.

Mr. G. W. Powell, agent for the local Children's Aid Shelter, this morning received a donation of $5 from the Junior Red Cross of Toronto, this amount to be expended towards the purchase of a wheeled-chair for a crippled ward of the Children's Aid Society.

THE ANNUAL MEETING MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Church took place last evening, with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Jas. Rollins, occupied the chair.

The financial report of the Auxiliary showed receipts for the year amounting to $560, the Young Ladies' Mission Band receipts of $219, and the Willing Workers' Mission Band receipts of $115.

St. Andrew's Women's Auxiliary has been the banner auxiliary for the circulation of "The Messenger" in the Presbytery of Peterborough for the last three years.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Honorary President, Mrs. Wm Fowler; President, Mrs. Jas. Rollins; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Barns; 2nd Vice-President, Miss Craw; 3rd Vice-President, Mrs. Kerr; 4th Vice-President, Mrs. Jason Elliott; Secretary, Mrs. A. Weddell; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Donaldson; Treasurer, Mrs. (Dr.) McDougall; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. McNeely; Literature or Messenger Secretary, Mrs. W. Stevens; Pianist, Mrs. Wilgar. Executive—Mesdames Less, Grier, Laing, Weir, Johns and Moore.

"Peterborough-Picturesque" By A Well-Known Writer

KATHERINE HALE ENLIVENS AN INTERESTINC NARRATIVE WITH MANY WELL KNOWN LOCAL SCENES--A SUMMER VISITOR TO THE LAKES.

In the December issue of the "Canadian Home Journal", a bright publication published in Toronto growing better and stronger with every number, is an interesting article by Katherine Hale (Mrs. John Garvin) entitled "Peterboro — Picturesque and Progressive." Illustrations of St. John's Church, of the Market Square, of Isabella Valancy Crawford and Mrs. Catharine Parr Traill, enliven the narrative, much of the material for which was culled in conversation wth Mr. F. H. Dobbin by the talented authoress, herself a Canadian writer of note, and a constant summer visitor at Stoney Lake.

Much interesting incident of the pioneer days is included in the article, whose author quotes Susanna Moodie in 1832 in her "Roughing it in the Bush". "When I was a boy' says the ancient who drove Mrs. Moodie in that year to her home in Lakefield, "All this country for thirty miles on every side of us was bushland. As to Peterborough, the place was unknown. Not a settler had ever passed through the great Cavan swamp, and some of them believed that it was the end of the world."

The way out of the swamp was discovered by an old Scotch emigrant who, tired of losing his beasts in the dim impenetrable wilderness of trees, took a weeks' provisions, his axe and a bottle of whiskey and determined to press through. After spending some time in the swamp, lodging in the branches of great trees at night, crossing streams, killing snakes, wild cats and other enemies, and blazing his trail by day he finally saw daylight and found that instead of leading to the other world this was the preface to a beautiful country covered with oak and beech, his report of which led to the formation of the road and to the Settlement that afterwards came to be called Petrborough."

Adam Scott, a well-to-do miller from Edinborough, came up the Otonabee in a skiff in 1819 and erected the first log habitation. in 1826 came the immigaration party under Hon. Peter Robinson, in '30 another under care of Captain Charles Rubidge, and before that, in '31, the weavers from Warminster introduced " the clack of the hand loom into the land."

"In those early days", says the narrator, "there were three breweries and three distilleries, and it was possible to get "Best Home Distilled Upper Canada Whisky for one shilling the gallon or three pence the quart—not a headache in a quart." There were many Inns in Peterborough, and "there still exists a venerable rough-cast building that in its prime was known as "The Black Horse Inn". A famous drinking-place was that of Mrs. Rosie O'Neil, who once sold whiskey and did a laundry business on the site of the now enormous plant of the Quaker Oats Company. She had a personal pride in her professions, especially the Laundry, and said that woman's best gift to man was a clean shirt. She would sell liquor to none that were the worse of it, and on one occasion, repulsed a draught-seeking intruder with wash board so effectively that he departed wearing the board as a sort of ox-yoke".

"By the year 1858 Peterborough had so far progressed that it was visited by the Greatest Show on Earth, the Myers Brothers, and the two elephants were so huge that their tread was too mighty for the strength of the town bridge. Two years later came Albert Edward, Prince of Wales—and then the town felt quite grown up."

"The Market Square, as is the case in so many Canadian towns, has been the life, if not the soul of Peterborough. Situated very near the first wharfage of the river its location is that of the original habitations of the early settlers. To-day, as one looks over its wide spaces from the balcony of the excellent Empress Hotel, one sees a place that would be roomy for market purposes in a city twice its size. One hears the busy clamor of a thriving community, notes shops and stalls and offices lining two sides of the square and a row of faded houses marking the eastern boundary. One history bent interesting stories come out.

"That was the house where Isabella Valancy Crawford lived for years", says one. "This one harbored the wife of General Robert Lee during the days of the Civil War", says another.

The Christmas Dinner

In the good old days of long ago, Christmas, to the loving warm-hearted Southerner, was a time of happiness, indeed, and great were the preparations for this day, both in the cabin and in the mansion. It was then that Mammy Chloe came nto her own as she prepared the Christmas dinner. There were so many delicious things to eat; one had to make a choice. Our choice for the piece de resistance falls on planked chickens.

Planked Chickens. Use broilers or frying chickens for this purpose. Have the chickens split down the back and then remove the thigh and beast bones. Parboil the chickens for ten minutes; then broil them in the usual manner and lift them to a well-heated plank. Make a border of mashed potatoes; then, with a sharp knife, cut carrots and beets into flowers, and place a cornucopia filled with peas in each corner. Next, with a clean pastry brush, brush the potatoes and chickens with a well-beaten egg to glaze. Heat for ten minutes before serving.

To prepare the planking board for the chickens, soak in warm water for one hour; drain, wipe dry and place it in the oven to heat. This method prevents charring.

Christmas Pudding Cake. Recipes were family or neighborly affairs and were often handed down like heirlooms. Bake a sponge cake in either custard cups or deep muffin pans. When cold, cut a slice from the top and remove the crumbs of the cake, leaving just a wall of the sponge cake. Fill the center with custard made by stirring to dissolve one cupful of milk and seven tablespoonfuls of flour. Bring to a boil and cook for two minutes. Add six tablespoonfuls of sugar, the yolks of two eggs, seven preserved cherries cut into bits, two fingers of candied pineapple cut into tiny bits, six blanched almonds cut into bits and two pieces of candied ginger cut into bits. Mix, and then fill into the prepared cakes. Replace the tops and set aside to mold.

When ready to serve, cut into halves, showing the custard filling. Top with fruit meringue made of the white of one egg and half a glassful of apple jelly. Beat with and egg beater until the mixture holds its shape. Use a rose tub in a pastry bag and pile around and over the pudding. A large sponge cake may be made in place of the individual cakes and then cut and served in slices.

ROAST PIG DINNER

As the Pacific Coast housewife has usually "come from somewhere else" she has not established a typical dinner that is native to the Coast but she has put into the dinner she has eaten in other sections of the country the wonderful California fruits. Her dinner may be eaten without after-effects of discomfort.

California Fruit Cocktail. Put small canteloupe melons on ice until nearly frozen; cut them into halves scrape out the seeds and fill the halves with pineapple, oranges and red plums, cut into small, irregular pieces; add strawberries, and sprinkle sugar over all. Arrange a grape leaf on each plate, on which place the halved canteloupe.

Roast Sucking Pig. Wash the pig in cold water and wipe it thoroughly dry. Stuff it with finely grated bread crumbs, minced sage, chopped onion, chopped ham, gravy salt and pepper, mixed together and put in the body of the pig. Sew up the slit, and truss the legs back to allow the inside to be roasted and the under part to be crisp. Rub the pig with butter and baste with it very frequently while the pig is roasting. Serve with currant sauce, baked apples and roasted sweet potatoes.

ROAST TURKEY DINNER

A middle west dinner is likely to be also a reproduction of Christmas dinner "back home" and we are not suprised that we must suggest for that dinner two standbys, roast turkey with dry sausage stuffing and giblet gravy, and mince pie; with cranberry jelly on the side.

Roast Turkey. Select a young bird weighing about fourteen pounds dress, stuff and truss it. Place it on back in a roasting pan, put it into a moderate oven and baste frequently, using a quarter of a cupful of boiling water. A fourteen-pound turkey requires four to five hours for roasting.

Dry-Sausage Stuffing. Mix one loaf of fine bread crumbs, one cupful of finely cut celery, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one tablespoonful of finely chopped onion salt and cayenne pepper and three tablespoonfuls of finely chopped dry causage; add the liquid in which the giblets were cooked, sufficient to give the desired moisture. Add three tablespoonfuls of melted butter. Pack the stuffing in as solidly as possible. Sew up with deep stitches, and remove the stitches before serving. Serve on a large hot platter with sprays of holly to garnish.

Mince Pie. Mix and sift one cupful and a half of pastry flour with one teaspoonful of salt; add one-quarter of a cupful of pure leaf lard or vegetable shortening, and chop until the mixture resembles meal. Chill; add cold water to make a stiff paste. Roll the pastry an eight of an inch in thickness, cut it an eigth of an inch larger than the plate to be filled; spread it on plate wetting the edge of the crust with cold water; cover the wet edge with a strip of pastry half an inch wide. Fill plate with mincemeat; cover with pastry cut a quarter of an inch larger than plate; press the edges of the pastry firmly together; prick the top of the crust with fork. Place the pie in a hot oven at first, reducing the heat after the crust becomes hardened. Turn frequently while baking. Bake until a golden brown —for about forty-five minutes.

Look at the Modern Man

IT HAS BEEN SUGESTED THAT HE IS THE HEIR OF ALL THE AGES.

"It is very currently suggested that the modern man is the heir of all the ages, that he has got the good out of these successive human experiments. I know not what to say in answer to this, except to ask the reader to look at the modern man, as I have just looked at the modern man—in the looking-glass. Is it really true that you and I are two starry towers built up of all the most towering visions of the past? Have we really fulfilled all the great historic ideals one after the other, from our naked ancestor who was brave enough to kill a mammoth with a stone knife, through the Greek citizen and the Christian saint to our own grandfather or great grandfather, who may have been sabred by the Manchester yeomanry or shot in the '48? Are we still strong enough to spear mammoths, but now tender enough to spare them? Does the cosmos contain any mammoth that we have either spear er or spared? When we decline (in a marked manner) to fly the red flag and fire across a barricade like our grandfathers, are we really declining in deference to sociologists — or to soldiers? Have we indeed outstripped the warrior and passed the ascetical saint?

I fear we only outstrip the warrior in the sense that we should probably run away from him and if we have passed the saint, I fear we have passed him without bowing."—G. K. Chestedton.

LINGERIE FOR THE BRIDE.

Exquisite nightgowns for the winter bride have not a suggestion of lace or hand embroidery, but are ornamented with drawn thread patterns. These beautiful gowns are made of finest handkerchief linen, than which there is nothing more exclusive and distinguished for undergarments just now.

And if you have ever slept in a real linen nightie you know the luxurious feel of it. Such nightgowns for trousseaus have every stitch put in by hand; the hem is hand hemstitched, and at the top beautifully done drawn patterns define a small yoke or make charming trimming motifs on front and on sleeves.

The square neck opening and the straight sleeve edge are finished with hemstitched hems through which ribbon is drawn, or have drawn thread beadings for ribbon.

Sometimes a drawn thread beading is run straight around the gown, below the armhole line, and is threaded with an inch wide ribbon, giving a graceful Empire yoke effect.

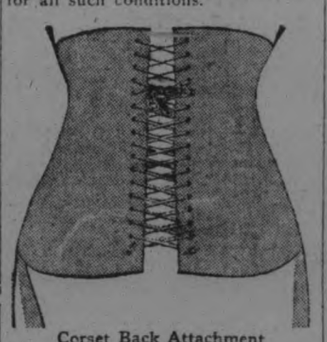
FREE TO RUPTURED WOMEN

If You Have a Large Navel Rupture or Have Suffered Rupture After an Operation Try My Plan Free.

Special Corset Attachment for Large Fleshy Women, Gives Neat Trim Figure, Holds Rupture Securely

Miss Braman, representing Wm. S. Rice, Inc., Adams, N. Y., has a special corset attachment that holds any rupture no matter how large. Even if the abdomen is very fleshy, it holds any rupture, with ease, comfort and security. Hundreds of women in Peterborough and vicinity are in need of just such a support as Miss Braman is able to supply. Experience has shown that many women are unable to wear a corset because of large Navel Ruptures or those following operations. The special surgical corset and rupture support combined is designed to care for all such conditions.



Corset Back Attachment Prevents All Cutting and Irritation.

Doubtless every woman who has been compelled to wear an ordinary truss or abdominal support knows the gouging, cutting and chaffing caused by narrow bands. The weight of the abdomen must be carried by the band around the back and the pressure is sometimes very great, causing untold suffering. The special broad supporting corset attachment does away with all cutting, chaffing and binding. It is light, flexible, durable, cool and fits the figure like a glove. It gives you a sense of absolute security and protection.

Miss Braman will be at the Empress Hotel, Peterborough, Ont., on December 16 and 17, to demonstrate this marvelous Support free to all women. She wants to fit it on you and prove to you that it is a great blessing to all rupture afflicted women. No matter what you have tried now is your opportunity to find out just what you require, and get the benefit of free personal application, by a competent lady expert.

Why be burdened with rupture and suffer the continual annoyance of wearing trusses if you don't have to? Why not use the Rice Method and prove to your entire satisfaction what results are possible in your case? Thousands have been able to throw away their trusses after a brief application of the Rice Method and there are thousands who are still suffering the tortures of rupture because they know not where to turn for relief. Miss Braman is in Peterborough to give all such women the benefit of her experience and knowledge of hernia and invites you to her private apartments at the Empress Hotel. Do not fail to get this free demonstration.

Remember, Miss Braman will be in Peterborough only two days, then your opportunity will be gone, so by all means don't fail to call and see this wonderful demonstration.

Daily from 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 evenings.

SONNET.

When I was far too young to comprehend,
My great grandfather one day talked to me
As if I were his wise and aged friend
And did not hold a new doll on my knee.
I can remember how his voice was kind;
But what he said I could not understand;
Only these words clung oddly in my mind;
"To burn out like a candle in God's hand."
What other words he uttered I forgot.
These are like rubies from a ring unrolled
That in my fingers wait to be re-set
When I learn better how to work with gold
Yet when he spoke them all I did was stare
And wonder at the whiteness of his hair.

IDEAS ABOUT FEMALE EDUCATION

"I am often solemnly asked what I think of the new ideas about female education. But there are no new ideas about female education. All the educational reformers did was to ask what was being done to boys and then go and do it to girls; just as if they asked what was being taught to young squires and then taught it to young chimney-sweeps. What they call new ideas are very old ideas in the wrong place. Boys play football, why shouldn't girls play football;—even a savage could see that bodily things, at least, which are good for a man are very likely to be bad for a woman. It is all a part of the same silly subjugation, there must be a hard stick-up collar round the neck of a woman, because it is already a nuisance round the neck of a man. Though a Saxon serf if he wore that collar of cardboard, would ask for his collar of brass.

It will then be answered, not without a sneer, "And what would you prefer? Would you go back to the elegant early Victorian female, with ringlets and smelling-bottle, doing a little in water colors, dabbling a little in Italian, playing a little on the harp, writing in vulgar albums and painting on senseless screens? Do you prefer that?" To which I answer, "Emphatically, yes." I solidly prefer it to the new female education, for this reason, that I can see in it an intellectual design, while there is none in the other. I am by no means sure that even in point of practical fact that elegant female would not have been more than a match for most of the intelligent females. I am not sure that the old great lady who could only stammer Italian was not more vigorous than the new great lady who can only stammer American; nor am I certain that the bygone duchwhen they painted Melrose Abbey, were so much more weak-minded then the modern duchesses who paint only their own faces, and are bad at that." —G. K. Chesterton

CAVENDISH ABHORRED WOMEN.

Men were a trouble and women were an abhorrence to Henry Cavendish, the eminent scientist who first demonstrated the composition of water. He communicated with his housekeeper only through notes placed on the table in the hall, and he allowed maids to work in his house only because he could not find men to handle the menial tasks. However, if any maid came within his sight he discharged her instantly and, after one or two chance encounters of this kind, he had a private staircase erected in his villa at Clapham.

In fact, the only case on record inwhich the scientist actually permitted himself to approach a woman was when he was one day taking a walk through the fields near his estate and he saw a bull pursuing a young and decidedly retty young woman from London. Evidently his chivalry overcame his prejudice against women, for Cavendish rushed forward and, at the peril of his life, helped the girl to escape. When she turned to thank him he refused to listen, and, clasping his hands over his ears, continued on his walk.

At the time of his death Cavendish owned $1,157,000 in different public funds, in addition to an income of $8,000 a year from his land and a bank balance of $50,000. This wealth was partly inherited and partly due to the fact that he never withdrew a penny from the bank once he had deposited it.

HINTS TO HOUSEWIVES

Veils should be rolled on a pasteboard roll and wrapped in tissue paper.

Bread for fancily shaped sandwiches should be sliced across the long way.

Unless it is necessary do not take the baby on a street car when a contagious disease is prevalent.

As soon as tongue is boiled tender it should have cold water run over it for a minute; then the skin will slip off easily.

A very easy and very delicious frosting for cake is made by adding maple syrup to confectioner's sugar until it is of the right consistency to spread on the cake.

You can add to the nutriment of vegetable soup by beating an egg in the soup tureen before pouring in the soup. Stir constantly while pouring soup over the egg. Frying to the soup will improve the the vegetables a little before addtaste.

To remove shine from a black dress, use ammonia and soap, one ounce of rock ammonia and half an ounce of white castile soap in a pint of hot water. When all dissolved, dip a small sponge into the mixture and gently rub over the shiny spots.

TWINING GREENS AT HOME.

To make evergreen rope use a strong dark green twine as foundation. Stretch it—as from door knob to door knob—and tie the sprigs of pine or fir at intervals of a couple of inches, using the same kind of twine as for the foundation. Small wire hoops or wooden ones colored dark green with paint or dye form the foundation for very pretty Christmas galands. When touches of red berries or other brilliant foliage are introduced in them they make unusually attractive and inexpensive decorations. Keep in a cool, damp place until they are needed.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN.

Every girl graduate from Bryn Mawr College must be able to swim.

The latest fad among English girls is that of having somebody's picture painted on their ankle.

Philadelphia is to have a symphony orchestra, entirely composed of women, with the exception of the conductor.

London society was given quite a shock when it was announced that Lady Clonmell had opened a laundry. The Countess now has her establishment in operation and employs many girl workers.

Mrs. Ralph Smith, member in the British Columbia legislative council and the first woman Cabinet member in the British Empire, has resigned, stating that she felt she could no longer assume responsibility for acts of the government.

WHAT CAUSES GAS ON THE STOMACH

It is caused by fermenting, sour, waste matter in the intestines. This old, foul matter should be thoroughly cleaned out with simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing old accumulated matter you never thought was in your system. Adler-i-ka relieves ANY CASE gas on the stomach. EXCELLENT for sour stomach and chronic constipation. Guards against appendicitis. McDermid and Jury and E. L. Payne, druggists.

The minister who says women's freedom is sanctioned by the Bible took his text from "Revelations."

Strength

Strength of muscle does not indicate strength of nerves. On this account many people who look healthy enough suffer from nervous troubles and cannot understand what is ailing them. Sleeplessness and irritability are among the early symptoms. Indigestion and tired feelings soon follow.

Read this letter from an Ontario man:

Mr. W. L. Gregory, Charles St. E., Ingersoll, Ont., writes:

"I had been troubled for quite a while with indigestion. At times there would be a twitching of the nerves of my stomach; and I also found it difficult to get a good night's sleep. I am a moulder, and owing to the nature of my work my system became run-down. I took a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found great benefit from this medicine. They did me a great deal of good. I have not been bothered at all with indigestion since, and can sleep much better. I have recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to many of my friends, as I think it splendid for anyone run-down and needing a tonic."

LAST NIGHT OF BAZAAR

It was the last night of the bazaar in the Market Hall. One child was a well-washed, curled darling, in inexpensive suit and gold-laced cap. He wanted something, he wasn't quite sure what—another toy, some more candy, another ice-cream cone. He was cross, and big tears rolled down his fat cheeks as he leaned against his mother's fur coat. When she reproved him gently, he kicked viciously at the chair-leg.

The other was a ragged urchin, with frayed, dangling cuffs, dirty, shirtless suit, and broken boots. A hole showed in either stocking. He grinned up at us, a wide smile broken by two missing teeth, from a soiled face badly in need of a hanky.

"Look what I got," he said, a dirty little fist clutching a one-armed doll. "For me little sister," he said.

Someone gave him a dime, and he invested it at the candy counter. The young lady was generous, and gave him a box half-filled with fudge. Two other youngsters with him had a piece each, he had one, and then the box went into a gaping pocket. There are lots of little brothers and sisters in this kiddie's home.

We met him a good deal later. When the hall was dismantled, he had collected numerous odds and ends of trimming, pieces of red paper, strips of tinsel, a red bell, and was carrying them triumphantly home on a broad white box-top: "Me mudder will like them for Christmas," he jubilantly announced, and inquired if we were going his way, "over the bridge and then around the corner."

With a last broad grin, and extended arms stiffly supporting the heaped-up cardboard cover, he vanished into the darkness, supremely happy with his broken doll, his candy and his frayed odds and ends of Christmas decorations.

GERMANS DEVELOP A "SCREEN HUMOUR."

An Effort to Capture the Motion Picture Trade.

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—(By Associated Press.)—German motion picture film manufacturers have perfected a co-operative organization one of the prime purposes of which is to capture the European trade held by American producers. In the effort to compete with the American film the Germans are endeavoring to develop a "screen humor," which heretofore has been lacking in their productions. Virtually all Teuton films, until recently, have dealt only with historical legendary and romantic subjects.

Some of the more ambitious German companies have engaged American directors and are striving to put American "pep" into their plays, to meet home consumption as well as export demands, for American films smuggled into the country during the last several months when importations were forbidden proved surprisingly popular.

A survey of the world film markets by interested Germans disclosed American films were more popular than any others in Italy, England, Scandinavia and the Balkans, which led to a discussion of what was wrong with the German technique. The concensus of opinion seemed to be that the American films were "better handled" and were sprinkled generally with a lively humor.

This verdict was sharply criticized, however, by a number of German producers who hold to the opinion that German technique is bound to prevail over the "slap-stick comedy" and the "silly sentimental things produced only to show rows of white teeth and a smile."

The Germans early made an effort to compete in the American home market, and succeeded until recently in disposing of 300 expensive films, which, however, are still being held for release. An effort toward co-operation between American and German producers, begun several months ago, appeared to stumble over the problem of cost and the uncertainty of the value of German money which made making of contracts difficult.

Average costs of German films ranges between half a million and eight hundred million marks, although two or three films have been produced at a cost approximating ten million marks each.

Producers complain of their inability to secure good manuscripts, and at the same time admit they are unable to pay for new talent, which is being contracted in foreign countries. This and the fact that America is said to have a virtual monopoly of raw films is handicapping the Germans in their announced purposing of capturing the world film market.

The 72 firms which are co-operating announces, however, an increase in exports of finished films, which amounted in 12 months to 27,000,000 marks.

Motion picture houses in Germany also are reported increasing in popularity, the number having reached 3,731 with a daily attendance of 22,000,000. England has 3,000 and France 2,400 motion picture theaters.

CHINA TO GET JUSTICE OPINION OF GEN CHEN

Satisfied Washington Conference Will Deal Fairly With Far Eastern Questions

VANCOUVER, B.C., Dec. 15.—Before sailing on the Empress of Asia from here Brigadier-General T. C. Chen, of the Chinese Republican Army, Peking, was quoted as having expressed the opinion that China will get justice from the Washington Far Eastern Conference. "I think, though", he said "it is very hard to say what is actually happening behind the closed doors of the gathering, so profound is the secrecy which surrounds everything".

General Chen was described as having all the delightful manners of his ancient race—and nowhere is politeness esteemed a greater virtue than in China. To all questions he gives polite attention, but his answers manage to circle round the original query without quite answering it. Oriental reticence is personified in General Chen.

General Chein crossed from China with the delegation to the Washington Conference in the capacity of guide, philosopher and friend. He was educated at the United States Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., and his knowledge of American customs and the English language led to his appointment. When he had safely delivered the delegates into the hands of the Chinese Embassy at Washington his labors ceased and he is hurrying back to Peking to resume his military command.

It was twelve years ago that General Chen graduated from West Point. On his return to China his active soldiering began. After several years' duty with his regiment, General Chen was appointed to the Chinese mission accredited to the Allied armies on the western front during the world war.

For his services with the Chinese mission he was awarded the Military Cross by the British authorities It is one of General Chen's proud memories that he was decorated at Buckingham Palace by the King in person.

Accompanying General Chen on the Empress of Asia are the Hon. T. Y. Teng, a graduate of Columbia University, and Minister of Education of the Chinese Republic. Mr. Teng has also been acting as interpreter to the Chinese delegation. A secretary and two Chinese military orderlies completed the party.

HELIUM USED SUCCESSFULLY IN U.S.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 14.—By three flights with her bag filled with helium, the big navy dirigible C-7 has proved that the newly discovered gas can be used by lighter-than-air flying machines. Helium is non-inflammable.

The helium used in inflating the C-7 is the product of the government plant at Fort Worth. Helium can be made in commercial quantities only from the oil obtained from certain wells in Oklahoma and Texas fields, and the United States, if necessary, can prevent other nations from obtaining it and thus possess great military advantage over them. The plant at Fort Worth, which cost several million dollars, was built during the war and is now under the joint operation of the army and navy. Helium is separated from the other gases in the oil by means of complicated refrigerating apparatus and the process is costly. The high cost of the gas, according to aviators, is its only drawback.

HUN WATER FLARE FOUND IN FOREST.

Dropped From Zeppelin at Deeside, Scotland.

LONDON, December 12.—A German water flare has been found in Mar Forest, Seeside. Flares of this type were dropped by Zeppelins to enable the commander to ascertain whether he was flying over land or water.

This particular flare, which was found by a ghillie and handed by him to the Prince of Wales, who sent it on to the Air Ministry, was no doubt dropped by the ill-fated Zeppelin L20, which left Germany with nine other airships on the morning of May 2, 1916. The L20 crossed the coast of Scotland at Lunan Bay and flew on past Montrose, where it turned inland, and flew past Brechin over the Forest of Mar and within 15 miles of Balmoral. It crossed the Monadhliath Mountains and the Caledonian Canal. It then altered its course and flew east by north and dropped four bombs in the north of Aberdeenshire, and recrossed the coast near Cruden Bay.

Over the North Sea the L20 met heavy winds and was driven against high land at Sandnaes in Norway, on the morning of May 3. The airship was badly injured and fell into a fiord and sank. Her commander was Captain-Lieutenant Stabert.

The Tobacco with a heart

An Ounce of Prevention

By MARIAN SACHS.

"Yes, dear, Santa Claus will come quite early this time, for he has many children to visit, and, of course, it wouldn't do for my little girl to be caught awake." So little Margaret kissed her Daddy good night, and, although her big blue eyes were already heavy with slumber, reluctantly suffered herself to be led upstairs to bed. Daddy's significant wink to Edward, the big brother of eight summers, served to remind the latter that, though he had his private notions about "Santy," he wanted to be up real early for the fun that Christmas morning promised in the Roberts' home. When the children had gone, Harvey Roberts found the warm hearth in the library before which he lounged a comfortable refuge after a trying day. The glowing embers reflected the grateful warmth in his heart for the peace he now enjoyed, and as he gazed dreamily into the fire the activities of the day spread themselves, a panoramic picture, before his mind. So many things had crowded in at the last moment. The Evans contract had barely gotten off, and with a thousand other things to be cleared up, Jones, the insurance man, had come to see him about insurance. Of all days of the year, thought he, to come doling out tales of misery—the folly of unfortunates who found their graves early, the hardship of widows, the sufferings of orphans. Great Scott! whatever misfortune the world held, surely one banished thoughts of sorrow on Christmas Eve!

"Are you going to be long, Edith?" he called to his wife upstairs, for, of course, the tree was still to be trimmed and other arrangements completed for the kiddies' enjoyment on the morrow. The faint reply from above, however, told him that, though the other two children were asleep, little Margaret was not yet in the grip of the Sandman. So Harvey settled himself deeper in the cushions of his armchair, and all was silent save for the "tick, tock" of the clock in the hall.

The snow had gathered in a heavy drift on the window sill outside, covering a good-sized corner of the window pane, and except for the feeble glow from the oil lamp on the rickety table, seemed the only bright spot in the scantily furnished cheerless room. A blue-eyed little girl of perhaps four years sat at one end of the table, whose humble setting promised a meagre repast for three. Facing her sat a pale little woman who crooned her youngest baby to sleep while seeking to stem the tide of eager chatter which poured from the little mouth opposite.

The child's question, "Mother, dear, Santy won't forget us, will he, even if Daddy isn't here?" had unloosed a flood of emotion, and a sob long repressed broke from the mother's lips. Her faltering reply served temporarily to calm the little girl's anxiety, but the mother's thoughts rambled on.

How hard a blow Harvey's death had been to her, no one could ever realize. But added to the sorrow that endless time would not assuage, the material suffering forced upon her and the children seemed well nigh unendurable. It was the old, old story—a young father, devoted to his loved ones, cut down in the flush of manhood. His radiant hopes for the future had blinded him to the immediate necessity of providing against that ever-present emergency, and though Jones, the insurance agent, had pleaded with him earnestly, he was constantly put off until a "more convenient time." So when the fatal hour struck, it found him unprepared.

After the immediate expenses following the catastrophe had been cleared, practically nothing remained. And so this Christmas Eve—how different from those other years!—found Edith awaiting the return of their new bread-winner, her brave little boy, whose pitiable earnings served to sustain the little family.

"There's Ed now," said Margaret, just as the door opened and a little chap, his dinner pail in his hand and a smile lighting up his face, put in his head and called, "MERRY CHRISTMAS!"

"Harvey, I'm sorry to wake you, but we have to unpack that box of toys for the children"—and a second gentle prod from Edith brought Harvey Roberts back to grateful consciousness. Rubbing his eyes, he looked about him in half bewilderment. "Thank God," he thought, and a sigh of relief escaped him, "it was only a dream!"—and aloud: "Yes, I was very tired, Edith, and I guess I dozed while you were putting the children to bed. By the way, dear, that insurance agent Jones has been after me so long, I'm going to call him up and give him a nice fat application as a little Christmas remembrance. He deserves it."

PRINCESS MARY ENGAGED TO PEER

Princess Mary, only daughter of King George and Queen Mary of Great Britain, whose engagement to Lord Lacelles, eldest son of the Earl of Harewood, has been announced. Princess Mary is 24 years of age and at various times in the past few years has been reported engaged to nearly all the eligible scions of royalty in Europe. Her selection of a peer, therefore, came as a distinct surprise but it has made her more popular than ever with the people of her country.

BURNABY RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF U.F.O.

Would Not Accept Office But For Criticisms Aimed at Him.

W. A. Ames Again Organization's Choice for Vice-President.

TORONTO, Dec. 15.—(By Canadian Press.)—R. W. E. Burnaby was re-elected President and W. A. Ames re-elected Vice-President of the United Farmers of Ontario at their meeting in Massey Hall to-day. President Burnaby told the delegates that under normal circumstances he favored the office-seeking man and would not seek re-election, but for the criticism "that has been directed against me by Dr. Farewell and others."

Hits at the Press.

In explaining his withdrawal from candidature for Vice-President, R. H. Halbert, M.P.-elect, declared that J. J. Morrison was one of the men chiefly responsible for the elevation of Mr. Drury to the Premiership. After stating that the press had given much attention to "how much farmers' organizations put into the late election," Mr. Halbert said he saw it reported that Mr. Crerar was to accept the portfolio of railways. But I venture to say his backbone is stiffer than that," he said. "What we want to do is to educate people not to believe all they see in the papers."

Line Up Orangemen.

Mr. Halbert attacked Horatio Hocken, and said that he wos seeking to line up Orangemen behind the Conservatives. "He would drag the Orange flag in the mud if he could restore the Conservative party," he declared.

Hospital for Sick Children

COLLEGE ST., TORONTO.

Through Support of Public, Ontario Maintains Greatest Children's Hospital on This Continent.

Dear Mr. Editor:—

Nowadays people look ahead more than they used to. They realize, for instance, that the child of to-day is the citizen of the future. The privilege of this Hospital is to provide a service whereby any Ontario child, who is weakly, may be made strong, or if he is crippled, may be set straight.

Part of this service consists of personal medical and surgical care of the children. Part is in the schooling of doctors and nurses to carry the light of medical science into the uttermost corners of the province.

The whole is a contribution to CHILD WELFARE work which must commend the Hospital to the sympathy and support of your readers.

You probably saw a Quebec despatch deploring the great infant mortality in that province. One great factor which gives the Ontario-born child so much better a chance in life is the maintenance of public philanthropy of the leading Hospital for children on this continent. And that child, whether it be pallid of cheek or crooked of limbs, is helped over the rough spots of infancy and adolescence by this same Hospital. Here are the average day's figures of 1921 attendance:—

Cot patients	268
Other patients	158
Total	426

During the year the Hospital actually saves the lives of scores upon scores of children. It restores health or straightens limbs for hundreds more. Every contributor to the Hospital funds is a shareholder in an enterprise which wins back health and happiness for thousands of children, and thereby gives joy to thousands of anxious homes.

Remember, however, that every child to whom the Hospital's doors are opened—and none are refused—adds something to the financial burden which the GREAT MOTHER CHARITY has to carry. But it has never defaulted on its dividends, which are paid not in money, but in service.

The continued service of the Hospital depends on the continued support of the public. A minute of mercy costs fifty cents, and the clock in the treasurer's ofice is six months slow. So there are a lot of minutes to catch up.

The Hospital is accomplishing fifty per cent. more work than before the war. Owing to higher prices it requires almost twice the money. May I place that simple but serious fact before your readers in connection with the 46th Christmas appeal of the Hospital for Sick Children for funds to carry on another year of service?

Faithfully yours,

IRVING E. ROBERTSON,
Chairman of Appeal Committee

A. MALLINSON DEAD — WAS WELL KNOWN IN CITY.

The leading local carpet merchants received notice yesterday from John Crossley & Sons, Limited, the great carpet manufacturers of Halifax, England, of the very sudden death of their Mr. Arthur Mallinson, on Monday, 21st November.

Mr. Mallinson for the past forty years had paid semi-annual visits in the firm's interests to Peterborough, where he enjoyed the warm friendship of many citizens. His last visit here was late in October of this year.

5 REASONS WHY?

The 8% Preferred Stock of the Gallagher Remedy Co., Limited, Peterborough, Ont. is one of the best Investments on the Market To-day.

1st—Large profits have always been made on a remedy which meets with popular favor and stays on the market year after year. We have proven our lines to be in this class.

2nd—Ours is not a promotion but a going concern—no plant to build, no expensive machinery to be installed, no high-salaried officials or expensive offices to eat into the capital; all proceeds to go to purchasing goods for manufacture or for carrying accounts.

3rd—No commissions have been paid to market stock, all being sold from the office, thus making a saving of at least 25% of capital.

4th—The goodwill of a popular patent medicine increases each year, reaching in some cases up to millions; it is a most liquid asset and cannot be burned or destroyed.

5th—We have underwritten all our Common Stock at par, $100.00 per share, for either cash or its equivalent, no bonus, no water. This $20,000.00 stands as a protection to our preferred shareholders. The fact that we are getting $100.00 cash per share for our common stock should make our preferred stock as safe as a first mortgage. Money at 8% will double itself in about twelve years, simple interest.

OPPORTUNITIES for EXPANSION are Opening up sensationally fast, as at the present time a Splendid Selling Agency at Montreal, with fifty to sixty travellers, covering Quebec and Maritime Provinces, are arranging to push our Goods actively in that Territory. Our Sales for the past Six Days are over $450.00—and we have hardly had time to get a start as yet.

Our FIELD OF OPERATION is Limited only by our Capital. Therefore, we offer which is the Last we shall put on the Market.

150 Shares of our 8% Cumulative Preferred Stock at $100.00 per Share, for immediate sale.

Anyone familiar with the Profits on a Popular Patent Medicine knows that it will be no strain on the resources of the Company to pay this Dividend promptly and continuously. If you know a Good Thing when you see it, Act Promptly.

NATIONAL LEAGUE WILL TRY TO PUT LOCK ON MONEY BAG OF GIANTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—"Trim the geen-backs wings of the Giants.'

This slogan is behind the only battle that looms up to ruffle the placid wasters of the National league at its annual meeting here.

Charles Ebbets the thrifty squire of Flatbush, is expected to open the movement to put a lock on the money bags of the world's championions.

Backed by John Haydler, president of the league, Barney Dreyfus and Sam Breadon, it is reported that Ebbets will make an effort to have the leage set a maximum price on bush leaguers.

Ebbets has let it be known that he doesn't want the price high, either.

More moves in the financial way ae expected.

Down the river at St. Louis, Sam Breadon and Branch Rickey have what is known as the 'knothole club' all youngsters are admitted free to the Card games, except on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. They occupy a section of the bleachers otherwise would be vacant on week days.

Ebbets and Dreyfus, it is understood, want the charter of the "knot hole club" revoked. They don't like the idea of the visiting club not getting a cut out of those admissions. also, the say that the "knot-hole club" makes too much noise, thereby upsetting the poise and equilibrium of their tempermental diamond prima donnas, in many cases causing them to lose ball games.

"Just let 'em try to keep those "kids" out of the park! Breadon said today.

Those magnates with a great love for money may instruct Hoydler to go to the mat with Judge Landis at the meeting of the advisory board, if the commissioner says anything like reducing the size of the world's series.

Hot Shots on Sport

Without wasting any preliminary wind-up we nominate our candidate for this important office on the spot: James Thorpe, of Carlisle, Copenhagen and all points east or west.

Thorpe is the greatest all-round athlete that the world has ever known, in so far as the quivering finger of scientific research can locate all leading candidates.

As a football player he could punt, drop-kick or place-kick with the best.

He could run an end or hit a line with the best.

He could forward pass or handle a forward pass with the best.

And he was one of the greatest defensive players in the game, a hard, sure tackler who rarely missed his man.

Add to this the greatest durability in football, a man of iron who never took out time in his college career, and you have in Jim Thorpe the greatest piece of all-round football flesh ever known. That's merely one station.

As an Olympic star he came back with a trunk full of medals. They may have taken them away later, but he was the one who earned them on the field.

He was a sprinter, a jumper, a weight-thrower, a hurdler—the world's all-around athletic champion in 1912.

As a baseball player he was good enough to reach the big league and stay there for quite a spell.

He wasn't the greatest ball player that ever lived, but he was good. A fine outfielder and star base-runner; he hit above .300 in more than one campaign.

Who is there on the docket to beat this amazing combination at football, baseball, field and track?

Elmer Oliphant, of Purdue and West Point, is his closest rival. Oliphant possibly may have added one or two additional sports. But he was never able to reach the same heights in track, field or baseball, nor was he as versatile in football.

If Jim Thorpe doesn't head the list for all-round athletic greatness, we pause for a reply.

"A tree, proved to be 4,000 years of age, is now the oldest thing in the world," notes an editorial contemporary. We know at least three golf alibis that are twice that old.

"Has this nation gone money mad?" queries an exchange. Not at all. Look at the untold millions who have declined to make a million dollars by knocking out Jack Dempsey.

There is still an earnest debate on in some quarters as to whether a superman will ever come along and run 100 yards in 9 seconds flat.

It may not carry a reasonable trend, but who would have suggested five years ago that some ballplayer would pop out capable of making 59 home runs in a single major league season?

Nine seconds flat may belong to a future generation, but it would not be surprising to see the old mark cut down to 9 2-5 seconds within a year or two or three. And that wouldn't be as upsetting to tradition as the fifty-nine home runs.

After spending seven years in the cellar, Connie Mack denies that he has bought the place for permanent habitation. If he can find any other suitable location he won't even renew his lease for another year. But you know how badly crowded the better locations are these days.

Golf consists of only two simple details—learning how not to get into a bunker, and, when you do, learning how to get out. By mastering these two amiable points, the rest of it is ridiculously simple.

The Ottawa Journal says: "Long Jim" Merrick, of Toronto, went out of his way to slap the Falcons in the face over the fact that they demanded $3.50 a day for expenses on their trip to Antwerp. Falcons were one of the few Canadian representatives that made any kind of a showing justifying Canadian entry into the Olympic sports. Merrick moved that they should all be professionalized, but his confreres were road-minded enough to give him the merry giggle. We doubt if Merrick lived within that amount when he was there. The cost of living in Belgium was and is much higher than here, and that sum is worth only half the value there that it is on this side.

From here, we don't know whether the Government paid Merrick's way over, but we hope not. What particular good he did Canada by accompanying the team is hard to figure. Amateur sport moguls should tell "Long Jim" to go and hide in a load of hay.

Billy Hewitt brought the Falcons over, and Billy made a wonderful fist of it, as he does of everything he tackles. The Falcons brought honor to Canada, as did Earl Thompson and Bert Schneider. The rest hardly figured in the picture. The Falcons won the world's hockey title, and that was some win. Yet Merrick wants to show his appreciation of their efforts by wanting them professionalized. These parochial sportsmen are the only ones who take themselves at their own valuation.

SPORT GOSSIP

In the event of the local Collegiate being inable to accept the challenge of the Cod boys attending Toronto Universities; for a game of hockey during the holidays, the Young Men's Club of the Y.M.C.A. will take up the gauntlet and give the Old Boys a game.

Great interest is being manifested by the boys of the Y.M.C.A. in the Junior School Indoor Baseball League which is now being played off. There are four teams in the League and the schedule which is double, will be finished in the first half, before the Holiday season. At the conclusion of the League the Cup symbolic of the Junior School Championship will be awarded the team declared winner. The teams in the League line up as follows:—

Hurons— Sturgeon, R., Capt.; C. Ash, A. Baird, M. Parrington, S. Cotton, K. Graham, Hutchinson, Kennedy, Weston, G. Neville, Chambers, Fraser.

Algonquins—G. Morphet, Capt., H. Cranfield, E. McGee, R. Dixon, H. Dormer, H. Bannon, W. Austen, D. Clarke, G. Morrison, R. Cowan, P. Mowry.

Iroquois—G. Pogue, Capt. B. Allin, J. McClennan, F. Elcombe, M. Hartley, Ted Graham, A. Mervin, B. Williams, H. Pullyblank, L. Pullyblank K. McDonald.

Chippewas—D. Robertson, Capt. Coleman, E. Fowler, D. Gardiner, J. Wilson, Dundas, R. Adair, R. Tuck, M. Mesley, W. McDonald.

The play of December 7th resulted in a win for the Hurons over the Algonquins and for the Iroquois over the Chippewas. Play is close and every boy is on the job in this winter equivalent of the great American pastime.

On Saturday, there will be a double-header played, the Hurons clash with the Iroquois and the Algonquins with the Chippewas.

BAN IS LIFTED FROM ONTARIO HOCKEY PLAYER

Herbert Drury, Now With Pittsburg, Placed in Good Standing.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15—(By Canadian Press).—Herbert Drury of Ontario, member of the Pittsburgh Hockey Team, has been placed in good standing by the officials of the United States Amateur Hockey Association, and will appear in the Pittsburgh lineup hereafter, according to an announcement by the team management.

Drury, who was a member of the ympic hockey team, has been unable to appear with the Pittsburgh outfit this season, owing to some misunderstanding with the Ontario Hockey Association. Following a strong appeal made by the United States Association, the ban against the player was lifted whereby he may enter contest under an agreement with the Canadian Amateur Hocyey Association.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE CAPITOL.

Today, the Capitol Offers Two Good Vaudeville Acts—Re-engagement of Dainty Dorothy Waters the Clever Little Film Star—also Daly and Farrince, Wonderful Harmony Singers—Big Picture Program.

Today and for the balance of this week with a big special Saturday matine for children; two splendid vaudeville acts, re-engagement of the clever little film star, dainty Dorothy Waters, in songs dances etc., the cleverest little child entertainer ever seen in this city is the verdict of the thousands of people who have already seen her, a special Saturday matinee will be given for children and every boy and girl in this city should be afforded an opportunity to see this clever little wonder child and meet her face to face. "Daly and Larrivee," another big double act, known as the boys with the Grand Opera voices, tehy possess splendid high tenor voices and know how to use them, in songs, from Grand Opera to Jazz.

"The Man Who," by Lloyd Osborne, which will be remembered by Saturday Evening Post readers as one of the most delightful stories of many reasons, has been made into a motion picture by Arthur Zellner and will be presented at the Capitol commencing today.

It is a Maxwell Karger production Metro starring Bert Lytell in the role of Beddy Mills, the New York bank clerk who tried to become the Man Who Broke the Shoe Trust.

Beddy's ambition to become a Man Who inspired by desire to win the favor of Helen Jesson, daughter of an old New York family, who has no use for men who were just "nice and ordinary." So Beddy decides to go about faultlessly dressed, except that his feet are always bare as a protest against the high price of shoes. Going barefoot into exclusive social circles produces amusing complications and inspires a national barefoot campaign.

Bert Lytll's supporting company includes Lucy Cotton as Helen Jessop; Virginia Valli, as Mary Turner; the shoe magnate's daughter who loves Beddy in spite of everything; Frank Currier, as St. John Jessop, the old New York, artistocrat, and Tammany Young, Fred Warren, Clarence J. Elmer, William Roselle, Mary Louise Beaton and Frank Strayer in the other roles.

The photography is by Arthur Martinelli and the art interiors by M. P. Staulcup.

FAN—FAN

AT THE ROYAL.

Come with us, gentle reader, to that land of the horned toad, the Gila monster, and the rattle snake and see, at the Royal Theatre, the first super-feature western picture ever produced, and it was filmed right in the heart of that high strip of desolation called the Majave desert. To produce this thrilling story a small army, including the 11th U.S. cavalry fought their way through sand storms and thirst to secure exact results. Harry Carey, the celebrated actor, gained the ambition of his life when he appeared in this stupendous undertaking. To produce this picture hundreds of pounds of that awful product of the late war, the explosive that destroyed Halifax harbor, T.N.T., was used. A bridge is entirely shot away by concentration of machine gun fire. Harry Carey, as the hero, rescues his sweetheart from a band of lawless outlaws, but after nerve wracking exploits and hard fighting the story ends happily, and licence and parson combined were in order. To-day's comedy and drama are all of exceptional merit. In addition to a programme that no other theatre in Canada produces at three times the price of admission, our readers should remember that the Royal is locally owned and operated and that the box office receipts remain here and are spent in Peterboro.

BASEBALL STARS ARE PRICED HIGH.

$175,000 Paid For Two Players For Giants.

NEW YORK, December 12. — At the height of his playing career John J. McGraw, then a member of the Baltimore Club, was sold with two other star baseball players to the St. Louis team for the sum of $15,000.

This month the same John J. McGraw, as vice-president of the New York National League Baseball Club, has paid the sum of $175,000 for two players, one of whom will not be available for the Giants until the beginning of the 1923 season.

In the spread of these two deals is epitomized the progress of baseball in two decades.

In the purchase of Heinie Groh from Cincinnati for the reported sum of $100,000 and two players and Jimmy O'Connell, of the San Francisco Club of the Pacific Coast League for $75,000, McGraw has clinched his claim to being the greatest baseball trader in the history of the game. In his long career as manager and officer of the local National League club he has established a record as a buyer and trader of players never approached by any other major league manager. A list of all the players bought, sold and traded by McGraw since he joined the Giants would read like the roster of a big league.

Aptly termed the "David Harum" of baseball, McGraw has also earned the reputation of a "one season trader". To win a pennant within six or twelve months has been his objective. Players were obtained to fill a present and pressing need with the idea that they could be disposed of later when the requirements of the moment no longer existed. The development of youngsters over a period of years to bloom as sensational stars later, is foreign to McGraw's plans and temperament although he has been known to hold a promising prospect for several seasons drilling and coaching him for a permanent berth but these are exceptions.

In spending $175,000 for two players, however, McGaw appears in a new light for he has in the past traded in blocks of players rather than large sums of cash. The purchase of O'Connell at $75,000 establishes a new record for a minor league player and viewed in the light of past trading performances the question arises in the minds of baseball fans what will be McGaw's limit if he turns his attention to cash purchases. His two deals in Buffalo place him in the high water mark class, so far as money involved is concerned, as is shown by the attached list of cash deals based upon figures unofficially announced at the time of transfers:

$75,000 - $100,000 — "Babe" Ruth (Boston A. to New York A.) Heinie Groh (Cincinnati N. to New York N.) Jimmy O'Connell (San Francisco P.C. to New York N.)

$50,000 - $75,000 — Tris Speaker (Boston A. to Cleveland A.) Eddie Collins (Philadelphia A. to Chicago A.) Carl Mays (Boston A. to New York A.) Alexander and Kilefer (Philadelphia N. to Chicago N.) Schang, Bush, Strunk (Philadelphia A. to Boston A.) and Gregg, Thomas, Kopf (Boston A. to Philadelphia A.)

$15,000 - $25,000 — Marty O'Toole (St. Paul A.A. to Pittsburgh N.) Larry Chappelle (Milwaukee A. A. to Chicago A.) George Tyler (Boston N. to Chicago N.) McGraw, Robinson, Keister (Baltimore N. to St. Louis N.)

$10,000 - $15,000 — Rube Marquard (Indianapolis A. A. to New York N.) Fritz Maisel (Baltimore I. to New York A.) Lefty Russell (Baltimore G. to Philadelphia A.) Cy Seymour (Cincinnati N. to New York N.)

TWO HOCKEY CLUBS ARE CLAIMING BOUCHER.

Has Collected on His Contract With Ottawas, but Canadiens Say He's Their Property.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 15.—(Canadian Press.)—Notwithstanding the claims of the Canadiens as reported in last night's despatches from Montreal, the Ottawa hockey club evidently has no intention of giving up its claim to Frank Boucher, whom the Canadiens contend is their property. Manager Dandurand of the Habitants, has ordered Boucher to report to Montreal, but the youngster himself wants to remain with Ottawa.

"Boucher isn't French at all," said Secretary Gorman, of the Ottawa Club, to-day. "He can't even speak French. We reserved last spring and he is under contract to us. He has taken money on his contract and we do not intend to let Canadiens have him. It is a wonder that Dandurand does not claim George Boucher as well. Perhaps he thinks Clancy is all French. Boucher is going to Hamilton with our squad Friday night and will certainly play there."

Frank Nighbor has reported to the Ottawa club and figured in a lively practice at the arena. The great centre man is already in good shape. The Ottawas are also negotiating for Jack Darragh and he may also be in uniform for the opening game at Hamilton Saturday night.

Frank Clancy, whom the Ottawas say is the best youngster developed in many seasons, signed his contract to-day, though many amateur teams were after him. He will replace Sprague Cleghorn on the defence and help out with Gerard and Boucher. If the Ottawas land Darragh they will be almost up to last year's strength.

MILLER MUGGINS, MGR. OF NEW YORK CLUB.

Signs Up for One Year in the American Baseball League.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.— (Canadian Press.)—The New York American League Club has announced that Miller Huggins had signed his name to a one-year's manager contract.

Draft Rule Again.

The National League, in the final session of its meeting, adopted unanimously a resolution offered by Garry Herrmann, of the Cincinnati Club authorizing President Heydler to place before his colleagues of the advisory council a suggestion for the re-institution of the draft rule.

This resolution was adopted in place of that offered by Charles H. Ebbets, of the Brooklyn Club, proposing a boycott, insofar as the purchase of players was concerned, from all leagues not subscribing to the draft.

REMINDING HIM

The Bookkeeper—Excuse me for mentioning it, but I haven't had a raise in four years. How about it, chief?

The Boss—Not a raise in four years? Haven't I been raising your expectations every year snce you've been with me?

SALTS IN HOT WATER CLEARS PIMPLY SKIN

Says we must make kidneys clean the blood and pimples disappear.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generally in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities ad clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

TICKET 396 GETS PRIZE IN GUESSING CONTEST
In connection with the guessing contest for the bust of the late Sir John A. MacDonald, which was offered as a prize at the bazaar in aid of the extension to St. Joseph's Hospital, to the person guessing the nearest number to the majority of the successful candidate in the recent election, Ticket No. 396 gets the prize. The holder of this ticket estimated Mr. Gordon's majority as 2160, coming within 11 of the correct number; 2158.

The ballot box was opened yesterday by Mr. Paul E. Trebilcock and Mr. M. J. Maher, the latter taking the place of the Mayor, who is out of town. In the many hundreds who competed, this was the nearest number, and the holder of Ticket No. 396 may get the bust on application to Mr. Trebilcock, at his store.

Society

The many friends of Mr. Roger Torpey will be glad to know that he is improving rapidly after undergoing an operation for appendicitis last week at St. Josephs Hospital.

On Tuesday evening of this week, Miss Edwina Palmer gave one of her pleasant litle pupils' recitals at the Conservatory of Music. These are expositions of the pupils' work as they progress in their violin studies, are a source of encouragement to the pupils themselves, and a matter of interest to the parents, who attend in goodly numbers. Those taking part were Irene King, Isabel Davidson, Doris Donnelly, Winnie Evans, Kathie Taylor, Gerald Hutchinson, Wilfred Johnston, Arnold Spencer, Donald Morrison, Kenneth Goheen, Roy Rome, Eric Jones, and William and Robert Cormack, who gave a concert and violin duet.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Graham are in Toronto for a short stay.

Mr. David Walsh, with Miss Mary Walsh, of Hastings, are in the city to-day.

A very successful and largely attended dance was held at the G.W.V.A. Hall last evening, under the auspices of the Peter Robinson Chapter, I.O.D.E. Nearly 200 people attended for a very enjoyable affair. The hall was attractively decorated with Christmas greens and small trees, and during the evening, novelties were introduced in the form of specialty dances, with confetti and toy balloons. Supper was served from dainty tables in the upstairs hall. Excellent music was furnished by Al Linton's Toronto orchestra.

The patronesses were Mrs. E. C. S. Huycke, Mrs. E. B. Clegg and Mrs. R. C. Blagrave. Some of those noticed were: Dr. and Mrs. Wood, Dr. and Mrs. Blagrave, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hills, Mr. and Mrs. C. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Sedgewick, Mr and Mrs. R. V. Copping, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Snelgrove, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. H. Vanston, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. O'Loughlin, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hooper, Mrs. V. Scully, the Misses Dot Hill, Rose Mulholland, Georgie Stevenson, Linden Hall, Gladys Mulholland, Clare Mason, Rosamond Hunecke, Seabourne Hamilton, Marie and Genevieve McCarthy, Helen Stapleton, A. Nicholls, Phyllis Dawson, E. Drope, Jean Eastwood, Marguerite Fanning, Jean McLaughlin, Helen Baumer, Elva Jackson, Robena Cumming, Maida Connor, Gertrude Rush, Messrs. Allan Thompson, Herb. Fortye, Cook, Stewart and F. Linton.

Inadvertently omitted from the list of assistants at the Trinity Salad tea on Tuesday of this week, were the name of Mrs. A. Clegg, who was in charge of the receipts; Mrs. E. Edmondson in the orange grove, and, Mrs. George Johnson, convenor of the tea and coffee, with her assistants: Mesdames Wotten, Pethick and McKee.

Miss Gertrude Rush of Syracuse, N.Y., is visiting her mother, Mr. T. O. Rush.

LADIES' AUXILIARY TO G.W.V.A. ELECT OFFICERS

SOCIETY HAS EXPERIENCED A VERY SATISFACTORY YEAR

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A. was held this week, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, the elections resulting as follows:

Hon. presidents—Mrs. W. R. Morris and Mrs. T. Skinner; hon. past president, Mrs. Jos. Mills; president (by acclamation), Mrs. E. V. Frederick; 1st vice-president, Mrs. A. McIntosh; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. R. Bugg; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Walsh, corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. Biggs; treasurer, Mrs. R. J. Devey. Executive—Mesdames Wiggins, Lillico, Hughes, Perry, Black, McNeeley. Convenors of Committees—Sewing, Mrs. T. Skinner; Kitchen, Mrs. Patterson; Social, Mrs. W. Sharpe. The Visiting Committee, owing to the great amount of work it has to do, has been divided into four sections — Mrs. Masey-Cooke and Mrs. Johnson in the eastern section, Mrs. Houghton and Mrs. McKinstry in the Orpington Road district, Mrs. McIntosh and Mrs. Thorndyke in the west-end, and Mrs. Black and Mrs. Chambers in the south.

Reports Read.

The report of the former recording secretary, Mrs. J. McLeod, showed a very satisfactory year in point of number of meetings held, regular attendance, and numbers added to the membership roll.

Mrs. Massey-Cooke's report of the Visiting Committee was very interesting. In the fourth year of its existence, over 400 visits had been made by Mrs. Cooke and Mrs. Bugg, her co-worker, including visits to the hospitals, the sick and the needy.

Owing to the hard winter, and much unemployment, a large quantity of meat and groceries had been dispensed. Flowers, magazines, and papers had been taken to invalids, clothing and books distributed. Many useful garments had been made under the guidance of Mrs. Skinner, and kind friends of the society were responsible for many generous donations. Funerals had been attended as a mark of respect to the bereaved, and letters of sympathy despatched.

The Finances.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. R. J. Devey, showed a substantial balance on hand of $606.36 on 30th November, with items as follows:

Receipts.

Balance on hand, 30th November, 1920, $393.84; members' fees, $16.25; Christmas tree, $157.50; badges, $7.20; card party proceeds, $52.25; Tag Day collection, $344.58; kitchen rent, $80.00; loans returned, $170.00; afternoon teas, $30.15; Thos. Hooper (banquet), $15.00; Canadian Woolens, $50.00; dances, $146.00; concert, $48.30; bazaar, $568.37; incidental receipts, $32.59; interest from bank, $7.07; total, $2,119.10.

Expenditures.

Donation, G.W.V.A., $100.00; flowers, $21.70; hospital work, $18.10; Woolworth Co., $51.91; Cressman & Co., $108.03; The Examiner Printing Co. (acount extending over three years), $112.20; laundry, $25.57; music at dances, $48.00; Dickson's Store, $25.07; Provincial Command, $17.38; Cheney Co., $20.03; C. B. Routley, $45.24; rental, $51.00; J. C. Turnbull Co., $142.46; Coleman Bros., $16.40; livery, $4.00; trunk, $8.75; Bonner-Worth Co., $23.00; Peterborough Hardware Co., $6.85; local relief work, $645.12; sundry expenses, $21.03; total, $1,512.74.

Sundry Business.

In connection with the gratifying results achieved by the bazaar, credit was given by the meeting to the excellent supervision of Mrs. T. Skinner. The ladies endorsed the candidature of Mrs. W. R. Morris and of another lady member for the local Board of Education.

In consideration of the number of cases of contagious disease prevalent in the city, it was decided not to hold the usual Christmas treat this year, but to send baskets to every member's house where children are sick.

A very enjoyable banquet for the members was held before the meeting, about 50 being present.

Is the Gift Question a Puzzler?

Every store advises their line. That's an old story. We just ask to be included on your shopping tour in search of unique gifts, something that is less used than other articles, and we feel sure our special optical gift lines will at once appeal to you. Come and look. You will not be urged to buy.

FRIENDS OF THE TREATY ORGANIZING

SPLIT AMONG FACTION IN BELFAST—CAUSTIC COMMENT IN THE HOUSE.

AN "EXPERIMENT"

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press.)—The House of Commons to-day adopted the Anglo-Irish Treaty and rejected the Unionist amendment to the address by a vote of 401 to 58.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press.)—House of Lords has also approved the Irish Treaty, rejecting the Unionist amendment by 166 votes to 47.

LONDON, December 16. — Canadian Press. — In welcoming an Irish settlement in the House of Lords yesterday, the Archbishop of Canterbury declared that it was unworthy of a man with Lord Carson's knowledge to insinuate that expressions of opinion from the world welcoming the treaty had been "wire pulled" from Downing street. The treaty was described as a "great gamble."

Lord [illegible] declared that the agitations in India and Egypt were following Sinn Fein lines while Lord Bryce congratulated the government in making the "experiment."

BELFAST, December 16. Canadian Press. — It is said that there is a split among a faction in Belfast and that several of Belfast's biggest business men are in close touch with friends of the treaty in the Dail Eireann. It is also said that an inside organization is being built up in the highest circles of Unionist party in the northern capital.

ULSTER'S BOUNDARIES

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press).—On his arrival here this morning Sir James Craig said he had come to discuss question of Ulster's boundaries with Premier.

"The present position appears to throw us back to where we were in 1914", he declared adding that boundaries issue was very serious matter. "Without that I might have been able to secure approval of treaty."

THE BEST CONTRIBUTION.

LONDON, Dec. 16.— (Canadian Press.)—While Bonar Law's re-appearance in the House of Commons yesterday and his declaration in favor of Irish treaty was an interesting event, commentators on every side declare that in cogency of argument and power of appeal, the speech of Hon. Winston Churchill was the best contribution so far offered on the agreement.

PREPARED TO HANDLE THE HOLIDAY MAILS

PARCELS POSTED NOW CAN BE DELIVERED CHRISTMAS MORNING, IF DESIRED.

While the stores are urging "Do your Christmas shopping early," the postal department is exhorting in a similar strain. "Do your Christmas mailing early." Not only should Christmas mail be sent this week if possible but it should be mailed early in the day when the staff of the office is not so rushed. Those who want mail delivered on Christmas Day have no reason to delay sending it, for mail will be delivered as directed. This is an innovation in the postal department this year, but already much mail has been laid aside for Christmas Day delivery at the local post office.

With the British mails closed, the avalanche of Canadian and American Christmas parcels and letters has begun, and next week the British mails coming in will add to the congestions. The post-office machinery is functioning smoothly, however, Postmaster John Corkery says, and arrangements for handling next week's rush are complete.

Sixteen returned soldiers have been engaged for delivery, and will be on for several days, commencing the 21st or 22nd. These men replace the youths that have heretofore assisted at Christmas time.

The sale of books of stamps by "posties" has come well up to expectations and there is now a steady demand on their routes, the Postmaster said.

A special mail delivery on the morning of the 26th was announced at the post office this morning.

SISTERHOOD REPORTS ON CONDITIONS

MANY APPALLING CASES OF WANT IN THE CITY—NEW MEMBERS JOIN THE ORGANIZATION.

NEEDS OF SOCIETY

A meeting of the Big Sisterhood took place yesterday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce, with a good attendance. Six lady members were added at this meeting, which appointed several new officers, as follows:

Hon. President—The Mayor of Peterboro.

Hon. Vice-Presidents—Rev. F. E. Malott; President of the Social Service Council; J. McIntosh, Reeve of North Monaghan; G. W. Powell, Agent of the Children's Aid Society, and Ald. N. Phelan.

An Advisory Board, which will be enlarged at a future meeting, was composed of Messrs. F. W. Miller and F. H. Dobbin.

Rev. Mr. Malott, who was to deliver an address on Social Service work, was unavoidably absent through a severe cold, and the attention of the meeting was taken up with reports from the members who have been visiting home after home every day, three cars being on the streets practically all the time, in use for the cause.

Conditions in the City.

Some really appalling reports were presented in several instances. Over 35 homes are now under the supervision and care of the ladies, 28 of this number having reported that they had never previously been visited by any organization or person in the city, and in all, there is extreme need. In one house 12 human beings are practically void of the necessities of life, with no food, very little clothing, and in great need of fuel. In many homes visited, the children are in need of underwear, two cases being noted yesterday where the lack of clothing compelled them to stay in their cold homes, their nakedness unrelieved by their ragged outer garments only.

Needs of the Society.

Some of the articles required in the work are garments for a family of ten, every one of whose members from an infant in arms to a child of 15, is in need of clothing; another family of eight members is in the same position; most of the homes visited require beds and bedding of all sorts; another need a cook stove, with stove pipes; cooking utensils, two wash basins, boots and underwear, Christmas cheer. Any of these things would be acceptable and would be gladly welcomed, especially in view of the lack at Christmas time, at any time up to noon of Friday of next week, December 23rd.

North Monaghan Helping.

The Society is receiving splendid co-operation in the south end of the city. Residents of North Monaghan are sending in articles of clothing and Christmas cheer for this section of the city, and four Monaghan ladies are members of the executive who have pledged themselves to look after the wants and needs of this particular portion of the community.

Receiving Encouragment.

Many communications and calls have been received from would-be members in endorsation of the aims of the organization, particularly in their efforts to help women and girls in their homes. Already five girls in need of employment have been placed in pleasant rural homes.

Treasurer's Report.

The treasurer's report fo the activities of the lately reorganized association was submitted yesterday by Messrs. A. A. Perrin, as follows:

Receipts: Mayor McIntyre, $5; Mr. Armitage, $5; Ald. Phelan, $5; Catholic Women's League, $5; Mrs. Jackson, $4; collection for milk (taken up for a family with baby and no milk for it) $4; total $28.00.

Expenditures: Kimona, $2; oilcloth, 90c; groceries, $2; milk, $4; total $8.90; balance on hand $19.10.

Children Marched Out Minus Coats When Fire Menaced Warsaw School

WARSAW, Dec. 16.—Fire broke out in the Warsaw school this morning, and was extinguished after an hour's hard work by the use of the village fire-bucket and extinguisher, with very little damage done.

About 9.30 a.m. the teacher, Miss Jennie Garnie, noticed smoke and flames coming from the cold-air register. She immediately dismissed her class without their outer clothing, which were recovered later, and gave the alarm, which was promptly responded to by the village brigade with the fire-bucket and extinguisher. After an hour's work the flame was put out. The interior was damaged to a certain extent, but most of the furnishings are intact, the amount of damage being surprisingly small, in view of the age and bad condition of the building. The cause is unknown, the only plausible explanation being that of an overheated furnace pipe.

SIR HENRY BURSTALL WELL PLEASED WITH THE RANGERS

INSPECTED THE PETERBORO' UNIT LAST EVENING—THREE BANDS ON PARADE---DETAILS OF THE INSPECTION---ADDRESS TO THE MEN.

The inspection of the Peterborough Rangers by Inspector-General Sir Henry Burstall last night proved distinctly creditable and afforded many evidences of the loyal co-operation on the part of officers, N. C. O.'s and men during the past few months.

The Inspector-General was gratified by the progress made, and he predicted a bright future for the unit in Canadian militiadom. The Inspector-General was accompanied by Brigadier-General W. B. King, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., G.O.C., of Military District No 3.

When he arrived at 8.30 p.m., Sir Henry Burstall was greeted with the general salute. The inspection of the regiment followed. The Inspector-General greeted several of the officers who he knew overseas very warmly, and passing from man to man remarked on the large number of decorated men. After this inspection the march past followed, the General taking the salute under the east balcony. Regimental and company drill, in which 13th Company, under Major Gordon Hall, featured., completed the inspection, and Major-General Burstall addressed the regiment grouped closely about him.

He complimented the unit as a whole on their accomplishment in a few months, and with the large number of ex-service officers and men, he told them they were composed of "good stuff." He urged them all to keep alive the traditions of the overseas units, and he asserted that the best memorial to their fallen comrades would be a strong militia, an ever-ready body of citizen-soldiers in times of peace working to promote love of country and a higher citizenship, and in time of war prepared to defend Canada and the Empire.

The Amalgamated Bands.

During the inspection, which took about 40 minutes, the recently organized brass band, under Lieutenant Rupert Gliddon, played, and the inspecting officer was highly pleased with the amalgamation that has taken place and the prospect of Peterborough having one of the finest bands in Ontario. The band was about 35 strong last night, and if the officers are proud of it they have some foundation for such pride. The pipe band, under Pipe Major Thorn, resented a fine appearance, and the bugle band, under Sergeant K. Brown, made a creditable appearance.

A pleasing feature of the inspection was the presence of a large number of ex-officers and interested spectators in the drill hall despite the intense cold—in fact, the west balcony was crowded. Col. E. B. Clegg, former O.C., watched with keen interest the inspection, and was gratified to see the progress of the unit.

Last night's drill was the last for this season, and the officers of the companies urged the men to continue their interest in the regiment and remember the recreational facilities of the Armouries were to be taken advantage of by every man during the winter. They hoped to see a big turn-out next spring.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR INMATES HOSPITALS AND INSTITUTIONS

ONE OF MOST ACCEPTABLE IS THE MEANS OF KEEPING IN TOUCH WITH LOCAL EVENTS AND WORLD HAPPENINGS.

Do you remember when you were sick in the hospital a long time ago, and after you were well enough to sit up and read, they brought you a novel or a religious book of some sort, or a magazine? But you wanted to know about what was going on in the town, the local news of the city in general. If you were a member of the sterner sex, you were curious to know whether they had elected Ald. Turner or some one else for Mayor; and if a lady, you were wondering if Mrs. So-and-So was running the church missionary society again this year. Do you remember all that, and how you would grab the least bit of an Examiner anyone brought one? But people are aggravating at a convalescent's bedside. If you ask them about anything interesting, they will tell you not to bother about anything like that until you get well and strong, leave the bag of oranges on the table and go off with never a word of news or gossip. And all you can do for the time you are there is get all fussed up with wishing you were out, or resign yourself to counting the stripes on the wall-paper. And all the time you are just longing to know about the European situation or the latest bargain in blouses.

And do you remember how you would read every little bit of the local paper, if it ever happened to stray into your room, even the advertisements?

If you have ever been there, or sympathize with the people who are there now, and the people who are going to be there in hospitals and charitable institutions through the year to come, why don't you send them along a newspaper all for themselves? Every charitable institution in the city gets a copy of The Examiner free, but how long will it take for one daily paper to go the rounds of any Peterborough institution?

Take it from us, one of the most appreciated Christmas gifts that you could purchase would be a subscription to The Examiner, for the inmates only of any of the hospitals or charitable institutions of the city, for their own special use and perusal. The donor's name could be left with the order at this office and the institution be asked to credit him or her with the seasonable gift.

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST INSURANCE COMPANY.

LINDSAY, December 16. — The only civil case before Judge Swayze here was that of Mrs. Delia Drake, of Coboconk, against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Mrs. Drake sued the defendants for the payments of a policy of insurance upon the life of her late husband, who died last spring. By consent of the parties, the case was adjourned until the 11th of January next.

IS SEEKING BEST MEANS OF PAYMENT

LLOYD GEORGE REPLIES TO LABOR DELEGATION — FRENCH MUST HAVE COMPENSATION.

DIFFICULT PROBLEM

LONDON, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press).—In an interview with a Labor delegation last night, Premier Lloyd George said that Britain was only asking Germany to pay for actual damage, and that he did not desire to press an over-bearing claim on Germany; one thing was to find the best method of payment and he was willing to accept suggestions from anybody. France could not settle down while piling up debts in rebuilding devastated areas without prospect of compensation from Germany, and he was unable to face French public opinion with a refusal to insist on such compensation.

Lloyd George also told the deputation that no Government could touch all the underlying causes for unemployment. He agreed that France and Germany had no unemployment but said that in half the population was employed on the land and a large portion was absorbed in manufacture. Walter Rathenau had told him Germany would soon collapse if things went on as at present.

FAREWELL MESSAGE OF "WAR MOTHER"

SENDS HEARTFELT SYMPATHY TO MOTHERS BEREAVED BY WAR

PORTLAND, Maine, December 16 (Canadian Press). — When Mrs. McCudden went aboard the Canada, she was received by Captain John Davies and other officers, and presented with a bouquet of American Beauty roses on behalf of the crew.

"I have been impressed during my stay in America," she said in a farewell message, "with the attitude of the United States people in extending the hand of friendship to Great Britain and with the spirit of co-operation in efforts to prevent future wars.

"I came here unofficially, but everywhere have been taken into the hearts of the people.

"In leaving, I extend my heartfelt sympathy to those mothers who, like myself, lost those dearest to their hearts in the war."

PRESENTATION TO MR C REIDEL

Last evening a social gathering was held in the S.O.E. Hall, Hunter street, by the employees of the Colonial Weaving Company. A very pleasant programme by local talent was enjoyed. During the evening Mr. C. Reidel, who has recently severed his connections with Colonial Weaving Company, was presented with a beautiful reading lamp by the employees. After an appropriate reply Mr. Reidel wished success and prosperity to all connected with the Colonial. Refreshments were then served and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close

COLLECTION OF GARBAGE DEALT WITH LAST NIGHT

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS SAVED ON THIS YEAR'S CONTRACT—LIST OF TENDERS.

Collection of garbage the ensuing year will cost this year $200 less than in 1922. Council's Property Committee, last night, awarding the contract for this work from now till December, 1922, to the present contractors, Withers and Anglesey, for the sum of $9,700. Their price for the year just closing was $9,900.

Three other tenders for garbage collection were to hand as follows: Frank Henry, R.R. No. 6, Peterborough, $10,750; Henry Peters and George Martin City $9,650; T. Bennett and R. Manley, City, $9,800.

While the tender of Henry Peters and George Martin was $50 lower than that of Withers and Anglesey, Committee considered the saving of merely $50 in a year's operations by accepting the bid of these untried men would not justify them in a change of contractors, especially as Ald. Crowe declared, the work of Withers and Anglesey, the next lowest tenderers, had this year been highly satisfactory.

On motion of Ald. Hay and Crowe, the tender of Withers and Anglesey was accepted and Council will be asked to-night to endorse this action.

There were present chairman, Ald. R. N. Jones, Mayor McIntyre, Aldermen G. L. Hay and Joseph Crowe.

HEAD AND NOSTRILS CLOGGED UP

COULD SCARCELY BREATHE

When you become all choked up and stuffed up with a cold, your head becomes thick, the nostrils become so clogged up you can hardly breathe, a feeling of weight or oppression in the chest and the cough rasps and tears your lungs and bronchial tubes.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

before things get to be too serious. There is no remedy to equal it for clearing up the cold, making the breathing easy, loosening the phelgm and soothing and healing the lungs and bronchial tubes.

Mrs. Edward Kincade, 60 Byrden St., St. John, N.B., writes:—"I wish to express my hearty thanks for your valuable remedy, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syup and what good it did me. Last fall I contracted a severe cold, the like I never had, my head and nostrils were so clogged up I could get no vent, and could scarcely get my breath. I tried remedy after remedy until at last I thought I would try "Dr. Wood's." After the first dose I felt relief, and by the time the bottle was finished I was all better. I will always keep it in the house."

Price 35c. and 60c. a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SEES NO MEASURE OF RELIEF FOR GERMANY.

BERLIN, December 15 (Canadian Press). — Cabinet officials admited yesterday that Dr. Walter Rathenau brought from London no concert proposals for either a loan or moratorium for Germany. Neither did his visit effect any indication that any measure of positive relief would be given with regard to Germany's reparations obligations.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND

BY "SAPPER"
(CYRIL McNEILE)

"I'll keep the tooth-pick," he remarked, "as a memento."

The next moment he was striding along the corridor towards the lift. As a fight it had been a poor one, but his brain was busy with the information he had heard. True, it had been scrappy in the extreme, and, in part, had only confirmed what he had suspected all along. The wretched Granger had been foully done to death, for no other reason than that he was the millionaire's secretary. Hugh's jaw tightened; it revolted his sense of sport. It wasn't as if the poor blighter had done anything; merely because he existed and might ask inconvenient questions he had been removed. And as the lift shot downwards, and the remembrance of the grim struggle he had had in the darkness of The Elms the night before came back to his mind, he wondered again if he had done wisely in not breaking Peterson's neck while he had had the chance.

He was still debating the question in his mind as he crossed the tea-lounge. And almost unconsciously he glanced towards the table where three days before he had had tea with Phyllis Benton, and had been more than half inclined to believe that the whole thing was an elaborate leg-pull. . . .

"Why, Captain Drummond, you look pensive." A well-known voice from a table at his side made him look down, and he bowed a little grimly. Irma Peterson was regarding him with a mocking smile.

He glanced at her companion, a young man whose face seemed vaguely familiar to him, and then his eyes rested once more on the girl. Even his masculine intelligence could appreciate the perfection—in a slightly foreign style—of her clothes; and, as to her beauty he had never been under any delusions. Nor, apparently, was her escort, whose expression was not one of unalloyed pleasure at the interruption to his tete-a-tete.

"The Carlton seems rather a favourite resort of yours," she continued, watching him through half-closed eyes. "I think you're very wise to make the most of it while you can."

"While I can?" said Hugh. "That sounds depressing."

"I've done my best," continued the girl, "but matters have passed out of my hands, I'm afraid."

Again Hugh glanced at her companion, but he had risen and was talking to some people who had just come in.

"Is he of the firm?" he remarked. "His face seems familiar."

"Oh, no!" said the girl. "He is—just a friend. What have you been doing this afternoon?"

"That at any rate, is straight and to the point," laughed Hugh. "If you want to know, I've just had a most depressing interview."

"You're a very busy person, aren't you, my ugly one?" she murmured.

"The poor fellow, when I left him, was quite prostrated with grief, and—er—pain," he went on mildly.

"Would it be indiscreet to ask who the poor fellow is?" she asked.

"A friend of your father's, I think," said Hugh, with a profound sigh. "So sad. I hope Mr. Peterson's neck is less stiff by now?"

The girl began to laugh softly.

"Not very much, I'm afraid. And it's made him a little irritable. Won't you wait and see him?"

"Is he here now?" said Hugh quickly.

"Yes," answered the girl. "With his friend whom you've just left. You're quick, mon ami—quite quick." She leaned forward suddenly. "Now, why don't you join us instead of so foolishly trying to fight us? Believe me, Monsieur Hugh, it is the only thing that can possibly save you. You know too much."

"Is the invitation to amalgamate official, or from your own charming brain?" murmured Hugh.

"Made on the spur of the moment," she said lightly. "But it may be regarded as official."

"I'm afraid it must be declined on the spur of the moment," he answered in the same tone. "And equally to be regarded as official. Well, au revoir. Please tell Mr. Peterson how sorry I am to have missed him."

"I will most certainly," answered the girl. "But then, mon ami, you will be seeing him again soon, without doubt."

She waved a charming hand in farewell, and turned to her companion, who was beginning to manifest symptoms of impatience. But Drummond, though he went into the hall outside, did not immediately leave the hotel. Instead, he buttonholed an exquisite being arrayed in gorgeous apparel, and led him to a point of vantage.

"You see that girl," he remarked, "having tea with a man at the third table from the big palm? Now, can you tell me who the man is? I seem to know his face, but I can't put a name to it."

"That, sir," murmured the exquisite being, with the faintest perceptible scorn of such ignorance, "is the Marquis of Laidley. His lordship is frequently here."

"Laidley!" cried Hugh, in sudden excitement. "Laidley! The Duke of Lampshire's son! You priceless old stuffed tomato—the plot thickens."

Completely regardless of the scandalised horror on the exquisite being's face, he smote him heavily in the stomach and stepped into Pall Mall. For clear before his memory had come three lines on the scrap of paper he had torn from the table at The Elms that first night, when he had grabbed the dazed millionaire from under Peterson's nose.

The Duchess of Lampshire's pearls were world-famous; the Marquis of Laidley was apparently enjoying his tea. And between the two there seemed to be a connection rather too obvious to be missed.

"I'm glad you two fellows came down," said Hugh thoughtfully, as he entered the sitting-room of his bungalow at Goring. Dinner was over, and stretched in three chairs were Peter Darrell, Algy Longworth, and Toby Sinclair. The air was thick with smoke, and two dogs lay curled up on the mat, asleep. "Did you know that a man came here this afternoon, Peter?"

Darrell yawned and streheed himself. "I did not. Who was it?"

"Mrs. Denny has just told me," Hugh reached out a hand for his pipe, and proceeded to stuff it with tobacco. "He came about the water."

"Seems a very righteous proceeding, dear old thing," said Algy lazily.

"And he told her that I had told him to come. Unfortunately, I'd done nothing of the sort."

His three listeners sat up and stared at him.

"What do you mean, Hugh?" asked Toby Sinclair at length.

"It's pretty obvious, old boy," said Hugh grimly. "He no more came about the water than he came about my aunt. I should say that about five hours ago Peterson found out that our one and only Hiram C. Potts was upstairs."

"Good Lord!" spluttered Darrell, by now very wide awake. "How the devil has he done it?"

"There are no flies on the gentleman," remarked Hugh. "I didn't expect he'd do it quite so quick, I must admit. But it wasn't very difficult for him to find out that I had a bungalow here, and so he drew the covert."

"And he's found the bally fox," said Algy. "What do we do, sergeant-major?"

"We take it in turns—two at a time—to sit up with Potts." Hugh glanced at the other three. "Damn it—you blighters—wake up!"

Darrell struggled to his feet and walked up and down the room.

"I don't know what it is," he said, rubbing his eyes, "I feel most infernally leepy."

"Well, listen to me—confound you . . Toby!" Hugh hurled a tobacco-pouch at the offender's head.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT NOTICE

Take Notice that—

1. The Council of the Corporation of Peterborough intends to construct as a local improvement a sidewalk on the south side of Edinburgh Street, from Downie Street to a point 155 feet westerly, and intends to specially assess part of the cost upon the lands abutting directly upon the work.

2. The estimated cost of the work is $241.50, of which $159.60 is to be paid by the Corporation. The estimated special rate per foot frontage is 90 cents. The special assessment is to be paid in twenty annual instalments.

3. A petition against the work will not avail to prevent its construction.

IF YOU BUY OUT OF TOWN, AND I BUY OUT OF TOWN, WHAT WILL BECOME OF OUR TOWN?

TO-DAY'S NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

CAMPBELLFORD COUNCIL WILL HAVE SURPLUS IN THE TREASURY

FINANCE CHAIRMAN C. W. PALLISER IN VERBAL REPORT INDICATES SATISFACTORY CONDITION AFTER YEAR'S WORK —CONCLUDING MEETING.

LIGHT REPORT LAID OVER

CAMPBELLFORD, December 16. —The special report on the municipal lighting system prepared by R. W. Scott, manager for the Water and Light Commission, was referred by the Council last night to their successors with a recommendation that it be dealt with as early as possible in 1922.

In a supplementary note Mr. Scott wrote that he had made a tour of all the streets in town and had drawn a plan of certain extensions to the lighting system which he estimated would not cost more than $2700 and would effectively and efficiently illuminate Campbellford's streets. Well-lighted streets, Mr. Scott observed, were a good advertisement for any town. His report was laid over for consideration by the 1922 Council on motion of Deputy-Reeve Stone, seconded by Councillor Southworth.

Finances Sound.

Councillor J. W. Palliser, chairman of the Finance committee, informed the Council that the town's finances "are in pretty good shape." He and Mayor Meyers and other members of the committee had exained tre treasury accounts and although he had not a written statement to present he could assure the Council that the

Two Turkeys Worth One Cow Under Present Market Values

CAMPBELLFORD SHIPPER HAS SOLD SIX TONS OF DRESSED TURKEYS TO MONTREAL AND TORONTO FOR CHRISTMAS DINNERS IN THE CITIES.

CAMPBELLFORD, December 16. —At current market prices an ordinary cow is worth no more than two turkeys, according to the estimate of values made by Councillor T. S. Baker, who has already shipped six tons of turkeys to Montreal and Toronto. "What are known as "canners" in the cattle trade are selling around $10 and $12 each," said Mr. Baker, "and turkeys at 45 and 50 cents a pound. I have been paying 45 cents to the farmer for the bulk of the turkeys I've bought and the average turkey weighs 11 or 12 pounds. So two twelve pound turkeys at fifty cents a pound bring $12 to the farmer and that's just the price a lot of cattle are selling for."

Mr. Baker said he had paid $57.15 for seven turkeys which he bought from John Buchanan of Seymour township. This is an example of the financial returns from turkeys which are of specially good quality this year Mr. Baker stated. He shipped four tons of them rough dressed last week and two tons to-day. Mr. Baker's business activities this year also include the shipment of 300,000 dozens of eggs.

Montreal Judge on 1921 Model Women

MONTREAL, December 16. — Canadian Press. — "Idiocy has reached its zenith in the style of women's dress," Mr. Justice Bruneau declared while hearing evidence in a separation case here yesterday afternoon.

His Lordship added: "It has reached such a point that to-day in the cold blasts of mid-December, we see women on the streets in decollete dresses — very decollete some of them — and wearing slippers and silk stockings, whereas in the months of summer we see them with their necks encircled with the warm fur of the silver fox."

In the separation case before him, the wife in reciting her grievances said that her husband was too niggardly to provide her with rubbers. His Lordship agreed that they were a necessity at this time of the year.

PROBABILITIES.

Increasing south-easterly winds, probably gales, to-night; cloudy, with somewhat higher temperature. Snow to-night.

WARM CONTEST PROMISED IF PRESENT MUNICIPAL ELECTION GOSSIP PROVES CORRECT—BIG ATTENDANCE OF FARMERS AT DAIRY MEETING AT WARKWORTH.

WARKWORTH, Dec. 16. — Four candidates are in the field for the Reeveship of Percy Township, and the municipal nominations here on December 26 promise a lively session if the present gossip be reliable. The likely contestants are J. McCubbin, present Reeve; A. H. Atkinson, George Poole, Deputy-Reeve in this year's Council, and Councillor W. Hermison. These men are all regarded as stalwarts in local municipal affairs, and if they go to the barrier together the race is bound to be a warm one.

Christmas Dance.

The Athletic Club are sending out invitations for a dance to be held in the Town Hall on Monday evening, December 26. The proceeds will be given to the Athletic Club, which is now busily preparing for the winter. The new rink is being flooded for hockey, but there is some doubt about the prospects of the proposed curling club. It may eventuate that the curlers will not realize their ambitions this season, but nothing definite has been decided yet.

LORD LONDONDERRY DECLARES NEGOTIATORS OF TREATY ARE EMBARKING ON A GAMBLE.

THE DAIL EIREANN

LONDON, Dec. 16.— (Canadian Press.)—Lord Londonderry, speaking in the House of Lords yesterday in opposition to the treaty with Ireland, declared he listened to Lord Curzon's speech Wednesday in favor of the pact with the greatest astonishment.

He declared that the Foreign Secretary's remarks were not original, adding that their substance had been delivered on many occasions by John Redmond, "and statesmen of that type." Lord Londonderry proceeded to declare that Lord Chancellor Birkenhead, one of the negotiators of the treaty, had embarked on a gamble, the consequence of which, if it failed, as he believed it would, nobody could predict.

Lord Londonderry argued that the Union of South Africa offered no analogy whatever to the Irish situation, and declared this treaty was only a temporary palliative and not a permanent solution. He declared the Government which had failed to suppress rebellion would not be able to prevent secession.

Lord Londonderry, who is a member of the Ulster Government, hinted that Ulster might refuse to nominate a representative on the proposed boundary commission.

MEETING OF DAIL EIREANN.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.— (Canadian Press.)—"All's quiet along the Potomac to-day,' as far as the cabinet situation is concerned. Conferences and "conversations" are of course taking place, but beyond these there is no development. Yesterday afternoon the premier-elect, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, had a number of callers, and to a group of newspaper men who were included among the callers, said he had nothing to say on cabinet matters.

"BIG THREE" NAVAL RATIO

NAVAL POWERS AGREE ON A PLAN WHICH IS TO BE IN FORCE FOR TEN YEARS.

TO SCRAP SHIPS

WASHINGTON, December 16. — Canadian Press. — Agreement of the "Big Three" naval powers on the "5-5-3" naval ratio plan was officially announced late yesterday at the State Department.

Under the plan, Japan retains the Super-dreadnought Mutsu, instead of the old battleship Setsu and the United States retains two additional ships of the Maryland class, instead of the Delaware and the North Dakota.

Great Britain as an equivalent will build two super-dreadnaughts similar to the Maryland and Mutsu type but of greater tonnage, scrapping four old battleships of the original retained list suggested by the Hughes plan.

Under the agreement during the ten years the United States will have 18 capital ships aggregating 525,850 tons; Great Britain 20 ships, aggregating 582,050, and Japan 10 ships aggregating 313,000 tons. This represents a total of 56,200 tons for Great Britain more than the United States was allowed, the announcement said, because of the age of the older British battleships.

The official announcement said the agreement was "dependent on a

THE NORTH YORK FIGHT.

A provincial by-election, coming less than two weeks after a general Federal election, seems a pretty small affair, yet the contest in North Oxford, where the electors will on Monday select a representative to look after their interests in Toronto, is attracting unusual interest, chiefly because of the fight Premier Drury and his ministers are making to enrol this historically Liberal riding in the Government column. It might almost be imagined that the fate of the U.F.O. administration in Queen's Park depended upon the result of this one by-election, so vigorous are the efforts being made to elect the Farmer nominee. Practically the whole cabinet has been assigned to platform duty in the riding and the Premier himself is in the thick of the fight, which is a three-cornered battle, with the Government, Liberal and Conservatives all represented. It may be that Premier Drury hopes by a spectacular success in a constituency that has been consistently Liberal, to offset the failure of the Agrarian party to secure as many seats in the province in the recent Federal campaign as they had confidently expected to carry. However, it may be there is no doubt that the Government regards the result as important and is leaving no stone unturned in its effort to elect its candidate. The determination makes a most interesting campaign of what otherwise would have been a very tame political episode.

THE CRERAR RUMOUR.

Nothing that has happened since the defeat of the Meighen government has been the subject of so much comment as the report that the Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progreshive party, is to be offered an important portfolio in the cabinet Hon. Mackenzie King is arranging. That he would be a source of strength goes without saying, and that he has the ability and qualifications necessary for the successful administration of a government department is equally beyond doubt. These facts are freely admitted, but the chief topic of conversation and conjecture is the effect the acceptance of a cabinet position by the head of the Progressive party would have upon that party itself. Some commentators see in it an alliance between Liberals and Progressives, so far at least as the elected members are concerned; others declare that if such a development actually happened, it would be the beginning of the end of the Agrarian movement, that the organization would speedily split into its original elements, the former Liberals going back to their old party and the Conservative United Farmers in turn aligning themselves with the organizations they left to follow the Crerar doctrine. However, it seems very much like trying to cross a bridge long before the river is reached. Hon. Mr. Crerar is not yet in the cabinet and may never be. There will be plenty of time to get excited about it later on.

VETERANS AND POLITICS.

In a number of Canadian cities, various organizations of returned soldiers are preparing to enter the realm of municipal politics and will nominate soldier candidates for various civic offices that are to be filled. The veterans are quite within their rights in adopting such a programme and yet there is reason to doubt the wisdom of their decision. There are no problems coming before municipal councils that particularly appertain to the return soldiers and therefore there does not seem any logical reason why veterans as such are required. By all means let the men who fought have a voice in our civic government, but let them sit there, not merely as returned, as representatives of any particular organization, but as citizens.

Veterans' societies would be doing a public service of importance if they could induce ex-service men with the necessary qualifications for municipal office to enter the field, but having succeeded in doing this it would seem preferable that such candidates should run as citizens, not simply as the representatives of an organized body. Aspirants for municipal honours should be unpledged, bound by nothing save their appreciation of their duty towards the whole citizenship.

A CONVENIENT CLEARING HOUSE.

A number of the organizations engaged in charitable work in Peterborough are co-operating with Mr. F. H. Miller, the city's relief officer, consulting him before any measure of relief is provided in cases of distress that come to their notice. Mr. Miller's position in connection with the Central Charity Board and his long experience in the administration of relief in Peterborough, make him undoubtedly the best authority in this city on such questions. He knows the circumstances, can detect the spurious applicants for relief from the genuine cases and is qualified to advise charitable organizations as to where their services are most badly needed and will do the most good. Societies who call upon him for advice can be certain that by so doing they will be protecting themselves against a wasteful expenditure of their resources and ensuring for their efforts the full effect they desire. It would be good business for those other organizations who are carrying on relief work to also get in touch with Mr. Miller. In fact the whole system of providing assistance would be made much more effective if no cases were dealt with until Mr. Miller had been communicated with and a report made to him of the conditions. His office is the logical clearing house for relief and should be regarded as such by the various agencies now functioning in Peterobrough.

ANOTHER CHEERING SIGN.

The rise of the pound sterling in New York to $4.23⅛ is a very significant thing. To clearly realize what it means, one must look back to February 1920, and recall that the market price in the United States was then $3.18. The gain has therefore been a little better than 33.6 per cent, since that date. Put in another way, the decline from par value had been nearly 35 per cent.; while now it stands at slightly over 13 per cent. In the concrete, the pound sterling has gained precisely $1.07 in value since February, 1920.

As British currency fell in value on the American exchanges, the Canadian dollar went with it in degree. We shall now find beyond doubt that our money will share in the British advance. It will mean a difference of many millions to us. In 1920 we imported $802,107,000 worth of commodities from the United States, and, as we had to make payment in American dollars at an average premium of say 15 per cent. it will be seen that the extra cost to us was something like $120,000,000. The premimum at the present time is around 8 per cent.; so that a difference of $56.000,000 in our favor has been brought about by the change, assuming the volume of our imports this year to be the same as for 1920.

The return to par can scarcely happen in the near future. There are real obstacles in the way; but the approach to that basis should be persistent, although perhaps slow from now onward. Our neighbors are earnestly praying that the process may take on speed; for they have definitely learned that getting possession of nearly half of the world's supply of gold has been like a millstone around their neck. It has paralyzed their trade with Europe and South America. It has reduced it materially with Canada There is not a shadow of doubt that during the latter part of 1919 and the early part of 1920 there was a good deal of straight profiteering in the matter of foreign exchange in New York. There is nothing of that kind now. What was done in that way hurt the United States more than it did her victims, and today a very earnest effort is being made across the border to get exchange lowered as rapdly as conditions will permit.

In the painful experience of the past three or four years we have been taught two things: First, that currency is not money, but credit; and second, that nothing but an actual and unqualified gold standard will protect a nation's paper money during a prolonged period of financial stress and general inflation. Canada has a sound currency system; but she has not an absolute gold standard. Therefore our money is certain to suffer a discount in any market which demands gold. In other words, such a market will demand payment in money terms on a parity with its own standard. And no exception can be taken to that prudent precaution while the storm is on. —Ottawa Journal

OPPOSED TO WOMEN.

SYDNEY, N.S., Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press.)—Sydney Methodists do not want women in the pulpit. Both the local congregations have voted decisively against the proposal to allow women to enter the ministry of the church upon which a nation-wide referendum of Methodists is now being taken.

Rev. C. E. Crowell, pastor of the George street church, and president of the Nova Scotia conference, admitted that his people went strongly against women ministers, but would not give the exact figures. Rev. Ernest Baines, pastor of Victoria Road church, said that the result in his congregation was practically the same.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Who is going to present Mr Meighen with a seat as a Christmas box?

The time is getting short. How about those Yuletide gifts?

Niagara Falls is to vote upon the city manager plan at the coming elections. The system is growing in favor.

The Ontaro Government seems to have been transferred from Queens Park to North Oxford.

If MacKenzie King's gift to the Candian people is a representative cabinet of qualified members there willl no question of his poularity in the role of Santa Claus.

Somehow it is impossible to imagine J. J. Morrison shedding tears if Premier Drury were given and accepted an invitation to become a member of the new Federal Cabinet.

LITERARY GEMS

CONVERSATION.

The Oxford and Cambridge undergraduate probably spends more of his life in conversation than any other human being on earth. If so be he has intellectual leanings, he tackles cheerful little problems like the "Immortality of the Soul" or the supersession of "Euclid by Einstein." If he happens to be ordinary he discusses ordinary subjects. But he always discusses—at the greatest possible length and to the latest possible hour. The peculiar conditions of university life encourage this habit of talking. It is an excellent habit. It confers on young men the inestimable boon of the exchange and clash of ideas. It is the last relic in our modern world of the Athenian tradition of Socrates.—London Daily Express.

SUFFERING IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, December 16.—Canadian Press. — Widespread suffering followed the sudden cold spell here to-day and yesterday. The temperature dropped rapidly throughout Wednesday night and in the early hours yesterday hovered perilously close to the zero mark.

INJURY FATAL TO HASTINGS WOMAN

MRS. HENRY CROSSEN STRUCK DOWN BY WAGON SEVERAL WEEKS AGE.

HASTINGS, Dec. 16. — The following accounts were passed at last [illegible] meeting of the Council:

H. B. Wilson, sec.-Treas. P.S., $2,033; J. F. McCarthy, sec.-treas. S.S., $737.82; L. T. Huycke, collector, $55; Alex. Wilson, clerk, $100; J. M. Thompson, treasurer, $40; G. N. Gordon, solicitor, $10; Dr. De La Mattu, $10; Dr. De La Mattu, Board of Health, $6; Fowlds Co., Ltd., $129.32; Wm. Dickson, constable, $25; Wm. Boyle, caretaker, $8.33; Geo. Lynch, fire department, $6.25.

Moved by McGrail, seconded by Charman, that this Council rebate to Mr. John Jones the amount of his fine, $15.

Moved by Lynch, seconded by Hatherly, that Grover Kerr be poll clerk for the municipal elections.

The tax collector's time was extended until February 1st, on motion of Mr. Hatherly, seconded by Mr. Lynch.

Died From Injuries.

The death occurred on Thursday afternoon, the 15th inst., of Mrs Henry Crossen, at her home here. Mrs. Crossen was the widow of Henry Crossen, and resided for a great many years in the township of Percy, and last spring she purchased a house in Hastings and moved into the village to take a well-earned rest. Two weeks ago, while crossing the street, she was struck by a passing waggon and suffered injuries that proved fatal. Mrs. Crossen leaves one son, Henry, of Percy Township, and one daughter, Mildred, at home, who have the sympathy of their many friends in this community.

Mr. Earl M. Hinton, son of Rev. H. L. and Mrs. Hinton, has taken a position on the office staff of the Harris Abattoir Co., Toronto, and left this week to assume his new duties.

The many friends in Hastings will be shocked to hear of the death of T. A. Collins. "Tim," as he was better known here, was a favorite with everybody. The sympathy of the community goes to his sorrowing wife, father, brothers and sisters.

Rev. D. A. Thompson attended the meeting of the Peterborough Presbytery, which was held in Port Hope on Tuesday.

situation was entirely satisfatcory.

Mayor Meyers—You do not expect to close the year with a deficit?

Mr. Palliser—I can say almost positively there will be no deficit.

Mayor Meyers—That's a very satisfactory state of affairs.

Weighmaster Appointed.

The following tenders were received for the privilege of collecting the fees at the town's weigh scales at the G.T.R. station for 1922: Edward Nancarrow $192, Geo. Rutherford $216, W. J. Stanbury $205, J. M. Arnold $207 and John Perry $191.

Mr. Wiggins moved, seconded by Mr. Baker that Mr. Nancarrow's tender be accepted. It was carried unanimously.

Discussing the tenders, several of the members referred to the fact that Mr. Nancarrow's bid was one of the lowest.

Mr. Wiggins was willing to withdraw the motion if the Council wished to accept the highest bid.

Mr. Southworth— It is more a question of getting the best man than the slight difference in price. I'm not saying that some of the others wouldn't give as good satisfaction, but there hasn't been a complaint against Mr. Nancarrow, who had the scales last year.

Ready For Election.

Preparations for the municipal elections on January 2nd were effected as follows:

Polling sub-divisions—1 town hall, 2 Herald office, 3 Ackerman & West's barber shop, 4 C. E. Wragg's house. Officials—Deputy returning officers: 1 C. A. Wilson, 2 J. B. effective next year, requiring cheese factories to pay for milk by test, was the special question.

Richard Honey, director for the district, presided, and three of the most prominent dairymen of Ontario were the speakers. They were G. G. Publow, Chief Dairy Instructor for Eastern Ontario, and District Representative of the Department of Agriculture; E. H. Stonehouse, of Weston, president of the Provincial and National Dairy Councils, and Geo. H. Barker, of Kingstone, official milk and cream tester. Although no vote was taken to gauge the opinion of the audience in regard to the new Dairy Act, it was evident that there was a considerable sentiment of opposition.

.C. Barfelt, of Peterborough, was also present, having walked from Campbellford to Warkworth as a morning exercise.

INDIAN RIVER

INDIAN RIVER, Dec. 16. —Mr. M. Cooper who has recently built a barber shop and residence has also built a beautiful hall which is very much appreciated in this vicinity for holding entertainments, etc.

Mr. Wm. O'Leary has been remodelling his residence.

Soanes Bros., general merchants, are creating a sensation with their magnificent holiday decorations.

Messrs. Van and Martin, who recently built a garage, are going to open up an open-air skating rink for the winter. The rooters are waiting for the line-up.

The Rev. S. Vose, Baptist minister here, gave a very interesting sermon entitled 'The New Era,' on Sunday, the 11th inst.

Mrs. W. H. Borland was in Peterborough Saturday last doing some Christmas shopping.

A number of local dairy farmers attended the auction sale of Mr. Howard Baptie of Smith township, and report cows went at a very good price.

Mrs. Gavin Shearer, Jr., and children, who has been spending the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Borland, have returned home.

A number of farmers in the vicinity have already got their year's supply of wood sawn.

CABLE AND TELEGRAPH

FOUR PARTY LINES.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press).—Carvell suggests four party lines to the Bell Company. Toronto Board of Trade representatives would cut wages.

RAILWAY FIGHT SETTLED.

DETROIT, December 16. Canadian Press. — The fight between the city and the Detroit United Ry., which raged violently here for three years, was officially concluded today. Municipal street cars and privately owned cars appeared yesterday on several lines in the city.

The cars are alternated on the lines. The agreement is expected to be extended to all the routes. Attorneys are working out an agreement for a universal transfer.

MILK PRICE LOWERED.

NORTH BAY, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press).—At a meeting of local milk producers and distributors with a special committee appointed at a public meeting some time ago, it was decided to reduce the winter price of milk to consumers in this town by one cent a quart. This represents a reduction on the part of the producers, who were followed by the distributors. The price of milk now is 17 cents a quart, having been raised to 18 cents a couple of months ago.

STILL NON-COMMITTAL.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press).—Andrew Hayden, of Ottawa, chief Liberal organizer for the Dominion, held a consultation yesterday with Hon. A. B. Hudson, Independent Liberal member-elect in South Winnipeg.

"I have no statement to make as to whether I will accept a position in the Mackenzie King Cabinet," Mr. Hudson stated afterwards.

Neither would he say whether the question of his entering the Cabinet was brought up.

Mr. Hayden has not held an interview with Hon. T. A. Crerar, the Progressive leader, so it is reported.

The Grain Enquiry.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press). — That there will be continued pressure for the resumption of the hearings of the wheat marketing commission, though perhaps after a request for some changes in the personnel of that body, was the statement of J. P. Molloy, ex-M.P. for Provencher, Man., while in Ottawa yesterday. Mr. Molloy declared that had he been elected he would have made as strong a stand that he could, that the enquiry once begun should be completed and the wheat marketing conditions thoroughly probed. Farmers in the West, he thought, would expect that this course be followed out by the new Government, though the investigation might be placed in the hands of the re-organized commission.

MANUFACTURER DEAD.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 16. — Thomas Lee, a well-known cigar manufacturer of this city, died yesterday, aged 62. He was born in London, Ont., and came here forty years ago.

MEMBER ELECTED.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press).—At the convention held in Richmond yesterday afternoon, the Hon. J. Nicol, Provincial Treasurer, was elected by acclamation as member for Richmond County in the Provincial Legislature.

Mr. Nicol succeeds Hon. Walter Mitchell, who was elected member of Parliament for St. Antoine division, Montreal, in the recent Federal elections.

CANAL WORK STOPPED.

ST. CATHARINES, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press).—Work on the construction of the Welland Ship Canal is now confined to Sections 3, 4 and 5, Sections 1 and 2 being practically closed down for the winter. The burning of the concrete plant at Port Weller on Dec. 3rd caused the concrete work on Sections 1 and 2 to stop earlier than planned.

POLICEMAN KILLED.

CORK, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press). — A sergeant of the Royal Irish Constabulary was killed and a constable wounded at Baltybunnion by unknown parties.

Gifts of Permanence

Hotpoint Electrical Appliances combine in a wonderful way the two essential things — they are new, they are sparkling and therefore gifty, but they are also practical.

Take the iron for instance—

—for more than thirteen years, the Hotpoint has been the acknowledged standard by which other electrical irons are judged

—no other iron combines these features: hot point—attached stand—cool handle—non-breaking cord.

And so the other appliances, each one has special advantages. Each one will make a wonderful Christmas gift.

Let Him Show You

Almost every store that handles electric appliances sells Hotpoint articles and will be glad to demonstrate them for you.

But don't wait until the last minute—go in at once and have time to choose carefully.

But remember this—no other appliances have so many practical working advantages as those bearing the Hotpoint name. If you have trouble finding them, write the factory and we will be glad to assist you.

PLOWSHARES AND PRUNING HOOKS AT WASHINGTON

(FAUL RADER)

PAUL RADER

To no patriot is the Conference at Washington more vital and soul stirring than to the premillennialist. The man who believes that prophecy is God's own foretelling, looks upon such a gathering with awe and anticipation for he has in his mind the word of God whispering to his utmost soul, "When they shall say peace and safety then sudden destruction and they shall not escape." The believer in prophecy looks only for peace on earth when the Prince of Peace returns Himself to assume the government.

These men at the center of Memorial Hall—in this, for the time being the capital of the world,—look for peace by parley. In response to President Harding's invitation five great nations and three smaller ones have sent delegates to the Disarmament Conference.

Gazing at the men about the horseshoe are 1,300 people. The Yale bowl would have been too small to hold the crowd who would be here if seats were on sale. But millions have their hopes fastened to the deliberations at this table, expecting to see slowly but surely arise in warm, loving glow, the dawn of peace. Early this Saturday morning the crowd is gathering along the street outside the front entrance to see the mighty come to their seats, in a conference frought with such far-reaching weal or woe. The autos jam and when they do the doors slam along the street. Out comes the delegate and walks into the crowd in a thoroughly democratic manner. The crowd is delighted and gives way just aas democratically. Here are men on big business bent and none wish to get in their way. This big business spirit alone clears a passage. The atmosphere of stupendous enterprise blows on every thinking brow. There is very little handclapping. The policemen make way for an army car. In it is Secretary Hughes, grave and earnest. The Secretary by a stern wave of the hand lets it be known that progress is in his every nerve this morning, so he is put through the jam to the private entrance on the west side. He was soon to call to order a conference backed by more elements of pressure that make for success than any international parley of arms ever held. As much as I would like to believe otherwise, I fel that that the prime pressure here is economic. The world debt is the great growl of earthly millions. The nation heads have heard it and guessed its outcome diplomatically. Next is the increasing hate of war by the multitude.

Mr. Wilson is not in the hall—he will not be here. But because he struck the great high peaks of anti-war sentiment and lit them up with language that went around the world, this present conference is here with every issue outlined and ready for action pro or con.

This conference is arriving this morning, figures and agenda in hand ready for action at the gong, but historians will tell us some day who cleared the decks for action, who suffered the early blows to make an opening. There comes the great apostle of peace, William Jennings Bryan, down the walk, head up, a black cape over his shoulders, looking for all the world like Benjamin Franklin on high business bent. No more kindly face ever greeted an American crowd. He is not a premillennialist yet, but if we pray he will be in no uncertain way before long.

It is 10:30. The President and Mrs. Harding are at the west entrance. They stand arm in arm while the cameras gorge themselves. A sad smile is on the President's face. Only yesterday he buried his nation's boy. His eyes are slightly puffed, these are strenuous days. Up the marble steps to that table that all the world is watching he makes his way deliberately. His mind is running over the words so soon to be upon his lips and then upon the front pages of the press of the world. Inside is the blaze of nine nations. The gold, the blue, the red, the green, the khaki of the uniform weave themselves about the horseshoe table about the green carpet, making the scene more festive than if it were a riot of society colored gowns. The galleries are filled with Senators and Representatives. Ex-President Taft is there with the Supreme Court Judges. About on the floor are prominent men from nine nations. At that three fold table in the center, sit first the President with Secretary Hughes, Mr. Root, Mr. Underwood, and Mr. Lodge. To the President's right sits the French delegation headed by Briand, then the Japs; to the left sits Great Britain with some of the smaller nations following. A look at Balfour for Great Britain, with half a century's diplomacy at his command and at Secretary Hughes for America, tell you in a moment a story of worl power that can be the great God-fearing world-dominating pioneer for righteousness if these two keep their hands warmly together through the conference. There can be no Jap trouble, now or ever if these two nations, so akin in Bible knowledge and Protestant faith; these two Christian ideal loving nations, blessed of God by the same great revival flames of fire from Heaven; these wo great missionary nations—keep their hands together and their eyes on God.

God will deal lightly with Japan if she makes a mistake. She has never had the light, but woe, woe is our own dear country and Great Britain if they fail and forget God in this last great chance.

Daniel's tongue must have nearly stopped when he read the writing on the wall, "Weighed—Wanting." Every believer in the Book, the blood and the blessed hope is saying these days concerning the nations gathered about this table: "weighed." We hold our breath and pray, "Oh God, grant that the writing may not end with the sentence of God expressed in that awful one word, 'Wanting'."

It is hard to sit and try to make yourself believe that this big world gathering which springs so hopefully before the people, forms a real desire on the part of the powers to end war. One can not keep their mind from asking how much this national fighting game called war, will be checked by this meeting so soften and limit the hardness of boxing gloves.

I am asking myself the same question I asked last Christmas, when I walked into the private office in the Kaiser's old palace on the Mount of Olives outside Jerusalem and shook hands with Sir Herbert Samuel, the first Jewish governor over Jews in Palestine since Ezra's days. I asked myself then if he knew what prophecies from the mouth of God's prophets he was at that moment fulfilling. I ask myself this again today as I sit here in Washington at the opening of this great conference of the mighty nations of earth. I wonder, I say if any of the men about the horseshoe realize their part in the prophetic program, or know even by hearsay God's program of the nations, spoken ahead of time by holy men of old as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

I talked about it with three leading newspaper writers. I would not have been surprised if they did not believe in God's laid down program or His Word, but I was surprised to find that they did not know one solitary portion of the prophesied program. Here then was not unbelief but downright rank ignorance.

One of our great American politicians was handed Mr. Rodd's little pamphlet with all the Scripture in the New Testament referring to the return of Christ and His reign of peace on earth. There is nothing but Scripture in the booklet. Then this great and good man who believes the Bible to be the Word of God read the quotation from Acts 1:11, "This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner, as ye have seen him go into heaven"; he paused long and said earnestly, "Can words be any plainer?" "Theological theories can not get around that. That sticks me."

Surely any premillennialist at this conference—listening to the earnest lobby conversations, reading the best written efforts of our best thinkers, gazing at these great men around the table, who represent the earth's rulers and most of earth's population, flanked by experts at their back with maps and facts and figures and policies and instructions, hearing again the roar of battle as the great generals move in their seats—cannot but feel profoundly that these men are serious in their task. The shock to a premillennialist is to see the utter ignorance of God's plans. To desire peace is in itself no virtue, for what sane man could desire war with its blood of fathers and sons spilt out; its broken-hearted women and destitute babies and children, the long, long years of heavy debts to be borne?

There is no call for swelling out the chest simply because a kind of a peace congress has been convened. In war an awful price is paid for that which is desired, though that desire may never be satisfied. Now comes the question: What are these nations willing to sacrifice and pay for this Peace Desire? When that question is answered properly it will be time for shouting, not before. Do these powers really desire an end of war? We are waiting to see.

There is much talk of beating swords into plough shares and spears into pruning hooks. This phase has been twisted, turned, petted, coaxed, put into poetry, sermons, writing and oratory in the last two weeks. Let us see the swords before we begin to talk of the plough shares. Let us have the spears piled high before we talk of pruning hooks. Let us see the size of the offered pile as an earnestness of the desire for no war.

There are great talks and figures by the yard of the number of swords and spears possessed by the nations, but also there are other yards of figures to show why these same swords and spears should not at the present be turned into plow shares and pruning hooks. There will be arguments to show the cost and dangers of disarmament because of internal troubles as well as national rivalry. I will all get down to the price which each nation is willing to sacrifice that war may be done away with forever. Only the most unselfish sacrifice of very much which each nation holds dear could bring it about and this must be made by the leading nations.

The goal we are told is that some day the nations will consent to go out of the war business. This conference tomorrow is only a step in limiting the tools of war and an effort at removing some of the causes of war. But nothing short of a declaration that Jesus Christ is the Prince of Peace, the rightful head of the human race, that war is a diabolical curse with its roots in hell and fit only for the lock up and the eternal "pen."—will now help this old world one bit on the war question. How dare a bunch of men argue war and battleships on the basis of taxation. It is not an economic problem. Is War right? This is the question! If it is, then who will not pay the price in money and blood and gladly sacrifice and push it to the limit?

If war itself is not put out onto this horseshoe-shaped operating table, and all its hellish heart cut out and hung up before the eyes of the world, then there will be no peace. The hellish heart of war which has its roots in the wicked heart, the deceitful heart, the human heart of man, deceitful above all things—was operated on successfully at Calvary. There in the agonies of death for sin Jesus Christ made His way down deep to the bottom of the last root of sin and death. He plucked it out and arose from His task the Victor over all sin, the Prince of Peace and Life. He alone can handle war and bring peace, for He alone dared to plunge to the roots and pluck them up at Calvary.

Here then is the thin ice upon which all the arguments must skate. No one must speak of war itself, oh no! The talk must be of tools. Knowing this thin ice is in the mind of diplomats, one American writer calls the horshoe international curve "the Conference for a Tentative Discussion of the Possibilities of a Not-Too Definite Step Toward a Nominal Reduction in Certain Departments of World Armament."

There will be a vacant chair for Jesus Christ, the Son of God, at that horseshoe shaped table, I am informed. This is a long step in advance of the last parley for which we praise God. We must ask this, however, What is the use of giving Him a chair at the table and shutting His mouth? He has spoken with authority of peace. His word is written and readable in nearly every language of earth. He says nothing of limiting armaments. His program calls for the extermination of all the tools, beating them into plowshares and pruning hooks. This, He does with one stroke of His coming in judgment of the nations. He will personally put an end to war. Here are His words and program. His pledge and promise, His personal leadership and guarantee of peace, "And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, King of Kings and Lord of Lords." Rev. 19:15, 16.

This is the One who will be asked to occupy the empty chair at the Conference, but will the Conference listen to His words or recognize Him as King of Kings? It will not be by parley that the nations beat their swords into plowshares and spears into pruning hooks. It will be because He has come and put an end to the war business, because He has punished all injustice and sits down in justice to rule. The nations cannot use the war junk, so plowshares and pruning hook manufacturing concerns will have loads of raw material in every nation. Men will plow and prune then under the new potentate from Glory! The all-powerful Prince of Peace.

"Repent ye, therefore, and be converted that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you; whom the heaven must receive until the times of the restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began." Oh, blessed Lord, come back to this world of woe; come quickly. We need a head. We need Thee, because the head of the dragon of war is already hanging on Your hip. You stand like David of old with the giant's head in Your hand, Conqueror, Victor, waiting for Your coronation day. Until that day armaments will not become plowshares and pruning hooks.

RHEUMATISM?

Health is the Most Valuable Asset You Have. You cannot Afford to Neglect It

Crofton, B. C.—"I was troubled for years with inflammatory rheumatism and rheumatic fever. I tried several cures for rheumatism, but did not receive any benefit from any of them. I had been in the hospital for months, being unable to walk. A friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. After taking the first bottle I began to improve, and after taking six bottles I had no more rheumatism. I think Dr. Pierce's Anuric is the most wonderful medicine that any one can take for rheumatism. I have recommended these tablets to several of my friends and they, too, have all been benefited by them."—Melville Collinson.

People are realizing that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances.

This can be avoided by stimulating the kidneys to increased action, and because of its tonic effect on these organs any one would do well to get Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets which are to be had nowadays at almost any drug store or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., for trial package and write for free, confidential medical advice.

MAKE YOUR OWN RUG

To make a pretty rag rug, take wool rags, of medium weight one and one-quarter inch wide strips no bias, turn in and baste, to prevent raw edges, so wrong side will be smooth, too. Braid a strand 48 inches long double and sew, always carrying braid to left; hold full as you sew around the ends; shade colors. Braid only one pound at a time, so there will be equal number as you braid as regards colors. Use No. 12 cotton thread for sewing.

SUGGESTS FUSION.

LONDON, Dec. 15.— (Canadian Press Cable.)—Liverpool Post says a fusion of Liberals with Progressives in Canada would introduce a robust tone into the Liberal ranks.

---for your Christmas Gift to all the family

The famous All-wood Oval Horn, an exclusive feature of the Brunswick, is here shown with the grille of the instrument removed. This all-wood oval horn is built like a violin, from the choicest woods—not an atom of metal. Your own ears appreciate the result—tones that are rich, clear, and above all, natural.

Above is illustrated the exclusive Brunswick Ultona, a combined tone arm and reproducer, which, by a mere twist of the wrist, plays each make of record exactly as it should be played. It gives the precise diaphragm, the exact weight or pressure, and the correct point or needle for every record. Nothing to take off or put on—the Ultona is complete.

Made in Canada

The Greatest Phonograph Value in Canada

Why?

Read these reasons:—

1. You figure on buying a phonograph only once. Therefore, you need to be careful that you do not buy a phonograph which is restricted to one make of records, or which needs various makeshift attachments to give it a wider scope. Such an instrument would never be satisfactory. Buy instead, the all-record Brunswick—expressly designed and equipped to play, without any attachments or extras, every make of record—and to play each make with absolute fidelity. The Brunswick actually plays ALL records PROPERLY—it is the only phonograph which does this.
2. You want an instrument whose tone is truly natural—which reproduces each musical instrument and each type of human voice with life-like exactness. This the Brunswick does perfectly, because of its Ultona and its all-wood oval horn.
3. You want to be sure of getting the best value. And you are sure when you buy a Brunswick. It is the product of the oldest and largest woodworking company in all North America—the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company. The cabinet designs of the Brunswick are an enduring delight to the eye. They are made from thoroughly seasoned wood—built to last a lifetime. No phonographs of anything like equal quality can be had anywhere at lower prices.
4. You want a variety of choice at a price you can afford to pay. Here again, the Brunswick serves you best. From a beautiful table model at $80 up to the elaborate de-luxe model at $2,500, there is a range of designs and sizes to suit all pocket books.
5. You want convenient terms—and all Brunswick dealers are prepared to meet your views. You can have a genuine Brunswick cabinet model delivered to your home for as little as $10 cash, with the balance spread over an entire year.
6. You would rather, all other things being equal, buy a Canadian-made product. Brunswick Phonographs are made in Canada, and every Brunswick sold means money in the pay envelopes of Canadian workmen.
7. The Brunswick comes to you fully equipped to play all makes of records. With each Brunswick is supplied, free of charge, 200 steel needles, one sapphire point and one jewel point (or genuine diamond in permanent position).
8. You prefer a guaranteed phonograph. Every Brunswick is fully guaranteed—even including the springs of every Brunswick-made motor.

Just you hear the Brunswick

SHOOTING MATCH HELD ON THE FARM OF WILLIAM KENNEDY —PERSONALS.

MILLBROOK, Dec. 16—A pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's uncle. Mr. Jack Armstrong, 8th line, Cavan on Wednesday, December 14th, at 4 p.m., when Miss Violet Letitia eldest daughter of Mr. Arthur D. Armstrong, became the bride of Mr. Richard Allan Wood, of Cavan, the Rev. G. S. Gervan officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in her wedding dress of white satin with sleeves of georgette crepe, and pearl trimming, and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations intermingled with feathery green ferns. Little Miss Vera Armstrong a niece of the bride, acted as ring-bearer, wearing a dainty frock of blue organdie and carrying the wedding ring in a pretty, flower-trimmed basket. Miss Olive Brock, of Peterboro, the bride's cousin, played the wedding march, andi Miss Jean Thorndyke sang during the signing of the register.

There were about fifty guests at the wedding, and after the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The happy couple left for a trip east visiting friends at Trenton enroute to other points. The bride travelling in a becoming suit of brown tricotine, fur-trimmed, with hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant with gold chain. To the pianist a gold brooch, set with pearls, and to the little flower girl a gold ring. The many other handsome and useful gifts which were received gave evidence of the high esteem in which the recipients are held by a large circle of relatives and friends.

On their return, after a week's absence on their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside on the groom's farm in Cavan.

Bailieboro L.O.L.

The Bailieboro L.O.L. held their annual meeting on Wednesday, December 14th, at 8 p.m., Mr. J. L. Byam, the District Master, being in the chair. The following officers were elected:

Mr. H. Bateman, Worshipful Master; Mr. W. Gainer, Deputy Master; Mr. Sid Lang, Chaplain; Mr. H. Gainer, Recording Secretary; Mr. Wilbert Jewison, Financial Secretary; Mr. Jas. Jackson, Treasurer; Mr. Hector Jewison, Director of Ceremonies; Mr. H. Dean, First Lectureman; Mr. W. Hutchison, Second Lectureman; Mr. H. Gainer, First Committeman; Mr. Jas. Lucey, Second Committee Man; Mr. John Gainer, Third Committee Man; Mr. F. Tickner, Fourth Committee Man; Mr. J. W. White, Fifth Committee Man

Appropriate speeches were delivered by the newly-elected presiding. After the opening devotional exercises the necessary routine business was attended to, and Miss Brown gave an interesting talk on the Bible topic for the evening. The remainder of the time was spent in practising for the S. S. entertainment to be given on Tuesday, December 20th, the usual C.G.I.T. meeting for next week being cancelled on that account.

Rebekah Lodge.

The "Golden Sheaf" Rebekah Lodge held their regular fortnightly meeting on Tuesday, December 13th, at 8 p.m., with sixty members in attendance. Mrs. Harry Fallis, the Noble Grand, occupied the chair. One new candidate for membership, Miss Syer, was initiated, and afterward a social hour was enjoyed. At the close all adjourned to Robinson's restaurant and partook of a hot lunch before finally leaving for their various homes.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. William Gray was a visitor to Peterborough on Thursday.

Mr. William Porteous of Nestleton, motored over on Sunday to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Bingham, who is grealy improved in health.

Mr. Thomas J. Lang was in Cobourg on the jury this week.

Carmel Sunday school, of which Mr. Fred Hard is the efficient superintendent, and Mr. W. H. Shooting Match.

The shooting match held on the farm of Mr. William Kennedy at the Marsh, on Wednesday afternoon, proved a decidedly successful event, there being between 50 and 60 men in attendance. All enjoyed a good afternoon's sport, the two most successful contestants being Dr. Ellis of Millbrook and Mr. A. Thorne of Cavan, who won 4 fine fowls each. Amongst the many who were successful in bringing home one fowl as a trophy of their skill were Messrs E. Ball and W. O'Brian of Millbrook Mr. Syer and Mr. McMalion of Cavan.

Women's Institute.

The Women's Institute held their regular meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Armstrong, the president Miss E. M. Fisher, being in the chair. On motion it was decided to ask Mrs. Ira Lowes of Mount Pleasant, to give a talk on the Provincial W. I. Convention held in Toronto last month, the sessions of which Mrs. Lowes had attended; the date when this report will be given will be fixed to suit the speaker's convenience.

The matter of having one of the demonstrators sent out by the government, hold a sewing class here during the last two weeks in January, 1922, when it is expected the Short Course in Agriculture, will be holding its sessions, had been taken up with Mr. Patterson, the District Representative, and after discussion it was decided to ask the members of the Cavan Institute to join with Millbrook in the undertaking.

Further particulars will be made public when final arrangements are made. A social hour was enjoyed before the meeting adjourned.

There have been rumors of men who have died from overwork; but many cass of death from overeating are very well authenticatd.

JUDGMENT GIVEN IN HASTINGS CASE

DAMAGE OF $1.75 AWARDED TO MRS. GEORGE W. HILL—QUESTIONS ASKED.

Damages of $175 were awarded Mrs. George W. Hill, of Hastings, against the G.T.R. for injuries sustained when she jumped off a train at Hastings on May 25 last. The case was heard by a jury in the December sittings of the County Court. Mrs. Hill claimed $500. G. N. Gordon appeared for plaintiff and J. P. Pratt, of Montreal, for the G.T.R.

The case began Wednesday afternoon, and was almost completed that evening. Thursday morning, counsels addressed the jury, and when court resumed after the morning adjournment, Judge Huycke charged the jury and submitted seven questions to be answered. At 2.30 the jury left the court-room and was out over two hours.

The questions of the presiding judge with the jury's answers were as follows:

1. Q.—Was the injury to plaintiff, Mrs. Hill, caused by any negligence of defendant company, its servants, or agents?
Ans.—Yes.
2. Q.—If so, in what did such negligence consist?
Ans.—That it being the general practice to have these doors locked, the company should have placed notices in a conspicuous place for the protection of the public.
3. Q.—Could the plaintiff, by ordinary and reasonable care, have avoided the accident?
Ans.—No.
4. Q.—If so, what could or should she have done to so avoid the accident?
Ans.
5. Q.—Did Mrs. Hill act reasonably under the circumstances in alighting from the train as she did when it had started moving?
Ans.—Yes.
6. Q.—Did the train stop at Hastings a reasonable time for passengers to alight?
Ans.—Under ordinary circumstances, yes, but not in Mrs. Hill's case.
7. Q.—If Mrs. Hill is entitled to damages, what amount should be paid by the defendant to her?
Ans.—$175.

His Honor asked the foreman of the jury, Henry Wood, for a more specific description of the doors referred to in answer to Question 2, and Mr. Wood replied that they were the doors shown by the evidence to be between the baggage car and the vestibule. And in reply to a further question, said the jury referred to the front door. "We feel the company should place a notice there to avoid a recurrence of this accident," the foreman said.

The verdict for damages was reached unanimously by the jury which was made up of the following jurymen: Roland Ferguson, J. Sproule, Robert Gilmour, Arthur McKay, Henry Wood (foreman) Norman McCarthy, Sidney Middleton, William Preston, James Walsh E. Heap, William H. Head and Thomas Tanner.

The evidence of the plaintiffs in this case, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, was that they were unable to leave the coach by the door they entered, and in the time taken in going to the other door, the train had started again, and Mrs. Hill, in alighting from the moving train, suffered injuries to her ankle that prevented her from walking for nearly a month. They were riding in the first coach, next to the baggage car. G.T.R. employees testified that the front doors were locked to keep passengers from falling off, and plaintiffs had plenty of time to alight before the train started.

He will plead guilty to a second count on December 27th.

THE MONTREAL MARKETS.

MONREAL, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press.)—An active business is passing in cash grain in the local market. The tone of the flour market remains steady. A very strong feeling continues in mill feed at the recent advanced prices. The baled hay market is quiet. A good steady trade continues in eggs. There is nothing new in the potato situation. A fair trade prevals in butter, but the trade in cheese is quiet.

EMPLOYMENT OF JAPANESE.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press.)—The Supreme Court of Canada has reserved judgment in the reference by the Canadian Government as to the validity of the British Columbia statutes and order-in-council prohibiting the employment of Japanese and Chinese on Crown lands.

Big Recipe Contest

Handsome Cash Prizes to be Given to Users of Monarch Flour

How to Qualify

Cut from any bag of Monarch Flour that section containing the word Monarch and the Lion's Head. This piece of bag must be pinned to your recipes when you mail them to us. It entitles you to send in one recipe under each section for which prizes are given. (See Prize List.)

Send only recipes for which we offer prizes. (See List of Prizes.)

State the exact proportion of each ingredient; also how to mix and how to bake.

Use Standard Measures.

Write each recipe on a separate sheet by itself.

Write on one side of the paper only, and use ink. Recipes written on both sides of paper will not be entered in contest.

On each sheet, with each recipe, write your name and full address.

Do not copy recipes from other cook books. We want your own recipes. Every contestant, therefore, must enclose in her letter a signed statement to the effect that she has not copied the recipe from any cook book, and that she has tried the recipes and had excellent results.

Each person may win only one prize in this contest.

The judges are well-known Domestic Science experts and their decisions must, in all cases, be accepted as absolutely final. All recipes will be given careful and strictly fair consideration.

The above contest is open to all parts of Ontario where "Monarch Flour" is used.

IN the olden days women guarded their best recipes with the utmost jealousy. Today that spirit no longer exists. This big recipe contest was launched in an endeavour to obtain the choicest recipes for our New Monarch Cook Book, so that women far and wide can benefit by the experience and successful cooking experiments of other women. To make the contest really worth while, we offer handsome cash prizes.

We believe that such generous prizes for recipes have never before been offered. We are determined to make this new Cook Book so good that every woman will want a copy. And if large cash prizes will induce women to send us their very best recipes, the New Monarch Cook Book will be a wonderful success. Just think! $75 for one recipe.

The Prizes

Section 1
$75 For the best recipe for Christmas Plum Pudding.

Section 2
$75 For the best recipe for Christmas Cake.

Section 3
$50 For the best recipe for Shortbread.

Section 4
$25 For the best recipe for Small Christmas-time Cakes.

$15 For the 2nd best recipe for small Christmas-time Cakes.

$10 For the 3rd best recipe for small Christmas-time Cakes.

General
$ 1 For every recipe under the above headings accepted for and printed in the New Monarch Cook Book.

Not only are the prizes well worth winning, but to every woman who sends recipes to this contest, we will mail free of charge a copy of this splendid New Monarch Cook Book as soon as it is published.

Monarch Flour is the overwhelming favorite with women today. It is preferred by women because it gives such remarkable results with so little care. It requires less kneading and mixing, and needs less shortening than other flours.

Monarch is Best and Cheapest for Cakes and Pastry

You will find Monarch best and cheapest for cakes and pastry. Pie crust made from Monarch is flaky, crisp and most delicious. In fact, Monarch is supreme for all things in which a pastry flour is used.

Buy a little sack of Monarch and enter this recipe contest. Get to know a marvelous flour, and at the same time compete for the splendid prizes.

At Last—the Egg-a-Day Hen!

How Scientific Poultry Culture Has Succeeded in Developing a Perfect Fowl That Lays Five Times as Many Eggs as the Average Hen Does in the Same Number of Working Days

If Miss Egg-a-Day's 341 eggs, a champion record, were amalgamated, they would form an egg more than four feet in height and thirty inches in diameter

30 inches

"LADY EGG-A-DAY," a buff Orpington, has smashed the world's record by laying 341 eggs in 341 consecutive days, an unrivalled feat in this line of endeavor.

A year ago the little lady was bought in New Zealand for $150; to-day $5,000 could not buy her, for she is the world's champion and the very first hen in history to lay an egg a day for 341 days. She is considered to be the only perfect hen ever hatched. Her chicks, it is to be hoped, will be as perfect as their mother.

Lady Egg-a-Day is declared to represent the last word in the gradual evolution of the domestic barnyard fowl from a mere bird that occasionally lays an egg into a high-speed egg machine. It costs about as much to sustain her as it does to feed the ordinary hen. But, while the ordinary hen is producing an average of one egg in every five days of the year, or about seventy eggs in twelve months, Miss Egg-a-Day produces eggs at five times that rate.

Until a few days ago the world's record was [illegible] eggs, laid within 365 days, made at [illegible]town, Del., in a competition. Even this was remarkable, for the average American hen lays seventy eggs a year. At this rate the fowl's owner loses money, for it is estimated that it takes 100 eggs a year to make a hen self-supporting. Anything above this number is net profit for the owner, so that every two additional eggs a year would mean an increase in revenue of $12,000,000 for the poultry owners of America. Did every hen in the country lay an egg a day, the result would be startling indeed, not only so far as revenue is concerned, but in the reduction in cost to the customer poultrymen not only in the United States, but in Europe, in Australia and more particularly in New Zealand, watched with the deepest interest the weekly score of the plump buff Orpington.

Lady Egg-a-Day and the Five Perfection Points of the Perfect Hen.

3—A Deep Chest Which Provides for the Accommodation of Egg-Making Food.

5—Well Pigmented Legs and Skin as an Indication of Health.

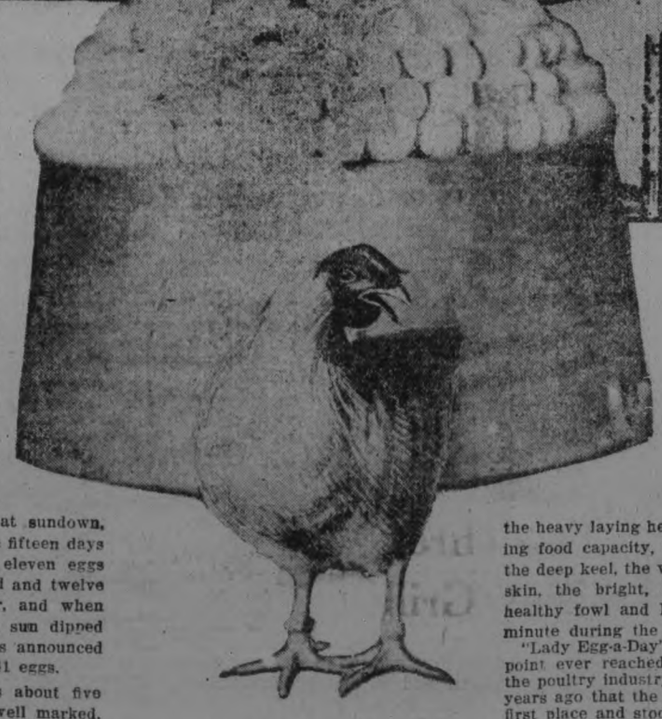
4 A Deep Keel, Without Which Hens Are Never Good Layers.

2—Bright and Healthy Looking Eyes as an Indication of Good Condition.

Lady Eglantine's Record was 314 Eggs in a Row—and Then She Died.

The Archaeopteryx (or Ancient Wing) Is the Oldest of Known Prehistoric Birds, Remains of Which Have Been Found in Rocks of the Jurassic Period. This Is Believed to Be the Original of the Modern Domestic Hen.

The Georgetown, Delaware, Competition Ground, Where Lady Egg-a-Day Has Won a World's Championship.



This New Zealand Competitor of Miss Egg-a-Day Laid 339 Eggs and Then Quit.

The Lady is not a poultry accident, but the result of careful selection and scientific breeding. Her owner, Captain I. Brooks Clarke, of Meriden, Conn., bought the bird from Joseph Thomas, of Garstang, England, several months after she had been sent to this country to compete in the Georgetown contest. She had been bred most carefully from a family of egg layers. Care was taken to breed fowl with deep chests, wide pelvic bones, a deep "keel," well pigmented legs and skin and bright, clear eyes.

This artificial evolution took many years. Thousands of hens were raised and tested as layers. The best were mated with roosters of size and strength. The progeny was again weeded out, only the fittest surviving. And so the process of selection continued for many generations until the Lady arrived.

In the competition she was pitted against several hundred other birds of many breeds, but all of them bred according to the same methods of developing efficient egg machines. All of them were treated alike, all of them were given the same rations, all of them were trap-nested so that there could be no mistake about the bird that laid any particular egg.

So the lady went along on her surprising way. For weeks at a time she produced regularly every twenty-four hours one beautiful light brown egg, seven eggs a week. As the competition advanced it became more and more apparent that she was headed for a world's record, and

There is one great fear that comes to the owner of a chicken making a high production in any egg-laying competition, and that is whether or not she will moult at the critical moment. For every farm boy knows that when a hen moults she drops in her laying. Through the heated Summer days "Lady Egg-a-Day" went serenely on laying eggs. Her feathers were tight, her eyes bright and her appetite husky. There were no indications of moulting.

She swept into the Autumn a leader and without a break in her score. Finally there approached the final fifteen day period. The competition was scheduled to end its 365 days and officially close at sundown, October 31. During these last fifteen days she needed to produce only eleven eggs to tie the New Zealand record and twelve to make her a world beater, and when on that Monday evening the sun dipped in the western horizon it was announced that her score card showed 341 eggs.

The new champion weighs about five and a half pounds. She is well marked, but if placed in the fancy class would hardly win a prize on technical points. But the day of the purely fancy chicken is passing, and the big thing is that this hen produced in a year more than forty-one pounds of eggs, or nearly eight times her own weight, and that is some record.

She has every characteristic of the heavy laying hen, the deep chest showing food capacity, the wide pelvic bones, the deep keel, the well pigmented legs and skin, the bright, clear eyes. She is a healthy fowl and has not been sick one minute during the test.

"Lady Egg-a-Day" represents the highest point ever reached in the new school of the poultry industry. It was less than ten years ago that the fancy chicken occupied first place and stood in the holy of holies at the poultry show. Then came out of Australia the new doctrine that, after all, there were only two kinds of chickens, one the meat bird, the other the egg producer. It was so revolutionary that it excited derision on the part of those who believed that color, conformation, shape of comb and a lot of other things made a chicken useful to man.

The new idea came to America, and from a utilitarian standpoint was approved by the Department of Agriculture in Washington, but public sentiment was against it. About that time Philadelphia breeders declared themselves in favor of the dividend producing chicken, and through F. V. L. Turner organized the first public egg laying competition, backed by publicity.

It was Secretary Turner who conducted the fight for the utility bird, and after the hardest kind of a struggle finally won recognition on equal ground with the fancy birds. Through his efforts America produced another world beater a few years ago in "Lady Eglantine," and the great progress that has been made in five years is indicated by the fact that the record of "Lady Eglantine" was 314 eggs, while "Lady Egg-a-Day" soars to 341.

To-day there are egg-laying competitions in many States. Agricultural colleges and experiment stations are selecting hens to create new lines of heavy layers. It matters not whether a hen is a Leghorn or a Plymouth Rock. If she has the characteristics of the layer she is taken in hand, bred scientifically, fed properly, and her offspring are almost certain to lay more eggs than the common or average barnyard fowl.

And the best proof of the worth of the utility bird is found in the fact that poultry raising has become an industry and has passed from being merely a side issue on the farm. The farm flock of to-day is made up of trap-nested birds or their progeny. It is possible for every farmer or his wife or his children to learn how to select the pullet that will become profitable from the bird that never will develop into a dividend maker. The scrub birds are quickly sent to the butcher and become meat chickens. The layers are kept. Thus the flock soon becomes a source of large income. For it stands to reason that if feed is purchased for hens that can lay 100 eggs a year the profits will be greater than if the farmer is forced to support a flock averaging only sixty eggs a year.

That is the whole theory of the utility bird. It must earn its way and show a profit, or it goes into fricassee. There is only one test and that is the trap-nest. This is a contrivance with a snap door. When the hen enters the box, a trigger drops the door. The hen lays its eggs and starts to leave, but finds the way barred. When the owner sees the trap sprung he opens the door and takes a record of the number of the hen that laid the egg. Each hen has this number on a metal band around the leg. In a short time an accurate record of the performance of each hen has been established. The poor birds go into the discard. The best layers are kept for profit and the top-notchers are reserved for breeding.

Does all this pay? Here is the best answer, taken from the census figures compiled from reports gathered only from poultry flocks occupying at least three acres of ground or having products valued at more than $250. Value of chickens and eggs in 1909, $509,195,232. Value of chickens and eggs in 1919, ten years later, $1,047,989,919, an increase of more than half a billion dollars.

The Lady's output, if moulded into one egg of heroic size, such as the mythical Rok is said to have laid, would be 4 feet 2 inches long, 30 inches wide and 6½ feet feet in circumference.

Such an egg would have furnished breakfast for 172 hungry human beings. It would make an omelette large enough to satisfy a small regiment. To be slangy, it would be a whale of an egg!

The wonderful Lady fowl is the lineal descendant of the archaeopteryx, the oldest known specimen of prehistoric bird, remains of which have been found in rocks of the jurassic period—just a few million years old. What the egg-laying record of that day was, history does not say, but it is safe to guess that it was NOT an egg a day.

WHEN NEW CENTRE CAME TO PETERBORO

The price of meat went down and to NEW CENTRE customers the quality went up.

To the uninitiated "meat is meat," but one accustomed to handling meat can determine its quality before it reaches the frying pan.

You have only to visit the cooling rooms of a wholesale meat industry to prove this assertion.

Here you will find as many as four or five different grades of meat occupying various sections of the cooling room. The price of this meat varies according to quality.

CHOPS

In the NEW CENTRE store there is only one quality and that is the best. Our buyers, backed with twenty-five years' experience in buying cattle, have instructions to buy nothing but the best for NEW CENTRE customers.

That in a measure is one of the reasons why we are doing the largest retail business in fresh meats in Peterborough to-day.

Another reason is NEW CENTRE service. You do not have to come into the store to get this service. You can get the same quality of meat by ordering it over the telephone as you would by a personal visit to the store.

When one trunk telephone line became inadequate to handle our telephone service we installed another. We cannot improve NEW CENTRE service, but we can enlarge it to meet our expanding business.

RUSS. PEASANTS ARE TIRED OF PROMISES

Premier Nikolai Lenine Admits Economic Failure.

RIGA, Lavita, December 16.—(By Associated Press)—Russian peasants an dalborers tired of promises of a Communist utopia, and have come to the "show me" stage, Premier Nikolai Lenine said in a recent speech before a congress of Political Educational Workers, at Moscow.

The full text of this sensational speech, parts of which relating to Lenine's admissions of economic failure were cabled from Moscow at the time it was delivered, has just reached Riga, as reported by the official Moscow Pravda.

"There was a time," Lenine said, "when declarations, proclamations, decrees, etc., were necessary. We have had plenty of these. There was a time when it was necessary to show the people what we wanted to build. But can we continue to show and only tell the people what we want to build? No! Even the simplest laborer will then scoff at us, saying. "You are always talking of what you want to do, but show us now what you can do. And if you can do nothing, then go to the devil' And he will be right."

Like Half Savages

Speaking about the absence of education and the prevailing illiteracy of the Russian population, Lenine said that the very fact that a commission had to be appointed for the liquidation of illiteracy "shows, to say it as gently as possible, that we are something like half-savages. For in a civilized country, it would be considered a shame to create commissions for the liquidation of illiteracy. In other countries they have schools where they liquidate illiteracy. They teach, in the first place, to read and write. As long as this fundamental problem is not solved, it is ridiculuous to talk of a new economic policy."

Lenine said that Soviet laws and propaganda were good, but could not succeed until the masses of people helped the regime.

Several hundred thousand "obnoxious and "useless Communists, he said should be expelled from the party. 'Russia' he continued "should have culture which will teach us to fight red tape; corruption and bibery Experience has shown that a politically educated state knows no bribery, whereas with us, bribery is rampant."

Lenine said the government was facing three principal foes, first Communist arrogance, second illiteracy and third corruption and bribry."

PLANT BULBS NOW FOR WINTER FLOWERS

Though winter works a hard-ship on the gardens, there is no reason why blossoming plants should not be seen in every home. This month is the time to prepare a definite campaign to provile blossoms for the home from December to March.

The most important place to use for this purpose are undoubtedly the spring flowering bulbs, but one can easily reinforce the display of these by giving some interesting example of wild flowers forced into winter bloom as well as by such floral favorites as the geranium, the primrose and various other flowering plants.

A little list of flowering bulbs by means of which you can have a continuous succession of bloom from Christmas until Easter: Paper-white narcissus, French-Roman hyacinth, trumpet daffodil, jonquils, crocuses, Dutch hyacinth, early flowering tulips. These are named in the order of their judgment in bringing them to the warmth and light of the living room, one can get the blooms in this sequence.

One of the most interesting things about these spring blossoming bulbs is that they can be grown as follows: By using sandy garden soil and planted in pots and left in a cool, dark room until they get a good root growth. While the clay pots are used by florists and likewise the bulb-pans which are excellent for the growth of the bulbs, charming little paper flower pots have many advantages. They are inexpensive, require very little space, give good drainage and have the advantage of being easy to slip into small flower jars, when they are brought into the light for the development of the flowers.

LONDON TO CAPETOWN WITHOUT SEA VOYAGE

Plain Tunnel Under Sea at Gibraltar.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(By Canadian Press.)—To be able to travel or to send goods from London to Capetown, South Africa, without changing conveyances at any stage of the journey—to do this by means of a tunnel under the sea which would link up Europe with Africa at the Straits of Gibraltar—may strike the imagination as a conception impossible of realization, yet the construction of such a tunnel is an old project and regarded as practicable. In conjunction with a tunnel under the English Channel, which engineers regard as a trivial undertaking in comparison with the Gibraltar tunnel, the latter would make it possible for the Capetown passenger to go through in the car in which he started.

"The conception is audacious, but it is technically sound," writes a Paris correspondent of The Observer. The Gibraltar tunnel, he says, at its lowest level would be 1,254 feet below the surface of the sea, a much greater depth than would be required for the English Channel tunnel. The work would be prodigious, but it is believed both in Spain and France that the scheme is practicable. The shortest crossing which is possible at the Straits, having regard to the character of the sea bottom, is about twenty-four miles, but this is not the narrowest part of the Straits.

A tube of about six yards in diameter is proposed. There would be a single line with three stations at which the line would be doubled to permit the passage of trains in opposite directions. The entrance of the tunnel on the Spanish side should be ten or twelve yards above sea level, but it would be necessary to make the opening on the Moroccan side only seven yards above sea level. The slope is estimated at one in forty at the maximum. Some of the difficulties of of the task will be understood when it is stated that the weight of the water on the tunnel would be tremendous, and the matter of ventilation would be a big problem. However, it is said the ventilation question has been solved. It is estimated that the temperature would be about 80 degrees Fahrenheit at the lowest level.

The concealment of the soil, injections of cement, protecting plates, the Observer's correspondent says, are methods well known to engineering science, and it is held that the procedure adopted for the tunnels under rivers in the United States and elsewhere would be sufficient. The danger of the infiltration of water is to be feared, but there are today enormous pumps which would overcome that peril. Nevertheless, it is evident that a geologic study of the bed of the sea of the most profound character is indispensable, for there may be terrible surprises in store for the hardy pioneers unless much closer investigation than has hitherto been made is undertaken.

A point to give pause to the gigantic project, the correspondent admits, is the possibility of a catastrophe through some ignorance of the conditions which exist. He recalls that the earthquake of Messin in 1908 revealed the presence of fissure which had not been suspected when, in 1886, plans were prepared for a tunnel between Sicily and Italy. It will be too late after the work has been begun, he adds, to discover some insurmountable obstacle. "It is necessary then," he says, "to make important reservations, but, apart from such a possibility, in theory the project is held to be perfectly good, and there is a desire in many quarters to take immediate steps to carry out the scheme.

The French have always regarded Mediterranean Africa as practically forming part of their own continent, the correspondent states. A direct railroad, say, from Paris to Tangiers, and from Tangiers to point after point in the African continent—probably, and when the various schemes under consideration are executed and co-ordinated, to Capetown—he says, would help the people concerned to realize how the countries and continents are inter-allied.

MISS TUCK GOES ON RECORD AGAIN

RESTORED BY TANLAC THREE YEARS AGO, DECLARES SHE HAS FELT FINE EVER SINCE.

Although it has been three years now since Miss Olive Tuck, a popular young lady residing at 17 Salem Ave., Toronto, Ont. realized the wonderful reconstructive powers of Tanlac, she still finds pleasure in telling the people about it.

"At the time I began taking Tanlac, three years ago I was so badly run down it seemed that I had no strength at all. I had no appetite, and was constantly having attacks of weak, dizzy, fainting spells and just felt sick and out of sorts in every way. Finally I got to where I was hardly able to stay up, and was very thin and weak.

"But I began taking Tanlac, and and in a little while my appetite picked up and I began gaining strength right along. My troubles soon left me entirely and I was feeling just fine. At that time I was so enthusiatic about the medicine I made a statement about my experience, and as I'm still enjoying the best of health, I'm glad to go on record again. Tanlac has kept me feeling fine now for three years, and I'm all the time telling someone about it."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by the Warne Drug Co., Ltd., and leading druggists.

AMERICAN GIRLS OFF TO SHOW KNICKERS TO EUROPE

The long skirt exponents of Europe are going to meet up with some real opposition when these three young ladies, who were snapped on the Steamship Aquitania, as they departed from New York, reach the Continent. They are going over to show Europe a few styles in American "knickers." Left to right: Walking costume with coat; sport "knickers" for skating or golfing, auto "knickers" and cape.

CANADA'S BANDS ANNOY HEAD OF "HULLO CANADA"--COMMENTS ON TRIP

LONDON, Dec. 16.—"The Canadians love music, and God knows why they don't have better bands." In this pregnant sentence Mr. de Courville, who has just returned form Canada, summed up his impressions during his brief visit to the Dominion. He has come back to England not only immensely gratified by the reception he and his company have received in Canada, but also greatly impressed by the possibilities of the future.

"They told me," said Mr. de Courville, "that the theatres of Canada were empty owing to bad times, but I am firmly convinced that the bad times have nothing to do with it; however bad the times, the theatres are always full if the show is a good one.

"One of the greatest difficulties of a touring company in Canada is the lack of orchestras, the consequence being that musicians have to be taken with the company. And as they have to be paid international rates of wages, this adds very seriously to the expenses of the tour. Every theatre in my opinion should be able to provide its own orchestra."

Mr. de Courville was asked if he thought there were sufficient talent and facilities in Canada for providing Canadian shows, so that they need not be relying on talent sent out from the Old Country. "Undoubtedly," was his reply, "there is any amount of talent in Canada both as regards music and acting and designers capable of turning out most effective costumes and scenic artists able to paint any scenery. All Canada wants is someone to take the initiative and to make the thing go!"

"Did you find the Canadian appreciative audience to perform to?" asked the interviewer. "Most appreciative," said Mr. de Courville. "They have not learnt to be as blase as they are here in London; they take you at once and appreciate the points almost before you have made them. They are not afraid or ashamed to laugh, and they give you unstinted applause. In fact they are quite delightful as an audience."

Mr. de Courville added that his wife, Miss Shirley Kellog, was so delighted that she wanted to live in every town she visited, and picked out a house at each place which she expressed her intention of buying. He stated that he would be returning to Canada very shortly and would pick up his company at Winnipeg. He stated that although he will not make money out of his present tour he has learnt many valuable lessons and although this was his first visit to Canada he hopes it will be by no means his last. He in no sense fears competition but rather welcomes it, and nothing would give him greater pleasure than to see Canadians themselves providing the best shows for their theatres.

NEARER AGREEMENT.

DUBLIN, Dec. 15. — (Canadian Press).—Going into a secret session of the Dail at 6 o'clock this evening, Michael Collins said he hoped for a vote on the treaty in a public session to-morrow, adding that "we are no nearer an agreement than when the public session adjourned yesterday."

OLD TIME HOLLY WREATH NOT SEEN HERE THIS TIME HOT SUMMER IS TO BLAME

The old time holly wreath, gay with round scarlet berries, will not be seen in Peterboro this Christmas. Curious combinations of natural leaves and elongated wax fruit which any respectable holly tree would blush to own, are the only wreaths expected in the city this year.

The reason for this sorry joke on the holly bush is explained by the dealers. Owing to the drought early this summer the evergreen trees in Virginia and the Carolinas, from which most of the supply is cut, failed to bear any fruit this year. The resourceful southerners, fearful lest they should lose trade through this lapse of Dame Nature, put their heads together to discover some means of making up the deficiency. The poor distorted imitation berries which brighten the wreaths now on sale here are a result.

Several merchants expressed themselves as surprised at the use of artificial. It has been the practice to use partridge berries to help out with the real fruit, but the Americans have gone one better with wax ones, it is said.

Mistletoe this year will be plentiful and thickly set with berries. The only real holly which Peterboro will see this year will come from British Columbia from friends in that province to relatives here. The British Columbians do not go in for the business of export.

DENMARK'S KING AND THE ESCAPED CONVICT

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(By Associated Press)—An amusing story of the King of Denmark's recent visit to Greenland was recently told by M. Aagaard, of the Danish legation, to the members of the Danish Club in London.

As the royal yacht was approaching Greenland a dark speck became visible on the open sea. It proved to be a solitary Eskimo in his little Cayak (native canoe.) The Eskimo came on board, and his loyalty in having braved the perils of the sea in such a frail craft assured him, needless to say, the warmest welcomes. The King presented him with a cigar and, what the Eskimos highly prize, a rifle.

On landing the King described the incident to the Danish Commissioner in Greenland, and asked him who the man was.

The Commissioner, in accents of horror, replied: "The man's an escaped convict. He broke prison yesterday, stole the canoe and put to sea. We thought he had been drowned."

GAINEY MENTIONED FOR MAYORALTY

MAY BE A CANDIDATE BUT EVADES DECLARATION OF HIS INTENTION.

Ald. M. H. Gainey may be a mayoralty candidate. In fact rumour has been saying for several days that he will be, but Ald. Gainey was noncommittal when asked this morning for a statement. He temporized with a "wait and see about that" reply which neither affirmed nor denied anything. Ald. Turner's name is already on the ballot for the mayoralty and has been there for a month or more, and everybody has been aware of his intentions .More recently Ald. Taylor's name has eben mentioned with increasing frequency, and it is known that friends of his have been urging him to jump into the fray. If he enters the contest, and Ald. Gainey makes it a three-cornered fight, the ratepayers who have been speculating about the possibilities of a decision by acclamation are due for a surprse.

THE LOCAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN HEAR REPORT CANADIAN COUNCIL

COUNCIL DECIDE NOT TO MAKE GRANT TO THE OLD HOME WEEK FUND—FINE ARTS COMMITTEE LOSES CONVENOR

The Local Council of Women held a meeting yesterday afternoon, Mrs. A. Mowat presiding.

Communications were read by Mrs. J. Wearing. A letter from the committee in charge of financial arrangements for Old Home Week was received, regarding grant of $50 which is being asked from locel societies towards the expenses of the undertaking, this amount to be returned later if the affair is successful. The meeeting felt that the local Council of Women, being really a corporate aggregation of so many different societies, which would each in its turn be asked to contribute in the same way, and not being a money-making organization in any sense of the world, should not be requested to make this grant. This explanation will be forwarded to the committee, with the offer of the Council to assist in any other possible way.

Miss Maude H. Rush wrote, resigning her position as convenor of the Fine and Applied Arts committee. The meeting finally decided to accept this resignation with much regret, and will ask the president of the Women's Art Association to act as convenor, the Art Association to be her committee in this branch.

Report Woodstock Meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Stevenson, the Council's delegate to the recent general meeting of the Canadian Council in Woodstock, gave a very interesting resume of the work done at the convention.

Resolutions were reviewed and explained regarding the assurance of sympathy with the aims of the limitation of armaments conference at Washington which was forwarded by the Woodstock meeting; and the action which the meeting took with regard to the law for the protection of illegitimate children, which has gone beyond its first intention, and become a menace to the rights of the legal wife and family.

Mrs. Stevenson noted the request of the British Columbia Council, which recommended that more attention be paid to the placing of returned men on the land, referring to the situation recently developed in Toronto, where, out of 700 unemployed at a certain centre, only seven expressed a desire to work on the land when a call came for 75 helpers; regarding women on political platforms; which the Convention decided by ruling that its members may appear on any platform which appeals to them, in any capacity, so long as they do not appear as advertised members of the Council of Women; re the strong protest made against increased telephone rates; and the discussion on the ecoonmic position of the wife in the home, when many letters were received from wives, esppecially on the farms, who are unable, through the lack of legislation in this regard, to vote on their husband's incomes in vital matters relating to the education of their children.

Extension of Franchise.

Considerable reference at the Woodstock meeting was made to the extension of the franchise, and reference was made here to the unsympathetic attitude of certain County Councils in this regard; attention was drawn to the campaign for more extended reading of our own Canadian authors, and the remark of certain Canadians living and writing in the Uited States was referred to, who claim that they are unable to make a living in their own country, on account of the apathy of the reading public to their efforts; and a more general consideration and study of housing conditions, in their relation to public health and morality, was recommended.

The resolutions that the jurisdiction of Juvenile Courts be enlarged to permit of the inclusion of boys up to 18 years of age, instead of 16, that it be regarded as a criminal offence for unmarried persons to register at hotels as man and wife; the suppression of printed details of objectionable cases; and the urging of Boards of Education to extend courses in English to non-English residents of the country, were all mentioned.

Re Summer Carnivals.

The Prime Minister was requested by the Woodstock meeting to forbid the showing of questionable amusements and carnivals coming from the United States, where they are banned in many sections, from coming into and performing in the Domiion of Canada, on the ground that they are a distinct detriment to Canadian interests and morals, and that they derive a large income from the country without giving a proper return.

Need of Study.

Mrs. Stevenson particularly emphasized the need of study by women in these times of laws relating to the welfare of women and children, and recommended this study as an absolute necessity to the alert thinking femnine minds of the day.

A very harty vote of thanks was moved to the speaker for her interesting address.

FOREIGNERS CANNOT DO BUSINESS WITH SOVIETS.

Is Announcement by Leslie Urquhart in London.

MOSCOW, Dec. 15.—(By Associated Press.)—Leslie Urquhart's recent announcement in London that no foreigners will ever be able to do business in Russia while the Cheka (commission to suppress counter-revolutions) holds its present power has become generally known in Soviet Russia and has attracted much attention.

Mr. Urquhart was recently in Russia negotiating with the Commissariat for Foreign Trade to take over extensive mining properties and metal works, many of which he controlled before the revolution. While the negotiations were proceeding a strange man appeared in the conference room. Mr. Urquhart inquired who he was.

"Oh that's the representative of he Cheka," was the reply.

"But I am not dealing with the Cheka and I shall not discuss business before this man," the English mining man protested.

Leonid Krassin, Minister of Commerce, and other negotiators explained that the Cheks were privileged to be represented at all conferences.

Mr. Urquhart was obdurate. The Cheka man refused to leave until telephone instructions from the Cheka headquarters withdrew him.

Diplomats and commercial representatives selected by the chiefs at the Kremlin to go abroad are passed on by the Cheka and a large percentage of the appointments are never confirmed.

Within Historic Walls

Even the crowd which stands at the head of the Soviet government and is privileged to live within the historic walls of the Kremlin is reported to be powerless against the super-government which has grown up about the Cheka.

At one time, Djerjinski and Jacob Peters and the other men who figured as the heads of Cheka activities when the Red terror took place were regarded as dummies raised to take blame which the commissars who make up the council, or cabinet and members of the central executive committee did not wish to shoulder.

But the opinion is now strongly grounded among Russians of all classes that the Cheka is a very real institution. The higher personnel in the organization changes frequently, or at least pretends to change. However Djerjinski and Minjinsky and Peters and other men whose names have figured prominently in Cheka activities may never be able to persuade the average Russian that they have really left the organization.

Umslicht is at the present moment the man who is generally supposed to be the active head of the Cheka. He has his office in the central headquarters of the organization, which occupies a large office building in the business center of Moscow, overlooking the Kremlin walls.

Lubianka Prison

The Cheka building is six stories high and is triangular in shape with a court in the center. Much of the space facing the court has been turned into cells and is the Lubianka prison, where most important political prisoners are kept.

Rumor has it that executions take place in the cellar of this building, and pedestrians often report that they have heard shots when walking near the building. Muscovites seldom walk close enough to the Cheka headquarters to hear cannon shots in the cellar. The streets adjoining it are not popular promenades.

Eyduk, the laison officer whom the Bolshevik government has named to be the go-between for the American Relief Administration and the Kremlin is a Cheka man.

Colonel Kaskell's organization has had no trouble with the Cheka, which is apparently satisfied that the Americans came to Russia to feed starving children and are not trying to interfere with Russian politics.

A NEWSPAPER VERDICT.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press.)—Palmore was given a newspaper verdict in his ten round bout here last night with Bantam weight champion Johnnie Buff.

SALARIES PAID BELL PHONE CO'S EXECUTIVE

REVEALED AT INQUIRY IN OTTAWA —PRESIDENT GETS $30,000 A YEAR.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press).—The fourth day's hearing of the application of the Bell Telephone Company to the Railway Commission for rate increases, saw C. F. Size, the company's Vice-President, finally released from the witness box. R. A. Reid, counsel for the Atterney-General of Ontario, used up a great deal of the day in getting on the records calculations which he expected, he said, would show the company in possession of large monies not clearly accounted for by statements made by their financial brokers.

On the announcement of the Chairman yesterday afternoon that the board allowed the question as to salaries paid to Bell Company executives, C. F. Size, questioned by Mr. Reid, stated that the President received $30,000 yearly; the Vice-President, $20,000; second Vice-President, $10,000; General Superintendent of the plant, $10,000; General Commercial Superintendent, $8,000; between $8,000 and $10,000 a year, Mr. Size added, was paid to the General Superintendent of Traffic, the Comptroller, the Chief Engineer and the Divisional Manager at Montreal. He did not remember any other officials as earning salaries as these.

Questioned by T. R. Waddell, representing the city of Hamilton, Mr. Size said that the factors which determined the fixing of the proposed increased rates were chiefly population and the number of telephones.

ASSAULTED HIS WIFE, AND GETS SUSPENDED SENTENCE.

LINDSAY, December 16. — Before Judge Swayze, a South Ward man pleaded guilty to a charge of assaulting and doing actual bodily harm to his wife. Two brothers of the prisoner were in Court, and undertaking to see that he secured employment at good wages in Detroit, he was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bsmuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisurated magnesia — not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia which you can obatin from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisurated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continued use of the bisurated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

A SUDDEN DEATH

PORT HOPE, Dec. 15.—The death occurred very suddenly in Toronto Tuesday of Mr. Fred Fiddick of Brighton. Mr. Fiddick was suffering from a heavy cold and asthma. On Sunday he was given an injection of serum to relieve the asthma but his condition during the night became quite serious. It is reported that blood poisoning developed and Mr. Fiddick was taken to Toronto for treatment. His condition however, rapidly grew worse and he passed away Tuesday morning.

HEARTBURN
A SEVERE CASE

Many people are troubled with heartburn who really do not realize just what it is.

In cases of this trouble there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by disturbed appetite. It is generally caused by great acidity of the stomach, and whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment and becomes extremely sour, causing heartburn. In such cases vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up is sour and sometimes bitter.

The way to get rid of heartburn is to keep your liver active by using and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles such as constipation, jaundice, water brash, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath, etc.

Miss Agnes Cutting, Shallow Lake, Ont., writes:—"I have had heartburn for a long time. There were gnawing and burning pains in my stomach, and then when I vomited there was a sour and bitter taste. I used two vials of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of my heartburn. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine."

Price, 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn, Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PROPERTY OWNERS ORGANIZE

$5, $6 and $7 Novelty Leather Hand Bags, $3.29

We had to send for reinforcements, and along came another shipment of these excellent Hand Bags. Alligator, Spider Webb, and Pin Seal Grain Leathers.

One Style Old Enough To Be a Novelty.

It is called "The Pilgrim's Bag," for it is a replica of those carried by the wives of the Pilgrim Fathers. Obtainable in Brown or Grey. Other styles in Black, Blue, Brown, or Grey.

Lowered Prices
On Some Lines of Piece Goods

$2.50 to $3.00 Silk Crepe de Chine, $1.89 Yard

The pieces are sold down pretty well, but there is sufficient for most any purpose. However, because the lengths are getting short, we wish to make a clearance. Forty inches wide and our regular guaranteed stock line. The colors are black, navy, grey, taupe, flesh, maize, pink, sky, rose, ivory, Russian green, burgundy, Paddy green and prunella.

Elbow-Proof Georgette Crepe, $1.75 Yard

A reliable quality of Georgette, even though the price is very low. A choice of a wide range of colours—almost every shade.

$2.50 Navy Serge, $1.69 Yard

A splendid All-Wool Cloth that is 50 inches wide. We find it is popular for Gymnasium Bloomers, Boys' Suits, Girls' Dresses, etc.

$5.00 Botany Serge, $2.95 Yard

Two pieces only. This quotation is below the mill price. It possesses all that could be desired in a Serge. Choice of black or navy in a 54-inch width.

$2.25 Natural Pongee Silk, 98c Yard

By far the best Pongee we have had this season. A weight suitable for women's blouses, dresses and gentlemen's shirts. Width is 33 inches.

$3.00 Blanket Velour, $2.29 Yard

An All-Wool Coating Velour suitable for women's and children's coats or bath robes. Some of the plain grey plaids are suitable for men's smoking jackets. Plain colors in cardinal, navy, sapphire, brown, grey, scarlet, taupe and black. Widths are 54 and 57 inches.

$3.00 Black and Navy Duchess, $2.29 Yard

This is our best Duchess and is 36 inches wide. Is a heavy weight, has an all-silk back, lustrous sheen. A guaranteed quality.

Shopping Hints For The Christmas Season

Gifts that are a little out of the ordinary for the house-lover are quaint book racks in Buddha figures of dull gold bronze or in charming peacock designs; the new Italian motifs in birds and fruit for curtain pulls that make a bright spot of color within and without; a Japanese carvtd-leather shield for the telephone in the living room; a guest book replica of one of the old illuminated masterpieces; a portable desk box for correspondence; a salad dish and bowl in the new iridescent glass; a lunch basket with separate sandwich compartments; a decorative waste-paper basket; a pair of decorative candlesticks or a gleaming yellow bowl for the hallway or living room.

Gifts that children can easily make for the Christmas season include several pretty things in raffia, which most youngsters are able to work with. A sandwich-tray for mother, a fancy basket based with Japanese shadow paper, hot-dish mats, a reed basket for potted plants are easily fashioned by little fingers. A recipe book with the design in colored paper pasted on, an ordinary box painted black, with Japanese post-card for decoration, a black paper-covered blotter, with colored paper decorations in conventional design, candle-shades filled with Japanese paper or stencilled paper, a telephone directory with a Japanese paper or stencilled paper, a telephone directory with a Japanese print, a tiny head-cushhion with simple cross-stitch design are different variations.

NAVAL RATIO DECIDED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(Canadian Press).—Consideration of the naval ratio question is said to have been completed by the "Big Three."

SAYS SERBIA HAS COME BACK NOW.

Recovers from War in a Spectacular Way.

BELGRADE, JUGOSLAVIA, Dec 14.—(By Associated Press.)—Serbia has "come back." This is perhaps the most incisive way of saying that the little Slav kingdom has recovered in the most spectacular way from the effects of war. For the first time in 10 years the country is standing on its own feet and is in no need of outside assistance. The peasantry of Jugoslavia, which form the backbone and sinew of the country, are enjoying a degree of prosperity and material contentment unknown before.

Other countries may have their unemployment problems, but Jugoslavia has none. Indeed, she has abundant work for thousands of aliens who are honest, have the will to work and are free from Bolshevism. Two hundred thousand good Russians who were without employment since the Petrograd revolution of 1917 have come to hospitable Jugoslavia and found useful and profitable pursuits among people of their own tongue. Every Serbian soldier, too, has found remunerative work upon leaving the army. Soldiers' unions, legions, or employment bureaus do not exist in this country.

The most impressive evidence of Serbia's rejuvenation is the extraordinary building boom which is sweeping the country. In Belgrade alone 4,000 buildings are in course of construction. In every corner of the kingdom business buildings, schoolhouses and private dwellings are springing up with a rapidity that reminds one of the building boom in the Western towns of the United States when gold was discovered, or of the home-building craze that seized the suburban centers of that country a decade ago.

Every square foot of the 4,000 buildings now in erection in the Serbian capital is taken, and it will require thousands of additional structures to accommodate the business firms and individuals who are flocking to the Jugoslavian metropolis in ever-increasing numbers. Once called "an overgrown village," Belgrade is now for the first time assuming the proportions, importance and dignity of a real capital. Soon the city will have a splendid parliament building, a royal residence, and an opera house of which more prosperous and ostentatious countries might feel proud.

NOVA SCOTIA MINERS ARE NOT SATISFIED.

Disappointed in That So-Called Montreal Agreement.

HALIFAX, Dec. 15.—The Montreal Agreement so called, which has governed the wage and working relations between the coal operators of Nova Scotia comprising chiefly the companies included in the British Empire Steel merger, and approximately 12,000 men employed in the mines since November 1920, grew out of a report of a Royal Commission, which in that year conducted an investigation into the coal industry of Nova Scotia. The Commission had on it E. McG. Quirk of the Department of Labor, Ottawa—Sir William Stavert, financier, Montreal, and Willard P. Hutchinson, Canadian National Railway Despatcher, Moncton.

Exclusive of numerous recommendations having to do without housing, etc., the Commission recommended that wage increases of one dollar per day for datal men and twenty percent for contract miners be granted; that a sliding scale of wage be provided; and that compulsory arbitration of disputes should be agreed to. The miners bitterly assailed the sliding scale and compulsory arbitration features of the finding, regarding the former as the worst possible menace to their interests. Finally, at Montreal after a conference between representatives jof the mine owners and the executive of the United Mine Workers of America, district 26, the Union Organization of the Miners of the Maritime Provinces, an agreement was drawn up which was a compromise on the finding of the Royal Commission. The companies agreed to drop the sliding scale and the miners modified their wage demands to an increase of 55 cents a day for datal men and twelve and a half percent for contract workers, also retaining the compulsory arbitration clause. When accepted it was to go into effect November 1, 1920.

The Agreement was a bitter disappointment to large sections of the rank and file of the United Mine Workers. The finding of the Royal Commission had led them to expect almost double the increase actually granted. A special district convention at Truro, after hot debate subsequently rejected the agreement by a vote of 76 to 20. J. B. McLachlan, then, as now, district secretary of the Mine Workers, commenting on the vote said, "I said this agreement will pass and I say so still."

According to the United Mine Workers constitution a referendum was held. District President Robert Baxter—Secretary McLachlan, and International Board Member, Silby Barrett, took the stump on behalf of the agreement. At Waterford sentiment was so hostile that eggs and other missiles were thrown at these officers. The Miners' leaders, however, forecast that the coal fields then at the height of seven years of prosperity, would face hard times in the near future, and after strenuous campaigning the referendum gave a fair majority in favor of the Montreal agreement. Generally speaking, Glace Bay and Sydney Mines District supported the agreement, while Pictou, New Waterford and Springhill coal fields opposed it.

DEMANDS DETAILS FOR RAILWAY COMMISSION

OTTAWA, Dec. 15.— (Canadian Press.)—R. A. Reed, for the Ontario Attorney-General, before the Railway Commissioners to-day, said the revenues of the Bell Telephone Company were largely enhanced through co-operative service with the North American Telegraph Company and that he proposed to demand that full details be laid before the Board. He also demanded particulars of salaries and expenses of officials covering a seven year period. His remand was approved by Commissioner Nantel, but Mr. Carvell demurred.

BELL 'PHONE COMPANY CONCLUDES ITS CASE.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press). — The Bell Telephone Co. concluded its case before the Railway Commissioners this morning, and G. R. Geary, K.C., for Toronto, and R. A. Reed, for the Attorney-General of Ontario, asked for the immediate dismissal of the application for increased rates.

Mr. Geary claimed that the company had only shown a falling revenue so far as long distance tolls were concerned, and that deficit would be more than off-set by decreased expenditures. Mr. Reed accepted the grounds urged by Mr. Geary. Mr. Carvell, however, allowed the case to proceed.

BETHANY AND THE DISTRICT

L. O. L. 1022 ELECT OFFICERS —CHOIR HONORS MISS MABLE BLAKE BEFORE LEAVING VILLAGE—SOCIAL ACTIVITIES.

BETHANY, Dec. 16. — Business visitors to Peterborough on Wednesday were: Messrs. A. H. Monk, H. Patterson, Mrs. W. Card and Mrs. J. Wilson, Dr. Hamilton and Mr. P. C. Brown.

Mr. Geo. Wilson, of Yelverton, was a business visitor in the village on Wednesday.

Business visitors to Lindsay on Thursday were: Mr. and Mrs. S. Murphy, Rev. A. T. and Mrs. Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Flack.

Epworth League.

The Epworth League on Wednesday evening was well attended, about fifty young people being present. The opening devotional exercises were taken by the president, Miss Dewell, after which Mrs. Monk, missionary vice - president, took charge. Mrs. Jackson gave an excellent address on the life of Miss Reid Leper, missionary in the Himilayes. Miss Dewell gave the topic, "Our Educational Work in China." "A Mite-Box Talk" was given by six members of the Mission Band, while an excellent duet, "Let the Lower Lights be Burning," was given by Theodora Davis and Harold Monk.

Hazel Jackson told the Christmas story as found in Luke ii., 4-18, and "The Angel Chorus, Glory to God in the Highest," was sung by the whole congregation. Then Rev. A. L. Brown, of Queen Street Church, Lindsay, gave a splendid address on our missionary work in general as it is found in China to-day. Rev. Mr. Beckel then took charge of a missionary questionaire, which was much enjoyed, as all had a chance to take part.

Next Wednesday the Literary and Social Vice-President, Miss Lillian Westlake, will have charge of the programme. Every one is welcome, so come, as there is room for more.

L. O. L. Met.

The annual meeting of L. O. L. No. 1022 was held on Tuesday night, Dec. 13th, in their lodge-room. The meeting was one week later this year on account of the election being on the regular day. After other business was transacted, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W.M., Bro. Wm. Sisson; D.M., Bro. John Cairns; Chaplain, Bro. Ed. Bray; Rec. Sec., Bro. Bernard Preston; Fin. Sec., Bro. Karl Sisson; Treas., Bro. Geo. Sisson; Lecturer, Bro. Harry Reynolds; D. of C., Bro. Percy Preston; Committee: Bros. William Whiteside, Chas. Reynolds, Edward Swanson, Thomas Staples, Henry Ward.

Social Evening.

At the home of Mrs. McGrath on Wednesday evening last, the choir of St. Paul's Church met to spend a social evening, and to present a few tokens of esteem to Miss Mable Blake before her departure from the village.

Winnifred Dawe, becomingly attired, first placed in Miss Blake's hands a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers, after which Master Frank Hamilton and Hughie Swanson, bearing baskets of daintily wrapped gifts, made presentation of many pretty and useful articles from members of the choir, and of one exceptional beautiful set of hand embroidered table linen from the Girls' Guild.

After partaking of light refreshments, the young people spent a pleasant hour or two with music and other social pleasures.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

To see the healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside bathing every morning for a week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a fine appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges or whose skin is sallow or pallid, that one week of inside bathing will have them looking and feeling better every way.

WAS ALLARD THE DUPE OF MORTON?

CHEQUE FORGERY CASE TRIED IN COUNTY COURT TODAY

At 11.45 a.m. to-day Judge E. C. S. Huycke, presiding over the December sittings of the County Court, turned the five charegs of forgery and attempted forgery against Harry Allard of Oshawa over to the jury, and at one o'clock adjournment the jury had not reached a verdict.

Allard was arraigned in County Court yesterday afternoon at 3 p. m. with five charges of forgery and forging or uttering cheques by using cheques as if genuine. Three of the forged cheques for $21.50 each, were cashed respectively by John Speer, East City grocery, Edward Black, of J. S. Black and Sons, grocers, corner of George and Dublin streets, and Daniel Hayward, grocer, Aylmer street north; and a worthless cheque for $10 which he was charged with forging and utering by using it, as if it were genuine, was cashed by James Lewis, Hunter street. Accused was similarly charged with forging or uttering a cheque for $18.50, refused by Robert Goheen, grocer, corner of Murray and Aylmer streets.

Crown Attorney G. W. Hatton conducted the case for the Crown and Allard, who pleaded not guilty to the five charges, was defended by D. A. J. Swanson, of Oshawa.

Kenneth Morton, who will receive sentence to-morrow from Magistrate Dumble for the above forging, to which he has pleaded guilty, aveg evidence that Allard did not assist in the actual forgeries, but was with him in the transactions.

In charging the jury His Honour pointed out that from Morton's evidence, Allard was apparently Morton's dupe, and he left it to the jury to decide if Allard was knowingly and wittingly connected with the forgeries or not. Allard can not read or write.

Judge Sends Back Jury.

In the Allard case of forgery, tried by jury before Judge Huycke in the December sittings of the County Court, the jury returned at 2.40 this afternoon after being out nearly three hours and reported to His Honour they could reach no agreement.

The presiding judge urged upon them the importance of reaching a decision, dwelling on the expense and delay incurred in a new trial and impressing upon them the fact that Allard would likely have to be sent back to jail, as it was extremely unlikely that a new trial could be held at once. He said he felt he must ask them to go back and consider the case, endeavouring to reach an agreement.

COMMISSION WILL ACT.

PARIS, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press.) — The Allied Reparations Commission agreed at this morning's session that it will take definite action on the request of Germany for an extension of time to pay the next two instalments in full, instead of referring the question to the Allied Governments.

SANITARY KITCHEN.

Is your kitchen used chiefly for the preparation of food, or is it a combination cook-room, laundry, washroom, passageway, and dining room? It is better to use the kitchen only as a place for preparing and, if necessary, serving food. This is more sanitary and permits more compact and convenient arrangement of equipment. Laundry, wash room and general storage room are sometimes combined and used as a place for men and children coming in from out of doors to leave work clothes and muddy boots and rubbers.

REPARATIONS PAYMENT.

PARIS, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press.)—Germany has not asked for a moratorium because of inability to meet reparations payment in January, but places the matter entirely in the hands of Reparations Commission.

WAR HERO DEAD.

LONDON, Dec. 16.— (Canadian Press.) — General Sir John Eccles Nixon, commander of the British forces in Mesopotamia in 1915 and 1916, is dead at St. Raphael, France.

EMBARGO ON FOWL.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press.)—Fowls delivered from Canada recently have been infected with croup, and a committee of the Western New York Veterinary Medical Association called to-day on the State and Health Officers to discuss the advisability of a temporary and contribute $50 to the expenses.

IN THE WORLD OF FASHIONS

FOR THE GAY LITTLE MAID

If Santa should wonder what to hang on her Christmas tree, comes a net fan all sequins, black and gold thread and tortoise shell—or a wonderful corsage trimming of white water lilies on gold cord stems—or a wee silk rose, like the one in the circle, that pins on to add its touch of beauty, and can be trusted never to give up its powder puff—secret unless m'lady has a mind to unscrew its "shut pink mouth."

WOULD ABOLISH THE SUBMARINE

SUCH IS BRITA'N'S PROPOSAL TO ARMS CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, December 16th — Canadian Press. — Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British delegation, gave notice to-day that Britain would propose to the arms conference the total abolition of the submarine.

No official word has come from the conference as to what tonnage France has asked, but if her request is for 350,000 tons, it would represent about 40 per cent. increase in her present capital ship strength, measured in terms of modern dreadnaught tonnage. She has afloat today about 168,000 tons in ships.

The Fench delegates are said to have given as a reason for this request that France has but few ships during the war and must refit.

The British recognize the rights of France to a moderate increase, but strongly disapprove her proposals, and are supported by the United States delegates.

If the French proposals are carried out, Italy will be obliged to Build to the same amount.

TWO FIRE ALARMS AT THE SAME TIME

AN UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE IN FIRE DEPARTMENT ANNALS

Two fires occurring practicalyl at the same time forced Fire Chief Grange to split his forces at a minute's notice last night, but both fires were extinguished with little difficulty.

The Department were just leaving the Hall at 7.27 to answer a call from Box 21, when an alarm came in from 30 Lafayette Avenue. The horse driver's apparatus was called out and manned by the second shift of men who responded at each alarm, and both fires were extinguished at the same time.

Fire No. 1 was at 255 George Street, the home of Frank Doukas, owned by Harry Denne. The fire breaking out in the walls of the kitchen at the rear of the house began from unknown causes, when only Mr. Doukas' children were in the house. Returning at 7.27, one of the Doukas brothers found the house full of smoke, and sent in the alarm. The children were in the front part of the house. Two lines of hose were laid and chemicals used. The damage was estimated to-day at $50.0 oor $75.00.

Fire No. 2 was a chimney fire at the residence of Mr. Dagnall, 30 Lafayette Avenue, and was extinguished with chemicals.

CIDER OVER STRENGTH HOTEL MAN IS FINED

PORT HOPE, Dec. 16.—For selling cider with a real kick in it, L. K. Bosheff, proprietor of the Ontario House here, was fined $200 and $10 costs ,or in default of payment three months in jail. A sample of this cider having been sent to Toronto for analysis, it was pronounced to contain nine per cent. of proof spirits, and in consequence Justices of of the Peace J. W. Sanders and Alex. Walsh had no alternative but to impose a heavy penalty. In defence Bosheff deposed that he bought the cider from David Quantrell, and had added a quanity of acid and sugar to keep it good, but not to give the liquor additional strength.

METAL JEWELRY VOGUE

Steel bead jewelry is featured among the more expensive articles on the Christmas list. Steel bead tassels on moired gros grain ribbon, bracelets of steel bead motifs set on black velvet ribbon, and bracelets of all-steel beads backed with silver are seen in the shops. An attractive steel bead and ribbon bracelet has a motiff of beads on the velvet, and a tail of steel beads on the end, which, when worn dangles down. A slide is provided for adjusting the bracelet to fit the wrist. Bracelets of pearl beads are also conspicious in the jewelry showings and single or double narrow gold or silver metal bracelets are also a feature.

Enamel articles are prominently displayed in Christmas showings and much stress is laid on these as gift suggestions. Among these are hand painted enamel jewelry boxes, powder cases, trays and cigarette holders.

WILL DEAL GENEROUSLY WITH RETURNED MEN

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.— (Canadian Press.)—Hon. Mackenzie King has assured delegations of war veterans that his administration will deal not only justly but generously with returned men and women and dependents of those who sacrificed their lives in the war. He has promised the whole question pertaining to ex-service men and women and dependents will be re-opened by a committee of the House.

From Peterboro to Old Friends Far Away

SANTA CLAUS is not entitled to all the credit for Christmas Good Cheer. The custom of sending the Old Town Newspaper to Old Town Friends far away carries much happiness in its train.

Examiner

will help to break the sense of distance and serve to keep the dear old memories of the old home town ever fresh and green.

In view of the coming Old Folks' Celebration in Peterborough next year, a year's subscription to The Examiner would be a delightful messenger of Good Cheer. It would be a welcome daily message to every Old Peterborough Boy, telling them every day what is going on in the "Electric City."

The subscription price by mail is $4.80 per annum.

May the spirit of Christmas possess all our readers, swelling their hearts with gladness of life and returning to them the rich and enduring rewards of neighborliness of act, word and good thought.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

Women factory workers in Chile number more than 10,000.

The Woman's Trade Union now has a membership of more than 1,000,000.

Women first appeared on the stage in the latter half of the seventeenth century.

A old idea that still prevails in India is that girls should become wives between the age of 10 and 13.

Miss Annie Mathews, register of New York county, is the highest paid woman holding public office, her salary being $12,000 a year.

FASHIONS IN BRIEF

Coiffure bands are replacing Spanish combs.

A blouse of ivory white charmeuse is buttoned high and trimmed with fine pin tucks.

Silk braided cord is popular tied around a low waistline on fur coats, as well as on silk dresses

Broadcloth is proclaimed as "the distinct novelty of the season" for suits. It is used in afternoon dresses in combination with satins and nets.

One of the new afternoon dresses is of velvet quilted in gold thread and trimmed with Persian lamb fur with hammered steel nail head embroidery on the under sleeves and a heavily jeweled girdle worn at a law waistline.

The Spanish hip line his become popular in New York. All the smart new frocks have the little flare on either side and are long and graceful in the skirt. The smartness at the waist is given by a corset. This model will be much in vogue through the winter and spring.

HINTS TO HOUSEWIVES

The inner skin of the eggshells will clear coffee as well as the eggs themselves.

If the garbage is wrapped in newspaper it will keep the can unstained and odorless.

Soured condensed milk may have two parts of water added and be used for cooking the same as other sour milk.

In making cocoanut pie or custard soak the cocoanut in the milk for a few minutes before adding the other ingredients.

Fold two or three thickness of wax paper and line bottom of pie-plate; it saves the crusts from becoming soggy.

There are several kinds of grapefruit knives but the straight slender bladed one does the work nicely and is easier to use than that with the curved blade.

The marks of matches on white paint can be removed by rubbing first with cut lemon, then with a damp cloth dipped in powdered whiting. Rinse with cold water and wipe dry with soft cloths.

CHINESE QUESTIONS AT EASTERN PARLEY TOUCH THE DOMINION

(By BEN DEACON, Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. — The questions relating to China which are now under consideration at the Washington Conference should be of particular interest to the people of Canada for their satisfactory settlement may be of great importance in connection with the future development of the Dominion. This opinion was expressed by one of the advisers of the Chinese delegation in the course of an interview with the Canadian Press today.

"For both Canada and the United States China offers greater trade possibilities than almost any other portion of the globe," he said. "If China is given an opportunity to develop, unhampered by the adverse conditions which have prevailed in the past, three will undoubtedly be opened up a great new market for the goods of the two great nations of this continent. Canada is in a particularly fortunate position for taking advantage of this new field."

This spokesman who requested that his name be withheld, is considered one of the world's greatest authorities on matters relating to China. He has lived for thirty years in that country and is in very close touch with the members of the Chinese delegation. He is also familiar with conditions in Canada, having travelled extensively in the Dominion. In connection with his work in China he has studied Canada's commercial possibilities in the Orient, and is convinced that, as a result steps which will be taken by the nations represented at the conference toward the rehabilitation of China, future years will see a great flow of trade from the Dominion to the great Oriental republic.

The industries of British Columbia will benefit particularly, he believes, and the first result so far as Canada is concerned will be the acceleration of industrial development of that province.

Friendly to Canada

"Canada is becoming increasingly well and favorably known in China," he said. "Mr. J. W. Ross, your Trade Commissioner in Shanghai, has done remarkably good work in promoting the interests of the Dominion and in advertising the country there. A number of Canadian commercial houses also have representatives in China and they, too, have helped to spread a general knowledge of their country in Chinese business circles.

"The Chinese people have a very friendly feeling toward Canada. Their business dealings with the commercial representatives of the Dominion have been satisfactory and they have learned that Canadians are to be trusted. The way has therefore already been opened and when the development of China comes as a result of what will be accomplished here, Canada I am sure, will profit by it."

Thi spokesman agrees that much which the conference will decide in regard to China will be of a provisional character. The Chinese themselves realize that this is essential, he says. They are not in a hurry. They have no expectation of completely changing the status and condition of their country over night. They are content that they at last have an opportunity of laying their case before the world; that they apparently have won the good-will and a sincere promise of assistance from the great majority of the nations; that many of the limitations under which they believe their country's development has been restricted are to be carefully considered with a view to their ultimate removal; and that they have opportunity of bringing other matters which they consider an infringement of their rights before a fair and sympathetic tribunal.

Wrong Impression

As to the present conditions in China, the assertion is made by this advocate of the Chinese case that the surface indications convey a wrong impression. The claims of the several "governments", and the rivalries of different leaders who have obtained temporary ascendancy in various parts of the country have served to obscure the real sentiment of the mass of the people. This, he declares, is solidly behind the representatives of China.

"The Chinese people want to work out their destiny in their own way without any interference from outside," he said. "That is their one desire, the one object upon which they are solidly united. Despite factional struggles and differences in regard to matters of purely domestic importance, the people are as one on this question. The delegates who are in Washington now, though nominally the representatives of the Peking government, are in reality speaking for the mass of the Chinese people, the people of the south as well as those of the north."

China's past history, this spokesman continued, has been a series of entanglements with various other nations. The Chinese people had turned first to one power and then to another in the hope of obtaining betterment of their condition. The result was that the Chinese government soon drifted into the policy of playing one power against the other with the object of bargaining for assistance. The result was a series of agreements and treaties in which China gradually batrered away her national status and became disintegrated and politically impotent.

Can Deal With Others

Today for the first time China finds herself in a position to deal with the other nations collectively, he continued. Matters which would have taken years to clear up by dealing separately with the interested nations individually can now be laid upon the international council table and can be disposed of in a spirit of open friendliness and consideration of the rightful interests of all parties. Moreover it is apparent that China, in this conference, has the goodwill of the other nations, which are united in a sincere desire to help her. This is China's great opportunity. The Chinese people realize this, he added, and at heart they are a solid mass behind the delegates who are pleading their cause."

No Appetite

Nervous exhaustion leads to dis taste for food. The nerves of the stomach are weak, digestion fails and you become generally upset and out of sorts.

The secret of complete restoration is in getting the nervous system fully built up.

Mrs. R. Cheney, 208 Richmond St., Chatham, Ont., writes:

"I was troubled with indigestion, which caused me many sleepless nights. I would be in terrible distress at times, and would get no relief for two or three hours. For sixteen months I ate nothing but Shredded Wheat biscuits, as I dare not eat anything else. I did not know what to do, as I had tried so many different remedies, as well as doctors' medicines, without gaining permanent relief. Finally I got some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and while on the second box noticed that I was improving. I continued the treatment until I am now fully restored, and have returned to my regular diet. My husband has also taken Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results, so we are glad to recommend it to others."

DEATH PENALTY UPON PEASANTS.

Who Attempt to Evade the Russian Grain Tax.

ROSTOFF - ON - DON, RUSSIA, Dec. 14.—(By Associated Press.)—The death penalty is being inflicted in the Kuban and Don districts upon peasants who attempt to evade the grain tax which the government has instituted instead of money taxes. At Krasnodarsk a peasant and two officials whom he bribed to assist him in dodging the grain levy were all shot, and radical steps are being taken throughout South Russia, to check the banditry which the Moscow government denounces as nothing more than an effort to escape taxation.

General Budenny, the cavalry leader who figured so prominently in the fighting against General Wrangel and the Poles, has been made a member of the central council in the Caucasus which is endeavoring to check movements against Moscow government authority. In a recent speech he announced that the best results are obtained by taking hostages in the various villages and forcing the villagers themselves to capture the bandit leaders and surrender them. Where the villagers have refused to give up the bandits it has sometimes been necessary to destroy the villages as a warning to other offenders.

RETURNS WAGER CHEQUE.

NEWMARKET, Dec. 15. — (Canadian Press).—Hon. Mackenzie King has returned to John Bain, the Conservative party's publicity agent at Ottawa, the thousand dollar cheque which the Premier-elect won on the election. Mr. Bain wagered that the Government would have the largest number of seats.

BREACH O.T.A.

PORT HOPE, Dec. 15.—Lawrence Nelson, the 17 year old resident of Hamilton township, who sold Scotch and Gin at two dollars per bottle and which he claimed he found buried on his father's farm when ploughing, appeared before Magistrate Floyd in the Colice Court at Cobourg. Considerable evidence was taken on the case and the Magistrate decided to reserve judgment. Kemp, the commercial traveller from Toronto, who purchased a quantity of the liquor from Nelson was fined two hundred dollars and costs.

SERBIA FREE OF EPIDEMICS

HARROWING PICTURES OF 1918 COMPARED WITH HAPPY, HEALTHY, PROSPEROUS CONDITIONS TODAY.

MODEL FOR THE WORLD

NISH, Jugoslavia, Dec. 16.—(By Associated Press.)—Serbia today is practically free of epidemics of disease. The population never enjoyed better health or more genuine contentment. The hospitals never held fewer patients. The death-rate seldom has been lower. Doctors have rarely found it so difficult to make a living. This is regarded as remarkable in view of the fearful scourges which claimed half its population during the world war and the post-armistice period.

The correspondent, who visited Serbia at irregular intervals during 1918, 1919 and 1920, recently made another journey through the country. He noted an amazing change in the appearance of the people. The men and women looked strong, vigorous and well-fed. They wore the finest homespun clothing. The babies were plump, bright-eyed and smiling. All were warmly clad. Everywhere the homes were examples of cleanliness, comfort and abundance.

Harrowing Picture

No such picture could be found in Serbia in years previous. In 1918, for example, when the armistice mercifully intervened and saved Serbia from extinction, the correspondent saw men and women clad in rags, afflicted with disease, homeless and hopeless, dying of inanition as they walked. He observed babies wrapped in empty flour sacks, in newspapers, and even in pieced together leaves, the bones showing through their frail little bodies for want of sustenance or as a result of disease. He visited hospitals packed with typhus-ridden patients; orphanges overflowing with parentless children; asylums crowded with feeble-minded and distracted.

A Different Scene

But Serbia of 1921, or Jugoslavia, as it is more correct to call it, presents a different scene. The country has emerged from those years of misery, want and woe in an almost miraculous fashion. It is a changed nation, not merely politically and territorally, but physically and spiritually. While the rest of the world has been squabbling over territorial boundaries, economic zones, reparations, indemnities and internal strife, Jugoslavia has been "sawing wood" and minding her own business.

Her house is now completely in order. And it is a model house for the rest of the world to see.

This metamorphosis, for such it must be called, may be ascribed first to the country's freedom from war, second to the unceasing thrift and energy of its people; third, to the abundance of foodstuffs, clothing, medicines and other necessaries which the country up to now has lacked; fourth, to the material assistance given by the American Food Administration and the Serbian doctors and sanitary authorities; sixth, to the sanitary and medical reforms introduced by American, British and French doctors and nurses during and since the war.

People Now Happy

It would be difficult to find anywhere else in the world a people at once so happy, healthy, hopeful, prosperous and active as the Serbian peasantry. Certainly their counterpart cannot be found anywhere among the diverse races of the Balkan peninsula.

It is true that here and there a home has been saddened by the loss in war of a husband or a brother or a father; but taken collectively it may be said that the welfare of morale seldom higher; their usefulness as factors to society never more apparent; their future never so full of promise.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

She Kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy, with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a ponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

CAN REPAY 750,000 RUBLES WITH 50 POUNDS

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(By Canadian Press)—A debtor who, in 1914, borrowed 75,00 Russian rubles, then worth abou 78,00 pounds, can now repay in full with 50 pounds, Judge Russel has decided in the Chancery Divison of the Royal Courts of Justce. However, a story of execution was granted with a view to an appeal.

The parties were the British Bank for Foreign Trade, which borrowed the 750,000 rubles from the Russian Commercial and Industrial Bank against securities whch the borrower now sought to redeem. The lending bank, however, insisted on payment of 78,000 in sterling.

The judge held that the loan was a ruble loan repayable in rubles, either imperial Romanoff, Kerensky or Soviet issues, which ever were available. Soviet rubles were quoted at about 60 for a penny at the time of the court's decision.

The Girl Who Would be Queen

The Madly Ambitious Daughter of Hungary's Cunning Regent Is Scheming to Marry Archduke Albert and Share with Him the Throne Charles of Hapsburg Lost

Nicolaus Horthy, Who Is Playing the Role of King Maker—and Unmaker.

Paula, Daughter of Admiral Nicolaus Horthy, Regent of Hungary.

THIS is the story of "The Girl Who Would Be Queen"—and who may yet be, if the plans of her powerful father do not collapse. The author is Fate, the players are:

PAULA HORTHY, aged nineteen, pretty; daughter of

NICOLAUS HORTHY, Protector of Hungary, who prevented

CHARLES OF HAPSBURG from ascending the Hungarian throne, at the instigation of

ZITA OF TUSCANY, his wife, who sought to prevent

ARCHDUKE ALBERT of Austria from marrying Paula and being made king of the Magyars, with the help of money furnished by an AMERICAN SYNDICATE, composed of Charles H. Sabin, Chairman of the Board of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York; J. Leonard Replogle, millionaire steel man; Frank A. Munsey, Samuel Untermeyer, the famous lawyer, and others.

The Scenes—Budapest, Switzerland, and Paris.

The Time—The last three years.

THE PLOT.

EX-QUEEN ZITA faced her husband in their villa in Switzerland, where they had taken refuge after the political storm which resulted in Charles' flight from Hungary.

"Are you going to allow that upstart plebeian, Horthy, to marry his daughter Paula to Archduke Albert and then to place him on the throne of Maria Theresa?" she asked.

The former emperor of Austro-Hungary stared into space for a time.

"The time for a coup d'etat on my part is most opportune," he said at length.

"Opportune or not," exclaimed Zita, "I will not permit Paula Horthy to be queen of Hungary while I live——she, a plebeian! You MUST act and act at once!" Zita was furious. Charles, never a strong character, hesitated for a few minutes.

"As you wish, my dear," he said finally "I am hereditary king of Hungary and as such I cannot renounce the throne even if I would."

The consequence of the nagging was that Charles and Zita entered an airplane and flew into Hungary where they alighted and were met by a bodyguard of monarchists and a few thousand loyal soldiers. The result is known to the world.

And now, like in a motion picture, it becomes necessary to "cut back" to events immediately after the armistice. Charles as hereditary king of Hungary, could not renounce his throne—no matter what the external pressure or the pretext. Once a king of Hungary, a king so long as life lasted—that is the alpha and omega of Magyar history.

But constitution or no constitution, Charles, his wife and their five beautiful children fled from Hungary and sought refuge in Switzerland. And then there arose a new star in Hungarian history, Nicolaus Horthy de Nagybanya, whom the newly elected Hungarian congress named "Protector", or regent. Horthy was a man of the people, who had worked his way upward until he had become an admiral in the limited navy of Austro-Hungary. When the war began, Horthy was the captain of a small armored cruiser, the Novar. He was in command of a tiny squadron, which the allied ships bottled up in the harbor of Otranto.

The allied ships outnumbered Horthy's ten to one; their concentrated gunfire was twenty times that of the Austrian squadron. The end of Horthy's ships appeared near. It was a dark night, the wind howling and the waves beating a thumping tattoo against the shores.

Horthy's ship, the Novar, suddenly darted into the midst of the allied ships, belching fire and shells right and left, followed by the few destroyers and gun boats at his command. The surprise of the attack, the speed of the Austrian ships and the daring, disconcerted the allied commanders to such an extent, that when dawn came, Horthy's squadron had made its escape, riddled with shells, but heading for Trieste. Horthy lay between decks, desperately wounded, but at the masthead flew his flag in triumph.

It was months before Horthy recovered and in the meantime history had been made with lightning speed. Peace had come and Horthy had been called from his bed to reorganize the Hungarian army. The Rumanian army, with its king, was in possession of Budapest and most of southern Hungary and it was expected that Horthy would lead his countrymen against the invaders. But the Allies intervened and the Rumanians retired peacefully, Horthy entering Budapest as they left.

Then the national assembly made him Protector and gave him the palace where Charles had once reigned. There he installed his wife, his daughter Paula and his retainers. Hundreds of officers and privates surrounded the palace. The etiquette for which the Hapsburgs were famous in better days prevailed. Red tape and ceremonials were the order of the day. Horthy played king with a vengeance. And Paula queened it to her heart's content. She changed from a simple, unaffected country girl, the daughter of a commoner, to a young lady of high aspirations. And it was whispered that soon she began to suffer from "a swelled head."

The Deposed Charles and Zita of Hapsburg and Their Charming Children, Who Staked Their Fortunes On the Ex-King's Futile Coup d'Etat.

For she realized that her father was a king-maker—a modern Warwick, in whose hands destiny and the Hungarian people had placed a great power for good or evil.

And now the scene must be changed to Geneva. Thomas J. Fendler, representative of American millionaires, is spending the summer in Switzerland. At his hotel he is introduced to Archduke Frederick of Austria.

The archduke bewailed his fate—the war had decimated his income and had ruined his enterprises. Many of them had been confiscated by the Allies. Fendler, American and consequently quick of thought, turned abruptly on Frederick.

"At what value in American money do you figure your holdings?" he asked.

"Two hundred million dollars," replied the Archduke.

"I'll form a trust company to finance your holdings, give you one-third stock interest and $25,000,000 in cash," said Fendler. It took the Austrian a few minutes to recover from the shock. A month later, the necessary papers were signed in Paris and the great holdings were transferred to the American trust company.

Which brings us to another scene—one in which Albert, son of Frederick plays the leading role. Albert, young, a typical Austrian—dashing, vivacious and debonnair, had made the most of life, with never a thought of being anything save the heir to his father's fortune.

But at Godello, some 25 miles from Budapest, fate was working in his behalf.

Papa and Mamma Horthy picked Albert as husband for Paula, and as a king for Hungary. They invited the young man to Godello for an indefinite stay. He came, aware of what was in store for him. In the forefront of those who greeted him was Paula Horthy, the "Girl Who May Be Queen." The young prince of her dreams was delighted by her charms. The girl was in her element—play-acting a princess.

The fond parents left the couple alone as much as possible. Albert and Paula took long rides; they played tennis; they went boating. Their romance progressed famously and a wedding seemed in sight, when—Charles, nagged by Zita, attempted to regain his throne. How he failed need not be retold here.

There is, however, one fly in the ointment of the Horthy's, the ancient Magyar constitution, which dates back to the Magna Charta. It provides that a Magyar king can neither abdicate nor be deposed. That constitution still rules in Hungary, despite the revolution. Just how Horthy will place Albert on the throne of Maria Theresa, is not plain. He must induce the national assembly to abrogate or change the constitution and as a majority of its members favor Charles, it seems a difficult task. And then, too, Horthy must obtain the consent of the allied powers to the proposed elevation to the throne of Albert.

Upon all this depends the race for a crown, in which plebeian Paula Horthy leads—in which Zita of Tuscany made a misstep which has cost her husband his throne and which may be the cause of their virtual captivity in exile?

INDUSTRIES ARE IMPROVING IN NEW ENGLAND.

Workers in Lawrence Never Were So Prosperous —Only One Wage Cut.

BOSTON, December 16.—(Canadian Press). — Industrial conditions have greatly improved in New England over last year accordingto unofficial reports made public here supplementing advices to the Federal Employment Survey.

Figures gathered by the Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, show that the 35,000 workers there never have been so prosperous—except, perhaps during the closing days of the war.

There has been but one wage cut in the Lawrence textile industry of 12½ per cent, and today every mill is working almost 100 per cent capacity. A year ago, with one or two exceptions, the textile mills were running three and four days a week, and then only employing small working forces.

The Chamber's figures, corrected to Dec. 1, showed also that the paper mills employing less than 1,000 were working at 75 to 80 per cent of capacity, but the metal trades at only 50 per cent.

At the end of October, 1920, savings deposits in Lawrence banks totalled approximately $51,000,000. At the same period this year the figures were $54,293,916.

At New Bedford, most cotton mills reported virtually normal conditions. Approximately 10,000 more operatives were employed than last year. The normal weekly payroll, for 35,666, was given as $645,000.

Textile conditions at Fall River, were unchanged from last year, with 35,000 cotton mill operatives regularly employed after an extended period of curtailment last summer.

Business conditions in Lowell were better, for big cotton mills reported a more satisfactory showing, which has been reflected in other lines. While the shoe and leather industries were reported not up to normal, one large concern is running at full capacity. The metal industries showed improvement. Bank deposits last October totalled $60,302,453, an increase of $696,248 over the same month in 1920.

At Burlington, Vermont, the weekly payroll in the textile industry of that region was said to have increased by $80,000 to $100,000. The plant of the American Woollen Company at Winooski had returned to a war-time basis, after a recent shutdown. The Chace Cotton Mills, idle a year ago, reported a bigger business than ever before, with 30,000 spindles going full time.

Maine industries are improving, according to Governor Baxter.

"There is too much unemployment in Maine, but we are much more fortunate than other states," he said. "Many of our industries are running full time, some on part time but very few are closed down."

As an example, the Sanford Mills Corporation and the Goodall Worsted Company at Sanford reported an increase of 25 per cent in payrolls over last year. Biddeford reported an improvement in the cotton cloth industry, despite the fact that mill workers there, as in most places in New England, had submitted to wage reductions varying from 12 to 22½ per cent.

In Lewiston, the number of employes in the textile mills was said to be virtually the same as in December, 1920. At Auburn, the larger factories have been running full time and having difficulty to keep up with orders. A report of the Lewiston Chamber of Commerce said conditions generally were slightly improved, with orders increased compared with a month ago.

Textile plants have been busy at Manchester, N.H., with seasonal slackness in the shoe and building trades.

Nashua, N.H., reported business prospects for the winter months good. Textiles, especially cotton, were declared to be in satisfactory condition. Shoe manufacturing plants generally were on a 70 per cent basis. Metal and granite trades were suffering most from unemployment.

In Providence, and its vicinity, the textile industries were said to be in a healthy condition. Jewelry trades and metal industries, however, were continuing on part time schedules. Reports from Woonsocket, R.I., said textile factories, particularly cottons, were on a good basis with woolens doing fairly well. Metal industries were experiencing a slump.

Industrial conditions in the Boston district were described in the federal survey by the statement that while a general tone of optimism prevailed, it was offset by actual conditions. Building trades were said to show seasonal unemployment, and metal trades were hard hit, with shoe and leather manufactories quiet. Food products indicates substantial improvement, the report declared, with rubber goods going slow. Textile mills were said to be on a satisfactory basis.

ENGLISH GIRL—Sorry you are losing your good color, but that is because of our climate. It is much dryer than it is in England, and dry climate is ruinous to good color. The best thing you can do is to massage your face well each night and morning with CAMPANA'S ITALIAN BALM and particularly after washing. I would also recomend you to use it for your hands. It will keep them soft and white and prevent redness and chapping. You can buy CAMPANA'S ITALIAN BALM at any Druggist. 40c a large bottle.

GREEKS AND TURKS FACING EACH OTHER.

Positions on 120 Mile Front Will Remain Till Spring.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—(By Associated Press.)—Greeks and Turks are facing each other on a 120-mile front of trenches and earthworks in Asia Minor. These positions are likely to remain stationary until the spring, according to Brigadier General Xenophon Stratigos of the Greek general staff.

The general, who has come to London with Premier Goumaris and Foreign Minister Baltazzi, described the present Greek position as a purely defensive one. Twelve divisions of 9,000 combatants each are holding a line almost due north to south between Eskishehr and Afium Karahissar, at a distance of about 20 miles east of the railway connecting these two important strategical points, with adequate protection on both ends.

Skirmishing Yet

"Although no big fighting has occurred for about a month, it must not be imagined that military activity has entirely ceased," said the general. "Skirmishes and minor raids are of daily occurrence.

General Stratigos then described the Greek dash for Angora by nine divisions last August. The river Sangaria, often mentioned in despatches, first runs west to east, then turns northward and then flows again westward, forming a kind of hollow square. It is in this bend that the last big operations took place.

The Greek forces launched their attack crossing the upper course of the Sangaria southward, and then made a semicircular sweep northeastward in the direction of Angora through the salt desert, driving back the Turks from position to position, on most difficult terrain.

Summer Too Short

"Although the capture of the enemy capital was not our immediate object, we would have taken Angora if we had had another month of summer," the general explained. "But after 24 days of hard fighting and marching, the troops were very much in need of a rest. We were then only some 40 miles from Angora; but if we had pushed on after the necessary period of rest, it would have meant starting a fresh offensive about the end of September, when the bad season sets in. Our forces therefore, recrossed the Sangaria; this time on the south to north bend, in perfect order and not in flight, as had been erroneously reported. The Turks, thinking that they had us beaten, crossed after us, but we threw them back across the river. That was between September 15 and 20.

"Meanwhile, we broke up the railway running eastward from Eskishehr to Angora. We tore it up rail by rail. This again proves that we were not in flight. No fleeing army could do that. We did the job thoroughly; there is practically nothing left of that railway now.

The Hollow Square

"We next set about to raze the hollow square, with a view to make our position quite secure. On one occasion, Sept. 23, the Kemalist cavalry made a dash across the Sangaria and got as far as Sivrihissar, but we beat them back again."

The general paid a generous tribute to the fighting qualities of his adversaries in the defense of positions, but he considered them inferior to the Greeks in open warfare. The reason, he thought was that the Kemalist army is raised by compulsion, and the bulk of the population are hostile to Turkish rule. Captures of war material, he added, revealed the fact that most Kemalist rifles were of Russian manufacture, and some captured field guns bore the mark of the Putiloff Works of Petrograd, showing that they were made as recently as last year.

FINANCIAL AND MARKETS

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Psess.)—Few features of interest were presented at the oepning of to-day's stock market. The general list displayed little of yesterday's unusual activity. Foreign Oils, especially the Dutch group, were heavy, Pan-American Petroleum also easing. Metals reacted slightly, Anaconda and American Brass deal evidently having been discounted. Bethlehem Steel was the only prominent stock to show marked strength, rising 1 5-8 points. Houston Oil, California Petroleum, Davison Chemical, Sears Roebuck, Corn Pronucts anr Cocoa Cola were firm to strong. Foreign exchanegs showen further irregularity on the German reparations situation.

Confusing declines and advances attended lighter dealings of midsession. American Tobacco, Virginia-Carolina Chemical, Central Leather Preferred, and South Porto Rica Sugar lost one to two points. Standard Oil of California, Mexican Petroleum, General Asphalt Common and Preferred, American and Baldwin Locomotives, United Drug, and Woolworth rose one to two points.

Call money open and renewed into next week at 5 per cent., but possible recurrence of yesterday's 6 per cent. rate, acted as a check on operations for the long aecount during the morning. Selling pressure was directed against Secondary Equipments, notably Lima Locomotive, Railway Steel Spring and Pressed Steel Car at reactions of one to two points; Baldwin Locomotive, Federal Mining and Smelting Preferred, American Sugar, National Biscuit, United Fruit and Western Union yielded to the same extent. Prices rallied partially before noon, cheaper domestic oils, motor specialties and tobaccos leading the recovery.

American International, International Paper, International Harvester and Famous Players also were firm.

The bond market was dull a nd featureless.

Liberty Bonds at noon—31 2's 95.00 first 4's 97.30; second 4's 96.64; first 4 1-4's 97.34; second 4 1-4's 96.94; third 4 1-4's 97.96; fourth 4 1-4's 97.42, 4's 100 Victory 4-3-4's 100.

STERLING EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, December 16. Canadian Press. — Sterling Exchange, easy. Demand Great Britain 4.17 1-4. Canadian Exchange 7 1-2 per cent. discount.

THE MONTREAL MARKET.

MONTREAL, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press.)—During the first half hour on the local stock exchange this morning, absolutely nothing of interest transpired. The few leaders that put in an appearance were quiet and unchanged at their closing levels.

THE GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, December 16. — Canadian Press. — Opening wheat quotations, which varied some the same as yesterday's finish to 3-4c lower, were followed by a moderate general setback and then by rallies which however failed to hold. Corn and oats were relatively firm, influenced more or less by prospective Russian Relief demand. After opening 1-8 off to 3-8 cents higher May 53 1-8 to 53 1-4, the corn market hardened a little all round.

Oats started unchanged to 1-4 higher; May 37 3-4 to 37 7-8 and then scored several slight gains.

TORONTO STOCK MARKETS.

TORONTO, December 16, Canadian Press. — The local stock exchange was quiet and for the most part uninteresting this morning. Brazilian and C. P. R., the most active stocsk, held within narrow limits and closed 1-4 higher and 1-4 lower respectively.

Sharp decline in Merchants Bank on light dealings, was one of features of the morning, with 169 asked and 166 bid at yesterday's close. Merchants opened this morning at 164, and on sales less than 50 shares went down to 158, closing at the low net loss of eight points from yesterday.

WARNS PURSUIT SPELLS DEATH.

Note Sent Chicago Police Proclaims Innocence of Escaped Gunman.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—Two more clues to the line of flight of Tommy O'Connor, condemned gunman, who escaped Sunday with two companians from the Cook County Jail, were given the police and detectives were despatched hurriedly to investigate.

A telephone call was received from the Chief of Police at Hartford, Wis., that three men, one resembling O'Connor, had alighted from an early morning train and registered at a small hotel.

Later Edward Hanson, of Milwaukee, handed a card to Chief of Detectives Hughes, saying it had been given him by one of five men as he was about to leave Milwaukee for Chicago. On the card was written:

"Don't send any one after me. I am innocent. Much obliged to Strauss.. . . I will shoot the first man who puts his hands on me."

The card bore no signature and was addressed to the Chief of Police. Hanson said the five men were in an automobile, and one resembled O'Connor. They asked if he was coming to Chicago, handed him the card, and hurried away before he boarded an electric train for Chicago.

Receipts of a telegram from Peoria, Ill., purporting to come from O'Connor, also is under investigation, but a telegraphic description of the sender did not tally with O'Connor, police said.

The escape has resulted in six separate investigations of the county jail. Every guard and official in the jail who was connected in any way with the "break" has been suspended and officials have stated serious charges might be filed against some of the men.

Stories told by William Forgarty, a former prisoner, and Paul Gormac, now held, are due for additional investigation. Forgarty told of "moonshine jamborees" in the jail basement; of the way in which he says O'Connor got his gun, and of the prison's "dope trail." It was Gormac who said he had "inside information" of the jail break some time before it took place.

To Clinch Sentence.

Only a pardon by the Governor or the President can save O'Connor from being executed if taken alive, says Attorney Lloyd Heth, former assistant state's attorney.

Heth said that he would go before Judge Scanlon of the Criminal Court and ask that the clerk of the court be instructed to enter on the books that O'Connor is a fugitive from justice.

"That is all that is necessary," said Mr. Heth, "then any time that O'Connor is caught—be it this week or 20 years hence—all that will be necessary will be for the court to fix the date of the hanging."

"If O'Connor, under sentence of death, were still in the jail and the Sheriff allowed Thursday to pass without hanging him, then he could not be executed on Friday or any other day. But O'Connor as a fugitive from justice can be executed any time he is arrested, provided the court be notified of his escape sometime between sunrise and sunset on Thursday, the period set for his execution."

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT AUSPICES THE S.O.E.

The members of the above lodge are reminded that the regular social evening of carpet ball and billiards will be held to-night. The first billiard tournament has been concluded, Bro. R. G. Long winning the fine billiard cue offered by the club, and another tournament will be commenced shortly. Get your name on the list; the Handicap committee will see that you have as good a chance to win the prize as any other member. The teams to be entered in the City Billiard League will be chosen next week when it is expected that two teams will be slated, and it is hoped that there will be a large number of other clubs in the league to make it interesting.

A full meeting of the management committee is called for to-night; will every member endeavor to be present.

On Monday next a large number of candidates will be initiated. At that meeting arrangements will probably be made to entertain billiard and carpet ball teams from the S.O.E. lodge at Cobourg in the near future. The committee appointed to act in connection with the Peterborough Old Home Week will also report Monday night.

WOMAN IN HALFWAY BANDIT GANG, REPORT

Seen in Auto on Defer Road, Officers Say

MT. CLEMENS, Dec. 16—Sheriff John M. Spaller has been notified that men answering the description of the four bandits who held up the Half Way State Bank and escaped with about $12,000 Tuesday morning were seen on the Defer Road, which connects the Gratiot Road and East Jefferson avenue, a few minutes after the robbery and that they were accompanied by a woman.

This has led to the belief that they may be the same men who held up a branch bank in Grand Rapids last week and later killed two officers who attempted to arrest them in the house where they were dividing the $10,000 they obtained at the bank. The Grand Rapids officers were told that a woman was in the house occupied by the bandits and that she escaped with the men.

Sheriff Spaller holds the two deputies, who had been assigned to guard the bank but who knew nothing of the robbery until it was over blameless. He poinns out that the bandit automobile had been left some distance from the bank and that neither of the deputies, C. L. Squibb and Frank Bottom, was at the bank when the men entered. One of them had been stationed across the street to watch automobiles which parked in front of the bank and the other was posted in an alley back of the bank.

The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., of Detroit, has offered a reward of $1000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the bandits.

WILL BE SUBJECTED TO MORE REGULATIONS

Writing in Industrial Canada, the official organ of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, H. MacDonald, Toronto, legal secretary of the association, declares that unless the present craze for law-making is checked the next generation will find itself subject to more regulations than was old rule-ridden Germany, and under the authority of more bureaus and bureaucrats than Russia under the Czars.

In his article Mr. MacDonald attacks the belief that people can be made good by legislation and points to the fraction of good which such laws have accomplished in the past and the reaction which has invariably followed repressive legislation. He characterizes most repressive legislation as reflecting the spirit of meddlesomeness that governs the minds of those who gratuitously assume both their right and ability to prescribe the standards according to which their fellow-citizens shall order their morals, occupations and daily lives.

The faith of the average politician in the all-sufficiency of legislation to cure social, economic and moral evils is never chilled by the fact that rarely in his experience has he known a law to accomplish more than a fraction of the good that was predicted of it, and that many laws have either failed entirely or have introduced greater or more numerous evils than those they were intended to cure.

No matter what evil is under consideration, the first remedy thought of or proposed is legislation. The number of measures introduced during the leif of a single session of our Canadian legislatures, in the past year or two runs into many hundreds. Granting that our highly organized condition with predominating industrial and commercial interests may require a more complex system of jurisprudence than would serve the necessities of a less specialized social organization, it is entirely absurd to assume that society needs the amount of regulations that these frantic attempts at law-making would indicate. Comparatively few of the proposed new laws possess any real merit. A large proportion simply reflect the spirit of meddlesomeness that governs the minds of those who gratuitously assume both their right and their ability to prescribe the standards according to which the remainder of their fellow-citizens shall order their morals, their occupations and their daily lives.

Assuming that we shall continue to grind our federal and provincial legislation at the present rate, what will be the volume of written law in another twenty-five years?

Consider also the bulk of secondary legislation in the forms of orders-in-council, rules and regulations adopted by the administrative officers of the law. The legislature adopts a measure covering four or five pages, whereupon the Department of Administration issues a code of regulations covering three times as many pages, introducing obligations and producing results which the original law-making body could not have contemplated. Unless the present craze for law-making can be checked, the next generation will find itself subject to more regulations than was old rule-ridden Germany, and under the authority of more bureaus and bureaucrats than Russia under the Czars.

Example of Physical Science

In the physical sciences, facts once ascertained by careful experimentation are recorded in literature and become a part of the general inheritance of the race, and men do not waste their lives in forever trying out the things that have been fully tested previously.

In political science, however, we do not seem to be able to record well-established political and economic facts in such a way as to impress them upon the popular mind and save the world from endlessly trying over and over the same old experiments that have been tried and have failed numberless times before.

If mere law-making could make men or society perfect, the world would have been free from evil some millenniums ago. Every known political and social tort, has been legislated against thousands of times and yet these wrongs persist, and not a few, when traced to their sources, will be found to be the direct outgrowth of the very laws intended to prevent them. Like other things, reforms can be had only for a price, and sometimes cost more than they are worth

The exact point at which the evils of a reformatory law begin to outweigh the good cannot be determined with certainty in advance, but experience teaches that it usually falls very short of the extreme limit which the radical reformer is inclined to demand. The story of the democracies that have failed shows that their vigor and prosperity regularly declined with the growth of internal legislation or with forcing of obnoxious regulations upon their citizens by the factions which successively obtained control until they had so weakened themselves for internal strife that they fell to pieces of their own weight or were an easy prey to enemies from without. Of course, people always intended that their law-making would make their countries better and stronger, but their universal mistake was in consenting to the violation of fundamental principles for the sake of some fancied immediate good, which their radical legislation was expected to accomplish.

Another lesson of political history is that even the best law will fall far short of complete efficiency in removing the evils at which it is aimed. Whether we have one law or a thousand upon a given subject, there will always be a residuum of evil that mere law-making will not cure. When this irreducible minimum has been reached, the multiplying of prohibitions only multiplies the number of violations.

ABOUT NECKWEAR

Usually with the beginning of the cold weather season neckwear counters fall off in interest; but this year neckwear departments are brim full of fascinating bits of finery to wear all through the winter. There are fewer collars, perhaps, than one expects to find at the commencement of a summer season when so many tub frocks have to be daintified; but there are hosts of other alluring things: Cuffs to turn back over the long, close sleeves of sweaters; panel "fronts" and vestees—or gilets as they are called in Paris; frilly neck fixings for house dresses, and a bewildering assortment of waistcoats.

The sleeveless frocks for sport wear offer new opportunity to the manufacturers of neckwear. Guimpes with sleeves have to be ready for these frocks and a purchase in the tailored frock department is naturally followed by a visit to the guimpe counter. Many of the autumn jackets simply beg for something stunning and dainty in the shape of a waistcoat, or for a fluffy jabot to show between the coat fronts. Such accessories must be exquisitely dainty and new; very seldom do they look smart enough after a laundering, or even after a dry cleaning; so one must be well supplied in order to have that spic-span, well dressed appearance every woman craves.

The most interesting development of neckwear, this autumn, is Irish crochet. It is undoubtedly the feature of the season in neckwear counter displays. Its rich whiteness is beginning to thrust the creamy-toned accessories of the summer into the background. There is nothing lovelier than genuine Irish crochet; nothing more distinguished—when it is the fashion. And its vogue seems to be returning, full-force. There are grace ful collars to outline the neck openings of velvet frocks, and cuffs in various widths for long and short sleeves of indoor dresses. Some of the gilets of sheer linen and Irish lace, with narrow collars to match, are exquisitely beautiful. As filet travels best with net, so Irish crochet mates most successfully with very sheer handkerchief linen and the exclusive bits of neckwear combining this fine linen with heavy Irish crochet are rarely distinguished.

The incoming favor for surplice bodices on fall frocks brings long shawl collars back again. For a coffee brown velvet frock with crossed surplice waist and close, wrist-length sleeves there is a set of Irish lace cuffs and collar, the lace on the collar dropped—at the back of the neck—from an inch or so of sheer handkerchief linen, hand-embroidered. There are oval and circular collars, also, to outline neck openings in these shapes; and square collars to flank the sides of a neck-opening that is finished at its lower edge by the top of a vestee or gilet. Many of the ready-made tailored dresses of velvet or dark serge have a panel front of the material in the bodice; but rarely is this rather severe panel front used. Instead, one repairs immediately to the neckwear department and picks out something dainty and soft in the way of a collar and gilet to dress up the square neck-opening of two "fronts" with matching collars. One has a gilet of lace insertion and crimped lace frills and a square collar of net and insertion edged with the crimped frills. There are cuffs to match—rather wide cuffs for a flaring or an elbow sleeve. The other set combines the square collar with a "front" of lace insertion from which droops a double jabot. This set is of handkerchief linen and filet lace. When one says a "square" collar, a collar defining a square neck opening is meant; not a collar in itself square. These collars are in fact merely a straight strap, the material lying flat against the frock on the chest but rising a trifle behind the throat at the back.

Collars for the V shaped neck opening are shown. To some women this V opening is very becoming, much more than the square opening which is usually a deal more trying than a V or oval opening. The straight-across, rounded neck opening should be worn only by very young women. Thin or fat, they look well in it, but never the older woman, however pretty her throat. Both the V shaped collars have jabots; in fact one is all jabot, the soft frill going clear around the neck. Bordered net lace was used for both these bits of neckwear. The collar is made of a straight strip of lace, mitred to give square corners, and the jabot frills start several inches up, under the collar. The lace for the neck-frill and jabot is gathered to a cord at its inner edge, which gives a graceful, flat line where the frill meets the neck. There is a fancy for tying an inch-wide black velvet ribbon around the throat, with these lace collar-frills, the small bow of velvet coming at the back—a forerunner of the high stock collar which Paris is trying hard to introduce, perhaps.

Bare throats are not en regle in Paris now. Frocks have tall stock collars; blouse-frills are tied together at the neck with narrow black ribbon though the fronts may make a deep decolletage below the high, smart bow; and when a round-necked or V necked bodice is worn the bit of tulle twisted 'round the throat is almost invariable. It is said that tall "dog-collars" of velvet with jeweled slides are coming back again—but thank goodness they have not yet arrived!

So much for neck-finishes; it is waistcoats that form the chief interest of the autumn neckwear display. If you do not own a waistcoat, go and get one at once, or be hopelesaly out of it. Stunning are draped, striped velvet waistcoats, the stripes running cross-wise; and the coat-fronts are faced with material to match. A French courturier has made a great hit with this style and it is being copied widely in Paris. There are embroidered waistcoats too; made of heavy linen crash, of silk jersey and of a new embossed pique; and the embroidery is done in vivid, rich colors blended with lines of black, and in odd, Oriental designs or in severe straight lines, zigzags and Greek border motifs. Sometimes the embroidery is in gray and black on white embossed pique, an effect especially stunning. For house frocks there are charming waistcoats of heavy silk net, made in slipon style with bishop sleeves ending in close cuffs, and the blouse waistcoat gathered in at a low waistline by a broad sash that moulds the hips.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE ROYAL.

Comparatively few of our readers have crossed the continent, and those who have never saw the Mojave desert, that abomiantion of desolation, "shunned by man and forgotten of God." The Mojave women make the famous Sahara desert of Africa, by comparison, look as pleasant as the smile of a bride and as tame as the lonely oyster in a Sunday stew. Yet to produce the wonderful picture, The Fox, now on at the Royal Theatre, Harry Carey with the ceelbrated 11th U. S. cavalry and almost an army of assistants, brave the sand storms and other dlangers of this bleak waste. In this exceptional super-picture, you see a battle waged midst the weird fantastic sand worn and beetling crags of the desert. One loses the sensation that this is only a picture played by actors and soldiers. Ones consciousness actually bring one to a feeling of reality that the scenes enacted are real. One can alost hear the pom-pom and rattle as machine guns cut away a high bridge leading to the bandits stronghold. One almost waits for the crashing reverbrations as the face of a cliff is blown away to facilitate the movements of the troops. Anyone with real blood in his or her veins casnot but be thrilled as the hero climbs along the precipitous heights of the rocks to place his charge of explosives and one's lips involuntarily pucker to kiss shape when the hero regains his girl.

To-day's big programme also includes a choice selection of other dramas and grouch-destroying comedies. The Royal is the home of the best pictures money can get, and is strictly a Peterborough owned theatre, where the box office receipts, outside the film service, remain in Peterborough.

AT THE CAPITOL.

Little Dorothy Waters was the attraction at the Capitol again last evening and received plenty of the applause which delights her little heart. The dainty small figure with its twinkling feet and childish grace, pirouetting on the flexible tiny toes, and going through the figures of the Sailor's Hornpipe, and an old-fashioned dance in pretty pink bonnet and frock lace pantalettes, is very attractive. The little lady will be here for the rest of the week, and for the special Saturday matinee.

Messrs. Daly and Larrivee are a couple of harmony singers with splendid voices, who do some syncopated grand opera and have a line of humorous dialogue.

The feature picture, with Bery Lytell, in "The Man Who," is an interesting production. Inspired by an infatuation for a languishing snobbish American society girl, a returned doughboy becomes inoculated with a desire to perform some deed of mighty valor. How he does it, with a stunt that sets all New York talking and the whole East Side marching under a Yiddish banner, proclaiming his name and fame, and how he finally sees the light with regard to his lady love, and chooses a nicer damsel, is related in an entertaining film hour.

The smaller films are very good with scenes from Venices Lost Lagoon; the Vod-a-vil Movies, with jugglers, tumblers and the human snake, provide excellent fillers-in, and the comedy is a phantasy of the Hallroom Boys, one acting as a shimmy expert, and the other as a musical wonder through several funny reels. SPORT GOSSIP

The Lakeshore hockey clubs have arranged their schedules for the O.H.A. race. Port Hope Intermediates open at Cobourg on December 30, and Bowmanville plays at Oshawa. In the junior division the Hopers play at Whitby on December 29, and Bowmanville goes to Cobourg.

An effort will be made to place an age limit on the Interscholastic series of the O.R.F.A. and methods will be devised to make sure all players are bona fide scholars. An age limit of 20 years would work little hardship on the Interscholastic teams, as few clubs have players on their line-up over 20 years of age Sarnia C.I., who have captured the title two years in a row, is composed mainly of players many years under the limit, while the local semi-finalists, have not one man over that limit.

The Peterboro O.A.B.A. team will play in Cobourg to-night. It is the second game in the series of four contests group honors. Points do not count as was the case last season when the locals were grouped with Belleville and Queen's the team winning a majority of games takes the honors.

Frank Nighbor's return to the fold with the Ottawa Senators has inspired the Capital poets anew. The poke-check wonder from Pembroke deserves something better than this:—

Lanky youngster from the Valley Schools,
Master mechanic under hockey rules,
Bright as a cluster of African jewels,
Here's to you.

According to the advance notices, Oshawa junior O.H.A. players have been fairly well lined up, and ready to turn out at a moment's notice. All old players have expressed a willingness to turn out to practise and even without very much new material to strengthen the team they will be a formidable aggregation.

Jack Roach is showing his wares to the paymaster of the St. Pats and is doing nicely in the nets. Vernon Forbes, who joined the club last winter is spending a period of suspension studying interesting facts about fish.

Herb Legros, who guarded the citadel for Barkers in the City Hockey League last winter, has signed a C.G.E. toolroom certificate, Kevin Murray will repeat as goal custodian for Wm. Hamilton A. A.

Foulis and Draper, the Collingwood players who were expected to play with Argos this season, did not qualify under the residence rule to play in Toronto. They will be with the A. R. Clarke team in the Toronto Industrial League.

COLLEGIATE TO PLAY HOCKEY

WILL ENTER THE NEW INTER-SCHOLASTIC SERIES

At a meeting of the Boy's Athletic Association of the Peterboro C. I., yesterday it was decided to enter a team in the new Interscholastic Hockey League. An Oshawa gentleman has put up a cup to be played for and keen rivalry is expected. The Peteboro group will be St. Peters' High School, Lakefield High School and Peterboro Collegiate Institute. Other teams in the league will be Belleville High School, Oshawa High School, Port Hope High School, and Cobourg Collegiate Institute with the possibility of other entries.

It was also decided to accept the challenge of the Old Boys and a game will be played in the Christmas Holidays.

THE DAVIS CUP MATCHES OF 1922.

U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. Invites Challenges.

NEW YORK, December — — (By Canadian Press.)—The first step in arrangements for the Davis Cup matches of 1922 has been taken by the United States Lawn Tennis Association, which has sent letters to nations that have competed for this trophy, inviting their challengers for next year's contest. These must be received before March 15, 1922. The letter to the British Lawn Tennis Association, signed by Julian S. Myrick as president of the U.S.L.T.A., is similar to those sent the other countries, and is quoted herewith.

"It again is the duty of the United States to take charge of the arrangements for the Davis Cup contest and plans are being considered for the matches of 1922. This Association earnestly hopes that all the nations interested in tennis will enter the competition and is bringing the matter to your attention thus early, to afford time for your association to plan for the event.

"Under the regulations as amended at the meeting in London on June 27, 1921, challenges must be received by the champion Nation not later than March 15. Will you please take notice of this date and make certain that your challenge is dispatched by mail or by cable to reach this office before March 15, 1922. The Bentley and A. B. C. Codes (sixth edition) are used.

"Judging from letters received since the completion of the 1921 matches, this contest has aroused more widespread interest throughout the world than ever before. This makes it the more appropriate to point out again the fundamental service the Davis Cup contests can perform in stimulating still further the friendly rivalry and good feeling between the tennis playing nations of the world. To accomplish this result it seems desirable that each contest should, wherever possible, be played in the country of one of the competing nations. Such action will lend interest to the various nations' schedules by providing an international match, will tend to lessen the expense of traveling and will best serve he purpose for which this competition was established. It is the recommendation of this association, therefore, that an earnest effort be made by all competing nations to play at least their early matches in one ot the other's country.

"This association would be pleased to receive a challenge from England and I trust that it will be forthcoming, in time for receipt here before March 15, 1922. If there is further information you desire, please request it by mail or cable."

CHRISTMAS TREAT FOR THE KIDDIES.

The Children's Aid Society is having a Christmas treat for the kiddies at the Shelter on Thursday evening next, 22nd December. The Society would be very grateful for anything in the way of toys or donations for this purpose, which might be sent to the Shelter, or to the office of the agent, Mr. G. W. Powell, at 588 George Street. There are doubtless many homes where a growing family has discarded its playthings, which would be acceptable on this occasion.

BIRKENHEAD IS SHOCKED SUGGESTION

OFFERS TO SHOW LORD CARSON THAT HIS ASSUMPTION IS WRONG—FIERCE RIOTING IN BELFAST.

THE IRISH TREATY

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(Canadian Press).—Replying to Lord Carson in the House of Lords, Lord Birkenhead said he was shocked at the suggestion of Lord Carson that congratulation of Dominion premiers had been solicited. He made bold to tell him that was not manner in which matters were regulated between the self governing Dominions, and that country and offered to place at the disposal of Lord Carson facts that which would show how baseless was suggetion.

FIERCE RIOTING

BELFAST, Dec. 17.—(Canadian Press).—Fierce rioting broke out in Newtownards Road District this morning and Crown force used machine guns against rioters. Employe of tram service was shot dead and six were wounded.

VOTE ON TREATY

DUBLIN, Dec. 17.— (Canadian Press).—With anouncement by De Valera and Arthur Griffith last night that public session of Dail would be held Monday it is now believed that vote on treaty will not be reached before Wednesday.

DIVISION MORE MARKED

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(Canadian Press).—Morning Post, Belfast correspondent states that division between rival parties in Ulster is becoming more marked. In Counties of Tyrone and Fermanagh boycott of Protestant shopkeepers is becoming more effective and protestant are retailiating by dismissing Catholic employes. He reports rumor that Lord Carson will resign as Lord of Appeal to lead Ulsterites.

THE DRESSERS ARE $15, NOT $5

A mistake occurred in the price of the beautiful dressers advertised in Friday's Examiner by the Home Furnishing Co., 208 Charlotte Street. The price should have read $15.75, not $5.75. At the correct figure, the values are said to be most remarkable. The early demand for these dressers this morning was quite brisk, and will doubtless continue brisk during this holiday sale.

How Wall Street Explosion Fiend Was Trailed To Lair in Moscow

WARSAW, Dec. 17.—(Canadian Press.) —Authorities state that Wolfe Lindenfeld, arrested here yesterday in connection with the explosion in Wall Street, New York, in September of last year, has confessed, naming the ring leaders of the plot, which he said was aimed at J. P. Morgan. It is said he has named five principals in the plot, now in Europe, who received thirty thousand dollars from the Moscow Third Internationale through the New York agents.

Lindenfeld was trailed by Sylvester Cosgoove and Paul Altendorf during the summer. Altendorf lived in various Communist quarters and obtained the clue which led him to seek an interview with Lindenfeld. Cosgroove, posing as a Communist from the United States, was introduced by Altendorf. A scheme whereby Lindenfelt was to receive rich rewards for certain information regarding the explosion, led to his arrest.

MEAT BYLAW SLAUGHTERED BY COUNCIL IN 1ST READING

WENT DOWN TO DEFEAT IN A VOTE OF TWO FOR THE MEASURE AND SEVEN ACAINST—MAYOR M'INTYRE FAVORED PROPOSITION.

The bylaw to permit of meat being sold on the public market in small cuts did not get by its first reading last night, for the measure was "slaughered" by the City Fathers on a vote of two for and seven against in the following division:

For—Its Sponsors Ald. Hamilton and Morrison.

Against—Ald. Phelan Hay, White house, Jones, Turner, Crowe, Gainey

The Mayor, pronouncedly favorable to the bylaw, refrained from recording a vote that would not have affected the results of the division.

Earlier in the evening a copy of a resolution by the Trades and Labor Council practically endorsing the proposition was read in Council."

In submitting the by-law Ald. Hamilton foreshadowed its rejection by his colleagues and recorded his disappointment as he believed the implement's adoption would have accomplished considerable good for the poor and inflicted little harm, if any to other interests.

The Mayor characterized council's rejection of the bylaw as discriminating against the poor. Local butchers, he said ought to compete against all comers the same as working men and he himself in his busines have to. Why not protect the poor! His Worship exclaimed.

Ald. Hay replied that the Mayor competed with others in the same line as himself and with equal expenses to consider.

Ald. Jones took strong exception to His Worship's remark that Council is discriminating against and keeping the poor down by killing this by law. "I'm against the measure", he said but am ready to do anything reasonable while conserving of other interests, to protect the needy."

Ald. Hay did not think farmer's selling meat in small cuts on the market would cheapen that commodity.

Ald. Hamilton—"You don't know whether it would or not".

Ald. Hay expressed his surprise at Ald. Hamilton's attitude. The latter, he said, should know what overhead charges mean, and should appreciate that the by law would implement unfair discrimination against the local butchers in competition with farmers who neither pay taxes or license in Peterborough nor have to meet high overhead costs summer and winter alike". "I'm in favor" he continued of commodities at a reasonable price But suppose farmers did sell cheaper on the market than butchers could; that might force the latter out of business when the community would have to make good in one way or another dollars lost in taxes to save a cent or two a pound in meat."

Butchers' Deputation

This whole question was opened up last evening by a deputation of local butchers in opposition.

This deputation was introduced by Thomas Barrie, of the Retail Merchants' Association, of which the butcher's form a section.

Mr. Barrie considered the by law against the best interests of citizens generally and that there is no direct need for such a measure at present when meat is selling here as low and in some instances cheaper than in any Ontario community except Kingston, where bacon is priced slightly lower. From a sanitary view he continued, the proposition would be objectionable for meat would be brought in on dirty sleighs exposed to dust and flies on an open market and cut up, may be, by soiled hands. In contradistinction, butchers are compelled to keep up to a high standard of sanitation impossible for farmers to conform with. As to prices, were butchers forced to cut in the winter to compete with unfair market conditions, a rise in prices would necessarily follow during summer months to recover lost profits and equalize a fair living revenue from business investment. The farmer would only sell on the market during the four winter months he said.

Mr. Barrie here submitted the following statistics bearing on the question.

There are twenty-four butcher businesses here, the first one being established in 1881 by J. Mervin.

Total registration fees paid by butchers at $10.00 per annum, $3,-110.00.

Assessments: Persona 1 property (9), $16,200.00; business property (24)(, (including 3 personal property), $65,710.00; business, $18,988.00. Total assessment, $100,898.00.

Taxes: Personal property (9), $655.10; business property and business (including 3 personal properties, $3,715.74. Total, $4,370.84.

Total employees, including management and deliveries, 103.

In conclusion, Mr. Mason declared there was no excuse, nor need for the by-law, which, he said, would menace those sanitary provisions on which we are spending thousands of dollars to assure a healthier community.

Sanitary Enforcement.

Wm. Kemp, butcher, pointed out that local butchers have to keep their premises in a sanitary condition farmers are not subjected to, and their shops and meat open for inspection any day. Their meat is slaughtered and handled under sanitary regulations; while 90 p.c. of what he (Mr. Kemp) sells is government inspected. But farmers are permitted to slaughter under any and all conditions, bring meat into town on any old rig, and expose it to dust and other contamination. Were butchers to expose meat outside their stores they would be arrested under the health act and penalized.

Fred Lowes, of the new Centre Meat Market, referred at length to the heavy investments in business by the local butchers, who as a class he contended, maintain the finest sanitary shops in the Dominion. "I don't think the butchers buy from farmers, I don't," Mr. Lowes said; and he urged, the by-law is unfair to local butchers, who pay taxes, hire help the year round and have other expenses not entailed by farmers, with whom butchers could not compete. Mr. Lowes declared his ice bill in summer amounted to $25 a week for ice from the Sanitary Ice Co., and apart from his local expenditure his firm in their purchase of supplies spend their money at home.

Can't Sell Cheaper.

Ald. Whitehouse, alluding to the farmer's prices for eggs and such like, did not think they would sell small cuts of meat of equal quality to that of the butchers cheaper. In fact, he did not believe the farmers would bother with the market much, but hucksters might.

To Ald. Morrison, Mr. Lowes replied that he bought his meat locally.

Mr. Edwards, butcher, felt that his trade should have protection.

His Worship—"The poor need protection also."

Mr. Edwards—"And they get it."

His Worship— "Yes, if they can buy meat cheaper on the market under this by-law."

Ald. Whitehouse — "We don't know that they could."

Tempest in Teapot.

Ald. Hamilton here thought the butchers were raising a tempest in a teapot, as not many of their patrons would buy meat on the market, but only the poor who are hard up. This by-law is a temporary measure, he said, in relief of acute distress, and I do not think it would affect the butcher much. It would permit those who can't buy meat now to do so on the market; and were farmers not to sell at reasonable prices, I would be the first to repeal the by-law.

FELL DOWN STAIRS AND BROKE NECK

TRAGIC HOMECOMING FOR WALTER LONG OF EAST CITY—WIFE WAS LYING DEAD AT FOOT OF STAIRS.

LEAVES FOUR DAUGHTERS

Returning home from seeking a fruitless search for another house at 12.15 p.m. yesterday, Walter Long, Armour Road found his wife at the foot of the cellar steps. Her neck was broken caused it is believed by her falling on the steps and striking her neck on the sharp edge of the trap door. The body was still warm and the accident could not have taken place more than 15 minutes previously for one of the daughters who was upstairs heard her moving about only a short time before.

"Where's your mother," asked Mr. Long.

"I don't know" the daughter replied.

Thinking she had gone into one of the neighbour homes Mr. Long sought her but she was nowhere to be found. When he returned he found the open entrance to the cellar and his wife laying at the foot of the steps.

Dr. C. H. Amys was called and found Mrs. Long's neck was broken. Coroner Dr. T. N. Greer called decided an inquest was not necessary.

Mr. Long, was 53 years of age Four daughters, May, Bertha, Lizzie and Bessie survive.

The funeral will take place Monday morning at 10.30 a.m. from Belleghem's Undertaking Parlours, Rev. G. E. Ross of Mark street Methodist Church officiating. Deceased had only lived a few months on Armour Road, but for three years had lived in the city and immediate district.

ROLLER SKATING TO-NIGHT! TO-NIGHT!

ICE SKATING PUT ASIDE UNTIL COLDER WEATHER COMES

It looks as if Dan Whetung's prediction would be true, and that our early winter, at least, would be mild. After an endeavor to make ice at Brock Street Rink, the effort has been discontinued, and Roller Skating again taken up. There will be skating to-night with the band, and each afternoon and evening until a change in weather comes. The floor is in excellent condition, in fact the best of the season.—Advt.

ST. ANDREW'S SERVICES FOR TOMORROW

INTENSE INTEREST IN SERIES OF TALKS TO YOUNG PEOPLE BY THE PASTOR—CHOIR CO-OPERATING.

The interest taken in the special Sunday evening service at St. Andrew's Church was again shown on Sunday last by the large congregation that filled the church. Both old and young are deriving much benefit from the talks.

The musical numbers by the choir are also attracting favorable comment in the city, making the entire services at St. Andrew's most wholesome. The numbers to be given by the choir to-morrow night are as follows: Anthem, "Great is the Lord," duet part by Mrs. Park and Miss Pilling; duet, "How Sweet the Name of Jesus Sounds," Messrs. Maurice Park and Douglas Carlisle, the concluding number being a ladies' chorus, "Away in a Manger."

Seats free to strangers, and a cordial welcome.

FEDERATION CHARITIES LAST NIGHT

PLAN IS TO HAVE A CENTRAL BUREAU WITH A SECRETARY IN CHARGE — HELP ADMINISTRATION.

THE CONSTITUTION

The second meeting was held last evening at the Chamber of Commerce of the organization which is seeking to federate the charities of the city in one centralized bureau, and to provide a sort of clearing-house for such work in the city with the express purpose of preventing overlapping on the one side, and the overlooking of deserving cases on the other. Mrs. A. W. Turner, president, was in the chair, with Miss Margaret English, secretary. About 35 representatives from seventeen different local organizations attended.

The meeting decided to establish a central information bureau for charitable enquiries and information in the Chamber of Commerce, with a paid secretary, and appointed a committee to draft a brief constitution, name the society, and outline its aims and objects for general publication.

Explanation Given.

In answer to enquiries as to the exact intention behind the organizing of such a central bureau, voiced by Rev. G. E. Ross, of Mark Street Methodist Church, and by Mr. J. H. Moss, representing St. James' Church. Dr. R. C. Blagrave was asked to explain, and outlined the idea in a very concise speech. The bureau handles no funds, nor means, nor supplies of any sort. It is not an organization to directly help the poor, but to help the administration of relief in the city to be equitable and adequate. "The deserving poor—and I won't attempt to define deserving," said Dr. Blagrave, "because the deserving poor are those who are in need, whose children are hungry or cold," have the finances of the city behind them, and the city officials are prepared to meet their needs. But if the funds of the city meet their needs to a certain extent only, and a margin of need is left, this margin must be met by the operations of local charitable societies who are more or less haphazardly trying to supply the gap. In a centre such as is proposed to establish, those who are getting help from several different societies, and those who are not being helped at all, may be definitely listed. A family desiring to get more assistance than that given them by the City Relief Officer, might apply to the association or church with which they were directly connected, and that association or church could easily obtain tabulated information which would inform them of the exact needs of the enquirer, and his worth in the way of future assistance. On the other hand, a family with no church or social affiliations might present its needs to the secretary, that individual to immediately set about through the proper channels in having the need filled.

"The heart of this city is bursting with generosity," said Dr. Blagrave. "The town is simply aching and boiling over with Christianity and a desire to help those who are in need of assistance of any sort."

Re Engaging Secretary.

As it would be impossible for the Chamber of Commerce to handle the routine of an undertaking which promises a great deal of clerical work, it was decided to engage a secretary immediately, and Mrs. A. W. Turner, Miss English and Mr. Leon Fraser were appointed a committee to do this. With regard to salary, several of the members were of the opinion that, as the City Council and its relief work would be directly benefited by the establishment of such an office with such an official in charge, they should be asked to foot the bill, but the general opinion of the meeting was to the effect that it might be useless to make the attempt. One member remarked that the City Council was not in sympathy with the idea of a centralized bureau, considering that their Relief Officer, Mr. F. W. Miller, could quite easily handle the situation, and would therefore not receive such a request with any great show of cordiality.

It was then decided to ask each affiliated society to contribute as far as possible towards paying the secretary's salary, and a roll-call was taken, resulting in the pledging of the financial assistance from nearly every organization represented, with the exception of two or three who

NOT ADVISABLE TO ENLARGE PERSONNEL CHARITY BOARD

CITY COUNCIL OBJECTS TO APPOINTING REPRESENTATIVES OF LADIES' ORGANIZATIONS — BOARD'S CHAIRMAN NOT IN ACCORD WITH PROPOSITION OF BIG SISTERS.

ROUTINE BUSINESS

The city council concluded last night that it would not be advisable to add to the personnel of the Central Charity Board representatives from ladies' or other organizations, to assist in relief work this winter, which promises to be one of acute distress.

This action resulted from Ald. Phelan's announcement that the Big Sisterhood, organized to help as far as possible those in actual distress, is anxious to have representation on the Charity Board.

Ald. Turner replied that the efficient and sympathetic chairman of the Board, Mr. Harry Rush, was not in accord with adding to the Board's present personnel, which is composed of representatives of every denomination in the city, and capable, with Relief Officer Miller, of thoroughly investigating, and relieving to the extent of their resources, all cases of distress reported to them. He (Ald. Turner) felt it would be a mistake to comply with the Big Sisterhood's desire in this respect, for other Societies would seek the same privilege until the Charity Board were handicapped by too large a membership for achieving the best results.

Ald. Crowe thought women better fitted for relief work than men and likely to discover cases of distress where a man could not.

Ald. Hay contended that the Charity Board is large enough now, and enjoys efficient representation from all churches. He could not see the need for adding to its present membership, when the Board is open to receive, investigate and relieve any cases reportd to it by the several local societies. Nothing more in his opinion could be accomplished by these Societies being represented on the Board.

Ald. Whitehouse concurred in this view and asserted that the enlargement of the Charity Board's personnel would only create a handicap and confusion. But he took the opportunity to warmly eulogize the splendid work of the Big Sisterhood and other ladies' organizations, although he felt inclined to be guided by the Charity Board's chairman, that additions to its number would render that body unwieldly.

His Worship said he would like to see one of the Big Sisterhood on the Board to advise with them in extreme cases of need.

Agreeing with this view, Ald. Crowe remarked "these women are

OUT FOR MAYOR

Mr. J. J. Turner, whose resignation as alderman was accepted at the meeting of the Council last evening in order to run for the Mayor's chair, is the first citizen to definitely announce himself as a candidate for this position. Mr. Turner is one of Peterborough's most public-spirited citizens, always doing his share in any public enterprise in which the community at large will benefit. He is a busy man, a self-made man and a successful business man in every sense of the word and of him it can be said that it is always possible, no matter how busy he may be, to receive an attentive hearing, coupled with a genial smile and the assurance that something will be done with the matter you are interested in, if such a thing is possible. Busy, successful men are best qualified to give service to a community in which they are interested.

TIRE BUILDER FOR DE PALMA ARRIVES HERE

STEPHEN D. M'LAUGHLIN, EXPERIENCED TIRE MAKER, ASSUMES DUTIES WITH RED ARROW.

HAS EXCELLENT RECORD

Stephen D. McLaughlin, who built tires for Ralph de Palma, famous Italian automobile race driver, who has won the Indianapolis Sweepstakes, broken the world's dirt track record and figured sensationally in automobile racing for many years, arrived in Peterboro today to assume his duties as factory manager and production engineer for Red Arrow Tires, Limited.

Mr. McLaughlin comes to Red Arrow with an excellent record of eleven years' service with some of the largest rubber companies on the continent. During this time he has had experience in all branches of the industry from the manufacture of the machines used to build tires to the actual production of tires.

Mr. McLaughlin has severed his connection with the Akron Mould and Machinery Company of Akron, Ohio, to become associated with Red Arrow. He assisted in the development of the cord tire building machines now used by the Goodrich Rubber Company in the production of its famous Silverton Cord tires and he has been in charge of the installation of equipment for several large companies, including the Goodyear.

A statement issued from the offices of the company today said: "In the association of Mr. McLaughlin with this company is further proof of our announced policy of securing the services of the most competent men in the industry in the active management of our plant."

Mr. McLaughlin will move his family here from Akron in January.

TO-DAY'S NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

ANNUAL MEET IN LAKEFIELD

BIBLE SOCIETY MET AND ELECTED OFFICERS — INTERESTING ADDRESSES.

LAKEFIELD NEWS

LAKEFIELD, Dec. 17. -The annual meeting of the Bible Society was held on Thursday evening in the Baptist church. Mr. A. E. Higgins, president of the Lakefield branch, was in the chair and after the opening exercises Rev. R. H. A. Haslam gave an address.

Mr. Haslam and his wife have for years been missionaries in the Kangra district of India, under the Canadian branch of the Church of England. A few years ago the question was under discussion of making a Canadian missionary diocese in India as has been done in China, where the diocese of Honan is under the direction of Bishop White, and n Japan, where Bishop Hamilton is Bishop of Mid-Japan. When the matter was discussed regarding India, Rev. R. H. A. Haslam was named as the man who would be made Bishop.

Mr. Haslam is full of enthusiasm for the work of the Bible Society, which is not a rival to the church, but a usual auxiliary to it. In India the Yogis and learned men are searching the sacred books for the knowledge of salvation and have never attained it, as their own testimony shows. These Eastern sacred books are wonderful and show deep research, but without the message of Jesus Christ the Saviour of the world, they are unsatisfying. These Yogis of the East could turn our scholars inside out, but they have never found the satisfaction of real knowledge of God. The Bible is an invaluable aid to the churches as they print Bibles in 543 languages and supply the churches with them at a very low cost.

The Church of England preaches the gospel in 195 different languages and gets Bibles in 187 of these languages from the Bible Society. The Presbyterian church uses 136 languages, the Methodists 105,, Baptists 70 and the Congregationalists 60, and every copy is bought from the Bible Society. The price is so low that it does not begin to pay the cost of production and it is surely obvious that the churches should pay their share to the Bible Society upkeep. The Bible Society goes where the church cannot. Christian missionaries are forbidden into Afganistan, Nepaul and Tibet, but the Bible is printed in the languages these people read and sold to natives, who take them in, so the Bible goes where the church cannot. In Canada there are 112 languages spoken, the church preaches the gospel to but 27 and the Bible Society provides Bibles for the others. The agents of the Bible Societies meet every ship at Canadian ports so that every immigrant can procure a Bible at once in his or her own language. The Bible Society has even printed the Bible in Braille for the Blind. At present the Bible is prepared by ths wonderful society for 7-8 of the people of the world.

The doors have been opened as never before and the Bible is going into many new countries. In Europe there is an increasing demand since the war for copies of God's word. France for ten years before the war just got 1,000 copies, the first year after the war the order was increased to 1,500. In Spain the demand has increased from 20,000 to 70,000. Italy has ordered 58,000 more copies. Greece which had been very bitter against the admission of the Bible, now ordered 500 copies of the Greek testament and 5,000 copies of the whole word. Four Greek archbishops have pleaded for more copies of the Bible in the Greek tongue. One remarkable request was for one million copies from Bolshevik Russia. One can only say in speaking of this remarkable success that God honors those who honor his word. In Czeko-Slovakia, ,that new country, carved out of Central Europe after the disruption of the Austrian Empire, there is a new national church formed founded on the doctrines for which John Huss laid down his life 500 years ago. To meet these increasing demands the society has been obliged to borrow £100,000 fsom the Bank England, for though the income is almost as large as usual the expenditure has enoromusly increased. China, so long closed to Christian effort, sold 90,000 copies of the Bible translated into this modern script in four weeks and now asks for three million copies this year. Can we say nay? Unless Canada will assist materially, part of the printing plant must be shut down and when one considers the enormous work which it has done in God's name all these

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES OF HASTINGS CHURCH

Anniversary Services will (D.V.) be held in the Hastings Methodist Church on Sunday, December 18th., at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Rev. Wesley Elliott of MBelleville, President of Bay of Quinte Conference and a former pastor of the Methodist Church of that village will conduct the services.

THE MONTREAL MARKETS.

MONTREAL, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Demand for cash grain in yesterday's local market was limited, and trading was quiet. There is no new development in the flour situation. Strength in mill feed continued under a sustained demand. Business in rolled oats is steady and in baled hay quiet. There are no price changes in eggs. A steady undertone prevails in the butter market, and there is no change in conditions in the cheese market.

ULSTERITES THREATEN TO REMAIN OUT

"DIE HARDS" FOUGHT BITTERLY AS BILL REACHED THE VOTING STAGE.

THE DAIL EIREANN

LONDON, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Prolonged cheering greeted the announcement yesterday afternoon that both Houses of the British Parliament had ratified the treaty creating the Irish Free State by emphatic majorities.

The House of Commons immediately after the vote was taken approving the reply to the King's Speech from the Throne, which meant the ratification of the treaty, recessed until Monday to await the action on the treaty by the Dail Eireann, which is deliberating in Dublin.

The Ulsterites and "Die Hards" fought bitterly to the end in a last desperate attempt to turn the tide, which it was clearly seen from the first would overwhelm them.

Charges of broken pledges were hurled at both Prime Minister Lloyd George and Mr. Austen Chamberlain, Government leader in the House of Commons.

Thomas Moles, member for Belfast, one of the last speakers in the debate, dramatically declared:

"Ulster cannot and will not yield a yard of ground.

Concluding his attack, with eyes fixed upon the Ministerial bench, he shouted:

"Do, for God's sake, try to keep faith with somebody."

Major Robert O'Neill, Speaker of the Northern Parliament, and other Ulsterites brought their heaviest oratorical guns to bear on the provision of the treaty relating to the appointment of a boundary commission to draw the line between North and South Ireland in case Ulster decided to remain aloof from the treaty. They laid great stress upon the point that this provision of the treaty was inserted without the consent of Ulster.

DAIL EIREANN TO VOTE.

DUBLIN, December 17 (Canadian Press). — A vote on the question of ratification of the peace treaty between Ireland and Great Britain will be taken at a public session of the Dail Eireann on Monday morning at eleven o'clock, according to an announcement made public to-night signed by Eamonn de Valera and Arthur Griffith.

RIOTS IN BELFAST.

BELFAST, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Shooting continued spasmodically in various parts of Belfast yesterday, notably in the Newtonards district, where a quay labourer was wounded.

Another man, who was wounded last night, died this morning, bringing the total casualties since last Thursday afternoon to one dead and five wounded.

Two bombs were thrown yesterday in the Marrowbone district, but no casualties resulted.

INDIAN RIVER

INDIAN RIVER, December 17. — Mr. Barnes, who has been installing new machinery in the Farmers' Dairy plant has returned to his home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Juby motored to Peterboro on Wednesday.

Mr. A. Mace continues to show improvement in health.

Messrs. Stephen Elmhurst and W. Millan motored to Peterboro on business.

Mr. Wallis Braley of Peterboro, who recently purchased the old Patterson farmstead, is getting nicely settled in his new home.

The U.F.O. Club here has received another car of corn.

Prospects are looking bright in the vicinity as the Ontario Oil Company expects to start operations in the spring. They have already leased a number of farms for that purpose.

The clover seed in this district is all hulled now but price and quantity are lacking. Three bushels sweet clover seed to the acre seems to be the high mark as compared with 14 bushels last year per acre. Some time ago a few sales were made at $5 per bushel, but at present from $2 to $3 is the general run as it comes from the huller.

Many inexpensive materials can be made attractive and the diet can be pleasantly varied by a wise use of different flavorings.

STARTLING DISCOVERY BY POLICE

FOUND MURDERED BODIES OF ITALIAN MILLIONAIRESS AND ADOPTED DAUGHTER.

SITTING IN CHAIRS

London, December 17. Canadian Press. — A story of the startling discovery by the Rome police, of the murdered bodies of an Italian millionairesss, Madame Cogo, and her adopted daughter, fully dressed and sitting in chairs in her dining room, was related in a despatch to-day to the Central News Agency, from its Rome correspondent.

According to the despatch, the police made their discovery as a result of testimony given them by Madame Cogo's servant girl, who asserted the three sons of Madame Cogo's brother broke into her house, stifled the two women in their beds, dressed their bodies in their best clothes, including jewels, placed them in chairs in sitting postures, and then set fire to the room to distract suspicion.

The servant girl, says the despatch, told the police she saw the men from a hiding place, and said she thought they took this drastic action for fear their aunt would leave her fortune to the adopted daughter. The three men and their father have been arrested, the despatch adds.

CAMPBELLFORD AND DISTRICT

CAMPBELLFORD, Dec. 17. — A very pleasant evening was spent at the Parish Hall on Thursday night, when the members of the Men's Club entertained the ladies. Mr. C. H. Harris very ably occupied the chair. Very pleasing instrumental solos and a vocal solo were rendered by Mr. George Lucy in his usual capable manner. Solos by Mr. Robt. Dunk and Mr. Joseph Poulton won much applause. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment were the games of carpet ball, a skip of the Ladies' Willing Workers defeating a skip of the men. All present entered into the spirit of the game. A very dainty lunch was served by the men, following which Rev. C. E. Clark and Mr. C. H. Harris gave short addresses. Mr. Robt. Dunk made a very efficient and humorous auctioneer, disposing of some fine cakes, which found ready buyers. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Masquerade Social.

The Willing Workers of Christ Church will hold a masquerade social in the Parish Hall on January 9th. Everyone is cordially invited to come in masquerade. A good programme and lunch will be provided.

Mr. Arthur Brown, of the Hydro, Belleville, visited friends in town on Wednesday.

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. (Dr.) H. O. Richardson is confined to her home this week through illness, but wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. William Hall has his fine new home on Second Street completed, and will occupy the same very shortly.

DEPOSITORS ARE SAFE IN THE MERCHANTS' BANK

REASSURING STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE BANK OF MONTREAL —CAUSE OF THE COLLAPSE.

STOCK OFF MARKET

MONTREAL, Dec. 17.—(Canadian Press.) — The Canadian Press is informed on the highest authority that at opening of business this morning the Merchants' Bank will transact business in exactly the same manner as the Bank of Montreal.

MONTREAL, Dec. 17.—(Canadain Press).—Following a day of wild rumors, much excitement on the Stock Exchange, and some concern among financial men generally it was officially announced yesterday afternoon that owing to its rest being seriously impaired the directors of the Merchants Bank of Canada were recommending its shareholders to accept an offer made by the Bank of Montreal to take over the institution.

This announcement was followed by a statement issued from the Bank of Montreal appointing H. B. Mackenzie, who had been employed by the directors of the Merchants Bank to audit its finances, when according to official statement, "the directors had reason to fear that the bank's affairs were not in good condition as disclosed to them," as Acting General Manager, with F. C. Norsworthy, the Bank of Montreal's New York agent, as assistant general manager. These appointments have been though the absorption of the bank has still, according to law, to be ratified by the shareholders of both institutions and the Governor-in-Council.

For some time past there have been rumors on the street that some such move as announced was on foot. The shares of the Merchants Bank on the Stock Market reflected the conjectures, falling off three and a half points, Thursday and another five yesterday. Yesterday morning losses were also recorded by many of the leading issues and yesterday afternoon, though no severe break was recorded, weakness was evident.

The impairment of the Merchants Bank reserves to which reference is made in the statement issued by the President is understood to be heavily involved in the failure of largely due to the institution being Thornton(, Davidson and Company,, well-known stock brokers of this city, in July 1920, who failed for a sum estimated to exceed a million dollars. The bank has also, it is reported, been involved in the difficulties which several mercantile and industrial concerns have met with in the past year and a half.

The Merchants Bank is stated to be particularly strong in Western Canada, where it possessed a large number of branches scattered through the better class farming districts. There is talk in this connection that the bank has suffered to some degree from insufficiently protected loans to farmers. Should the amalgamation go through, many of the bank's western branches will become branches of the Bank of Montreal, and the position of the latter institution will be greatly strengthened in the West.

Meeting Called

In regard to the merger no statement was forthcoming at the head offices of the Bank of Montreal, but it was learned there that the terms of the merger would not be announced until the notices calling a meeting and explaining the proposed amlagamation had been sent out to the shareholders. No further statement as to the proposed terms was given out at the head office of the Merchants Bank. The meeting will be held some time in January, as under the Bank Act six weeks' notice has to be given for all such special meetings of the shareholders.

A TRAGEDY OF THE NORTHLAND

COCHRANE, December 17 (Canadian Press). — The frozen body of George Picard, trapper at Bingle, 30 miles east of Cochrane, was brought into town last night. Picard evidently wandered from his camp following moose tracks, and became lost in the bush.

The frozen body was found in the muskeg six miles from Twin Falls Camp. The tracks show that he had been wandering for about 35 miles. His Indian partner Leo missed him on Thursday of last week, when coming to camp early in the afternoon tracks to locate his partner. He lost the tracks and returned to camp.

Next morning he again went in search, and came to a place where Picard had gone round in circles, but after that lost the trail. He fired guns to attract attention, and finally gave up. He then came to Cochrane to secure assistance, and reported the case to the Chief of Police, who sent him back with two local men, Morin and Demers, on Sunday morning.

When the body was found, a rifle, ammunition, and snowshoes were found alongside.

Picard was an experienced bushman, but has been lost before, while employed as a cook at Hughes Camp last year. At that time he wandered for five days. He was about 45 years of age.

A letter from a sister, Alice Picard, of Edmunston, N.B., is the only clue to his relatives. The sister has been notified by the Chief of Police here.

THE PROCEEDINGS AT CONFERENCE

SEVERAL POINTS AT ISSUE DISCUSSED BY THE DELEGATES— UNEXPECTED OBSTACLE.

WASHINGTON, December 17. — The delegations for a reduction of naval armaments struck an unexpected obstacle yesterday while the Far Eastern discussions were making unexpected progress.

France furnished the latest complication in the naval problem, and although details of her attitude were carefully concealed, she was represented as desiring to launch a capital ship building programme on a scale that would scrap the whole ship-scrapping plan agreed on by the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

In the Far Eastern conversations, the question of Japanese withdrawal from the Kiao-Chow Railroad in Shantung, which 24 hours ago seemed to have reached a stage of considerable delicacy, was brought suddenly to the point of a tentative agreement between the Japanese and the Chinese delegates.

Other issues of the Arms Conference remained at a standstill, although in the United States Senate the attack on the four-power treaty was renewed by Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, and administration spokesman, took notice of the debate long enough to say they did not regard the treaty as obligating he United States to take military action.

GOOD BUSINESS.

The Property Committee of the City Council is to be commended upon its businesslike method of dealing with the awarding of the contract for the collection of garbage. The contractors who have looked after this work during the past year were not the lowest tenderers, their figure being $50 higher than that submitted by another applicant. Instead of accepting the lowest tender, as has been so often done in connection with civic contracts in the past, the committee rightly decided that the good service rendered by the present contractors rendered a $50 saving in the amount of the tender of very doubtful value. There have been cases in Peterborough's history when under such circumstances the low tender was successful in making a chance in personnel, only to result in a falling down in service. The ability of the contractor is a factor that should not be overlooked, as it is too often is in such transactions. The garbage collection has been satisfactorily taken care of during the past year, and it would have been a risky experiment to have made a change for the sake of $50.

A CANADIAN ENTERPRISE.

The development of an all-Canadian industry is always a matter of interest, and when, as in the case of Red Arrow Tires, Limited, Peterborough is the birthplace of such an industry, the interest of the citizens is naturally intensified. The manufacture of tires as a purely Canadian activity, financed and under the control of Canadians, is a new departure, for the tire companies at present in existence in this country are either branches of English or American firms, or have been financed by outside capital. Mr. J. J. Turner, the President of Red Arrow Tires, Ltd., has been calling attention to this feature of the situation in a communication to the automobile owners of Ontario, pointing out the desirability of developing Canadian industries.

There is every desire to secure the presence in Canada of branches of United States firms. Some of the best industries in this country come under this category, and their locating in industrial centres has been a source of advancement and growth in such communities.

Nevertheless, the progress of Red Arrow Tires, Limited, with its special merchandising plan and with an organization backed by the capital of Canadians, will be watched with interest.

A REASONABLE SAFEGUARD.

The United Farmers of Ontario at their Toronto meeting passed a resolution dealing with Provincial relief for the unemployed, in which, among other things, the principle was endorsed that "in no cases should aid be given where opportunity of employment has been refused." While there may be some exceptional cases, there is no doubt that all applicants for relief, whether from municipal, Provincial or Government sources, should be put to that test. There are men out of employment who have refused jobs because they were of a nature unfamiliar to them, or because they considered the wages too low, or because the conditions did not appeal to them. It is difficult to see why the public purse should be opened for the benefit of men who have for these or other reasons declined to go to work when they had been given the opportunity of earning a wage. With conditions as they are at present, it is no time for "picking and choosing," and the wise man is he who takes the job that is offered him until something better presents itself. For the others who have steadfastly rejected the offers of jobs that did not impress them as being all that they wanted, there should be a very decided reluctance on the part of the authorities to provide assistance. There are people in every community to whom a situation like the present appeals as a harvest-time, a golden era with unemployment doles being offered and charitable organizations all busy distributing relief. Such gentry are liable to fare far too well while more deserving families are destitute and suffering.

THE FARMERS' SHARE.

It is significant that the appeals that are being made by the Advisory Committee of the Ontario Government in its effort to secure jobs for the unemployed of the Province do not ask the farmers, as they do ask other interests, to reduce the prices of their products. The agricultural community is merely asked to maintain a reasonable production, and if the farmers are successful in doing that they will have done all that could be expected of them. There is no need nor would there be any sense in asking the farmer to further deflate his prices; already they have dropped to a level which makes the farming industry the greatest sufferer in Canada of the depression that at present exists. We have had occasion at times to criticize the farmers' political movement, but our objection to the interjection of a class organization into the political arena has not blinded us to the fact that the farmers as a whole have borne more than their share of the deflation of prices. In the war days when the cost of living soared to unprecedented heights, city folks were wont to blame their neighbors in the country; no such charge can be made now. If food prices are higher than they should be the farmers are not to blame. The bottom has dropped out of their market, few of them in Ontario have made money in the past year, and in the Western Provinces the condition of the farmer is even more serious. "No wonder they have a new political party in the West," a local man who recently returned from the Prairie Provinces declared as he told of the plight many Western farmers are in at the present time, with poor crops in some sections, poor prices when the crops happened to be good, exorbitant freight rates, banks charging high rates of interest and implement firms pressing for their money.

CANADIANS FOR CANADA.

Mr. Walter McRaye, who spoke to the Kiwanis Club and the local Women's Canadian Club on Tuesday, brought forward many considerations which are well worth the earnest attention of Canadians. His theme was not a new one, but it dealt with a subject about which there is altogether too much indifference in this country — the need for national self-consciousness among the Canadian-born people. There is a very real danger in burking this question. Canada is a nation, developing along distinctive lines, and evolving citizens with a mentality and political outlook peculiar to themselves. It has great traditions and a history as glorious as it is romantic; there is too little appreciation of this fact; too much looking elsewhere, not enough self-reliance. Canada's population is largely transitory, and those who stay are too apt to live in retrospect. It would be well if a more intensive patriotism could be developed, especially in view of the great flood of immigration which is soon to ensue.

"How can we Canadianize the foreign-born when we do not Canadianize ourselves?" asks Mr. McRaye. It is a serious problem, fraught with great future uncertainty. But by what process can this Canadianization best be carried out? There is only one way—by imparting a knowledge of and an affection for Canadian institutions and by weaning the newcomers away from past associations. As members of the Empire, there is no need to weaken the sentiments of loyalty and pride for the Mother Land. It is in every way desirable that those sentiments should be fostered and encouraged. The Dominions are parts of a great whole, but each part is a distinct entity, with its own peculiar contribution to the Empire, and it would be indeed unfortunate if that separate entity was lost or merged. Still more unfortunate would it be if alien ideals secured the predominancy. But it is only in a less degree unsatisfactory to have these heterogeneous and sometimes antagonistic ideals co-existent in the Dominion, without any adequate effort to bring them into alignment with conceptions and aspirations congenial to the genius of the country.

The schools must play the greatest part in this effort. It is in the teaching of national history, past and present, that the essential spirit can best be created. Here in this favored land of opportunity our people should be taught to value their birthright and work for harmony and the fulfillment of a glorious destiny. Canada is the home of a new race, not a sojourning place or a refuge for alien peoples. Those who come to us must be prepared to merge themselves in the life of the country, and that life needs to be made more coherent and vital than it is. Quebec, Ontario, the Western and Maritime Provinces—Canadians all. Canada first in all things, but that does not preclude the larger loyalty to the Empire. In this national sentiment must be enlisted the enthusiasm of the French-speaking, the English-speaknig and the foreign races living within our borders. It is one of the foremost problems which should engage the anxious attention of our statesmen, our educationists and our public institutions generally; but more especially it is the duty of every citizen to cultivate this national instinct in himself and his family. "Canadians for Canada" —to adopt Mr. McRaye's slogan— "not Canada for the Canadians."—Hamilton Spectator.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The admiration of Premier Drury for The Toronto Telegram is closely akin to the affection of The Farmers' Sun for Sir Adam Beck.

Oshawa is endeavouring to enlist prominent business and professional men for municipal service. Peterborough's difficulty in this respect seems to be duplicated everywhere.

A Montreal judge declares that "idiocy has reached its zenith in the style of women's dress." But you never can tell what the next development will be.

At least it must be admitted that Lloyd George earns his salary. There is nobody who has more overtime to put in than the British Premier.

R. W. E. Burnaby found the running much smoother at the U.F.O. annual meeting than in the recent activity in North York.

The whole strength of the Drury Government has been thrown into the North Oxford fight. The administration will not add to its prestige if its unusual efforts to capture the seat are fruitless.

LITERARY GEMS

Like Rachel weeping for her lost children, Mr. Wells will not be comforted. He insists Europe is rotting to pieces and he refuses to have it any other way. The figures of trade are against him. They seem to indicate that people are getting back to work and conditions are gradually mproving, except in Russia, which has been pretty much ruffled by theorists. But, Wells doesn't care. He has a thesis is that the world is sick and needs his pill to make it well. So he won't hear to any reports of its convalescence without his pill. Facts showing the percentage of textile mills in operation and the tons of coal mined do not interest him. For they do not square his theory. But anyway Mr. Wells is a delightful writer. And could he be if he buried himself under and avalanche of trade reports?

DOCTOR ARRESTED MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, December 17. Canadian Press. — Dr. Malcolm Amos Lefrance, of 706 St. Catharine St. East, this city, appeared yesterday afternoon in the police court charged with having sold a considerable quantity of cocaine illegally. The case was adjourned until next Friday on a point of law as to whether the substance was a drug or not, no part of it having been recovered.

Dr. Lafrance was arrested on the charge following his claim that re had been defrauded in a 'transaction' by having been paid raised United States bank bills to the value of $750. The 'transaction' is alleged to have been one involving the sale of 30 ounces of cocaine at $25 an ounce.

years it would be little short of disgrace if we cannot do our part to keep the work going on.

After Mr. Haslam's address the election of officers and members of the committee were re-elected as follows:

Pres.—Mr. A. E. Higgins.
Sec.-Treas.—Mr. F. J Burgess
Baptist representatives— Messrs. James Campbell and Ben Nicholls.
Presbyterian representatives — Messrs. A. Fairbairn and W. Campbell.
Methodist representatives—Messrs. W. J. Northey and P. Spence.
Anglican representatives—Mrs. W. M. Graham (elected in place of the late W. M. Graham), and F. J. Lillicrap.

Mr. Burgess reported that last year $124 was collected in the village for this great work.

After the business Mr. Haslom showed a number of lantern sildes, showing various types of the natives of India and scenes of the northern part of that great country. Practically all the pictures were his own photographs and were intensely interesting. Mr. Richard James managed the lantern.

The Curling Club.

The Lakefield Curling Club held a very enthusiastic meeting on Thursday evening in the Council chamber. This year promises to break all previous records of the Curling Club. Already there are seventy-five members and all are full of "pep" and ready for a big season. There is no desire for a short and open winter with these gentlemen. Fourteen Reasons for Selecting the Ohio

It cleans without scattering dust and the suction draws dirt right through the rug if necessary.

It is able to clean in corners. The Ohio has no wheels to block the ends and the nozzle is shaped correctly.

It picks up lint, threads, and hair without injuring the rug. The Ohio's carpet sweeper brush is gentle but efficient.

It has a full set of attachments for cleaning walls, portiers, furniture, beds and other household uses.

It saves moving heavy furniture. The Ohio is designed to push under the bed, divan or bureau.

It is light in weight. The Ohio weighs only 11½ pounds and is easy to carry around the house.

—And eight worth while prizes.

You cannot select a Christmas gift that will be more appreciated than an Ohio electric cleaner. By removing the drudgery from cleaning it means Christmas cheer for the lady of the house all the year round.

Ask to see the machine in operation, run it yourself—its simplicity and smoothness of operation should suggest a name to you.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP FOR MRS. STICKLES IN HASTINGS W.M.S.

APPRECIATION OF LONG AND FAITHFUL SERVICES—ANNIVERSARY OF METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY.

NEWS FROM HASTINGS

HASTINGS, Dec. 17.—At the regular meting of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church held in the church on Wednesday afternoon, a very pleasing event took place, when Mrs. Sam Stickles was presented with a life membership in the society. Following is the address:—

"Dear Mrs. Stickles:—We the members of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Hastings, desire to express our appreciation of your services as a member and officer of the auxiliary. You have been constant in your attendance at our meetings, and always have shown deep and active interest in our work for nearly 34 years. While we are truly grateful to God for sparing you so long to be with us, yet we think we have been somewhat remiss in not acknowledging your valuable services before this. We have recourse to the saying that "it is better late than never," and would ask you to accept, as a tribute of our appreciation, this certificate giving you a life-long membership in the great and good society which has been so close to your heart for so many years, the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

In the name of the Hastings auxiliary.

(Signed) Mrs. Wm. Hill

Mrs. Stickles replied in suitable terms, and thanked the ladies for their kind and generous remembrance.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Eyre of Ottawa, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. West.

Mrs. H. Wilson spent Tuesday in Campbellford.

Mr. Clifford Herrington of London, is with his mother, Mrs. George Lynch.

Rev. D. A. Thomson has been in Port Hope, attending a meeting of the Peterborough Presbytery.

Rev. L. M. Hinton was in Warsaw this week.

Mr. W. A. Spellman is spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr. York, of Belleville, was called here on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. Montgomery returned on Wednesday from a weeeks visit in Peterborough.

Mr and Mrs. W. Hall were in Peterborough on Wednesday.

Mr. L. Stevens, of Peterboro was in town on Thursday.

The school board held a meeting on Thursday evening to consider the application received for principal of the public schools.

Mr. R. Walsh was in Keene on Thursday loading a shipment of live stock for the city markets.

Mrs. E. Beavis has returned from a months visit with friends in Lakefied and Peterboro.

For the Holiday

The Sunday School of the Methodist Church is busy pacticing for their annual Christmas entertainment.

Local merchants are busy decorating their windows in keeping with the holiday season.

Anniversary Services

Anniversary services will be held in the Methodist Church on Sunday next. Rev. Wesley Elliot, a former pastor, but now of Belleville, will preach at both services.

Plan For Christmas

The children of the Mission Band of the Presbyterian Church are practising for their Christmas entertainment, which will be held in the basement of the church on December 23rd.

The school concert of No. 9 Asphodel will be held at the school house on Wednesday evening, December 21st.

DEPOSITORS ARE SAFE

The merger will more particularly affect the bank's shareholders as the value of their holdings of the bank's stock will entirely depend on the terms of the transfer. As far as depositors are concerned the amalgamation will under ordinary circumstances affect them but little, as when the deal is consummated they will be doing business with the Bank of Montreal, instead of with the Merchants Bank. In the meantime the latter institution will carry on as before and it is presumed there will be no change in the actual operation of the bank for the time being.

It was stated at the Bank of Montreal late yesterday afternoon that it considers that the deposits held by the Merchants Bank are "safe beyond all doubt."

Peterboro has one branch of the Merchants Bank.

CHANCE FOR DELINQUENTS.

EDMONTON, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press).—Rural ratepayers who are in arrears in the payment of taxes will not, by reason of that fact, be deprived of the right to vote upon municipal matters if a policy suggested by Hon. B. G. Reid, Minister of Municipal Affairs, is successful. In an address yesterday before the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts convention, Mr. Reid announced that he will recommend to the Legislature at the next sitting, that all ratepayers be permitted to vote, whether or not their taxes are paid.

HASTINGS TOWN COUNCIL MEET

CLEAR UP BUSINESS FOR THE YEAR—GRANT TO HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

HASTINGS, Dec. 17.—The regular meeeting of the town council was held in the council chamber. There were present: Reeve Dr. J. H. Hess, Councillors Lynch, McGail, Hatherley and Chapman. Minutes of regular meeting of 12th November were read, and confirmed.

The regular list of accounts presented, when it was moved by McGail seconded by Hatherley, that they be paid and orders drawn on the treasurer for several amounts. Carried. A communication was read fom Mary Archer, Fowlds, secretary of the I.O.D.E. offering a grant of $2.00 or more if possible for decorating the interior of the town hall. The communication was received and laid on the table but as it is very near the end of the financial year, after all business was settled the municipality would be in a better position to see how far they could go in making necessary improvements, and also in beautifying the town hall. Moved by McGail, seconded by Mr. Hatherley, that the account of F. Hawkins for material for fumigation be not entertained; let the parties that got this material pay for it themselves. Carried. F. Bretherton and John Thomson waited on council and on behalf of the Horticultural Society asked for a grant. Moved by Lynch, seconded by Chapman that the council vote a grant of $25 to the Horticultural Society, they to have power to decorate the Town Hall grounds and trim trees.

Council adjourned to meet on the 15th inst. at 8 p.m.

TELEGRAPHIC AND CABLE NEWS

CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE.

VANCOUVER, December 17 (Canadian Press). — General Manager Donohue and Chief Engineer Browning, of the Britannia Mining Company, appeared before Magistrate Alexander, charged with criminal negligence in connection with the floods which cost the lives of 30 people. They were both remanded, each putting up $10,00 bail. The preliminary hearing will be proceeded with later.

SETTLER RUNS AMUCK.

VANCOUVER, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Alexander Johnson, a settler on Theodosia Arm, three miles from Lund, B.C., ran amuck in that town yesterday, and according to reports received here by the Provincial Police, one person was killed. Johnson, it is said, disappeared from his home several days ago, and a party was sent to search for him. The name of the victim has not been ascertained. The Provincial Police are being sent to effect Johnson's arrest.

FAVOUR SALE OF BEER.

CALGARY, Alta., December 17 (Canadian Press). — By an overwhelming vote the Provincial Convention of the Great War Veterans' Association in Alberta at yesterday's session went on record as in favour of the sale of beer in the Province in a resolution which called on the Alberta Government to submit the question to the people at the earliest possibe date.

PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION.

EDMONTON, Alta., December 17 (Canadian Press). — That the next provincial election in Alberta will be under the proportional representation system appears to be assured, from a statement made by Premier Greenfield.

"The United Farmers of Alberta have always stood strongly for proportional representation, and there is no doubt that the queston will come before the Provincial Legislature before the next elections," declared Mr. Greenfield.

VISITORS TO OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Yesterday afternoon a further series of conferences took place between the Hon. Mackenzie-King and prominent Liberals, some of them members-elect. Hon. G. P. Gealiam, one time Minister of Railways in the Laurier administration, and now member-elect for Essex South, had a lengthy interview with the Liberal Leader. Other successful Liberal candidates who visited their Chief were H. H. Marler, who defeated the Hon. C. C. Ballantyne in St. Lawrence-St. George Division of Montreal; Pius Michaud (Restigouche - Madawaska, N.B.), and others. Hon. J. R. Boyle, former Attorney-General of Alberta in the Stewart Government, was also a visitor to Mr. Mackenzie-King's offices during the afternoon.

Took "Redmac" The Great Tonic
GAINS 22 POUNDS
A Montreal Man's Amazing Experience

Mr. Tremblay of Montreal, says since taking Redmac, the Great Herbal Tonic, he has gained 22 pounds. I feel and people say I look 30 years younger. I had been suffering from a run down condition, nervousness, loss of strength, poor appetite and thinness; to-day I feel hungry, sleep well, nervousness has disappeared and hard work never bothers me. Redmac was a God-send to me. The reason REDMAC brings such wonderful results is because it feeds run down glands, the cause of many run-down conditions, by supplying them with the extracts of certain Herbs and Roots and Tropical plants, the glands are made strong and healthy—just like re-charging a storage battery.

If weak, pale, thin or run-down, try REDMAC, the King of Tonics. This remarkable medicine brings results quickly. It has helped thousands to regain youthful health and strength. Try a bottle, a large generous bottle can be procured from your druggist at a reasonable price. If you have indigestion or stomach touble, if you feel all out of sorts, REDMAC will put you on your feet in a short time.

Peterborough Has Many Cases Of Want at Christmas Time

WHILE SOME WOMEN LONG FOR FUR COATS AND SILVERWARE OTHERS LONG FOR FOOD AND BARE NECESSITIES—THE URGE OF THE POOR.

This is the time of year when the charitably-inclined feel the urge of the poor and the afflicted who dwell within our gates. To the woman who yearns for a fur coat as a suitable acknowledgment at Christmas time, it may seem incredible that another woman is longing with a fierce strength for a cook-stove and the stove-pipes that will make it workable; the man who yawns in an office-chair through pleasantly-heated hours would be surprised if you told him that there are many men in this city who would welcome a job with a pick and spade in frosty weather; the housewife who wants some new silver can't imagine the yearning of the woman who would be happy if she had a small cupboard and some old chairs to make her one room livable, the plight of the prospective mother who lies on a rag bed in a one-roomed shack, or the lady sick in bed, with her daughter waiting on her, a woman whose means of income has been taken from her by reason of unemployment of her men roomers, and whose landlord threatens to turn them out on the street for unpaid rent, can hardly be reconciled at the Christmas season with the luxury of enclosed motor-cars, packed theatres and luxurious dances.

The world is full of contrasts, but they seem more cruel at the Yuletide. Elegance and want rub shoulders on the streets of every town and city. Here in Peterboro we have an aggregate of about 35 children who are in dire need of, not Christmas trees or toys, but of food for little stomachs, of clothing for bare hands and feet and ragged backs, and their homes without fuel or the bare necessities of life. There are cases like that of the man just recovering from influenza, whose three children have had the fever, whose wife and family huddle in bed for a little warmth in fuel-less house, while he looks for work. There are more than 30 blind people in Peterboro men, women and children, some well provided for, some in want, and all in darkness. And it is the joyous Christmas season.

"THE GIRL OF THE NEW DAY"

"I am not thinking at this moment of the women of old days who glorified in the consciousness of being misfits; of women like the famous Mrs. Junk, who shouldered her pitchfork as cheerfully by day as she headed a table of priceless blue china at night, and after dinner regaled her guests with the choicest music, a hen sitting under the piano in a basket at her feet and a brood of chickens roosting on top.

"I am thinking of women, like the scholarly Mrs. Moodie, who struggled against her fate and placed on record on the one hand her desolation, "the rushing of the stream against the stones which choked its passage, a mournful type of my own mental struggles against the strange destinies which hemmed me in"; and on the other her joy at release. "My store of dandelion roots for the winter's supply of coffee having just been gathered in, I literally fainted for joy and fell on my knees at a direct gift from Heaven, a letter offering my husband a post as sheriff."

Ellen M. Knox, in "The Girl of the New Day."

AND HE LIVED IN PETERBOROUGH

A man who had a grudge against another man caught what he thought was his neighbor's collie dog one day last summer and strung him up by the collar. It didn't happen to be his neighbor's dog, after all, but it paid its supposed master's debt, just the same. Having strung it up, he took a nail-studded stick and prodded the beast for awhile, ending with tying a lot of cans to its tail and leaving it there.

Having whetted his appetite for cruelty in this way, and evidently having a grudge against collies, he caught another some days later, tied more cans to its tail and then chased it. Running away, and being unable to get through a fence on account of its encumbrances, it stuck fast and was found fourteen hours later, raving mad. It was shot to put an end to its agony.

This man wasn't a native of Russia or Mexico, or of any of the supposedly barbaric lands. He lived in Peterboro, and was only one of a number of people who are cruel to dumb brutes, and whose activities along these lines are more widespread than most gentle-minded folk suppose or believe possible.

Santa Claus Plan

(By PAULINE FRANCES CAMP)

Santa Claus rubbed his small button nose,
Round as a cherry and red as a rose;
A frown on his brow, where frowns do not belong,
Revealed there was something exceedingly wrong;
And suddenly out it all came with a burst:
"Of all the lean years, this is surely the worst!
Way up in the air the prices of toys,
Which means empty stockings for poor girls and boys;
And yet I just can't have those little ones cry!
But ho, an idea! "On his whistle he blows,
And the Brownies come skipping on tippity toes.

"Go call me a meeting", the ruddy saint puffed.
"Of the children whose stockings are always well stuffed;
The time, ten o'clock and the place Sleepytown."
And off sped the quaint little fellows in brown.

At ten all the children were there without doubt,
Whispering and wondering, "What is it about?"
Till rat-a-tat-tat! and in Santa popped,
When a pin would have surely been heard had it dropped.

And then he unfolded his wonderful plan.
"I've placed you in twenty-six groups," he began.
"The Addisons, Andersons, Applebys, Ayers;
The Baldwins, the Biddles, the Bishops and Blairs;
The Cabots, the Carrolls, the Cunninghams, too,
Right on down to Z, where there'll be but few.
You know that when down your big chimneys I pop
Your stockings will all be left full to the top.
So I want you to share, when the merry day comes,
With the poor little waifs of the byways and slums.
What will the D's give? They have the first choice!
And each D shrieked "Dolls" at the top of his voice.

The C's offered Chop-Chee Cars
Crisp Candy Canes;
The R's roared out Ribbons and Rattles and Reins;
S drew forth a chorus of Skates, Sleds and Socks;
While the B's shouted Books, Bats, and Balls, Beads and Blocks;
The O's voted Oranges, quite to a man!
And the P's sputtered Pop Corn, right fresh from the pan.
The A's stood for Apples, ripe rosy and red;
And Trumpets and Tops, every little T said.
The M's thought a very nice gift would be mittens,
While they all laughed aloud when a K said "Kittens."

The fun grew uproarious and, ere they were done,
Old Santa Claus beamed like a glorified sun,
And all as they left felt a warm, happy glow
Down deep in their hearts as they ploughed through the snow;
And when Santa called out: "It will help my good elves
If you'll carry these things to the kiddies yourselves"
Each nodded gaily: "We'll see you through it!"
And when Christmas comes, I believe they will do it!

WEAK HEART NERVES BADLY SHATTERED

Many a woman who should be strong and healthy, full of life and energy is bound by the shackles of ill-health.

Some disease or constitutional disturbance has left its mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted system.

In

they will find a remedy that will supply food for the exhausted nerves, one that will strengthen and regulate the weak heart and invigorate the whole system.

Mrs. W. W. Parse, 14 Seaton St., Toronto, Ont., writes:—"I was left with a weak heart and in a run down condition from the 'flu.' My nerves were badly shattered, and I had such pains around my heart I could not sleep much at night. I took several doctors' medicines without getting any better. My husband got me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I took one box I got relief, and after taking six boxes I have been well and not bothered since."

Price, 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LADIES' AUXILIARY IN TOURNAMENT

WILL PROVIDE A CHRISTMAS TREAT FOR THE CHILDREN

On Wednesday evening last an excellent attendance of lady members of the Caledonian Club Ladies' Auxiliary in the Woodmen of World Hall provided a delightful evening's enjoyment in the form of a Carpet Bowling Tournament. Each team was drawn out of a hat, consisting of four members who picked their own skip. Prompt at 8 p.m. the first game started amid great excitement with one team leading 9 to 3 ends but by real hard play the other team, led by Mrs. Hurry, got the advantage of Mrs. Reid's team by the odd shot for eleven up. Mrs. Stratton's team gained the lead early in the game and held Mrs. Wyllie's team to the odd shot. Mrs. Hurry's team defeated Mrs. Stratton four in the semi-final. The last game was not finished until 11 o'clock with Mrs. Peter McArthur's team defeating Mrs. Hurry's team in the last end, thereby winning the four large cakes of Scotch Shortbread donated by Mr. R. French, who had decorated the prizes in artistic style with icing and each cake conveyed true sentiment in lettering, naed. 'A Guid New Year," "A Merry Christmas," "Guid Luck Tae Ye," and "Scotland for Ever."

The committee anticipate holding another tournament next month.

The Children's Christmas Treat will be held in the W.O.W. Hall on Saturday, 24th December. Festivities will commence at 4 o'clock sharp in the afternoon with the children providing the entertainment themselves until the arrival of Santa Claus at 7 p.m. who will distribute the toys off the Christmas trees. The committee desire it to be known that the treat is for the members' children of the Ladies' Auxiliary and Caledonian Club, and also ask the help of every person by handing in the names of the children because they do not want a child overlooked.

Annual Hogmanay Dance will be held in G.W.V.A. Hall on New Year's Holiday, 2nd January, from 4 to 11 o'clock.

Red and all shades bordering on it continue to outnumber other colors, and white remains strong for evening.

OPENING EVENTS ART ASSOCIATION

WILL FORM A SKETCH CLUB IN JANUARY—SHORT PLAYS

The local branch of the Women's Art Association, who have had two very successful opening events for their season, in the form of a Rally Tea and an afternoon with Shakespeare, have arranged a pleasant series of Saturday afternoon musicales for members. The programme subject to change, is as follows: Jan. 14th.—Arranged by Miss Ida Sanderson, Hostesses; Mrs. J. W. McDermid and Mrs. A. W. Cressman. Feb. 25th.—Arranged by Mrs. Maurice Park. Hostesses; Mrs. W. Sangster and Mrs. A. B. Mann. Mar. 11th.—Arranged by Miss Margaret Neill. Hostesses; Mrs. G. Porter and Miss A. Wood. April 1st.—Arranged by Miss Florence Scott. Hostesses; Mrs. J. H. Seels and Mrs. H. Morphet.

In February and April the Dramatic will present a number of short plays in the Conservatory Hall under the direction of Mrs. W. McKee Bingham.

Arrangements will be announced for exhibitions to be held in the Studio by Miss Hatton.

The Association has also in mind the forming of a Sketch Club in January for members, which will have an associate membership at a small fee for young girls wishing to take advantage of the class.

Emerson is credited with having said, "Build a better mouse trap than your neighbor and even though you live in the midst of a wilderness the world will beat a path to your door."

TO-DAY'S FASHIONS

P.LLOW COVERS

A woman writer, talking about pillows for decorative purposes, offers some excellent suggestions for the holiday gift season. She says: "in making a pillow cover always cut it at the least one inch smaller all around, which makes two inches on every width; a more professional looking pillow will result if the cover is made two inches smaller all around, or four inches on every width, for this makes the pillow nice and plump when finished, making it look better and keep its shape much longer.

Some pillows are made of French seams, others are whipped inside when the materials are too heavy to French, and some are finished with a corded pipng."

A MODERN MIRACLE

What Mr. Robert I. Buchanan, of Sarnia, Ont., has to say:

It is with great pleasure that I can testify to the great curative qualities of Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets and Hou-Tan Ointment.

The summer of 1902 I took typhoid fever which left me with inflammatory rheumatism. My legs used to swell and the pain at times was almost unbearable. In January, 1903, I was compelled to go to bed and one month after my leg broke open at the knee. I was removed to Sarnia Hospital, where I spent almost one year and during that time had four operations. A part of the femur was removed from my leg and they made an incision through the other leg, which went right through the bone. I left Sarnia Hospital in February, 1904, and started to treat with other remedies but they failed to do me any good. In November, 1906, I was taken to Toronto hospital. They put a Thomas splint on to straighten my leg up and opened up the wound again. I left the hospital in February, 1907, and remained at home until July, 1907, when I returned to Toronto hospital again. They broke my leg just below the knee and straightened it. I came home in December, but the sore in my leg was still open. I was then using the cupping treatment which helped a little for a time. I tried a number of different ointments, but they did not appear to help me.

In July, 1908, your agent left me a box of Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets and Hou-Tan Ointment. After using them for about six months my health has been fully restored and the four different sores on my leg are completely healed.

Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets and Hou-Tan Ointment are for sale at WARNE'S DRUG STORE, Peterborough. Herb Tablets 25c, 50c and $1.00 per box. Hou-Tan Ointment, 50c.

The Truth

"Consciously or unconsciously we have in our life the feeling of Truth which is ever larger than its appearance; for our life is facing the infinite, and it is in movement. Its aspiration is therefore infinitely more than its achievement, and as it goes on it finds that no realization of truth ever leaves it stranded on the desert of finality, but carries it to a region beyond. Evil cannot altogether arrest the course of life on the highway and rob it of its possessions. For the evil has to pass on: it cannot stand and give battle. If the last evil could stop anywhere indefinitely, it would sink deep and cut into the very roots of existence. As it is, man does not really believe in evil, just as he cannot believe that violin strings have been purposely made to create the exquisite torture of discordant notes, though by aid of statitics it can be mathematically proved that the probability of discord is far greater than that of harmony, and for one who can play the violin there are thousands who cannot."

WHEN PETERBORO' HAD ROASTED OX

In the article, "Peterborough — Picturesque and Progressive," by Katherine Hale, appearing in the December number of the Canadian Home Journal, she says:

"It is to Mr. Dobbin that I am indebted for the outline of a dramatic tale.

"In the late forties it seems that Peterborough decided to have a new Town Hall and Market-house — a series of new buildings, in fact, to be erected for business purposes on three sides of the Square. It was in 1850 that the then Mayor Charles Hudson, decided that the laying of the corner-stone should be a notable and sufficiently spectacular affair to be handed down to posterity. And, says Mr. Dobbin, in the girth of his heart and the breadth of his views he donated the gift of an ox that should be roasted whole and served ad libitum to the general public.

"People spoke with one another, and asked who is this Croesus, who giveth oxen to be roasted whole? One thousand pounds weight and the probable cost $30.00. It was the audacity of the proposition that took hold."

Of course, the word "ox" was used as a figure of speech. A fat young steer was hand-picked with discrimination and judgment. It was brought into town and paraded, and the public took notice and expressed anticipation. Having got the ox, who should cook it? Harry Cronn, a black slave escaped from the southern States, "one of excellent weight —strong as the ox which he proposed to cremate, was chosen for the purpose."

The day approached. On the market square a huge pit was digged; boulder lined and filled with coals. The roasting skewer was a huge pole. Beside the great steer pigs and fowl were also lifted to the supports, and the cooking began. The heat was intense. A carving table had been erected on the Square. The feast was announced for seven. Between that hour and eight o'clock the Square held almost the entire population of the town and vicinity. People came bringing bread, dishes, cutlery, and drink. Those who volunteered to carve wore white aprons to indicate office. Expectation ran high.

But the cooking was too vast. By nine o'clock the announcement was made that the "ox" was not half done. The populace was hungry but patient. At ten o'clock it was still hungry but impatient. It was then proclaimed that the roasting must occupy the whole night. Would the people come back to breakfast?

We can see them hurrying home.

But at two of the morning, that fateful hour, a horrid doom befell. A band of disguised marauders approached, riding horses belonging to a stone-boat. They caught the miserable black, whose failure had annoyed them, bound him hand and foot, left him to his fate, conveyed the "ox" to the stone-boat, and disappeared. In the morning Peterborough arrived for breakfast. The end of the story is vague.

FOR CHRISTMAS

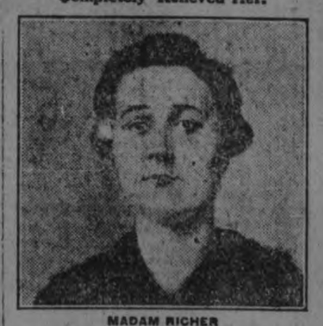
The fortnightly meeting of the A.Y.P.A. of All Saints' Church was held Monday evening last, when a committee was formed to collect from families in the city who have a supply of unused toys on hand. A number of these will doubtless be received. They will be distributed among families in the city where there are children without much prospect of Christmas cheer.

Donations for toys for the Christmas treat for the children at the Shelter are also being asked for, and there are quite a few little things at St. Vincent's Orphanage who doubtless would welcome anything in the way of toys or Christmas goodies.

With roast chicken, serve crab-apple jelly, celery salad, onion sauce, or chopped pickles. With fried chicken, serve plum butter, brown sauce, or chili sauce.

COULD HARDLY MOVE IN HER BED

Eight Boxes of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Completely Relieved Her.



MADAM RICHER

Labelle, P.Q., April 18th, 1921

"It is my duty to tell you and publish to all what your remedy "Fruit-a-tives" has done for me.

I suffered with Rheumatism for ten months; could hardly move in bed; and was miserable all the time. I tried several physicians and took many remedies, but they left me at the same place, in bed and suffering, the Rheumatism was so bad.

I finally started in taking "Fruit-a-tives" and continued the treatment regularly as I found myself getting better. After using eight boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" (which cost only $4.) I am completely well without a trace of Rheumatism."

Madam J. RICHER.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A HIT-AND-MISS BRIDE

A quaint marriage custom is in vogue in the Andaman Isles—the pen settlement to which 'lifers' from British India are sent.

There are eighteen thousand prisoners in the settlement, and every Saturday morning all women who wish to be married are heavily veiled and paraded round the square. Men prisoners, qualified by good conduct for the privilege of marrying, stand outside the magic circle, judging as best they can the merits of the candidates.

When a man makes his selection he is at liberty to have the object of his choice picked out and the veil removed. No alternative to accepting the woman then remains to him.

Women, on the other hand, have the option of two refusals, but the third occasion is final one way or the other.

DOLLAR-A-DAY MAN. STILL HE DRAWS $51

Lives on His Wages and Salts the Rest Away

FRANKLIN, Ky., Dec. 16.—James Poteet of Simpson County, Kentucky, is a dollar-a-day farm hand, yet his income is $51 a day.

Land that he paid $10 for several years ago now is yielding oil that brings his daily income to what it takes him 50 days to earn on a farm takes him 50 days to earn on a farm dollar a day, board and lodging. He deposits the royalty checks and lives on the dollar he earns. He is married and has two children.

Some years ago, Poteet was working for H. L. Davis on his Simpson County farm. Davis had a 64-acre tract of poor land that he wanted to sell. Poteet gave him $10 for it and kept on working for Davis.

Recently oil prospectors invaded Simpson County and leased all the property they could. Poteet's land was included. Drilling was begun in due time and two wells soon were completed. A third well is expected to be brought in within a day or two. The one-eighth royalty from the production of these wells nets Poteet the $51 a day.

It is reported that Poteet has never inspected either of the wells although his property adjoins that of the man for whom he is working.

A Sure Relief for Women's Disorders—10 Days Treatment Free

Orange Lily is a certain relief for all disorders of women. It is applied locally and is absorbed into the suffering tissue. The dead waste matter in the congested region is expelled, giving immediate mental and physical relief; the blood vessels and nerves are toned and strengthened; and the circulation is rendered to normal. CANADIAN EX-SOLDIERS ARE WINNING THE BATTLE OF TURNING WASTE LANDS INTO FRUITFUL FARMS

Good reports of Canada's success in re-establishing her soldiers are being spread far and wide, somewhat to the chagrin of other nations that have failed to make good their promises to the men who risked their all in the cause of world liberty.

Canada put over half a million men into khaki out of a total population of less than eight million people. With the return of the troops to civil life at the close of hostilities, the Canadian government faced the problem of rehabilitating more than 300,000 men. The first step was to list each returning man and ascertain whether he would be able to step into his pre-war position. For those who had no job in view and evinced no desire to become farmers, assistance in obtaining work was given through well co-ordinated government employment bureaus. Discharged men whose disabilities prevented a return to former occupations, were given the opportunity of re-training, free of charge, in some trade or profession of their own choice in which their disabilities would not prove a handicap. But the greatest good was accomplished through the land settlement scheme.

Statistics to the end of October, 1921, show that 27,142 returned soldiers have been settled on the land. Of these, 6,103 were settled on free lands without loans, while 21,039 with loans amounting to $86,504,857. The total area occupied by soldier settlers is 4,854,792 acres, of which about one-half is free land. It is estimated that the soldiers have broken over 600,000 acres of new land. So far, 423 have repaid their loans in full.

The Canadian Pacific Railway, as a large land owner in the western provinces and desirous of doing something in the matter of soldier re-establishment instituted a scheme for the community settlement of returned men as early as 1916. The plan comprised settlement upon improved farms, and selective colonization under which the settler chooses his own land, and improves it with the assistance of loans from the company for building fences, purchasing live stock, etc. Already there are three colonies settled in Southern Alberta, two of them — the Van Horne Colony at Coaldale, and the St. Julien, near Tilley — irrigable, with twenty-five and fifty farms respectively. Each farm has eighty acres, with a reserve of an equal additional acreage to provide for extension to the farm when demanded. The third colony, Anzac, has twenty-five farms and is located at Chancellor, north of Bassano. These colonies are administered from a central control farm located in the middle of each colony. Farming machinery and all implements are held in common, and future development of the colony will see the establishment of community creameries, cheese factories and other industries.

COUNTY COURT LATE SESSION

JURY SAT UNTIL NEARLY MIDNIGHT IN CASE OF MAHOOD AND HAVERY VS. BIGELOW.

The temporarily handless clock in the County Court Chamber looked blankly upon the proceedings in the case of Mahood and Henry vs. R. H. Bigelow, but had it been counting the hours it would have been close to the 11.30 position when the jury was dismissed last night with instructions to be in their places again this morning at 10.15 o'clock. In this action the plaintiffs claim $1,300 on a promissory note given them by defendant on May 26th, 1921, together with $500 in cash and two used cars in exchange for a Columbia automobile.

Mr. Bigelow's defense was that the car he thus purchased was misrepresented to him and was not worth more than his cash payment and the used Overland and Mitchell cars he traded in the deal. Plaintiffs denied any misrepresentation and asked for an execution of the agreement of sale in full, that is for the promised $1300 with interest at 7 per cent. R. R. Hall, K.C., and C. R. Widdifield were counsel for the plaintiffs and G. N. Gordon for the defendant.

The night session was held at the request of Mr. Gordon, who had an appointment in Ottawa to-day and who wished to catch the midnight train. Shortly after nine o'clock he complained that the hearing of the case was being unduly protracted, and Mr. Hall replied rather sharply that his chief concern was the interests of his clients.

The evidence was all in by 11 o'clock and Mr. Gordon concluded his address to the jury by 11.30. Mr. Hall's presentation and Judge Huycke's charge were reserved until this morning.

Mr. Bigelow, a farmer of Cavan township, said he had made the negotiation for the purchase of a Columbia through Mahood and Havery last spring and had seen the car in a Toronto salesroom.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hall, defendant said the car appeared to be all right that night.

"I looked at the leather cushions but didn't see them very well," he said. "I don't know whether I looked at the engine or not. I went right around the car. It was shiny and bright. I was told it had travelled about 2,500 miles and had been used for demonstration purposes.

Mr. Hall—You knew that as a demonstration car it was used for showing what it would do, that it was used for putting extra strain on it, or the bumps it would take without breaking a spring?— I didn't know all that. They never showed me anything like that.

Bigelow said he thought that if the car had not travelled more than 2,500 miles it was about as good as new.

"I said they must have taken good care of it the way it looked, and they said they had."

Mr. Hall—Didn't they tell you it had been revarnished —No. Nothing was said about that. If there had been I wouldn't have bought it at all.

Defendant denied that he knew he was buying a Columbia sport model.

Mr. Hall produced the note Bigelow had given and read on it "Columbia Six extra special sport dems. (demonstration)."

"That wasn't on it when I signed it defendant said, but changed his statement, declaring that at any rate the word "sport" was not on the note, although Mr. Hall suggested to him that the words were in good order.

"I decided to take the car on condition that they take it back in a month if I wished it," defendant said.

In the deal he made for the Columbia were his own used Overland and Mitchell, note for $1300 and $500 cash. He was aware that Mahood and Havery didn't have the car previous to the purchase in Toronto.

Mr. Hall—You relied on anything Mr. Barton said?—I calculate so. Havery was there and didn't contradict him.

You knew Mahood and Havery didn't know how long the car had been run?—I couldn't tell you that.

Bigelow said he wanted to buy a touring car, a coupe or a sedan and didn't know the sport model.

"I asked them if they would change it for a coupe or a sedan and they said yes," Mr. Bigelow continued. "If I didn't like it when I got home they said they would change it. They said all I'd use it wouldn't hurt.

Mr. Hall—You said you were to have the car for a month or so and now you make this other statement that you asked whether you could change the car after you got home.

Mr. Bigelow—That's the same. It might be a month.

Defendant declared that on two occasions plaintiffs had promised him he could change the car for a coupe or sedan. The first time was in Toronto.

"When Mr. Havery brought out the car he said he'd give me a coupe or a sedan. I didn't know what would turn up and possibly I mightn't take it."

He contended that it was understood throughout the negotiations that he was accepting this car "providing it gave satisfaction."

"Why didn't you write that on the note? You wrote all the rest of the agreement on it," said Mr. Hall.

Bigelow admitted that the Mitchell car he gave in exchange for the Columbia had to be towed away by Mr. Havery and two hours were spent tuning up the Overland before it was ready for the road.

Wanted to Change It.

Defendant said he and his son came to Peterborough six weeks or more after the purchase and told Mr. Havery they wanted to change it. They arranged to meet Mr. Havery at the Toronto salesroom, and motored up in the car. They saw Mr. Barton alone. Mr. Havery wasn't present.

"I told Mr. Barton I'd like to change the car for a coupe or a sedan. He told me I'd have to look to Havery.

Mr. Hall— What did you want a new speedometer for when you bought the car?— So it wouldn't show the car had run 2,500 miles.

Mr. Hall— You wanted to show your neighbors you had bought a new car. If anyone was to be fooled it was to be your neighbours.

Bigelow said he noticed that there was no rug or coat rack on the back of the front seat when he examined the car.

Mr. Hall—You must have looked pretty closely after all?

Defendant— You haven't to look close to see that.

Mr. Bieglow said he had driven to Peterborough in the car Friday and it "ran pretty smoothly."

Gordon Bigelow.

Gordon Bigelow, 15 year old son of defendant, was next called. He testified that he heard his father ask Mr. Havery if he'd get a coupe or sedan, and Havery said he would get it about the 20th of the month.

The large audience in the gallery was mildly amused by the youngster's attempts to follow the advice of Judge Huycke who, in a kindly way corrected his use of the vulgarism "yaw" for "yes."

After that the boy occasionally lapsed back into habit, but for the most part his affirmatives were given with a crisp "yes."

James Turner.

James Turner, farm hand for R. H. Bigelow last spring, when the car transaction was made, testified that he was at supper the evening Mr. Bigelow and Mr. Havery made the deal. They were at a nearby table. Witness testified that he heard Havery say he would give Mr. Bigelow a coupe or sedan.

Mr. Bigelow went upstairs to get his money. Witness did not see what bills he brought down, but they "looked as if they might be bigger than one dollar bills."

"Are ten dollar bills bigger than ones ", Mr. Hall asked.

Turner said he didn't have much experience with tens.

Experts Called.

Leo Ackford, a young gentleman with a rather bored expression, a partner in the firm of White and Ackford, automobile mechanics, was called as an expert by Mr. Gordon. To him the Columbia car bought by Mr. Bigelow appeared on examination yesterday to have been run 25,000 or 30,000 miles, and was now worth from $1,000 to $1,200 according to his estimate.

Eddie Freeman gave similar evidence and O. G. Urry, of Millbrook, automobile mechanic, was also called as an expert.

The Millbrook man admitted that he had been discussing with Mr. Bigelow the exchange of the Columba car but nothing could be done in that direction until this case was settled.

CONDEMNED RIOTS.

DUBLIN, Dec. 17. — (Canadian Press.)—In a statement issued yesterday the Dail Eireann stated that it noted reports of attacks on British forces and two members being killed. It was of the opinion that acts were not committed by members of Republican forces and strongly condemned them in the strongest manner.

The GRESSMAN Limited

GLIMPSE OF WORK FOR KIDDIES BY PETERBORO' HEALTH ASSN.

TREATED TO HEALTHY SUMMER RECREATION IN CAMP AT JACKSON'S PARK — PERMANENT BUILDINGS PLANNED.

The Peterborough Health Association desires to present a report of the Summer Camp held during July and August of this year in Jackson's Park. As many of our citizens know, this work is being carried on each summer for the benefit of children who are under-nourished and have not the opportunity of securing a holiday in the country, to restore their depleted bodies.

This work was begun in the summer of 1914 in a small way, discontinued until 1919, owing to war conditions, but revived in that year and held yearly since. About one hundred children were cared for during the past summer, but with the increased facilities projected, it is hoped to very much increase the number. Children under fourteen years of age only are accepted, and it is desirable as far as possible that they be vouched for by some person who knows them. This is done so that the needy cases will not be overlooked or displaced by children who should go to the public playgrounds. The camp accommodates about 35 children at a time and they are allowed to remain for three weeks.

The Camp Life.

To those who are not familiar with our work let me say that the camp nurse, with a motor bus, gathers up the children in the morning from various parts of the city and takes them to the camp, where a good meal of bread, butter and milk is provcided. They then play about in the woods under the nurse's supervision until noon, when a substantial meal of meat, vegetables, sweets and milk is provided. The dinner being over, all the children are asked to rest or sleep for one hour, or longer if they desire, after which they play about, have a bath in the pond and generally enjoy themselves until five o'clock, when the are given milk and bread, and under the care of the nurse taken to their various homes. This is the routine day after day, and it is really remarkable what this holiday among the trees and flowers, away from the dust and noise of the city, does for these little ones. Children who can scarcely walk, pale, emaciated and listless, after a few days appear to be revivified and gradually but eagerly take their place in the play among their more fortunate fellow campers.

Such is a glimpse of some of the work which the Health Association through its nurse's supervision committee is attempting to carry on. We have many, many friends who aid us and we feel sure that our efforts have only to be more widely known to vastly increase the number of those who desire to lend a helping hand.

Permanent Buildings.

For next year, it has been thought wise to secure some more permament buildings which, with the permission of the Park Committee, we would erect in Jackson's Park. Last year the DeLaval Company of this City made it possible for us to have a permament kitchen and now plans are prepared for a permanent dining-room and rest room.

Our funds are derived from voluntary subscriptions and part of the proceeds of the annual Motor Show. Hence it will be seen that we rely upon the public for the extension of this splendid work. May we commend it to our citizens and until such time as all activities leading to the betterment and the health of our people, are taken over by the City, may we ask the kind co-operation and generous support?

ECZEMA
ON FACE AND HEAD FOR FIVE YEARS

Eczema or salt rheum, as it is so often called, manifests itself in little round pimples which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed and the intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to a strong heat, is almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed.

There is only one way to get relief and no remedy like

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Take it internally and it gets at the seat of the disease in the blood and drives it out of the system.

Apply it externally and it takes out the itching, stinging and burning and promotes healthy healing.

Mrs. J. Sage, 215 Princess Ave., Vancouver, B. C., writes: "Having suffered with eczema on the face and head, for the last five years, I consulted several doctors, and tried various kinds of salves and lotions, but I derived no benefit from any of them. I did not know what to do until a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had used two bottles I began to get better and now after taking eight bottles I have not even a blotch on me. I feel that I cannot praise B. B. B. too highly I hope you will make full use of this recommendation for the benefit of those who are suffering from this terrible complaint, eczema."

EGYPT EXPECTS BIG TOURIST BUSINESS

Anticipates Seven Prosperous Years After Seven Lean Ones.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, December 16 (Associated Press). — After the proverbial "seven lean years," Egypt is anticipating seven years of prosperity in the tourist business. Since 1914 the garcons de hotel, the guides and dragomen, the vendors of antiquities, the donkey and camel drivers have had but the leanest of pickings from the impecunious military.

But already the news has gone forth that seven Mediterranean cruises are being organised in America. From the porters and the cab drivers at Alexandria to the humblest donkey boys at Luxor, Egypt is rejoicing and counting in advance the American dollars which will gladden their hearts and lighten their days.

In the bazaars, stocks of brass ware, silks, and satins, amber cigarettes and oriental perfumes, scarabs, and amber beads are being prepared to bewilder the American tourists and entice from them their precious dollars.

The donkey boys are polishing up their saddles and harness and changing the names of their amusing chargers from Allenby and Foch to Harding and Wilson. The hotels are being refitted, dances and teas are being planned to add to the comforts and amusement of the hoped-for guests.

Famous Dahabiyehs.

The famous Dahabiyehs of the Nile are being painted and redecorated to add to the charms and the fascinations that the old River has to hold out to its visitors and admirers. Everything points to a brilliant season. In consequence, all Egypt is praising Allah and blessing the lucky Americans. With direct railway connections, dining and sleeping car accommodations understood, betwen Cairo and Jerusalem, American tourists can look forward to an easy and comfortable trip to the Holy Land from Egypt.

The Holy Land offers even greater attractions than ever before. New roads and railroads have been built and every opportunity is offered the happy tourist to visit the famous battlefields of Gaza and Tul Keram, where the power of the Turks was broken and Palestine returned once more to Christian rule. For the first time in seven centuries Christians are ruling at Jerusalem, where the Moslems have held sway ever since the warlike followers of the Prophet drove the Crusaders from the Holy Land.

To-day one can go from Dan to Beersheba by motor car in four hours' time. In less than 40 minutes one can run from Jerusalem to the ancient city of Hebron, where the bones of Abraham lie buried. One leaves the chilly heights of the Mount of Olives to be on the banks of the Jordan and the shores of the Dead Sea, 1,200 feet below sea level, in an hour's time.

CONFESSES TO EXPLOSION.

WARSAW, Dec. 17.— (Canadian Press.) — A man by the name of Wolflindenfeld, alias William Lindel, has been arrested by the Polish police here as a suspect in connection with the Wall street explosion last year. The Warsaw police said they made the arrest at the request of the United States Department of Justice. They claimed to have in their possession the man's full confession of being connected with the disaster.

Lindenfeld is described as a cousin of Rosa Luxemburg, who was shot to death in Berlin in 1919. His confession, the police state, gives the names of the ringleaders, and says als othat the bomb was intended for J. P. Morgan, but exploded prematurely.

EBERT PAY FALLS TO $2,000.

Reichstag Commission Agrees to Raise German Presiden's Stipend.

BERLIN, Dec. 17. — President Ebert now receives a salary equivalent to $2,000 a year. Consequently, the Reichstag Budget Commission has agreed to raise his stipend, in view of present high prices and hard times.

The President is also to receive an expense allowance of 400,000 marks in addition to his salary of 300,000 marks.

OLD HOME WEEK IN PETERBOROUGH

(By F. H. DOBBIN).

On another page will be found an advertisment inserted by the Old Home Week Committee as a first gun in the publicity campaign. The idea of the Old Home Week is to try and bring back to the city the men and women who have gone out of its borders in years past. It it twenty four years since something of the kind was attempted, and it proved to be a fair success.

In the interval thousands have left the limits. Drawn by the lure of wider opportunity and prospects. Gone to join up with relatives or friends who made the break and found the breaking good. All however look back with genial remembrance of the Old Home Town. It may have held much for them, at the time, but none the less it was the birthplace, and their father and mother lived, and probably stayed.

Thousands of those who went out are prosperous. They only need to be provoked to come back for a spell and see how things look. Likely have promised themselves that some day they would make the trip. So the effort is to be made to get all them to come back together. To see those who remained at home and to greet others who they remember and who have come home on the same errand.

So you are asked to tell us where the folks are. Where they have, maybe, hung out the shingle and located. In city, town or the farm. In business or professional life. They are to be found everywhere. Good people, the very best doing well and of course prosperous.

Take interest in what is asked, that you put on paper, or by a post card, send the names and addresses to F. H. Dobbin at City Building or to Leon Frazer, Board of Commerce. As the names come in they will be arranged and indexed and all will presently be touched up with a cheerful, cordial and pithy letter saying how glad we will be to see them and how they can get here and what we are going to do to make the days of their stay interesting. And in so doing we shall make the time interesting for ourselves. For, as our frineds of the Rotarians and Kiwanis say, he profits most who serves best.

As the days pass on you will be kept in full touch with what is going forward. What is needed just now is the names of those gone out but not forkotten. Just turn to for a few minutes and help.

Mrs. Herbert Lewis, recently appointed justice of peace in Flintshie, Eng., is the first woman to be given this post.

PLAN REPLACING OF OVERHEAD WIRES.

Lay 800 Miles Beneath Streets and Highways.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—An extensive program for the laying of telegraph and telephone cables underground is occupying the attention of the Post Office Department at present, and contracts have been placed by the Government for putting more than 800 miles of main cables beneath the surface of city streets and other highways. The need of making telephones gale-proof was emphasized by a storm early in November last, when considerable damage was done to wires in the eastern and north-eastern districts from the Humber to the Thames, and as far inland as Huntingdon and Bedfordshire; also in the south, midland south-western districts and North Wales. The damage was caused by trees falling on the wires.

The vulnerability of overhead wires during a gale was pointed out by the Postmaster-General, Rt. Hon. F. G. Kellaway, in a recent address at Bedford in which he outlined the program which his department had undertaken. It was employing a considerable amount of skilled and unskilled labor in different parts of the country, the Postmaster General said. This was not relief work, as it was generally understood but it had the great advantage of being revenue-earning and of reducing the expenditure of the Post Office on maintenance and repairs.

The contracts for the laying of over 800 miles of main cables Mr. Kellaway said, included the trunk lines between London and Manchester; Southampton, Bristol and Brighton; Liverpool and Manchester; Birmingham and Worcester; Derby and Leeds; Glasgow and Edinburgh, and Birmingham and Manchester. More remained to be done and the Post Office Department would not rest until all the main trunk telegraph and telephone routes were safe from the risk of storms.

The Postmaster-General, referring to the fact that many new telephone exchanges had been completed recently, and that the total number of stations in use at the end of September was 964,479, an increase of 3,447 over the total at the end of August, and that new orders were coming in at a satisfactory rate, expressed the belief that the increase in telephone services indicated a revival in trade.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make 16 ounces—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, which is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

'AN ADORABLE SHAM' IS ST. PAUL'S DOME.

So Declared R. P. Oglesby in London, England.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—"An adorable sham" was the startling characterization of the outer dome of St. Paul's Cathedral by R. P. Oglesby in one of the weekly discourses on "Architecture and the Decorative Arts" which were given here last month by prominent architects and artists. Mr. Oglesby's theme was "Early English Renaissance Architecture" and his address was given at the home of Lord Northcliffe, by the courtesy of Lady Northcliffe. Mr. Oglesby also referred to portions of the interior of St. Peter's at Home as "Shams."

"Sham" was not a nice word, Mr. Oglesby admitted, whereupon he made the statement that the outer dome of St. Paul's was an adorable sham. "Wren boldly said," continued Mr. Oglesby, "I am going to give you a beautiful dome outside, and an appropriate dome inside, and what they are made of, or how they support my stone lantern and cross, weighing 700 tons, is my business and nobody else's." Mr. Oglesby assented that neither of the domes in any way supported the lantern.

With regard to St. Peter's, Mr. Oglesby said: "The upper portions of the interior of St. Peter's at Rome were shams—cleverly decorated to look like marble." He added that most of the great Palladio's best work at Vicenza and other places was sham—merely stucco laid on brickwork, but none the less beautiful in form, "and our own architect Nash introduced stucco into London, as in Regent Street and elsewhere."

In tracing the effect of the Renaissance movement in English architecture, which first manifested itself at the beginning of the 16th century, Mr. Oglesby spoke almost regretfully of its final triumph over the Tudor style. The Tudor style, he said, was long established, full of vitality, and essentially English. Its mode of expression had nothing in common with classic architecture—it was artless and haphazard—but full of accidental and charming effect.

Millions Who Are Sick Need This Medicine

Will Be a Revelation to Suffering Humanity—Cleans Liver in a Few Minutes—Symptoms of Liver Trouble are: Sallow Complexion, Bad Taste in Mouth on Rising, Tired, Out of Sorts, Etc.

This new drug is called Tanated Calomel. It acts only on the Liver, which immediately relieves many troubles, as Rheumatism, Constipation, Boils, Kidney Pains, etc. No Salts, Seidlitz, are necessary after taking, because it is self-eliminating. It does not have a nauseating sickening feeling the next day, like so many similar drugs. You, no doubt, have been taking all sorts of laxatives, Salts, castor oil, etc., with only temporary results. The reason is that some of these draw liquid from the blood and tissues, causing a great flush. What you need is something like Tanated Calomel, which causes the Bile to be excreted from the Liver into the Bowel, causing a natural elimination of the waste. You know waste allowed to remain in the system causes a multitude of troubles. I can venture to say that 90 per cent. of all sickness is due directly to this very thing. What is generally the first thing your doctor does when you are sick? He gets your Bowels operating so as to eliminate wastes in your Bowels, which are poisoning your system. Now, in order to be happy, healthy, vigorous, vivacious bright, alert, keen to observe and understand, you must first keep your Liver clean, or you are coaxing all sorts of trouble upon yourself. Doctors recommend that you take a tablet before eating and one at bedtime. Just get some of these, and I feel assured that you will feel as if you had a new lease of life.

These Tanated Calomel Tablets are for sale by F. C. Webber, Charlotte street.

CENTRAL ONTARIO OIL FIELDS NEWS

The News From the Central Ontario Oil Fields is Most Encouraging

The shareholders will be delighted to learn that they are actually part owners of a well with (100) one hundred feet of oil of the best petroleum, but as this well is proven by our system to be on one side of the main vein we are arranging to drill on the dome or centre of the oil pool, and are certain to find a good well running, according to our experts, from 100 to 300 barrels a day. Our electric system is unerring and can detect any known vein of oil in the Petrolea district without a miss as recently tested. The lease hold we are about to drill on is about twenty miles from Petrolea. We own 350 acres there and we will have another well in a short time. The stock at $1.00 a share with the large area of picked holdings, totaling 5,000 acres, is a cheaper and better buy than our first offering at 20 cents. Many are sorry they did not buy then but we can assure you this is the best thing in oil (and we believe in anything else) that was ever offered in Peterboro. We are not offering much at this price for as soon as the well comes in, as it assuredly will, the stock, if sold at all, will be greatly advanced.

DIRECTORS ENTHUSIASTIC.

At a meeting of the directors of the Central Ontario Oil Fields last night, it was decided to commence drilling on our Petrolea leasehold, which has been proven already to have the oil, and the secretary was instructed to arrange with a driller to proceed to operate along the lines of his offer. This should give everyone confidence.

A very good proposition with regard to drilling at Colborne, Ont., was favorably considered, and altogether the future looks very bright for this unusual oil stock. The directors are enthusiastic and are confident of big results.

Further information may be had from the office at 188 1-2 Charlotte Street.—Advt.

IS THE NATIVE AFRICAN IN NEED OF EDUCATION?

Question Answered in the Affirmative by Brigadier-General F. G. Guggisberg.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—Does the native African want education? Is it necessary to educate him? Why not leave him alone, when he is perfectly happy? These questions were answered by Brigadier-General F. G. Guggisberg, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Gold Coast, at a recent meeting of the African Society in this city. The African Society of which Lord Buxton is President, has been formed to enable its members to hear something about the African Colonies by asking the Governors of the Colonies to be the Society's guests.

Brigadier - General Guggisberg was born in Toronto, Ont., July 20, 1869. He is a graduate of the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, and has served with distinction in many fields as a British military officer, having been mentioned in despatches several times in connection with his military career. He is a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor. His experiences in Africa include his employment under the Colonial Office on a survey of the Gold Coast and Ashanti, and services as Surveyor-General of Nigeria. He has been Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Gold Coast since 1919.

Answering the questions as to the need or otherwise of educating the native African, the questions having been propounded by himself, General Guggisberg said that if you could provide that the native races should not come into contact with civilization, they would remain happy under their old conditions, but the mind of the raw untutored man would aspire upwards when once he was brought into the zone of modern civilization. Anyway, the one and universal cry of a better sort than the British at present were giving.

General Guggisberg said that in the Northern Territory there was no education. In Ashanti it was a little better, and in the Gold Coast there were 50,000 educated inhabitants. The schools there were in the nature of primary schools, and at these schools 25,000 pupils ranging from 4½ to 24 years of age were being educated. This number was not a matter for congratulation, he said. For one reason, they had no colleges to follow up the primary courses, and if a man wanted higher education to fit him for any profession he must come to Europe. Secondary, the whole of their primary schools were devoted to a literary education. Annually they were turning out between 6,000 and 7,000 educated natives, good fellows, keen on their books, keen on acquiring knowledge, but practically the whole lot of them fitted for little more than clerkships.

Clerks should not form the backbone of a native race, General Guggisberg said. The Gold Coast was being flooded with these semi-educated races. Another difficulty, the General pointed out, was that the native races had no character training of any sort. He put that down to almost entire lack of boarding schools where a young native could get training in such things as character, discipline, leadership and responsibility. Still another difficulty was with their teachers. Reliance had to be placed mainly on the native teachers, most of whom had not had enough training, and it was too often a case of the blind leading the blind. As regarded Europeans, the brunt of their education fell on the missions; such missions as the Scottish the Wesleyan and others were making gallant efforts absolutely understaffed. At present there were 25,000 natives at school, 50,000 were knocking at the doors, and 250,000 people in these territories wanted education, and they could not be taught.

General Guggisberg said that early next year they would see the first four of their new trade schools started. Several Chiefs and their people were erecting temporary houses so that they could start lessons in carpentry, building, metal-work and agriculture, and on top of that the pupils would have a literally education to enable them to become really efficient. The schools would be boarding schools in character, with a European headmaster, and there would be troops of Boy Scouts. They were going to have secondary schools capable of accommodating 600 pupils, and in a few years they would be giving the native a complete education in his own country.

They were establishing a good hospital.

EXALTED LONDONER DECLARED BANKRUPT

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—From the exalted position of High Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief of Cyprus to the lowly one of being declared a bankrupt in London—this is the rugged road which Sir William Frederick Haynes Smith, K.C.M.G., has travelled since 1904. He was adjudged a bankrupt last June, and an order for his discharge was made by the Bankruptcy Court here a few days ago.

The Official Receiver estimated Sir William's liabilities at £37,115, of which £22,521 was due to his son for money advanced. However the son withdrew his claim for this amount. The assets were valued at £1,585, but only £9 had been realized thereon.

The bankrupt is a barrister of the Middle Temple. He is in his 82nd year. Previous to his appointment as High Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief of Cyprus he had held a number of Government appointments. These included the Governorship of British Guina, Governorship of the Leeward Islands and Governorship of the Bahamas. He retired from the High Commissionership of Cyprus in 1904 on a pension of £1,000. He attributed his present position to heavy losses incurred in the purchase of shares. He also lost £1,500 through financing a film production.

Mr. Registrar Francke, of the Bankruptcy Court, in granting the order of discharge, took into account Sir William's age and public service.

KOSSUTH CONQUERED

BUDAPEST, Dec. 17. — (Associated Press.)—After the sitting of the National Assembly at which the dethronement of the Hapsburgs was pronounced, the members of the small farmers and agrarian party went to Kerepes cemetery where Louis Kossuth is buried and the leader of the party, Szabo, Minister of Agriculture, placed a magnificent wreath on the tomb, with an inscription on the ribbon, "Kossuth, thou has conquered."

In a short speech the Minister recalled how the hero of the war for Hungarian independence pronounced the dethronement of the Hapsburgs in 1849.

"CHOP SUEY" NOW FOR RHINELANDERS.

COBLENZ, Dec. 17. —(Associated Press.)—American "chop suey" has been introduced to the Rhinelanders—and they like it!

The chop suey idea was conceived by an American soldier—Walter E. Smith, who opened a shop when his enlistment expired, after 15 years in the army.

Germans didn't pay much attention to the little cafe at first, but curiosity got the best of them at last and finally they began patronizing the place, and the food, served with Chinese trimmings, is quite popular now with the native men and women.

Vulture or coq fans are smart and rather newer than ostrich.

FEATURES OF RECENT ELECTION IN THE EAST.

Review of Federal Returns in Maritime Provinces.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 17.—Outstanding features of the general election in the Maritime Provinces were: A. B. Copp's majority of 7,493 in Westmoreland, N. B., and Hance J. Logan's majority of 5,194 in Cumberland, N. S., famous years ago as the stronghold of Sir Charles Tupper. Considerable significance is supposed to attach to these majorities which are unprecedented in Maritime political history, because Logan and Copp had made themselves storm centres of the agitation for the restoration of the old system of administration of the Intercolonial Railway, and champions of the Maritime claims to compensation from the Dominion for their equity in portions of the original Dominion domain granted to Ontario, Quebec and the three prairie provinces.

Among the surprises of the elections were the defeats of Hon. E. B. McCurdy in Colchester, N. S., and Hon. E. K. Spinney in Yarmouth-Clare, N. S. H. Putnam, the Liberal victor in Colchester, and P. L. Hatfield, the Liberal victor in Yarmouth-Clare are both new to Dominion politics, though well known throughout Nova Scotia. Another surprise was the majority of 3,512 obtained by E. M. Macdonald over Colonel Thomas Cantley in Pictou, N. S. The contest in this historic county attracted a great deal of interest, and as both candidates are personally very popular, it was expected the result would be close. Hon. W. S. Fielding's election in Shelburne-Queens was generally expected, though his opponent, W. L. Hall, former leader of the Provincial Opposition, was recognized as a strong man, especially in his native county of Queens. Mr. Fielding's majority is not as imposing as some of the other Liberal victors, but it is a substantial one for a constituency which has usually been content with majorities of one or two figures.

In Cape Breton North-Victoria, D. D. MacKenzie's election was also expected. Mr. MacKenzie has never lost an election, and by defeating his Progressive clansman by a majority of nearly 2400, he added another laurel to his long list of personal triumphs.

In view of the general political situation in the Dominion it is expected that the Liberal tidal wave in the east will place in the next Federal cabinet a larger proportionate representation from the Maritimes than ever before. The Liberal Leader's difficulty will be to make a choice among his lieutenants in the Maritimes, as these provinces have seldom sent to Ottawa so many representatives of outstanding qualities and long experience in public life.

Hon. W. S. Fielding's selection as Minister of Finance, is believed by his Maritime friends to be a foregone conclusion. During the campaign Mr. Fielding vigorously championed the reciprocity pact with the United States, which caused the defeat of the Laurier Government in 1911, and in view of the resurgence of Liberalism, there is some speculation as to whether he will endeavour to bring the reciprocity question into the sphere of practical politics again. Some other Liberal candidates in constituencies where the fishermen vote is important, advocated the advisability of encouraging closer trade relations with the United States, apparently in the hope that something might be done under the "Favored Nation" provision of the Fordney Permanent Tariff Bill, to secure a modification of the schedules affecting fish and fish products. On the other hand, Liberal candidates in the more industrial parts of the Maritimes, declared for "real duties" on coal and steel products, and generally seemed to be not adverse to moderate protection of some other industries.

Maritime Liberalism is, however, obviously impatient of what its organs call the "Toronto cult of high protection." It scouts the suggestion that there is anything sacrosanct about the policy of protection, and argues that the pretensions of the "Toronto cult" have caused Sir Leonard Tilley, Sir John A. Macdonald and Sir Charles Tupper, the fathers of the National Policy, to turn in their graves. And because Maritime Liberalism regards tariff protection as an expedient, rather than a principle, it will evidently be prepared to approach the problem of tariff revision in a spirit of give and take; ready to barter protection for steel, coal and other Maritime industries against protection for industries peculiar to other provinces. If E. M. Macdonald and D. D. MacKenzie have their way, Ontario will be asked to justify its faith in protection by consenting to a "real duty" on coal.

PROTEST REFUND OF THE LUXURY TAX,

French Press Term it Misplaced Generosity to Americans.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—(Associated Press.)—Several French newspapers are protesting against what they term "the misplaced generosity" of the government in refunding to Americans when they return to the United States, the ten percent luxury tax they have paid on purchases. The newspapers say the government is giving away hundreds of thousands of francs in this way which rightfully belong to the country.

Americans have read these protests with not a little surprise. Many who have tried to get back the total of their luxury tax, have discovered the difficulties are many. The first and most essential demand of the government officials at the port of embarkation is that all receipts of purchases must be presented. Luxury tax concerns women almost entirely and most of them forget or lose their receipts.

Those who know of this demand are comparatively few, so the luxury tax, so far as most homeward bound Americans are concerned, usually remains in France.

A MOVEMENT TO SAVE COUNT TOLSTOI'S HOME

Effort to Erect on the Estate a Popular University.

YASNAYA POYANA, Russia, Dec. 16.—(By Associated Press).—Miss Alexandra Tolstoi, the favorite daughter of Count Leo Tolstoi, the novelist and chief literary figure in Russia during the half century preceeding his death in 1910, is the leader of the movement to save the great writer's home from decay and to make here on the estate a popular unversity where lovers of Tolstoi's writings and creed may come study and even settle indefinitely.

"Tolstoi's was a universal mind. He does not belong to Russia entirely', said the famous writer's daughter, "and for that reason I feel that England, France and the United States have an interest in this historic place. The Soviet government is doing what it can to preserve the home and maintain it as a place for pilgrims, but it hasn't the funds. Anyway, the materials must come from abroad, and I have been promised by Kalenin, chairman of the Central Executive Committee of all the Soviets, that contributions of materials or money will not be interfered with or diverted."

Vigorous Type

Miss Tolstoi, who is a vigorous type of woman and bears physical and intellectual resemblance to her father, has been in Russia since the general war. She was a field nurse during the war, and after the revolution, has been imprisoned several time, once for eight month in the Lubianka dungeon of Moscow, and was arrested during the sumer for a few hours, as a member of the famine committee.

The Tolstoi home is in a condition typical of these few Russian homes which have escaped the ravages of revolution. The roof has not been painted for seven years. As a consequence ,the tin has rusted and is letting in water that is rotting the rafters and making dislocations in the walls, so in a year or two the house will be beyond repair. The chimney flues are breaking open and threaten at any time to let fire into the wooden portions of the house. The latticed porch used by Tolstoi and his family in summer is already minus one corner. The tiny "Villa Thoreau", a small house built some 50 yards from the home and once used to accommodate visitors in summer is tumbling down.

Thankful for Refuge

The home is now occupied by several members or relatives of the Tolstoi family, thankful for this refuge, and engaged in keeping or other souvenirs, with which the home is crowded. Without money to buy food, the occupants have been obliged to sell their farm.

It is estimated by Miss Tolstoi that $100,000 will be required to restore the homestead and other buildings.

HAPPENINGS FROM KEENE

KEENE, Dec. 17.—On Tuesday evening of last week the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gillespie of School Section No. 1, met at the school house, and made them a presentation of two rattan chairs and their son, Walter, a pair of gloves on the eve of their repartnre for their new home near Peterboro. The evening was delightfully spent by addresses, songs and recitations refreshments following. The accompanying address was read and responded to in a happy manner by Mr. Gillespie.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gillespie and Son Walter, we your neighbours and citizens of the district of Villiers, having learned with deep regret that you are about to sever your connection with us; find we could not allow you to depart with out in some slight measure express to you the high esteem you have held among us. As a neighbor we have found you, a neighbor willing to give and take, and always ready to meet half way, many times and at all hours we have called on you for help and always found you ready to lend a helping hand.

In school, fraternal, social, patriotic, Red Cross, Sunday School and church whether to your own Church or otherwise we not only found you ready to lend a helping hand but at all times put forth a special effort to make the occasion a success. We would ask you on behalf of this community to accept of these gifts as a slight measure of our esteem of you and your family and hope you may be long spared to enjoy them and by so doing your minds may reflect back to the many useful years you have spent in this neighborhood.

In conclusion we not only wish you and your family the compliments of the coming season but when time and opportunity afford you to visit the old district you will always find an open door with the right hand of welcome.

Signed on behalf of the Community—Mrs. Mary Dickson Percy Davidson, Elizabeth Robertson, James S. Dickson.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

The Milk Ticket, versus The Butcher Bill

The use of milk as a food is growing. Its virtue as a valuable substitute for meats and eggs and other expensive foods is especially to be commended during periods when much unemployment prevails. Its all-round fitness, cheapness, and economy should secure for it the leading place at every table, especially the table where the living expenses of hundreds of work people have been cut off, by the breadwinner being out of work.

A family can live on milk alone with greater nutriment and lower cost than on any known food. It is truly miraculous the sustaining powers brought about by the simple feeding of milk. This applies not only to children, but to older ones in factory and office work as well. A number of factories employing many young hands have found that a fifteen-minute recess forenoon and afternoon for relaxation and the giving of half pint of milk and a graham cracker during this recess period, has very materially increased production.

The cost of milk compared with eggs, steak, ham, chicken, cheese, etc., is much cheaper, and since milk contains the ash, the protein and the energy for body building, why should it not be more generously consumed?

SCIENTIFIC PASTEURIZATION IS NOW RECOGNIZED throughout the civilized world as the only method by which milk can be rendered absolutely safe for human consumption. No disease germ can survive the temperature at which milk is held for thirty minutes during the process of pasteurization.

When you take your bottle of milk from the doorstep, give a thought occasionally to the wonderful system that has furnished it for your convenience and protection.

All our milk is CLARIFIED and PASTEURIZED—PURE, CLEAN, SAFE.

MEAT BYLAW SLAUGHTERED

Ald. Hay did not think the by-law's main object to relieve the people would be attained. For butchers' overhead charges, capital expenditure, wages, cost of improvements, must be provided for all year round, and loss of revenue by competition with the farmer, with no such expenditure at stake, during four winter months would have to be made up in higher charges the remaining eight months. We have, the alderman continued, spent a great deal of money on sanitary precautions, then why spend lavishly ith one hand and with the other, were this by-law passed, run the risk of a disease epidemic fostered by the selling of meat on the market not safeguarded by sanitary provisions for its handling. Prices in Toronto are higher than here, averred Ald. Hay, where the public are enjoying cheap meat now. Then why encourage business men to locate here and subsequently consider an implement which would drive them out of business?

All Nonsense.

Ald. Morrison here interjected that the talk of farmers' meat not being sanitary because of exposure to dust and dirt, was all nonsense. For years, he said, butchers have carted meat through the country, cutting it up as sold.

Ald. Whitehouse could not see any virtue in the by-law. To assure the poor gettig meat, why not the city buy meat by the carcass and give out-of-work butchers a job cutting it up, for distribution, he suggested.

To Ald. Morrison, Ald. Whitehouse replied that the market was for farmers to sell thereon meat wholesale.

Ald. Morrison here cited other commodities that are not sold wholesale on the market. He thought it small of the butchers to object to the by-law, and contended that some farmers dress and handle their meat as well and as sanitary as Mr. Lowes or Mr. Kemp. The farmers were cleanly is evidenced by the fact, he asserted, that one does not see many red and blue cards up in the country.

Mr. E. F. Mason spoke strongly against the by-law and could not see how poor people who cannot buy meat from butchers at 10 cents a pound are going to purchase it on the market. But very few will buy cheap meat; no, they want the best, and then object to its price. Mr. Mason here pointed out that people unemployed can get credit from the butchers; local business men have extended that privilege for years. He approved of the city buying by the carcass and having the meat cut up and distributed to those who can't afford to pay the current prices. He thought, however, that people who had money could purchase meat cheap enough at the local stores to suit the most modest purse. Mr. Mason did not approve of the city collecting in assessment and fees more proportionately from butchers than from any other merchants, and then passing a by-law which would cut the very business from under them. As for the poor, he concluded, they must be looked after; others and I are willing to do our share; why not buy meat by the carcass and distribute it to the needy free?

Mr. Barrie here asserted that farmers could not handle meat on the market in a sanitary manner. We would have to provide abattoirs like in Toronto.

Ald. Hamilton remarked that when eggs, butter and other commodities are sold on the market retail he could see no consistent reason why meat should not be offered by the pound in small cuts.

Ald. Jones—"Were the by-law to carry, stalls on the market would have to be built." He could not hope for meat being sold on the market cheaper than now, when lamb is offered at $2 the quartr. "We are willing to do what we can in relief of the poor, but implementing this by-law would mean courting trouble."

Saturday Market.

Ald. Whitehouse—"The butchers would be specially affected on their busiest day, Saturday" One questioned if farmers would sell cheaper in any event were they to sell by the small cut, and agreed with Mr. Mason that the city might buy by the carcass and distribute to those in real distress.

Ald. Crowe doubted if the present could be improved on, and he cited one farmer who, only selling two of his quarters of meat on the market, peddled the remainder on the streets at highr prices than obtained on the market in quarter sales. Lindsay, he asserted, only allowed meat sold by the pound on the market when brought back a second time and few avail themselves of that privilege. He was in sympathy with the butchers' position, and hoped for a continuance of that competition among them which had reduced the price of meat the last few months. The alderman cited a case of diseased meat killed by an outsider, and brought into the city for sale.

Ald. Phelan figured that at the present price of meat nothing would be gained by selling on the market in small quanities.

in earnest and should be encouraged."

On motion of Ald. Turner and Jones, the various organizations of women weere highly commended for their philanthropic efforts in relief of the distressed, and they were authorized to take their needs to the Charity Board, and Relief Officer Miller, with every assurance of the fullest investigation, support and assistance.

Ald. Hay here opined that the ladies' object is to relieve distress, and he thought that objective would be reached by the adoption of Ald. Turner's resolution, which adoption followed.

Governments to Help.

In forwarding a copy of an order-in-council by the Ontario Government outlining conditions whereby the Government undertakes to participate in the cost of work undertaken by municipalities in relief of unemployment, Deputy Minister of Labor Ballantyne added the following:

"The Ontario Government has decided to deal with relief work only, therefore your council is requested to submit immediately to the Provincial Department of Public Works plans and estimates of work as prescribed by the Order in Council so that the requisite approval may be given at the earliest possible date. It is also desirable to send a copy of your plans and estimates to the Federal Government for approval by ther engineers, so that the Federal Government will meet their proportion of the excess cost."

On motion of Ald. Hamilton and Phelan, the City Engineer will be instructed to forward to the Ontario and Federal administrations plans, specifications and costs of winter work as prepared by him for execution.

Build Cinder Path.

On motion of Ald. Gainey and Whitehouse a cinder path will be laid on Caddy street, East City, and a water run way dug out beneath the bridge.

Convention in January

On motion of Ald. Turner and Crowe, the Provincial Builders Supplies Association will be invited to hold their annual convention in January at Peterborough, and suitable accommodation for meetings be provided them free of expense.

Confidence in Engineer

In regard to the new sewage disposal plant, the local branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada wrote expressing their supreme confidence in City Engineer Parsons and his recommendations. This went to the Board of Works.

$5,000 Surplus

Commissioner Ald. Whitehouse reported extensive and permanent work on suburban roads, the city's share of which totalled some $4,000 or $5,000 less than the Council's appropriation of $14,000 for such improvements.

Street Paving

Ald. Whitehouse fathered a by law to authorize the construction of street paving Sheridan street to the Armour Road, East City.

Ald. Turner objected to paving from Rogers street to Armour road; this being up hill, he contended asphaltic paving would be slippery in winter and the use of cobble stone would be in the interest of public safety. He wanted latitude in the by law for the use of cobble stone up that hill if subsequently deemed advisable.

Ald. Hay remarked that steeper grades than that of Armour hill in Toronto were paved and no trouble experienced in winter. Besides he opined cobble stones is paving any way.

Ald. Turner being assured that cobble stone could be resorted to if necessary under the by laws' provision for paving he withdrew his objection, and the measure passed its several readings.

Concrete Sidewalk

Ald. Whitehouse sponsored a by law to construct a concrete sidewalk on Edinburgh street, south side, from Downie street to a point 135 feet westerly as a local improvement This passed its several readings.

Garbage Collection

Ald. Jones' by law to authorize the execution of an agreement with Patrick Anglesey and Wm. Withers for the collection of garbage at the contract price of $0,700 passed its reading.

To Remove Trees

Ald. Phelan fathered a by law to authorize David Johnston to remove dead and fallen trees and brush from Robinson's Island recently purchased by the city. The measure was adopted.

To Borrow $50,000

A by law authorizing the Utilities Commission to issue debentures to the amount of $50,000 for extension and improvement purposes.—Carried.

Trades Council Commends

A resolution from the Trades and Labor Council urging that this year's City Council undertake at once work on the sewage disposal plant and on storm drainage was received. Also a resolution from the same body, commending council for their provision to assist citizens in installing sanitary conveniences, to be paid for by installments, charged on their tax bills.

Barber's Account

Ald. Phelan pointed out that Engineer Frank Barber had not replied to Councils offer of $5000 in full settlement of his remaining fees as engineer of Hunter street Bridge and he suggested that unless that offer be accept during the life of this year's council it be withdrawn.

Ald. Turner's contention that this is just Mr. Barber's own business and if he is in no hurry for a settlement the city does not lose anything by his delay, was concurred in generally and the matter was left at that.

Light for Rink

On motion by Ald. Hamilton and Gainey, the Utilities Commission will be instructed to illuminate the open air rink in East City. The City Engineer will also be instructed to erect a small shelter to serve as a dressing room.

Surface Drainage

City Solicitor Widdifield advised Council that surface drainage cannot be constructed under the local improvement act.

There were present Mayor A. A. McIntyre, Aldermen H. Gainey, R. Morrison, Jas. Crowe, J. J. Turner, Jas. Hamilton, R. N. Jones Frank Whitehouse, G. L. Hay, Nagel Phelan.

Council here adjourned to partake of an oyster supper in Hooper's parlors at retiring Mayor McIntyre's expense.

THE MARKETEERS

A REAL CHRISTMAS MARKET TO-DAY — LOTS OF FOWL OFFERED—FLOORS GROANED UNDER WEIGHT.

Before 10 a.m. to-day the basket market was crowded, and by 11 o'clock to get in or out a person had to make a desperate effort to transform oneself into a fish worm. Inside was a regular bedlam, a struggling mass of humanity, every atom of which was endeavouring to have a look at as many fowl as possible. Such quantities of fowl have never been seen in the hall before this year, and next week's market, the real Christmas one, will have to be a "humdinger" to surpass it. Table space was at a premium and chairs were pressed into service beside, behind or practically on top of which the male or female vendors found room for themselves.

Geese Predominated.

Geese predominated, but turkeys were quite bountiful. Monster geese were everywhere and some of the people had them piled row on row like six inch shells, the frail tables all but collapsing under the burden. Geese weer selling at 30 and 35 cents. When the market opened the higher price was demanded, but at 11 o'clock the basketeers were ready to take 30. Turkeys sold at 50 cents and several ladies were observed carrying birds that cost $6.50 and $7.00. Chickens were jammed in between the huge members of the family, but at 25 cents a pound were more favoured than the geese and turkeys. The soft weather has caused a trepidation among the ranks of the housekeepers and many of them fearing fowl would not keep, have waited till next week to buy.

The egg production is on the upgrade, largely because of the laying powers of pullets beginning to operate, and the prices to-day were steadied down a little. Three prices of 75, 80 and 85 cents were noticed to-day, but there was no apparent difference in quality. The claim is made by all that they are "strictly" fresh, but a farmer gave away one of his brethren to-day by declaring he knew very well that half of these eggs were packed. Butter sold at 40 cents. Eggs and butter were both more abundant than last week.

The Outside Market.

The open market was a dismal failure to-day on account of the rain. Only a few outfits were on and buyers did not linger long. Even the auctioneers, which are generally quite immovable by freaks of the weather, had to seek shelter under the weighhouse canopy.

Pork was 16 and 17 cents to-day and beef 10 and 12 cents. Potatoes were scarce, but what there were were offered at $1.75 a bag. Spy apples were $7.00 a barrel or 75c. a peck. Russets were 50 cents a peck, and poor grades of Spy down to 40 cents.

Highest Quality—

THERE are no higher grades of wool than those in Mercury—soft, finely woven, durable and COMFORTABLE, with absolute freedom of movement everywhere.

And Mercury has every other comfort feature worth having—tailored-to-order style of fit, special Mercury-cut neck, neat shoulders, plenty of room under the arms, closed crotch with one button.

Ask for "Twelve-eighty" in pure wool cashmere, or "Twenty-two-eighty" if you want heavier weights

For indoor workers we recommend "Twelve-hundred"—highest grade cashmere over soft, combed cotton, giving wear and silky feel.

CONTINUE ATHLETICS.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 17. — (Canadian Press). — Athletic relations between Syracuse and McGill Universities opened this fall with an international football game at Montreal, will be continued this winter, when the McGill wrestling team meets the Orange mat-men here. February 11 has been fixed tentatively as the date for the meeting.

NEW CABINET LINED UP.

OTTAWA, Dec. 17. — (Canadian Press).—With some uncertainty yet prevailing as to the date on which the resignation of Premier Meighen and his Cabinet will be placed in the hands of the Governor-General, opinion seems to be growing that the Premier-elect, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, has his mind pretty well made up as to the men who will compose the incoming Cabinet, and has also decided as to the places which each of them will be asked to fill.

A Musicale

The Green Room and Library of the Young Women's Christian Association were prettily decorated with Christmas greens and coloured streamers for the December musicale held last evening, with which was combined the annual Christmas evening.

A large number of people attended for an enjoyable evening of Christmas music.

Mrs. T. Cruikshank presided, and opened the entertainment with a short address on the origin of carol-singing, which was followed by a number of carols sung in unison, led by Mr. Martin Chenhall, the new choir leader at St. Paul's Church, who illustrated in an attractive manner the 200-year-old carol singing practised in his native land of Cornwall.

"Silent Night, Holy Night," was prettily rendered as a Christmas carol by a group of girls from the Bonner-Worth factory; the orchestra from the Conservatory of Music, led by Miss Edwina Palmer, played a charming Christmas fantasy, "Around the Christmas Tree," embodying the Christmas songs of many lands; Rev. H. W. Young gave an excellent rendition of a Christmas story, "Why the Chimes Rang"; and beautiful vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. George King, in "The Star of Bethlehem," and "The Gift," by Mrs. F. Ellis with "The Birthday of the King" and "When Christ Was Born," and an exceptionally fine number, "Nazareth," with orchestral accompaniment, sung by Mr. H. Rush, who also gave "My Task," in good voice.

Accompanists for the evening were Mrs. G. Porter, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, and Mr. Chenhall. The programme was under the supervision of Mrs. G. Porter and Mrs. J. E. Middleton.

At the conclusion of the programme, Miss Layton announced Open House at the Y.W.C.A. for New Year's Day; light refreshments were served, and the juniors dispersed for games in the gymnasium.

TO DISTRIBUTE BASKETS TO THOSE IN DISTRESS.

G.W.V.A. WILL CO-OPERATE WITH LADIES' AUXILIARY THIS YEAR.

The G.W.V.A. has decided to co-operate with the Ladies' Auxiliary this year, and instead of having a tree in the hall, to make arrangements for the distribution of some four or five hundred baskets, containing suitable articles of food, for those members of the G.W.V.A. in distress through lack of employment.

These baskets will in all probability be distributed at the Hall on Friday, 23rd December, when a free band concert, interspersed with selections by local talent, will be held. This will be the first public appearance of the amalgamated bands.

Any donations for these baskets would be gladly received by the secretary of the G.W.V.A., Mr. S. Whatley, or by the president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. E. V. Frederick.

APPEAL FOR THE POOR.

The Catholic Women's League, which, through its Social Service Committee, has recently come in touch with several cases of extreme need in the city, is making a strong appeal for clothing, household necessities, or supplies of any sort to alleviate such distress, particularly among women and children, for the Christmas season. Any donations along the above lines would be gladly received by Miss Margaret McGrath, secretary, at her home, 382 Aylmer Street.

THREE YEARS FOR KENNETH MORTON

To-day Kenneth Morton of Sutton was sentenced to three years in Kingston Penitentiary by Magistrate D. W. Dumble on each of the five charges of forgery and attempted forgery against him; the sentences to run concurrently. Morton had pleaded guilty and the sentencing occupied only a few minutes. Accused made no statement and had evidently steeled himself for the moment. Harry Allard of Oshawa, alleged to have been an accomplice in the acts of forgery was yesterday acquitted by a jury at 3.30 p.m.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Tex Rickard announced to-day that Harry Greb and Johnnie Wilson will meet in a middleweight championship bout in February at Madison Square Garden.

AERIAL VIEW OF THE HOME OF GEORGE WASHINGTON

In the year 1743 George Washington's elder brother built this splendid mansion on an eminence commanding a view of the Potomac River near what is now the City of Washington. He named it Mount Vernon after Admiral Vernon under whom he had served in the British Navy. Later, as every American schoolboy knows, the "Father of His Country," occupied it. When Washington died the estate on the Potomac was bequeathed to Bushrod Washington upon whose death it came into the hands of John A. Washington, his nephew, who sold it in 1858 to the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association.

VERBAL BOUQUETS FOR MAYOR A. A. M'INTYRE AND ALD. J. J. TURNER

ATMOSPHERE SURCHARGED WITH ACHIEVEMENT -- EULOGY ON THEIR RETIREMENT FROM COUNCIL BOARD.

CORDIAL RELATIONS

Near midnight, last night; when Ald. J. J. Turner, Council's Finance Minister, formally tendered his resignation of office on the Aldermanic Board, and Mayor A. A. McIntyre announced his retirement also, the atmosphere was surcharged with eulogy of past achievements, accompanied by quite a shower of "admiration" bouquets.

Ald. Turner wished to place on record his warm appreciaton of the cordial relations at all times existing between Council, civic officials and himself, and declared that his experience in municipal affairs were well worth aiming at by all young men. Commending the city for its clean, tidy maintenance, freely remarked flatteringly on by visitors, he characterized his work on the Council Board as having been exceedingly pleasant, if at times somewhat arduous, and he reiterated that it should be the ambition of all citizens to devote some time to the city's business administration. Little disagreements crop up in Council once in a while, continued the retiring alderman, but they have never affected our all working together in the city's interests. "I look forward, perhaps," he asserted, "to promotion, and may have the pleasure of returning to Council and working together with you same gentlemen once more." In conclusion Ald. Turner, who it is understood will contest the Mayoralty, extended best wishes that the incoming year may prove for Peterborough the healthiest, wealthiest and most prosperous in her history.

All Appreciative.

Mayor McIntyre, in reply, said all the Board of Aldermen highly appreciated Ald. Turner's services in the city and his stirling qualities. "He is one of Peterborough's best men."

His Worship here referring to his own retirement, said he expected to remain in office until January 9th, the date for next Council's inauguration. He also thanked his colleagues for that unremitting support, and consideration of his position, which had engendered harmonious co-operation on all sides. "And, although not a member of the Council of 1922," concluded the Mayor, "I shall always be with you in spirit and never fail to take interest in the civic affairs of Peterborough. Retiring from the Aldermanic Board after twelve years' service—10 as alderman and two in the velvet chair — feels like one leaving one's home. I thank you gentlemen once again, and also City Clerk Armstrong, for many courtesies and loyal co-operation."

Ald. Whitehouse extolled the Mayor for his efficient executive administration, and declared his Worship had every reason to be proud of his twelve years' record for satisfactory service to this community. While regretting Ald. Turner's resignation, he hoped for his successful candidature for the Mayoralty, and Ald. Whitehouse congratulated Ald. Turner on his varied achievements in public interests apart from his remarkably acceptable service as alderman.

Ald. Crowe thought His Worship had proved a capable chief magistrate, and at all times very fair in his administration; the city, he said, is indebted to him for his unswerving interest in this community's welfare. "Mayor McIntyre," he averred, "came in clean and is going out clean." Ald. Crowe also hoped Alderman Turner would be elected Mayor McIntyre's successor for 1922.

Resignation Accepted.

On motion of Ald. Gainey and Morrison, Ald. Turner's resignation was accepted with regret.

Ald. Phelan Chairman.

On motion of Ald. Hamilton, Ald. Phelan was appointed chairman of the Finance committee for the remainder of the year.

DECEMBER COURT BEGINS NEW CASE

JURY IN ALLARD CASE WAS DIVIDED EQUALLY AT ONE STAGE AND APPEARED TO BE DEADLOCKED

The jury in the case of Mahood and Havery vs Bigelow retired this afternoon at 1.10 o'clock after hearing Judge Huycke's charge following R. R. Hall's review of the salient features and facts. The Court continued this afternoon with the suit of Akey vs Letellier next on the list. The jury empanelled in this case was selected this morning and permitted to depart until 2 p.m.

When the Allard jury came in Friday afternoon and informed Judge Huycke that they could not reach a verdict they seemed to have deadlocked with six for and six against acquittal. At His Honour's request the jury returned for a further attempt to agree on a finding and within an hour they came back unanimous for acquittal. It was stated that the last man to join the increasing majority was the foreman Herb R. Martin. Judge Huycke congratulated the jury upon reaching an unanimous verdict. There were good grounds for their decision, although certain aspects of the case might have warranted a different conclusion. His Honour said he appreciated the difficulty the jury had to contend with. He discharged Allard upon the request of his solicitor C. R. Widdifield admonishing him to be careful in the company he kept in future.

FINANCIAL AND MARKETS.

NEW YORK, December 17. Canadain Press. — Usual week end settlement of speculative accounts was indicated by the uneven trend of prices at the dull opening of to-day's stock market. Such leaders as were quoted in initial dealings showed minor gains or losses. Most of the high priced domestic and foreign oils strengthened with various obscure specialties and the coalers also improved. Lima Locomotive cancelled part of its recent advance, falling 1¾ points.

Moderate reactions occurred in Mexican Petroleum, Bethlehem Steel, Studebaker and industrial alcohol.

Preliminary quotations for foreign exchanges were irregular, the German rate rallying slightly.

Fractional gains and losses accompanied dull and irregular opening of the stock market. European oils, coalers and tobaccos were firm; motors, steels and domestics reacted slightly.

THE MONTREAL EXCHANGE

MONTREAL, December 17. Canadain Press. — Trading was exceptionally brisk on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning, nearly all the leaders being traded in. Preferred stock of Canada Steamships was the feature rising 6 1-2 points to 53 1-2.

Preferred of Spanish River was weak and fell off 1 1-4 points to 68 1-4. Other issues were steady.

PREPARING FOR CHURCH UNION

WINNIPEG, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church, stated last night that the committee representing the Presbyterian, Methodist, and Congregational Churches is hard at work on the preliminaries for church union, and that the Act for co-operation would be ready for discussion by the general conference next year.

NO SIGN OF "RUN" ON MERCHANTS' BANK

DEPOSITORS WILL BE PAID IN BANK OF MONTREAL NOTES

MONTREAL, Dec. 17. — (Canadian Press).—There was no sign of a "run" on the Merchants' Bank when it opened for business this morning. Nervousness was shown by officials, but not by the banking public. Arrangements had been made to pay depositors in the Bank of Montreal notes. Shareholders of the Merchants' Bank will receive one share of the Montreal Bank for two of the Merchants' Bank, and the Bank of Montreal pays to Merchants' shareholders a million and fifty thousand dollars.

The man who does not advertise because somebody said it did not pay, ought not to believe the world is round because the ancients said it was flat.

AT THE ARMS CONFERENCE

NAVAL COMMITTEE HAS RESUMED CONSIDERATION OF THE NAVAL RATIO.

WASHINGTON, December 17 (Canadian Press). — The Naval Committee of Fifteen of the Arms Conference resumed the consideration to-day of the French and Italian naval ratio problem, but with little prospect that the day would show any material results in the way of advancement toward an agreement among the five Powers on the relative naval strength and reduction in fleets in harmony with that already reached by the "Big Three" naval countries.

Despite the secrecy rule of the committee, it was known that the presentation of the French case continued to-day. In this connection, M. Sarraut, head of the French delegation, in the absence of Premier Briand and M. Viviani, intimated last night that France would seek to have the secrecy ban of the committee lifted in order that a correct view of the position taken by her delegation on the French ten-ship plan thus far has come from British sources, and was made known prior to the committee's action in adopting the secrecy rule.

RESENTED ATTACK OF PREMIER MARTIN.

REGINA, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Hon. J. A. Maharg stated yesterday that he resented the attack by Premier Martin on the platform of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, and said he would not have retained his self-respect had he not resigned from the Cabinet in protest. The Legislature has adjourned until 10th January.

STORK HELD UP TRAIN.

FORT WILLIAM, December 17 (Canadian Press). — The arrival of the stork held up a Canadian Pacific Railway passenger train at Russell a few miles east of Chapleau on Thursday. The engineer observed a flag-waving figure on the track, and pulled up the train. He found there was no warning of a wreck, but heard an excited story from the section foreman at that place that the stork had alighted or was hovering over his little home, and he wanted to know whether or not there was a doctor among the passengers.

When none was found, a party of nurses, en route for Winnipeg, volunteered to officiate, and while they ministered to the mother, they held up an expensive unit of the great railway for half an hour.

CALLED TO OTTAWA.

Hon. Charles Stewart Summoned to Capital by Hon. Mackenzie-King.

CALGARY, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Hon. Charles Stewart, the former Premier of Alberta, is on his way to Ottawa, whence he was summoned by the Hon. Mackenzie-King.

ZEPPELIN FOR UNITED STATES

END OF THE DIPLOMATIC NEGOTIATIONS—HUNS DESTROYED ORIGINAL.

PARIS, Dec. 17. — (Canadian Press).—The Council of Ambassadors has granted permission to the United States to contract for the construction at Freiderichaun, Germany, of a Zeppelin of the L70 type. This decision marks the end of diplomatic negotiations which have proceeded between the Allied Powers and the United States since last July. Application for the construction of the Zeppelin grew out of the destruction in Germany of five of the big dirigibles, one of which had been allotted to the United States during the peace conference. The United States based its application on the grounds that it was entitled to another airship under Germany's reparation agreement. It is said that the construction of a new Zeppelin may be started in January.

CARL AHRENS TO GO UP FOR TRIAL

KITCHENER, December 17 (Canadian Press). — Carl Ahrens was this morning committed for trial on the charge of murdering his wife by drowning in the Grand River.

ONLY PARENTS

May Give Orders to Minors to Buy Cigarettes.

ST. THOMAS, December 16. — That only the parents or a guardian may legally give a note to a minor for the purpose of buying tobacco, was the decision handed down by Deputy Police Magistrate P.H. Bartlett, in the case of Isaac Abramson, who was charged in the police court on Thursday morning with selling cigarettes to a minor.

A note was produced in the case, which the defendant claimed had been written by the minor's sister. The defendant pleaded ignorance of the law but with no avail. Abramson was fined $10 and costs or ten days. The information was laid by Police Constable F. Tomblin.

KING RETURNS WAGER CHECK.

TORONTO, December 16.—A despatch from Newmarket, Ont., says that John Bain, chief publicity agent at Ottawa for the Conservative party in the recent campaign, will have his check for $1000, which he sent to W. L. Mackenzie King to honor a bet made before the eletions, returned to me uncashed.

"Mr. Bain offered to bet me that the government would have the largest number of seats after the election and I merely wanted to show him that he could not bluff me that way," remarked Mr. King. "I don't want his money so I am returning the check for $1000 which he sent me."

Do The Right Thing Without Being Told!

DECIDE to send the Daily Examiner for 1922 to your old friends in distant lands as a Christmas or New Year's Gift.

Start the New year with this inspirational thought. It would intensify the desire to see larger, better things materialize in 1922.

Somewhere in that far city, a son, a daughter, a father, mother or friend will be made happier by your remembrance of them with this good old daily messenger.

Do the right thing without being told. Why not now—the cost is trifling.

When it comes to Christmas Greetings,
There is nothing you can send;
Like the good old staunch Examiner
To your good old staunch friend.

May they receive their share of the Prosperity that is coming; may their faith in themselves and in their fellows grow strong; and may they obtain as much pleasure and inspiration from reading THE EXAMINER as we do from providing it.

Hot Shots on Sport

Once in a rare while a record comes along that will stand for enduring ages. This record may be for jumping or for running or for throwing a football. It may also be for sheer idiocy. The record in this latter respect still belongs to the boxing commission that permitted promoters to pay boxers only a portion of the purse if they failed to finish the allotted number of rounds.

It is hard to understand why a commission should decide to make a ruling that is not only unfair, but that also helps to foster faking. Perhaps Arnold Bennett was right when he suggested that the main curse of this world was incompetency. There are times when it seems to be more prevalent than the sands along the beaches of the Seven seas.

THE COST IN DOLLARS.

The argument as to how much "Babe" Ruth's five-week vacation will cost the Yankees next spring continues to emerge at stated intervals, with the various estimates sometimes as much as $300,000 apart. If the Yanks, without Ruth, get away to a running start, the attendance slump will hardly be noted.

If they get away badly and are bumped lustily with their howitzer spiked, the cost in dollars will be fairly heavy.

A winning ball club in one of the big cities now can pack the park without depending upon a lone star to lure the multitude through the gates.

The fact that Ruth will have no chance to break his old record from a delayed start will work against him lightly if he starts in lifting the ball out of the park with fair regularity.

We doubt very much that the cost in dollars will be up to many estimates. Ruth is a big card, but he is still only a very thin per cent. of baseball at large.

THE ANCIENT MARINER UP TO DATE.

It was an ancient Dempsey and he stoppeth one of three
"O, who is there in all the world to split a purse with me
O, who will hang a challenger upon my Christmas tree?

"About, about in real and rout I've socked them on the c
And now there's not a sucker left who has a chance to wi
No one who has an outside chance to bring the money in.

"Fighters, fighters everywhere, but not a first-class guy
Who'll stand and crack me on the chin or poke me in the eye,
Or one who carries anything except an alibi.

"Year after year I've tracked their spoors until I'm bent and grey;
But still they scurry out of reach beyond my right of way,
And there is nothing I can do to bolster up my pay."

It was an ancient Dempsey and he hobbled out of sight
To sign up articles next day for some impending fight,
The first of which was "I agree to amputate my right."

Eenie, meenie, miny, moe,
Kelly, Bancroft, Frisch and Groh
Cost McGraw a lotter dough.

"On the basis of comparative sizes, a flea can outjump a man 60 to 1," notes an exchange. But even this elastic superiority doesn't prevent him from leading a dog's life.

The thing that annoys most of the professional sport promoters more than anything else is the big development in amateur sport. To more than eight or ten such performers the waste seems criminal and should be suppressed by law.

LIST OF THE NEW MEMBERS IN THE NEW SPORTS ASSOCIATION

In the list of new members of the Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association, which is published today, appear the names of a number of citizens who have been members of the association for some time. The delay in making an acknowledgment is due to the fact that campaign workers used several books of tickets as a matter of convenience, and did not make a report until the books were complete. The Executive of the association who have the membership campaign in hand, are grateful to the public for the splendid support that has been given to the association. The following memberships are acknowledged:

Ashby, Thos., 200 Rubidge; Ackford, Leo., 52 George S.

SPORT GOSSIP

Lindsay, according to advices, is to have a real snappy hockey season with two good teams in prospect. Frank Carew, M. J. Dedman and Elwood Coombs will guide the destinies of the Intermediate O.H.A. team, and Fred. Martin will manage the Juniors. It is proposed to engage a coach. Manager Martin has handled the Juniors for a number of years. Charley Carew and Dick Butler will lend a hand. These men have been giving Lindsay good service in promoting hockey in the town, and they believe they now have a team that will carry them close, if not on to the Ontario championship. The two teams will have the support of the Lindsay Amateur Athletic Association, of which T. H. Stinson is president, Tony Bakeogeorge, vice-president, Billy McMahon, treasurer, and Ford Moynes, secretary.

It's a long look ahead to the good old summertime, but by way of adding a spice of variety to the hockey gossip, it is stated that Hiawatha Indians are after a berth in "Jake" Solomon's U.F.O. ball loop.

Having passed the Junior O.H.A. age limit, Chris. McCarney, the local boy who starred with St. Mike's Juniors last season, will likely be found with the Collegians' Intermediate team this winter.

There's a stirring time coming to Uxbridge, Port Perry, Cannington and Markham, these towns having been grouped in the Intermediate O.H.A. series. Following a season of baseball, which culminated in a lively row, Cannington and Uxbridge will keep things moving at a fast pace. In these towns last summer, they stopped business, and everybody went to the ball games. The hockey schedule, which calls for twelve contests, opens on January 6.

Canadiens and St. Pats open the National Hockey Association championship jaunt in Toronto to-night.

Dr. J. N. Harvie, J. E. Hinds, Alexander Jamieson, Thos. Thompson, B. F. Stuart, F. B. Farewell, G. T. Madden and Dr. Kirkpatrick have been elected skips by the Orillia Curling Club for the Orillia, Peterborough, Lindsay cup games.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE ROYAL.

To-night is your last chance to see that wonderful million dollar super-feature film, taken in the heart of that awful land of desolation, the Mojave desert, entitled "The Fox." This seven-reel picture is one that we can confidently recommend to our readers, and one that should be seen by all. Apart from the strong dramatic interest in the story, it is a chance of a life-time to see the wild fantastic scenery of a land that will support no life save that of the rattler and the horned toad. If you are fond of thrills, this picture will satisfy you, as it has more thrills than the average politician has promised. The rest of to-day's bill is also of excellent quality. For Monday the Royal has been fortunate enough to secure a special attraction. This is the celebrated play, "The Heart of Maryland." Those of our readers who saw this play on the stage, a play that took the whole Continent by storm, will realize that a picture play can show greater continuity of interest than the spoken drama. "The Heart of Maryland" is a play of heart interest, and one that holds attention from start to finish. Also for Monday we show the second episode of that exciting serial of the Yukon, where the heroine puts up a splendid fight for fortune and love. Monday's comedies and Western picture are of special interest. The Royal is the home of first-run picture, and is a locally-owned theatre, where the box office receipts are spent in Peterborough.

AT THE CAPITOL.

WALLACE REID A TEACHER OF CHARM!

But Only in His New Picture, "The Charm School," Does He Give Lessons.

Wallace Reid has become a young teacher of charm in a young ladies' school! The pupils are taught how to make themselves charming, the course comprising of Grecian and modern dancing, swimming, delsarte and beauty culture.

But before Mr. Reid is swamped with letters of inquiry from admiring screen fans, it should be said that this is only a part of the star's latest Paramount picture, "The Charm School" which will be shown at the Capitol Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

According to the story, Mr. Reid, as Austin Bevans inherits the girls' school from his aunt. Believing that women should devote more time to making themselves charming he converts the institution into a "charm" school and changes all the methods of instruction. There is a wealth of romance, a breezy plot and many other delightful features.

The story was written by Alice Duer Miller. Tom Geraghty wrote the scenario and James Cruze directed. Lila Lee is leading woman and Adele Farrington, Beulah Bains, Edwin Stevens, Grace Morse, Patricia Magee, Lincoln Steadman, Kate Toncray and others are in the cast.

Johnny Hines has added an attractive new member to his cast of supporters in "Doggone Torchy" the latest Educational-Torchy Comedy, which will be the comedy attraction. The new player is Shirley Mitchell, tiny six-months old niece of Hines, who without half-trying is so appealing on the screen that she keeps Uncle Torchy moving to the limit to claim first attention.

"Doggone Torchy" is the story of how two thugs substitute a kidnapped baby for the boss' pet dog in Torchy's grip, and is one of the cleverest of the popular Torchy Comedies that has been shown lately.

A big double comedy vaudeville act, Dick and Alice McAvoy, singers dancers and comedians, will complete a great program at the usual Capitol prices.

AT THE REGENT.

Buck Jones, the popular motion picture star who defies danger, fate, and at times the very law of gravitation, comes to the Regent Theatre next Monday in the William Fox picture, "Get Your Man," a cleverly constructed vehicle for the intrepid Jones.

In "Get Your Man" Buck's experiences extend from hair-raising incidents in the depths of a coal mine in Scotland to adventure in the Canadian Northwest, where the Royal Mounted Police have won an enviable place in the world's Hall of Fame.

When first we see Buck, in the role of Jock MacTier, he is foreman of the coal mine. He is in love, but the paymaster of the mining company wins the girl. Jock disappears, and later turns up in Northwestern Canada, where he soon becomes a member of the Mounted Police.

The lawlessness of the early days in that section of the country, the experiences and indomitable courage of the Mounted Police, and the unusual development of an odd love affair constitute excellent material for a most alluring drama.

Jones not only depicts the hardy, quiet and determined Scotchman, but when he joins the Mounted Police his masterful ability as horseman and marksman is brought into play, and he fairly revels in the game of running down crime.

The story of "Get Your Man" is by Alan Sullivan and the direction is by George William Hill.

AT THE GRAND.

The Grand Opera House will be closed until December 26. The Rex Stock Company are taking their Christmas holidays next week, and will not be performing anywhere until that date, when they will present the farce comedy, "Parlor Bedroom and Bath" at matinee and evening performances. On the 26th also, will be announced the name chosen for the play put on this week, for the best title of which a prize of $10 was offered. Hundreds of contestants have handed in their cards, and a suitable name will doubtless be chosen for announcement on the 26th.

BELL TELEPHONE CASE.

OTTAWA, Dec. 17. — (Canadian Press). — The hearing of the Bell Telephone Company's application to the Railway Commission for permission to increase rates was adjourned last evening until Tuesday morning. The Bell Company concluded its case this morning, and both G. R. Geary, K.C., counsel for the City of Toronto, and R. A. Reid, representing the Provincial Attorney-General, asked that the application be dismissed. The chairman, Hon. Frank Carvell, however, while admitting that little evidence had been added to that brought out at the former hearing, ruled that the case be continued.

PETERBORO, DEC. 17, 1921

Dear Sir:

Everything points toward an old fashioned cold winter. There has been cold weather already and there's more coming—below zero weather, snow and nipping north winds.

Just think how nice it would be to drive all winter, through the snow and bitter cold, in comfort; to be warm no matter what the thermometer says; and to have no dread of going out on any of winter's most wintry days. You can find comfort, despite winter, in a Ford closed car. It's better than bundling up in furs; the doors and windows keep out the iciest blasts; your face, hands and feet are never cold.

Make us prove our words by coming in some cold disagreeable day or phone us and let us take you a ride in either a Coupe or the Sedan; the colder and more disagreeable the day the better.

Sincerely,

Jos. J. Duffus.

CONSTRUCTION MEETING TO BOOM THAT BUSINESS

Important Conference to be Held in Hamilton Next Month.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16. — (Canadian Press.)—A conference which should be of interest not only to the members of the construction fraternity of Canada, but also to the general public will be held at the Royal Connaught Hotel, Hamilton, Ontario, on January 17 to 20 next. In the various investigations, which have been made into conditions relating to unemployment and financial conditions generally in the United States, one outstanding result contained in the reports is that "the key to the way out of unemployment is more construction work, and the key to the way out of the prevailing depression is more employment." One of the leading Associations of Contractors has had a special missionary deputation touring the various States getting in touch with the local conditions and endeavoring to promote and foster a spirit of same optimism and to further construction activities.

Similar results, it is hoped, will be attained by the Fourth Annual Conference of the Association of Canadian Building and Construction Industries in Hamilton. It will be remembered that this Association was formed in the period of re-construction immediately at the close of the war with the idea of unifying, as far as possible, the various branches of construction activity in Canada. Much interest was aroused last May by the joint conference of representatives of this association and of organized labor in the building and construction industry, which was called at the request of the Minister of Labor. It is expected that delegates will be present from all parts of Canada for in spite of the depression which has existed in many of the construction activities in our land there is a feeling of hope that this will soon come to an end and a new era of activity will commence. It will be in this spirit that the conference will convene and discuss the problems which are bound to arise as soon as financial conditions become favorable for construction work.

A new feature of this fourth conference will be an exhibit of the products of the manufacturing and supply members of the association. The meetings are to be held in the large ball-room of the Royal Connaught Hotel and space is being allotted around the walls of this large room and the gallery at the back for the exhibition of the products and advertising matter. This exhibit is in charge of the Secretary of the Hamilton Association, E. B. Osborne, and promises to be one of the most successful features of the conference. This space is being provided for the manufacturing and supply members of the association to exhibit their products without charge.

Another departure from previous conferences will be a greater emphasis upon the educational bvalue of the sessions to the members. Arrangements are now being made for addresses by experts on some of the very practical questions which face the contractor and the subcontractor in his endeavor to get business and to execute it without incurring a loss. It is also expected that there will be a speaker of outstanding importance who will give one or more addresses on some of the economical aspects of construction followed by a round table discussion.

The daily luncheons, which have been such a pleasureable feature of the past conferences will again be held each day and programme has been left in charge of the Hamilton Association, which means that there will be live and interesting speeches, community singing, and other special features. Time will also be given between the sessions for special entertainments and if the weather is favorable it is hoped there will be an afternoon of curling.

Further announcements will be made as various arrangements are completed.

NEGRO WAS ACQUITTED.

MONTREAL, Q., December 17. — Walter Griffith, colored, was acquitted by a jury in the Court of King's Bench here this afternoon, on the charge of having killed Thos. Proctor, also colored, a restaurant keeper, of 118 St. Felix St., on May 19th last.

In answer to the charge Griffith established self defence, and showed that he had fired three shots, two of the bullets taking effect, because he was in fear of his life, being threatened with shooting by the victim and with a knife by the latter's wife.

FEDERATION CHARITIES

were not at liberty to speak on such a matter for their societies. Societies represented were: Queen Alexandra Home and School Association, Queen Mary Home and School Association, Prince of Wales' Home and School Association, Auxiliary to the Great War Veterans, St. Peter's Church, St. John's Church, Trinity Church, Mark Street Methodist Church, St. James' Methodist Church, St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, the Children's Aid Society, the Peterborough Health Association, the Well Babies' Clinic, the Social Service Council, the Red Cross Society, the Kiwanis Club, the Salvation Army, and the George Street Methodist Church. Mr. F. W. Miller, the City Relief Officer, was present also.

Confidential Information.

Considerable emphasis was laid on the importance of keeping all communications in regard to the work as secret as possible, and it was decided to allow two representatives only of each affiliated society access to the information available through the secretary at the bureau, these representatives to be furnished with a certain number for identification purposes. Each society will appoint its own representatives for this purpose.

Draft Constitution.

A committee composed of Mrs. Jas. Kendry, Mrs. W. R. Morris, Rev. Father Costello, Dr. G. S. Cameron and Mr. L. Fraser, with Rev. Dr. Blagrave assisting, was named to draft a brief constitution of the proposed federation, give it a suitable name, and explain the aims and objects of the society for general publication, this committee being requested to report as speedily as possible, as it was suggested that the bureau should be set in operation at once, in view of the many cases of need in the city, on some of which there may be overlapping, as claimed by one member, who remarked on the family who had received assistance through three different organizations in five days, whereas in other extreme cases, no help may possibly yet have been extended.

The necessity of co-operation with Mr. F. W. Miller was stressed.

In the event of new cases being reported to the bureau for assistance, the King's Daughters will act as an investigating committee, to determine the need of he applicant.

Request Co-operation.

The officials and members of the proposed federation are extremely desirous that every society and organization in the city, large or small, and every church, should get in touch with and take advantage of the facilities afforded by this genral bureau of information, so as to make it as efficient as possible, and as great a help to the community at large and to the individuals it is designed to assist. All information will be considered and maintained with the greatest degree of secrecy.

JOBLESS MAN IN MONTREAL WITH STARVING WIFE ATTACKS STRANGER.

MONTREAL, Dec. 16.—Lawrence Rochester, 20, this city, was attacked in the wash room of Childs' restaurant by an assailant with an axe, and received two severe wounds on the head and one on the ram. His assailant was promptly apprehended by two of the diners in the establishment and gave his name as Gregory Kerr, a waiter, of Toronto.

Turned over to the police authorities, Kerr stated that he "had to do something," adding that he had no money, that his wife had nothing to eat and that he had been out of work for six months. A charge of assault and attempted robbery will be laid against him.

DIES OF INJURIES CAUSED BY HOG

William Bell Attacked by Animal on Monday and Seriously Wounded.

OWEN SOUND, Dec. 16.—William Bell, aged 30, died in the G. and M. Hospital here from injuries inflicted by a hog on Monday at noon.

Mr. Bell had gone to a nearby slaughterhouse to put on a fire in preparation for killing some hogs, and it is said, was attacked by a large hog. He was knocked down and trampled on, and sustained injuries to his spine, a broken breastbone, and had his bowels badly lacerated.

The injured man managed to get to his home, 600 yards away, before he collapsed. Medical aid was secured, and later he was taken to the hospital and operated upon.

FORGERY CHARGE.

COBOURG, December 16. — The trial of William McInroy, of Rawdon township, chargd with forgery at Campbellford, in passing a worthless cheque, is to come up before Judge Ward, on Wednesday, Jan. 4th. E. Gus. Porter, of Belleville, is acting for the defendant.

BASKETBALL

Peterborough O.A.B.A. team won in Cobourg last night in a strenuous and exciting game. The Peterborough team were without the services of O. McLeod and Pogue scored most baskets for Peterborough. Final score was 35-25.

Cobourg—Allen 4, Tyson 11, Jacobs 6, Delanty 4, Rooney, Butler. Total 25.

Peterborough—McLeod 11, Elliott 7, Stewart 2, Pogue 9, Jobbitt 4, Darling 2. Total 35.

WOMAN, SPURNED, REVEALS $1,588,000 MAIL ROBBER.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—A tip to police from a former sweetheart resulted in the identfication of Frank Calabrese, 32 years old, as one of the bandits who held up and robbed a United States mail truck of $1,588,008 in Lower Manhattan in October.

Calabrese was held in a Jersey City jail after he pleaded not guilty before Federal Commissioner Queen and failed to produce $58,080 bail.

The suspect was arrested by Jersey City police a month ago on a charge of burglary. On his release from this charge he was immediately re-arrested by Government authorities.

William Cochran, inspector in charge of the arraignment, said he received an anonymous letter after Calabrese was first arrested. This letter, he asserted, was written by a woman who said she had been in love with Calabrese and had given him an automobile, but he had spurned her affections, beaten her and devoted his attention to another woman whose name was given.

The other woman proved to be an attractive young resident of New York. Inspectors found Calabrese had presented her with expensive jewelry with in a few days after the mail robbery.

Frank Havernack, driver of the mail truck identified Calabrese both by his facial appearance and voice as the bandit who jumped on the running board of the truck, put the muzzle of a pistol against his body and commanded him to turn into a side street where the robbers looted four registered mail pouches for the huge booty.

This robbery was one of the causes of Marines being assigned to guard the mails.

VALUE CANADIAN EXPORTS.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 17.—(Canadian Press).—The value of Canadian exports to the United States for the month of November, affected by the United States Emergency Tariff Act, was $8,528,863, as compared with $31,288,398 for the corresponding month of 1920, according to Bureau statistics compiled here. For the six months' period of June-November it was $25,928,059, in comparison with $93,454,442 for the same period of the previous year. Sugar, tobacco, butter and cheese, meats of all kinds, cattle, grains and wool are included in the commodities which show decreases.

REJECTED NEW AGREEMENTS.

BARRE, Vermont, December 16 — The local branch of the Granite Cutters' International Association, and the unions of polishers and tool sharpeners, comprising most or the stone workers in this quarrying centre have voted down the manufacturers poposals for new working agreements, it was announced here.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND
BY "SAPPER"
(CYRIL McNEILE)

"Sorry, old man." With a start Sinclair sat up in his chair and blinked at Hugh.

"They're almost certain to try and get him to-night," went on Hugh. "Having given the show away by leaving a clue on the wretched secretary, they must get the real man as soon as possible. It's far too dangerous to leave the—leave the——" His head dropped forward on his chest: a short, half-strangled snore came from his lips. It had the effect of waking him for the moment, and he staggered to his feet.

The other three, sprawling in their chairs, were openly and unshamedly asleep; even the dogs lay in fantastic attitudes, breathing heavily, inert like logs.

"Wake up!" shouted Hugh wildly. "For God's sake—wake up! We've been drugged!"

An iron weight seemed to be pressing down on his eyelids: the desire for sleep grew stronger and stronger. For a few moments more he fought against it, hopelessly, despairingly; while his legs seemed not to belong to him, and there was a roaring noise in his ears. And then, just before unconsciousness overcame him, there came to his bemused brain the sound of a whistle thrice repeated from outside the window. With a last stupendous effort he fought his way towards it, and for a moment he stared into the darkness. There were dim figures moving through the shrubs, and suddenly one seemed to detach itself. It came nearer, and the light fell on the man's face. His nose and mouth were covered with a sort of pad, but the cold, sneering eyes were unmistakable. There were four in all, each with a similar pad over his mouth and nose.

"Where did you put the generator, Brownlow?"

"In the coal-scuttle." A man whom Mrs. Denny would have had no difficulty in recognising, even with the mask on his face, carefully lifted a small black box out of the scuttle from behind some coal, and shook it gently, holding it to his ear. "It's finished," he remarked, and Lakington nodded.

"An ingenious invention is gas," he said, addressing another of the men. "We owe your nation quite a debt of gratitude for the idea."

A guttural grunt left no doubt as to what that nation was, and Lakington dropped the box into his pocket.

"Go and get him," he ordered briefly, and the others left the room.

Contemptuously Lakington kicked one of the dogs; it rolled over and lay motionless in its new position. Then he went in turn to each of the three men sprawling in the chairs. With no attempt at gentleness he turned their faces up to the light, and studied them deliberately; then he let their heads roll back again with a thud. Finally, he went to the window and stared down at Drummond. In his eyes was a look of cold fury, and he kicked the unconscious man savagely in the ribs.

"You young swine," he muttered. "Do you think I'll forget that blow on the jaw?"

He took another box out of his pocket and looked at it lovingly.

"Shall I?" With a short laugh he replaced it. "It's too good a death for you, Captain Drummond, D.S.O., M.C. Just to snuff out in your sleep. No, my friend, I think I can devise something better than that; something really artistic."

Two other men came in as he turned away, and Lakington looked at them.

"Well," he asked, "have you got the old woman?"

"Bound and gagged in the kitchen," answered one of them laconically. "Are you going to do this crowd in?"

The speaker looked at the unconscious men with hatred in his eyes.

"They encumber the earth—this breed of puppy."

"They will not encumber it for long," said Lakington softly. "But the one in the widow there is not going to die quite so easily. I have a small unsettled score with him. . . ."

"All right; he's in the car." (A voice came from outside the window, and with a last look at Hugh Drummond, Lakington turned away.

"Then we'll go," he remarked. "Au revoir, my blundering young bull. Before I've finished with you, you'll scream for mercy. And you won't get it. . ."

Through the still night air there came the thrumming of the engine of a powerful car. Gradually it died away and there was silence. Only the murmur of the river over the weir broke the silence, save for an owl which hooted mournfully in a tree near by. And then, with a sudden crack, Peter Darrell's head rolled over and hit the arm of his chair.

CHAPTER VI

In Which a Very Old Game Takes Place on the Hog's Back

I

A THICK grey mist lay over the Thames. It covered the water and the low fields to the west like a thick white carpet; it drifted sluggishly under the old bridge which spans the river between Goring and Streatley. It was the hour before dawn, and sleepy passengers, rubbing the windows of their carriages as the Plymouth boat express rushed on towards London, shivered and drew their rugs closer around them. It looked cold . . . cold and dead.

MACDONALD'S CUT BRIER

¶ MACDONALD'S "BRIER" has become a Canadian institution. Smoked by the men who made history. In the bush, on the trail, in mining camps, prospectors' huts, factory yards, on trains, steamships, in the luxurious homes and downtown clubs of our Canadian cities—Macdonald's has always been recognized as the smoke.

¶ MACDONALD'S CUT "BRIER"—the same tobacco but in new form—maintains every Macdonald tradition since 1858, and gives to smokers—more tobacco for the money.

Bilious Headache Made Her Almost Crazy

Weekly Health Talk No. 9
By A. P. Rogers, D.C.

Uncle Ben Says:
To-morrow is merely the yesterday of to-day, and yesterday is past. The only day you have is To-day.

When the doctor arrived this woman, a refined type given to much mental activity, was pounding her head against the wall. To be sure the pounding was not vicious enough to be injurious, but the jar was all that interrupted the increasing pain and nausea.

In this case the headache was due to the stomach condition. The liver was also inactive. Chiropractic spinal adjustments afforded some measure of immediate relief, enough to enable her to sleep, but it took a long series of adjustments to restore the stomach and liver, place spinal nerve openings to normal and thus make normal health of these organs possible. In other cases of headache the chiropractor is quite often able to stop the pain in one adjustment.

Headaches and Indigestion Gone

"Being troubled with headaches, indigestion and inflammatory rheumatism, all of which prescriptions failed to relieve, I finally turned to chiropractic. In two weeks I was normal and able to return to work. I continued adjustments for some time longer and now, thanks to the friend who advised chiropractic, I am well and able to work without interruption."—A. W. Carter, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 1253P.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA AT TRINITY CHURCH.

On Sunday evening the choir of Trinity Church, assisted by Miss Edwina Palmer, violinist, will give the Christmas Cantata, "The Adoration" by George B. Nevin. This splendid service of song will last about one hour. There will be no sermon. At the morning service the Pastor's theme will be: "The Man Who Has Seen God." There will be a five minute talks for the boys and girls. Visitors and strangers in the city are always welcome at Trinity Church.

ARE YOU PREPARED

For a fair and fearless answer to the terrific question that engages the thought of thousands of the world's most intelligent men and women today? "The Course of this Age" or Is the world getting better or worse. Mr. Doner, pastor of Bethany Tabernacle, will present an answer on Sunday night, December 18, that should convince the most sceptical no matter which view they take. The question will be answered first, in the light of the world of events, both secular and religious; next, in the light of the indisputable prophetic Scriptures. Don't fail to hear this stirring and important message.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA IN GEORGE STREET

Tomorrow evening the choir of George Street Church will give the annual Christmas Choral Service of praise. The feature will be the singing of J. Lincoln Hall's Cantata "In Excelsis" which has never before been given in Peterboro. The rehearsals have revealed this to be a most inspiring work, full of gladness of Chrstmas, and as rendered by the augumented choir of 50 voices it cannot fail to bring the spirit of joy and good will to the hearts of all who hear it. Solo parts will be taken by a number of the choir members, including Mrs. Renwick, Miss Doris Rathbone, Miss Elva McIntyre, Mr. Edward Jones and Mr. Charles Thorpe. A short Christmas talk will be given by Mr. Young.

At the evening service Mr. Young will preach, his topic being, "On the Sunny Side of Ten."

OBITUARY

JOHN McCOMB.

At noon to-day the death occurred at Nicholls Hospital of John McComb, a life-long resident of the city and a veteran of 1866. Deceased was 81 years of age. The funeral will take place Monday at 3 p.m., from the home of John Scott, 487 Chamberlain street to the Little Lake cemetery. Rev. J. A. MacKenzie of Knox church, will officiate.

WELLINGTON HERBERT BRADLEY.

Wellington Bradley, widely-known Peterborough blind agent, 63 years of age, and step-father of William Mitchell, also blind, died yesterday afternoon at the home of Thomas Pratt, 627 Water street, from the effects of a sunstroke suffered at Lakefield last summer. During the last two months Mr. Bradley had been in failing health and had lived with Mr. Pratt.

He had lived in Peterborough over 24 years, coming here from Gananoque. On Nov. 29, 1897 he married Mary Helen Mitchell, and for about fifteen years was in business on Hunter street. Seven years ago Mrs. Bradley predeceased him, and he is survived by his two stepsons, William of Peterborough and Alvan of Ottawa. So far as is known he had no living relatives.

He was a graduate of the Brantford Institute for the Blind and was a keen student, always well versed in affairs of the day. He was the owner of a number of valuable proprietary medicines, which he manufactured and sold in considerable quantities. For years he had been a familiar figure on the streets of this city, finding his way about with remarkable accuracy. He was a devoted member of George street Methodist church and when able to attend was rarely absent.

The funeral will take place at 2.32 p.m. Monday from Belleghem's Undertaking Parlours to Little Lake cemetery. Rev. Harold W. Young, of George street church, will conduct service at 2 p.m.

The Mayoralty

A short time ago my letter to Mayor McIntyre was published, which covered my resignation from the City Council and Board of Aldermen.

Mayor for 1922

Since my letter appeared in the Press, another candidate has come forward, entered the field, and very likely will follow the practise of personally soliciting the vote of the ratepayers.

I ask for the support of the ratepayers to place me in the Mayor's Chair for 1922, but am adverse to personal solicitation for the following reasons:

If I personally ask my neighbours and friends who have known me for so many years for their votes on Election Day, I may embarrass them in two ways as follows:

Either they may vote for me for Mayor against their better judgment or not vote for me as promised. To put my friends and well-wishers in either of these positions I do not think fair, and, consequently, hesitate to compromise them by a personal canvass.

This position will not interfere with my asking for your vote and influence through the public Press—as should be done—and I take this opportunity of now so doing, and also explain my reasons for not making a personal canvass.

To all those favorable to my promotion (which I have tried to merit) to the position of Mayor of Peterborough for 1922, I ask for your votes and influence.

Very respectfully,

J. J. TURNER

RECOVERY FROM ASTHMA

is no longer the exception. It has become the rule among people who are informed as to what modern science is accomplishing. A few years ago temporary relief and a dismal outlook for the future was about all the sufferer from asthma could obtain.

But modern research now proves that eighty per cent. of the disturbances—or so-called diseases—in the human body are due to nerve compression. It has also proved that the one point where such compression can occur is where the nerve emits from the spinal column. Here the bony segments or vertebrae become subluxated (displaced) and shut off part of the vital current flowing from the brain through the nerves to all parts of the body. The Chiropractor adjusts the subluxation, and Nature, supplying the needed vital current to the affected part, cures. The results of Chiropractic adjustments given to thousands of patients prove conclusively that the CAUSE of disease can be removed, and the patient restored to health.

IF YOU HAVE ASTHMA TAKE CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL ADJUSTMENTS AND GET WELL.

December Sessions Continue

CASE INVOLVING PURCHASE OF TEAM OF HORSES BEFORE COUNTY COURT JURY — THE EVIDENCE.

A SHERIFF'S SALE

The December sittings of the County Court and the General Sessions of the Peace concluded on Saturday evening the hearing of the evidence in the last jury case on the docket, the suit of James Akey against L. D. Letellier. In this action Mr. Akey claimed the sum of $390 and interest since May of this year as payment of a cheque given by Paul C. Drouin which plaintiff claims Letellier promised to cash should Drouin fail to do so. In his defence Mr. Letellier declared that he was not responsible for Mr. Drouin's purchase of a team of horses from plaintiff and that he had been in no way financially interested in the transaction.

Mr. Akey Called.

Mr. Akey, who was examined first, told of having met Mr. Letellier and Drouin on Charlotte street. He was driving west with Arthur Bell when Mr. Letellier beckoned to him near the G.T.R. station. Plaintiff alleged that Mr. Letellier asked him to sell his team of horses. He wanted $400 for them, and Mr. Letellier offered him $375, but they compromised at $390. When the deal was completed, Mr. Akey continued, Mr. Letellier said he would see the funds were in the bank when needed. The cheque was made payable on June 1st.

Mr. Widdifield— Did you rely on Mr. Letellier's promise?

Mr. Akey—I did.

Mr. McElderry—When Mr. Letellier says he didn't promise you then you say he is lying?

Mr. Akey—Yes.

Mr. McElderry—You say he's a liar?

Mr. Akey—Yes.

Plaintiff said he knew that Drouin was a horse buyer. The team he sold him were worth $500.

Mr. Widdifield—Did you see Mr. Letellier after the cheque was given?—Yes, he told me Drouin's address.

Why did Letellier come to see you after June 1st.—He told me he had heard from Drouin, that he had hard luck with the horses, but that Drouin was getting along nicely and everything would be all right.

Mr. Akey further said— "I told Letellier I didn't care about that, and that I was looking to him.

Mr. Widdifield—Did he ever deny his responsibility.—He never did.

Arthur Bell.

Arthur Bell corroborated Mr. Akey's story of the meeting on Charlotte street and the agreement to sell the team.

"Mr. Letellier said if you give us the horses I'll see the funds are there to meet the cheque," witness declared.

W. J. Poulson.

W. J. Poulson testified that he had seen Mr. Letellier in his stable two or three times looking at Akey's horses. On one occasion Mr. Letellier told him he had been to Montreal and the funds would be in the

RUMOUR SAYS G. N. GORDON SLATED FOR SOLICITOR-GENERAL

INDICATIONS POINT TO WEST PETERBORO REPRESENTATIVE'S INCLUSION IN KING'S CABINET

Mr. G. N. Gordon, M.P., was in Ottawa on Saturday, and had a conference with the Prime Minister elect, the Hon. Mackenzie King.

Mr. Gordon received congratulations from all sides, both Liberal and Conservative ,on his victory in two hot elections in one year. He drove to th Parliament buildings with Mr. Ernest Lapointe, the popular and brilliant Quebec leader, who has been mentioned very persistently as the new Minister of Justice, while rumour has it that Mr. Gordon himself is slated for the position of Solicitor-General of Canada, to succeed the Hon. Hugh Guthrie. The only thing that may postpone Mr. Gordon's entry into the new Cabinet is the fact that some of the "Old Guard" have claims, but even then, Mr. Gordon's "outstanding prominence," to quote an Ottawa correspondent, is apparently sufficient to make him more than a Cabinet possibility.

The correspondent also says: "He is known to be a favorite with the Honorable Mr. King, who appreciates the value of Mr. Gordon's spectacular victory last spring and what it meant to Canadian Liberalism. Appearances strongly point to Mr. Gordon's inclusion in the new Cabinet, but if that is postponed through any exigency, he is unquestionably one of the Ontario leaders, and has made a splendid impression upon the wise ones who are doing the prophesying."

BIRMINGHAM MOTOR SHARES UP IN PRICE

In accordance with their announcement some time ago that Birmingham motor shares would shortly advance in price, the company advertises to-day that the shares now stand at $30.

Up to midnight on Tuesday, Dec. 20th, a few shares of the original allotment for this district may be bought at the old price of $20 per share, and application may be made by mail or telephone for allotment of same. After midnight on Tuesday, the price advances to $30, and the company predicts a $50 share within the next six months. The shares are convertible, at the option of the purchaser, for shares in the Canadian company, at the ratio of two Canadian shares to one.

Absolutely No Bluff About Washington Conference.

TORONTO, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press).—Earl Cavan, here to-day for a round of engagements, says there is absolutely no bluff about the Washington Conference, where he is the Chief British Military Advisor. "Everything will be done in the open," he declared. "Ships will be taken out and sunk," scrapped absolutely. Good faith has made the conference a success."

Touching on the Irish question, he said he was delighted with the measure of success apparently achieved.

TO SENTENCE EMPLOYEES OF A LOCAL PLANT

WERE PREPARING TO DEFRAUD LOCAL MILLING COMPANY.--ONE OUT ON BAIL.

Magistrate D. W. Dumble will to-morrow morning pass sentence on two Peterboro employees of a local milling plant that on Tuesday pleaded guilty to conspiracy to defraud the company. One man obtained bail for $1000, the other man has spent the seven days in the County Jail. When the detectives arrested the men the scheme for defrauding the company was completed and would have been expected that day.

One of the men was acting weigh master and made out the orders for payment for wheat. According to the police he made out an order for 48 bushels of wheat and he and his accomplice made a bargain with a youth to forge a well-known farmer's name to it. The youth consented at the time but broke up the scheme of the two men by innocently telling a friend what he was going to do. The men warned him of the grave offence he was committing and eventually he refused to play his part and the police received information through the men approaching other youths that led to the men's arrest. They laid bare their plan to defraud the company by having the boy present the order with the forged name on it at the office and receive the money for the supposed delivery of wheat without any suspicion, as the youth was instructed to make out he was the son of the farmer. The men made a statement that this was their first attempt to defraud.

Was Beating His Way.

In Police Court this morning Frank Smith charged with stealing a ride on the C.P.R. was remanded for another week to give C.P.R. Constable J. Evans another opportunity to try to find ou his antecedents or where he got the switch key found in his possession when he was taken off the midnight train going east a week ago. He and Edward Fontaine who was discharged this morning were riding on the tender of the locomotive. Smith said he had worked for the C.P.R. at Winnipeg and Saskatoon but the only Frank Smith on the books is still working there. He also declared his real name was Stevenson but there is no record of a C.P.R. employees at either points of that name. However the C.P.R. constable is resolved to find out where he obtained the switch key with which he could wreck a train if he was so inclined.

Incidentally the C.P.R. constable states that there never were more unpaid passengers on the trains than now. It is a poor train that does not carry at least one man "beating his way".

Detective George Cookman was wearing a broad smile to-day. Why shouldn't he for he is the father of a fine son born on Saturday night.

The congratulations of the force were extended to-day.

TUG CARRIED 4,800 BOTTLES WHISKEY

TORONTO, December 19. Canadian Press. — John R. Moore, the skipper of tug tied up at the dock here, had a B.O.T.A. charge preferred against him in the police court this morning. After a brief session the case was remanded until December 27, and Moore will be refused bail.

The police allege that 480 bottles of whiskey which left Belleville on the tug, bound for Rochester, were unloaded in Toronto, but Moore maintains he landed at Rochester.

In Japan fencing is considered a great accomplishment for young women.

"IN EXCELSIS"

CHRISTMAS CANTATA SUNG TO LARGE CONGREGATION AT GEORGE STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

For their annual Christmas choral service of praise the choir of George street Methodist church presented last night for the first time in Peterborough the cantata, "In Excelsis," written by Elsie Duncan Yale, with music by J. Lincoln Hall. Mr. J. H. Renwick, organist and director of the choir, made a happy selection in this work, and in the production of it he utilized the splendid vocal resources of his organization with impressive musical and realistic effects.

The large congregation apparently fell under the spell of the simple, inspiring, mystic theme of the nativity of Christ expressed in music that was strikingly appropriate and appealing. The mood induced by the season commemorating the great anniversary close at hand was perhaps broadened and mellowed by the softened lights, the festoons and pendants of evergreens, the swirling snow sweeping the windows. The introductory hymns were evocative and also the brief sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Young, M.A., B.D., who referred to some of the phases of the import of Christmas.

"In Excelsis" was sung not merely as a cantata, but as an act of worship in which the congregation, rapt in attention, was in full accord and unity with the choir. It opened with a brooding prelude, and burst into an epic chorus of acclaim, exulting in the advent of the Promised One. The narrative, dignified and poetic, proceeded to unfold the historic scene in the manger at Bethlehem, the rejoicing of the people, the opposition of the soldiers of the Roman Caesar, the song of the shepherds, and their realization of the fulfillment of the prophecy that a Messiah would come. Into this moving picture, so clearly and eloquently depicted ,struck a note of sorrow in the revelation of Mary's vision of the shadow of Calvary across the cradle, again swung into a happy key telling of final glory and enthronement in heaven, and then swelling into the finale of "Adeste Fidelis."

So clear was the enunciation of the choir, a qaulity that deserves special mention, that most persons in the congregation must have followed the story as comprehendingly as though the written words were before them. And the power of poetry set to loity persuasive music stimulated the imagination and filled the view with scenes more vivid and colorful than any pictorial representation of subject might have accomplished. That, after all, is the essence of this art, and although "In Excelsis" was an act of adoration through the medium of music, its artistic qualities were none the less manifest.

Of the choral work in the cantata it need only be said that, considering the limitations of last night's opportunity, it compared favorably

THE ELECTORS NORTH OXFORD WENT TO POLLS

CLOUDY WEATHER WITH FAIRLY GOOD ROADS FOR THE VOTERS —THE ISSUES.

WOODSTOCK, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press).—Cloudy weather, with roads fair for motoring, greeted North Oxford voters when they went to the polls to-day in the by-election.

In his support of D. M. Ross, Government candidate, Premier Drury has definitely stated that he considers the by-election a test vote on the Government's Hydro - radial policy. W. W. Day says the election of the Liberal candidate will not be merely a reflection on the Drury radial policy, but on the record of the Government. Homer B. Heeley, Independent Conservative candidate, has based his campaign largely on local separate school issues.

PARLIAMENT PROROGUED.

LONDON, Dec. 19. — (Canadian Press).—The British Parliament will be prorogued this afternoon until January 31, and will not wait for the decision on the Irish treaty by the Dail Eireann.

Rose stems are used as long pendant ends from a bunch of three big crushed roses posed on the hip of an evening gown. The stems are long and tangled and quite interesteig in effect.

The Dail Ratifies Proposal

PUBLIC SESSION HELD TO-DAY AT WHICH IRISH TREATY IS ENDORSED—THE DISCUSSION.

LATE IRISH NEWS

DUBLIN, Dec. 19. — (Canadian Press.)—Every seat in the National University Hall was occupied this morning when the public session of the Dail Eireann on the Irish treaty was called to order by Speaker MacNeill. Argument immediately arose as to whether the alternative plan of De Valera, introduced at the private session, should be introduced at the public sessions. Speaker said De Valera asked that his document be regarded as confidential until he put forward his own proposal at the public session, but Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins protested against the course, which they declared would result in keeping from the people what such proposal meant. The Speaker would not permit discussion on the point, and Mr. Griffith moved the ratificatoin of the treaty. Commandant McKeon, one of the most famous of the Republican Army leaders, seconded the motion, declaring that the Irish people want substance not shadows.

Speakng to the motion Mr. Griffth said it was not a question of the mere rights of the people; it was one of the lives and fortunes of the people. With great feeling he defined the agreement and read a letter from Lloyd George which stated that Britain proposed making Ireland co-equal with the Dominions and to secure for her place in the League of Nations.

In conclusion he said the oath of allegiance was one Irishmen "can take with honor". He called for ratification, and was given hearty applause as he regained his seat.

In moving the rejection of the treaty De Valera said the treaty would not end the conflict and denounced it as 'subverting public".

Summing up he declared the treaty was inconsistent with Ireland's position and that if ratified, Ireland would continue subservient to Britain. This declaraton was met with cries of "No". The session adjourned for lunch at one o'clock.

Austin Stack seconded De Valera's motion, saying he stood for "complete independence," and Count Plunkett also supported the rejection.

A PRESENTATION TO REV. A. DONER

The members of the Interdenominational Bible Class, which has been holding meetings every Tuesday evening in the Public Library, met last Friday evening at the residence of Rev. A. Doner, 209 London street, and presented him with a handsome purse as a token of their appreciation of his services as teacher. About forty were present. A pleasant evening was spent.

The presentation, in the absence of Mr. James Dutton, president of the class, was made by Mr. H. B. Cowan, who expressed the appreciation of the members of the class at the able manner in which Rev. Mr. Doner in his discussion of Bible themes avoided controversial questions which have been the cause of the many divisions which are shown by different church denominations, while at the same time dealing able with difficult questions and throwing much light upon them. The class was organized two years ago, following a series of meetings held at that time in 'St. Paul's church by Rev. Dr. L. S. Chaffer. The meetings have been well attended and the interest has shown a steady growth.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND
BY "SAPPER"
(CYRIL McNEILE)

Slowly, almost imperceptibly, the vapour rose, and spread outwards up the wooded hills by Basildon. It drifted through the shrubs and rose-bushes of a little garden, which stretched from a bungalow down to the water's edge, until at length wisps of it brushed gently round the bungalow itself. It was a daily performance in the summer, and generally the widows of the lower rooms remained shut till long after the mist had gone and the sun was glinting through the trees on to the river below. But on this morning there was a change in the usual programme. Suddenly the window of one of the downstair rooms was flung open, and a man with a white haggard face leant out drawing great gulps of fresh air into his lungs. Softly the white wraiths eddied past him into the room behind—a room in which a queer, faintly sweet smell still hung—a room in which three other men lay sprawling uncouthly in chairs, and two dogs lay motionless on the hearthrug.

After a moment or two the man withdrew, only to appear again with one of the others in his arms. And then, having dropped his burden through the window on to the lawn outside, he repeated his performance with the remaining two. Finally he pitched the two dogs after them, and then, with his hand to his forehead, he staggered down to the water's edge.

"Holy smoke!" he muttered to himself, as he plunged his head into the cold water, "talk about the morning after. Never have I thought of such a head."

After a while, with the water still dripping from his face, he returned to the bungalow and found the other three in varying stages of partial insensibility.

"Wake up, my heroes," he remarked, "and go and put your fat heads in the river."

Peter Darrell scrambled unsteadily to his feet. "Great Scott! Hugh," he muttered thickly, "what's happened?"

"We've been had for mugs," said Drummond grimly.

Algy Longworth blinked at him foolishly from his position in the middle of a flower-bed.

"Dear old soul," he murmured at length, "you'll have to change your wine merchants. Merciful Heavens! is the top of my head still on?"

"Don't be a fool, Algy," grunted Hugh. "You weren't drunk last night. Pull yourself together, man; we were all of us drugged or doped somehow. And now," he added bitterly, "we've all got heads, and we have not got Potts."

"I don't remember anything," said Toby Sinclair, "except falling asleep. Have they taken him?"

"Of course they have," said Hugh. "Just before I went off I saw 'em all in the garden, and that swine Lakington was with them. However, while you go and put your nuts in the river, I'll go up and make certain."

With a grim smile he watched the three men lurch down to the water; then he turned and went upstairs to the room which had been occupied by the American millionaire. It was empty, as he had known it would be, and with a smothered curse he made his way downstairs again. And it was as he stood in the little hall saying things gently under his breath that he heard a muffled moaning noise coming from the kitchen. For a moment he was nonplussed; then, with an oath at his stupidity, he dashed through the door. Bound tightly to the table, with a gag in her mouth, the wretched Mrs. Denny was sitting on the floor, blinking at him wrathfully.

"What on earth will Denny say to me when he hears about this!" said Hugh, feverishly cutting the cords. He helped her to his feet, and then forced her gently into a chair. "Mrs. Denny, have those swine hurt you?"

Five minutes served to convince him that the damage, if any, was mental rather than bodily, and that her vocal powers were not in the least impaired. Like a dam bursting, the flood of the worthy woman's wrath surged over him; she breathed a hideous vengeance on every one impartially. Then she drove Hugh from the kitchen, and slammed the door in his face.

"Breakfast in half an hour," she cried from inside—"not that one of you deserves it."

"We are forgiven," remarked Drummond, as he joined the other three on the lawn. "Do any of you feel like breakfast? Fat sausages and crinkly bacon."

"Shut up," groaned Algy, "or we'll throw you into the river. What I want is a brandy-and-soda—half a dozen of 'em."

"I wish I knew what they did to us," said Darrell. "Because, if I remember straight, I drank bottled beer at dinner, and I'm damned if I see how they could have doped that."

"I'm only interested in one thing, Peter," remarked Drummond grimlye "and that isn't what they did to us. It's what we're going to do to them."

"Count me out," said Algy. "For the next year I shall be fully occupied resting my head against a cold stone. Hugh, I positively detest your friends."

It was a few hours later that a motor-car drew up outside that celebrated chemist in Piccadilly whose pick-me-ups are known from Singapore to Alaska. From it there descended four young men, who ranged themselves in a row before the counter and spoke no word. Speech was unnecessary. Four foaming drinks were consumed, four acid-drops were eaten, and then, still in silence, the four young men got back into the car and drove away. It was a solemn rite, and on arrival at the Junior Sports Club the four performers sank into four large chairs, and pondered gently on the vileness of the morning after. Especially when there hadn't been a night before. An unprofitable meditation evidently, as if actuated by a single thought, the four young men rose from their four large chairs and again entered the motor-car.

The celebrated chemist whose pick-me-ups are known from Singapore to Alaska gazed at them severely.

"A very considerable bend, gentlemen," he remarked.

"Quite wrong," answered the whitest and most haggard of the row. "We are all confirmed Pussyfoots, and have been consuming non-alcoholic beer."

Once more, to the scrunch of acid-drops the four young men entered the car outside; once more, after a brief and silent drive, four large chairs in the smoking-room of the Junior Sports Club received an occupant. And it was so, even until luncheon time.

"Are we better?" said Hugh, getting to his feet, and regarding the other three with a discerning eye.

"No," murmured Toby, "but I am beginning to hope that I may live. Four Martinis and then we will gnaw a cutlet."

BEST STUDENTS OFTEN CONFUSED.

Mix Up the Revered Heroes of History.

Fearful and wonderful are some of the answers which distracted students will compose when confronted by the severe ordeal of the annual examination. The best students often become confused and mix up the revered heroes of history in a most undignified manner.

One student, after writing a page of jumbled facts finally concluded in a foot-note to the examiner that this wasn't what he wanted, so he had better quit. Another concluded an exceptionally bad paper with the soulful lament: "Oh, that I had gone on a farm." Another extricated himself from a difficulty in a rather clever manner. The question which dealt with the history of a famous historical lady of somewhat doubtful moral standards was answered by him with: "The less said about this subject the better."

A few of the answers encountered in examining Lower School History, as published some time ago by a Toronto contemporary, are as follows:

John Cabot and his son Sebastopol discovered America.

John Cabot discovered Spain. As a reward for this he was knighted by Queen Elizabeth because he had extinguished himself so well.

With regard to the C.P.R., one candidate solemnly asserted that Lord Strathcona drove the last spike, and this led to the building of the railway. Another said: Sir John A. MacDonald was forced to resign, and the building was idle for awhile and he was out of it. He was returned and he finished the building. Lord Strathcona was behind the building.

Sir Isaac Brock met death in various ways, according to the narrators:

1. Sir Isaac Brock was the hero of Queenston Heights, at which battle he met his glorious end.

2. Brock was the leader of the American Rev. He will always be remembered in glorious print. He won the battle of the Plains of Abraham.

3. Brock asked the people to remain loyal. All amusements ceased, and the dance hall replaced the drill of the soldiers. When Brock asked for more militia he hadn't tents to cover them, so they had to go without shoes on the march.

4. Brock led the Americans in the Seven Years War. He fought at Fort Duquesne, where he had three horses shot from under him. At Queenston he scaled the heights and landed on the Plains of Abraham. He was shot, and when dying gasped: "Thank God, I've done my duty."

5. Brock put fresh light into the Canadian soldiers when they were dark and gloomy.

6. Brock raced up the gentle slope of Queenston Heights. He was shot in the wrist, but coolly banadged it and pushed on. Then they shot him on a brief monument erected for him where he fell.

Velvet should never be pressed with an iron. Rather, when it is to be renovated, put it over the setam arising from an open vessel of boiling water and brush both ways of the nap.

TO-DAY'S NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

THE DISTRICT DAIRYMEN HELD MEETING, LAKEFIELD

MR. G. A. GILLESPIE AND OTHERS GAVE ADDRESSES—NEXT YEAR WILL BE A "CHEESE YEAR."

LAKEFIELD NEWS

LAKEFIELD, Dec. 19.—A meeting was held in the Council Chamber on Friday afternoon of the District Dairymen and was fairly well attended.

Mr. G. A. Gillespie, director of the district, was in the chair, and gave a brief address. Lakefield is the centre of an excellent dairy country, and he has almost persuaded the buyers to come here to sell their cheese. Owing to general conditions, this past year has been a hard one for all business people and enterprise, and the dairy business has suffered greatly with the rest, but normal conditions will be restored and better times will bring better business. Cheese-making will come back, and next year will be "cheese year," said the speaker. Butter is a home product, made and used mostly in the home market, but Canada produces a great deal more cheese than she buys, and so we rely on outside markets for our cheese. But when the foreign markets are stabilized we can come back with the cheese industry.

Mr. Ward was ill and not able to be present or to write a report. Mr. Ward is a veteran in his line, as it is 50 years last May since he went into the dairy business.

Mr. Geo. H. Barker, of Kingston, was the next speaker. Mr. Barker is the official milk and cream tester.

The Babcock Test.

Mr. Barker advocates the installation of the Babcock tester in every cheese factory. The Dairy Standards Act, which goes into force Jan. 1st, 1922, calls for the paying for milk in the butter fat basis determined by the Babcock test. In order to assist the milk producer, the Government will do the testing for the first year or two and will charge each patron 50c a season for the test. One needs sample bottles and the ordinary pint milk bottles are found most satisfactory, and corrosive sublimate tablets are used to keep the milk properly for the test. They will prevent milk souring in the bottles, but they will not bring it back after it has gone wrong. One reaps most benefit by careful handling of milk, and one has to work if one wants the money, but don't throw money away through carelessness in handling milk; milk should be cooled as quickly as possible after coming from the cow, and should be kept covered in a tank of ice or cold water. The air causes fermentation to set in. If one is dissatisfied with the factory test one can appeal to the Department.

Mr. E. H. Stonehouse, of Weston, was the next speaker. Mr. Stonehouse is president of the National and National Dairy Councils, and is also a practical dairyman, as he is a milk producer on his own farm, and he produces milk for the trade. The dairy industry is the biggest in the Province, and has a great future in spite of depressing conditions this year.

The Producer.

The producer, manufacturer and distributor all had their hard knocks and great difficulties, and one is reminded of the man who bought an article from a Scotchman, expecting to sell to a Jew at a profit. One cannot be too careful in the dairy industry, and cleanliness plays a big part. One must have both cow and milker absolutely clean to produce first-grade milk, and we must build up this industry and also safeguard and extend it. Last year $100,000,000 was spent in Ontario dairy products; this year the amount was less, as the prices were lower. We have more competition, as the States are going ahead rapidly, and some States are keen rivals. In Holland and Denmark special attention and care are given the dairy industry, and a great measure of the prosperity of these countries is due to their dairy industries. Now we must look for new markets; we have been spoiled, as in the past we could ship any time and any quality, but conditions have changed, and we must produce first-class goods if we want to gain and hold foreign markets. We never had such keen competition as the dairy industry is being developed rapidly in Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand and some of the South American countries, so we must look to our laurels. The quality of the raw material determines to a large extent the quality of the manufactured product, and unless we are willing to adopt advanced methods we can't compete with other countries for the world markets. The responsibility lies with the individual milk producer, and one regrets that more time was not taken up trying to open the eyes of the people to the need of improved conditions, for at the present time this industry is fighting a hard battle to hold its own. We must eliminate useless things and use greatest efficiency on farms in the care of the products. We were extravagant and careless under the high prices of war years, which of course did not continue after the war. If we wish greater net returns we must give more care to the development and conservation of the

News Happenings From Norwood and District

NORWOOD, Dec. 19.—On Saturday evening at 10.30 fire broke out in the stable of Finlay and Sons. Owing to the fact that the large store-house, which was very close to the stable, was well saturated from the heavy rainfall during the day, and was also situated close to the creek, the building was saved before it was seriously injured. The stable however, had been filled with broom-handles, etc.

Miss Bessie People, who is attending Peterborough Normal, is home for her vacation.

LAKEFIELD LADIES' AID HELD MEETING

LAKEFIELD, Dec. 19. — The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church gave a very pleasant and successful afternoon function on Friday in the fine spacious basement of their church.

The Methodist people have an established and enviable renutation for standing by their organizations when any enterprise is undertaken, and on this occasion they fully sustained their good name in this respect, for the afternoon brought forth a blinding snowstorm, which would have furnished a sufficient excuse to remain indoors to anyone less energetic and loyal in their church interests. Once inside, however, the cheery room presented a most attractive and business-like air, and the cordial greetings to the newcomer at once dispelled all timidity and made one feel at home and soon forgetful of the wintry storm doing its best, or worst, outside.

Ranged along the side in the alcoves or class-rooms, so well suited to several purposes, were booths, where various wares were disposed of expeditiously by attentive and obliging "ladies' aiders," and for variety of merchandise the display would suggest a "department" business. Everything could be procured from a citron to a jam tart or a tea apron. The vari-colored vegetables and fruits, the irresistible home-cooking, for which this Ladies' Aid is famous, the delicious looking candy, the dainty and inviting fancy work and the orange tree—the feature of the afternoon—collectively presented a bewildering array which fairly coaxed the money out of purses, no matter how tight drawn were the strings.

The orange tree, let it be said, was a beautiful evergreen set up in the centre of the platform, and was hung with the glittering make-believes of the Christmas season, but it was also bearing all sorts of toys and fancy articles wrapped in orange paper to imitate the real article. The packages being sold, we were told, at 5 cents each. Needless to say, its well-laden branches were soon stripped of its fruit. In the centre of the auditorium were tastefully arranged little tea tables, each seated for four occupants, and each presided over by two ladies, who flitted about in smiling eagerness to serve their patrons with "the cup that cheers" and various afternoon tea delicacies. One could easily follow their movements and the mission upon which they were bent by the pretty caps made of Christmas colors which they wore.

To further enhance the pleasure of the crowds of shoppers, sweet music was rendered on the piano at intervals during the afternoon.

The following ladies had charge of the various "departments" which such an enterprise involves:

Reception Committee—Mrs. (Rev.) Dixon and Mrs. Fred Richardson.

Music—Misses Botterill, Bailey and Erskine.

Candy—Mrs. Grylls and J. Miller.

Home Cooking — Mrs. Ingram, Nixon and A. D. Payne.

Vegetables and Fruit — Mrs. S. Clydesdale and J. Payne.

Fancy Work and Aprons—Mrs. W. Madill and Erskine.

Marking Committee—Mrs. T. A. Northey and R. Simpson, whose skill in putting the right value on each article was pronounced second to none by one member, so this duty is wisely the special role of these ladies on such occasions.

Mrs. S. Pearson had charge of the orange tree, and did a rushing business while the "fruit" lasted.

The following ladies had charge of the tea: Mrs. P. Spence, G. Northey, N. Payne, J. D. Charlton, W. Nugent, H. Scriber, McMillan, Botterill, McConkey, Bartindale, W. Hamblin and Robert Little.

OPERATORS DISPUTE.

MONTREAL, Dec. 19... (Canadian Press.)—It is thought that a decision will be reached to-day in the points under discussion here between representatives of the United Mine Workers of America, District No. 26, and representatives of the coal companies operating the Cape Breton fields under the British Empire Steel Corporation.

YOUNG'S POINT

YOUNG'S POINT, Dec. 19.—Mr. Allan Douglas was a visitor to Peterborough on Friday.

Rev. J. L. Hughes and Mrs. Hughes visited their parishioners in Haultain on Thursday and Friday.

Mr. A. Wilson attended the dairy meeting in Lakefield on Friday afternoon.

Miss Laura McFarlane was in Peterborough on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hurl attended the dance given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Blewett, in Smith, on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sutton, who are here on a visit from the West.

Quite a number of the young people of the village and surrounding country have enjoyed excellent skating on the bay.

Mr. R. Bullock, of Lakefield, was on business in the village on Friday.

Miss Marie Charlton was in Lakefield on Friday afternoon.

Mr. McCall, of Apsley, had the misfortune to break the crank shaft of his car en route to Peterborough on Thursday, and was delayed in the village a couple of days awaiting repairs.

Annual Concert.

Don't forget the annual concert to be given in the School-House on Thursday evening, Dec. 22nd. The chief feature of the evening will be "The Making of Canada's Flag," with a splendid cast of characters. The drills and choruses are also exceptionally good.

TELEGRAPHIC AND CABLE NEWS

FOUND NOT GUILTY.

WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 17.—(Canadian Press.)—Charles de Long, Riverside, accused of theft of 39 cases of gin from Russell Morton, Windsor, on June '4 last, was found not guilty before County Judge Coughlin in Sandwich on Saturday.

MUST STAY IN BED.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.— (Canadian Press.)— Mary Garden, celebrated singer and general director of the Chicago Opera Company, was yesterday ordered by her physician to stay in bed indefinitely. She is threatened with pneumonia.

REPORT ON JAMAICA.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press.)—Major Wood, replying to a deputation of Jamaicans relative to his visit of inquiry into economic and political conditions in the West Indies on behalf of the British Government, declared that Jamaica need fear no retaliation by the United States for giving preference to Canadian and British products imported here. Jamaica, he added, was part of the British Empire and should maintain the essential unity of the Empire.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION.

MONTREAL, Dec. 19. Canadian Press. — Charges were made at the annual meeting of the Dominion Commercial Travellers' Association, held at the Windsor Hotel here on Saturday night, that since the introduction of 'bone dry" legislation into Ontario, the hotel accommodation in that province had deteriorated while the prices had doubled.

Comparison much to the advantage of the hotel accommodation in Quebec Province was made.

DEFEATED HAMILTON.

HAMILTON, Dec. 19. Canadian Press. — The World's Champion Ottawas got in front in the N.H.L. race here last Saturday night when they defeated the Hams by a score of 3 to 2 in a game which just bubbled over with excitement despite the fact that the ice was sticky and many a well meant combination play went wrong as a result. The champions had to go 9 minutes over the regular time in order to win out and even then, there was a chance for dispute, as the shot which won the game was made from an off side play, according to members of the Hamilton team, but the referee did not see it that way and the goal counted.

THE IRISH SITUATION

TREATY WILL COME BEFORE THE DAIL EIREANN TO-DAY — SESSIONS MAY LAST OVER CHRISTMAS.

KILLED IN RIOTS

DUBLIN, Dec. 19. — (Canadian Press).—When the secret session of the Dail Eireann terminated near the midnight hour of Saturday, the newspapermen outside heard a burst of applause inside the council chamber. Desmond Fitzgerald, the Sinn Fein Minister of Propaganda, was asked by them if the applause meant that the treaty was to be ratified.

"It only meant," replied Mr. Fitzgerald, "that everybody was glad to be through with the private sessions."

To-day Dublin was full of contradictory rumors concerning the result of the meetings of the Dail Eireann, all of them based on information declared to have obtained from members of the Parliament.

The members, however, up to the present, have maintained their usual strict secrecy as regards the proceedings, which have been held behind closed doors.

A leading member from Cork City, when asked by the Associated Press whether the public session of the Dail to-day would be likely to end the situation, declared: "No, it is more likely to last over Christmas."

AN ATTEMPTED RAID.

BELFAST, Dec. 19. — (Canadian Press). — An attempted raid for arms on the Balmoral Show Grounds which is under military occupation, resulted in failure Saturday night, following a day of fierce rioting throughout the city Saturday.

The soldiers opened fire on the four would-be raiders, two of whom were wounded, and captured.

The wounded men are declared to have been identified as Sinn Feiners from the Falls district. The authorities were reticent concerning the situation, but it is believed that the soldiers o whom the overtures were made for the transfer of arms gave information to their officers of the proposed manoeuvre.

One man was killed during the disturbances of Saturday evening, and four women were among the wounded.

PLAN TO HAVE BUS SYSTEMS OPERATE ONLY UNDER ONTARIO LICENSE

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 16.—Provincial regulation of bus lines on provincial highways throughout Ontario is receiving the attention of Hon. F. C. Biggs and the coming session of the Legislature will probably see legislation to give the minister power to deal with the matter.

The plan under consideration would permit bus lines to operate only under an Ontario government franchise, for which bids would be invited.

CASUALTIES RESULTING FROM DISTURBANCES.

DELHI, India, December 17 (Canadian Press). — An official announcement was made to-day that since the outbreak of disturbances in Malabar last August, 1,826 natives have been killed, 1,500 wounded, and 5,474 captured. The announcement added that 14,241 have surrendered voluntarily.

A TERRIFIC GALE SWEPT OVER PARTS OF COUNTRY

BUFFALO WAS THE CENTRE OF A NINETY-FIVE MILE AN HOUR GALE—ONE MAN KILLED AND MANY INJURED.

IN NEW YORK CITY

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press) — A ninety-five mile an hour gale swept the city yesterday, uprooting trees, tearing down chimneys and advertising signs from the tops of buildings, smashing plate glass windows and piling up the water in the harbor to an unprecedented stage. One man was killed in the storm.

A window hatch torn from the top of a business block fell upon a passing automobile, killing Frank E. Kiefer, one of the occupants and injuring another seriously. The flying piece of debris went through the windshield of the machine and pinned Kiefer to the seat. The automobile, with the occupants both unconscious continued down the street for a block before it swerved over a sidewalk and crashed into a store front. Kiefer died before he could be extricated from the wreckage.

Two Women Caught

Two women were caught under a falling tree on Porter Avenue, near the Waterfront. One of them, Miss Margaret Cochrane, had both legs broken. Her sister Katherine had one leg broken and was internally injured. Firemen had to be called to cut away part of the tree trunk before Margaret Cochrane could be released and sent to a hospital.

The terrific force of the wind, blowing from the southwest directly down Lake Erie had the effect of a huge tidal wave. When the water was at its highest level, Bird Island pier and Squaw Island, narrow strips of land and water barriers between Niagara River and the barge canal were almost completely submerged. Nearly 100 squatters' shanties along the strip were smashed by the rush of the water and the wind and carried out into the river.

Car Service Tied Up

Street car service was intermittent during the morning, but by mid-afternoon practically all lines had resumed normal running schedules.

Many islands just above the Falls were submerged for the first time in years. The water was very deep under the Goat Island bridge. Great property damage was done on the upper river between La Salle and Niagara Falls to riverside boat houses and motor boats. One estimate of the property loss there is $200,000. No loss of life was reported but several families living in houses on the river bank were rescued with difficulty. The gale did not do as much damage to the trees on the reservation as have former winter storms. Little damage is reported on the Canadian side of the river at the Falls.

Steamers in Trouble

At Tonawanda the water rose from seven to eight above the normal stage, flooding the large lumber yards there, overturning lumber piles and carrying thousands of feet of timber out into the river and over Niagara Falls. A dredge belonging to the Sullivan-Dunbar Com

CONFERENCE PROGRESSING

FRENCH PLAN PRESENTED WITH FULL AUTHORITY OF FRENCH GOVERNMENT.

FRENCH OPINION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press).—The proposal and the accompanying schedule of planned construction was presented with the full authority of the French Government, it was learned on best authority last night, and were not, as had been indicated in some quarters, merely a "tentative departmental plan."

Authoritative French opinion, as obtained last night, was that the plan and its resulting ratio for France, was entirely reasonable. It made plain that there was no disposition to modify the proposals in their vital features, to to accept the 175,000-ton ratio proposed by the United States delegation.

URGE GOVERNMENT TO LIFT BAN ON BOOKS

TORONTO, Dec. 16.—(Canadian Press).—At the concluding session of the United Farmers here to-day W. L. Smith presented a resolution urging the new Government to remove the ban against all books not offending the public morals. He referred particularly to the "History of wealth," which people he said, are prevented from reading by "an ignorant ass at Ottawa like the gentleman usher of the Black Rod".

ACTION AT LAST.

While it is a matter that the Examiner sincerely hopes will never affect Peterborough again, the announcement that the Provincial Government intends to bring in legislation at the next session of the Legislature providing for all death sentences to be carried out at Burwash, is gratifying, inasmuch as it means the inauguration of a plan that this paper has consistently advocated. When this measure is passed there will be no more hangings in the county jails of the province and the towns and cities of Ontario will not feel the depressing and morbid effect of having a legal execution carried out in their midst. The hanging of the two Russians here early last year taught Peterborough the desirability of the centralization of such executions, and locally the Burwash plan will be heartily endorsed. The responsibility of guarding condemned prisoners will be shifted from the jail authorities to the staff at Burwash, and in this respect, too, the new method will prove much more satisfatcory than the policy now in use.

MAYOR McINTYRE.

Members of the City Council said many nice things about Mayor McIntyre at the meeting of the Council the other night when His Worship took farewell of his colleagues, but it cannot be charged against the aldermen that they over-exaggerated their tributes. In retiring from the position of Peterborough's chief magistrate, after two years' service, Mayor McIntyre has left a record upon which he is to be congratulated, and against which there are no black marks. He has taken the duties of his position as seriously as their importance warranted, has at all times been at the service of the citizens, has never neglected the city's business, and has been ready whenever called upon to assist in any movement that had for its object the advancement of Peterborough. Before attaining to the office of Mayor His Worship had a long apprenticeship in the Council, and it may be said of him, not in the spirit of fulsome praise, but as a just recognition of his efforts to serve the community, that he deserves the thanks of the citizens generally, and has earned the right to be remembered as one who met the test of office successfully.

THE PERSONAL CANVASS.

In his address to the electors of Peterborough, announcing his candidature for the Mayoralty, ex-Ald. J. J. Turner declares that he does not propose to make a personal canvass, preferring to make his appeal for support through the press. Not because it would be good business for the newspapers, but because such a policy would be popular with the average elector, the Examiner believes that Mr. Turner's plan might be advantageously followed by other candidates in the municipal arena as well as by aspirants for provincial and federal honours. There are many people who object to being canvassed as to how they are going to exercise their franchise; they believe, and they are unodubtedly right, that how they vote is their own business, and they resent being cross-examined by election canvassers. And the result of a house-to-house solicitation of votes is a very doubtful quantity. In many cases an evasive answer is the only return; in others the canvasser is got rid of by a promise that half the time is not fulfilled. It is doubtful whether many votes are changed by such tactics, while on the other hand many electors denounce the method as a nuisance that should not be tolerated. Mr. Turner's rejection of the personal canvass plan will not injure his chances of success in the municipal sweepstakes.

American and British war mothers have pledged themselves never to aid another war.

SELECTING SLATES.

Organizations who may be selecting candidates for municipal honours should recall the visits the majority of their members must have paid to the midway at the local Exhibition or to any of the carnivals that have visited Peterborough. If they do so they will recollect that it was not the show that was marked by the loudest noise outside that was the most meritorious, in fact that the poorer the programme was the greater was the clamour of the showmen at the entrance. So it is liable to prove with municipal candidates. The man who does the most talking and does the most grumbling about how the city's affairs have been handled is very apt to attract attention away from a more worthy aspirant, but is not likely to measure up very well if, unfortunately, he should happen to be elected. It is not difficult to find fault, and ability in that line should be about the last test to be applied to a candidate's qualifications. The man who will prove worth while will not be a mere fault finder. If there have been abuses he will not hesitate to point them out, but he would not stop at that. He'll have a remedy for the conditions he complains of and a constructive policy to bring forward; in other words his criticism will be constructive and he will assay well when the acid test is applied. He is the type that slate-making organizations should have no hesitation in endorsing. At all events let them make sure that they do not pick the aspirants who make the most noise, on the same principle as the woman who judges Christmas cigars by the nature of the bands upon the weeds.

THE COST OF COAL.

Anthracite miners have decided to ask for more pay. If they succeed, it will inevitably mean higher cost for consumers; and coal is now higher in price than it has ever been. The mine operators have invariably passed on all additions to operating cost to the ultimate consumer. We must all see, however, that there is a limit to which that convenient process may be carried with safety. It is not always just. The consumer has some rights in the premises.

Analogy comes in with pactical sggestions. During the war period, when wages ran riot, the railways found their pay-roll much more than doubled. would have solved their immediate problem in that regard if they had been able to adjust income with outgo by proportionately increasing the tolls to users of transportation; but an insuperable obstacle stood in their way. The Railway Commission in Canada and the Interstate Commerce Commission in the United States alone have the power to add to or to reduce railway rates. What actually happened was that these tribunals did not permit rate increases to countervail higher operating cost. The railways were required to bear a considerable share of the pinch, and it transpired, as time proceeded that in this way a rather undue proportion of the burden of high wages had been assigned to the agencies of transportation. They have for the past two years been in genuine distress.

The point to which this comparison gives emphasis is that if the regulation of railway rates is a good thing, because it gives protection to important public interests, why are the coal operators permitted to go unchecked? The more the matter is analyzed the clearer becomes the conviction that as between the railways and the coal companies, the case for regulation grows stronger against the latter. They did not create the coal, whereas the railways had to build up their properties by the expenditure of a very large volume of capital. The coal, it might be assumed, without leaning toward extreme socialism, is the property of the people in common. All that the mine operators could reasonably expect, would be a fair return on the investment necessary to take this natural public possession from the earth and distribute it among those who need it; and this could be done under such direct control as would secure justice for those who have the right to be served.

While pausing no longer to discuss our somewhat anomalous policies in the matter of price regulation it is worth observing that a ray of hope for feul consumers proceeds from comparatively recent experiments by the Honorary Council for Scientific and Industrial Research. In the western provinces, anthracite coal is much dearer than it is in the East, owing to the greater cost for transportation. It happens, however, than an abundant supply of low grade lignites is found in Saskatchewan, and of high grade lignites in Alberta, in the mining of which a large percentage of waste occurs. The Research Council has developed a process by which this waste can be carbonized, thus eliminating the volatile matter, and the residue briquetted. These briquettes form an excellent and satisfactory substitute for anthracite coal. The qeustion is at once suggested as to whether or not the waste of our eastern mines could not be similarly treated and made available to the central provinces now dependent entirely on the American supply. If the public regulation of coal mining and coal prices is not provided, competition in this form might readily serve to keep the cost of anthracite to Canadian consumers within reasonable bounds. Certainly it is necessary that some constructive attention should be directed toward this vital problem.—Ottawa Journal.

The man who had been bewailing the fact that "it does not look like Christmas without any snow," kicked about the weather all day yesterday.

Judging by the way some Montreal papers talk they must think the National Railways exist only for the benefit of the Montrealer.

The eight million Canadians who live outside of Montreal don't give the value of a German mark whether the Government Railways have their head offices in Montreal or Prince Rupert so long as they can be operated profitably.

The final settlement of the Irish question would be a fine Christmas present for the whole British Empire.

NORTH OXFORD ELECTION.

WOODSTOCK, December 19 Canadian Press.—At Princeton, the Liberal candidate with R. R. Hall, of Parry Sound, and E. Biggar, of Brant County, held a meeting. Hon. Peter Smith addressed an enthusiastic meeting for the U.F.O. at Plattsville, while Miss Agnes McPhail spoke in the evening in Woodstock, in support of Mr. Ross candidature.

There will be some difficulty in bringing out the vote on Monday as the result of the snow storm which blew up on Saturday night and which has put the roads in an almost impassable condition in many places. This will not deter the different interests in the campaign and a fleet of motors and vehicles of all descriptions are being mustered in order to get out the votes to-day.

SHEEP RAISING PROFITABLE.

Yields of lambs and wool depend on Breed Selected iYelds of lambs and wool depend largely upon the bred of sheep selected according to statistics collected by the Department of Agriculture. With ewes of any one of the medium sized mutton breeds the losses in raising lambs is very small. The wool clip varies from seven to eleven pounds per ewe. The larger mutton yields more, as do also the fine wools, but the value of the latter per pound has been less because of the greater proportion of grease. In comparison with cattle and swine sheep can be made to yield practically the same net returns on the value of the land if well cared for and kept on lands reasonably well adapted for sheep raising, the department reports.

CABLE AND TELEGRAPH

DEFEATED THE WOLVES.

BOSTON, Dec. 18.— (Canadian Press.)—The Boston Athletic Association hockey sextette defeated the Wolves, of Sudbury, Ont., Saturday night by a score of six to one. This was the second deefat the Canadian team has had in the three days' series with Boston clubs.

WON CHAMPIONSHIP.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.— (Canadian Press.)— John Layton, of Sedalia, Mo., Saturday night won the world's three-cushion billiard championship, defeating champion Augie Kieckhaefer ,of Chicago, 60 points to 58, in the third block of their 180 point contest.

ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press.) — Charged with embezzlement of a large sum from a Winnipeg grain company of which he was Vice-President, Joseph M. Bessette was arrested here by local police and private detectives. The detectives said that the arrest ended a six months' search for Bessette.

GRAIN GROWERS REPORT.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 19. — (Canadian Press.)—The Northwest Grain Dealers' Association issued a report Saturday which estimated the wheat crop of the three Prairie Provinces at 251,655,000 bushels, against the Government estimate of 308,000,000 bushels.

CRAZED MAN DEAD.

LUND, B.C., Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press.)—With the lower part of his face shot away the body of Alexander Johnson was found at the door of his shack Saturday morning by Provincial Constable Hadley and a posse of eight men. By killing himself Johnson put an end to the reign of terror he exercised over Lund for two days since he emerged from the woods in a crazed condition and killed his best friend, Ralph Dangio.

The body of Dangio was found inside the shack, while Johnson was on the ground just outside the door with his rifle beside him.

INDIANS SENTENCED.

ALLAHABAD, British India, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press.)—Pundit Motilal Mehru, a prominent Nationalist leader, his son and two nephews, who were arrested December 7, in connection with the Non-Co-operationist movement, were sentenced to six months in prison and a fine each of 100 rupees. It was decreed that they should serve another month in prison in case there was a default in the payment of their fines.

CABINET RESIGNED.

PEKINGS, Dec. 19.— (Canadan Press.)— The Chinese Cabinet resigned yesterday. No official reason for the resignation is obtainable.

A SEVERE EARTHQUAKE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press.)— An earthquake, described as "very severe," was recorded on the seismograph at Georgetown University, beginning at 10.37 a.m., and continuing until about noon. Father Torndorf, of the University, estimated the direction as south of Washington at a distance of approximately 2,500 miles.

A HEAVY GALE.

LONDON, Ont., Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press.)—A heavy gale swept across Western Ontario, accompanied by a heavy fall of snow, which piled into drifts. There was but little damage done, though the railways and street car systems had their plows out. There was no interruption of the hydro service.

A DIVIDEND ISSUED.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 19. — (Canadian Press.)—A dividend on issued preference stock at the rate of seven per cent. per annum will be paid for the current quarter to end Dec. 31, directors of the Winnipeg Electric Railway Company announced here Saturday. The dividend is payable January 1922 to shareholders of Saturday's record.

LEFT FOR THE SOUTH.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press.)—The British Antarctic expedition ship Quest, commanded by Sir Ernest Shackleton, left here yesterday morning for the south after three weeks' stay, during which it underwent repairs.

Sir Ernest plans a direct voyage to South Georgia, from which country he will proceed to the Antarctic.

NET PROFITS REDUCED.

MONTREAL, Dec. 19... (Canadian Press.)—The annual statement of the Dominion Glass Company for the 12 months to September 30th last, now going forward to shareholders, shows a slight reduction in net profits, these being $699,599 against $757,898 for the previous year, a decrease of slightly more than 7 per cent. The amount available for distribution on the common stock is $347,599 or 8.17 per cent. as compared with 9.55 per cent. a year ago and 6.58 per cent. in 1919.

product, such as eliminating the low producing cow from your herd, and this can be done by a test of your own. We must have progress, efficiency and co-operation to make this the greatest dairy country in the world.

Mr. Gillespie was re-nominated as Director to represent the district for the coming year.

Handling Milk.

Mr. G. G. Publow, Chief Dairy Instructor for Eastern Ontario, was the last speaker. He advocates more careful handling of milk, as each year there is a tremendous loss through the carelessness of a few people in regard to the way they handle their milk. If the milk is in good condition and is properly handled it should take 3-4 lb. milk less than at the present to make a pound of cheese. Last season was an unusually severe one, as the great heat day and night made it hard to keep the milk. Cheese is often marketed too soon after making as few factories are so constructed that a quantity of cheese can be kept for any length of time. Unsanitary conditions bring a decrease in the quality of the product, and the careless man is penalizing his neighbor. No other industry is run at such loose ends as cheese-making, as the maker so seldom checks up his own work. No one is more concerned about the marketing of cheese than the farmer and his part is to see that the milk is produced economically and that it gets to the factory in good condition and establish confidence in the minds of people who get the goods. No one is more entitled to good pay than those who produce foodstuffs if they put expert work into it.

The Curling Club.

The Lakefield Curling Club are preparing for a record season. They are in a position to have visiting rinks from other towns come in any time. The new rink is centrally situated, and within two minutes' walk from the railway station, and they are therefore in a much better position than ever before to enjoy the "roarin' game" to the fullest extent. They contemplate a large "At Home" in the Town Hall during Christmas week. This will be one of the notable social events of the season.

Ratepayers Meet To-Day.

The ratepayers' meeting to be held to-day in the Memorial Hall is not only for men but for women and all who are interested in the development of the village. Interest makes for progress and fair criticism stimulates enterprise, so the ratepayers are asked to get together and talk over plans for future advancement of the village. This will be a preface to the meeting to be held a week later to nominate our village leaders for the next year.

Fire Brigade Dance.

The Lakefield Fire Brigade held a very enjoyable dance in the Town Hall on Friday evening. The attendance was not as large as one could have wished, as we should, as citizens, support an organization which is formed for greater efficiency in protecting our homes from the devastation of fire. The music was furnished by Follis' orchestra, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the young people who were present. The patronesses were Mesdames Marling, Leonard, Sherin and Burgess. A number of out-of-town visitors were present.

Personals.

Miss Dorothy Sherin, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sherin.

Mr. Edward Bailey is home from Toronto University for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. A. M. Fitzgerald, of S. P. S., Toronto, is with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fitzgerald, for the holidays.

Mrs. J. G. Brown was in Peterborough on Friday.

Capt. John A. Dewart, of Indian River, was in the village for a few days last week.

Miss Gwen. Simpson, of Peterborough Normal School, is in the village for the week-end.

Mrs. G. E. Donaldson, of Lindsay, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Burgess.

Miss Corkery is spending the week-end at her home in Peterborough, and has with her as her guest, Miss Stark.

Mr. Wesley Northcott, who has been ill for some time, is in a very serious condition. His daughters, Mrs. Brumwell and Mrs. Galvin, are home from the West.

pany, anchored off the shore of Grand Island, sent up signals of distrees when her anchor began to slip and the cumbersome craft began to move down toward the Falls. Tugs were sent to the rescue, but they were unable to hold the craft against the rush of water and the sweep of wind. The captain of the dredge finally saved his craft by dropping the big steel dipper and digging it into the mud on the river bed.

The wind at times attained a velocity estimated by experienced river men at 75 miles an hour. It was accompanied by a light fall of snow.

Steamers tied up here threw out additional lines and none suffered damage. Many telegraph and telephone poles were broken. It was one of the worst storms in many years.

Ferry in Storm

Local coastguards late yesterday sighted the Grand Trunk car-ferry, Milwaukee, which was caught in the gale on Lake Michigan yesterday while enroute from Grand Haven to Milwaukee. The ferry, when sighted, was 30 hours overdue at Milwaukee and no word had been received since it left Grand Haven early Saturday morning.

The ferry was keeping close in last night and is expected to make the Grand Haven harbor without difficulty. Marine men believe the craft turned back to shelter along the east coast of Lake Michigan, when it was caught in the gale.

STORM IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press).—Winds of cyclonic character, accompanied by heavy rains, visited New York early yesterday caused slight damage in lower Manhattan, then jumped to the Bronx and wrought destruction over a wide area in the Union port section. An unidentified man, dead from exposure, was found on a Bowery side walk. There were no other casualties.

Telephone wire, a pierhead and the roofs of several small buildings on the Manhatton waterfront were carried away. Telephone poles in several sections of the city snapped in two before the gale and many windows were shattered.

THE COUGH WITH THAT TICKLING SENSATION

A little tickling in the throat; now and then a dry, hacking cough; you think it is not bad enough to bother about, but every hack makes a breach in the system, strains the the lungs and prepares the way for more serious trouble.

How many people have lost a good night's rest by that nasty, tickling irritating sensation in the throat? The dry, harsh ougch keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had no rest at all.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

is just the remedy you require to stop that irritating, tickling cough on account of its soothing, healing and expectorant properties.

Mrs. P. Johnson, Port Alberni, B. C. writes:—"I have suffered for years, off and on, with a tickling cough. I could not sleep nights and had to sit up in bed to get relief, in fact, I coughed so I used to vomit. I tried different doctors' prescriptions until I heard of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I tried it and found great relief after I had taken the first bottle and have not been troubled since. I shall always keep it in the house."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Price, 35c. and 60c. a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or the kidneys are not acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder troubles.

Jad Salts cannot injure anybody, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and the urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

New and Interesting Facts from Science and Life

CATCHING CRIMINALS BY THEIR PORES

WHEN crooks learn that scientists have just discovered how to catch criminals by their pores, don't you suppose these evil-doers will break out in a cold sweat of fear? It is now actually possible to make identification by the arrangement of the pores of the skin, a fact announced by G. F. Frederick Lees in a recent number of Discovery (London).

This newest of methods of identification, which is known as "poroscopy," is said to be effective when the finger-print is so imperfect that the whorls and ridges, by which identification is usually effected, are not numerous enough for this purpose. And even if they are, it is a fortifying adjunct to the usual method, and may be more convincing to a jury. The finger-print has long been held to constitute irrefutable evidence. For the intricate pattern of curved lines of the hand is never identical in two persons. Moreover, from birth to death, finger-prints never change. It is not possible for anyone to hide his or her identity by the use of chemicals, by burning, or by rubbing—all practices which are resorted to by the criminal classes.

"The problem of criminal investigation and identification looks very simple," says Mr. Lees, 'but in practice all kinds of difficulties are encountered, introducing an element of doubt which has had such weight with some juries that they have rightly refused to convict. The principle generally admitted among judicial authorities is that identity between two finger or palmary prints is incontestable when at least a dozen guiding marks, consisting of the beginnings of lines, bifurcations and islets, are in every respect the same. To be able, however, to come to this clear conclusion, it is necessary to have a fairly large portion of a print under the microscope, and unfortunately the traces which are so carefully collected by the experts of police laboratories on the scene of a murder, burglary, or other offence, are often very fragmentary. Sometimes, too, they are partly obliterated by the prints of persons who have arrived there before the police. Or, again, the criminal may have taken the precaution to cover his hands with gloves or cloth, in which case he may leave but a very small number of utilizable guiding marks behind him.

"Supposing that only a very fragmentary finger or palmary print is under examination, showing no more, say, than three or four points of comparison with the print from the hand of a suspected person, is there any other means of arriving at a proof of guilt? Dr. Edmond Locard, the Director of the Police Laboratory of Lyons, was the first scientist to answer this question in the affirmative. 'I believe it is possible, in many cases,' he wrote in the course of a detailed statement of this new method of identification, 'to make up for the insufficiency of the print considered from the sole point of view of its guiding marks by studying in the trace under examination the arrangement of the pores.'

"Here we have a method—brought to perfection since 1912, and only recently set forth by this distinguished investigator in a work which ought to be translated into every language—which is infinitely more fruitful in results than the one known by the name of dactyloscopy. Like the patterns on the fingers, the pores between those patterns are unchangeable. Moreover, in shape and in size they are extremely variable, and when the trace of these sudoriferous glands has been enlarged by micro-photography, we are provided with an infallible means of identification. The smallest portion of a finger-print may thus be utilized, for there are from nine to eighteen of these glands per millimeter. Between one person and another there is also infinite variety in the distances between the pores.

"'In brief,' says Dr. Locard, 'the pores, because of their immutability, permanency and variety, constitute a sign of identity of the first order. Poroscopy, the only method of identification in the case of very small fragments of prints, is, in all cases of dactyloscopic analysis, an important complementary proof. A jury, unimpressed by thirty or forty homologous characteristic points, will be struck by the concordance of shape, position and number of some hundreds of pores found to be identical in two compared prints. Poroscopic research, which is difficult and hard to carry out on the original traces, even by the use of a lens enlarging five times, is practised by means of large photographic enlargements. With an enlargement of sixteen the work is already easy. For demonstration before a jury one can usefully enlarge up to forty-five times. In practice, poroscopy has very often enabled fragments of prints measuring but a few square millimeters to be used, or half-effaced prints in which only a few points were visible. Above all, it enables one in numerous cases to be clearly affirmative, and strengthens the evidence due to dactyloscopy in a most efficacious manner.'

"Dr. Locard cites a large number of cases in which this fresh advance in criminology has been successful. As a good example we may take the Boudet-Simonin case, in which two men with these names were arrested on a charge of burglarizing a flat in Lyons, on June 10, 1912, and stealing a quantity of jewelry and 400 francs. There were no witnesses of the robbery, and nobody could furnish the slightest piece of information regarding the burglars. But a rosewood cabinet, from which the jewels and money had been taken, was literally covered with finger-prints. These were revealed by the aid of carbonate of lead, and photographed. Search was then made in the finger-print archives of the Lyons Police Laboratory, with the result that certain prints were found to be identical with those of a man, Boudet, who had been several times convicted of theft. The man's record at the Surete showed that he often worked in collaboration with a man named Simonin. Both were arrested. And it was then found that the finger-prints which were not Boudet's were Simonin's. Thirteen prints from the former's hand presented 78 characteristic points; two prints made by the latter, including that of the palm of his left hand, showed 94 points of comparison. In the case of the middle finger of Boudet's left hand 901 pores were identified, while in that of Simonin's palm more than 2000 homologous pores were pointed out to the jury. On this sole piece of evidence the men were sentenced to five years' hard labor, the jury refusing to grant them the benefit of extenuating circumstances. 'I am convinced,' comments Dr. Locard, 'that the demonstration of the homology of the pores played, in the minds of the jurymen, the principal role.'

"Stockis, another well-known criminologist, proved experimentally that the wearing of leather or india-rubber gloves need not prevent the formation of finger-prints. Dr. Locard put theory into practice by identifying a gloved burglar without any other proof than his finger-prints. The print was naturally less clear than that of a bare hand, but nevertheless a fairly large number of guiding marks could be distinguished."

The Two Illustrations Show How Even the Smallest Traces of Finger-Prints Can Be Photographed to Show the Pores, Thereby Making the Identity of the Impressions Absolutely Certain.

Just WHY a DYE Always DYES

WHAT makes a dye dye? The answer to this question is given by Bradford Webster writing on "A Great American Organic Chemical Industry," printed as a leading article in The American Dyestuff Reporter (New York). A dye, Mr. Webster explains, is a colored substance which can be absorbed by a fibre or tissue and held so firmly that washing will not remove it, or light fade it, too quickly. Most dyes are complex in structure, with many atoms in a molecule. This complexity and size of the molecule are undoubtedly essential conditions for the absorption by the fibre and resistance to washing.

"The great universal principle of the positive and the negative, the male and the female," says Mr. Webster, "applies in chemistry as in mechanics, electricity and life. In chemistry it is the acid and the alkaline. Acid dyes are attracted to and color fibres or tissues of alkaline character, and alkaline or basic byes are attracted to and color fibres or tissues of acid character. Opposites attract; likes repel.

"When fibres or tissues do not comply with this principle they are often made to do so by what are called mordants. Cotton is made acid by tannic acid and then firmly attracts and holds the brilliant basic dyestuffs like methylene blue, basic magenta or fuchsin, and methyl violet. Wool is made basic with chrome mordants so as to attract and firmly hold alizarine and other acid dyes.

"There are many natural vegetable dyestuffs and some animal ones. Logwood comes from the West Indies and the extract makes a lustrous deep black for wool. Indigo from China and British India is the original fast blue and the most famous vegetable dyestuff. The acid from the cochineal bug of Mexico is the most famous animal dyestuff and gives a brilliant scarlet. The vegetable dyes are mostly composed of carbon, oxygen and hydrogen only.

"The great modern dyestuff industry, however, has to do more largely with synthetic dyes, made by intricate chemical processes from derivatives of coal-tar like benzine, toluene, anilin and phenol. Carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen and sulphur are the principal elements which make up the finished dyes, carbon and hydrogen appearing in all and in the largest proportions.

"The great range in shade and character of the many thousands of anilin or coal-tar dyes is due entirely to the proportions and mode of association in the molecule of the atoms of carbon, hydrogen, oxygen and one or more other elements. The highest constructive genius in the science of chemistry and some of the most brilliant reasoning in all science have been shown by the men who have worked out and proved what we know of the complex and varied arrangements of the atoms of carbon, hydrogen, oxygen and other elements in the molecules of organic chemicals like dyestuffs or dyes.

"A most interesting general aspect of this question of the arrangement of the atoms in the molecule is the effect on brilliancy and fastness. The brilliant basic colors have a very loose molecular structure, broken down in the course of time by the action of light with comparative ease. But in the very fast colors the groups of atoms are very closely interwoven or interrelated, so that there is tremendous power to resist any disintegrating action of light or other radiant energy. In anthracene, from which the fastest known colors are derived, three groups of carbon and hydrogen atoms are so closely interrelated that this might well be called the Siamese triplet of organic chemistry. Color is a result of the fact that some of the rays of the sun are reflected by certain organic chemicals, while others are absorbed. A blue color is produced when the blue rays are reflected and all others are absorbed. The very fast colors are dull. Probably this is due to the fact that the closely interwoven relation of groups of atoms in the molecules of fast colors blurs the sharp, clear reflection of the looser structures. This is one of the conditions we should understand better if we knew more about the movement of the atoms in the molecule.

"In several cases it is known just how changes in the proportions of the atoms and the assembling of groups in the molecule change shades. For example, the addition of a group of four atoms, one carbon and three hydrogen, in the structure of the molecule, makes the color bluer."

Turning SANTA CLAUS' Faithful REINDEER Into JUICY STEAKS for CHRISTMAS DINNERS

SINCE the motor car has come into universal use as the most popular means of transportation, Santa Claus, in order to keep abreast of the times, of course, has had to relegate his reindeer to the scrap-pile of antiques, and adopt the latest model in airplanes having the roomiest of fuselages for his packs of toys. But what is to become of Santa Claus's reindeer, long faithful steeds? You could never guess. Why, they are going to be turned into big juicy steaks to form, it is hoped, the piece de resistance of Christmas dinners throughout the land.

As a matter of fact, reindeer meat from Alaska promises soon to become quite a common dish. Several thousand carcasses have been received at Pacific coast ports in the last few months and a few have reached eastern retail markets. So far, however, most of the shipments have been consumed in Seattle and San Francisco. As soon as the rest of the country realizes what excellent roasts and steaks reindeer venison makes, it is probable that the demand for this new meat from the far North, already much sought after in the West, will spread to the Atlantic coast. Some persons consider it not at all improbable that in the future reindeer raising in Alaska may vie, with cattle raising, and reindeer steaks become as popular as beefsteaks are today. For example, in less than 30 years a few herds totalling 1200 animals, taken to Alaska from Siberia by the United States government, have so multiplied that today they number approximately 200,000.

The herds were established for the benefit of the Eskimos, because of the rapid disappearance of wild caribou and the greatly reduced number of seals and other sea animals along the coast, which seriously threatened the food supply of the natives. Eskimos own about 150,000 of the 200,000 deer, white men possessing the remaining 50,000.

The Canadian government also is taking an active interest in this novel industry of raising reindeer for meat. Some months ago the Dominion leased a large area in the extreme northern section of Canada to Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, who is making plans to stock his holdings with reindeer.

Some time ago Congress gave the biological survey of the department of agriculture an appropriation to assist in developing the reindeer industry in Alaska. In order to carry out the purposes of this fund, Dr. E. W. Nelson, chief of the biological survey, accompanied by experts, went to Alaska about a year ago and established a reindeer experiment station at Unalakleet, on the coast of Bering sea, for the purpose of studying the parasites and diseases of reindeer and working out remedies for their control, as well as to conduct an investigation into the grazing conditions and requirements of the animals and to determine improved methods of handling them.

Dr. Nelson says that since his return to Washington he has received from the experts in Alaska reports showing that they have gained information sufficient to facilitate important changes for the betterment of the industry and for reducing the death rate of the animals in the herds.

Not only is the reindeer prized highly for its flesh, but, says Dr. Nelson, "the skins are valuable for glove-making. Tanned with the hair on, they are very light, and robes made from the soft, tanned skins with the hair on, are for weight probably by far the warmest covering known. These might become extremely useful as automobile robes for winter in colder parts of the country."

Reindeer live on the treeless Arctic plains, where in summer they feed mainly on the abundant vegetation which the short Arctic summer produces, and in winter they eat the lichen, commonly called reindeer moss, which covers great areas in the far North. These plains, or tundras, spread out over many millions of acres along the Bering sea and Arctic coasts of Alaska. The introduction of reindeer into Alaska has demonstrated that these vast stretches of territory, which hitherto have been considered desert wastes, are really valuable grazing lands, which will be a source of a new supply of food to meet the increasing demands of the world.

To MINE PLATINUM in NEW YORK

VAST wealth in the form of deposits of platinum, copper and gold, worth probably millions of dollars, lie in the limestone rock foundations in the Black river district of northern New York, roughly bounded by Watertown, Lowville and Gouverneur, according to E. C. Jordan, Syracuse chemist, assayist and metallurgist.

Mr. Jordan says that the deposits are in such quantities that they can be detected in many places with simple, crude field tests with drops of acid and with very small pieces of rock being used. In laboratory tests with small amounts of material under examination deposits have been found indicating a yield of one ounce of precious metals per ton, about one-half of which was platinum metal. At this rate it is estimated the rock from which the samples were secured would run from $70 per ton upward.

The finding of this amount of precious metal in the samples brought to Syracuse has convinced Mr. Jordan that somewhere in the territory from which they came are large deposits of platinum. He will not hazard a guess as to their approximate location, their approximate size or value. He merely says he is convinced there are large deposits.

Mr. Jordan has made hundreds of tests during a period of seven years. He is a former resident of Gouverneur and has gone over the entire territory on foot several times. He has checked over the analysis of other chemists and he has reached his conclusions only after the most exhaustive and intensive study of the situation.

Mr. Jordan says that he makes his statements simply as the result of repeated examinations and tests, and with a desire to inform the people of northern New York of the gigantic possibilities he believes are lying underneath their homes.

Why Horses Are Shod

THE blacksmith shop, getting in the days when the horse was supreme a large portion of its income from horseshoeing, is still regularly patronized by the horse owner. The town or city man working a horse steadily, believes that the horse should be given shoes. And he is largely right. The horses which by the hundred thousand run at large in the plains country, go barefoot, yet they have foot-health. It is only under the artificial conditions imposed upon him that the horse requires shoes.

A good deal of this necessity for shoes arises from hard pavements and roads on which the horse is worked. But there is still another reason given by a writer in The Scientific American. The stabled horse does not get at night a foot dew-bath. He needs that dew-bath. The moisture can be supplied, and sometimes is, by packing the foot each night in wet clay, a method so wasteful of labor that it is only resorted to in exceptional cases, usually when the need is acutely manifest.

To maintain healthy condition and durable texture, the horse's hoof must have moisture. This the dew-bath, enjoyed by the pastured horse throughout the night, effectively supplies. Night dew is recognized by horsemen as the best of all medicine for hoofs. Soaking in, it invigorates the whole structure. The hoof becomes much tougher. It is not uncommon for horses which are pastured at night through the summer season to stand up under daily work without being shod. The horse which runs constantly in pasture develops sound, tough hoofs, which though lacking shoes, do not chip, break or crack.

Carving WOOD With Compressed AIR and SAND

THE sand-blast—a stream of sand driven with considerable force by compressed air or steam through a tube which terminates in a nozzle of reduced bore—has long been used for cutting and engraving glass, stone and other hard substances. Lately it has been adapted to carving wood. The wood is first covered with a protective stencil of rubber, wax or other material that the sand will not act on. The sand cuts away the portions of the wood left exposed, the portions covered standing out in relief in the finished work. Flowers, leaves, conventional designs, etc., are easily and quickly carved. The effects produced are quite beautiful, far superior to those obtained by any other mechanical process. The cost, of course, is much less than that of hand carving.

California redwood lends itself particularly well to sand-blast carving because of its soft and relatively uniform texture. Carved wood is being much used for paneling and other decorative features in living and dining rooms, dens, etc., of California houses. The wood is often finished in its natural reddish-brown color. Sometimes it is stained or painted in a manner to bring out grain and carving with striking effect. Redwood, carved or uncarved, has an unusually beautiful grain and gives pleasing results when used for inside trimming for houses, for picture frames, etc. It is to be found in the markets of the middle and even the eastern states as well as of the west, in many instances being used for making door and window frames, siding and trimming of various kinds.

HICCOUGHS CURED by PRESSURE

THE official method for preventing or stopping the hiccoughs has been announced by the Medical Society of French Hospitals. It is the simplest thing in the world. Even a child can operate it. Here is all there is to it as explained by the famous French doctors:

"Place the index finger on the left subclavicular hollow several fractions of an inch above the middle clavicle. Then press carefully the fifth cervicular nerve, whereupon the hiccoughing will cease."

The fifth cervicular nerve is one of the eight main spinal nerves running into the neck and lies in the hollow of the collar-bone or clavicle.

A hiccough is caused by the spasmodic contraction of the diaphragm, accompanied by the closing of the glottis. As the air rushes up, the epiglottis drops, and the resulting noise is the hiccough. Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Health Commissioner of New York City, suggests that if you prevent the contraction of the diaphragm you will usually prevent the hiccoughs. You press your fingers under the victim's floating ribs and in that way you reach the diaphragm.

Some time ago New York City experienced a mild epidemic of hiccoughs, which explains Dr. Copeland's suggestion for its cure.

Now comes the question—what causes the diaphragm to contract? The agitation of a nerve connected with it. When a man has drunk too much alcohol, for instance, this nerve becomes poisoned and hiccoughs result.

Since Dr. David Macht of Johns Hopkins University discovered that the drug benzyl benzoate was mostly useful in cases of hiccoughs, whooping cough and other spasmodical troubles, many other physicians have been investigating its effects. One of the most recent is Dr. John Ruhrach, who discusses the matter in the Journal of Medical Sciences, especially as regards children.

Benzyl benzoate has all the effect of opium derivates without their poisonous action. It stops the rhythmic contractions of the smooth muscles, lowers their tone and relaxes their spasms. It acts on the blood vessels of the surface and causes a fall in the blood pressure. Its action is most favorable in general convulsive conditions, but its action in whooping cough is uncertain, benefiting some cases and having little or no effect on others. In bronchial asthma, spasmodic bronchitis and severe hiccoughs he found it acted better than any other drug. It may be used in some forms of diarrhoea, and is of value in spastic constipation.

Benzyl benzoate is hot and unpleasant to children, so must be given in water, syrup or milk.

TRENT RIVER HAPPENINGS

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE WILDMAN SCHOOL HOUSE.

TRENT RIVER, Dec. 19. — A most successful Sunday school tea and entertainment was held on Friday night at the Wildman school house. Despite the inclement weather the building was filled with children and adults. Tea was served from 6 to 8 o'clock, and abundance of everything good to eat was served, after which a most interesting programme was presented as follows:

Chorus of welcome by the school.
Recitation by Lena and Reta Mason.
Recitation, Harold Thompson.
Instrumental with violin and piano accompaniment by Miss G. B. French and Mr. J. McNeely of Trent River.
Song, William Stairs.
Recitation, Stanley Mason.
Address, Rev. Mr. Rich of Norwood Baptist church.
Recitation, Roger McMillan.
Recitation, Winnifred Spencer.
Recitation, Viola Mason.
Duet, Morden and Leslie McMillan
Chorus, 6 children.
Recitation, Karl Wildman.
Recitation, Wilfred Buck.
Chorus, Junior class.
Recitation, Clayton Mason.
Address, H. A. Tristlewaite, Supt. of Elgin Sunday school.
Drill, British Empire.
Instrumental duet, Misses Scott.
Chorus, 5 young men.
Recitation, Fleda Thompson.
Recitation, Helen Scott.
Song, Wm. Stair.
Chorus, 6 children, "Christmas Joys."
Recitation, Mrs. D. Stark.
Address, Rev. Mr. Wesley.
Recitation, Mavis McMillen.
Dialogue, Debate on Love.
Song, "Patrick Cahill," the Irishman."
Instrumental, Violin with piano accompaniment, Miss Bessie G. French, and Mr. J. McNeely, of Trent River.
Address by Rev. Mr. Rogers, the pastor of the Methodist church, at Norwood.
Dialogue, John McSwegon and Barnie Crossen.
Chorus, school, Christmas song.
God save the King.

Notwithstanding that all the children were admitted free, the proceeds amounted to $27; admission for adults was 35c.

The first snow to cover the ground came yesterday afternoon — continuing throughout the night.

Mrs. Henry Wood was called to Havelock this week owing to her brother's, Mr. Fraser's, serious illness.

The annual meeting of the patrons of Woodland Cheese and Butter Co., Limited, will be held in the factory on Tuesday, December 13th, at 2 o'clock p.m.

Rev. Wesley Elliott of Belleville, president of the Bay of Quinte Conference, and a former pastor of the Hastings circuit, conducted the anniversary services in the Hastings Methodist church.

Mrs. John Garneau is in almost constant attendance at her mother's bedside. The aged lady is seriously ill at the home of her son's, Mr. Jason Roe, at Garrison's Corners.

Municipal Nominations.

Nominations for the various municipal offices for the Township of Seymour will be held this year on Monday, December 26th, at 12:30 p.m., at the music hall, Campbellford.

CAMPBELLFORD AND DISTRICT

CAMPBELLFORD, Dec. 19. — Mr. and Mrs. James Gummow of Milestone, Sask., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Gummow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hankinson.

Mrs. Joseph Hore entertained the members of her Sunday School class at her home on Saturday afternoon. The little girls spent a very interesting and profitable afternoon, making scrap books and another articles to be sent to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto.

Reeve Chas. Davidson and Deputy Reeve Stone leave to-day for Cobourg to attend the final session of the Counties' Council.

Mr. Lewis W. Locke has recently purchased the Livery business of Mr. W. A. Diamond, Front Street, and has already taken possesion. Mr. Diamond, by his genial and obliging manner has won for himself many friends since opening up his livery here and Mr. Locke, who is also most favourably known in town, will no doubt carry on his new business most successfully.

Owing to the inclement weather the congregation in the various churches in town, yesterday were much smaller than usual. Rev. J. E. Glover, B.A., occupied the Methodist pulpit most acceptably preaching most inspiring and practical sermons in the morning, his theme being the "Fatherhood of God". Rev. Mr. Kenney was prevented by the storm from taking Mr. Glover's work in the Seymour East circuit.

Major Bygott, officers, non-commissioned officers and men of "C" Company Northumberland Rtgiment are making great preparation for their ball to be held in the Opera House, Cambellford on the evening of January 2nd. A seven piece orchestra will provide the music and a pleasant evening assured all who attend. The patronesses for the dance will be—Mesdames J. P. Archer, (Dr.) Haig, (Dr.) E. F. Richardson, P. J. Kelly, Charlotte Bonnycastle, W. G. Davidson, J. M. Bygott, C. H. Harris, D. A. Montgomery, C. W. Boyd, Miss Helen Wood.

ARRESTED IN POLAND.

WASHINGTON, December 17. — Canadian Press. — The Justice Department officials would not discuss last night the arrest of Wolfe in Warsaw, Poland, as a suspect in connection with the Wall street explosion. It was indicated however that official reports from Poland were expected by the Department, and that further details would then be available.

Efforts by the Department to trace the perpetrators of the crime, are undersood to have included the co-operation of the police of a number of countries, but the Department has been guarded in any discussion of any clues, in order to avoid disclosing information.

IN MILLBROOK AND DISTRICT

"AT HOME" HELD BY THE I.O.O.F. —NEW QUARTERS OPENED— PERSONAL MENTION.

MILLBROOK, Dec. 19.—The "at home" given by the local I.O.O.F. lodge, No. 308, on Thursday evening, December 15th, to mark the occasion of the opening of their new suite of rooms, was attended by over 200 guests, and proved one of the most enjoyable social events of the season.

Mr. O. Larmer acted as chairman, and the musical programme, to which the following contributed, won warm applause, marking the appreciation of the assembled guests:

Piano solo—Miss Loretta Barnard.
Vocal solo—Mrs. G. W. Sayles.
Violin and piano duet—Mr. and Mrs. Byers.
Solo—Miss Jean Thorndyke.
Male quartette—Messrs. G. Duncan, W. Coombe, H. Johnston and G. S. Gervan.
Solo—Mrs. (Rev.) Gervan.
Monologue—Rev. G. S. Gervan.

Mr. and Mrs. Byers played more than once during the evening their selections as well as those of the others assisting with the programme, being thoroughly enjoyed. At its conclusion a vote of thanks to those taking part was moved by Mr. J. A. Vance, seconded by Mr. P. I. Bentley. After refreshments were served further entertainment was provided with cards and dancing, the music for the latter being furnished by Misses E. Elson, L. Barnard, and A. McConnachie.

The suite of extra rooms which has recently been acquired bp the Oddfellow and Rebekah lodges consists of a reception room, dining hall, kitchen and pantry, and all looked very attractve wth their newly-decorated walls, freshly grained and varnished woodwork, new furniture and various other alterations and improvements which have just been carried out.

The committee who were responsible for the success of Thursday evening's gathering included Bro. P. I. Bentley, P.G., Bro. H. A. Fallis, P.G., Bro. C. Larmer, Bro. V. R. Hunter and Bro. R. I. Fallis.

The Junior League.

The entertainment given by the Junior League of the Methodist church on Friday evening, the admission to which was something to put on the Christmas tree, proved quite successful. The gifts received, which included groceries, clothing, candies, oranges, etc., were afterward packed in a box and expressed to the Deaconess Home, Toronto, for distribution amongst needy families at Christmas time. The programme, which was well rendered and much enjoyed, was provided entirely by the juniors themselves, with the exception of a vocal solo by Mrs. Sayles, a reading by Miss Marjorie Skitch, a piano solo by Miss S. Hetherington, and a violin solo by Mr. J. L. Byam, these four being members of the senior league. The part contributed by the junior consisted of an opening chorus, "Away in a Manger," by all the members, recitations by Elsie Spence, Jean Burnham, Jean and Jack Stinson, Nelles Rowland and Hector White; piano duets by Marjorie Sayles and Gladys Tucker (the latter also playing a piano solo), and by Nelles and Lawrence Rowland; a vocal duet by Kathleen Freelove and Marjorie Sayles, and a chorus, "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," were two numbers that were especially enjoyed. The concluding number, a humorous dialogue entitled, "A Matrimonial Advertisement," created much merriment, the five characters who took part being, Bonna Robinson, Gladys Tucker, Kathleen Freelove, Jack Byam and Lawrence Ingram.

A ten-minute intermission about the middle of the programme, during which the candles were lighted on the Christmas tree and the other lights turned off, gave much pleasure, especially to the younger children. A pleasant surprise was provided for the superintendent of the Juniors when Mr. Percy Stinson, on behalf of the parents, who wished in some way to express their appreciation of her services, asked Miss Burnham to accept a beautiful bouquet of carnations and narcissus, two of the little girls, Elsie Spence and Jean Stinson, handing her the flowers. The contributions to the Christmas tree filled a good sized box which, next morning, was sent prepaid to its city destination; some few dollars in money, also donated, being likewise forwarded to the Deaconess Home for their relief work. The Christmas decorations, green boughs, bells, Santa Claus cut-outs, gold stars, etc., made the basement look very attractive for Friday evening's entertainment.

Attended Bazaar.

In spite of a rainy afternoon and bad roads, a large number attended the bazaar and afternoon tea held in the "Waverley" parlors on Saturday at 3 p.m. under the auspices of the Forward Movement Department of the Senior Epworth League, of which Mrs. G. W. Sayles is the capable vice-president.

Mr. Alvin Richards, a student at the Medical College, Toronto, is home for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Moise, teacher at Carmel School, was the guest of Mrs. W. G. Rowland on Saturday.

The weather being very stormy on Sunday Rev. Mr. Tucker received word not to attend his afternoon appointment, and gave a most interesting illustrated talk on the life of the Apostle Paul at the Methodist Sunday School, using he recently-purchased lantern for the slides.

A Short Course

Mr. F. C. Paterson, B. S. A., of Port Hope, the District Representative, has arranged to hold a short course in Agriculture here from January 3rd to 27th 1922, which will doubtless be well patronized by the young farmers of the community. Further particulars will be published when final details are definitely decided on.

Mr. J. H. Bingham having accepted a travelling salesman's position with the Ackerman and Co., of Peterboro, is removing his family to that city for permanent residence Mrs. Bingham's many friends will be pleased o learn that her health has considerably improved.

Mr. Alvin Gray is home from the Toronto University for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Graham, of Port Perry, is the guest of her mother and sister Mrs. W. H. and Miss Patience, Byam. The many friend of Mrs. Byam, senior, will be pleased to know that she has greatly improved in health since her recent illness.

Mr. William Dixon has gone to his sons in Ohio to spend the winter.

Miss Audrey Lacheur of Peterboro, was the guest of her aunt, Miss Alice Stewart for a couple of day last week.

Mrs. Stinson, senior of Janetville, is visiting at the home of her son, Mr. Percy Stinson, Centre street.

Mr. Henry Lord was a visitor to Peterboro on Saturday.

Monday, December 26th, will be nomination day this year for municipal offices for 1922. Those who have served during 1921 have given satisfaction apparently, but it seems unlikely that the present reeve and council will be re-elected by acclamation as was the case last year, since at least one of the councillods has expressed his determination to contest the reeveship. This will in all probability lead to other changes. It is possible that the bylaw for a new high school building will also have to be voted on this New Year's.

A Presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Wood of the Marsh, were recently visited by a number of Mrs Wood's former friends from Pontypool, and presented with a handsome cabinet together with an address expressing many good wishes for the future happiness of the newly-married couple A pleasant time was afterwards spent in games, music and dancing, and refreshments were served before the guests left for their various homes

The rooms were tastefully decorated with green and red streamers, Christmas bells, etc., and the bright colors combined with the attractive display on the sales tables were in pleasant contrast to the inclement weather out of doors. The counter of home made baking and candy, cream and other delicacies, was in charge of Misses E. Abbott and L. Pethick, who sold out all their wares before 5 o'clock. The table of fancy articles, which included handkerchiefs, yokes, aprons, work bags, and a host of other useful and dainty articles suitable for Christmas gifts, was looked after by Misses Stella Hetherington and Pearl Burnham, and here too there was no lack of purchasers. Mrs. P. Stinson and Miss Alice Stewart had charge of the fish pond which as usual proved a centre of attraction to the younger element, though some of the older people angled for fish, too.

Many enjoyed a cup of hot tea during the afternoon, with sandwiches and cake, the Misses Jean Burnham, Gladys Tucker, Marjorie Sayles and Kathleen Freelove making a pretty and capable quartette of waitresses. Everything was sold out at an early hour, the only regret being that more had not been provided. The total receipts were satisfactory and the committee are being warmly commended for the successful outcome of their careful planning and hours of work.

HAPPENINGS IN BETHANY

BETHANY, Dec. 19.—On Friday evening a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Driver (nee Miss Wilma Mulligan) to spend a social evening, also to present them with a cheque for $50.00.

Mr. Panton first referred to the happy occasion; then Mr. Wm. Hannah read a short address.

Mr. Driver very feelingly replied to both addresses on behalf of himself and wife, also for the gift, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in music and games. The address was as follows.

Dear Young People,—We, your friends and neighbours, have gathered here to-night to express to you on this happy occasion, the pleasure we felt when we knew you had united your lives together, and to wish you many long and happy years of married life in this neighborhood. But Douglas, we wish you to know how much we appreciated your nobility in offering your sevices to king and country and for doing your duty at the time of the great conflict, when our fair country was imperilled. It isn't so far distant that any of us have forgotten the boys who so nobly did their duty. But we also wish to express our good fellowship in a more tangible way. So we ask you and your dear wife to accept this small gift, along with the love and good wishes of this community. Signed on behalf of your many friends—James McKinnon, M. Panton, D. Cairns, committee.

Mrs. P. C. Brown and little nephew, Master Orville Spencer, spent Saturday shopping in Toronto.

Messrs. Gerald McCartney and Louis Bigelow of Toronto, are visiting at their homes here.

Miss Alice Ryley of Peterborough, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ryley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Neil motored to Peterborough on Saturday on business.

Owing to the severe blizzard which raged over this district on Sunday the different ministers in the village were unable to reach ther country appointments.

Niss Neta Wake returned home Saturday evening after a pleasant visit with friends in Lindsay.

Mr. Walter Jakeman was a business visitor to Pontypool on Friday last.

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearse, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using them until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and built up my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

How to Qualify

Cut from any bag of Monarch Flour that section containing the word Monarch and lion's head. Pin this piece of bag to your recipes when mailing. It entitles you to send in one recipe for each of the four sections for which prizes are offered. (See Prize List). Send only recipes for which prizes are offered. Write each recipe on a sheet by itself. Write on one side of paper only. Use ink. Do not copy recipes from any cook book. Enclose your signed statement that you have tried recipes and have had excellent results. The judges are well-known Domestic Science experts. Address your letter to Prize Contest Department to address given at the end of this advertisement.

Monarch is a Wonderful Flour

This contest will introduce Monarch Flour to many new users. They will find it a truly wonderful flour for cakes, puddings, pies, tarts, biscuits, buns, scones, fancy breads, muffins, gems, pancakes, dumplings, doughnuts, fritters, crullers, sauces, cookies, macaroons, wafers, shortbread, etc.

Monarch is smooth and free from lumps. It is rich, creamy white in color, velvety in texture, and takes less shortening than any other flour.

Makes Delicious Pastry

Pie crust made from Monarch Flour is exceedingly light, crisp and flaky. It makes just delicious pastry. It does not require so much kneading and mixing as other flours; it rises fast and a bag seems to last housewives a great deal longer.

Contest Closes December 31st

This contest is open to all points of Ontario where Monarch Flour is sold. Be sure and mail your recipes early. The contest for Christmas Recipes closes December 31st. Recipes mailed after that date will not be entered. Don't delay. You haven't many days left.

We believe that such splendid prizes for recipes have never before been offered in a contest. Think what you could do with any one of these handsome prizes. And don't forget that every woman mailing in a recipe to this competition will receive, free of charge, one of our New Monarch Cook Books, as soon as they are published. Write out and mail us your recipes to-night. If they are really good they are probably prize winners. And also don't forget that every recipe used will be paid for.

RARE PIECES OF CHINA USED IN BIG FILMS

Some fine old houses and table decorations of Civil War days are shown in "The Heart of Maryland," the Vitagraph special production, based on David Belasco's staged play of the same name, which will be shown at the Royal Theatre today. Nearly all the scenes were taken in the South and the Southern women took a lively interest in the production, bringing out many treasured bits of china and linen from their cedar chests for use in the picture. The old settlers took a keen interest in giving the production proper atmosphere and secured for Mr. Terriss many historic locations which give the production an educational value, as well as making it one of unusual entertainment.

That Tanlac is a wonderful medicine for delicate children is conclusively proven by the remarkable results accomplished in the cases of the three children shown in this picture.

Little Blanche Blair of Providence, R.I., age 13, gained 10 pounds; Regina McCabe, at right, age 9, of Scranton, Pa., gained 15 pounds; little Richard Leary, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was very delicate, is now in fine, robust health. The statements made by their parents are as follows:

Mr. A. M. Blair, residing at 20 Atwood Street, Providence, R. I., said: "We are just so happy over the change Tanlac has made in our little girl that we can't do or say enough to show our appreciation. She had lost nearly 20 pounds in weight and looked so frail and weak that her mother and I were both almost worried sick over her condition. Since taking Tanlac, she has already gained 10 pounds, her color is better than it ever has been and she looks and acts like a different girl."

Mrs. Catherine McCabe, 414 Dickens Ave., Scranton, Pa., said: "The 'flu' left my little Regina in such a bad condition that I have no idea she would be with me now if it hadn't been for Tanlac. It is a mystery to me how she lived on the little she was eating and was so lifeless she never even cared to play with the dolls and toys she got at Christmas. Since taking Tanlac she is as hardy and well as any child could be and has gained 15 pounds in weight. I will always praise Tanlac for restoring our little girl's health."

Richard Leary, 2312 Palethorpe St., Philadelphia, said: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Tanlac saved my little boy's life. For two years I wouldn't have been a bit surprised to have seen him drop off at any time. He had stomach trouble and many a time the gas pressed up into his chest until his heart palpitated so I thought sure he couldn't breathe but a few more gasps. But Tanlac gave him back to us strong and well and we will praise it to our dying day."

The effect of Tanlac on the delicate stomachs of the young is one of the strongest evidences of its wholesomeness as well as its unusual merit. Although a powerful reconstructive, Tanlac contains no harmful ingredients, minerals or opiates which are so often found in other medicines. Being composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to science it is purely vegetable and can be taken by the most delicate children, and does not upset or injure the weakest or most delicate stomach.

THEATRICAL MAN DEAD.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.— (Canadian Press.)— John C. Fisher, widely known theatrical manager, died suddenly here yesterday of heart disease when about to take a train for Pittsburgh. He was with his company, the Irish Players, and had just concluded a five weeks' engagement at the Olympic theatre here. Fisher was one of the producers of the famous light opera, "Florodora," which netted its owners nearly a million dollars.

WAS TROUBLED WITH HER LIVER FOR OVER 4 MONTHS

When the liver becomes slow, sluggish and torpid it is not working properly and does not supply sufficient bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products of the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in and liver troubles follow among which are, sick or billious headaches, heartburn, water brash, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, pain under the right shoulder, coated tongue, bad breath, yellow eyes, etc.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

quickly remove the secretions, clear away the effete and waste matter by acting directly on the liver, and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood.

Mrs. Alice Mehill, Napanee, Ont. writes:—"I was very badly run down for over four months. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. One day my husband brought me home a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and before I had used half of it I was much better. I only used two vials and I am a different person today.

I can safely recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to any one troubled with liver trouble."

Officials Finds Seized Whisky Keeps Radiators From Freezing.

OLEAN, N.Y., December 17. — Instead of pouring seized and condemned bootleg whisky into the river, officials here are putting it to practical use.

City-owned automobiles, the patrol waggon, the Polce Chief's machine, and the fire apparatus get regular doses of the liquor in radiators as an anti-freeze mixture.

bank by November 1st. He also swore that he heard Mr. Letellier telling Mr. Akey he wanted him to write to Drouin, but Akey answered that he was looking to Mr. Letellier and had nothing to do with Drouin.

Alex. Irwin testified that he heard Mr. Letellier say he would see "it was all right."

The Defence.

Mr. Letellier, beginning his defence, recounted how he had first met Drouin three years ago. "I have a brother-in-law at Thetford Mines, Quebec. He is a lumber man and he wanted three teams of heavy horses. I got a teelgram from him saying he was sending a man to buy the horses, and asking me if I would be kind enough to meet him. I went to the station and I had some difficulty in finding the man. I had never sees him before. Drouin bought the horses he wanted, and came back some times after that. Altogether he bought fourteen or fifteen car loads. At times I went with him in the country to help him as he could not spaek very good English."

Mr. McElderry —Did you at any tme have any financial interest in his ventures?

Mr. Letellier—Nonesoever.

Defendant said that on the day Mr. Akey's team was bought, Mr. Drouin was shipping a car load of horses which he was assembling at Dr. Robinson's barns at the corner of Charlotte and Aylmer streets.

"I saw Drouin speaking to Akey on the street. Drouin came back and told me Mr. Akey wanted too much for the team," Mr. Letellier said.

Between 4.30 p.m. and 5 p.m. the horses were led over to the cattle pens at the G.T.R. station and into a car. During that time some one asked for Drouin, and Mr. Letellier said he missed him. He was not then around the car.

"The first thing I knew the horses came along," he went on. "I think Mr. Drouin had one and Mr. Akey the other. I had no conversation with Mr. Akey about them."

Afterwards Drouin and Letellier went along Charlotte street to Akey's office.

"I think Mr. Akey was standing in the door. I told him Drouin had come to give him a cheque and he said all right. I told him Drouin would give him a cheque payable ahead as he was out of funds just then. Mr. Akey said he couldn't read or write so I wrote the cheque and Mr. Drouin signed it. I forget whether I or Mr. Drouin handed it to him."

Mr. McElderry—Were you asked by Mr. Akey to endorse it?—No sir.

You heard Akey and Bell speak of an interview or alleged interview at the automobile?—They must be mistaken.

Received Letter.

Mr. Letellier said he afterwards called to tell Mr. Akey he had received a letter from Drouin that he would pay him and the interest, but that he'd have to wait. Defendant told Mr. Poulson.

Mr. McElderry—When did Akey first make a demand on you for payment?

Mr. Letellier—In November. Mr. Akey was coming out of a barber shop just below Charlotte street. He said: "Well, did you hear from that fellow?" I said yes, that Drouin's horses and goods had been seized and he couldn't pay what he owed. Mr. Akey said I had told him I would make good the cheque and that he would hold me responsible. I thought he was joking. He said, "You said you'd pay." When Mr. Akey came to my house to get Drouin's address theer was so mention then that I was liable."

Cross-examined by Mr. Widdifield, defendant denied that he had loaned Drouin money in any of his purchases. When Drouin was going home he hadn't enough to buy his ticket and defendant loaned him $100 which had not been repaid.

Describing the making of the cheque Mr. Letellier said that when they were discussing it in Mr. Akey's office there was no paper, no blank cheque before them. He took out his own cheque book and wrote out a cheque on the Royal Bank. "I filled out. I asked both parties if it was right. Drouin put his name to it. One of us gave it to Mr. Akey. I don't remember which one."

Mr. Widdifield directed questions as to when Drouin could have bought the team from Mr. Akey. Mr. Letellier said it must have been during the short time Drouin was absent when the horses were being loaded in the car.

Mr. Widdifield—Do you expect the jury to believe that in your absence Drouin made the contract with Akey?—Yes.

Mr. Letellier denied that he had at any time beckoned to Mr. Akey on Charlotte street and asked him to sell the team to Mr. Drouin, or that he had taken part in any bargain. His only participation in the affair was in Mr. Akey's office after the horses had been loaded when the cheque was made out and Mr. Drouin signed it.

Paul C. Drouin.

Examined through an interpreter, Paul C. Drouin stated that he had bargained alone with Mr. Akey, and that it was incorrect that Mr. Letellier had promised to put up any funds.

Replying to Mr. McElderry's question as to why he had not paid the cheque Drouin said that he couldn't sell the car of horses, and he hadn't enough money to make the payment. There was no demand for horses in the Montreal market when the shipment arrived there. Nobody wanted them. He could have sold them at half price, but decided to keep them in the hope that the market might improve. Then his goods were seized and sold at a sheriff's sale to meet the claims of creditors. His debts amounted to $1135.

To Mr. Widdifield witness said he had sold Mr. Akey's horses for $450. One of the other horses brought only $4 at the sheriff's sale.

Mr. Widdifield —Did the list of creditors include Mr. Akey's name?

Mr. Drouin—I told the sheriff to write to Mr. Akey, but the letter came back.

Mr. Widdifield—So Mr. Akey was never written to as a creditor at his proper address?

Mr. Drouin— No, but they will. This isn't settled yet.

At what time did you make the deal with Akey?—About 4.30 or 4.45.

What time were the horses delivered?—They were brought to the car immediately.

Where was the deal completed?—At Mr. Akey's office.

Witness said he had made a previous offer near the G.T.R. He could speak English well enough in terms of horses and money.

WHO WILL PAY THE BOARD BILL OF FORMER KING.

Ex - Emperor Charles' Maintenance Worries the Allies.

PARIS, Dec. 19—"Who is going to pay ex-Emperor Charles' board bill?" is the problem the Allied governments are trying to solve. So far no country has come forward and offered to pay the bills left behind in Switzerland or the expenses which will follow the exile of the former monarch to Madeira.

The former king has expensive tastes. This is evidenced by the fact that the Swiss retreat cost nearly 2,000,000 francs a year to keep going. In a hurry to reach his old throne, Charles forgot several substantial obligations. These and the cost of maintaining Charles and his large family at Madeira are occupying the Allied Ambassador's Council. The total Swiss bill will exceed several million Swiss francs, apart from the establishment set up at Madeira for the former ruler of Austria-Hungary.

It is believed that the Hungarian government will pay most of the bills and the members of the Little Entente, to whose existence the suppression of monarchial adventures is essential, may bear a part of the burden. The annual expense at Madeira probably will be provided through a pension, wholly or partly paid by Hungary. In this the Little Entente may also have a share.

The fact that Charles and his family still have firm friends in Hungary is evidenced by the purchase of a 2,000,000 crown bed and bedroom suite for the ex-queen, by Budapest royalists. The bed was made of satinwood with brocade and gilt decorations. The money was raised by popular subscription. The authorities have refused to permit its display in public fearing royalists riots, so the bed will be sent immediately to Madeira.

MAN IS IMPROVING.

PORT HOPE, Dec. 19.—Mr. Wm. Mercer, who met with a serious accident while at work at the Hydro sub-station, Port Hope, is improving. Forty-four thousand volts passed through Mr. Mercer's body and the shock was so severe that is registered in Trenton power house, more than forty miles away.

BIGELOW MUST PAY BALANCE OF $200

EFFECT OF VERDICT DELIVERED BY JURY IN COUNTY COURT

The jury in the case of Mahood and Havery vs. R. H. Bigelow brought in their verdict on Saturday afternoon in which they found that the Columbia automobile bought by the defendant had been misrepresented to him and at the time of the sale had been run considerably over 2,500 miles. The jury also found that there had been a conspiracy between Mahood and Havery and Barton of the automobile salesroom in Toronto to defraud the defendant Bigelow.

In this transaction Bigelow had given $500 in cash and two used cars and a promissory note for $1,300. Plaintiffs asked for payment of this note. The jury ordered the defendant to pay $1,300 to the plaintiffs, but also allow the defendant $1,100 on his counter claim. The meaning of this decision was that Bigelow shall pay the balance of $200. H. Wood was foreman of the jury. C. R. Widdifield and R. R. Hall, K.C., represented the plaintiffs and G. N. Gordon was solicitor for the defendant

MANUFACTURES OF NEW YORK INCREASE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15. — New York City produces more than one-twelfth of the manufactures of the United States, the total value of the city's manufactured products in 1919 having been $5,267,343,000, according to the census burea.

TAX COLLECTOR SHORT $2,549

HAS MADE GOOD DEFICIENCY OUT OF OWN POCKET--ASKS FOR GRANT TO COVER HIS LOSS.

Tax Collector W. J. Green being short $2,549 on his 1919 roll returned to the City Council in 1920, waited upon the City Fathers Friday night in the hope of getting some consideration for his personal loss, he having made good the shortage by mortgaging his home for $2,000 and raising the remaining deficit from other sources. The city loses nothing.

How the shortage occurred has never been ascertained, despite a close audit of Mr. Green's books by an expert auditor at a cost, with other audits, of $[illegible]00; and the collector has been open and above board with Council regarding his deficit from the moment he discovered the shortage in actual missing cash, which cannot be traced through the books. The auditor commended Mr. Green's methods in some respects, but advised the adoption of a better office system to safeguard against a recurrence of shortage in future.

Mr. Green gave figures from 1918 statistics showing his present salary to be below that paid tax collectors in such locailties as St. Thomas and Sherbrooke, and suggested that in that circumstance Council might see their way clear to at least partly reimburse him for his personal loss.

Ald. Whitehouse was quite satisfied of Mr. Green's honesty and thought he should get some consideration by this year's Council.

Ald. Hay regretted Mr. Green's misfortune, but contended that he should have adopted systematic precaution to avoid the possibility of shortage. Still he thought Council should provide the tax collector with a better office system. However, he warned Council not to jump into voting money they might be called to account for and advised securing legal advice on the matter.

Ald. Whitehouse— "The auditor spoke highly of Mr. Green; the money might have been stolen.

Ald. Crowe, in moving for no action, remarked that Mr. Green is paid for assuming a responsible position, and should fill that position efficiently. The ratepayers should not be asked to make good his deficiencies, "and I for one won't vote for any such proposition."

Ald. Hay admitted that there might be a moral obligation on Council in not having provided Mr. Green with an efficient office system, but he did not advocate Council complying with the tax collector's request.

Ald. Jones urged that Council be not too hasty in this matter, which that the question be referred to the Ald. Hamilton and Crowe moved calls for serious thought.

Finance committee, and that they secure the Solicitor's advice before fore suggesting any action either way.

This, in carrying, means that Mr. Green's request is probably shelved so far as the present Council is concerned.

Ald. Turner pointed out that part of the duties of a tax collector is to make good any shortage, and to that end he is bonded. He was not sure but that ratepayers could issue an injunction to restrain Council from reimbursing Mr. Green, wholly or partly. And here the Finance Minister emphasized the city's financial position by the declaration that if Council finishes the year within its appropriations they will be doing well. He questioned very much if there would be any funds from which to make a grant to Mr. Green; such money would have to come out of next year's appropriations. In any event he advised very strongly consulting the City Solicitor in this connection.

Ald. Phelan concurred in these views, but advocated proper office facilities for the tax collector, including a strong vault.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL. Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press).—The local Stock Exchange, in spite of the fact that important merger of the Merchants' Bank with the Bank of Montreal was expected to be the basis of some spirited trading this week, opened in a quiet manner this morning, and during the first half-hour only a few of the leaders appeared on the tape. There, with the exception of Atlantic Sugar, which fell off a half point to 26, were unchanged.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, Dec. 19.—(Canadian Press).—Trading in Toronto Rails and Brazilian accounted for more than half the business transacted on the local Stock Exchange this morning. Toronto Rails was stronger, selling up to 67½, a gain of 1½ for the morning. Brazilian was off ¼ point at 28 5-8. Bank stocks were lightly dealt in, with Union Bank showing weakness, sales of an even dozen shares going through at 140, a loss of four points from Saturday's closing, and compared with 146 on Friday. Commerce was off 1 point at 186, also on light dealings. Bonds quiet.

FINANCIAL AND MARKETS

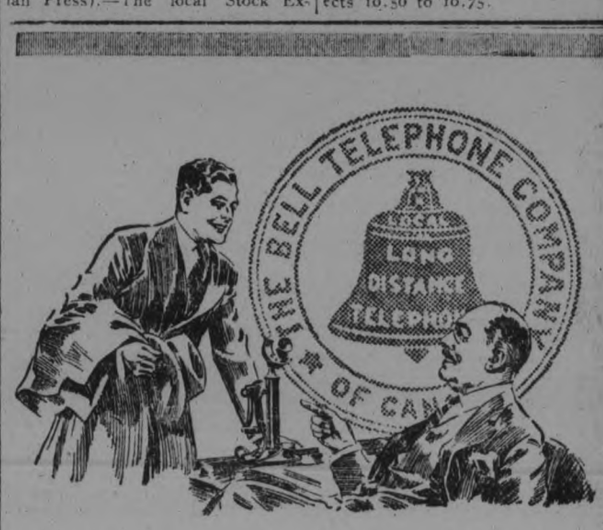
NEW YORK, December 19. Canadian Press. — Coalers added to last week's gains at the opening of today's stock market. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western advanced almost 2 points on reports of a possible cash distribution to stockholders. Domestic oils strengthened with secondary Steels and Equipments, as well as Leathers, Tobaccos and Utilities, the latter including Montana Power. Declines of 1 point in Mexican and Pan-American Petroleums, were associated with advices from Standard Oil sources which emphasized adverse conditions in the Mexican oil fields. Sugars, Sears, Roebuck & Famous Players also eased. Preliminary quotations of leading foreign exchanges were mostly above last week's final prices.

Rails continued to represent the constructive side of the market during the morning. In addition to leading coalers, Atchison, Great Northern, New York Central, Pittsburg & West Virginia, St. Louis and San Francisco, and New Orleans, Texas & Mexico rose 1 to 2 points. Chemicals, Fertilizers, Tobaccos and Chain Store issues also extended their gains, but oils, sugars, motors, tometals became more reactionary. The more popular steels and equipments showed no material changes.

Foreign exchanges made further recoveries on the announcement of the $30,000,000 loan to Denmark.

Call money opened at 5%.

Irregularity became more marked at mid-day although money was comparatively easy and freely supplied. Rails were the only issues to hold or add to their gains. Standard oil of New Jersey showed an extreme loss of almost four points. Mexicans were under further press-



Wish them Merry Xmas by Long Distance

"SO you're not going home for Christmas?"

"Afraid I can't afford it this year. It's going to be very lonely here too! I'll get letters, of course, but how I do want to talk to them, be one of 'em!"

"Why that's simple. I can't go home either, but I'm going to call my Christmas greeting to every one of my folks personally—talk to them by Long Distance. I'll wager I'll almost be able to smell the good old turkey cooking."

"What a splendid idea! I'm so glad you made me think of it. Christmas won't be such a lonely day after all. Long Distance will give mother the feeling that I'm not so far away!"

That's just what Long Distance is going to do for distant relatives, sons, daughters, to make the "Merry Christmas" real—bring the missing one so close that the loneliness and pain of separation will be forgotten in the joy of hearing the dear voice again.

Station to Station service with low Evening and Night Rates has brought Long Distance within the reach of everyone.

If you have many calls to make we can perhaps arrange to have them follow each other with only slight intermission.

THE MONTREAL MARKET

MONTREAL, December 19. Canadian Press. — Saturday's trading in the cash grain market was again dull. There was nothing new to report in the flour situation. Mill food demand was fairly active. The baled hay market was quiet. A fair amount of business passed in mill feed at the recent price advance. Eggs are being dealt in actively and the undertone to the market was firm. There is nothing of importance to report in butter and cheese.

DECEMBER 26TH HOLIDAY.

OTTAWA, Dec. 19.— (Canadian Press.)—Christmas coming on Sunday this year, Monday, December 26th will be observed as a holiday throughout the Dominion. An order-in-council providing for this has been passed. Another order provides for paying the temporary employees of the Civil Service on the 22nd of the month, instead of on the last day. It has been customary to do this for some years. It is probable that provision will be made for the observation of the Monday following New Years as a holiday also.

MALTA ENJOYS ORIGINAL TYPE OF GOVERNMENT.

Based on the Principles of Responsible Self-Administration, Subject to Limitations.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—(By Canadian Press.)—In connection with the opening of the new Parliament of Malta by the Prince of Wales while on his way to India a good deal of significance is attached to this latest phase of the constitutional development of the British Commonwealth, according to the Malta correspondent of the London Times. It marks the introduction, in the dependent Colonial Empire, of a new type of government based on the principle of responsible self-government long recognized in the Dominions, but subject to definite limitations laid down in the interests of Imperial security. It is the Colonial counterpart of the great constitutional experiment now being tried in India. It is regarded as the recognition of the principle that responsible government cannot be confined to the Dominions, but is worth developing in every part of the Empire to the extent to which local conditions render it possible.

Two Factors

In Malta these local conditions comprise two factors between which, on the old lines of approach, no satisfactory compromise seemed possible. The one is the fact that Malta, as the pivot of British sea-power in the Mediterranean and a vital link in the chain of British communications to the East, has an Imperial importance which is believed to entirely transcend its importance as a local community. The other is the fact that this local community is one which on every other ground would normally be entitled to administer its own affairs.

The Maltese are essentially Southern Europeans. As such their claim to political liberty would seem to be inherently as good as that of any of the other Mediterranean islanders—Sicilians, Corsicans, Majorcans or Cretans—who form part of the body politic of adjoining free nations. The affairs of Malta, however, include matters regarded by the British Government as not merely of local interest but of vital importance to the whole Empire.

In spite of the almost continuous agitation, the Maltese never received more than a minority representation on the Legislative Council until 1887. In that year a new constitution was set up giving the elected members a substantial majority, but still retaining in the Imperial interests the executive power in the hands of the Governor and of his officials. The Maltese politicians refused to co-operate. They abstained from the Council except for the purpose of making occasional formal protests, and concentrated their energies on criticism and agitation outside. The breach between the Government and community gradually widened, and the widespread unemployment and the tremendous rise in prices at the end of the war.

Situation in 1919

Such was the situation which confronted the new Governor, Lord Plumer, in June, 1919. The firmness and tact of the Governor quickly disposed of the immediate disturbance, but his reports on the general status of affairs in the Island were so disquieting that the then Colonial Secretary, Lord Milner, sent out his Parliamentary Under-Secretary, Col. I. C. Amery, to investigate matters on the spot. The result of these investigations was an Imperial grant of 250,000 pounds and the announcement that the people of Malta were to be entrusted with the full responsible control of their purely local affairs. It would appear that Colonel Amery was convinced that the only hopeful policy lay in freely giving the Maltese all the responsibility they had ever asked for and more than all they ever expected to get by years of agitation—safeguarding the Imperial interests by definitely setting them apart and under a separate system of Government. With the whole-hearted concurrence of the Governor, Lord Milner decided to put this bold conclusion into practice.

The main principle of this scheme is the establishment in Malta, side by side, of two concurrent systems of Government: A Government for local affairs under the complete legislative and administrative control of the people of Malta, and a Government for matters of Imperial concern, taking orders from the Imperial Government. The sphere of the former is by far the wider, and includes the whole field of national life with the exception of certain specific reservations. The chief object of those who drafted the Constitution has evidently been to secure clear definition between the two spheres, so as to avoid any confusion or overlapping, a definition "equally necessary as a safeguard of the liberties of the people of Malta and as a guarantee of Imperial security." At the same time, provision is made, through the medium of the Privy Council of Malta, for Maltese Ministers expressing their views on matters within the Imperial sphere.

General Principle

Subject to this general principle the obvious intention has been to form the Constitution as far as possible on lines suggested by the Maltese themselves, whether through their "National Assembly" or other representative bodies. The Senate is composed partly of special representatives of the Church, the nobility, the University graduates, the Chamber of Commerce and the Trade Union Council, and party of general representatives elected by proportional representation on a limited franchise. Proportional representation is also in force for the election of the Lower House.

Special care has evidently been devoted, in view of past controversies, to securing an equitable and permanent basis for the common use of the three languages of the Island—namely, English, Italian and Maltese, English and Italian are both recognized as official languages, English having a slight official precedence in the Administration, and Italian a very definite priority in the Law Courts, while both are on a footing of complete equality in the Legislature and in education. Maltese is recognized in the lower classes in the schools, and is permissible in the Legislature for purposes of speaking, though the record of the speech must be in English or Italian at the speaker's option.

Task Not Easy

The task before the new Ministry and Parliament of Malta appears not to be an easy one. The financial position is regarded as difficult, and the reduction of the one great industrial establishment in the Island, the Dockyard, to a peace footing has caused widespread unemployment and seriously affected the revenue. It is possible that more might be done to develop local industries. Perhaps the most hopeful field of development before the new Maltese Government lies in the exploitation of the unique advantages of the climate, scenery and historic and archaeological interest of the little Island. However, before visitors and their money can be attracted there on any scale it will be necessary to create the ordinary modern amenities and comfortable and up-to-date hotels.

For more permanent residents Malta offers great attractions, not the least of which, probably, is an income tax of almost trifling dimensions. Malta has a population of nearly a quarter of a million, with a substantial middleclass, and an ancient landed aristocracy.

WERE IN BELLEVILLE.

BELLEVILLE, December 19.—Detectives Boyd and Ward, who took part in the arrest of the gang of young men at Kingston, accused of the murder of Police Constable Board of Napanee, and of other crimes, were in Belleville last week. They left before noon for Toronto where they will take up the matter with the Attorney General's Department.

FOUND GUILTY.

BELLEVILLE, December 19—W. Mindle, a young man from Stirling, was found guilty at the sessions here of uttering a forged cheque of the amount of $13 and some cents which has been altered to read $43. The youth was remanded for sentence at the close of the court by Judge Deroche.

On the charge of forgery the jury could not agree and so reported.

TONICS FOR THE HAIR

There are various treatments for the hair that are tonics. A shampoo with an antiseptic soap is a tonic because it cleanses the scalp thoroughly. An egg shampoo is a tonic because the sulphur in the egg yolk is good for the hair. A thorough sunning whenever the weather permits is one of the best possible tonics, because there is something vitalizing in the warmth of the sun's rays. And a gently stimulating massage of the scalp every day using only the finger tip, is a tonic because it brings up the blood to the roots of the hair. Sage tea is a tonic, but it is difficult to use. Even the henna shampoo is sufficiently good for the hair to be considered a tonic.

WINTER IN ALGONQUIN PARK.

Every year the number of winter vacationists to Algonquin Park is increasing, and many prefer the dry, clear, cold atmosphere of this delightful region (2,000 feet above sea level) to the more enervating climate of the south. "The Highland Inn" offers exceptionally good accommodation, and as it is owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway, patrons are assured good service. The hotel will be open for the winter season from Dec. 15th until March 15th. The Park is 200 miles north of Toronto and a through sleeping car is operated between Toronto and the Park Tuesdays and Fridays, returning Wednesdays and Saturdays. An illustrated booklet describing the winter sports, handsomely illustrated, will be sent free upon application to any Grand Trunk Ticket Agent, or C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

Tracked and Betrayed by Her Own Beauty

Wanted for Murder, the Tennessee Girl Was Hunted and Cornered Just Because She Couldn't Help Being Lovely

"With her went the ghost of another girl—who leveled an accusing finger and whispered that the beauty of Maude Moore had 'double-crossed' her who was Helen Hope."

Maude Moore as She Appeared Before the Tragedy.

Maude Moore as She Looked Following Her Flight, When She Had Disguised Herself and Changed Her Name to Helen Hope.

"There she killed him. Whether—as she declared—she shot to save her honor or——"

NO fatal finger-print was Maude Moore's undoing. No scar. No tongue slip. None of the usual traps that clutch criminals. It was her own beauty—the curve of her lips and the tilt of her nose—that exposed her after a year of desperate flight, stretched a long reach across the continent, and dragged her back to a prison cell and a charge of murder.

She had fooled them all—the sleuths of a nation. They had come to the end of the trail, completely stumped. Though every police station from Ambrose Light to the Golden Gate posted her description, though every newspaper in the country published her picture, though fifty million people itched to find Maude Moore and collect $2,000 reward, she out-tricked them, every one.

Had she been plain, Maude Moore's disappearance would still be one of America's unfathomed mysteries. She tried desperately to transform herself—shaved her head, dyed her hair, swapped smiles for frowns, learned new ways of walking and different mannerisms of talking. But she could not kill beauty. Under the mask it always lurked, until the day when it caught the eye of an Irish policeman and led him to his life's most spectacular capture, where he had expected only a harmless flirtation.

Maude Moore always had been a pretty girl. Even in school in Knoxville, Tenn., little boys drew hearts on their scratch-pads circling the initials "M. M." In business college the professors smiled when she was late. After graduation she got a job in the first office she entered, a lawyer's. Her beauty—then—was her trump card. She little realized that one day it was to betray her in a game where her whole happiness was the stake.

At twenty—in the language of the curb-stone bloods of Knoxville—Maude Moore was "a looloo." Leroy Harth, just out of college, owner of a flashy racing car, "money to burn," saw her and agreed with the town boys' verdict. When he suggested a spin one night and she accepted, Harth set his racer streaming toward the lonely highway known to Knoxville's sporty set as "Lovers' Lane."

There she killed him. Whether—as she declared—she shot to save her honor, or—as he gasped before he died—it was an attempted robbery, is not important here. Only the stars and the ghostly pine trees along "Lovers' Lane" know the truth. What is important is that Maude Moore was tried, convicted and sentenced to twenty-one years in the penitentiary.

The horror of that fate hanging over a young girl just budding into the golden stage of womanhood cannot be visualized by those who have never known the crush of concrete walls and the chill of iron bars. Though the higher court granted her a new trial and hope for acquittal seemed bright, Maude Moore could not shake off the nightmare thought of twenty-one years shut out from all that made life sweet. Why, in twenty-one years she would be past forty—an old woman!

That was the fear lashing at her back on the night when she flung a few clothes into her bag at her mother's home and stumbled into the darkness. Two days later, when the case of the State vs. Maude Moore was called for the second time in the Knoxville Superior Court, no defendant answered. Maude Moore from that hour became a fugitive and an outlaw.

Rarely in a long list of famous man-hunts has there been such a hue and cry as followed. Her two bondsmen, R. E. Boring and Edward McNew, facing a forfeiture of $10,000, spurred the chase, which soon became a clamoring wolf pack on Maude Moore's trail.

The telegraph wires sang her description to a thousand cities. The mails carried her picture North and South. "Two thousand dollars reward!" blazed the posters in every metropolitan police station and every rural post office. "Two thousand dollars reward!" shouted the newsboys of New York and Kankakee. "Two thousand dollars reward for any information leading to the whereabouts and capture of Maude Moore!" announced newspapers; from metropolitan dailies to four-page country weeklies.

The hunt for Maude Moore intrigued every household in the nation. Cape Cod fishermen, far out at sea, tacked Maude Moore's picture over their bunks. Mississippi negroes, loafing at the cross-roads store, spelled out Maude Moore's name and wondered how much corn whiskey $2,000 would buy. Texas cowboys mused on Maude Moore as they rode range. The police sought her in San Francisco's Chinatown, on the New York Bowery, along the twisty streets of New Orleans' French quarter, among the cabarets of the Chicago Loop, at the Mexican border and the Canadian line. Maude Moore's face and Maude Moore's ways were implanted in the minds of millions.

But Maude Moore, herself, had vanished like so much mist. One hundred and four women were arrested in as many different cities on suspicion that they were Maude Moore, only to be released when identification failed. Thirty-four times Boring and McNew boarded a railroad train at Knoxville, went South or East or West, looked some trembling girl in the face and sighed, "No, she is not the one."

Days became weeks and weeks months and Maude Moore remained as lost as Dorothy Arnold.

What guardian angel hovered over Maude Moore during all this time, guarding her from capture?

"Just luck," she said, a year later. And luck it was—the miraculous luck of a girl menaced at every step by the tell-tale charm of her own face and her own figure.

Night cloaked her when she fled from her mother's home. Otherwise she surely would have been recognized by the taxi driver who carried her to Clinton, Tenn., twenty miles away, where she hopped a train for Danville, Ky. By the time her description and her pictures were beginning to flood the country, she had staved off her pursuers by swift journeys from town to town and drastic alterations in her appearance.

In the first moment of her flight Maude Moore determined to blot out Maude Moore as completely as nature would let her. The glossy black hair was snipped away. The surviving curls were given a peroxide bath that bleached them yellow. Hours were spent in perfecting a mincing walk in place of the old free stride. The musical contralto died; in its stead was born a nasal treble. Finally there came the moment when Maude Moore, standing before her mirror in a cheap St. Louis boarding house, resolved to mutilate her face. Hair, voice, carriage, gestures, even her sunny smile she had slain. But the clear gray eyes, the bee-stung lips and the profile of her oval cheeks and tilted nose were Maude Moore's portion from God. She could not change them, unless——

The girl lifted one hand. It held the tiny vial of vitriol she had bought that afternoon in an isolated drug store. One flip of the fingers and the acid would burn away beauty forever. There would be horrible pain, torture in the hospital, but there would also be freedom from fear.

The hand gripping the vial shook. White face peered at white face, gray eyes gazed at gray eyes, parted lips trembled. Beauty beheld beauty. Suddenly the vial smashed to the floor in fragments, and Maude Moore flung herself across the bed in a storm of sobs.

She could not do it—kill her most cherished treasure, her looks. And so, though it was Helen Hope in name and hair and speech who fled onward from St. Louis, it was still Maude Moore in beauty.

It was Helen Hope who dressed herself in boy's clothes and boldly sought a job at the mines in Billings, Montana. But it was Maude Moore who shrank from the foreman's quizzical inspection and failed to return the next morning at the hour he said to report.

It was Helen Hope who tripped down the streets of Seattle on the way to the stenographer's job she finally landed, but it was Maude Moore who almost bumped into the prosecution's star witness at her first trial—it was Maude Moore who huddled against the nearest shop window, praying for the man to pass, singing a paen of joy when he did.

Again, it was Helen Hope who swung jauntily into an elevator in a Seattle office building, but it was Maude Moore who saw in the back of a man entering just ahead of her the back of Edward McNew, her own bondsman—saw it just in time to jump out and away before he turned.

After such narrow escapes as these, how Helen Hope, looking at Maude Moore's beauty in every mirror and every reflecting window pane, must have dreaded Maude Moore and upbraided her for not having the courage to kill entirely the girl who was Helen Hope's peril!

"Some day," whispered Helen Hope to Maude Moore, "that beauty of yours will be your betrayer, my dear!"

And it was. But not until many months had passed. Not until Helen Hope had met young William Stubbs. Not until Maude Moore had further hidden her identity by becoming Mrs. William Stubbs and settling down in Tacoma like a good little housewife with a kitchen and a garden and a husband who never suspected for one instant that he had married a girl who was being hunted the length and breadth of America as an escaped murderess.

Mrs. William Stubbs strolled in her little garden, not so many days ago, pruning rose bushes, when a Tacoma policeman strutted along the street. He was no Sherlock Holmes. No Vidocq. Just an ordinary policeman with an Irish laugh and an Irish eye for every roguish little peach on the beat.

He noticed the quaint white bungalow. He observed the bonny beauty in the sunbonnet. He stopped and glanced up.

"Have a rose?" she asked, cheerfully.

"Sure, and I thank you!"

The Irish policeman took away the rose and the memory of a pair of clear gray eyes, a bee-stung mouth and a dazzling smile. The memory stayed with him for hours—until he walked into headquarters and a head-on collision with the likeness of the lady of his thoughts tacked on the wall under the caption, "$2,000 Reward."

When the police came, Mrs. Stubbs confessed she was Maude Moore. They took her back to Knoxville and to trial for Leroy Harth's murder. With her went the ghost of another girl—a girl with bleached hair and a mincing walk, who leveled an accusing finger and whispered that the beauty of Maude Moore had "double-crossed" her who was Helen Hope.

A PRESS AGENT CENSOR

GIVES REPORTERS SO MUCH THEY GET NOTHING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. — Lord George Allardice Riddell is something of a conundrum. He is the super-press agent of the British government, but he belongs on the stage—in social drama or high grade comedy.

No chronicle of the personalities of this Conference would be complete without Lord Riddell—one of the prime exhibits of the notable gathering. Tired journalists drag themselves wearily down to the delegation offices, giggle a bit with Lord Riddell and come away refreshed if not informed. He is David Lloyd George's left hand; until the Little Welshman came into power and made publicity a frank weapon of British government. Riddell was a wealthy publisher who played a good game of golf and did not care much how he dressed.

Today—well, he is Lord Riddell with every waking moment spent in company with the great. The confidant of Balfour, the instructor of lesser delegates, he is the voice of authority tempering the enthusiasm of the inexperienced among the delegates with the guile of Downing Street.

A Solicitor at 23

There is not much to say about his past, for the simple reason that he doesn't talk about it. He was born in 1865, and was known as George Riddell. He married the daughter of W. D. Allardice, a country gentleman of Cheshire, and became George Allardice Riddell. When he was 23 years old he was admitted as a solicitor. And that is all, until you take up his career at the point where he appears as a successful publisher.

It is said he owns, or controls, or has an interest in 70 periodical publications in Great Britain, and it is usual to refer to him as the most influential British publisher, next to Northcliffe. There is, of course, no comparison between the two men; not the least in the world.

Northcliffe has always had, has now, and will have as long as he lives the instinct and aptitude for editing; Riddell is conspicuously and exclusively the publisher, the organizer of business offices, and founder of substantial underpinnings for journalistic enterprises.

Under the rose it is whispered darkly that he is a Scot, but that may be a professional canard, it being desperate belief on the part of all writing men that the business office is run always by Scotchmen.

His Chief Pride

Of his numerous publishing enterprises he is most proud of his great weekly paper, the News of the World. This is one of a group of similar newspapers, the People, Lloyd's Weekly News and Reynold's Weekly being others intended for Sunday consumption by the working and middle classes after the roast is finished.

Journalistically the News of the World is not of a high calibre, but as a resume of the darker side of life as shown in the police courts during the week, and as an index to current sports, it is remarkably complete.

A word is due this astonishing paper, for it is an important development in the history of journalism. It was established in 1843 and passed from father to son through three generations, before reaching its present owners, of whom Lord Riddell is the chief. It started out to sell at 6 cents and the original publisher, John Browne Bell, printed a declaration in his first issue promising not to raise that price, and added that his policy was: "Our motto is truth; our practice is the fearless advocate of truth."

In 12 years the paper had reached the, then, astonishing circulation of 250,000, but adherence to the 6 cent price, when competition arrived, permitted this to drop until it passed to the Riddell group; since then it has swollen to more than 3,000,000, using a trifle of 6,000 miles of paper a week. This recovery was due to the good-will the paper had established, but it is interesting to observe that the paper which had the largest circulation in 1850 is the paper with the largest circulation today.

Its Earnings Small

Lord Riddell has stated that the returns from it, nevertheless, are under 5 per cent. Incidentally, it was the first paper to give an auditor's certificate of net sales and to throw open its books to bona fide advertisers.

Among its traditions is printing the first news of the death of King Edward.

Its most famous department is its Golden Column, wherein are printed details of fortunes awaiting unknown owners.

Riddell until 1915 was chairman of directors of the Western Mail of Cardiff. Years ago he joined the board of the Newnes Co. Sir George Newnes, it will be recalled, in his Strand Magazine, first introduced Sherlock Holmes to the public. Both Lord Riddell and Sir Frank Newnes are directors of Pearson's (in England), whose famous Pearson's Weekly is a revival of Northcliffe's Answers and also of Tit Bits. A good story is told, this writer believes, by H. Simonis is his "Street of Ink" about Pearson's Weekly and its early struggles. There was an influenza scare, and someone suggested that if Pearson's could supply its readers with eucalyptus it would make a hit. Pearson got all the available eucalyptus supply and an entire edition was saturated with it. For weeks persons went around with a copy of Pearson's Weekly under their vest.

There is no excuse for including this story here, because it happened before Riddell's participation in the directorate, but it has been clamoring to be told for three years.

Lord Riddell's trade mark, as expressed by himself, is: "News of the People, for the People."

He enjoys the distinction of not owning a single London daily.

Riddell first brought himself to the attention of newspaper correspondents generally at the Peace Conference in Paris, where the word got passed around that seeing Riddell was, in fact, seeing Lloyd George. Then, when British affairs moved back to London, Lord Riddell was found to be a fairly prominent liason officer between Mr. George and the government on the one side and the press on the other.

Of course they do things differently over there, and the publisher of a weekly newspaper may not have much interest in the anxieties of a daily press. For example, when the Germans were in London, almost a year ago, Riddell was to meet the correspondents after the morning sessions of the conference, but he announced firmly that he must have his lunch first and put off the correspondents until 2:30 P.M., thus freezing the most important editions of the afternoon papers.

But in Washington, Lord Riddell tries hard to please. He is the most genial of men, and only occasionally does one see a slight film, a touch of early frost as it were, pass across his eyes. He never lets a British delegate out alone, and none is allowed in the presence of the press, without Lord Riddell is there holding an invisible chain, and cocking a knowing eye along the table.

He is getting on now in years. There was a time when his cheeks were filled out and his tall, clean-shaven figure was among the worst dressed in Fleet Street; usually he wore a very old, squashed-in hat and a shabby tweed suit. As the correct dress for Fleet Street is a smart frock coat and a silk hat, it was thus obvious to every eye that Riddell either was very wealthy or a personage. He was both.

In Washington he still wears a crushed-in felt hat, but has with it a long ulster reaching to his ankles. Coat and hat off and one perceives that he dresses now like a butler, a costume thoroughly in sympathy with his features. These have thinned and sharpened, and the full length of his face has become in some way shortened.

Standing there with his head up, chin drawn in, thin lips drawn in and extending wide on either side, and a bland look of attention for his questioner, you feel without raising the point at all that the silver will be absolutely safe and the wine cellar practically inviolate, even if the family remains away six months.

His hair has crept backward and downward to just above the ears, where it is a deferential grey; he wears an old little pair of nose glasses, with a straight bar across the top, which snaps into place on a string. He talks nimbly and well, as becomes a man famous for his after dinner anecdotes and sparkling toasts.

In his two-a-day conferences, Lord Riddell is at his best. If he used a word not common to the general run of American conversation, he inserts it so gracefully that it strikes no one as unnatural. If a term unfamiliar to him is used by an American reporter, he halts the proceedings to investigate, and adopts the word into his own vocabulary or rejects it.

He throws in a little story here or there, a scrap of history or a bit of gossip, and has a quaint way of putting his own case, which always has the correspondents laughing with him.

He is the exact reverse of accepted British diplomats and publicists. His method is bold, and even startling. He makes news, as the saying goes. The trouble is, however, that it is rarely the sort of news which contributes to permanent action. He points out the scenery to right and left, but remains on his gait, but of course, the correspondents perforce remain there, too, hoping for a signal, if not a portent.

Lloyd George discovered his capacity; Lloyd George made him first a baronet, then a baron. He served Lloyd George and his position as official spokesman has made him the focusing point of every newspaper man and woman in Washington.

What is his capacity? Hear an admirer, one who has worked for him, speak: "He is a master of organization, personification of shrewdness and business ability and a man with the power of stripping a problem to its bare essentials."

Recovering from this blast, this reporter rises weakly to remark that Lord Riddell is also the human vacuum sweeper, for he gathers up every scrap of intelligence concerning the inner motions of the British delegation, and dumps it all carefully out of sight.

Yet he makes us like it. He tells such good stories.

UNUSUAL DRESS

The upper part of this frock which has made a special point of sleeves and skirt, is of fine blue twill finished with very wide black silk braid. Under this is worn a blouse of daring red crepe de chine which is gathered into plain little bands at neck and wrists.

MOSCOW GOVT. TO LEASE THEATRES.

MOSCOW, Dec. 19. — The Moscow Soviet has announced that the Musical Drama Theater, the Lutetia Misch and two other theaters which the local city government has supported will be leased to private concessionaires and has asked Russian theatrical managers to submit proposals for taking over the theaters and operating them as private enterprises.

This is in accordance with the general policy of the Moscow Soviet to follow the example of the central governments and unload responsibilities which have been too great a tax on its bread supply, fuel supply and power of organization.

Here the Postmaster General is examining a section of glass that has been subjected to the fire of a 45 at 50 feet. The bullets did penetrate the glass, but not until several magazines had been exhausted.

MOSCOW GOVERNMENT REVISING THE TARIFF.

MOSCOW, Dec. 19. — (Associated Press.)—A special commission has been created for the purpose of revising the customs tariffs of the old government, in furtherance of the project permitting individuals and corporations to export and import with the approval of the Commissariat for Foreign Trade. Orders have been issued that the revision of tariffs applying to European Russia shall be completely by December, and those for Asiatic Russia a month later. The government is resolutely refusing to permit foreigners to reclaim furniture, office equipment or other property owned by them when the Bolshevik took over power.

Thank God for friends your life has known,

God gives, but does not take away;
He only safely keeps above
For us the treasures that we love..

RECOVER BULLION FROM LAURENTIC.

Nearly $28,000,000 Have Been Salvaged.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—Nearly $28,000,000 worth of bullion has been recovered from the liner Laurentic, which was sunk in January, 1917, off the North coast of Ireland by a German submarine.

Operations have been suspended for the winter, but they will be resumed again in the spring when an effort will be made to recover the remaining $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of bullion which is said to be still at the bottom of the sea.

Great difficulties have been encountered by the salvage crew, for after three years' pounding by the Atlantic swells the liner has been transformed into a heap of twisted debris. Her decks, which settled down on the sea bottom, cover an area of several hundreds of feet. The wreck was practically covered with gravel and silt, as it is in a position which it received the full force of the Atlantic gales.

This obstruction had to be removed, as far as possible, by powerful pumps placed in position by the divers, as the gold was at the bottom of the huge mass of wreckage.

MONTREAL SHIPPING SEASON.

MONTREAL, Dec. 19.— (Canadian Press.)— The shipping season of the port of Montreal for 1921 was a record one with a total of 807 Trans-Atlantic steamers having a net tonnage of 2,598,494 tons and representing an increase of 169 vessels or 577,975 net tons over the 1920 total, and of 105 ships or 556,856 tons over that for 1919, which was the highest previous year.

The local harbor had the longest navigation season this year in all its history, opening March 29, and closing December 14.

DEFAMATION OF CHARACTER.

MONTREAL, December 17. Canadian Press. — Shouting that he had beeen robbed of $35,000 by Hon. Rodolphe Monty, Secretary of State in the Meighen Government, Chas. Baum, a storekeeper of Verdun, was arrested in the corridors of the police court here yesterday afternoon, after Mr. Monty had sworn out a warrant against him for defamation of character and libellous utterances in a public place.

He was committed to the cells while awaiting preliminary enquete on December 23rd, and was recommended for medical examination. No bail was applied for or allowed.

A Job For Every Man Prosperity For All.

Mr. Retailer——

IN 1913 you were able to sell a good suit or overcoat for $25.

In 1920—at the price peak—conditions were such that you were compelled to ask approximately $65 for that same quality suit or overcoat. Today you are offering it for $43.

This illustration can be used as an example of price conditions in many lines.

If the manufacturer and the wholesaler will supply you with goods at replacement cost—and it is claimed that in various lines this is now being done—will you adopt a similar policy by marking down goods purchased at higher prices and sell same at replacement values?

Do not forget that extra turnover would not only give you the same amount of profit but would result in a larger circulation of goods with the consequent improvement to manufacturing interests, which, in turn, would mean employment.

Adopt this policy and you will be rewarded two-fold. Your action will create confidence in the public mind and stimulate buying. You will then be doing your share in this general plan of co-operation to ——

Published by Authority of the Ontario Government on the advice of the Provincial Advisory Committee on Unemployment.

Plan of Co-operation.

The Provincial Advisory Committee on Unemployment considered the industrial situation and endorses the following statement of proposals:—

1.—That Manufacturers should be asked to take a price for goods on hand equal to the cost of replacement having regard to decreased cost of raw material and of labor used in manufacture.

2.—That Wholesalers should be asked to sell goods on hand at replacement prices.

3.—That Retailers should be asked to sell at replacement prices.

4.—Knowing that the costs of building at the present time have been considerably reduced, those desiring to build should be encouraged to ask for new tenders on their proposed work; and that building contractors and builders' supply people should make a special effort to reduce prices to a minimum in order to restore this important key industry.

5.—That Banks and financial institutions should be prepared to co-operate to the utmost with all productive enterprise by allowing all reasonable credits and by decreasing rates as rapidly as conditions may allow.

6.—That Farmers should be asked to maintain reasonable production, and in the event of a proportionate reduction being reached in other lines, should be prepared to make needed improvements and betterments.

7.—That Labor shall be asked to take willingly a reduction in wages proportionate to progressive decrease in cost of living, in so far as such a reduction has not already taken place.

The above statement has been submitted to and endorsed by the following interests—manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, building industries, agriculture, financial interests and the veterans.

PLAYERS SIGN CERTIFICATES

CLUBS IN TWO LOCAL O. H. A. GROUPS MEET HERE TO ARRANGE SCHEDULE.

Local hockey players who had changed their place of residence since January of this year, and were required to send affidavits along with their certificates to the O.H.A. on or before December 20, have met this ruling of the association, and the documents are now in Toronto. The affidavits were taken, and the certificates signed on Saturday. Thus is completed the first lap of the journey through the O.A.A. season of 1922.

Draft Schedules Here.

Clubs in the two local groups will be represented at a meeting to be held in the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock, for the purpose of arranging the schedules. Lindsay, Lakefield, and P.A.A.A. are in the Intermediate group, and Uxbridge, Lindsay, Lakefield, Holy Name Society and P.A.A.A. make up the Junior group.

City Leaguers Busy.

The schedule for the City League will be drawn up at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday night. The clubs are busy signing players from a supply that is not limited by any means. There will likely be a number of new faces on the four teams when the bell rings for the opening double bill.

Intercollegiate Series.

Mr. C. S. Brown, of the P.C.A. teaching staff, has been elected secretary-treasurer of the Central Intercollegiate Hockey League, in which P.C.I. and St. Peter's will be represented this winter.

The Rotary Cup, presented by the Rotary Club of Oshawa, and won last year by Oshawa High School, will again be the trophy for which the teams will compete. Indications are that several more schools will enter the league before the date of closing entries, which is December 22nd.

The clubs in the league have been arranged in five groups of which the conveners are: M. Babcock, of Napanee; C. S. Browne, Peterborough; M. L. Schultz, Cobourg; W. J. Morrison, Bowmanville, and J. A. Gerrow, Port Perry.

The Executive of the P.A.A.A. will hold a meeting at the Y.M.C.A. to-night at 8 o'clock.

P. C. I. RUGBY BOYS ROTARIANS' GUESTS

CONGRATULATED ON RECORD FOR CLEAN SPORTSMANSHIP

Twenty-two officers and players of the P. C. I. Rugby team were the guests of the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon to-day, and the presence of the College boys added a unique touch to the proceedings, and gave the students a glimpse of what is back of Rotary. Behind the curtain of good fellowship there lies a serious effort by a group of men to assist underprivileged boys.

Rotarian Harold Young presided, and President Fred. Roy welcomed the P. C. I. boys and congratulated them on the record they made in the rugby series, and the even greater record of being clean sportsmen — boys who "played the game."

Walter Smaill, director of athletics for the P.A.A.A., gave an address on boys' work, with particular reference to the Canadian standard efficiency tests and the Tuxis boys.

Rotarian W. R. Breyfogle reported on work being done for crippled children, and Rotarian Wallace Buntin made an appeal for several boys he is trying to help that will not go unanswered.

Members to-day were allotted the families they will assist at Christmas.

with the best performances of Mr. Renwick and his choir. In the opening "All Hail Immanuel" and in the closing "Glory to God" and "Come All Ye Faithful," the choir put a message of joy into their singing that was most notable. The conductor's peculiar ability to secure striking effects was evidenced in the men's chorus "Through the silent street list the tramp of feet." This was intended to represent the marching of soldiers in the distances, their coming nearer, their passing presence and their departure. The nuance throughout this part was almost perfect.

Miss Doris Rathbone, who is now residing in Toronto, sang with a nice appreciation of the sentiment the number, 'Mary's Vision' with accompaniment by the choir. Her voice has lost none of its peculiar richess of tone and her musical acuteness was well exemplified in her duet with Mrs. Renwick. Mr. Edward Jones, tenor, delivered the recitatives, "No King Save Caesar" and "The King Has Come," impressively and smoothly, and has seldom sung to better advantage than in this production. Miss Elva McIntyre and Mr. Charles Thorpe also acquitted themselves well. Miss McIntyre revealing a voice of exceptional sweetness and purity, especially in her lower register.

In the production of "In Excelsis," George street choir has maintained the high reputation it has established under Mr. Renwick's direction, and in this latest accomplishment a great deal of credit should be given not only to the soloists but to the individual members, basses, soprano and others who together made this cantata a choral service of praise befitting the joyous occasion of Christmas and interpreting its significance.

The price of Newfoundland cod liver oil has dropped to about $17.50 per barrel, which is less than cost of production.

ROYAL THEATRE.

In all probability every reader is acquainted with David Belasco's celebrated war play entitled "The Heart of Maryland," and many have seen the thrilling story staged. For those who have seen the play the Royal Theatre for to-night presents this drama in a way that proves the films convey a greater continuity of interest and more exact scenic interest than the stage can produce, and for those who have not seen the stage play, The Heart of Maryland, a super-feature in seven reels, as presented at the Royal, is an unusual treat. The play is based, as is above noted, on Belasco's greatest stage triumph, and is a love story of the Civil War. The old Southern mansion, used as the home of the heroine, is the grand old colonial house in which Jefferson Davis, the president of the Confederate States, was married, and in which balls in honour of Henry Clay and other leaders, were held. Old silver and China belonging to old families of the South, were used, and show perfectly. The plot, as it developes, shows that the heroine's loyalty is to the South, whilst her brother and her lover join the armies of the North. Every minute of the play is replete with some stirring dramatic interest.

Then the Royal to-night presents the second episode of the million dollar serial entitled "Breaking Through." This is a virile play and shows the plucky fight made by a girl in the Yukon mining camps for love and fortune. This is one of the strongest plays ever filmed. There are also highly amusing and clever comedies and Westerns.

Remember that the Royal is a locally owned theatre where the box office receipts are spent in Peterboro, and we are not trying to unload any stock on the public. Owing to hard times we have reduced prices to a level that all can pay.

AT THE CAPITOL

Today Capitol Offers a Splendid Picture and Vaudeville Program —Dick and Alice McAvoy, Singers, Dancers, Comedians and Harris Weska, Hawaiian Entertainer Singer Musician and Monologist Hear the Hawaiian Ukelele and real Hawaiian Songs—Wallace Reid in the "Charm School"

Twice to-day also Tuesday and Wednesday the Capitol offers a splendid program of both Vaudeville and Pictures that should attract crowds at every performance Dick and Alice McAvoy, singers, dancers and comedians, also Harris Weska, Hawaiian Entertainer.

One of the most charming figures in the new Paramount picture, "The Charm School" starring Wallace Reid, which will be shown at the Capitol Theatre to-day, is Lila Lee who plays the leading feminine role opposite Mr. Reid.

Miss Lee will be remembered as having played with Mr. Reid in "Hawthorne of the U.S.A." Since her remarkable work in such famous pictures as C. B. De Mille's "Male and Female" in which she played the little scullery maid, and later in William De Mille's production "The Prince Chap", the popularity of the little actress has increased by leaps and bounds.

In this picture she is the principal charmer of the charm school and is the other party to the romance which blossoms when Wallace Reid as Austin Bevans inherits a girls' school from his aunt and converts it into an institution where young ladies are taught how to be charming, graceful and lovely.

The supporting cast includes many popular players and fifty beautiful young girls who appear as the pupils of the young ladies' school C. E. Schoenbaum did the camera work.

"Doggone Torchy", the latest Educational-Torchy Comedy which will be shown to-day, is said to be an amusing story of the experiences of the popular red-headed office boy, Torchy, when two thugs substitute a kidnapped baby for his boss' pet dog in Torchy's grip. Torchy's futile efforts to recover the dog and lose the child are said to furnish many laughs.

For the important role of the kidnapped baby, Johnny Hines, the Torchy of the screen, used his six-months-old niece Shirley Mitchell. Mavis Mitchell, another niece, five years old, also supports Hines in the picture.

"If they are to learn their trade, they can't begin too early," said Johnny.

This combined with the best music in the city makes an entertainment wholly worth while.—Fan Fan

SHOES MADE WATERPROOF.

Oil or Grease Applied to Leather Keeps Feet Dry.

Water-proofed leather boots and shoes are very satisfactory for protecting the feet during rain or snow storms. Though they have a tendency to cause the feet to perspire, they are not as objectionable in this respect as rubber, the Department of Agriculture states.

In summer the Department advises a grease harder than that used in the winter. As there is less need for water resistant shoes in summer than in spring and winter, and because of the tendency of the heavily greased shoes to cause the feet to perspire and swell in hot weather, the quantity of grease used in summer should not exceed the amount the leather will take up without leaving the surface greasy. In winter, especially if it is desired to secure the maximum water resistance, a mixture of grease and oils that will remain soft when exposed to cold is required. More of the grease than the leather will absorb may also be used in cold weather, as an excess will do no harm, and will make the leather more water resistant.

The department suggests for such water-proofing mixtures of neutral wool grease, dark petrolatum,

CONDITIONS TO-DAY IN VOLGA SHOCKING.

Means Starvation Pure and Simple—Terrible Suffering.

LONDON, Dec. 19. — (Associated Press.)—Major Philip H. Carroll, Moscow Director of the American Relief Administration, who has just arrived in London told the newspaper men here that relief of the famine in the Volga provinces was almost beyond the capacity of charitable aid.

"Ever since June 1919, I have been engaged upon relief work in Central Europe," he said, "but nowhere have conditions been as shocking as they are on the Volga today. In other countries under-nourishment was the prinicpal cause of distress, but here it is starvation pure and simple. Our estimate is that there are 12,000,000 requiring assistance. Our most sanguine hope is to be able to keep 1,000,000 children alive through this winter. For thousands there is absolutely no hope, and the aggregate amount of suffering will be something appalling.

"Though we even have to feed children in the streets of Moscow and Petrograd, the greatest need is in the villages where the failure of the crops is most acutely felt. It is not an exaggerated fiction—would that it were!—that peasants are living on roots and bread made from a mixture of reeds and oily clay. I myself have handled this so-called bread and witnessed the terrible intestinal troubles resulting from the consumption of it.

"The Soviet government is working very well indeed to relieve the distress. They have carried out 60 percent of their seed-sowing program but at the most this cannot bring in more than one-sixth of the average summer yield. One of the most tragic things I have ever seen was the spectacle of those peasants, many of whom are facing starvation this winter, sowing their next year's grain. They admitted quite frankly that they would not live to see it harvested.

"The Soviet stopped the dangerous movement of massed refugees to the cities by sending food from Moscow and the report that we have suffered from Soviet pilfering is arrant nonsense. The pilfering had been negligible. Death is the decreed penalty for it."

Major Carroll is returning to Moscow at once. "The Volga is beginning to freeze," he said, "and no time can possibly be lost in getting food into the more remote provinces before the waterways are closed. There is a hard winter before us," he concluded.

COLONIES OF CEMENT HOUSES AT BERLIN.

At Least Half a Million Dwellings Are Needed.

BERLIN, Dec. 19 — (Associated Press.)—Infant mortality, which is increasing throughout Germany, principally in cities, has impelled a widespread movement by civic welfare associations and mothers' leagues to alleviate living conditions by securing municipal or co-operative construction of small dwellings in the suburbs. "Colonies" of cement houses, rapidly built by use of moulds, have appeared by thousands in the last few months.

While Germany has, properly speaking, no such thing as "slums," the slowing up of construction during the war produced insanitary and crowded conditions among the poorer classes. Half a million homes are required to relieve the congestion in Berlin, and reports from Hamburg say there are 1,000 families, with an average of six children to the family, living in one-room apartments. Sanitary inspectors of a number of cities report as many as 10 persons living in a single room "being born, living, eating, sleeping and dying, in a space which only two persons could healthfully inhabit."

The mortality among children in these crowded centers has been found to be vastly higher than with the children of peasants who have the advantages of space for playground, open air, and sunlight. Meanwhile, a disinclination to increase the size of apartment buildings is evident among the promoters of the "healthier children" movement.

It is pointed out that adjacent to every German city there are large tracts of untilled lands which ought to be donated to charity by the owners, many of whom are non-resident or rich and who hold the lands for speculative purposes.

AT MIDNIGHT, DECEMBER 20th
BIRMINGHAM MOTOR SHARES
ADVANCE IN PRICE TO $30.00

For some time past we have been advising that Birmingham Shares would advance in price, and the above heading fulfills another "BIRMINGHAM PROMISE."

These shares, as well as all shares of the Parent Company, which have been sold here, will be convertible, at the option of the purchaser, for Shares in Birmingham Motors of Canada, Limited, at the ratio of two Canadian Shares to one. The Canadian Shares carrying full reimbursement.

Our plans for a Canadian Company are about completed and the Company will shortly be incorporated.

No industrial has shown the same rapid progress nor returned as large profits to the investor as the automobile industry.

The "BIRMINGHAM" has all the good qualities of every other car, PLUS: better riding qualities and at least 50 per cent. cheaper upkeep. These, together with other advantages in construction, will lessen the sales resistance and build large profits for Birmingham Shareholders.

What is your opinion of an investment in a manufacturing enterprise backed by such a car?

There are still a few shares of the original allotment for this district unsold at the old price of Twenty Dollars per share carrying full Reimbursement.

This price, however, will prevail only until Tuesday night, December 20th, at midnight. So you have just one day in which to place your order.

Applications may be made by mail or telephone, but we reserve the right to allot all, none, or a portion only of the amount applied for. In the event of partial allotment any difference will be returned.

Don't let this opportunity pass by, as on and after midnight to-morrow, Tuesday, these shares will be selling for Thirty Dollars, and we predict a Fifty Dollar price within six months.

Delays are always costly. Take advantage of this opportunity NOW.

At midnight Tuesday, December 20th, Birmingham Shares advance to Thirty Dollars.

AIM AT POPULATION OF 20 MILLIONS IN AUSTRALIA BY PLAN

Build 2,000 Miles of Railway and Open 50,000,000 Acres.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—(By Canadian Press.)—Aiming at a population of 20,000,000 people through the construction of 2,000 miles of railway and the opening up of 50,000,000 acres of land to provide for 100,000 farmers in Australia, Sir Joseph Carruthers, of Sydney, has prepared a policy or plan which has been submitted in detail to the Australian people for their approval or otherwise. He has contributed to the London Times an outline thereof. In his appeal for "A White Australia" Sir Joseph points out that the Commonwealth, with only 5,500,000 population, has an area equal to that of the United States, and "quite as rich and fertile," though the United States' population is 105,000,000. Sir Joseph Carruthers is an ex-Premier of New South Wales and a life member of its Legislative Council.

Indiscriminate Immigration

"We are very unsafe with so vast a territory and with so few people," Sir Joseph states in his letter to the Times, and adds: "We know that fact too well, although we hesitate to talk openly of it." That there is a feeling against indiscriminate immigration, and that "the workingman is against any policy that does not provide for the absorption of the immigrants' labor without imperilling existing conditions," is referred to; also the statement is made that these views are not confined to one political party, but are more or less shared by all. "The main thing, however," Sir Joseph says, "Is that deep down in the hearts of Australians exist the desire that their country may be made safer and happier by having more and more men of the Anglo-Saxon race to work for it, and if needs be, to fight for it. With that there is an intense love of what the British Empire stands for, and an abiding desire for a continuance of its supremacy. The lessons of the war have proved this fact up to the hilt."

On the question of how to accomplish the peopling of Australia Sir Joseph outlines a policy in the preparation of which he has had a chief part, which policy has been formulated and submitted in detail to the Australian people. First of all, the aim is to systemize the two essential things, immigration and the permanent employment of the immigrants.

Use Crown Lands

It is proposed to use the Crown Lands of Australia as the key of the situation. Ninety-two percent of Australia is still Crown land—only eight percent is private land. The relative areas are: Crown lands, 1,742,000,000 acres; private lands, 163,000,000 acres. Assuming that half of the Crown lands are unsuitable for settlement for many years to come, the remainder would comprise a vast acreage of agricultural land with a larger area of good pastural country. These Crown lands lie mainly outside of the influence of existing railways, and in some cases they have other disadvantages that can only be overcome by public works, such as water conservation and water supply.

It is proposed that railways should be constructed according to plan and system in order to open up large areas in selected situations, also that roads and other essential works shall be carried out, to precede settlement. These works, in their construction would afford employment to labor, skilled and unskilled, when completed would serve to convert lands that are now comparatively idle into productive farms. Thus a farming population might be settled in sequence to the work of development. Naturally, towns would be expected to follow at points along the railways. From primary production trade and manufacture would result. So population would grow with a demand for its labor. Substantial and tangible assets would be created, greater in value than any expenditure.

Rich Wheat Lands

Sir Joseph Carruthers points out that there are 80,000,000 acres of rich wheat lands in southern parts of Australia, where the rainfall is exactly what is needed for wheat growing, yet the Australians cultivate only 8,000,000 acres of this land. There is a larger area of dairy farm lands in the higher rainfall regions of Australia, he says, and not one-third of this area is used. The reason for this, he adds, is the lack of railways to open up these lands. To construct railways and make the lands available would be to create openings for a farming population for whose products there would be ample markets at home and abroad.

Thus the task of peopling Australia, in Sir Joseph's opinion, is associated with the work of railway construction into the unsettled parts, where there is an abundance of good land now lying unoccupied and untouched. He estimates that 1,000 miles of railway would, on the average, open up 25,000,000 acres of land within twenty miles of the rails. The cost of construction, in Sir Joseph's estimation, would be about £10,000,000, and other works essential would cost an additional £5,000,000. Averaging the farm area at 640 acres to each farm, there would be 40,000 farms provided along every 1,000 miles of railway.

For 100,000 Workers

On the basis that one farmer, directly and indirectly, creates employment for two and a half more workers, these 40,000 farms should create employment not only for that number of farmers, but for 100,000 other workers, according to Sir Joseph's plan. Assuming that there are three persons on an average in the family of a breadwinner, the total population that could be added as a result of establishing the 40,000 farms would be 420,000 men, women and children.

The scheme thus for largely increasing Australia's population is spoken of as "The Million Farms," because it aims at obtaining that number of farmers as a basis for an increase of the population to the 20,000,000 mark.

As to the question of financing the project Sir Joseph estimates that £30,000,000 will be needed to start with, so that 2,000 miles of railway may be constructed to open up 50,000,000 acres of land, and to provide for about 100,000 farmers. He states that Sir Denison Miller, Governor of the Australian Commonwealth Bank, is an open and ardent advocate of the scheme, and regards it as financially sound. The undertaking is too great for a country with a population of only five and a half million population, but as it is vital to the Empire's well-being that Australia should be made a bulwark of Empire it is suggested that Great Britain, even with her resources severely taxed, as they are at present, should become a partner of Australia in financing the policy of population. Australia it is believed, could raise one-half of the money required in the early stages, and ultimately would be able to carry out the undertaking without external aid.

WEDDING BELLS

COCKAYNE—WATTERSON.

A quiet wedding was celebrated in Toronto, on Saturday, December 17, at 2 o'clock, the principals being Mrs. M. Watterson and Mr. Cockayne, both of England. Mr. and Mrs Cockayne will reside in Peterboro.

OBITUARY

MRS. ELLEN EDDEY.

Mrs. James Gates, 110 Auburn Street, to-day received word from England, of the death of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Eddey, Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, on November 30, aged 84. Mrs. Gates' father is living, and one other sister lives in England.

Society

Mrs. R. H. Parsons, 104 Douro Street, left yesterday for Quebec, where she will visit her brother, Col. Ade M. Bell. Mrs. Parsons will probably be away for two weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Andrews, 24 McGill street, left to-day for a three months' visit with her niece at Maringo, Saskatchewan.

Mr. James Fernie of Queen's University, Kingston, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Fell, Prince street.

Miss Mildred Wherry, of the office staff of the Campbell Flour Mills Company, has been transferred to the West Toronto branch, and left the city yesterday.

MEMBER DEAD.

LACHUTE, December 19 (Canadian Press). — Peter McGibbon, M.P.-elect for Argentieul, died at his home here yesterday morning after one week's illness. About eight days ago he contracted a cold while watching a fire. All efforts to save his life were in vain.

CITY SUFFERED LITTLE FROM HEAVY STORM

FEW POWER AND PHONE WIRES DOWN, BUT TROUBLE INTERRUPTION QUICKLY REPAIRED

Commencing late Saturday night and practically all day yesterday Peterboro suffered a buffeting by wind and snow that kept most of the citizens indoors but did not cause great material damage as is reported in other centres. Happening on a Sunday the storm was not responsible for the inconvenience it would have caused on a week-day.

Railroads Clear

The snow was not heavy enough to interfere with the railways and the C.P.R. Sunday trains were all on time but of course half covered with snow. The G.T.R. service was uninterrupted to-day.

Wire Trouble

The Peterboro Utilities Commission reported to-day the usual trouble with their wires being cut by the branches of trees through which they pass. A noticeable feature was that where the trees have been trimmed there was no trouble". We had about 30 services out but these are practically all fixed up. From 7 to 9 yesterday morning was the worst period. The linemen were at work nearly all day" stated Manager H. O. Fisk.

Bell Fortunate

The Bell Telephone considered they came through the storm very fortunately. Only few lines were down in the city and three so far as known in the long distance connections. There were wires down between here and Port Hope in several places and also between here and Omemee, while at Claremont lead 17 of the Toronto line, some poles were down. The service in the city continued throughout the storm Had the snow been more adhesive and clung to the wires Bell Telephone officials believed great damage would have resulted.

Alarm Wires Crossed

At the Fire Hall, the Examiner was told, their fire alarm service went out at 3.20 a.m. when their wires were crossed by a machine telephone wire, and it was 11 a.m. before repairs were finshed.

First Snow Plowing

The snow plough men had their first job since the contracts were awarded and early Sunday morning they were out. Today the city had a gang of street cleaners on the main streets and these men will receive a few days' work resulting from the heavy snowfall. No accidents were reported to-day although several people narrowly missed injury by flying limbs from trees.

COMMENT ON DISCUSSION BY THE DAIL

IRISH TREATY MAY COME TO A VOTE TODAY—ONE MAN KILLED IN RIOT.

THE IRISH SITUATION

DUBLIN, December 20. — Commenting on the delegates' speeches in the Dail Eireann yesterday in justification of their signing the treaty, the Freeman's Journal says, "that they should be called upon to defend and even struggle to save their work from destruction at the hands of persons calling themselves representatives of the Irish people, is one of the most amazing tragedies of our tragic history."

It was announced this morning that Arthur Griffith would move for a vote on the question of approving the Irish treaty in the Dail Eireann to-day ,and that DeValera would move its disapproval

Mrs. Kate O'Callaghan, the first woman speaker, opposed the treaty, declaring that "women will vote for principles, not expedients." John Etchingham also opposed the agreement, stating that the people were being stampeded and were marching into the British Empire with hands up.

Etchingham declared that Lloyd George had mesmerized delegates and that the London conference was the burial service over the grave of the Irish nation.

Finian Lynch spoke for the treaty and asked what Irishman would believe that Lloyd George had deceived Michael Collins. "Bones of dead are being rattled indecently in face of this assembly," he declared.

CANDIDATES VOTED UPON AT MEETING

TENANTS' AND RATEPAYERS' ASSOCIATION SELECT A SLATE —J. J. TURNER FOR MAYOR.

LIST OF NAMES

At a meeting of the Tenants' and Owners' Association in the G.W.V.A. hall last night the following candidates for municipal offices were submitted and voted upon:

For Mayor.
J. J. Turner.
W. H. Taylor.

For Utilities Commissioner.
W. H. Bradburn.
G. H. Duncan.

For Aldermen.
G. N. Gordon, M.P.
J. E. A. Fitzgerald.
J. E. Sullivan.
F. Tuggey.
G. Hay.
J. T. Braund.
J. C. Ellis.
N. E. Phelan.
W. H. Lytle.
James Finnie.
R. N. Jones.
H. J. McCannon.

For School Board.
Joseph Wearing.
Dr. F. C. Neal.
E. G. Patterson.
Mrs. Arthur Stevenson.
Mrs. W. R. Morris.
J. W. Worth.
P. P. Westbye.
E. B. Fowler.

The results of a ballot taken to make a selection was as follows:

For Mayor.
J. J. Turner—51.
W. H. Taylor—31.

For Utilities Commissioner.
W. H. Bradburn—54.
G. H. Duncan—31.

For Aldermen.
J. E. A. Fitzgerald—66.
James Finnie—66.
W. H. Lytle—43.
H. J. McCannon—41.
G. N. Gordon, M.P—40.
James C. Ellis—39.
N. E. Phelan—35.
R. N. Jones—32.
J. T. Braund—30.
G. Hay—24.
F. Tuggey—21.
J. E. Sullivan—19.

For School Board.
Dr. F. C. Neal—67.
Mrs. W. R. Morris—50.
J. W. Worth—50.
Joseph Wearing—49.
P. P. Westbye—48.
E. B. Fowler—45.
E. G. Patterson—37.
Mrs. Arthur Stevenson—32.

The candidates which have been endorsed are, as a result of the vote: J. J. Turner for Mayor; W. H. Bradburn for Utilities Commission; J. E. A. Fitzgerald, James Finnie, W. H. Lytle, H. J. McCannon and G. N. Gordon and J. C. Ellis for aldermen; Dr. F. C. Neal, Mrs. W. R. Morris, J. W. Worth, Joseph Wearing and P. P. Westbye for School Board.

The Runner-Up.

If any candidates endorsed are unable to enter the municipal arena the association endorses the runner-up. There was considerable doubt as to G. N. Gordon, M.P., running, in which case J. C. Ellis of East City, who was immediately below him in the list, will be the selection, and in the case of Mr. Westbye, who may not enter, E. B. Fowler, his runner-up, will be endorsed.

Only members were allowed to vote, despite a protest by Lorenzo Humber that it "looked cheap" not to allow the non-members, who perhaps numbered about 25, until they joined up and paid 50 cents dues, to vote. Vice-President Frank H. Dobbin, who presided until President W. H. Bradburn arrived, refused to consent to non-members voting.

In addition to endorsing the municipal candidates, the Association decided to have a public meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 27th, to give the endorsed candidates an opportunity of stating their platform. Efforts by A. B. Cunningham last night to open up a discussion on what the platform of the Association should be, failed. On motion of Mr. A. B. Cunningham the Utilities Commission were commended for their action in rebating 50 per cent. of the October and November water rates and for a general reduction of wages of their staff.

JURY DISAGREED IN LAST CASE ON DECEMBER SESSIONS DOCKET

NO VERDICT IN ACTION OF AKEY VS. LETELLIER AFTER FIVE HOURS' EFFORT—DIVIDED 8 TO 4, BUT 10 TO 2 WAS REQUIRED FOR VERDICT—JURY WAS DISCHARGED.

For the first time here in years a County Court jury disagreed on Monday afternoon, in the case of Akey vs. Letellier. Five hours of deliberation found them no nearer a verdict than they were three hours earlier, when they stood eight to four in favor of the plaintiff. They were accordingly discharged by Judge Huycke, who quite plainly expressed his reluctance to let them go without reaching a decision that would settle and dispose of the action.

The evidence in this case was heard on Saturday afternoon. James Akey claimed the sum of $390 from Leger D. Letellier, alleging that Mr. Letellier verbally undertook to provide the funds for a cheque given by Paul C. Drouin in payment for a team of horses which Drouin bought from Akey for $390 last May. The cheque was post-dated to June 1st, and the plaintiff's case was that Mr. Letellier had promised to "see that the funds were in the bank" in the event of Drouin's failure to provide them.

In his defence, Mr. Letellier denied that he had been in any way financially interested in Mr. Drouin's purchase, and he contradicted the plaintiff's account of the transaction. Both sides presented corroboratory evidence.

Had Late Luncheon.

Monday morning counsel in this action, Mr. C. R. Widdifield for the plaintiff and V. J. McElderry for the defendant, addressed the jury, and Judge Huycke concluded his charge at noon. The jury retired immediately, the last words they heard from the Court being Judge Huycke's order that dinner be sent up to them as soon as possible. The hampers and coffee urn arrived at 2.30 p.m. His Honor then proceeded to deal with the case of three youths who had been committed on eleven charges of "breaking into and entering with intent to steal." One of the indictments involved the theft of a quantity of liquor from a west-end house. G. N. Gordon appeared in behalf of the accused young men, who pleaded guilty to eight charges, and G. W. Hatton, K.C., Crown Attorney, was officially present as prosecutor.

The case was approaching the stage at which His Lordship was about to address the accused, when Mr. Justice Logie arrived at one o'clock to open the non-jury sittings of the High Court. Judge Huycke forthwith adjourned the County Court and General Sessions of the Peace until this morning.

Unable to Agree.

Meanwhile the jury was wrestling with its knotty problem of conflicting and contradictory evidence. About three o'clock they filed out and down to Judge Huycke's chambers, where they reported that they were unable to present a verdict. His Honor urged them to make another attempt, and back they went for another two-hour debate. In his action, at least ten of the twelve jurors were required to agree on a verdict. At five o'clock they paraded again before His Honor, and the foreman, Mr. H. R. Martin, informed him that they were deadlocked, with eight of the jurors for the plaintiff and four holding out in favor of the defendant.

A Method of Old England.

"The presiding Judge in the High Court asked me what the difficulty was, and when I told him he suggested that I should have you locked up until you come to a verdict," said Judge Huycke, who added that the old English juries used to be confined without bed, board or candles until they had brought in their verdict.

"If you had had some prospect like that before you, you might have agreed before this," said His Honor. Continuing, he said he realized the difficulties confronting this jury, and asked them whether there was any advice he could give them.

Question of Credibility.

One of the jurors replied that it was a question as to what evidence was to be believed. Judge Huycke said that was exactly what the jury was called upon to decide for themselves. He could offer them no assistance in that respect. To his further question as to whether there was any likelihood of them changing their minds if he sent them back to the jury room, the twelve "good men and true," standing in a line before him, were blankly silent.

Judge Huycke remarked that the other petit jurors had been discharged, and consequently a new jury could not be empanelled for this case. Mr. McElderry and Mr. Widdifield said they would not ask that the jury be sent back, and His Honor forthwith discharged them.

"I do not know whether I should wish you the compliments of the season or not," he said, "but I believe you have been conscientious in your decision, so I hope you shall have a merry Christmas."

Called a Week Ago.

The jury in this case was the last of the sixty or more petit jurors who assembled from all parts of the county for the opening of the Court last Tuesday at 1 p.m. Some of them had tried two or three cases, and others had been called for four. Herb. Martin, the foreman, in this the last case, was one of those whom the ballot, in the hands of Mr. Geo. Sherry, Clerk of the Court, had drawn for four cases for a total of twenty hours each in the jury room during the session. While other cases were in progress they were supposed to be waiting for the next on the list.

In other words, the week's experience had surfeited them of law courts, and undoubtedly they realized in full the duty required of citizens in the British jury system, a lesson which Judge Huycks emphasized more than once during the sittings of the Court.

The Last Jury.

The following is the personnel of the jury that disagreed in the case of Akey vs. Letellier:

Arthur Bell, farmer, Douro.
Roland Ferguson, 186 Lake Street.
Sidney Middleton, 370 Rubidge St.
James Ball, 44 George Street.
Herbert Girven, farmer, Douro.
Wesley Byers, Byersville.
James Curran, 229 Lake Street.
Stanley Rosborough, farmer, Smith
E. Hean, 390 Rogers Street.
James Merrel, 588 Aylmer Street.
Norman McConkey, Bridgenorth.
Herbert Martin, 413 Bethune St.

Thomas Findley Died Last Night

WAS PRESIDENT OF THE MASSEY-HARRIS COMPANY — A LONG FIGHT.

TORONTO, December 20th.—following a long fight against complications resulting from an ear affection, Thomas Findley, president of the Massey-Harris Company, one of the world's greatest industries, died at his home on Warren Road, Toronto, at 7.30 last night. Knowing well that his time was short he bravely refused to lose heart, and only three days ago he consulted at his bedside with his General Manager, Thos. Bradshaw.

Son of a humble York County farmer, denied the advantages of academic training and self-taught, Thomas Findley became an outstanding Canadian and one of the world's most prominent captains of industry.

Twelve years after entering the firm in 1890, he was assistant General Manager, and in 1917 he was president.

ROTARIANS WILL WORK IN COUPLES

EACH TWO ROTARIANS ASSIGNED A FAMILY IN HARD CIRCUMSTANCES—MEETING NOTES.

THE SPEECHES

(By F. H. Dobbin)

Monday's meeting was very well attended and the members were cheerfully busy in attending to details. Rotarian W. Harold Young filled the position of chairman and was expeditious in despatching the several items on the daily time sheet This is ever essential for the luncheon is only a means to an end that it brings together a number of men willing to contribute to the general sum of activity for the benefit of the community. What the Rotarian gets out of it is the association with a number of men who respect him and whom in turn he highly respects

Walter Smail, of the Y.M.C.A. was the speaker of the hour. As general Whip of the Amateur Athletic Association of the City, (now coming back into its own as a nurser of decent and beneficial sport) Mr. Smail outlined the work involved in raising the standard of athletics among the youth of the city. He describes the steps to be taken and suggested the course to be followed in perfecting the organization in aid of the maintainance and practice of pure sport. The best sport was one that gave each member engaging in it something to do personally so that he would be a sharer in the activity and rub off for himself the aroma and spirit of fair play to stay with him in a after life.

Rotarians Breyfogle and Frank Linton reported on the progress of the endeavour to aid crippled children. Several cases are in view where the parents are unable to provide that which is needful to reclain these children and put them in the way af rejuvination physically. Further progress will be made and fuller details communicated to the Club.

The visitors for the day included Rotarian Tom Reynolds, of Saskatoon Club, who gave a short talk on conditions in the West, but touched very lightly on the concussion that overtook the West on the 6th instant, but the able Rotarian had his impressions. Rotarian Bill Forbes, of London, spoke of his old home town and Rotary in the city, where he is located. Also testified to the genial times found in visiting Club throughout the country where established.

To assist in the remedial and helpful work of making the season better for many each two Rotarians were asigned a family in hard circumstances and told that the duty was to visit the family ,find out what was most needed and then supply the assistance. So at least twenty families will be benefitted at this juncture.

It fell to Rotarians Asa Huycke and Jack MacHardie who introduced several vocal novelties in the songs line. These features, added to the regular chats and madrigals with which the Club enlighten the serious moments made quite a hit.

These members will, in moments of leisure (if they ever have any) devise additional stunts for the edification of the congregation.

Having in mind Rotarian John Crane, who is at Pinehurst, in North Carolina and far from home, a Christmas Greeting was framed up in legal phraseology, with all formality and procedure and read and despatched along with much of good wishes for his speedy return to good health, which it is trusted will presently be the case. Contributions of Christmas assistance to Children' occasions were made to St. Vincent' Orphanage, the Children's Shelter and to the Salvation Army.

Having thus despatched all the business on the agenda the gathering dispersed.

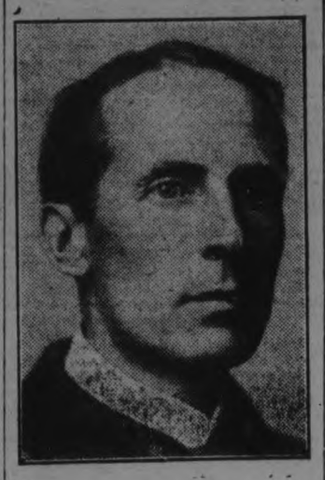
Another large crowd is expected at the Brock street Roller Rink to-night. There is no evidence of frost sufficient to make ice and until there is the rink will operate as a roller rink.

To-night there will be a Special Band Concert with features and skating until 10.30 o'clock. The winner of the Election Estimate will be announced and the prize paid over. Skating to-morrow.—Advt.

GENERAL ELECTION HELD IN PORTUGAL

LIBSON, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—Portuguese Parliament has dissolved and general election will be held January 8.



MR. O. A. LANGLEY
Who succeeds Magistrate D. W. Dumble at the first of the year. Mr. Langley will serve in the dual capacity of County and city police magistrate. At present he occupies the position of County Police Magistrate.

IS SUCCEEDED BY MR. O. A. LANGLEY

MAGISTRATE D. W. DUMBLE STEPS OUT OF OFFICE IN ANOTHER TEN DAYS.

In another ten days Magistrate D. W. Dumble K.C., will vacate the bench he has occupied for 40 years and O. A. Langley of Lakefield, who has been county magistrate for some years and will now combine both courts, succeeds him, having ben appointed by the Attorney-General on Magistrate Dumble's resignation in the autumn.

The veteran magistrate yesterday told the police court man, in a spirit of kindly rebuff, he hoped his succesor would receive better accommodation than he has from the city. In his years of service he has never had an office of his own— in fact has only had a nail in the chief's office on which to hang his coat and hat and even this feat is now impossible because of congestion in the chief constable's sanctum.

Magistrate's Office

What is needed to remedy the general absence of the accommodation at the court is, according to the dean of the bar and the Chief of Police, the erection of an office for the magistrate, above the garage which is immediately at the rear of the court room and the enlarging of the present office of the chief by utilizing some of the waste room at the head of the stairs. Such improvements will likely be incorporated as suggestion in the chief's annual report and will be strongly advised by Chief Newhall to the Police Commissioners, who can recommend it to the City Trust.

An office for the Magistrate is necessary, His Worship declared for the safeguarding of papers which he at present has to carry around in his pockets or keep at his law office and necessary for his interviews with solicitor and police officials. At present His Worship has to discuss matters with those waiting upon him without any privacy whatever and the retiring magistrate ventured to predict that his successor would not tolerate such a state of affairs at all.

The chief of Police declares his sanctum has never been adequate and a chaotic condition exists now because of the room taken up by everal files and cabinets necessary for the carrying on of an efficient system. Action must be taken shortly to give him more commodious quarters, he says.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND

BY "SAPPER"
(CYRIL McNEILE)

II

"Has it struck you fellows," remarked Hugh, at the conclusion of lunch, "that seated around this table are four officers who fought with some distinction and much discomfort in the recent historic struggle?"

"How beautifully you put it, old flick," said Darrell.

"Has it further struck you fellows," continued Hugh, "that last night we were done down, trampled on, had for mugs by a crowd of dirty blackguards composed largely of the dregs of the universe?"

"A veritable Solomon," said Algy, gazing at him admiringly through his eyeglass. "I told you this morning I detested your friends."

"Has it still further struck you," went on Hugh, a trifle grimly, "that we aren't standing for it? At any rate, I'm not. It's my palaver this, you fellows, and if you like . . Well, there's no call on you to remain in the game. I mean—er—"

"Yes, we're waiting to hear what the devil you do mean," said Toby uncompromisingly.

"Well—er," stammered Hugh, "there is a big element of risk—er—don't you know, and there's no earthly reason why you fellows should get roped in and all that. I mean—er—I'm sort of pledged to see the thing through, don't you know, and——" He relapsed into silence, and stared at the tablecloth, uncomfortably aware of three pairs of eyes fixed on him.

"Well — er ——" mimicked Algy, "there's a big element of risk—er—don't you know, and I mean—er—we're sort of pledged to bung you through the window, old bean, if you talk such consolidated drivel."

Hugh grinned sheepishly.

"Well, I had to put it to you fellows. Not that I ever thought for a moment you wouldn't see the thing through—but last evening is enough to show you that we're up against a tough crowd. A damned tough crowd," he added thoughtfully. "That being so," he went on briskly, after a moment or two, "I propose that we should tackle the blighters to-night."

"To-night!" echoed Darrell. "Where?"

"At The Elms, of course. That's where the wretched Potts is for a certainty."

"And how do you propose that we should set about it?" demanded Sinclair.

Drummond drained his port and grinned gently.

"By stealth, dear old beans—by stealth. You—and I thought we might rake in Ted Jerningham, and perhaps Jerry Seymour, to join the happy throng—will make a demonstration in force, with the idea of drawing off the enemy, thereby leaving the coast clear for me to explore the house for the unfortunate Potts."

"Sounds very nice in theory," said Darrell dubiously, "but . . ."

"And what do you mean by a demonstration?" said Longworth. "You don't propose we should sing carols outside the drawing-room window, do you?"

RELATIVES CONTEST DEED OF FARM FAIL TO MAKE CASE IN HIGH COURT

MR. JUSTICE LOGIE DISMISSES ACTION HEARD BY HIM AT THE COURT HOUSE ON MONDAY AFTERNOON — MENTAL COMPETENCY OF LATE HENRY JACKSON ESTABLISHED.

FINLEY VS. JACKSON

In dismissing the action of Humphrey Finley vs. W. Melville Jackson in the Non-Jury sittings of the High Court here on Monday afternoon, Mr. Justice Logie decided on the evidence that the late Henry Jackson, who lived on Gilmour street, and died in December, 1920, was mentally competent when he deeded to the defendant, his nephew, a farm of 66 acres in Emily township. Mr. I. E. Weldon, of Lindsay, represented the plaintiff and Mr. Basil D. Hall, with Mr. Daniel O'Connell, of Toronto, as counsel, appeared for the defendant.

This action was brought by the beneficiaries of the will of Henry Jackson, who sought to have the deed of the farm in Emily township set aside on the ground that the deceased was not competent to manage his own affairs, and that he executed the deed in March, 1919, under undue influence on the part of the defendant, Melville Jackson. When the plaintiff's case was completed Mr. O'Connell moved for non-suit, but His Lordship suggested that evidence for the defense be put in. He remarked that the plaintiff's case was weak. The hearing lasted from 1 p.m. until nearly 7 p.m., when Mr. Justice Logie heard the argument of Mr. Weldon, but informed Mr. O'Connell that he need not reply. His Lordship briefly reviewed the testimony, and relying particularly upon the statements of Dr. J. Malcolm McCulloch and Mr. E. H. D. Hall, found that the grantor of the deed was competent to perform the transaction. His Lordship declared the deed valid, and announced that the action must be dismissed with costs if they were demanded by the defendant.

At Defendant's Option.

Answering Mr. Weldon's request that the costs not be charged against the plaintiff Judge Logie said that the plaintiff could get assistance from those who were interested with im in the action, and who had taken their chances on the information they had.

"I have ordered that the costs be paid by the plaintiff if they are exacted by the defendant, but I think it would tend to heal the family dispute if the defendant did not exact them."

Many witnesses were called by the plaintiff. They recalled incidents in the later years of Henry Jackson's life which they considered abnormal and which were adduced as proof that the deceased was not mentally sound at the time he made the deed of the farm to the defendant.

William Scott.

William Scott, a farmer in Smith township, a brother-in-law of the late Henry Jackson, related an interview that took place in 1915.

"I went to pay Mr. Jackson the rent for the farm of 66 acres. It is the farm this action is over. He said, "I haven't any money You'll have to wait."

I said: "I want to pay you money for your rent."

He said—"What for?"

"I told him it was for the 66 acres. He asked me what 66 acres. I told him it was the farm I had rented from him. He said I needn't mind the rent. I paid him $134."

Continuing witness said—"I saw him at the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Houston in 1918. He was laughing and acted more like a child than a man. He was silly-looking to me."

Mrs. Wm. Scott.

Recalling the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Scott, wife of the previous witness, said that Mr. Jackson didn't appear to realize the family's mourning at the funeral of Mrs. Houston.

"He was laughing and seemed to be enjoying himself. On another occasion he didn't remember his own farm in Emily and said he didn't know the place. When he was lying on the lounge in his home he said he wated to go home." x

Harry A. Finley.

H. A. Finley of Emily township, nephew of Henry Jackson, told of having driven into Peterborough in April, 1919, and called at Henry Jackson's.

"He said 'there's a big day on'," witness continued. "I asked him what it was and he told me it was election day. He said he was going out to vote. I told him there was no election and he did't go out."

"In 1919 I took him for a drive to Bridgenorth. When we came back he didn't know his own home. He said: "You've got a comfortable homehere, Harry. I tried to make him understand it was his own home."

To Mr. O'Connell witness said the motor trip was in the year Jackson died.

"That was in 1920 and not in 1919," Mr. O'Connell pointed out. "So your memory was out. Is it a family failure?"

Humphrey Finley.

Humphrey Finley, the plaintiff, said that he was a nephew of the deceased Henry Jackson, with whom he had boarded. Finley enumerated instances of forgetfulness on part of Jackson.

"If you told him anything he wouldn't remember it five minutes afterwards. Several times at night while in his own home, he said he would have to go home. I'd try to tell him he was at home."

Jackson didn't know his own sister, plaintiff testified.

Had Illusions.

Walter Scott, also a brother-in-law of Henry Jackson, said that the deceased had hallucinations.

"Looking at the door or window, he would say, "There must be a big time down at Ottawa. Look at all the 'autographers' going by. I don't know what he meant by "autographers."

"There's one on the door now," he said one night. It was the ring on the blind of the door that he was looking at."

"He used to pretend that he knew people, and after they had gone he would ask who they were,' witness said.

"I hope that is not a sign of senile dementia," remarked His Lordship.

Mr. Scott said that Mr. Jackson often did not know his own home and walked past it. Once when he was out for an automobile ride he thought he was in a street car.

Cancelled this Deal.

Asked as to when he first noticed anything wrong with Mr Jackson, witness said that it was in the Spring of 1918.

"He told me Bagley had given him $200 for a house. Bagley was a lawyer in Peterborough. I told Mr. Jackson that Bagley had beaten him over $1,000. He replied that the house hadn't cost him anything. He showed me the cheque and I advised him not to cash it but to take it back to Bagley. He took it back."

Mr. Weldon—Was that a good deal he was making?

Mr. Scott—He was losing over $1,000 in it.

Witness stated that the estate was worth about $4,600.

In his will Mr. Jackson had left $3,000 to Miss Elizabeth Morrow, who had been his housekeeper for years. No action was contemplated to disturb her in that bequest.

Shook Hands.

John Hanley testified that two years ago, when he visited Mr. Jackson, the deceased shook hands with him when he arrived, and fifteen minutes later he got up and shook Hanley's hand all over again as if he had forgotten the first reception.

REFERENCE OF DEATH OF MICHAEL CORKERY

In the Powassan News December 7th, appears the following reference to the death of Mr. Michael Corkery of Trout Creek, brother of Mr. John Corkery, postmaster here.

"One of Trout Creek's best known and most popular citizens, in the person of Mr. Michael Corkery, the genial postmaster, passed away on Saturday last. Mr. Corkery had been indentified with the town perhaps longer than anyone else, and Trout Creek and Michael Corkery, one might say, were synomymous terms. He was a man well liked by everybody; always ready to lend a helping hand, good hearted and white clear through.

"He will be missed greatly by his townspeople and by many others who enjoyed his friendship.

"The remains were taken to Peterborough for burial.

"The decased was born in Peterborough, 66 years ago; where he lived until nineteen years of age when he settled down at what is known as the Barrett settlement, just west of Trout Creek.

"The chief mourners are: his only daughter, Miss Mary; brother, John at Peterborough; brother Peter, at Campbellford; brother, James, and sister, Mrs. McDonald, Toronto."

Premier Meighen Continues Office

MACKENZIE KING NOT READY TO TAKE OVER THE REINS OF GOVERNMENT.

OTTAWA, December 20. Canadian Press. — No definite announcement is yet forthcoming as to the date of resignation of the present government. Premier Meighens resignation was placed in the hands of the Governor-General some days ago but has not been accepted yet. A statement issued from the office of the Prime Minister reads as follows:

"Mr. Meighen has been asked when his resignation as Prime Minister was to be expected. He stated this afternoon that some days ago the same had been tendered to His Excellency, the Governor-General, but that His Excellency after consultation with the Hon. Mackenzie King, had requested the present Government to continue in office for a limited period."

The Lola Vinal Players, which appeared in their opening play last evening, "A Dangerous Friend", presented a good clean play with a strong talented cast. This is the first times this company has played in town and while they drew a good house, last evening, they are assured full houses for the remainder of their stay. Last evening's play, while serious at times was permeated with wit and humour and music to suit the most fastidious. To-night they will present "The Girl of the Mountains" and Friday night's play "One Woman's Life" will undoubtedly draw a packed house.

BAILIEBORO NEWS

BAILIEBORO, December 20. — The regular monthly meeting of Court Bailieboro, 255, Canadian Order of Foresters, was held in the C. O. F. Hall. Bro. James White presided, and there was a good attendance of the members, who took a lively interest in the proceedings.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

C. R.—F. Wood.
V. C. R.—G. Fletcher.
Rec. Sec.—G. Armstrong.
Fin. Sec.—R. Armstrong.
Treas.—J. Greer.

Fowl Supper.

The members of the C.O.F., Court Bailieboro, held their annual fowl supper on Wednesday evening, Dec 14th. About 65 of the members and their ladies were present and partook of a sumptuous supper at which various members gave brief addresses.

After the supper the remainder of the evening was spent in playing cards, etc.

Literary Society.

The members of the Bailieboro Literary Society held a very interesting debate in the hall, Bailieboro, on Thursday evening, "Resolved,—That sailors endured more hardships during the war than soldiers."

The debate was well contested and brought out some very strong arguments on both sides.

Messrs. S. Lang and A. C. Cole took the affirmative, while the negative, which won the decision, was upheld by E. Dawson and F. Barnard. The judges were W. S. Nichol, Miss Zelma Gainer and E. Eagleson.

While the judges were making a decision a reading was rendered by W. Lang. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

REPARATION WAS SUBJECT OF MEETING

GERMANY'S PLEA THAT SHE WILL BE UNABLE TO PAY INDEMNITY INSTALLMENTS DISCUSSED BY PREMIERS.

CONTINUE TODAY

LONDON, Dec. 20.— (Canadian Press.)—David Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister, and Aristide Briand, the French Premier, yesterday had a conference lasting several hours in the official residence of Mr. Lloyd George in Downing Street. The conversation was concerned almost exclusively with German reparations and Germany'es plea that she will be unable to pay in full the January and February installments.

No official information is obtainable as yet as to the attitude of France and Great Britain towards Germany's plea. The official communique issued after the adjournment of the conference asserted that the conference was on general economic questions these questions were given over to French and British experts who will submit a report on them to-day.

As far as can be seen at present there is no prospect that a meeting of the Supreme Council will follow the informal conversations between the Premiers, but possibly one outcome will be an economic conference on the stabilization of European exchanges, to which German and Russian representatives presumably would be invited. The belief

DISCUSSION TO CONTINUE ANOTHER DAY

DIFFICULT TO ASCERTAIN THE RESULT OF THE DAIL EIREANN CONFERENCE OVER IRISH TREATY.

MEMBERS DIVIDE

DUBLIN, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—When the Dail Eireann adjourned last night after two lengthy public sessions devoted t earnest debate, nothing tangible had developed to indicate how the members would vote on the question ratifying the Irish Free State.

Immediately after adjournment, the correspondent interviewed four prominent Sinn Feiners; Deputy Duggan, Mrs. Sheehy Skeffington, Tom Johnson, Secretary of the Irish Liberal movement, and Colonel Maurice Moore. All of them declared it was impossible to make any estimate of the relative strength of those favoring and those opposing the treaty, or to hazard a guess as to which side would eventually gain a majority.

The uncertainty of even the prominent leaders regarding the result was reflected on the one side in Michael Collins' declaration that he might never again address the Dail Eireann, and, on the other side, Charles Burgess' pointed statement that he was "still in office," indicating to the listeners his apprehension that he might possibly be defeated.

The proceeding are certain to last through to-day, as many of the minor members have indicated their intention of speaking. No time limit has been set for the speeches, and some think that the debate may even continue throughout the entire week.

An outstanding feature was the attempt by the delegates to the London conference to deprive Mr. De Valera of his claim of adherence to the Republican principle by demand-

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE.

MONTREAL, Dec. 20.— (Canadian Press.)—Jan Rosco and Sawell Lazarovitch, Roumanians, were placed on trial here on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Vasil Nichefor, a compatriot, who is stated by the police to have been beaten to death under the Canadian Pacific Railway viaduct on Moreau Street last July. Nichefor died 25 minutes after the assault.

FIRST TRIP ON THE GREAT LAKES

CAPT. D. S. KENDALL FINDS NAVIGATION DIFFICULT — CAUGHT IN STORM.

ST. CATHARINES, Dec. 20.— (Canadian Press.) — Navigation through the Welland Canal actually closed last night with the passing up of the Old 49, old iron steamer George W. Clyde, from Philadelphia to Chicago, and the tug J. E. Russell, (formerly the Lakeside) en route from Lake Erie to work on the wreck of the Arragon. The Russell arrived at Port Colborne just before the storm broke. The Clyde ran into the gale 12 miles off Port Dalhousie at four o'clock Sunday morning and required nine hours before arriving off pier. Capt. D. S. Kendall, finding the wind shifting after wallowing in the lake for 3 1-2 hours off Port Dalhousie found it necessary to make a dash for the harbour with the waves running many feet over the pier. After leaving Philadelphia the Clyde ran into two gales before reaching Halifax, later sticking fast in the ice in Murray Bay, the ice breaking Montcalm going to her assistance and escorting her to Quebec. From Quebec the breaker Lady Grey escorted her to Montreal.

It is the first voyage of the Clyde, her captain or any of the crew on the great lakes. "After Sunday morning on Lake Ontario I have every respect for fresh water mariners," said Captain R. Kenadll on his way through the canal to-day. "The waves being irregular are much more difficult to negotiate than those on the ocean."

The Clyde's sugar cargo is valued at $90,000.

DAVID ROSS WINS RIDING FOR FARMERS

NORTH OXFORD RETURNS A U.F.O. CANDIDATE BY A SUBSTANTIAL MAJORITY.

YESTERDAY'S VOTE

WOODSTOCK, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press). — David M. Ross, the Government candidate, defeated his nearest opponent, W. W. Day, Liberal, by 1,303 majority in the North Oxford by-election. The result was a great surprise, as it was expected that the poll in Woodstock, Tavistock and East Missouri, Day's home township, would off-set Ross' big U.F.O. vote in the other townships. However, Ross carried every municipality in the riding with the exception of Woodstock and Tavistock. Ross' victory is due to a fine organization in the county, where every U. F. O. club and women's club polled nearly a ninety per cent. vote. On the other hand, Day's organization was poor. In the city no effort to organize was made by the Liberal executive until a day or two before polling day, with the result that, whereas Day was expected to poll a majority of over 2,000, he fell away to 1,173. Even in East Missouri, Mr. Day's home township, Ross polled 703 votes to 379 by Day. Tavistock gave Day a majority of 229. There is no doubt that the five-day stay of Premier Drury and his Cabinet in the riding, together with a strong outside organizing committee, accounted for part of the big majority. Homer B. Neely, running as an Independent Conservative, polled 954.

North Oxford has been Liberal in both Provincial and Federal elections for 50 years, and yesterday's return of a U.F.O. is the first break in the long string of victories.

PROBABILITIES.

THE NORTH OXFORD RESULT.

The result of the North Oxford Legislative by-election in which Ross, the U.F.O. candidate, was elected by a plurality of 1,000 over Day, Liberal standard-bearer, will be gratifying to the Farmer party and its supporters. The Government had exerted unusual efforts to win this historic Liberal riding and an adverse vote in the face of the campaign conducted by Premier Drury and his ministers would have been a damaging blow to the prestige of the administration. The U.F.O. victory will do much to counteract the failure of the Agrarian party to make the showing in the Federal campaign that was expected. It shows that in a Provincial contest in a rural riding the Farmers' movement has not yet lost its momentum. But to attempt to make yesterday's result an endorsation of the Drury radial policy is getting away from realities. The people of North Oxford probably paid little attention to that question in their decision to support the Government.

ONE OBJECTION.

One feature of the Council work that makes it difficult to secure the presence on the aldermanic board for any length of time of business men, according to one who has gone through the mill himself, is the amount of time that is wasted in the discussion of trivial matters. Men who would not mind spending three or four hours at a meeting if they were certain that so much time was necessary to transact the city's business, have a very decided objection to spending four hours in dealing with matters that should be disposed of in one quarter of that time. Unimportant business, of course, must be taken care of, but it has been usually the case that there has been more discussion over unessential matters than over the really serious problems. The remedy of course is for the ratepayers to follow the proceedings closely and to see that the aldermen who waste the time of the Council by continually bringing up unnecessary trifles and by talking at needless length on this, that and every subject that comes along, are left at home where they cannot do as much harm as they accomplish around the Council board.

COMPULSORY VOTE.

As after every election, whether municipal or in the larger field, there are complaints being voiced by newspapers in various parts of the Dominion that many electors failed to exercise their franchise, and the contention is made by more than one journal that Canada must soon consider the question of compulsory voting. Coupled with this suggestion is the further argument that before people can vote they must get their names on the list, and because many of them are too indifferent to see that their franchise is protected, the state should step in and compel them, under penalty, to have their names on the voters' lists. Compulsory registration has been in force in Australia for some time, to the extent that any person who, within six months after reaching the age of 21 years, does not register a claim for a Federal vote, is liable to a fine, while adult immigrants are also compelled to register within six months of their arrival in the country, and every change of residence must be reported. While compulsory voting has not yet been adopted in the Federal arena in Australia, Queensland has such a regulation in force, and it is said to have met with success. Many Canadians no doubt find the idea of compulsion in regard to the franchise objectionable and yet there would seem to be need of some improvement over the present system, which finds a very large proportion of the electorate declining to discharge their responsibility at the polls.

A PROGRESSIVE STEP.

The four Western Provinces of Canada are to be congratulated upon the success of the Interprovincial conference of representatives of the Department of Education of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Saskatchewan which completed its sessions last week, and especially on the progressive step decided upon in the direction of educational standardization. The adoption of a standard set of text books for use in all four provinces cannot fail to have a far-reaching effect and the western example should be studied by other provinces with a view towards the ultimate adoption of uniform school books throughout the whole Dominion. The advantages of the western plan are so obvious as to require little explanation. From an economic standpoint alone the benefits will be enormous, for the publishers will be able to give a much better price on books for the four provinces than it was possible for them to offer in accepting an order from one province. The overhead cost will be reduced 75 per cent. as a result of the change. In addition the new policy will make it easy to transfer teachers from one province to another and smooth the difficulties from the path of the pupil who may happen to make a similar change. In both cases they will be able to take up their work with the same books as before and there will be no delay in re-adjustment.

SHALL THE MERCHANTS BANK GO?

The Merchants Bank of Canada, which seems likely to be absorbed by the Bank of Montreal, is neither of mushroom growth nor of contracted range of operations. On the contrary, it ranks among our old banks and belongs to the class of our large banks, having as extended a sphere of influence as most of them. It was founded in 1864. According to the Government's Bank Statement for October, the Merchants Bank then had an authorized capital limit of $15,000,000, its issued capital amounted to $10,550,000, and its rest fund to $9,450,000. Its branches, 400 in number, spread its operations over a large part of Canada. The magnitude of the business it built up for itself is far from being an adequate index of the extent of its usefulness in the service of nation-building.

Not only by its own shareholders and customers, but by Canadians generally, the disappearance of this old and influential institution would be contemplated with regret. Its history has not been one of unbroken smooth sailing. It has had its times of flourishing and its moments of languishing. It has passed through other emergencies, of which one at least must have seemed relatively as trying as this one. In his "Banking and Commerce," the late George Hague, who was General Manager of the Merchants Bank for the twenty-five years beginning with 1877, tells of the crisis in its affairs which faced him when he became its executive head. Things were in a bad way. There had been three pears of depression in Canada; there was still worse to come. In trade bad debts swallowed up profits, manufacturing was in a state of suspense, "the great lumber and timber interest was in one of the deepest sloughs of depression into which it has ever been plunged." In Mr. Hague's account of the task which confronted him in 1877, we are told, "The two leading banks had offered to render assistance, and very politic it was in them to do so; for if the Merchants Bank, with its multifarious business and branches spread all over Canada, and its agencies in New York and London, had stopped payment, it is certain that a condition of panic would have superseded such as to shake the credit of the country to its foundations. Their willingness to aid saved Canada from this disaster. They agreed at once to advance the sum I named as necessary, and a very large sum it was. But the security was unquestionable." Whether or not in the present crisis of the bank another George Hague could save its life by obtaining help from other banks on the strength of its securities, we cannot say. We do not know to what extent its securities have shrunken, or how much of the loss in them is irreparable, nor consequently how much of its reserve fund will have to be drawn upon. "Save the ship, we did, and steered her at last out of the stormy waters in a sound condition, and well founded in every respect by the blessing of God. And so" (wrote Mr. Hague in 1908) "she has continued ever since."

The remedy sternly applied at that time involved the cutting down of the capital by upwards of $2,000,000, leaving it $6,000,000. In three years the Bank, in Mr. Hague's phrase, was "out of the woods." About ten years before the troubles of which he speaks, the Merchants Bank had bought the assets of the Commercial Bank of Canada, as the Bank of Montreal proposes to take over the Merchants Bank now. At that time (1868) the Bank of Montreal was likewise a bidder for the Commercial Bank, but the Merchants Bank's offer, as Sir Hugh Allan afterwards said, turned out to be one cent better than the Bank of Montreal's. In the opinion of Mr. Hague, given years afterwards, it would have been better for the Merchants Bank if it had not been its luck to get the assets of the Commercial Bank. — Mail and Empire.

is expressed that Dr. Walter Rathenau, the German financial expert, may be called in at the close of the present conversations, but no communication has as yet been sent to him.

M. Briand declared that his conversation with Mr. Lloyd George had been extremely cordial. The conversation will continue in full detail to-day between the two Premiers. There also will be a meeting between Louis P. Loucheur, the French Minister of Liberated Regions, and Sir Robert Horne, Chancellor of the Exchequer, regarding reparations.

RELATIVES CONTEST DEED OF FARM

Miss May Caird.

Miss May Caird told of the laughing incident at the funeral of Mrs. Houston from her home on Albert Street in 1918. Witness didn't regard that as a rational act.

Mr. O'Connell—Did you never see that happen before?

Miss Caird—No, sir. It didn't look right to me.

Mr. O'Connell—That has often happened at funerals.

Witness said that on one occasion in 1918 she had accompanied Mr. Jackson from the Houston home on Albert Street to the corner of Charlotte and Park Streets. He had lost his way once before. From that corner he went the rest of the way to his home on Gilmour Street alone.

"One day in 1919 Mr. Jackson thought I was the nurse. He told me to go, as he had no money."

Mr. O'Connell—How was his eyesight?

Miss Caird—I don't know about that.

Other witnesses were John Elliott, Bruce Scott and Fred. Cann.

Melville Jackson.

W. Melville Jackson, the defendant, was the first witness called for the defence. He said he had lived with his uncle, Henry Jackson, for a period of nine months, eight or nine years ago. Since then he had farmed in Cavan Township. His uncle's memory had seemed normal to him on the occasions when they were together.

Defendant said the farm was about to be vacated by the tenant, and Mr. Jackson wanted defendant to take it over. It had been renting for $150 a year. Mr. Jackson proposed that defendant pay him an annuity of $200 a year as long as he lived in consideration for the farm.

"I told him I didn't think I could handle it, but I would talk it over with my father. I discussed with my father about four times, and finally decided to take it. He said he'd get the papers drawn up. On April 5th, 1919, I went to Bagley's office. I never saw Mr. Bagley before that. I signed the deed there. The farm was worth about $2,300 when I got it."

Defendant said he had taken over his uncle's bank account in trust in 1918. He had power over all Henry Jackson's money.

Mr. Weldon—He must have had great confidence in you?

Defendant—He must have had some.

Mr. Weldon—You knew he was sick and likely to die at any time?

Defendant—I didn't know that.

Mr. Weldon—Did you think it was a good bargain at the time?

Defendant—I didn't think it was extra good.

J. C. Guiss Bagley.

Mr. Bagley testified that he had drawn up Henry Jackson's will in 1918. He had also collected his income during the years from 1917 to 1919, and had done other work for him. Witness said Mr. Jackson was a very stubborn man, but knew what he was talking about. When his farm became idle, the war was over, hired men were scarce, and it was impossible to secure a new tenant. Mr. Bagley suggested as a way out that Mr. Jackson let his nephew, Melville Jackson, have the farm for an annuity of $200, which was more than the investment would have brought from a Government annuity. Mr. Jackson fell in with this idea.

Dr. McCulloch.

Dr. J. Malcolm McCulloch testified to having attended Henry Jackson in the years 1918 and 1919. His mental condition was satisfactory during that time, and until about September, 1920. Mr. Jackson died in December of that year.

Mr. Jackson had himself paid his doctor's bills until 1918. After that Melville Jackson paid them.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall.

E. H. D. Hall told of having drawn at Henry Jackson's direction a power of attorney to Melville Jackson in the fall of 1918.

The deceased had appeared normal at that time.

Miss Morrow, the last witness, said that about a year before Mr. Jackson died he used to see things crawling on the dishes.

"He asked me if I could see them. I told him that I couldn't and that there was nothing to see. He said, 'I know you can't but I can.'"

Do you know that you can buy tickets to bring them "back home" for Christmas?

Not only at Christmas, of course, but just now we are thinking of a novel and highly appreciated Christmas present.

You can go into any Canadian Pacific Station or office in Canada and buy a ticket for the person you designate. No matter where he lives, this ticket is delivered to him by the local agent. It can, if necessary, be wired.

In other words: If yours is a scattered family, you can bring them "back home" for Christmas and the ticket is delivered to them as your Christmas present.

The Canadian Pacific has over 2400 stations and offices. For rates to or from anywhere in Canada or the United States, ask your Canadian Pacific Agent.

ORMONDE CHEESE COMPANY ELECT OFFICERS FOR 1922

FLATTERING ADDRESS PRESENTED JOHN COUGHLAN, CO'S RETIRING SALESMAN— EARL GILLESPIE MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

HASTINGS NEWS

HASTINGS, Dec. 20. — At the annual meeting of the shareholders and patrons of the Ormonde cheese company an address and presentation was made by Mr. John Coughlan, who retired from the salesmanship last spring to make an extended tour of Western Canada. Mr. J. B. Moore, president, read the following address:

"Mr. John Coughlan: We the shareholders and patrons of Ormonde Cheese Company, in annual meeting assembled, wish to express to you our appreciation of the services rendered our factory during the past 30 years or more that you have been our president, and our sincere regrets that you have been unable to continue in your office.

"We would beg of you to accept this ring as a reward of your association with us along with our best respects and good wishes for the future. In behalf of the company.

"J. B. Moore, pres., Fred Lynch."

In a few well chosen remarks, Mr. Coughlan thanked them for their kindness.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected for the year 1922:

J. B. Moore, pres.; William C. Pickins, sec.; J. F. McCarthy, treas.; Felix Convey, auditor; J. B. Moore, salesman.

Arm Broken.

While at a sawing bee at Mr. Alcott's on Saturday last, Mr. Earl Gillespie met with a serious accident. While he was assisting at the saw the belt flew off and broke one of his arms. Medical aid was at once procured and it is reported Mr. Gillespie is doing nicely now.

Mrs. Chas. Dodd has recovered from her severe illness and recent operation.

Mr. Thomas Maples, a lifelong resident of Asphodel Township, underwent a serious operation at St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterboro, on Monday. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he is progressing favorably.

Dr. and Mrs. De La Matter spent Monday in Peterboro.

Mr. John Prest spent the week-end in Peterboro.

The funeral of the late Mrs. P. Fairman was held from the 1:15 p.m. train on Monday to the Methodist church and thence to the Trent Valley Cemetery. It was largely attended, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Miss Ona Doxsee of Peterboro Normal School is home for the holidays.

Mr. Earl Hinton has accepted a position on the office staff of the Harris Abbatoir Co., of Toronto and has entered on his duties.

Mrs. Dick of Warkworth spent Sunday with her father, Mr. Albert Brooks.

Mr. W. Atkinson of Peterboro was in town to-day.

Reeve Dr. J. H. Hess has left for Cobourg to attend the session of the County Council.

Miss Mar Hinton of Peterboro Normal School, is spending the holiday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Hinton.

Weddings Bells

A wedding of interest was solemnized Dec. 17th at the Methodist Parsonage the principals being Miss G. Howe and Mr. M. D. Laing both of Campbellford. Rev. L. M. Hinton tied the nuptial. Mr. and Mrs. Laing have a host of friends who join in wishing them a long and prosperous wedded life. The young couple will take up residence in Campbellford.

Laid at Rest

The funeral of the late Mrs. H. Crossen was held to the Trent Valley Cemetery. Universal symathy is extended to the sorrowing daughter who is left an orphan.

Methodist Anniversary

Anniversary Services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday 18th., but, owing to the inclemency of the weather, the congregations were not large. Rev. Wesley Elliott of Belleville, president of the Bay of Quinte Conference and a former pastor, preached at both services. The reverend gentleman took for his subject in the morning "Faith's difficulties from the standpoint of experience" and in the evening: "The iron Gate", and based his remarks on Acts 12: 10: "When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadth unot the city". Mr. Elliott is a clear and forcible speaker and was listened to with rapt attention throughout Special music was rendered by the choir and a free will offering taken for the current expenses of the church.

VALUE OF LIQUOR.

FREDERICTON, N.B., Dec. 20. —(Canadian Press.) — The total value of liquor taken over by the New Brunswick Board of Liquor Vendors for the holders of wholesale licenses under the prohibition act wll ot be less than $250,000, according to Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, chairman of the board.

Under the act creating it, the board was obliged to take over all liquors held by former licensed wholesale vendors at prices paid by them, and could not therefore make a choice of quantities, kinds or even brands from the stocks held by such former licensees, Mr. Tweeddale added.

DISCUSSION TO CONTINUE

ing the publication of his plan for an alternative settlement, which it was revealed has been submitted at least week's private sessions of the Dail. The argument was that the nation had a right to know what were the two policies they were expected to decide upon.

De Valera resisted publication of his alternative plan, explaining that it was put forward only in an attempt to secure unanimiy in the Dail Eireann and was now irrevelant. He promised, however, at a later stage to indicate in his own way the alternative proposal.

ISSUED AN ADDRESS

BELFAST, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—The Irish Grand Orange Lodge has issued an address to its members, declaring that if an Irish Free State is set up loyalists will be compelled to defend their lives and liberties by force.

This would be most distasteful to them, it is added, but force is the only argument used by the British Government.

A Stitch in Time

Quick action is the only hope when kidney disease appears.

There is a whole train of dreadfully painful and fatal ailments which soon follow any neglect to get the kidneys right. Among others are rheumatism, lumbago, Bright's disease, hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure.

In Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills you will find a treatment which is both quick and thorough.

Mr. C. E. Raymus, Lindale, Alta., writes:—

"I was a great sufferer from kidney disease and lame back for more than a year. A friend of mine one day told me of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and acting upon his advice I tried them. After I had taken one box I felt better, so I continued until I had used five boxes. By this time I felt as well and strong as ever, and am glad to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anyone suffering as I did."

IN MILLBROOK AND DISTRICT

U.E.O. CLUB ELECT OFFICERS— DANCE TO BE HELD IN MILLBROOK.

MILLBROOK, December 20. — The U.E.O. Club of Millbrook, at a recent meeting elected the following officers: President, R. H. Hubbeard; vice-president, A. Coulter; secretary-treasurer, H. J. Hubbeard; shipper, J. T. Lang; directors, L. Sutton, H. Ball, W. Elson, W. Wood, W. B. Williamson, A. J. Brown, J. W. Perrin, A. A. Birchard; auditors, Wilfrid Elson, Allan Wood; social committee, W. Elson, A. Johnston, M. Perrin.

Before the meeting concluded, several of the members made brief but appropriate speeches, and on a motion, it was decided to hold a social evening in the Town Hall in the near future, a committee being appointed to secure talent for a programme.

Frazerville L.O.L.

The L.O.L., No. 46, of Frazerville, at their annual meeting, elected the following officers:

Herbert Cunningham, Worshipful Master.

Fred Lewers, Deputy Master.

R. M. Patterson, Chaplain.

W. G. Waterman, Recording Secretary.

J. T. Moncrief, financial secretary.

D. W. Johnston, treasurer.

J. O. Pue, Director of Ceremonies.

Stewart Hogg, 1st Lectureman.

Committee—Evans Stewart, Robt. Holden, Walter Moncrief, Orval Kidd, B. Seabrook.

The presiding officer for the meeting was Worshipful Bro. County Master W. T. Moncrief, a Past Master of the Lodge, who made an appropriate address, as did also some of the newly-elected officers.

An excellent supper brought the gathering to a close.

Epworth League.

The Senior Epworth League has withdrawn its usual Monday night meetings to allow those taking part in the S. S. entertainment to be held on Monday, 2nd January, an opportunity to attend the necessary rehearsals. The League will not meet again until the second Monday in January.

Personals.

Mrs. J. W. Walsh returned on Saturday from a pleasant visit for several weeks with her niece, Mrs. Joseph Porter, of Lakefield, and is now the guest of Miss Burton. Mrs. Walsh will probably remain in Millbrook for some time.

Mrs. Whyte returned on Saturday after visiting for some time with her sister, Mrs. Fitzgerald, and other friends, in Toronto. At present, Mrs. Whyte is staying with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Eakins.

Miss E. M. Fisher visited friends in Peterborough on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Given left on Monday morning for Sarieveport, Louisiana, intending to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Ellis, of that city. The business affairs of the Reporter office, together with the publication of the paper, are in the capable hands of Mr. Levi Russell during Mr. Given's absence.

Miss Edna Eastcott, one of the teachers in Wells' College, Aurora, N.Y., is home for the holiday season.

Will Hold Dance.

There will doubtless be a large attendance at the dance to be given in the Town Hall on Thursday evening, 22nd December, under the auspices of the local L.O.L. No. 79, and the R.B.P., No. 945.

Mr. L. Morton will act as floor manager, and the committee includes Messrs. R. Ryley, M. Todd, and R. A. Hunter. Both square and round dances are being arranged for, the music to be provided by Mr. and Mrs. Amos Strong with violin and piano.

Quite a number from Millbrook expect to attend the shooting match to be held on Mr. Ben Ollan's farm, lot 2, con. 14, Cavan, on Tuesday, December 20th, beginning at 1 p.m. Every contestant must bring his own shot gun, and a number of fine fowl are to be competed for.

Sunday's storm did considerable damage in Millbrook and the surrounding country. The shingles were blown off the roof on the west side of the G.T.R. station, and the new saw mill which Mr. Attwool is erecting beside his chopping mill, was blown completely down just as the major portion of the building was finished. On several farms the windmills were badly injured, also some of the outbuildings, and trees and telephone poles were blown down in many places.

Much sympathy will be felt for Miss Rose MacNamara, who was called home to Orillia on Monday of last week on account of the serious illness of her father, only to find that the latter, who had been sick for some time, passed away before she arrived. The funeral took place on Wednesday and Miss MacNamara returned to Millbrook on Saturday.

Christmas trees and the accompanying Sunday school entertainment, seem to be the order of the day just now, the Presbyterians of Millbrook and the Methodists of Carmel holding theirs on Tuesday night, Cavanville on Friday, the 23rd, and Bailieboro, which this year takes the form of a basket social, on Wednesday, the 28th inst. The date for the Anglican S. S. concert will also be fixed for some time during the last week of this year. One or two of the local dramatic clubs, and at least one other in the vicinity of Millbrook, are preparing to put on a play early in the new year.

The Misses Gladys and Marjorie Smith are home from Toronto for the Christmas holidays.

PUBLIC HEALTH NORTH MONAGHAN IS GRADED HIGH

Sanitary Conditions Excellent— Threatened Diphtheria Epidemic Nipped in the Bud By Health Official's Vigilance.

DR. GREER REPORTS

At a meeting of North Monaghan Board of Health comprised of Reeve J. McIntosh, James Lang, Dr. T. N. Greer, M.O.H. and Sanitary Inspector J. C. Morrow, held on Saturday public health matters were discussed and general satisfaction at the favorable conditions in the Township expressed.

The reports of the Medical officer and Sanitary inspector were received. Inspector Morrow's report was similar to that of Dr. Greer in reporting infectious diseases that have occurred in North Monaghan during the year.

M.O.H.'s Report

The report of Dr. Greer was as follows:

"Gentlemen:—

"I beg leave to submit my report for 1921.

"We had during the year 17 cases of Diptheria and 15 cases of Scarlet Fever. The majority of these cases occured in the months of October and November. As conditions seemed to indicate the beginning of an epidemic of Diphtheria in October, accompanied by a nurse I made a thorough examination of all the children attending May's School, about three hundred in all. We located 17 carriers of Diphtheria, these were quarantined at home and all the members of their families were given immunizing doses of anti toxin. This action seemed to check the epidemic in the district almost at once as only one more case of the disease has been reported since isolating the carriers.

"At the present date there is only one case of Diphtheria and two of Scarlet Fever in the municipality. The satisfactory results of my recent survey of the school children in search for diphtheria carriers emphasizes the importance of provision being made in all the schools for regular thorough inspection of the children not alone for the detection of communicable diseases but of all defects which may in any way interfere with the childs proper development and progress.

"I have made a beginning in this regard at May's school and I am hoping to observe beneficial results from our work in the near future. Over seventy-five per cent of the children in this school are suffering from defects which handicap them by impairing their mental and physical powers and which can be remedied by proper medical and surgical treatment.

"The economic value to the community of such preventive work in the interest of the public health cannot be estimated in dollars. From a humanitarian stand point it should at one appeal to every right minded person. Therefore every dollar of public money spent in such praiseworthy work will yield a far greater return than it can in any other way, and it is hoped a due appreciation of this fact will encourage our Municipal Council to advance all the funds necessary for the proper carrying on of this important public service.

The general sanitary conditions in the Township are quite satisfactory.

Salvation Army Bandsman's Testimonial in Favour of Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets

Mr. Russell Reeve, 23 Cornhill St., Chatham, Ont., says:

Gentlemen: Just a few lines to thank you for the wonderful benefit I have received from Dr. Henderson's Herb Treatment. For 25 years or more I have suffered from Catarrh of the head, brought on by going under the water too much: I had a very disagreeable discharge from my ear, which was very annoying as well as loathsome. I had tried several different treatments that were recommended to me, but they did not appear to help me. I purchased a box of your Herb Treatment and after using it for a time the discharge had ceased and it has never bothered me for over a year. I am certainly grateful to your agent for ever selling them to me. You can use this letter in any way that you choose for the benefit of others.

Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets are not a "Cure all.' It is simply a combination of herbs, roots, barks and juice of fruits that act directly upon the important internal organs, aiding them to perform their functions properly and thus to expel wastes and poisons from the system. In this natural way the body is given a thorough internal cleansing and then the forces of Nature can act vigorously and freely in rebuilding and restoring the affected parts. Try a box and watch the results. Price 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per box at WARNE'S DRUG STORE, Peterborough.

BANDITS HELD UP AUDITOR.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19—Three bandits held up the auditor of the Capital theatre building last night and escaped with ten thousand dollars.

ARE BOOSTING HOCKEY NOW IN LAKFIELD

Activities of Amateur Athletic Association Promise, It Is Said, a Real Old-Time Champion Hockey Team.

LAKEIELD NEWS

LAKEFIELD, Dec. 20.—The Lakefield Athletic Association are boasting Canada's National winter sport, and as soon as the ice is ready hockey practice will begin. Big boys, little boys and those who can no longer be called boys are playing hockey this year and Lakefield will once more be known as it has been in the past, as the home of champion team which always plays a fast but absolutely clean hockey.

The A.A.A. are boasting a membership campaign at present and hope to enroll every one who is at all eligible as member. The following have already signed up: J. C. Strickland, R. A. Hirsch, J. W. Ridpath, C. J. Crawford, W. Murduff, J. R. Hill, G. G. Connell, W. G. Morrison, H. E. Peacock, V.G. Simpson, J. Hull, B. Blewett, H. Blewett, C. S. Tanner, R. L. Mason, Dr. S. J. WINTER IN ALGONQUIN PARK.

Every year the number of winter vacationists to Algonquin Park is increasing, and many prefer the dry, clear, cold atmosphere of this delightful region (2,000 feet above sea level) to the more enervating climate of the south. "The Highland Inn" offers exceptionally good accommodation, and as it is owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway, patrons are assured good service. The hotel will be open for the winter season from Dec. 15th until March 15th. The Park is 200 miles north of Toronto and a through sleeping car is operated between Toronto and the Park Tuesdays and Fridays, returning Wednesdays and Saturdays. An illustrated booklet describing the winter sports, handsomely illustrated, will be sent free upon application to any Grand Trunk Ticket Agent, or C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

POLITICAL CAUCUS.

SASKATOON, Sask., Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press.)—Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressive party, arrived in the city from Winnipeg at noon to-day. According to all reports he is here to attend a conference of Progressive organizers and members elect on large questions of party policy, but he would make no statement as to the object of his visit.

Do The Right Thing Without Being Told !

DECIDE to send the Daily Examiner for 1922 to your old friends in distant lands as a Christmas or New Year's Gift.

Start the New year with this inspirational thought. It would intensify the desire to see larger, better things materialize in 1922.

Somewhere in that far city, a son, a daughter, a father, mother or friend will be made happier by your remembrance of them with this good old daily messenger.

Do the right thing without being told. Why not now—the cost is trifling.

When it comes to Christmas Greetings,
There is nothing you can send;
Like the good old staunch Examiner
To your good old staunch friend.

May they receive their share of the Prosperity that is coming; may their faith in themselves and in their fellows grow strong; and may they obtain as much pleasure and inspiration from reading THE EXAMINER as we do from providing it.

RELIEF BILL HIGHER THAN ANY YEAR YET

CENTRAL CHARITY BOARD EXPENDS $8,579.46 IN 1921

So far this year the Central Charity Board have expended more than during any other year in their history. To date, there has been spent $8,579.46, and this amount will be swelled before the close of 1921. In 1915 there were a great many calls for assistance, and that year's expenditure ran up to $7,675.85, as compared with $5,843.32 in 1914. Since the previous meeting, on Nov. 28, it was reported by F. W. Miller, Relief Officer, at a meeting of the Board last night, that $1,091.90 had been expended: $381 for groceries, $381.75 for fuel, and $329.15 for maintenance of patients and inmates at homes and sundry expenditures. This later item has accounted for $4,624.24 this year, while groceries have totalled $2,208.97 and fuel $1,734.25.

Members present last night were: H. Rush (chairman), F. W. Miller, W. C. Switzer, W. G. Howden, J. Speer, J. Garside and H. C. Stabler.

After passing the following accounts the Board adjourned, to meet again on Tuesday, Jan. 3, 1922:

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS;

YOUNG MOTHER: What you must guard against is chafing. While there is no particular objection to using powder, it is much better to use CAMPANA'S ITALIAN BALM before powdering the baby. A liberal application of CAMPANA'S ITALIAN BALM to the affected parts after each bath will go a great way to prevent chafing and irritation of the skin. You will also find it a wonderful preventative of chapped or red hands. CAMPANA'S ITALIAN BALM keeps the skin soft and smooth and reinforces the natural oils of the skin in performing their natural functions. You can buy CAMPANA'S ITALIAN BALM at any Druggist. 40c. a lareg bottle.

PLAN RAILWAYS FOR PATAGONIA.

Narrow Gauge to Connect With Present System.

BUENOS AYRES, December 20 (Associated Press). — Patagonia, the far-away region stretching out for hundreds of miles in Southern Argentina, may be liked with what is now the thickly settled section of the country if President Yrigoyen and government officials are able to carry out their plans for constructing a system of light, narrow-gauge railways connecting with the present railroad system.

The plan is to begin as soon as possible the work of constructing lines totalling 622 miles.

At the present time Patagonia is linked with Buenos Ayres only by irregular steamers, and the ranchers throughout the region have great difficulty in getting their products to market.

A large part of the region is more or less barren, and much that is fertile is not yet settled on account of the difficulty of transportation. Patagonia produces wool, meat, some grain, and other agricultural products, and is said to have a great potential petroleum production.

MAGISTRATE DUMBLE SHOWED LENIENCY

SUSPENDED SENTENCE FOR MEN WHO CONSPIRED TO DEFRAUD EMPLOYERS.

In consideration of the distress that would be caused to their families were they sent to jail, and the penitence of the accused, Magistrate D. W. Dumble, in the Police Court this morning, let go on suspended sentence two employees of a local mill who conspired to defraud the company last week.

Joseph O'Brien pleaded for leniency in one case and Rev. J. R. Webb appealed to His Worship on behalf of the other man. Both men had pleaded guilty and admitted to the Chief of Police their conspiracy to defraud their employers of $43.20, the value of 48 bushels of wheat at 90 cents a bushel, for which one of the men, through his position of trust, had issued an order to be cashed at the office by a youth, who innocently enough put the police on the case.

PASTOR SPRACKLIN PLAYS BASKETBALL

IN AUTOMOBILE WORKS—ON SIX MONTHS' "LEAVE" FROM MINISTRY.

WINDSOR, December 20. — Given six months' "leave of absence" by the official board of the Sandwich Methodist Church, Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin is now working in an automobile factory in London.

While members of the Sandwich Church Board declined on Saturday to talk about a report that Mr. Spracklin had left the ministry, a despatch from London gave the information that the pastor now is permanently employed by the London Motors, Limited, and will be a member of the company's basket ball team.

Mr. Spracklin is said to have been given a holiday by the Sandwich Board because he was suffering from a nervous breakdown. A week before the Board took this action, Mr. Spracklin denied that he suffered from spasmodic nervous spells.

REFORMATORY FOR YOUNG BURGLARS

THREE YOUTHS SENTENCED BY JUDGE HUYCKE AND WARNED OF INEVITABLE END OF CAREER THEY BEGAN.

Three youths, ranging in age from 18 to 20, of well-known and respectable families, were sentenced to six months each in the Ontario Reformatory by Judge Huycke this afternoon on charges of burglary, to which they had pleaded guilty. In addressing them, His Honor referred to the fact that representations in their behalf had been made by prominent citizens. He had given these appeals every thought, and, personally, he was always inclined to deal leniently and sympathetically with boys.

In this case he had to decide what was the best kindness to them. "If I let you loose now, you will simply go from bad to worse. If you go on in the way you have started you will end up in a penitentiary for life, or worse. I know that your people are heart-broken over this, and many other persons in the community feel keenly the position you are in. But you must understand, and it must be generally understood, that burglary, the crime you have committed in breaking into and entering, is one of the most serious of crimes."

Were Not Instigated.

Judge Huycke pointed out that the three boys had admitted that no one had induced them to commit these offences. They had started alone, and upon their own initiative. If they were now set free other youths might be influenced to imitate them. No restitution had been made of the stolen goods, and the accused were serving a sentence of three months in the county jail for breaches of the Ontario Temperance Act.

His Honor stated that he could sentence these boys to long terms of imprisonment, but he wished to give them a chance, and, accordingly, committed them to the Reformatory, where they would be given a chance to begin learning a trade. Upon their conduct would depend whether they served only six months or the full term of twelve months.

Plotted in Restaurant.

The combined charges to which these boys pleaded guilty numbered eight, and three others to which they pleaded not guilty were dropped by Crown Attorney Hatton. Their first burglary was committed in an adventure that was hatched during a midnight lunch in an uptown cafe. They broke into a west-end home and carried out a considerable quantity of liquor on to the lawn near the sidewalk. Next they procured a horse and buggy and drove off with their spoils, which soon began to leave a wake of drunks that led to the inevitable arrest and the round up of all three of them. One debauch as a result of this flowing of whiskey occurred in North Monaghan, and one of the boys stated in his deposition "that I had an awful time getting them into the auto. They were so drunk I had to drive into town." This party included only one of the three prisoners. Most of the whiskey they peddled on the streets, selling it at any price they could get, from three to seven dollars a bottle. And the purchasers were subsequently gathered in and fined for their share in the unexpected supply.

Two other homes were broken into, the gang carrying a revolver and knives. Taking all these facts into consideration, Judge Huycke stated that he would not be doing his duty if he suspended sentence. Accordingly, he imposed the sentence of six months in the Ontario Reformatory for each offence, the terms to run concurrently.

THE PETERBORO FRUIT STORES

WINTER TRADE IS UP TO THE AVERAGE — CHRISTMAS RUSH NOT IN EVIDENCE—THE PRICES

Fruit stores report that the winter trade is about up to the average but the Christmas rush prepared for is nowhere in evidence. People are evidently not spending their money on delicacies from the fruit stores. The shelves full of packtges of raisins, figs and dates are hardily disturbed and even supplies of ordinary commodities like oranges that usually sell in large quantities are by no means keeping up to standard.

Prices Lower This Year

Prices in most instances are below last year but the buying public are keeping a death grip on their purse strings and it looks as if the stores will be left with big stocks on hand after Christmas unless next week tells a story of fat last minute sales.

It was a Charlotte street fruit merchant who raised a voice of lamentation.

"Other years people would buy big quantities. Instead of a dozen oranges as now they would buy five dozen and instead of a pound of nuts, three or four pounds. Grapes raisins and nuts are selling very slowly and apples and fish that always sold well are quiet."

The fruit men realize however that generally speaking money is not as plentiful as it was a year ago and are not complaining much about the Christmas sales as long as the average is fair. The stores are a wealth of color and goodies. Prices of goods do not show much change. Apples are quite plentiful and Christmas prices are as follows: Spy 60-65 cents; Snow, 60 cents; Peewaukie, 60-75 cents; Russets, 60 cents; Greenings, 60 cents; MacIntosh Reds, 80 cents. Snows being an early apple are becoming scarce and are not offered by the barrel. Spy and MacIntosh Reds are bringing $8 a barrel with other grades accordingly. Some of the imported specials the stores are carrying for Christmas are: California grapes, 35 cents a pound; Malaga grapes, 40 cents a pound; Malaga raisins, 50 to 55 cents a package; dates 20 cents figs 35 cents. There are wagon loads of nuts in the Peterboro shops Mixed nuts are in some places 30 and in some 35 cents a pound. Brazils and Almonds are 30 and English walnuts 35 cents. Cranberries are 25 and 30 cents with the first price predominating just now.

Vegetable stuff from the hot houses is much in evidence and very expensive. Head lettuce ranges from 20 to 30 cents, cauliflower, 40 50 and 60 cents, Tomatoes 50 and 60 cents and celery 15 to 25 cents.

The Vegetables

Local fruit men with considerable supplies of potatoes are beginning to wonder what they will do with them. In shops the sale at $1.75 a bag and 30 cents a peck is very slow However they are keeping good; one dealer declaring there was not a spot on any of his.

CHANGES MADE MARKING ACT

ORIGINAL TERMS HAVE BEEN MODIFIED CONSIDERABLY

OTTAWA, Dec. 20.— (Canadian Press.) — Important changes have been made in the regulations governing the much discussed markings of imported goods to indicate the country of origin. Since the Marking Act was passed last session, there has been considerable criticism of it and representations have been made that its enforcement should be postponed. The latter course has not yet been found possible, the act containing provision for postponement. Yesterday's amendments, however, considerably modify the terms of the regulations made in August and instructions have been sent to all collectors of customs and excise to use reasonable discretion in the enforcement of the regulations so as not to cause undue annoyance or irritation to importers. Section thirteen of the August regulations provided that the name of a city, province, state, department or other division would not be regarded as an indication of country or origin. This section has been cancelled.

ATTEND THE OPENING.

OTTAWA, December 20 (Canadian Press). — His Excellency Lord Byng of Vimy, Canada's new Governor-General, will grace the opening of the National Hockey League season here, when the Ottawa and Toronto teams meet at the Laurier Avenue Arena on Wednesday night. Lord Byng has accepted the honorary presidency of the Ottawa Hockey Club, and has sent word that he will attend, if possible, all the N. H. L. games in the capital.

To-day word was received that their Excellencies, together with the members of their staff, would occupy the Vicereal box when Ottawas and Toronto play on Wednesday night.

CT. PETERBORO, C.O.F., ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The following is a list of the officers elected to fill the chairs of Court Peterborough No. 29, Canadian Order of Foresters for the ensuing year and they will be duly installed at the first regular meeting next year, Friday January 6th.

J.P.C.R., W. J. Hooper; C.R., J. A. Yardley; V.C.R., J. W. LeBarr; Rec. Sec., D. Menzies; Fin. Sec., C. A. Stenton; Treas., Frank Adams; Chap., George Carpenter; S. W., Ed. Heap; J.W., Thos. Sargent; S.B., R. Johnson; J.B., Cole Barrett; Court Phy., Dr. McDougall; Trustees: George Stenton, Wm. Carter and Albert Carpenter, Auditors: R. B. Pearson and W.J. Wilson.

Brother Foresters are requested to turn out in goodly numbers instalation night.

RE-COUNT OF VOTE.

CALGARY, Alta., Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—The re-count of the vote in West Calgary election began on Monday morning before Judge Winter. When the count was concluded for the morning thirteen polls had been checked, and the result was an increase of one vote in the majority of Hon. R. B. Bennett. The judge reserved decision on one ballot.

ROYALTY AND THE CITY OF OLD LONDON.

Ancient Connections Have Been Recently Re-affirmed

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Ancient connections between British royalty and the city of London have been reaffirmed by the ceremonious admission of the Duke of York, King George's second son, to the "Worshipful Company of Merchant Taylors," the first honorary members of which was Edward III who reigned some 800 years ago.

After the swearing in, the Duke said that having been preciously admitted to the drapers, the mercers and the needlemakers' guilds, he was happy in rounding off his connection with the clothing trade by becoming a "taylor" also; but he confessed that he was glad he did not live in the days of James I when the banquet given in honor to a new member included a dish of owls and cuckoos.

MEXICO'S COTTON CROP.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 20.—Mexico's cotton crop this year will not be more than 80,000 bales as compared to a normal annual crop of 125,000 bales, according to recent estimates. The decrease is said to be the result of the determination of growers in the Laguna district, where the bulk of the crop is produced, not to cultivate their fields until market prices are higher.

COLD IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 20. —(Canadian Press)—This city is experiencing its coldest weather in two years. At 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning, the thermometer registered 14.9 above zero. The highest temperature during the night was 17 above.

AUCTION BRIDGE

We have received an advance copy of the latest book on Auction Bridge It's a compact little red book with a complete story of the game as it is played today and every day at the important card clubs in New York City. It has stood the acid test. The little book has been used by the best Auction teachers in the large cities for year.

It is published annually. All the changes in the Laws, the Rules, the style of bidding, the newest wrinkles in the doubling conventions are brought up to the minute in every issue.

You cannot play any card game unless you know the laws, the rules and the conventions. You must know them all to play well.

Price 75 cents. Wynne Ferguson, 329 Broadway, New York.

Lyceum Concert at Conservatory

One of the prettiest and most appreciated concerts of the season was rendered last evening in the fourth number of the winter Lyceum course of entertainment at the Conservatory of Music by the Patricia Trio, in a very entertaining programme of songs, readings and harp selections. The repertoire of these three accomplished artists was apparently inexhaustible, and every number was accorded the heartiest applause, the outstanding feature, perhaps, being the numbers on the minstrel harp rendered by Miss Beulah Margolis, who recited, to the sweet, rippling arpeggios of the old instrument, a lovely "Lullaby," and an oddly sweet little selection, "Butterflies." As a harp number, also, "The Harp of Tara" was heartily encored.

Miss Patricia Gilmore, the leading member of the trio, is the possessor of an exceptionally well-trained lyric soprano voice, and with Mr. George Callan, whose fine baritone has a peculiar dramatic timbre which showed to the best advantage in the "Hanging of Danny Deever," rendered some beautiful selections during the evening.

"Awake, Dearest One" was the opening number, a duet with bird-like refrain, Miss Gilmore's clear voice, with its ringing-bell quality, blending perfectly with the resonant baritone. "By the Waters of Minetonka," its flute-like cadences rising and falling in rippling melody, was one of the most beautiful of the offerings; with "Honey, If You Only Knew," as a pretty encore. The duet, "That Voice," from "Il Trovatore," was splendid, and the following tuneful and whimsical "Sympathy" was heartily applauded.

Miss Gilmore had a little group of songs which displayed her remarkable technique to the best advantage; "Dawn," "The Four-Leaf Clover," and "Where Blossoms Grow"; and Mr. Callan sang "Sunrise and You," with true artistic interpretation.

The readings of Miss Margolis were beautifully done. The little one-act playlet, "The Finger of God," held her audience from start to finish in keen appreciation, and a triolet, "In the Usual Way," "The Naughty Little Clock," and "In May," were charming, humorous numbers. The reader also received much applause for "The Littlest Rebel," a Southern war-time number.

The second part of the programme was devoted to ensemble work, with the performers in old-fashioned attire, the ladies in spreading skirts of blue and rose-pink, with lace fichus, and the gentleman in satin, ruffled coat and knee breeches. The trio united with voices, piano and harp in some old-fashioned and popular selections. "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," "My Wild Irish Rose," and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," were lovely numbers, with the plaintive, "Last Rose of Summer," as a final soprano solo, with piano and harp accompaniment.

SETTLEMENT EFFECTED BY ALDERMAN GAINEY.

Agreement For Purchase of Ellis and Bettes Properties.

Ald. Gainey, chariman of the Council's Railways and Parks committee, has done well to clean up the problem of damage costs to Ellis and Bettes, whose properties south of Hunter street, just across the river, are depreciated in value by the construction of the Hunter street bridge. In Council Friday night Mayor McIntyre congratulated Ald. Gainey upon having effected a settlement of this long-standing vexed question before the term of this year's Council expires, it being understood that Ellis and Bettes are willing to execute an agreement with the city on the following terms reported to and adopted by Council:

"That the following offers be made, without prejudice and for the purposes of avoiding the costs of arbitration, for properties required for the park east of the river: J. C. Ellis $8,500, and J. H. Bettes $7,000, subject to both offers being accepted within ten days, and that in the event of these offers being accepted the owners may occupy the respective properties until August first next free of rent and taxes; further, that if the offers are accepted the Treasurer be authorized to issue cheques for these sums to pay for the properties."

FIVE ARE MURDERED FOR LOVE OF WOMAN

DEPRAVED MORALS OF ESKIMOS LEADS TO WHOLE ALE KILLING

EDMONTON, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—According to mounted police report from Tree River, Arctic Circle, five Eskimos—three men, woman and child—were murdered 30 miles east of Hudson Bay Post on Wager Bay, Kent Peninsula, in shooting affray, August 1.

It was all for the love of a lady. Otto Binder, trader, took for himself the wife of an Eskimo. Her husband and father were anxious that Binder should have a wife of his very own, so, going forth, the husband found a woman whom he thought would suit Binder, but she too had a husband. There was only one thing to do, and that was to do away with the husband. He was accordingly shot, but not dead, and his partner objected and the murderer was killed.

Relatives entered in, with the result that two more men lost their lives, together with the "original" Eskimo woman. A little four-year-old girl had been left without father or mother, so she was strangled by one of the "head men" of the district.

The police are searching for the murderers.

MARRIED TWICE BENEFITS CUT OFF NOW SEEKS DOWER

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN ACTION OF DWYER VS. GRISDALE—PROPERTY VALUATORS AT VARIANCE.

Experienced and expert valuators of property called as witnesses in the County Court this morning before Judge Huycke, in the case of Dwyer vs. Grisdale, differed considerably in their estimates of the natural increase in the value of real estate between the years 1916 and 1921.

J. T. O'Connell and H. J. McCannon placed the percentage of this increase at 20 per cent, but W. J. Henry, city assessor, said: "I consider that property is 40 per cent. higher than it was in 1916."

Dealing with the specific property involved in this case, in which plaintiff claimed dower in the house and lot at 853 Water street, owned by Mrs. Alex. Grisdale, its present owner, was estimated at $1720 by Mr. McCannon, $1500 by Mr. O'Connell, who also said it certainly was not worth $2000. Mr. Henry stated that this property was assessed at $850 in 1916, and might have sold for $1200.

J. R. Corkery appeared for the plaintiff, and G. N. Gordon for the defendant.

Mrs. Dwyer testified that she was the widow of the Philip Crough who died on September 14, 1916. She remarried on Nov. 20, 1918. The executors of her husband's estate were Patrick Crough and Sam Killen. In addition to the bequests Mrs. Dwyer received in the will, she claimed in this action dower in the property left by Philip Crough to his daughter, Mrs. Alex. Grisdale, the defendant, step-daughter of the plaintiff.

To Mr. Gordon, plaintiff said she first thought of demanding dower after her second marriage. Then certain provisions, one of them $50 a year and two cords of wood, another $30 and year and two more cords, given as long as she remained a widow, were cut off.

"I took the benefits under the will and did not think of dower until after I married again. I didn't know there was any dower just then," plaintiff said.

Improvements Made.

Alex. Grisdale, husband of the defendant, who was too ill to appear in court, said he had paid $4 a month for the home to Philip Crough in 1916. He regarded that sum as a fair rental, "and if I had to do it over again I wouldn't pay it. I don't think you could have got a stranger to pay it."

Mr. Grisdale said that improvements he had made to the house carpentry, plastering, etc., were well worth $500, painting and redecorating represented another $100 and shingling $75. Although a laborer, Mr. Grisdale said he had done all this work himself. The place was worth to-day, $2000, he believed, and the value of his time and labour and the material he had put into it would amount to $1200.

Mr Corkery argued that the benefits received by plaintiff under the will were not in lieu of dower.

Mr. Gordon contended that if dower was granted in this porperty then it should also be given in the other properties devised by the will.

Judgment was reserved.

SAYS IVY IS A FOE TO ARCHITECTURE.

Dangerous by Its Mortar-Destroying Propensities.

RELEASE DATES FILLED IN—

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—Strong objection has been taken recently in influential quarters in this country to the obscuration of fine architecture by clinging vegetation. The practice is being deplored not only on aesthetic grounds but it is stated by experts that it is actually dangerous to the obscured structure, especially in the case of ivy creepers.

Edward P. Warren, a distinguished architect, in a letter to The Times, says that, having been responsible during the last twenty years for the removal of an immense amount of ivy from the walls of Oxford University, he is the declared enemy of ivy. He would not permit ivy to grow upon any walls but those of uninhabited and uninteresting ruins, or the rough walls of fields or gardens.

"Ivy is a terribly insidious foe to architecture," Mr. Warren says; "its acid secretions destroy the mortar of the joints, reducing it to incohesive sand, and its fibres and its tendrils push their way between the joints. Its clinging branches grow and swell in every available hollow and crevice, bursting ancient moldings and shattering carvings, penetrating thick walls, if given time; lifting copings and parapets, and stealthily and steadily disintegrating the work of man's hands, while it smothers its proportions and its beauties."

Mr. Warren further arraigns ivy as being not only extremely dangerous by its mortar-destroying propensities, its power and its pushfulness, but as being a very dirty plant and harboring plentifully the dirtiest and noisiest of birds; holding damp, like an all full-leaved creepers, and screening the wall surfaces from beneficent sunshine. His chief objection to the less harmful and more attractive creepers, Wistaria and the Virginian creeper, is the necessity of nailing and the constant damage done by misdirected hammer blows and the rusting of nails.

extra night this year to do their buy-

President of the Retail Merchants' Association.

Arrangements have now been made to have all stores open four nights before Christmas, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

He also remarked that the merchants feel that the ladies should as far as possible do their shopping in the morning so as to enable them to secure better service, due to the difficulty encountered in serving to the whole of the Christmas trade in the afternoon and evening.

His advice is, to do as much shopping as possible in the morning.

GIFTS FOR THE POOR.

FIFTEEN BOILS ON NECK AT ONE TIME

Any one who has suffered from boils can sympathize with poor old Job.

There was no Burdock Blood Bitters in those days, so Job had to suffer in silence. Nowadays no one need endure the misery of boils.

Boils are simply evidences of the bad blood within coming to the surface and just when you get rid of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery.

All the poulticing and lancing you may do will not stop more coming.

What you have to do is take

and the blood will be cleansed of all its impurities, and then every boil will disappear.

Mr. Roy McSwain, High Bank, P. E. I., writes: "I was troubled with boils for some time, and had as many as fifteen on my neck at once. After taking one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters they commenced to get better, and after I had taken two bottles I was relieved of them and felt much better. I think B. B. B. is a grand blood medicine, and can recommend it highly."

For the past 45 years B. B. B. has been manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Beauty Hint for Women

For clear skin and bright eyes

When food is only imperfectly digested, it gives rise to fermentation, clogs the bowels, and renders the blood impure. This results in dull eyes, muddy skin, blotches, pimples and other disfiguring marks. THE FIRST BRITISH PRISONER IN WAR.

Dr. L. G. Austin, of Queen's, in City Last Week—Guest of Major Ackerman.

Dr. L. G. Austin, Professor of Surgery at Queen's University, who addressed the Peterboro Medical Society on that branch of medical science in which he is recognized as leader, on Thursday night, had the distinction, (unpleasant at the time) of being the first British Officer to be captured by the Germans in the Great War. Dr. Austin was taken prisoner by the Huns in front of Namur on August 18, 1914 only a fortnight after Britain and Germany closed in a death grip. Dr. Austin went to France with one of the first ambulance units and was rushed to the Belgian front, where in the fierce fighting before Namur his being taken prisoner, was said to be the first distinct case of a breach of the Hague Conference in regard to the taking of medical officers.

Dr. Austin was five months in a military prison, where he suffered indignities by the population of German towns which were at that time stirred to a flaming hatred of England and Englishmen. The doctor was everywhere exhibited for public vilification and abuse, and had he not been protected would have suffered death at the hands of the half-maddened mobs in Colgone and else where.

When released Dr. Austin was restricted to service at the base and until the armistice was in charge of No. 2 British Base Hospital, Rouen. Here it was that in 1915 he had the occasion to operate on a serious case —that of Lieutenant Charles Ackerman, (now Major)—and by his skill, in the opinion of Major Ackerman, saved his life. During the war No. 2 Base became known as the hospital where a wonderful surgeon restored bodies shattered in the furnace of war that ran from the channel to Switzerland.

Since 1919 Dr. Austin has been Professor of Surgery at Queen's University, and he likes Canada so much that, instead of returning to his home in Bristol next Summer, as he did last year, he will spend it on this side of the water. During his short stay in Peterboro he was the guest of Major Charles Ackerman.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN COULDN'T SLEEP NIGHT

To those on the verge of a nervous breakdown the following symptoms present themselves: nervous headaches, a feeling of depression, fitful, disturbed, restless and unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with frightful dreams, avoidance of crowded places, dread of being alone, horror of society, etc.

When the nerves become affected in this way the heart generally becomes affected too, and on the first signs of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown do not wait until your case becomes hopeless, but get a remedy that will at once quieten the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system.

This you will find in

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

Mrs. M. Damgand, Young's Cove Road, N.B., writes: "I was bothered very much with my heart and nerves; had nervous headaches and dizziness, could not sleep at nights, and my appetite was all gone. I was on a nervous breakdown when a neighbor told me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This I did, and before I had the second box used I was better and would advise anyone who has nerve trouble to take them."

LOCAL KIDDIES SEND LETTERS TO SANTA IN REINDEER LAND

HUNDREDS OF COMMUNICATIONS DROPPED IN MAIL BOX OUTSIDE CITY STORE BREATHE OF LOVABLE AND SUBLIME CONFIDENCE IN BIG HEART OF FATHER CHRISTMAS—SOME PITEOUS APPEALS CALL FOR INVESTIGATION.

(By JEANNETTE.)

The Santa Claus' mail-box instituted by one of the local stores has proven a very popular feature with the children. Communications to Santa, addressed to "Toyland, North Pole" to "White Mountain, Greenland," to Lapland, to "The North Pole, Arctic Ocean," to Iceland, have come pouring in by the hundreds on all sorts of stationery, on foolscap and wrapping paper, on tinted note, in blue and pink and green, with Christmas seals and kisses, signed and unsigned, with the writers' wishes for a happy season for Santa, with enquiries as to his health and well-being, and with promises to provide refreshment for him on his arrival.

The letters are as characteristic as those of adults. Some are simply elongated lists of many wants, others are shy pleas for one or two simple articles, others include presents for the entire family, and many, significantly enough, ask for only things to eat. There have been several pitiful little requests this year, and the Rotary Club is said to be interesting itself in one particular case. One cannot help thinking that charitable organizations might get a good insight into some of the homes from these childish epistles.

Jack D., who "is going to Grandma's for Christmas," and hopes Santa has a sleigh, "so he can get through without any trouble," wants a drum, a motor car, two handkerchiefs and some perfume"; Marcella S. would be quite contented with "a cut-put book and a fifteen-cent-doll. That will be all. By-by, with mush love."

Ties For Father

For the elder male relations, the children's thoughts seem to center around a tie as an admirable Christmas present. There are ever so many requests for ties for fathers, and uncles and brothers, and perfume seems to be the popular gift for mothers and big sisters. Lillian D. wants "perfume for Edith, and a perfume spray."

Kenneth wants "a horne, a gun and a pair of skase." Della would like a "hold set of furs and a piture book"; Ruth requests "a dear little dress for myself, candies, oranges, bananas, and things for dolly"; Eva is evidently fed up on music at her house, for her list includes "a new piece for the gramaphone"; while the four little brothers from one house are evidently of different minds in their Christmas desires. Number one is frivolous, he wants "a cuppie game, a set of ups and downs, and some Bom Boms"; Number two "a jockey and a fire horse", number three "a baseball and a football"; and number four "a furley dog, a kiddie car, a train and tracks." They are all united however in their desire for "oranges, candy, and nuts."

Red Overstockings.

Frances is practical, she would like a school-bag, mitts and red over stockings; Reggie whose birthday falls on Christmas Day so he says, he wants a pump cart and an aeroplane, and "my stocking will hang by my bed", and Harold wishes "you would bring Daddy lots of business". Valentine, who encloses a score of kisses, would like "a set of tools, a pump-cart, and some christmas tree decorating."

From three little things comes the following: "Dear Santa: Would you please send us a few toys for Christmas. There are three of us, and dady is out of work. If you could send us anything, would you send me a doll, this is Florrie, the next is baby Irene, she wants a doll, and next is Dannie; he wants an engine." (Signed) Florrie, 9; Dannie, 6; Irene, 3.

"Tomey," who sends thanks for last year's gifts, as so many of the children do, wants "a shovel, a Sandy Andy, and a little horse"; Harry, who is 'your boy,' requests a "book, bag and train, and a opig', whatever that is. Perhaps Santa knows.

"A Good Boy"

Gerald, who is "getting very anxious to see you," and rather ambiguously promises to be "a good little boy until you visit us", wants a "book of lions and a bridge and ding bell for my slay", Alex, "a circus", Lillian is sorry that he has to work so hard, and Alice wishes him a pleasant journey; Rosemary will hang her stocking by the fireplace, and will leave some bread and cheese for him on the parlour table; Tom, who realizes that "there are many besides me that want things" prudently gives the size of the boots he wants, so "I won't have to send them back"; the cautious young damsel who signs herself "Miss M. O.C.," would like a wig for her doll, and David's little letter requests "a drum and new suit for me; a new tie for father; a new dress for mother, and for little Jean, a nice pair of stockings." Doris naively wants "all I can get this year, for I've been good," Archie, a Buster Brown waggon and a little whistle," Roland simply says; "I want a slay" and Freddy, "a black man, abc book and Sandy Andy". Olive has a varied list, including "a pair of bedroom slippers with cats on, a pair of scissors, a book of bed-time stories, a blue pencil, a celluloid kewy, a sucking bottle, a little doll, a bracelet, a little chair, because I had one, but it was broken and Mamma made me throw it in the garbage, some homework books and a ruler."

"Little Sweetheart"

Florence, who is "your little sweet eart," is very precise in her directions. For herself, "a desk and chair" for Willie, a tie; for Fred, a collar size 15; for Daddy, a collar and tie, for Mother, an apron and dust-cap; for Lillian, "my friend", a sleeping-doll; for a boy friend, a game; and for my cousin, a doll sleigh."

Joseph is frangly friendly, with his "Hello, dear old Santa. How are all your fokes. We are all purty well. Hope yore the same. I would like a pear of skats and moxins and a book sak, and a box of writen paper. Hopen I haven't asked for to mutch."

Marjorie promises to give Santa his supper and "things to give to peole"; Cyril, who says he is five years old, wants "a big gun and a sadled horse, for I want to go hunting," Phyllis says her last year's doll is not broken yet, but its hair fell off; Margaret would like "a little celluloid doll, for my nightdress pocket, and a box of checkers", Hilda, who encloses a front and back view of "Santa's girl," wants a "soing set"; Bertie sends his love, and "hope you are not sick"; with a request for a snow shovel and a brown bear; Douglas would like a pair of pants and a blouse and a new dress for mother: Jack, who is evidently bored, says "please bring something that will interest me", and Stanley must have strong ideas on politics and the proper role for the female, when he writes for "a little Tory dog, and or my sister a doll, a set of dishes, a broom and Edna has peculiar desires; she wants "a horse and drum, a baby doll, a blackboard, and a box of handkerchiefs."

Fred would like a "gameoftiddly winks', and Victor must be an enthusiastic reader of the funny pictures. He wants a picture book of "jiggs, mutt and jeff, and the katzjammer kids."

Santa's Health

Billy, whose heart is large if his orthography is weak, has tried to be good since last Christmas, and hopes that Santa is well and happy. He will leave some cake and tea on the table for him, and would like "a riting desc, a drum, a parufscas, a little hors, and a cagn". Kenneth is literay as well as sporty. He asks for "a cap gun, a hooky stik, and a novl", and Dorothy, evidently a tempermental maiden, wants "a sluring set and a monkey."

Lionel's letter is absolutely swamped with a description of "Jimmy's" and "Loretta's" needs, and he ends his epistle with a mild request for an eleprant for himself; Johnnie promises to leave the stove-door open on Christmas eve, and says he is "the only kid in this house, but there are lots more down the street"

Mildred wants only $1.00, and Willie; "horse hiched to a dump cart and a monkey that climes a rope". A nigger dancer, and a "slay named Safety" are further needs, and Russel requests a story book "and please don't forget the poor little boys and girls that haven't any money."

One small maiden is evidently familiar with Santas cypher. "Dear Daddy Xmas, a big curly head doll and just a small G. p." An unsigned epistle, which "hopes you dont get stuck in the snow", requests "an elephant and train for me; Daddy, garters; Mother, hat; Aunty, shoes; Roley, engine, Tom tobacco; Jack braces, and Lillian, a piano."

A Puppy Dog

"Miss Cynthia E. "would like a little puppy dog and chain", and Grace requests "a tea-set and box of paints and got baby Geogie, a geegee." Elva is smitten with love for cards, for she wants games; "Lost Heir, Old Maid, Pit, Ups and downs, Bubbles and bag-pipes". Eunice wants a doll "like Grandma's and Kathleen would like a "sponeg and nail-brush, to keep me clean."

Jack; "a rubber-tipped arrow" Betsy: a wig for the doll; Charlie; "a little thing that plays when you hit it with two hammer things"; Helen, "a plaid tammie"; May, "an 18 inch doll, $3.50; a par cheese game, 49 cents; 2 stove, prise 69 cents"; the boy and girl twins want a cook-stove and washing-set, a Noah's ark and box of tools, and promise to do "what Mother tells us"; Bobbie, "a live dog"; Leslie, a gun, a violin, and a box of crackers; Dorothy, "a mucid box, a cracker, and glove of the world;" Flora, "a squeaky doll, elephant, tiger, bear, cow, duck, a party dress, and white angora mgittens."

Some of the little things have their doubts. Irva says, "I want a Christmas stocken. How much is it? You tell me and I send the money. You anser my letter at Turbie store." Melville who enquires about conditions at the North Pole, says; you will find the money for the slipers in my bank" and Stanley, who requests a rocking-chair, a toy house and a cup and saucer, enquires; "Do I have to pay for them or not? Say yes or no."

Margaret's Wants

Margaret's wants are a doll with a curly wig, and she hopes that Santa's nose won't be frozen in his journey; Leo says he likes "everything that is sweet"; and Lotetta breaks into verse with "Good-bye Santa, my stockings you'll see, hang ing beside the Christmas tree". Gordon wants Santa to wake him when he comes, and Leonard gives his telephone number should he miss the august visitor. He also promises refreshments of coffee and cake, and would like a record with Santa talking on it. He wants a new tie for daddy, and for Mother: "a new rolling pin!"

Louie would like a doll, a kit-carn and a bath-tub; and Francis, "a big cane candy and a meccano set with a rope that won't break". Marion is luxurious in her tastes. She wants a watch, a set of ivory and a fountain pen, and Rena, "a pair of bedroom slippers and a pink kimona (or blue, ir you haven't a pink one)." Mamie promises to leave the door unlocked, and Jack, who confided that "we have a little baby now", would like a pair of bobs and a game, "if you come this way."

"A Teddy Bear"

Elsie wants a doll' "and baby wants a Teddy Bear"; and Olive who doesn't want anything, sends her greetings to Santa, and wishes she could buy him a present, something for the cold away up there at the Pole. Pearl, who puts a few seals on her letter for "dickration" would like a washing-set and baking set, and informs him that baby has a growth inside of his eye. Arnold, whose initial tastes run to large things, like a street-car and fire-reel and a gun, finishes up with a gentle request for " a little omb"; and Margaret wants "a set of white furs and a slate and a music-box and a broom." Harold would like a rain-coat, and Dorothy doesn't think she needs anything more than a "slaye", and promises to see you this Christmas "for shoore". She is evidently one little girlies who is going to make a valiant effort to catch the jolly old man when he hitches the reindeer up to the chimney and comes sliding down the fireplace next Saturday night.

ABOUT 700 UNQUALIFIED NAMES ON NORTH MONAGHAN'S VOTERS' LIST

MIX-UP DUE TO ASSESSOR'S MISAPPREHENSION ARISING FROM SUGGESTED EXTENSION OF FRANCHISE, IT IS ALLEGED.

LAST COUNCIL MEETING

NORTH MONAGHAN, Dec. 19—Action in regard to the drainage of North Monaghan property west of Brownton was deferred till 1922 by the North Monaghan township council at their last meeting of the year at the Court House. J. W. Fitzgerald township engineer; presented a plan and report on the proposed scheme.

A drain is urgently needed in the section complained of west of Byers' store, Mr. Fitzgerald reported. There is aproximately 100 acres of a watershed, practically all facing the south-east. Mr. Fitzgerald suggested a new drain 3,000 feet long with a fall of 8.00 feet by diverting the present drain from the easterly limit of Western avenue north, so as to run along on the southerly limit of Chamberlain street. The change in direction was made, he said, to avoid interfering with building lots. The report continues that 1,000 feet of two-feet covered cement tile will be required to complete the drain from the east limit of Western avenue to where the drain leaves Chamberlain street.

From this point to Mr. Grady's culvert, Mr. Fitzgerald recommended enlarging the drain to 2 feet, 6 inches, and from this point to the C.P.R. crossing he considered that the drain could be left open—at least for the present.

"I am not in favour of going on with this work at the present time, even if the tile can be obtained," said Engineer Fitzgerald. A man can do fully three times as much in removing clay and gravel for this drain in September or Ooctober before the ground is frozen, than he can do now with 12 or 20 inches of frost in the ground. Besides this, the laying of the tile at the present season prevents proper packing, and with the spring freshet immense quantities of the earth-put in in frozen lumps, would be carried off and the tile itself misplaced."

"I am of the opinion that the construction of a drain at this season of the year would entail a very heavy burden on the township, and also on the lands to be benefitted, besides being liable to great damage by the spring freshlet of 1922. I would respectfully advise that all proper arrangements be made with all parties to be benefitted and affected by this drain, and that the proper quantities and sizes of tile be ordered to be delivered not later than September 1, 1922 and that the drain itself be started not later than September 15, 1922, and carried to completion before the frost arrives."

The report was received and adopted, and action was deferred until 1922 for the reasons which Mr. Fitzgerald outlined. Next year the council is fully prepared to go ahead with the proposed drainage scheme.

Voters List Incorrect

The Council were considerably perturbed when discussing again the incorrectness of the voter's list said to be brought about by the township assessor not having a detailed knowledge of who were eligible to vote. It has been ascertained there are at least 600 or 700 names on the list that have no legal right there. A letter from the Provincial Secretary in October advised them of an apparent misapprehension of those who are eligible to vote, and it is evident that the assessor had not a complete knowledge of who are qualified by property to vote when he prepared the assessment. The Council has been considerably agitated but are in an unfortunate position that cannot be corrected until the lists are made up next year.

The Council have consulted their solicitor as to what can be done to correct these lists before the election, and have ascertained that the law makes no provisions for names added by such error, and if the 600 or 700 odd ineligible voters are to prevented from using the ballot, the Council will have to swear each one. Meanwhile the additional names to the list have made it necessary to create new polls, and from present indications six or seven polls are needed, whereas only three have been required heretofore. Next year the lists will be very carefully revised.

In view of the predictment the Council are in over the lists the following letter which ras drawn their attention to the matter is interesting.

"Dear Sir:—

Franchise Extension

A large number of letters and petitions have been sent in to various Ministers of the Crown within the past two years, asking for the extension of the right to vote at municipal elections to wives and daughters of owners of property, and two Bills have been introduced to extend that right but did not pass the House, one reason being that it resulted in a large increase in the membership of every county council.

"I am aware that it has been the practice in the last two years to assess the wives and daughters of municipal electors as joint owners in order to entitle them to vote at municipal elections, but there is no authority for this unless the wife or daughter is in fact a joint owner and could enforce her right of ownership, having as a basis such a conveyance as would entitle her in law to be treated as a joint owner.

"A farmer's son has the right to vote by virtue of the special qualification conferred on him by The Municipal Act, but the wife or daughter of a farmer has not the right to vote under the law unless she has the same property qualification as is required of a man.

"Any extension of the municipal franchise will also extend the right to vote at elections for public school trustees because under The Public Schools Act every person entitled to vote at municipal elections, except Separate School supporters, is entitled to vote for public trustees.

"It is desirable to obtain the opinion of municipal councils throughout the Province as to the extension of the municipal franchise, and as to county council representation as a guidance for any future action by the Legislature along these lines, and I would ask you to kindly bring these matters to the attention of your Council asking it to pass a resolution giving answers to the following questions and also suggest any alternatives which it may see fit:

1.—Are you in favor of the municipal franchise being extended to all or any of the following persons of the age of twenty-one years or over:— the wife, husband, sons daughters, brothers, sisters, son-in-law, daughters-in-law; of and residing with the person possessing the necessary qualification to vote at municipal elections?

2.—If you are in favour of the extension of the municipal franchise, what increase should be made in the number of municipal electors required to entitle a municipality to representaton in the county council by a first deputy reeve, second deputy reeve and third deputy reeve?

3.—To what extent, if any, should the assessment of a municipality be the basis of representation in the county council?

Yours truly,
H. C. Ioxan
"Provincial Secretary"

Election Officials

A by-law was passed defining polling booths and appointing deputy returning officers and poll clerks for the election. Nomination day will be on December 23rd at 1 p.m. at May's School House.

RAILROAD WORKERS' PAY.

Under the age reductions for the 750,000 railroad workers employed north of the Ohio River and east of the Mississippi, scale of shop machinists, boilermakers, blacksmiths, electricians, and high-grade car repairers will be 62 cents an hour instead of the present rate of 77 cents, freight car repairmen rate 52 cents, instead of 72 cents, track labour 32 cents on main line tracks and 30 cents for branch dines. Shop and roundhouse workers will receive the rate of 3 cents an hour in excess of track labour. Train service workers will lose all of increases granted under Decision No. 2, which means restoration of rates of pay in effect prior to 1st May, 1920.

HOW U. S. VIEWS ELECTION HERE.

Says Dominion Committed to a Liberal Tariff.

WASHINGTON, December 20. — (By Canadian Press.)—The victory of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and his Liberal following in the recent general elections in Canada is construed here as meaning that the Dominion is now committed to a Liberal tariff policy with the United States. The fact that the Liberal election manifesto spoke in sympathetic terms of reciprocity, and the further fact that the second largest group in the new Parliament, the Progressives, favor reciprocity, are other considerations that have made the election result of the greatest interest in the United States capital.

For these reasons, those who profess to be in touch with the trend of congressional affairs declare that this session of Congress will likely hear a great deal about the whole subject of Canadian-United States tariff relations. It is expected that when the permenent tariff bill is taken up by the Senate the matter will be freely discussed. Now that President Harding is insisting on passage of the tariff bill without needless delay, the Senate will take the bill up and make an effort to get it through, though this cannot be done before late in the winter or next spring.

Looking at the question from the Washington standpoint, the observer might sum up the international tariff question as follows:

The question whether it will be possible to bring about a reign of low tariffs between the United States and Canada has a number of interesting angles. On the face of it, it is going to be extremely difficult. A view frequently expressed both here and in Canada is that mutually low tariffs or any form of reciprocity will be almost impossible for the reason the U. S. farmers are insisting on high duties and, this being so, it is difficult to see where a process of trading off duties, so to speak, can begin.

However, there is another side to it and this phase will come in for more attention than it has yet received if a genuine effort is made by the new Canadian government to bring about closer tariff relations with the U. S.

The U. S. consuming public would heartily welcome lowering the tariff barrier between here and Canada or a policy of reciprocity. No one knows just how forceful the U. S. consumer is going to be between now and the 1922 congressional elections in this country but he is likely to be extremely vigorous and demonstrative. In short, the great bulk of U. S. public sentiment is no doubt for close tariff relations with Canada and if this sentiment is mustered and mobilized, it will be of more weight than the desire of protected interests here to be shielded. It is not to be overlooked, that Canada has "trading stock" in the form of pulpwood, lumber, fisheries and other resources. These will have to be taken account of in any negotiations.

Another phase of the situation is that while the high tariff men are strong here, there are powerful elements in Congress and in the administration throughly convinced that the time has come when high duties must give way before moderate ones, or, otherwise, U. S. commerce and business will gradually dwindle.

ORPHAN CHILDREN HAD A JOLLY TIME

WERE GUESTS OF SACRED HEART SCHOOL CHILDREN AT CHRISTMAS TREAT.

Between 300 and 400 children from the Sacred Heart School, with their guests, the 35 or 40 little inmates of St. Vincent's Orphanage, enjoyed a hearty Christmas treat and entertainment yesterday afternoon in the basement of the Sacred Heart Church. The children, including all classes of the school, from the tiny tots to the seniors, had an uproarious time for a couple of hours, the orphans in particular having a wonderful time.

A concert, with little Master Graham as chairman, given by the children of the Sacred Heart School, and consisting of songs, dances, recitations, and dialogues, was followed by the appearance of Mr. Hugh Clancy as Santa Claus, with a sack containing over 400 bags of candy. These were distributed amongst the children, the Orphanage party coming first, and then the enormous Christmas tree was dismantled. A pretty gift for each child—dolls, toys of all sorts, useful gifts—was presented and inspected by the kiddies with much enjoyment and laughter. The Orphanage children were very much delighted with their outing. They were sent for and returned home in large 'buses, were the guests of honour at the party, and had a great time all evening at home examining and commenting upon their gifts and candy.

The ladies of St. Anthony's Sewing Circle were responsible for the entertainment to the children, supervised all arrangements, and prepared the gifts, those in charge being Mesdames Powers, Denny, Clancy, Mowry, Duffus, with Misses Mabel Desautel, Ruby Lynch, and A. Gordon.

CHURCH SERVICES AT MARK STREET

Owing to the heavy snow storm, the congregations were not as large as usual, but the choir was out in force and Mrs. S. Matchet took charge of the organ for Mr. Boorman who was ill.

"The weight of a name" was the subject of the morning sermon and was based on Matt 1 21. "Thou shalt call his name Jesus, for He shall save his people from their sins." The following is an outline of the discourse.

Every human name has its weight or influence for good or for evil. This is true in a literal sense. If I take two pieces of paper of equal weight and put one in each pan of a pair of scales accurately poised. Then write your name on one piece, I will find that the balance is no longer true. The piece of paper bearing your name will outweigh the other In the moral, social, political, commercial, and religious world, the names of many men and women have great weight for sin or for righteousness. Some names slowly appear gather volume of illumination, fling afar their radiance, and shine on like a star in the moral heavens. Others rush up like a rocket, dissolve in a cloud of sparks and die away.

The Name that Outweighs Worlds

"Thou shalt call his name Jesus". The angel of the Lord on mighty pinion sped His way from Heaven to announce His own name to Joseph, for that angel was Christ. How the name of an earthly sovereign carries with it, power and authority and respect, whereever it goes especially if it be the name of an eastern monarch. Travellers tell us that wild Arab are stayed in their mad purpose of plunder and death when the fireman is produced with the Sultan's name attached. How great and good names thrill us. But they all fade away in the presence of the name "before which every knee shall bow." To the farthest bounds of the great creation—through heaven and earth and hell—by angels, men, and devils—that name is uttered with adoring love, breathed with helpless dependence, or whispered with fear and dispair.

The Power of this Matchless Name

The name Jesus signifies a Saviour. Men are so constituted that they cannot doubt that ultimate happiness is impossible unless they can be delivered from that which they know to be a great curse in this world, and which they also know will be their ultimate ruin, if not overcome by some mighty power outside of themselves. Jesus has undertaken this work. "He shall save His people from their sins", therefore His name is Jesus. How mighty must be the power that can heal a guilty conscience. Listen to Macbeth "Will all great Neptune's ocean wash this blood clean from my hand?" "No; this my hand will rather the multitudinous seas incarnadine ,making the green one read." Only the blood of Jesus could calm Macbeth's burning conscience, but he knew nothing of Christ's saving grace and healing power.

Does the Name Possess its Ancient Power?

The name of Jesus is just as potent now as when, by its power, the cripple leaped to his feet at the beautiful gate of the temple and bounded into the house of God, rejoicing in his new found healing of his body and soul. No man can let himself go in thought for ten minutes on the subject "Jesus", but will find that a power, not of himself, has gripped him. No man ever surrended to God in vain. No sooner does the will swing toward God than the soul is converted. This is true, for the real man is the will. Let that man grasp the name and merits of Christ by a loving obedient faith of the heart, and he is instantly in possession of a new heart and a new nature. And it cannot be otherwise. This matchless name saves a man from his sins. "Him hath God exalted with His right hand to a Prince and Saviour" There is an eternity of meaning in these words. They touch upon that pure, mysterious, and holy relationship between the Divine Father and the Eternal Son, which we can never understand. But we know that the name of Jesus touches the very heart of God: and the Father will freely grant what is asked in the name of the beloved Son.

Man Must Meet God's Conditions.

Now, the very first condition of salvation is to halt. Stand at attention. God wants to speak to the rebels, so they must halt and listen. What does God say? Listen "Come now and let us reason together, saith the Lord, though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow". These words to a rebel? Surely here is Divine condescension God does not treat us like slaves. Do we surrender? Do we ground our arm? Do we own him Lord? Then He gives us back our sword. We do not pass to the rear as prisoners of war, but we immediately take service under a new captain; and that officer is Christ. "Follow me"! are the marching orders.

What About Repentence and Faith?

Yes, we must not do violence to theology. But we must remember that Christ left us no system of theology whatever. "Repent and believe the gospel is Christ's system. It has been said that this city is bubbling over with charity, but men are not asking for charity, they want work and wages. And this is what every true man feels. He does not want something for nothing. And I may say that this city is bubbling over with theology. But men are not dying for theology, they are dying for the want of Christ. Certainly a man must repent, but that is as natural as it is to breathe, when the power of the Holy Ghost stirs his heart. Certainly men must believe But that is so simple that a child can understand. We are putting faith in people every day, and shall we doubt God? A little boy climbs an apple tree. Darkness drops down and he is afraid. Then father comes and calls at the foot of the tree. "You there Papa?" "Yes?" "Papa I can't see you." "But I see you, drop my boy and I'll catch you". "Papa here I come". That's faith.

CHEAPEST STEEL IN THE WORLD.

Scon Produced in India, Report Says.

LONDON, December 20 (Associated Press). — India will soon be able to produce the cheapest steel in the world, says an announcement by two British firms which have undertaken to organise the "United Steel Corporation of India, Ltd." They propose to establish, as soon as possible, works on a large scale, near deposits of iron, coal, and limestone.

Iron ore of high quality, fluxes of suitable character, and excellent coking coal occur close together in Bilhar and Orissa, the companies state, and the cost of these materials is much lower than has to be paid for them in other steel-producing countries.

The plant to be erected in India is designed to produce eventually 600,000 to 700,000 tons of pig-iron, with steel works and rolling mills capable of producing 450,000 tons of finished steel a year.

FORTY THOUSAND SEE SOCCER GAME IN OLD COUNTRY

Tottenham Hotspurs Failed to Show Superiority Over Chelsea, London —Fulham Well on Track of Promotion.

BURNLEY DEFEATED.

LONDON, Dec. 19. —(Canadian Press Cable.)—Interest in the Old Country soccer football games Saturday centered, apart from the sixth round of the Association Cup ties, principally in the two metropolitan deities, in the first of which Tottenham Hotspurs, on their home grounds, failed to prove their superiority over Chelsea. The game was witnessed by forty thousand spectators, and proved a disappointment, the visitors rarely making combined movement, while the Spurs game was characteristic for reckless marksmanship. The result was a scoreless tie.

In the second division Fulham gave convincing proof of their being well on the track of promotion by their two to one victory over Clapton Orient. They put up a splendid performance, and the visitors were never allowed to take the offensive. The Travers-Shea combination for Fulham was irresistible, Shea bagging both goals.

Burnley's Defeat.

Burnley must have felt chastened by their 4 to 1 defeat at the hands of Middlebrough, particularly as four of the latter's team were absent through injury, whereas Burnley was at full strength. Newcastle United, against Aston Villa, turned out confidently but failed to take advantage of a strong favoring wind, while the Villa in the second half used this favoring feature to the fullest. This assisted materially in their 2 to 1 victory. Sunderland against West Bromwich Albion were greatly handicapped by the retirement of Marshall at the end of the first half. Liverpool by their 2 to 1 win over Manchester United, now heads the table, but definite leadership is still a very open question.

Bad luck, which started within a minute of commencement of the game, dogged the Blackburn Rovers, in the game with Bolton Wanderers. They missed an excellent chance to score immediately after the opening of the contest, and this was followed by amazing series of saves by Wanderer's goalkeeper.

Scrambling Affair.

The game at Upton Park between Westham United and Percy County was a scrambling affair, both teams losing one of their backs through injuries. Puddefoot was again much in the picture, and his sole efforts were a feature of West ham's victory.

The cup ties resulted as expected, the outstanding feature being Tufnell Park's wonderful work in drawin with Grimsby.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE CAPITOL.

Wallace Reid in "The Charm School," has an entertaining vehicle at the Capitol this week. The popular Wallace inherits a strictly business-like institution from his aunt, in the form of a centre of learning which specializes in geometry and such like heavy subjects. He immediately converts it into a place where young ladies are taught to be charming, and has a wonderful time in carrying out his intention, much to the scandalization of the ancient trustees ad very much to the edification of the pupils, who enjoy the change to lessons in fancy swimming and classical dancing.

There is an excellent comedy, with Torchy engaged in a futile effort to lose a baby which has been substituted for his boss pet dog in his grip. His attempts to feed the child and look after it generally provide some funny situations.

The vaudeville includes Harris Weska, a Hawaiian entertainer, in a monologue, with real Hawaiian sons to the music of a Hawaiian ukulele; and Dick and Alice McAvoy, singers, dancers and comedians, with a line of good jokes and a bright 'Bowery' dance which was heartily encored.

The Capitol orchestra has a fine repertoire of excellent music in conjunction with the pictures, which adds to a very great extent to the attraction of their programme.

AT THE ROYAL.

To-night's bill at the Royal is of special interest and one that cannot fail to please the most exacting. The selection of to-night's pictures is one that will interest everyone. To begin with their is a story of the mystic glamour of India. This deals with the doctrine of reincarnation that theoty of Arabia that the spirits of human beings pass after death to animals. An Indian Rajah gets the soul of a treacherous lion and, after being killed by the king of hosts in an exciting struggle, his soul returns to the body of his slayer. The comedy keeps the audience in a perpetual state of rippling laughter. You see the last known flask of whiskey (that is really an exaggeration, for there must be several left) fall through a man-hole into a sewer. A fierce battle between several heart-broken men results in its recovery. No, gentle reader, the lucky man who gained the flask did not drink the contents, and you will roar with laughter when you see why. The second episode in the million dollar - serial, "Breaking Through," or a girl's fight for fortune and love is really a complete story in itself. Bettina, the heroine, encounters a gang of burglars who enter her home to steal the deeds of her mine. However, Bettina, clad in her nightie and a brave smile, foils the ruffians. The great feature picture is Belasco's Heart of Maryland. This wonderful story of the Civil War is told in a thousand-fold more comprehensive and true to nature way than the staged version. The plot is really the struggle between duty to one's country and the personal dictates of love. The hero and heroine at the inception of the American Civil War take opposite sides, the girl letting her lover go to the northern army, as her sympathy is for "the lost cause." However, after thrilling events of the war, and successive dramatic complications keep the lovers apart, Dan Cupid is still on the job and the merry jingle of the wedding bells completes a story of romance and fidelity. The scenes of this great historic drama are taken from real life, including such pictures as the house where Jeff Davis, president of the Confederacy, was married, whilst the battle scenes are thrilling without any gruesome feature. The men who fought in this war, on either side, did just what our gallant Canadian boys did, fought for what they considered duty and a righteous cause.

SPORT GOSSIP

The local Y.M.C.A. junior basketball team are trying to arrange to have their first game in the Junior O.A.B.A. series to be played here on New Year's evening, when they expect to play the fast Toronto Junior team. If the game is arranged for New Year's, there will no doubt be a large crowd on hand as the local boys will give the Toronto team a good game as there is lots of material here to pick from.

KNOCKOUT MISSING.

GRAND RAPIDS, December 20.—or the first time in the year, Tommy Gibbons failed to deliver knockout last night when he got the decision over Bartley Madden in ten rounds.

DECLARED A MEMBER.

COBALT, Ont., December 20 (Canadian Press). — Angus McDonald, Progressive, was yesterday at Cochrane officially declared the member for Temiskaming, his plurality over Donald McEachren, the Liberal, being 94, according to telephone advices to-night from the North. Although one ballot box was missing, John D. Mackay, returning officer, on the advice of Col. Biggar, chief electoral officer, made his official count, using the returns from Silver Centre, the missing poll.

Mr. McEachren said to-night the question of a protest would be considered soon by the Liberal executive.

OLD MANAGER FOR THE LINDSAY INTERMEDIATES.

LINDSAY, Dec. 20.—Tony Bakogeorge, who managed the Intermediate hockey team last year, will manage the boys again this year.

With Bakogeorge at the head the fans are again assured of a real good team, and there is no question that the boys will be used right in every respect. The players will include all of last year's team, Elwood Coombs, the fast forward man, being among the first to sign a certificate. A new player, for which permission has been asked to play, is Mr. Moody, of the Bank of Montreal staff, who was recently transferred to town.

SCHOOL BOYS WILL PLAY HOCKEY UNDER EYE OF SPORTS' DIRECTOR

KIWANIS CLUB TO HELP BY PROVIDING JERSEYS FOR THE YOUNGSTERS.

Encouraging reports were received by the executive of the P.A.A.A. at a meeting held last night. Walter Smaill told of how the schools had been organized for hockey, with a series for junior boys and another series for senior boys. The junior boys will play their games at Brock street rink on Saturday mornings and the seniors will play between five and six o'clock on Mondays and Thursdays. All these games will be under the direct supervision of Mr. Smaill, and he will act as referee. The Kiwanis Club will donate the jerseys to be used by the players. The P.A.A.A. will provide trophies. The Arena Rink Co. is furnishing the ice free of charge.

Hockey For Girls.

Mr. Smaill also reported that a hockey league for young ladies had been organized. The P.A.A.A. will provide a supply of jerseys, and assist the young ladies with their hockey league, and will be glad to help them, to organize other branches of sport and recreation.

By unanimous vote of the meeting, Rev. Paul Costello was elected honorary president of the Association. Father Costello succeeds Rev. Father Phelan, one of the pioneer workers of the Association, who is now in Campbellford.

Dr. Frank reported that several clubs were promoting boxing and wrestling and that entries were being prepared, in anticipation of a tournment being held soon by the Association.

Hockey Outlook Good.

The outlook for hockey is bright. The hockey committee has much O. H.A. material to work on, and the hockey players, with few exceptions, are solidly behind the Association and its object.

COMING TO PETERBORO W.E. BREWSTER HONORED

TENDERED BANQUET BY CAMPBELLFORD CURLING AND BOWLING ASSN.

CAMPBELLFORD, Dec. 20. — About 75 of the members and guests of the Campbellford Curling and Bowling Association attended a social evening and banquet last evening at the St. Lawrence Hotel, in honor of W. E. Brewster, past president of the club, who is removing to Peterborough.

Officers in charge were the president, Dr. H. B. Langmore, the vice-president, John Gay, and the secretary-treasurer, E. C. Dolman. The chairman of the evening was Dr. Langmore.

The banquet, which commenced at 8 o'clock, was enlivened by toasts and music. The toast to "King and Empire," was proposed by Rev. C. J. Phelan and responded to by Dr. Macoun, the toast to the "Roaring Game" by the honorary president, S. J. Moore, and replied to by C. H. Harris, and the toast to "Our Guest" by I. A. Humphries, accompanied by a presentation of a set of Kay's Excelsior Red Hone Stones, with shipping case. Mr. Brewster made a suitable reply, recording his regret at leaving the club with which he had been so pleasantly associated.

Musical numbers were rendered during the evening by Messrs. E. M. Brunnelle and W. Hewson.

The Guests.

Members and guests at the banquet included the following: Rev. C. J. Phelan, Dr. Langmore, Messrs. Jno. Gay, E. C. Dolman, S. J. Moore, C. H Harris, L. A. Humphries, E M. Brunelle, W. Hewson, J. P. FINANCIAL AND MARKETS

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. — Speculative issues featured the constructive side of the stoc kmarket at the oepning of to-day's session, while investment shares continued their irregular or heavy trend. Burns Bros. and Stromberg Carburetor registered two point gains and Pacific Gas and Electric rose one point. Several of prominent oils, coppers and chemicals made fractional advances, but rails, steels and equipments eased. Pennsylvania, New Haven and Pullman were especially heavy. Latest developments bearing upon the arms conference contributed to the further strength of foreign exchanges.

Call money opened at 5 1-2 per cent., establishing maximum initial rate for several weeks and adding to early irregularity. Prices soon recovered on buying of equipments and specialties, embracing sugar, tobacco, leather, rubber and chain store groups. These included American and Baldwin Locomotive, Cuban Amer. Sugar Pfd, South Porto Rico Sugar, Corn Products, Amer. Cotton Oil, Sumatra Tobacco, Central Leather, Endicott Johnson, Woolworth and Kreage. Gains in these issues ranged from 1 point to 2 points, but were without influence in more representative shares. Rails were dull aside from strength shown by few minor issues, notably like Lake Erie and Western common and Preferred.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Dec. 20. — (Canadian Press).—The local Stock Exchange was strong during the first half-hour this morning, and several fractional advances were recorded, although nothing of a startling nature occurred. Abitibi and Canada Steamships were both unchanged at 30¼ and 15 respectively. Dominion Bridge advanced ½ to 69½, but Dominion Glass appeared the same at 58½. Laurentide, however, also registered a half point gain to 73, while Montreal Power strengthened ¼ to 87¼. National Breweries was unchanged at 55½. Steel of Canada opened slightly stronger at 60 1-8. Riordon was quoted at. 5. Bank of Montreal sold at 212 this morning, its closing figure yesterday. This issue recently sold at 216.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—Sterling exchange steady. Demand, Great Britain, 4.21 Canadian dollars, 6 5-8 per cent. discount.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—The local Stock Exchange was without any particular feature this morning, the most active stocks, Brazilian, C.P.R., and Steamship Preferred holding within narrow limits, with the close varying only a quarter point higher or lower. The Bank section was quiet, with Union recovering a point of yesterday's loss, but with Imperial Bank losing 2½ points on sales of 34 shares.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

TORONTO, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—Receipts, 732; trade slow. Heavy beef steers, nil; choice butcher steers, $6 to $6.50; butcher cows, medium, $3 to $3.50; calves, $11 to $13; lambs, $10 to $11; hogs, selects, $10.50 to $10.75.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20. — (Canadian Press).—Opening wheat quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 3-8c higher, with May 1.14 3-4 to 1.15, and July 1.04 to 1.04¼, were followed by slight gains all around, and then something of a re-action.

Corn and oats were easy in the absence of any snecial demand. After opening unchanged to 3-8 lower, May 53¼ to 53 3-8, the corn market sagged a little all around.

Oats started ¼ off to 1-8 advance, May 38 3-8, and later, showed a general set-back.

able, showing great interest in the work"

The Thank Offering taken at the October meeting amounted to $01.41

It is with deep regret we record the passing of one of our oldest members, in the person of Mrs. Scott, and also the serious illness of Mrs. Roger, both of whom have alway taken a deep interest in our work.

As we look back over the year we feel that though we have been successful there is still a great work to be done, to interest the women of the church in this great work, and we hope that the coming year, May bring greater results, than any year that has passed.

Officers Elected

The Officers for the coming year are as follows—Hon. President — Mrs. Roger; President—Mrs. McPherson; 1st Vice President—Mrs. A. Gillepie; 2nd Vice President—Mrs. Ego; Secretary—Mrs. Alex. Long; Treasurer — Mrs. Walter Yale; Strangers Secretary—Mrs. C. Morton; Messenger Secretary—Mrs. J. McCurdy; Home Helper's Secretary—Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Gerard; Organist— Mrs. K. Denoon; Executive —Mrs. Rev. McKenzie, Mrs. Benson; Mrs. Hobson Mrs. Lyons, Mr. Buchman and Mr. Huffman.

TO-DAY'S FASHIONS

FOR THE CHRISTMAS DANCE

Brocaded georgette; she wears of deep yellow that performs equally well in the role of long, slim bodice, as it does in its part of gracefully hip draperies. Flat jet makes shoulder straps, and furnishes interesting accents of contrast. Flowers are pale gold tissue, velvet lined.

THE THEORY IS DISPROVED

WASHINGTON, Dec. —.—(By Canadian Press.)—(By Mail.)—Although the Washington conference still has much to do and the delegates have been in Washington but a comparatively short time, the Old Country representatives have definitely accomplished one thing at least. They have disproved the theory which is held by many United States people that the Englishman has no sense of humor.

Although none of those gathered here for the work of the conference is more keenly alive to its serious import, and none more earnest in the effort to bring it to a successful issue, the members of the British party have brought with them a spirit of optimism and good-will which often finds expression in little flashes of wit. Their humor is occasionally just a shade too subtle to register upon the U. S. mental process, but as a rule it meets a ready appreciation, and to the newspaper correpsondents particularly it is a welcome relief from the somewhat ponderous atmosphere which naturally surrounds a world gathering of this nature. That many of the sallies are aimed at the little foibles and peculiarities of U. S. life matters not at all for they are offered in such a frank spirit of good-fellowship and good-will that offense is entirely out of the question.

Many a time a newspaperman has purposely waylaid Lord Riddell, chief spokesman for the British delegation, in the hope of eliciting from him one of his characteristically witty remarks. His Lordship in Canada would be known as "a good mixer." He possesses the art of making friends to a remarkable degree and goes about disbursing a great deal of good-will mixed with as much information as it is possible for him to divulge. But whether the amount of the latter is large or small he is always sure of an enthusiastic welcome from the newspapermen. He is probably the most popular official at the conference.

A number of U. S. newspapermen were discussing the relative strength of various armies with His Lordship the other day. He suggested that as the United States army was "evidently very much larger" than that of Great Britain, they were probably more competent to talk on such a subject than he was.

The correspondents vociferously declared that, on the contrary, the U. S. army was much smaller than Britain's.

"Really?" said Lord Riddell. "I am surprised to hear that. You see, I have met so many colonels since I have been in this country that I was under the impression you must have a very large army."

On another occasion a correspondent raised the question as to what would happen under the U. S. proposals if one of the nations lost a battleship through running it on the rocks. "That nation would have to build a ship to replace the one it had lost, wouldn't it?" he asked. "Or else buy an old one from some other nation," he added.

"I hadn't thought of that," admitted Lord Riddell, "but I suppose a very conscientious nation would buy a second-hand ship."

One afternoon a number of U. S. newspapermen were trying to secure information from one of the members of the British contingent, who was making a polite but futile effort to turn aside their inquisitiveness.

"How about the Panama Canal tolls matter?" one of them asked. "Will that come before the conference?"

"I am sorry," was the reply, "but I have no information on the subject. To the best of my knowledge, however, we have not been advised by the U. S. government that they intend to bring it before the conference."

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural colour and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural colour and looks glossy, soft and beautful.

OBITUARY

MARY ANN FREEBURN.

The death occurred yesterday of Mary Ann Freeburn, aged 82 years, widow of George Whatley, who passed away at the residence of Mrs. W. F. Crowe, Dummer Township.

Funeral service at the house on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Lakefield Cemetery.

MARGARET E. KENNEDY.

The death occurred this morning at Nicholls Hospital, after a lingering illness, of Miss Margaret E. Kennedy of this city. The deceased is survived by four brothers: William and Robert of Montreal, David of Gravenhurst, and Samuel of Peterborough.

Funeral services will be held at 7 o'clock this evening in Knox church, Rev. J. Mackenzie officiating. The remains will be forwarded to-morrow morning to Kingston, on the 8.20 a.m. G.T.R. train, for interment in the Cataraqui cemetery.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.

The funeral of the late John McComb took place yesterday afternoon from the home of Mr. John Scott, 487 Chamberlain street, many friends being present to pay the last tribute of respect to one who had spent his long life in Peterborough, having been born (in what was then a village) on June the 11th, 1840, was one of the five sons of the late George McComb, who settled in Peterborough about the year 1820.

The service was conducted by the Rev. J. A. Mackenzie of Knox church and the pallbearers were Col. J. W. Miller, Messrs. Henry Rush, George Stenton and Richard Sanderson, veterans of 1866 and Messrs. George Sloan and Andrew Robson, Lodge associates.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION WASHINGTON

PRESIDENT HARDING AND THE UNITED STATES DELEGATES DISAGREE OVER JAPANESE ISLANDS

SHANTUNG QUESTION

WASHINGTON, December 21 (Canadian Press). — A difference in view as to the application of the new four-power treaty has arisen between President Harding and the United States delegates, but the President would not be permitted to embarrass the work of the Conference.

The President holds that the principal islands of the Japanese Empire are not to be regarded as included among the insular territories to which the treaty applies.

The delegates hold that the principal Japanese group are to be covered under the agreement along with all other Pacific islands under the sovereignty of the United States, Great Britain, France, and Japan.

TURKEYS 55 CTS. A POUND TODAY

GEESE 35 CTS., CHICKENS PLENTIFUL AT 25 AND 28 CTS.—FAIR MARKET THIS MORNING.

Although the market to-day was not widely advertised, there was a good-sized basket section and some very fine fowl were offered. At 10.30 there was about one-third the usual number of vendors in evidence, and others were arriving from time to time. Market continued till 1 p.m. and from 10 till then sales were quite brisk, most of the buyers being those who did not purchase last Saturday on account of the soft weather, and those who did not care to chance waiting to get a real good fowl next Saturday.

Turkeys Galore.

A noticeable feature was the large number of turkeys, and buyers were said to be fairly active picking them up for the butcher trade here and in Toronto. Nearly all the farm women asked 55 cents a lb., but one or two, however, were ready to take 50 cents. A two-year old gobbler weighing no less than 23 pounds, reminded one of Scrooge's turkey, "as big as Tiny Tim" which he despatched to Bob Cratchit's on Christmas morning. This king of birds, on account of its age, was up at 40 cents a pound, but while it attracted much attention, had not attracted a buyer at a late hour this morning.

Number of Geese.

Large numbers of geese were offered at 35 cents a pound. All seemed to be asking 35c a lb., but the same reduction as took place last Saturday was likely to occur. On Saturday a firm beginning at 35c. went down in confusion to 28c. Chickens were not very plentiful, and sold at 25 and 28 cents a lb.

Eggs Scarce.

Few farmers had any eggs to offer, but one or two baskets were sold at 75 cents a dozen. Butter again sold at 40 cents. 8

A few automobiles, well-steamed and frosted up, containing meat and fowl, stood in the half foot of snow on the square, their drivers congregating in groups for debates on the weather, U.F.O., etc. A few had turkeys well-frozen at 50 cents a pound, and some hind quarters of beef at 10 cents a lb.

PAY DAY FRIDAY CITY EMPLOYEES

THIS WILL GIVE FIREMEN AND OTHERS A CHANCE TO BUY A CHRISTMAS TURKEY.

All city officials and firemen will be paid up to the end of the month on Friday, the 23rd instant, that they may have the money for use at Christmas if needed.

This was the motion of Ald. Morrison and Phelan in special Council session last night, which carried unanimously.

And on motion of Ald. Whitehouse and Gordon, the City Treasurer was also authorized to pay the city's share of suburban road work this year, amounting to $7013.88. This is 30 p.c. of a total of $23,379.62, of which the counties also pay 30 p.c., and the Provincial government 40 p.c.

Ald. Frank Whitehouse has been Council's Commissioner on the Suburban Roads Commission for 1911, and the work accomplished by the Commission in the interests of good roads has been highly commendable.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT PERVADES MEMBERS OF KIWANIS CLUB

HAVE ALREADY ACCOMPLISHED MUCH IN RELIEVING LOCAL DISTRESS—DR. R. C. BLAGRAVE ADDRESSES ORGANIZATION.

Another enjoyable luncheon was held by the Kiwanians yesterday noon, when the Speaker of the day was Rev. R. C. Blagrave, D.D. All the members seemed to be imbued with the good fellowship spirit which each person should have at this time of the year, and it was necessary for President Frank Whitehouse to levy numerous fines in order to keep the boys from overstepping the mark; and consequently Sargent-at-Arms, Joe John, was kept busy carrying out the President's wishes that he entirely missed his second course.

Walter Stocker gave a report of what he and his Committee have already accomplished in the way of carrying out the temporary object of the Club in alleviating as far as possible the distress throughout the City and providing the necessary cheer at this time of the year. Walter Stocker and his Committee are to be very much congratulated on their efforts which they have made in the above regard, and from the few instances which they have made without mentioning any names, it can be easily seen that this Club is doing their bit in the good work.

The Day's Booster

The booster of the day was Norman Barclay, and not only the recipients of the prizes but everyone enjoyed what he had for them.

Dr. Blagrave commmented the Club on it's good work, and gave an address which was greatly appreciated by all. He pointed out the necessity not only of giving the young boys a holidays and other things which they could enjoy, but also that it is absolutely necessary to instill in the future manhood the true Christian spirit and consequently leave with them something of a permanent nature which they can have with them all their lives, and not only improve their character but make them better and happier citizens. The speaker further said that every person was naturally religious and it was only a question of bringing part of one's future to the forefront, and imbuing him with the fact that this spirit is the most important one in human life.

Bill Phillips and Bill Barry were in better than their usual good form and seem to improve at every meeting.

TO HAVE CHARGE OF MARBLE WORKS

MR. A. A. COOK LEAVES FOR DALLAS, TEXAS, BRANCH AND MR. R. H. CARMAN WILL BE HIS SUCCESSOR HERE.

Mr. A. A. Cook, 534 Weller street, and family, leave to-morrow for Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Cook will be in charge of the factory of the Vermont Marble Works, holding a similar position to the one he has occupied here.

Mr. Cook, who has been a resident of Peterborough for the last seven years, has made a host of friends here, and will be missed both in financial and social circles. He was a member of the Peterborough Golf Club and an enthusiastic worker in the Y.M.C.A. He also did some excellent work in war-time in connection with Red Cross and Red Triangle work. His many friends will congratulate him on his promotion to the managership of the factory at Dallas Texas. His connection with the Vermon Marble Works has extended over a period of twenty years.

Mr. R. H. Carman of Philadelphia, a member of the firm for the last fifteen years, will be Mr. Cook's successor as manager of the factory in Peterborough.

POLICEMAN CONVICTED.

Took Bribe From Man He Summoned in Automobile Case.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. — Traffic Policeman John F. Carroll, who has been on the force for fifteen years, was convicted, before Supreme Court Justice Cropsey, in Brooklyn, of taking a bribe of $10 from a man to whom he had given a summons for driving without a license.

At Broadway and Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, last June, Carroll stopped John W. Hunter, of 23A Vernon Avenue, who was driving a new automobile and had neither a State nor an operator's license. Assistant District Attorney Warbasse showed that Carroll gave Hunter a summons, but did not report doing so to his desk lieutenant, and that there was no record entered in the police station.

When Hunter appeared in court, he said, Carroll went to him and said he would have to pay a fine anyway, and that the case might be kept from coming up if Hunter would give him $10. Hunter says he did so, and that his case was not called, no record of it having been made in court. hen Hunter complained to the District Attorney.

THE TREATY DISCUSSION CONTINUING

GEORGE CAVAN DUFFY WAS THE FIRST SPEAKER THIS MORNING SEES NO ALTERNATIVE.

WANTS SUBSTANCE

DUBLIN, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Claims of opposing factions in the fight on the Irish treaty in the Dail Eireann range from two against ratification to ten in its favor.

George Gavan Duffy was the first speaker this morning and said, as a signer of the treaty, he recommended it reluctantly but sincerely, because he saw no alternative.

Duffy's speech indicated that he assumed the treaty would be ratified, as he declared it would "be the duty of farmers of the Irish constitution to place a foreign king at considerable distance from the Irish people," adding that "king symbolizes in himself just the anger of the Irish people for 750 years."

The Irish Independent says this morning: "In heaven's name let Ireland take the substance and not dissipate her energies in discussing shadows."

"Bluffed" Into Signing.

Eamonn Duggan, one of the signers of the treaty denied that delegates had been "bluffed" into signing. He said he signed it in calm seclusion and with due consideraton to country. Living and dead. He warmly urged ratification.

Professor Stockley, of Cork University, formerly of Canada, opposed the Treaty and said whatever there was of Englishman in him was shamed by British conduct regarding agreement. He was supported by David Kent, East Cork, whose brother was executed in 1916.

CHRISTMAS MAILS ARE HEAVIER THAN USUAL.

OTTAWA, December 21. — The Christmas mails despatched to Europe this year, though not so heavy as in war years, exceeded the quantity that used to go in the years before the war.

The Metagama, sailing as early as 9th December, carried 1,566 bags of parcels and 970 letter bags. The Megantic on the 11th took 621 letter bags and 660 parcel containers. On the 13th the Empress of France carried 1,082 bags of parcels and 510 bags of letters.

In addition, the Canada, sailing on 15th December, carried a large amount of Christmas mail, of which a report has not yet been received here.

The bulk of the incoming mail has not arrived from Europe, though a heavy British mail came from the Scandinavian, which had 845 bags of parcels. The Melita brought 2,127 bags of parcels nda 021 bags of letters; the Canada, 1,029 bags of parcels and 501 bags of letters. The Pretorian, now on its way across, is carrying 372 bags of parcels and 566 bags of letters and newspapers.

On the whole Canada is receiving more Christmas mail from Europe than she sends, a fact which post office men attribute to the number of British families coming to Canada in late years, as well as to the friends made in war time.

ELECT ALFRED MAGUIRE BY ACCLAMATION.

TORONTO, December 21 (Canadian Press). — Controller Alfred Maguire was to-day elected Mayor by acclamation. He is 46 years of age, and was born in Toronto.

KEYSTONE VIEW CO., NEW YORK

WHY VIENNA REVOLTED

The picture illustrates one phase of the abject poverty that has hung like a pall over the poorer residents of the erstwhile magnificent capitol of the Dual Empire since the war ended. When a city like Vienna is reduced to picking its sustenance from refuse piles it is almost certain to revolt.

TO DECLARE WAR ON THE RED FORCES

SOVIET GOVERNMENT PREPARES TO RESIST NEW SHOW OF AGGRESSION BY REPUBLIC OF CHITA.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

LONDON, December 21 (Canadian Press). — The report that the Republic of Chita has declared war on the Republic of Vladivostock, and that the Soviet Government of Moscow is sending war material and troops to Chita, is carried in a Central News message from Helsingfors.

GRAND TRUNK SHAREHOLDERS.

LONDON, December 21 (Canadian Press). — The shareholders of the Grand Trunk have been granted leave to appeal to the Privy Council against the award of Board of Arbitrators which fixed the value of the railway.

A WORKING ALLIANCE.

SASKATOON, December 21 (Canadian Press). — The conviction seems to be fixed in the minds of the Progressives who attended the caucus of members-elect here yesterday that a working alliance with the Liberals is not beyond the statesmanship of the party chiefs. The majority of the Progressives are said to take the stand that they are justified by circumstances in making concessions for the sake of ensuring a stable and representative Government.

The next step will be taken at Ottawa, where the Hon. Mr. Crerar and others will confer with the Hon. Mackenzie-King.

OPPOSES ANY FURTHER REDUCTIONS.

PARIS, December 21 (Canadian Press). — Premier Briand, in his conferences with Premier Lloyd-George, has refused, firmly, to consider any further reduction in the total amount of reparations due from Germany, it is understood in official circles here.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., December 21 (Canadian Press). — A westbound Baltimore and Ohio passenger train was wrecked at Independence, eight miles from Grafton, W. Va., to-day. Three coaches are reported in the ditch, and all the doctors in Grafton were hurried to the scene of the wreck.

PREMIER SMUTS' VIEW.

LONDON, December 21 (Canadian Press). — Premier Smuts, addressing the Natal South African Party Congress, referred to the Indian question, and said that anything they did in the Union of South Africa had a far-reaching effect and might shake the foundations of the British Empire. He counselled the Indians to avoid seeking a settlement of their differences with the authorities, which might not do them any good and might cause the Empire incalculable harm.

VERY LITTLE PROGRESS

LONDON Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Very little progress has been made in the conference between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Briand of France.

THE WEATHER

A cold wave came down from the north on Monday and spread over the Prairie provinces yesterday. Winnipeg yesterday had it 20 below zero, while Edmonton and Prince Albert shivered in 35 below. This cold dip is now spreading eastward, and its frigid touch is already here. At noon we had it two above the zero mark (the lowest up to the present time), and the outlook for to-night is a much lower figure. This will likely last for some days.—W. P.

THE PREMIER TAKES STAND HYDRO ISSUE

WILL NOT PERMIT MUNICIPALITIES TO VOTE ON ACQUISITION OF RAILWAYS.

TORONTO, December 21 (Canadian Press). — Definitely Premier Drury has taken the stand that the Government will not permit municipalities in the Niagara Peninsula to vote on the acquisition of Niagara, St. Catharines, and Toronto Railway.

In a letter to Sir Adam Beck, reported to have reached the Hydro chairman only yesterday, the Premier declines to pass an Order-in-Council under the Hydro-Electric Railway Act giving sanction of the Government to the submission of the necessary by-law and agreement to the electors.

The ground taken by the Premier is that the terms of the proposed purchase are not in accordance with the provisions of the statute, as the Hydro-Electric Power Commission may hypothecate the bonds of municipalities to raise money to carry on the enterprises.

SIR ADAM BECK SILENT.

ST. CATHARINES, December 21 (Canadian Press). — Sir Adam Beck declined to discuss the communication he received from Premier Drury or to divulge its contents here last night.

CITY COUNCIL RELEASES $1000 FROM RELIEF FUND TO ASSIST IN DISTRIBUTING YULETIDE BASKETS TO RETURNED MEN AND DEPENDENTS.

G. W. V. A. LADIES ACTIVE

Two hundred or more baskets of sensible and substantial Christmas cheer will be distributed to needy veterans of the Great War and their dependants in this city by the G.W.V.A. and that body's Ladies' Auxiliary, due precaution being taken to avoid overlapping other local organizations in their relief work.

This commendably philanthropic work by the two veterans' associations was rendered practicable last evening, when the City Council, in special session to hear a deputation from the G.W.V.A. and its Ladies' Auxiliary seeking civic co-operation in providing ways and means for achieving the proposed Christmas relief, voted them $1,000 from the $7,000 still remaining in the old Peterborough Relief Association Fund. Two thousand dollars of the original $9,000 transferred to the City Council from this fund had recently been voted to the Central Charity Board.

The deputation attained their objective in a resolution moved by Ald. G. N. Gordon, and seconded by Ald. Joseph Crowe, that the G. W. V. A. and their Ladies' Auxiliary be granted the $1,000 petitioned for from the funds of the Peterborough Relief Association, they undertaking that the projected supplies shall be sent to only those in actual need of them, and that here shall be no overlapping with the work of other local relief organizations. This motion passed unanimously.

The Plan.

The scheme which will be operative for distributing the Christmas cheer decided on is embodied in the following petition presented in typed form to Council last night:

The above Association, together with the Ladies' Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A., proposed to give at least 200 baskets to veterans, their wives and families, chiefly to families where the bread-winner is out of work.

Each basket is to contain:
5 lbs. of beef.
10 lbs. of potatoes.
3 lbs. of sugar.
1 lb. of tea.
1 lb. of butter.
½ lb. of candies.
An orange per head to each family.

In order to fill these baskets, a large amount of money will be needed.

Would it be possible for you to grant $1,000 from the $9,000 which was handed to the City Council by the Trustees of the Peterborough Relief Association, as this money was raised by public subscription, and, as the unemployment question is without precedent in the City of Peterborough, or any other city this winter, we trust you will see your way clear to give us a grant.

Yours truly,
H. J. Saunton,
President G.W.V.A.
Nina Frederick,
President, Ladies' Auxiliary G.W.V.A.

The Deputation.

The deputation was introduced by Harvey Staunton, president G. W.

WINTER IN ALGONQUIN PARK.

Every year the number of winter vacationists to Algonquin Park is increasing, and many prefer the dry, clear, cold atmosphere of this delightful region (2,000 feet above sea level) to the more enervating climate of the south. "The Highland Inn" offers exceptionally good accommodation, and as it is owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway, patrons are assured good service. The hotel will be open for the winter season from Dec. 15th until March 15th. The Park is 200 miles north of Toronto and a through sleeping car is operated between Toronto and the Park Tuesdays and Fridays, returning Wednesdays and Saturdays. An illustrated booklet describing the winter sports, handsomely illustrated, will be sent free upon application to any Grand Trunk Ticket Agent, or C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND
BY "SAPPER"
(CYRIL McNEILE)

"My dear people," Hugh murmured protestingly, "surely you know me well enough by now to realise that I can't possibly have another idea for at least ten minutes. That is just the general scheme; doubtless the mere vulgar details will occur to us in time. Besides, it's someone else's turn now." He looked round the table hopefully.

"We might dress up or something," remarked Toby Sinclair, after a lengthy silence.

"What in the name of Heaven is the use of that?" said Darrell witheringly. "It's not private theatricals, nor a beauty competition."

"Cease wrangling, you two," said Hugh suddenly, a few moments later. "I've got a perfect cerebral hurricane raging. An accident. A car. What is the connecting-link. Why, drink. Write it down, Algy, or we might forget. Now, can you beat that?"

"We might have some chance," said Darrell kindly, "if we had the slightest idea what you were talking about."

"I should have thought it was perfectly obvious," returned Hugh coldly. "You know, Peter, your worry is that you're too quick on the uptake. Your brain is too sharp."

"How do you spell connecting?" demanded Algy, looking up from his labours. "And, anyway, the damn pencil won't write."

"Pay attention, all of you," said Hugh. "To-night, some time about ten of the clock, Algy's motor will proceed along the Godalming-Guildford road. It will contain you three—also Ted and Jerry Seymour, if we can get 'em. On approaching the gate of The Elms, you will render the night hideous with your vocal efforts. Stray passers-by will think that you are all tight. Then will come the dramatic moment, when, with a heavy crash, you ram the gate."

"How awfully jolly!" spluttered Algy. "I beg to move that your car be used for the event."

"Can't be done, old son," laughed Hugh. "Mine's faster than yours, and I'll be wanting it myself. Now—to proceed. Horrified at this wanton damage to property, you will leave the car and proceed in mass formation up the drive."

"Still giving tongue?" queried Darrell.

"Still giving tongue. Either Ted or Jerry or both of 'em will approach the house and inform the owner in heart-broken accents that they have damaged his gatepost. You three will remain in the garden—you might be recognised. Then it will be up to you. You'll have several men all round you. Keep 'em occupied—somehow. They won't hurt you; they'll only be concerned with seeing that you don't go where you're not wanted. You see, as far as the world is concerned, it's just an ordinary country residence. The last thing they want to do is to draw any suspicion on themselves—and, on the face of it, you are merely five convivial wanderers who have looked on the wine when it was red. I think," he added thoughtfully, "that ten minutes will be enough for me."

"What will you be doing?" said Toby.

"I shall be looking for Potts. Don't worry about me. I may find him; I may not. But when you have given me ten minutes—you clear 'off. I'll look after myself. Now is that clear?"

"Perfectly," said Darrell, after a short silence. "But I don't know that I like it, Hugh. It seems to me, old son, that you're running an unnecessary lot of risk."

"Got any alternative?" demanded Drummond.

"If we're all going down," said Darrell, "why not stick together and rush the house in a gang?"

"No go, old bean," said Hugh decisively. "Too many of 'em to hope to pull it off. No, low cunning is the only thing that's got an earthly of succeeding."

"There is one other possible suggestion," remarked Toby slowly. "What about the police? From what you say, Hugh, there's enough in that house to jug the whole bunch."

"Toby!" gasped Hugh. "I thought better of you. You seriously suggest that we should call in the police! And then return to a life of toping and ease! Besides," he continued, removing his eyes from the abashed author of this hideous suggestion, "there's a very good reason for keeping the police out of it. You'd land the girl's father in the cart along with the rest of them. And it makes it so devilish awkward if one's father-in-law is in prison!"

"When are we going to see this fairy?" demanded Algy.

"You, personally, never. You're far too immoral. I might let the others look at her from a distance in a year or two." With a grin he rose, and then strolled towards the door. "Now go and rope in Ted and Jerry, and for the love of Heaven don't ram the wrong gate."

"What are you going to do yourself?" demanded Peter suspiciously.

"I'm going to look at her from close to. Go away, all of you, and don't listen outside the telephone box."

Do you know that you can buy tickets to bring them "back home" for Christmas?

Not only at Christmas, of course, but just now we are thinking of a novel and highly appreciated Christmas present.

You can go into any Canadian Pacific Station or office in Canada and buy a ticket for the person you designate. No matter where he lives, this ticket is delivered to him by the local agent. It can, if necessary, be wired.

In other words: If yours is a scattered family, you can bring them "back home" for Christmas and the ticket is delivered to them as your Christmas present.

The Canadian Pacific has over 2400 stations and offices. For rates to or from anywhere in Canada or the United States, ask your Canadian Pacific Agent.

COMMUNITY MEETING IN LAKEFIELD HEAR CIVIC AFFAIRS DISCUSSED

Ryerson Ritchie of Peterborough Advises Development of Community Spirit — Sees Big Possibilities for Progressive Village.

COUNCILLORS TALK

LAKEFIELD, Dec.— A public meeting under the auspices of the Board of Trade was held on Monday evening in the Memorial Hall and was well attended by a representative body of rate payers.

The Reeve and Council were seated on the platform. Mr. E. R. Tate of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission also was on the platform annd also Mr. Ryerson Ritchie of Peterboro, the speakers of the evening being Mr. Lillicrap, president of the Lakefield Board of Trade, occupied the chair and made a brief speech, introducing Councillor A. E. Dawson who in the absence of Councillor G. H. Spence through illness, gave a report of the year's municipal finances.

Mr. Dawson said the village has had no problems regarding their excess income, the amount receiven was in round figures $54,000, and the amount expended the same. There is the regular source of both income and expenditure, while some years have extra expenses, as last year when $90,000 was spent and $40,000 the year before. The rate is struck at the beginning of the year to cover all probable expenditure of that year. Mr. Dawson invited any one to ask questions which might occur to them along the

MOUNT HOREB WOMAN KILLED

BUGGY CONTAINING MR. AND MRS. SKUCE, MOUNT HOREB, STRUCK BY THE BURKETON TRAIN—MRS. SKUCE DIES OF INJURIES—HER HUSBAND SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Mrs. Willam Skuce, of Mount Horeb, was almost instantly killed and Mr. Skuce very badly injured at noon yesterday when the C. P. R. Burketon train crashed into their buggy at the Pottery corner, about two miles south of Lindsay. The accident occurred when they were on their way to Lindsay with a load of fowl for a local merchant. Unaware of the approach of the train or ignoring the signals, the party started to cross the track. The buggy was smashed to matchwood and the horse killed. The injured were rushed to the Ross Hospital, where Mrs. Skuce died a few minutes after admittance. Mr. Skuce may recover.

The accident ocurred at the crossing called Welsh's, near the Pottery Corner, about two miles east of Lindsay. The buggy with its ill-fated occupants was travelling north on the road past the residence of Mr. Frank Curtain, and approaching the crossing. The top of the buggy was up and the couple were not looking out, according to the engineer, Mr. Robt. Jack, of Havelock. The usual

FOUR BUILDINGS DESTROYED.

ACME, Alta., Dec. 21.— (Canadian Press.)— Four buildings, including the telephone and post office, were destroyed and three others badly gutted by fire here yesterday. The loss is estimated at approximately $25,000, partly covered by insurance.

CASE OF CONSPIRACY.

VANCOUVER, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press.)—Holding that a prima faci case of conspiracy had been made out against W. A. Bird, Graham Campbell and Fred Gosby, arrested in connection with the alleged ballot stuffing case in the federal riding of Comox-Alberni, Magistrate W. A. Shaw to-day committed the three men for trial.

LEAD OF ONE VOTE.

CALGARY, December 21. Canadian Press. — J. T. Shaw, Independent-Progressive candidate, in West Calgary riding, had a lead of one vote over Hon. H. R. Bennett, the Minister of Justice, in the recent recount proceedings before Judge Winter. Forty two polls have been counted out of a total of 98.

COMPENSATION ACT VALID.

WINNIPEG, December 21. Canadian Press. — The Manitoba Workmen's Compensation Act was held to be valid and to have prior rights over other laws in fixing compensation for widows whose husbands are killed in the course of their duties, according to a decision rendered by the Court of Appeal here to-day in the case of Mrs. A. McColl versus the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The appeal to-day was against the judgment of Mr. Justice Prendergast in the Court of King's Bench, who held the Compensation Board had a perfect right to fix compensation for the death of Mr. McColl, and that the action for damages against the railway company was superseded by the award of the Board.

"RIGHTS OF QUEBEC."

MONTREAL, December 21 (Canadian Press). — In a front page double column editorial signed "La Presse," appearing in yesterday's issue of that newspaper, which is the most widely circulated of the French language organs in this Province,, the claim is made that Quebec Province should have 'its just and legitimate share of representation" in the forthcoming Cabinet of the Hon. W. L. Mckenzie-King, and the latter should not allow himself to be influenced in his choice by the organs in the pay of the "big interests" of Ontario, and more particularly of Toronto.

AFTER "BUCKET SHOPS."

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.— (Canadian Press.)— Officials of the New York Stock Exchange launched a country-wide reform movement today when formal announcement was made that the stock tickers and other wire connections of a number of non-member out-of-town houses had been withdrawn because of alleged "irregularities."

The names of the offenders and the specific reasons which led to this drastic action were not disclosed. In general, however, they were charged with having reported transactions to customers "at prices different from the actual prices at which such transactions took place, to their own profit and to the injury of their customers."

THE OFFICIAL COUNT.

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., December 21 (Canadian Press). — The official count of votes in the Port Arthur-Kenora constituency was concluded yesterday, the figures being announced as follows:

D. K. Kennedy, Progressive, 3,704;
F. H. Keefer, Conservative, 3,646;
A. J. McComber, Liberal, 3,427.

It is probable that the Conservatives will ask a re-count, and the Liberals to-night are talking of protesting the election. It is understood that the Liberal executive will meet on Wednesday (to-day) to make a final decision.

COUNSEL FOR BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY REPLIES TO RAILWAY BOARD COMMISSIONER.

BELL TELEPNONE CASE

OTTAWA, December 21 (Canadian Press). — After another day's hearing before the Railway Commission here of the Bell Telephone Company's application for increased rates, it was stated last night that the would be concluded to-day.

The evidence is now all in, and several of the counsel have made their preliminary argument. Glyn Osler, K.C., for the company, said yesterda morning that the case for his compan was merely a request that the evident intention of the Board's judgment of April last be given effect to. Results during subsequent months had not answered expectations, and the consequence was that the company was not in receipt of th revenues which the Board had adiudged necessary.

C. R. Geary, K.C., said that the application was concerned with fresh capital rather than with revenues. He believed that the old order of the Board should at least have given 12 months' trial before a fresh application was mde. He deplored such "patchwork" as the emergency increases from time to time amounted to, and believed that the company should be sent back, and when it was heard again it should produce details of the value of plant and maintenance in the different areas in order that fair rates might be definitely determined upon in accordance with the actual cost of service.

Pierre Beullai, K.C., second counsel for the company, said that the Board should allow the company to

MISSING BOX MAY MEAN A NEW ELECTION

PERILOUS JOURNEY TO THE NORTHLAND MAY BE RENDERED USELESS—TWO TRIPS MADE

TWO BOXES LOST

WINNIPEG, December 21. Canadian Press. — After enduring the hardships of the rigorous northern "freeze-up" to obtain the vote of the recent Federal election from the Springfield constituency along the shores of Lake Winnipeg, members of the Dominion Election Registration and Voting Expedition may see their perilous journey rendered useless because circumstances of nature compelled them to return without two of the nine ballot boxes. For this reason, A. Potvin, Returning Officer for the constituency, is considering recommending the election valid.

Two trips were made by the organizing party, the first to register the voters and the second to distribute the ballot boxes and poll the vote. Mishaps occurring in succession delayed the party so they could not have reached Berens' River, the farthest north point, until a day after the election, and they consequently had to abandon taking the vote of this poll.

A deputy returning officer at Devil's Island has not yet appeared with the second missing box, and the vote for that district has not been polled.

THE MUNICIPAL FIGHT.

The Tenants' and Owners' Association has endorsed a slate of candidates for the coming municipal elections and is further assisting in arousing interest in the contest by arranging a public meeting at which the endorsed candidates will be given an opportunity of stating the platform upon which the are to appeal for support. The Association has no particular platform of its own and apparently the standard bearers who are to be supported by the organization are to be left to their own devices so far as their policy is concerned. It would seem to the impartial onlooker that the Association would have been on safer ground if the views of its candidates had been stated before they were endorsed, or, better still, if a constructive platform had been prepared by the Association and subscribed to by the standard bearer selected. However, the mere fact that a slate has been endorsed will waken up the electorate to realize that the municipal elections are just around the corner; and anything that will arouse interest in this most important but sadly neglected business will be welcome. A glance over the T. and O. slate fails to disclose the fact that all the available talent has been enlisted. There are many citizens outside of the endorsed roster who would be valuable public servants and they should not be left out of the contest because they have been overlooked by any particular organization.

MUNICIPAL RIGHTS.

Mayor Gregory, of Stratford, in an address before the Stratford Chamber of Commerce the other day, called attention to the growing interference of the Provincial Government with the affairs of municipalities. His Worship contended that the cities and towns of Ontario were becoming mere tax-collecting agencies, operated for the benefit of the province ,and this description is not far off the mark. It is high time that the municipalities got together and presented a uited front against the continuous invasion of their affairs by the Provincial administration. Act after act has been passed at Queen's Park affecting the municipalities and requiring them to finance the schemes, while at the same time the towns and cities have not been consulted in the matter at all. It does not excuse this intrusion of municipalities that there is no particular fault to be found with the legislation itself. The Mothers' Pensons Act, the Highways Act and other bills of the same type may be useful, necessary measures, but when the onus of collecting the finances for a large part of the expense of these acts is laid upon the municipalities without an opportunity being given the latter to consider the legislation, it would seem that Stratford's mayor was not far wrong when when he declared that the interference of the Province was resulting in the cities and towns becoming mere tax collectors. Stratford, for example, is being called upon to pay at the rate of about a mill on the dollar for the upkeep of provincial roads for which she had not asked and had nothing to do with building.

THE NORTH OXFORD RESULT.

The outstanding feature of the North Oxford by-election seems to be the establishment of the fact that party allegiance in Ontario is nowhere near so binding as it was a few years ago. The figures of the last three contests in North Oxford, which, by the way has been continuously Liberal for five decades, are worthy of study. In the Provincial election in 1919 the late J. A. Calder, the Liberal candidate, was elected by a majority of 2,313. In the Dominion election only two weeks ago the Liberal nominee had 4,050, the Conservative candidate 4,050, and the Progressive 3,803. On Tuesday Ross, U.F.O., polled 4,687 votes as against 3,384 for his Liberal opponent and 954 for the Independent Conservative candidate. There were 3,050 fewer votes polled in the Provincial fight than in the Dominion contest, and the Progressive party, which ran third in the December 6th voting, easily finished in front in the by-election. It is plain that hundreds of electors who were Liberal in their views in the Federal campaign, swung to the U.F.O. cause in the Provincial battle, and that many Conservative voters who took no stock in the candidature of the the Independent Conservative, refused to exercise their franchise at all. Sir John A. Macdonald once remarked upon the uncertainty of elections. What wold he think of the situation to-day when two contests in the same riding, within two weeks of each other, show such a sweeping turnover as North Oxford has offered?

THE CLOSED UNION.

Some good may come from the proposed agreement by which the building trades unions are to barter increased efficiency for a continuance of the present high wages. As Mr. Untermyer pointed out to the leaders of the electricians' and plasterers' unions, many of the practices limiting production to which they have confessed are "a crime." But the root of all the building evils is is the union of limited membership. A body of workmen who have entrenched themselves in power by stamping out competition arbitrarily limit their own numbers, thereby establishing a monopoly of all jobs in their field. To the closed shop is added the closed union. "Conspiracy," is too mild a term for it.

Many unions, as for example the plasterers', do not admit new members above the age of 19. Examinations are held—in which the examiners see to it that only the favored few shall pass. The hoisting engineers have for some time kept their books closed ,though all their members are over 50 years old. During the last ten years their membership has actually decreased. A few die, though none resign. But while excluding new members, many such unions issue "permit cards" enabling the workman whom they have excluded to practice his trade—for a consideration. For the issue of such cards, Inside Electrical Workers' Union No. 3 is said to have collected some $250,000. This procedure, Mr. Untermyer characterized as "a conspiracy to extort money."

For the permanent cure of such evils the law is apparently a feeble instrument. Employers have lately been fined, and some of them imprisoned, for practices as iniquitous as those of the closed union, yet their associations are said on authority to be again fixing prices in the same old way. Labor leaders, fresh from jail, have been acclaimed as martyrs and reinstated in their old offices. To the building world, obviously, the law is what the Constitution was once said to be among political friends. What will happ n after the present inquiry has run its course, we know too well from the past. There appears to be no other course except constant supervision by authorities adequately empowered. To an unhoused community a normal supply of building material and a normal supply of building labor are as much a public utility as transportation.

Only a commission of intelligent and public spirited citizens can make rules adapted to the various fields of labor, the various associations of employers—or make sure that they are obeyed. The first of all rules, and the most zealously enforced, should be that no union shall close its doors to a needed supply of labor. A competent trade school can graduate a journeyman plasterer after a three months' course, and with an additional month a qualified foreman. The trades of bricklayer, carpenter, stationary engineer, electrician and the rest,can be almost as speedily learned. Under intelligent regulation we should no longer be confronted with the phenomenon of workmen who prefer to profiteer while their fellows are shivering in the streets.—New York Times.

CONFERENCE CONCLUDED.

SASKATOON, December 21. — Canadian Press. — The conference of Progressive members-elect of Parliament, was concluded at seven o'clock last evening. No statement was issued.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The North Oxford by-election seems to have been "The End of a Perfect Day."

Citizens should not forget the nomination proceedings on Friday. Good men cannot be elected if they are not brought into the field.

The Independent Conservative who ran in North Oxford must feel like the small boy who wanted a pair of skates for Christmas and received instead a copy of Tennyson's poems.

It is evident that the fighting is not all over in Ireland yet.

Another problem the new Government will have to tackle is the revision of the Bank Act. Recent developments show that it should not long be postponed.

Bank mergers do not seem any more popular in Canada than political coalitions.

PEACE.

"Peace! Peace!" long needled pines are whispering,
A Sabbath Peace beside the river's bank,
Where tropic shrubs ope glorious, mauvish-pink;
Rare incense yellow-puffed mimosas swing;
Those solmn eucalyptus green-grey string
A pillared course, cathedral aisles they link,
Whose vaulted azure steeps the things we think
In harmonies that choiring angels sing.

"Peace! Peace!" that's colorful and pure and true,
That's fragrant, tuneful, born of holiness.
The thought of thee has gleamed in visionings,
In prophets' dreams—thy beauty culled by few—
The nations waken to thy loveliness,
Within their reach to serve the King of kings.

be the best judges as to its needs. He urged that the increases be allowed in order that the conservative management, for which the company was noted, might be continued, and that the shareholders might be duly protected. The Board would reserve the right to reduce the rates again once it was found warrantable.

F. B. Proctor, Ottawa, said he believed that before users were condemned to pay increased rates, they should be satisfied that they were only paying proportionatel according to the service the were receiving with users in other centres. He would oppose an appraisal according to present day values of the Bell Company plant, he said.

Commissioner Lawrence asked if he knew some of the salaries were larger than that of the Premier of Canada.

Mr. Proctor relied that the Premier's salary was one of the scandals of Canadian political conditions.

"Merry Christmas Uncle Charlie!"

A Long Distance Message of Peace and Good Will is the best of Christmas Gifts

"LET ME wish him Merry Christmas, too," chirped little Alice, dancing up and down with excitement, her blessed doll clasped tight in her arm,—"please, please."

And after her, each in that happy, reunited group wished him, between a laugh and a sigh of regret, the "Merry, Merry Christmas" that meant more to him than all the presents money could buy!

What real joy the sound of the remembered voice brings, only the distant and lonely know!

A graceful and a friendly habit—wishing Merry Christmas and Happy New Year by Long Distance—whose quality, like that of mercy, is not strained. We have to make special provision for Christmas Day, New Year's and New Year's Eve, so popular has the custom become.

You will be surprised to find how low the evening and night rates are for Station-to-Station messages. Ask the Manager. It will only take a minute.

COMMUNITY MEETING, LAKEFIELD, HEAR CIVIC AFFAIRS DISCUSSED

lines of his summary, but no one did so. Before closing he paid a splendid tribute to two citizens, who have been outstanding figures during the past year, Mr. T. B. Marling, who gave such whole hearted service to the community in connection with the roads and sidewalks and to Mr. J. C. Strickland, whose enterprise we must thank for our splendid new rink, which is a credit to the village. Without Mr. Strickland's hard work we would still have been wishing for a proper rink, he declared.

Why Taxes High?

Mr. Lillicrap said that at the last meeting of the Board of Trade some one asked why the taxes were so much heavier than last year, and Mr. Strickland gave a very clear statement on the matter which he felt should be given to the citizens.

Mr. Strickland said that during the two years he had been Reeve the rate of taxation had risen, but proved very conclusively that the greater part of the increase of rate came from outside the Council's jurisdiction. In 1919 the rate was 30 mills in 1921 it was 50 mills, but the reason is clear. In 1919 the debenture rate was 3½ mills, in 1920 it was 10¼, in 1919 the school rate was 13½ mills, in 1921 it was 18 mills. The Hydro voted on by the village, is a big assest but is costly and adds 4 mills to the taxes. It costs the village $1,900 more for street lighting than we paid Mr. Leggott.. The upkeep of the hall costs 3 mills and the fire engine which was a necessity adds 4 mills. The piano for the Memorial Hall, the equipment for the Fire Brigade and the Memorial Tablet made 4 mills none. These expenses could not be avoided. The school tax, debenture rate and Hydro-Electric rates had nothing whatever in these matters. The work on the roads and sidewalks was done as economically as possible, concluded the speaker.

Road Expenditues

Mr. Marling was the next speaker and he had with him an outline of the road expenditures in around numbers, as follows:

For wages, $1,600; material, $1,400; stables including upkeep and feed of horses, $507; watering streets, 2 months, $106, stone crushing, $167, repairs to road machinery, $50. Total, $3,900.00.

$700 was the cost of the oil for the streets and $200 for laying it as we had no equipment and had to secure such from outside. The roads alone made up 1-7 of the total amount of the taxes as against 1-6 last year. The increased motor traffic means we must have better roads and there are at least 1000 more motor vehicles using the road than a year ago.

Regarding cement sidewalks, six were laid, said Mr. Marling two on his own personal recommendation, Mr. Marling said, and four on petitions, which were practically unaninimous from rate payers on those streets. The sum of $3,000 was allowed for this work and the actual cost was $2,700. One wooden - side walk was laid and it was found that the actual cost of cement walks was small, and reacted in favor of cement by reason of its permanency.

Hydro Electric

Mr. E. R. Tate of the Hydro Electric Power Commission, spoke briefly on the work of the Commission which had nothing to do with the Council. The latter body are in no way responsible for any mistakes of the Commission, he asserted. The books are balanced twice a year by chartered accountants coming down from Toronto. The harnessing of the power of Ontario for the people is a great enterprise and one of which we are all proud. The people of Lakefield voted $33,500 for the Hydro Electric plant and the actual cost of building was $28,500; the balance of $5,000 is safely invested for the village. The revenue is satisfactory and was given in detail. All the speakers expressed themselves as ready to answer any questions and hear complaints but it is evident that the people are well satisfied, as no one responded and every speaker recived attentive hearing.

Mr. Ryerson Ritchie

M. Ryerson Ritchie of Peterboro, introduced himself as a native of Peterboro, who has been in Lakefield very frequently. Once travelling in th train an air man who had won distinctron overseas, told Mr. Ritchie of a flight he had taken to the Kawartha lake region, which he described as a rich velvet carpet sprinkled with diamonds. Lakefield is very favourably situated he continued, ond reminds one of the villages of England and also of New England. As we are about to enter on the year 1922 Lakefield has almost everything before it and a tinued, and reminds one of the vilcould accomplish a great deal. In England and the U. S. a great deal of time is being given to town-planning and in Kansas City, Missouri, the sum of $25,000,000 was recently spent on parks and gardens which a few years ago could have been bought for a sou.

We can profit by the mistakes of other places, said the speaker and start in a modest way and get a good understanding and spirit of co-operation out of the community.

You should know, Mr. Ritchie declared, what your development should be and it will not be difficult to appoint a few competent men to act as a committee to look after the social, industrial and commercial advantages of your town.

In Peterboro there is a great deal of talk of a parkway to Lakefield, and on farther, and Lakefield can also take the matter up. The splendid new rink is the result of enterprise and community spirit.

In England the deliberate Board of the Chamber of Commerce still exists but in the United States the work is pracically all done by committees under a Board of Directors, and there are only two or three deliberate meetings during the year. The committees are usually composed of from 3 to 5 men especially fitted for the work in hand, and they formulate a recommendation after careful study of the question, which is duly analyzed and critized by the Board of Directors who provide a check on any carelessness. This plan can be worked out just as well in a small place as in a large city.

In most of the states of the U.S. a bonus to an industry is illegal, and this is right and we want industries which will insure growth.

The community spirit needs stimulating and the municipal body from the reeve down, need your help as citizens, concluded the distinguished visitor.

Mr. E. R. Tate moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Ritchie, which was seconded by Mr. J. E. Richardson, and heartily endorsed by the meeting, which then adjourned.

Nervous Breakdown

The extreme depression and discouragement which comes over one at times is the most alarming symptom of nervous exhaustion.

This letter is a message of hope to all who find themselves in this unfortunate condition.

Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N.B., writes:—

"For years I was in a very nervous, run-down condition, was much depressed in spirits and suffered a great deal at times. The least noise would irritate me and at times I felt as though I certainly would go crazy. I consulted different doctors to no effect.

"A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and I can truly testify today to the great benefits received. There was a marked change before I had finished the second box and when I had used a dozen boxes my nerves were thoroughly restored and I was entirely relieved of those terrible feelings I used to have. I shall ever be ready to testify to the benefits of this wonderful medicine, feeling sure that it will give to others the quick and permanent relief it has given me."

signals were made and the train was slowin gup as it approaches the Lindsay Junction. The engineer thought that the buggy would stop and for that reason paid no particular attention to it. The buggy did not stop, however, and was half way across the track when the engine struck it. The horse was thrown out between the two crossing and instantly killed. The buggy was smashed and the seat and top caught on the pilot of the engine and carried 600 feet away. When the train stopped and the crew alighted, Mr. and Mrs. Skuce were found jammed into the top of the buggy on the pilot. They were removed and taken to the baggage car. The train moved into the Lindsay station where it was met by Dr. Blanchard. The victims were removed to the Hospital in an ambulance immediately. Mrs. Skuce died about ten minutes after admittance. The cause of her death is given as a fracture of the skull, a broken back and other internal injuries. Dr. Blanchard states taht Mr. Skuce, although not yet rational, has a good chance of recovery. His injuries are not nearly as serious as those of Mrs. Skuce.

The fireman of the train saw practically nothing of the accident until the horse was thrown past his window. The buggy had been approaching from the opposite side of the train to his lookout. His name is Archie McCoil, of Havelock. The conductor is Robt. Kelsey, of Bobcaygeon. Apparently the only one on the train who was aware of the approach of the buggy was the engineer and he had no idea of collision.

Inquest Ordered.

The jury empanelled for the inquest met in the afternoon. The members were: Messrs. H. Dobson, Wm. Mitchell, G. W. Nursey (foreman), W. J. Ferguson, F. W. Moynes, W. Jordan, D. Sharpe, John Lake, W. H. Stubbings, Jas. Brady. The members were sworn in by the coroner, Dr. Wood. They then viewed the body at the morgue and adjourned until to-day.

They Were Married on a Battleship, and Then—

They Battled for the Freedom of the Matrimonial Seas Until the Cruise of the Author Who Wrote "Happy Endings" Finished On the Rocks

"But at that moment Mr. Van Loan and his lovely bride cared little for admirals and sea-dogs. As they stood on the deck of the New York, with the six-pounder booming its salute and the sunshine gleaming on the Hudson, they must have felt the world was theirs—and the entire United States Navy!"

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Van Loan and Their Baby, When the Joys of Matrimony Had Not Staled and Their Romance Was Still in the Secondary Honeymoon Stage.

In the Captain's Cabin Aboard the Battleship New York They Were Married and—They Lived Happily After, for a Time.

THEY were married aboard the battleship New York!

No, they did not fight ever after—they just separated!

"She's the most wonderful girl, is my wife," says he.

"He's the most darlingest man," says she, adding: "And we are awfully happy."

"But not together," they chorus in unison!

He is H. H. Van Loan, author and scenario writer. She is his wife, the former Allyn Cameron, granddaughter of Colonel W. D. Cameron, financier and legal light in New York.

Having told the denouement of their romance, its inception may be recounted with all propriety. It began six years ago in New York. Van Loan had been a perfectly respectable newspaperman. He had been reporter and feature writer, and was incidentally brother of the late Charles E., the other Van Loan, who wrote fiction and made the hall of fame.

Our Van Loan sought for fields to conquer and found them in fiction. At first he wrestled with love themes built along polite lines—demure damsels who never strayed; highbrow young men who were strictly proper—and other rare and colorless characters. But finally he came to Melos. His fiction was printed in our best magazines—in the creme of monthlies.

And then, Van Loan sought still wider fields, where the appeal was broader and the scope of his talent likely to be rewarded by larger financial returns.

Van Loan turned scenario writer

He turned scenarios out with machine-like precision and speed. He sent them out regularly and received them back just as regularly. Whereupon he communed with himself and started all over again.

"My stories lacked punch," he admitted subsequently. "There was missing the element of human nature, due probably to the fact that I had never been in love and knew nothing in particular of womankind."

So he fell in love. The object of his admiration was Allyn Cameron, then sweet sixteen. She was pretty, demure, chic, charming, delightful to the eye and a few other things—according to Van Loan's allegations delivered to an expectant world the day of his wedding.

And with the courtship, Van Loan redoubled his literary efforts. He wrote and wrote. He burned the midnight electric light. He turned 'em out by the yard.

And he sold them.

The film companies began to bid for his work. A big company offered him a lucrative contract to become publicity manager in the New York office, incidentally writing a scenario in between announcements. Van Loan accepted, and straightway perpetrated his first publicity stunt.

He went into conference with Miss Cameron.

Would she object?

Er—well, if he insisted—oh, well—yes!

And so it happened that the next day—in 1915—the newspapers chronicled the wedding of H. H. Van Loan and Miss Allyn Cameron, aboard the battleship New York, then off Ninety-sixth street, in the Hudson.

Cameramen from the film company and news photographers flocked by the dozen to the captain's quarters. It was indeed an eventful day in the life of H. H. and Allyn, and Van Loan's reputation as a press agent reached par and beyond.

So they were married.

Could any bride have desired a more romantic setting? Weddings at fashionable St. Thomas's, with all their befrocked and begowned luxury, with all their flowers and fragrance and pealing organ notes could not compare to the scene on the U. S. Battleship New York that day.

Above them the blue sky made a canopy, criss-crossed by towering masts and ropes instead of cathedral arches. The altar was a cabin more spick and span than any church nave. They advanced across a spotless deck between ranks of blue-jackets drawn up at stiff salute. And, as they raised their eyes at the minister's injunction to join hands, they could see the shimmering Hudson and the far-off hazy hills of New Jersey.

Just at that moment, as the whole ship's company centered its gaze on the open door and the pair beyond, it seemed the harsh lines of the New York became softer. The battleship was not a battleship, but a bower.

"And I pronounce you man and wife!" came the voice of the officiating clergyman.

Mr. Van Loan took the new Mrs. Van Loan in his arms. The sailors gave a mighty marine "Hurrah!" The band broke into the wedding march and, from one of the huge six-pounders yawning from a porthole burst a puff of smoke—the bridal salute!

Verily, Dan Cupid must have crowed with triumph at that moment. Perhaps the shades of Nelson, of Drake, of Farragut and Perry and a hundred other valiant fighters looked down on the scene with horror. A battleship, the bulldog of the seas, given over to such serene and sentimental matters as love and matrimony! What, asked Drake of Farragut, is this awful world coming to? Did you ever, demanded Perry of Admiral Nelson, hear of such a thing? A wedding on a battleship—name of Davy Jones!

But at that moment Mr. Van Loan and his lovely bride cared little for admirals and sea-dogs. As they stood on the deck of the New York, with the six-pounder booming its salute and the sunshine gleaming on the Hudson they must have felt the world was theirs—and the entire United States Navy.

Neither one for a moment considered that a wedding on a battleship may be more prophetic of war than of peace.

It has been mentioned casually that marriage is a cure for love and the Van Loans seem to have experienced something of this reaction. At least, they did not live happily ever after, for "ever" is a long time in terms of matrimony. They went west to Universal City, where the bridegroom wrote scenarios, the while Mrs. Van Loan kept house, bought groceries, argued with the butcher—and mothered a dandy baby.

Van Loan wrote one screen success after another, the best known being "The Virgin of Stamboul," in which Priscilla Dean starred. Mrs. Van Loan added a maid or two and a car and a chauffeur to her menage, and Van Loan wrote with accelerated speed to pay the bills.

Then came a rift. Just how it all happened, neither Mr. nor Mrs. Van Loan will reveal. But little by little they edged apart, though living under the same roof. He went to affairs in Hollywood; she attended social functions without him.

Last May they parted, he going to a hotel, she remaining in their bungalow. Of course, the gossips began their whispering. Divorce rumors filled the Hollywood air and—both denied any intention of appealing to the law, but—

"Why should I think of getting a divorce from the beautiful girl of my dreams?" asked Van Loan in reply to a direct question as to his intentions.

"I would do anything for him," suggested Mrs. Van Loan.

"She's a most wonderful girl, is my wife," said Van Loan. "Happy? We couldn't be happier."

"He's the most darlingest man and we're most happy," assented Mrs. Van Loan.

"But not together," they harmonized in unison.

"Yes, we did separate," added Mrs. Van Lion. "I just think the world of dear Van, but I do like my cozy little bungalow, and Van just adores hotels, you know."

And then, to prove how much she loved her home, she remarked that she was going away on a trip to New York, Cuba and Paris.

"I'm going alone," she explained. "Van likes Hollywood. I don't know when I will return."

"We have separated all right," Van Loan added. "It's all a question of black and white. When I thought it was black, she thought it was white. But at that, she is a fine little crepe hanger!"

And then Van Loan launched into a discussion of the art of scenario manufacture.

"Love should be the underlying theme—lying is rather good, don't you think—of every story. Love is the most impelling force in the world—it impels you into conjugal slavery. Without love, what would we be? Free from the matrimonial yoke. Yet, love is all necessary. Otherwise there could be no motion picture plays and then, where would I make a living? The second essential for a good movie is a plot showing a recalcitrant wife, who asserts black is pink and that her husband, who should be a famous scenario writer, does not like New York and Cuba and Paris. Of course, to make atmosphere, they should be married on a battleship—say, the New York. Is there a battleship named the Reno? Or was that the famous peace ship?

"Then there should be a bunch of interfering neighbors and relatives and insects of that type to make the husband miserable. Oh, I almost forgot: Of course, the husband is as nearly perfect as a scenario writer can make him. He never drinks, smokes, swears nor strays.

"Will such a scenario pass the censors? You never can tell. You see, there's a baby, and babies are highly improper, according to the new code. Verily, this is a sinful world and I am entirely too saintly—to be a scenario writer."

"If I ever write a scenario," suggested Mrs. Van Loan, "it will be the wife who is the saint. I know more about wiving than Van does. His specialty has been husbanding, and he's made a bloomer of that. I never said black was pink. I may have hinted that there are several shades of black, but, having artistic instincts, I know that there is no such thing as pink-black. Besides love is color blind and what difference does it make whether black or pink are the primary colors?

"My idea of the ideal scenario is one in which the husband tends the baby washes dishes, makes the bed and does the real work. Anybody can write a motion picture. But it takes genius not to write one. Just try to restrain the divine urge, when it is urging its itchiest. But let a man try to run a household! Thank goodness, I'm not a scenario writer."

OSHKIGMONG HAPPENINGS

OSHKIGMONG, Dec. 21.—Mr. Nicholas Plain of Sarnia, who has been conducting a series of special revival services in the village for two weeks, has returned home. He is a true hearted and convincing preacher, and was ably assisted by Mr. W. Metcalfe of Rama. During the nightly services the Church was crowded to its full capacity. Mr. Plain has promised to return again within a few months.

Mr. Bert Williams and family, have left for Rama to spend Christmas and New Years there.

Mrs. Bessie Taylor was a recent visitor to Mrs. A. Smoke, Water street Peterborough.

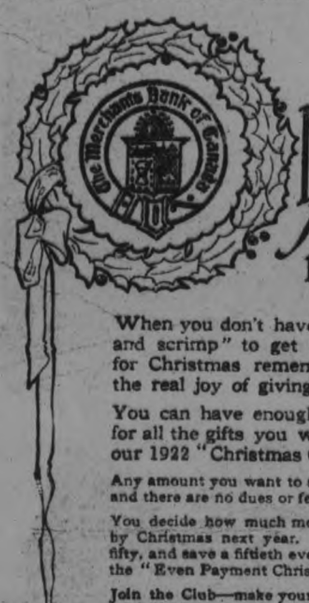
The day school will hold its annual entertainment and Christmas tree on Wednesday night, December 21st, in the village hall.

Mr. D. Simcoe, who has been visiting his father-in-law, Mr. W. Taylor, sr. has returned home to Rama.

Mrs. Albert Whetung is in Peterborough visiting Mrs. R. Duggan.

THE PRODUCE MARKET.

MONTREAL, Dec. 21.— (Canadian Press.)—There was no change in the domestic market for cash grain. The flour situation showed no new developments. Demand is much in excess for supply in mill feed, but there is no further change in prices. The rolled oats market was firm. There is little demand for baled hay. The tone of the egg market is about steady. The potato market is quiet. The butter and cheese markets are without developments.



Have plenty for Christmas next year

When you don't have to "to rake and scrape and scrimp" to get enough money together for Christmas remembrances, then you feel the real joy of giving.

You can have enough—more than enough—for all the gifts you want to give, if you join our 1922 "Christmas Club" NOW—to-day.

Any amount you want to save makes you a member—and there are no dues or fees of any kind.

You decide how much money you want in the Bank by Christmas next year. You divide this amount by fifty, and save a fiftieth every week. That's the plan of the "Even Payment Christmas Club" in a few words.

Join the Club—make your deposits regularly—and two weeks before next Christmas, you will have your Christmas money ready for Christmas shopping or for any other purpose.

Come to the Bank to-day, and get enrolled. We are waiting for you.

CONFERENCE PROGRESSES

FRANCE ACCEPTS PROPOSAL WITH RESERVATIONS — SUBMARINE PROBLEM COMES NEXT.

WASHINGTON, December 21 (Canadian Press). — Acceptance by France, with reservations, of the United States proposals of 175,000 tons in capital ships each for France and Italy, swept the Arms Conference forward last night to its next major problem—the submarine issue. Italy, it was stated officially, already has accepted the 175,000 ton figures, conditioned only on its acceptance by France.

The reservations attached to the acceptance of the 175,000 capital ship tonnage had to do with "light cruisers, torpedo boats, and submarines." This has served to bring the Conference to a standstill until the submarine issue can be solved, when the five-power capital ship agreement will be completed automatically.

Great Britain scraps 22,600 tons more than originally proposed, leaving her tonnage 582,000 tons instead of 604,400, her excess being allowed in view of the age of her existing ships. The new limits are very little different from those proposed, being 525,000 tons for the United States and Great Britain, and 325,000 tons for Japan. The naval holiday as to capital ships is agreed upon except for the construction of the ships above mentioned.

In short, under the original proposal there were to be scrapped by the three Powers 66 capital fighting ships built and building, with a total tonnage (taking ships laid down as completed) of 1,878,000 tons.

Under the present arrangement on the same basis of calculation, there are to be scrapped 68 capital ships, with a total tonnage of 1,861,000 tons.

CABLE AND TELEGRAPH

DUTY ON LIQUOR.

OTTAWA, December 21. — Canadian Press. — Whether or not the Dominion government has the right to charge the Government of British Columbia duty on liquor imported into that province is now a matter for the Exchequer Court to decide. Following the test case which was argued before the court here, judgment was reserved.

WAGE REDUCTION.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.— (Canadian Press.)—Representatives of eleven big paper manufacturing companies in the United States and Canada, met spokesmen for their employees at a hearing here before an Arbitration Board held to pass on wage reductions. An adjournment until January 4 was taken after several hours of discussion.

Spokesmen for the manufacturers told the Board, which is headed by Judge Frank Irvine, of Ithaca, that wage cuts of approximately 25 per cent. were necessitated by the condition of the industry and depressed market conditions.

INTERNATIONAL RACES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press.)— International team races for the British-American six-metre yacht cup will be sailed on Long Island Sound, off Oyster Bay next September. British yachtsmen recently challenged the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club for a renewal of the regatta sailed in the Solent last summer when the English team were victorious and the acceptance of the challenge was announced tonight. The regattas in English waters last summer was for the first of the international trophy, purchased jointly by the yachtsmen of the two countries.

THE HORRORS OF INDIGESTION

Relieved by "Fruit-a-tives" the Fruit Medicine

Indigestion, Weak Digestion or partial digestion of food, is one of the most serious of present-day complaints—because it is responsible for many serious troubles.

Those who suffer with Indigestion, almost invariably are troubled with Rheumatism, Palpitation of the Heart, Sleeplessness and excessive Nervousness.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always relieve Indigestion because these tablets strengthen the stomach muscles, increase the flow of the digestive juices and correct Constipation, which usually accompanies Indigestion.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A "PROGRESS" REPORT.

OTTAWA, Dec. 21.— (Canadian Press.)—Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, has received a "progress" report from the outside auditors who have been at work for about nine months on an independent audit of the Department. Not only the Victory and War Loan accounts but also the whole system of Dominion bookkeeping have been under review and examination. The report now received asserts, among other things, that the proceeds of all the war and victory loans since 1914 running into billions have been entirely accounted for.

THE "RUBBER SANDWICH."

MONTREAL, December 21 (Canadian Press). — The day of the "rubber sandwich" in restaurants and taverns selling beer and wine to patrons is doomed.

The Quebec Liquor Commission issued a circular to restaurant-keepers here to-day declaring that "the issue of articles which are called sandwiches and of viands which are called soup, under various designations, has been practised as subterfuges for the sale of beer and wine to those who are seeking drink rather than food, the permit holder maintaining that he is observing the letter while he is well aware that he is evading the spirit of the law."

BETHEL NEWS

BETHEL, December 21. — Miss Annie Reid is visiting at Mr. H. McKay's.

Mr. Stanley Wood and Mr. Harry Garnett spent Thursday evening last in Peterborough.

Miss Mary Nelson and Miss Leata Wood spent Thursday evening last in Peterborough.

Mrs. Herbert McKay, Miss Daisy Wright, and Mr. Herbert McKay have been called to Toronto on account of the death of the former's father.

Mr. Stuart Davidson had the misfortune to sprain his ankle, and as a result is spending a few days with his parents.

The evening services of the Keene Methodist Church anniversary were well attended by the Bethel young folks.

Bethel Epworth League.

The ladies of the Bethel Epworth League are planning for a social afternoon for the little people of the community.

Some twenty young people spent a pleasant evening last week skating near Mr. John Graham's.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Armstrong were taken by surprise on Friday evening, when a number of noisy, mysterious visitors welcomed the bride to her new home.

Miss Effie Reid and Miss Lila McKay have returned home after visiting Norwood friends.

Mr. Stanley Wood spent Saturday in Peterborough.

The weather man was so active on Sunday last that he kept the Sunday night callers at home.

SEEK WAGE INCREASE.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 21. — (Canadian Press.)— An increase of approximately thirty-five per cent. will be asked for shop employes on all Canadian railroads when the next wage agreement is presented to rail executives, according to tentative plans now under consideration, Harry Kempstock, secretary-treasurer of District No. 20, International Union of Machinists, said yesterday. This would affect about 7,000 workers throughout Canada. The demand for an increase is based on the purchasing power of a Canadian dollar as compared with 1914.

From the Jungle

REDMAC HAS ARRIVED TO HEAL THE SICK

Those who are sufferers now have a chance to be made well. Dyspeptics, Rheumatics, and any one ailing will have a chance to regain their health.

To have Dyspepsia is to be miserable, untold agony after eating or trying to eat, your lot may be different since the introduction of Redmac.

Weak nerves, irrtitable, and out of sorts, run down, pain in the back, melancholy, shortness of breath, bad memory; all the result of starvation of the blood and nerves.

Redmac is here and you may now put yourself on the road to recovery and that very quickly. If you are hardly able to look after your work, if your appetite is bad, your stomach out of order, if your back hurts you, if you have headaches then you will be grateful to Redmac for ever coming your way.

Mrs. Falton, of Montreal, writes: "I have been an awful sufferer from indigestion and dyspepsia for several years. I would almost die after eating, the pain in the pit of my stomach was so bad. Redmac was recommended to me by a friend. I tried one bottle and the relief I got was wonderful. I have taken six bottles altogether, and I think it is the most wonderful medicine that was ever made. I can eat anythng now and I am in perfect health. If you are suffering from any of the above, go to your druggist right away and get a bottle of Redmac. It is purely vegetable, made from herbs and roots, gathered from foreign countries. The benefit you will receive will surprise you.

RIVALRY BETWEEN NEW YORK AND OLD LONDON

NEW YORK, December 21. — (Canadian Press.)— The ancient discussion over the rivalry in growth between New York and London has been revived by the plan of the Port of New York Authority to solve the freight problem of the port. It would increase the metropolitan area from 375 to 1,463 square miles, with a population of 7,974,019 compared with 5,629,048 for the five city boroughs given in last year's Federal census.

London's metropolitan district showed 7,256,623 persons in 1919.

Chairman Outerbridge stated in his report that no other port in the world has ever presented problems of such magnitude and perplexity.

"The shore lines of the port of New York," he said, "are not less than 800 miles. That means that merely to coast along those shores in a 10-knot vessel for ten hours of daylight each day would take eighty days or the average time of a fast passenger steamer across the Atlantic."

There are 105 municipalities in this area, he stated. Freight brought in or taken out of the port by twelve trunk line railroads amounted annually to 75,000,000 tons, he said, while 45,000,000 tons were brought in or taken out annually by foreign and domestic steamships.

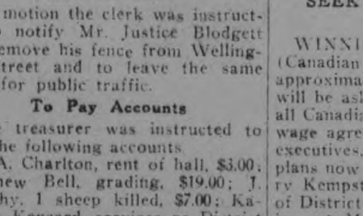
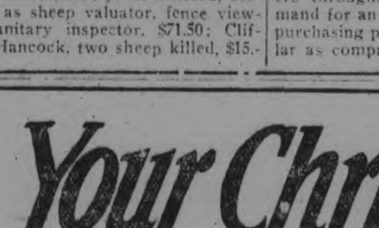
Your Christmas Days

As they were,
As they are,
As they may be.

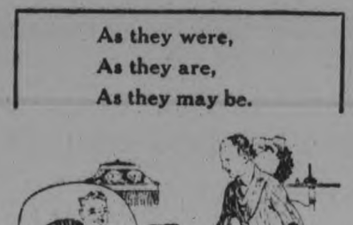
Age 21—You were sure of making a Million.



Age 30—Well, if he could make $100,000, so could you.



Age 40—If you could only figure out an estate of $25,000!



Age 50—Strange how hard it is to get credit at the Bank!

Age 60—Well, a $10,000 policy is something, anyway!

No matter what future personal success you may have, you know that the biggest thing you can do this Christmas is to make sure that never in the future will good cheer and comfort be lacking in your home.

Why not deposit with the Canada Life each year—less than you pay for your own clothing and personal luxuries; less than a motor car's upkeep; less than you lose in a year on a rash speculation? Deposit such a modest sum with us and we will

for your family for years and years to come through our

Home Protection Policy

which offers protection that is within the reach of every insurable person.

This plan is the basis of all life insurance.

It provides an "Estate" at the lowest net outlay it is possible to obtain.

Experience has proven that it offers maximum insurance at minimum cost.

The annual outlay is comparatively small, being only a moderate rate per cent. on the capital "estate" created, according to age. The average is about 3%.

Even these small payments are reduced by dividends.

Many policyholders in the Canada Life have lived to draw large sums from this form of policy for their own personal use.

Cash values are guaranteed—a fund for emergencies.

A monthly income is paid to you if you become totally and permanently disabled before reaching age sixty. (This requires a small extra premium.)

If it is desired to stop paying premiums any time after the third year, a "paid for" policy is issued for a proportionate amount, on which no further premiums are required.

At the Royal To-Night, Friday and Saturday

CONCERT AT THE VICTORIA HALL

A very enjoyable concert was held at Victoria Hall on Monday evening, under the auspices of the L.O.L. 1175. A trio of first-class soloists, including Larry O'Brien, Scotch comedian, Miss Jean Douglas, the Scotch dancer, and Miss Gertrude Hay, pianist, Toronto gold medallist, gave an exceptionally interesting entertainment. Their selections called forth the heartiest applause, Mr. O'Brien making a great hit with his number, "Tony the Wop."

The programme was as follows:

Chairman's address— By C. M. George Porter.

Impersonation of Harry Lauder by Larry O'Brien, with encores of "The Pic-Nic" and "I've Loved Her Ever Since."

The Highland Fling and encore, "Sheantrews," by Miss Jean Douglas.; "Tony the Wop" by Mr. O'Brien. "The Sailor's Hornpipe" and "College Pipe" by Miss Douglas; Monologue, "The Old Irish Mother"; "The Parson's Son" and "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" by Larry O'Brien; "Spanish Dance" and encore, "Esperanto" by Miss Douglas; "Stand Fast, Orangemen," with encore of "If You're Irish," by Larry O'Brien; and a "Sword Dance" with encore by Miss Douglas.

The concert was laregly attended and the musical numbers rendered by Miss Hay were unexcelled.

PARIS HEIRESS, POOR SCOT WED.

International Romance Begins, Ends in France, Ripens in Scotland.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—A war romance, which was nearly wrecked by the difference in the social position of the parties, has just culminated in the marriage of a poor ex-Gordon Highlander to the daughter of a wealthy Frenchman.

David Coutts, 40 years old was employed before the war as draper in an Aberdeen warehouse. He joined the 0th Gordons at the outbreak of hostilities, and after serving in the trenches and takin part in several engagements, was transferred to a unit on the lines of communication. After the Armistice he was employed with the War Graves Commission.

A Motor Car Meeting

Returning to the headquarters one evening Coutts stopped a passing motor car to enquire his direction. The woman occupant was Mlle. Marie Fervont, and she undertook to take him to his destination.

They exchanged addresses, and their friendship quickly developed into a love affair. Some time afterwarsd the Aberdonian discovered the woman's social standing.

Thirty years of age and of singular beauty, the daughter of a wealthy retired manufacturer, now a landowner, at Vertonne, in the Pas de Calais, he discovered.

Private Coutts, therefore, on leaving France with the last cadre of the British troops, wrote from Boulogne a letter of farewell to Mlle. Fervont, expressing his opinion that the difference in social status barred their marriage.

She thought differently and when Coutts arrived in Aberdeen he found a cablegram awaiting him which read: "Silly man; come back at once.

She Comes After Him

The "silly man" again wrote to Mlle. Fervont reiterating the reason why he thought they would not be able to marry, and telling her that he proposed to go to Australia, where distance and time might help him forget.

After sending two more fruitless messages to him, Mlle. Fervont decided to go in quest of her lover, and she arrived at Aberdeen unannounced.

While sitting at breakfast one morning, Coutts was astonished to hear inquiry in a familiar voice, "Is Monsieur Coutts at home?"

The inquirer hastened to reassure him that she and her family agreed that any social inequality did not enter into the matter? Would he care to return with her?

Without hesitation Mrr Coutts assented and the couple sailed for France.

The story was completed by a message received a week later from Vertonne as follows:—

"Love to all at Aberdeen, from Monsieur and Mme. David Coutts.'

"What kind of a fellow is Blinks?"

"Well, he is one of those fellows who always grabs the stool when there is a piano to be moved."

PATENTED CANADA, AUG. 31, 1920

EXTOLLS NEW FOUR-POWER PACIFIC PACT.

One of Best Known Public Officials Says "It's Mighty Fine."

(By Ben Deacon, Staff Correspondent of The Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, December 21.—Whatever some of the members of the U. S. Senate may think and say of the new four-power Pacific treaty, there is one man in the public life of Washington who to-day is thoroughly satisfied with that document. It is a mighty fine treaty, he declares, and he is in a position to speak with a certain degree of authority, for he was in very close touch with the plenipotentiaries who affixed their signatures to it. In fact, he played an important part in the signing.

He is Eddie Savey ,who for the past fifty years has been connected with the U. S. Department of State and is one of the best known public officials of Washington. He began his diplomatic career as an office boy and has now reached the dignity of a desk of his own and a swivel chair in the corridor outside the office of the Secretary of State. His official title is Messenger to the Department.

Savoy is a negro of the old school of true southern courtesy. Small in stature, his head fringed with curly grey hair, exceedingly neat in his frock coat and white tie, polite and attentive to all comers, he guards the sacred portals of the State Department with an air of dignity that is not surpassed by any diplomat in Washintgon. He was one of the very few admitted to the room where the delegates signed the treaty.

"It sure am a great treaty," he told the newspapermen afterwards. "I am one of the best I have evah helped to sign."

"You assisted in the ceremony then?" he was asked.

"I suttinly did," he replied. "I reckon I helped with most of the important things that has been done here in the last forty years."

"What part did you take in the proceedings?" one of the correspondents inquired.

"I done blotted the signatures," Savoy announced proudly.

No Waiting for the Grafonola

There are no strings to the offer. The plan is just as simple as we state it. All we ask is that you pay us $1.00 and agree to pay us balance—$97.40—in small weekly sums later. We deliver the Grafonola and Records included at once. You pay for it while you are getting enjoyment from it.

You will recognize in the illustration one of the largest and finest types of Grafonolas, being a "floor" model that is complete with compartments for seventy-five records.

This handsome instrument is made in both mahogany and fumed oak finish, and you can have your choice of either. It is over 40 inches high, 18½ inches deep (front to back). All the mechanical details are of best construction. It has three-speed drive motor, plays four records with one winding, tone control leaves, graduated dial speed regulator, new bayonet-joint tone arm, Columbia reproducer, piano-hinged lid with self-adjusting support. All exposed parts heavily nickel-plated. No other phonograh could give you more pleasure at any price.

BUT this remarkable offer is made still more remarkable by the fact that we are presenting a beautiful model Grafonola that formerly sold at $135.00 (along with 8 selections) for only $98.40.

GAS FROM PEAT, SAYS INVENTOR, TWO CTS. GALLON.

But He Failed to Demonstrate Scheme in Court—Contraption Would Not Work to Enricht's Financial Loss.

NEW YORK December 21.—(By Canadian Press). —Various plans for producing gasoline cheaply from unusual substances are being reviewed closely since Louie Enricht, an aged inventor, was a compelled to demonstrate in court the other day his scheme for producing the "gas" from peat at a cost of two cents a gallon. He failed and judgment was rendered against him by the court in favor of a man who had invested in Enright's enterprise.

When Enricht set up his machine in court and put in his peat and water for the purpose of showing that he could distil motor fuel from it at a nominal cost, he was unable to make the contraption work and the judge declined to give him another demonstration. Whether or not Enrcht is a self-deluded visionary, the fact remains that for the past eight years a very large number of schemes have been evolved in the quest for cheaper gasoline.

Price Prohibitive

Commenting on these schemes Dr. Raymond F. Bacon, formerly head of the Mellon Institute for Industrial Research of Pittsburgh, who has examined a number of them said:

"An oil which can be used for fuel can undoubtedly be distilled from peat, but at a cost of several dollars, a gallon. The use of such a fluid for running automobiles is therefore prohibitive. In investigations of the methods of charlatans and crack-brained inventors in the petroleum field," continued Dr. Bacon, "it has generally been found that whatever motor fuel there was produced was put into the apparatus by some sleight-of-hand process. Inventors of this kind are often temperamental and they have to be alone for a few miutes. It has been found that gasoline or tar oils of some kind are quickly substituted when no one is looking. One inventor, I remember, drove to the scene of his experiment every morning in an automobile. He had a still which he led his dupes to believe was producig gasoline out of a mixture of water and a white powder. As a matter of fact, he placed gasoline in a tank outside of the building where his experiments were conducted, and this fluid passed through the still from a hidden pipe. What was actually obtained was a good quantity of real gasoline which the promoter put in the tank of an automobile. Naturally, the mileage made by his mysterious fluid was about the same as that which could be obtained from any good quality of gasoline.

Half Sea Water

"Another inventor told those whom he wished to interest that he could run an automobile with a mixture composed half of sea-water and half of a mysterious preparation of his own, he first put the sea-water into the tank of the automobile and put in it an equal amount of his own fluid fuel. The can ran very well, for what the inventor put in was pure methyl, or wood alcohol, and the resulting mixture, being fifty per cent alcohol, burned fairly well.

"Many of the inventors find it necessary to go into seclusion during some process of their demonstration. One of them, for instance had a dish of water in an adjoining room in which he said he would put some of his magic powder and thus produce the ideal motor fuel. When he was alone he disposed of part of the water and substituted for it sufficient alcohol to make a fluid which would burn. He also added a little napthalene. The result was astonishing, and but for the interference of a strong-arm man who found that the inventor had under his waistcoat two rubber hot water bottles filled with alcohol, the deception might have worked.

Kerosene Mixture

"Some of the inventors of gasoline processes foist upon the public a mixture of kerosene to which is added a little ether. The effect of the ether is to give a quicker ignition, but as this fluid is very costly the motor fuel of this kind really costs more than the gasoline for which it is supposed to be a cheap substitute. Undoubtedly cheaper substitutes for gasoline will be made eventually and at the present time there are mixtures of alcohol and tar oils which although more expensive than gasoline have many good qualities.

"It should be borne in mind," added Dr. Bason, "that all the large petroleum refining companies are spending many thousands of dollars in research work in order to find lower priced gasoline or motor fuels. Any inventor, for instance, could interest the large corporations and perhaps reap a rich reward in royalties if he could convince them that his process would make gasoline at eighteen cents a gallon. The idea of manufacturing this fluid at two cents a gallon is a preposterous one, and beyond the realm of common sense. Any person who is considering the purchase of the patent rights of a process for making cheap gasoline would do well to consult a petroleum chemist, for past experience has shown that there are many pitfalls for the unwary into which those who are not familiar with chemistry are likely to tumble."

Dr. Bacon said that the many thousands, if not millions of dollars expended in the last eight years by persons who believed that they were on the way to fortune through gasoline processes should constitute a warning to the public.

RESTS WITH TOKIO.

WASHINGTON, December 21 (Canadian Press). — The settlement of the Shantung question now rests with Tokio. Conversations between the Japanese and Chinese delegates halted suddenly yesterday with both delegations far apart on the question of the payment for and administration of Tsingtau-Tsinanfu Railway ,the heart of the dispute.

CROP REPORT

Following is a summary of reports made by the Agricultural Representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture:

Peterborough claims that the comparatively mild weather so far has helped farmers to conserve their feed supply to a considerable extent.

Kenora reorts that there is practically no sale for certified seed potatoes, and that ordinary potatoes are going at 80c a bag.

Several correspondents state that roots are not keeping well. Oxford says: "Several fields of turnips were caught out in the lrst snowstorm, but the weather since has helped to get them all under cover. Turnips are being sold out of the county at 20 and 22 cents a bushel, but on account of the large percentage of rot in the turnip crop, the sales are considerably lighter than they have been in other years."

Prices for hay are not satisfactory to owners in Western Ontario, the prices ranging from $15.00 to $20.00 ton. In the northern part of the Province, and in some of the Eastern counties, prices are keeping near $30.00 a ton.

References to the new fall wheat are on the whole very encouraging. Most of it has a good top, and all of it is more or less vigorous in appearance.

Halton states that a number of farmers in that county contemplate planting new orchards, and considerable inquiries have been received with reference to varieties and plans.

Port Arthur says: "Labour conditions seem to be improving in the bush. One company has a contract for 30,000 cords of pulpwood, for which they are paying $7.25 per cord on the river bank. This will make work for quite a number of men. Wages, however, are down considerably as compared with last year. The men are receiving $30.00 per month, with board, as compared with $60.00 or $70.00 last winter."

Wages for winter work on the fram range all the way from practically board only to $25.00 a month and board.

Prices for cattle have a wide range, prices being quoted at from 3 cents to 7½ cents a pound.

Seven carloads of live stock were recently shipped from Plantagenet, in Prescott County, two carloads being sold on a graded plan.

Kenora reports that two carloads of steers have been brought in from Winnipeg by a farmer at Oxdrift.

Leeds says that a considerable number of low grade stock — old cows, young stock, and bulls—are going to market at prices ranging from $10.00 to $15.00 each.

There are several complaints of the milk supply falling off during the present month. Victoria states that local creameries have taken their waggons and trucks off the road, as there is not enough cream to pay for the expense of gathering. Most of the supply is shipped by express.

South Simcoe reorts an average run of hogs, selling at from $9.30 to $9.50 a cwt. Frontenac quotes as high as $10.00 a cwt. being paid, while other quotations are as low as $8.50.

Poultry have been marketed more liberally during the last week or two. Prices range from 25 cents to 40 cents a pound for chickens, 45 cents to 55 cents a pound for turkeys, 25 cents to 30 cents a pound for geese.

South Simcoe says: "Geese are selling at from 28 cents to 30 cents a pound, in contrast to the draggy sale at 18 cents a pound, of the Thanksgiving market."

DRURY OFF TO OTTAWA.

TORONTO, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Following a caucus with his followers, Premier Drury left for Ottawa last night to interview Hon. Mackenzie King. It is understood that he told he caucus of his final decision not to enter the King Cabinet.

TO PROVIDE CHRISTMAS CHEER, ETC.

V. A., who, together with Mrs. Nina Frederick, president Ladies' Auxiliary G.W.V.A., Dr. Sutton and S. Whatley, secretary G.W.V.A., presented their case to Council.

No Overlapping.

Explaining that the object was to relieve at Christmas acute distress from which some returned men and their families are suffering—due to sickness, unemployment, or the bread-winners of large families not having been able to make suitable provision for Yuletide—Mr. Saunton assured Council that in distributing the Christmas cheer baskets all cases would be investigated to avoid imposition, and care taken not to conflict with the relief efforts of other organizations.

Careful Investigation.

Mrs. Fredericks assured the Board of Aldermen that in preparing their list for relief, every case had been carefully investigated, and that the ladies purpose to distribute the baskets first among the families of returned men out of employment. Her organization, she pointed out, expected to have a great many calls on its resources for relief this winter and Council's complying with the petition for aid in furnishing Christmas cheer would be much appreciated.

Much Distress.

Dr. Sutton, in emphasizing the heart-rending distress prevalent this year, declared that the worst case he came across while practising his profession were found among returned soldiers, not many of whom returned from the war the men they were before going overseas. And in their families there is much hardship, which baskets of good Christmas beef and other commodies as outlined would relieve appreciably.

Fifty Per Cent. Are Unemployed.

Secretary Whatley, in talking to the question, asserted that fifty per cent. of the men employed under normal conditions have been laid off—some for months—and consequently there is much poverty in the city to-day. This situation seriously affects returned men as well as other classes, and, Mr. Whatley averred, a large number of men discharged from the C.E.F. as physically fit have been found not in that category. "We hope," continued Mr. Whatley, "to put some cheer into many distressed homes this winter, and our organization is in some cases putting in coal, paying rent and providing food, having due care to avoid any overlapping."

For Overseas Men.

Ald. Gordon was inclined to think that the Relief Fund was subscribed particularly for service men and their families, in which event, complying with the petition of the deputation would be consistent. The funds of the Central Charity Board, he pointed out, was raised by taxation for general charity purposes. Talking of this winter's prospects for the average working class, he asserted that the pay rolls of local factories have been reduced just about 50 per cent., which means that there are to-day nearly 50 per cent. of the city's laboring class not employed. If that is the case, then that $7,000 remaining in the Peterborough Relief Fund should be carefully guarded for the needs of this winter, which promises to be the most distressful experienced in Peterborough for years, if, indeed, ever before. In moving the grant of $1,000, Ald. Gordon remarked on the fact that the organizations' basket schedule shows that the money would not be spent in "Christmas presents," and he felt confident that Council could trust in the funds only being used where absolutely needed and for cases thoroughly investigated as to their merits. "We are going," he exclaimed, "to supplement that grant for relief by thousands of dollars this winter, according to present indications."

The Charity Board.

Ald. Crowe, in seconding Ald. Gordon's resolution, thought the two veterans' organizations should work with the Central Charity Board, which he would not like to see ignored. Besides, he wanted no room left open for argument in the matter or reflection on Council.

Mrs. Frederick replied that the Relief Officer never gives relief to a veteran before communicating with the Ladies' Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A. or Secretary Whatley. Then, in the lists being prepared for the proposed distribution of Christmas cheer baskets, the ladies are comparing them with those names at the clearing station for relief organizations at the Chamber of Commerce, to avoid overlapping.

Excellent Idea.

Ald. Whitehouse characterized the Veterans' Association's idea as an excellent one. All know, he said, that we are passing through a distress crisis such as never happened in Peterborough before; and he believed that the $9,000 in the Peterborough Relief Fund was originally subscribed for patriotic purposes, in aid of soldiers, their wives and dependents. Consequently the deputation was within their rights in asking the return of a portion of that fund for the purpose specified.

Ald. Crowe here contended that Relief Officer Miller should check over the names of recipients of these Christmas baskets with the distributors.

Ald. Phelan commended the Veterans and their Auxiliary for their efforts to relieve distress, and was in sympathy with their Christmas project. However, he strongly urged advising with Relief Officer Miller as to cases relieved.

Thirty Cases.

Ald. Morrison said he was one of a committee on relief work, and today (Tuesday) they had thirty cases handed in to look after. While perfectly favorable to the grant, still he thought every effort to relieve distress should go through the Central Charity Board to prevent that overlapping likely to occur otherwise.

A Pledge.

In returning thanks for the $1,000 here voted, President Staunton, of the G.W.V.A., gave Council his word that "we have always worked with Relief Officer Miller (in cases of distress) and the Charity Board, and will continue to do so."

Mrs. Frederick also suitably acknowledged the grant, and asserted that to date her organization's relief endeavors had cost exactly three times what it had last year during the same period.

There were present Mayor McIntyre, who was heartily in accord with Council's action, Ald. R. Morrison, Jas. Crowe, G. N. Gordon, Frank Whitehouse and Nagel Phelan.

Reggie: "I told her I was going to kiss her once for every step of the way home."

Archie: "And what did she do?"

Reggie: "She went upstairs and put on a hobble-skirt."

COLD WEATHER COMING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. — Christmas throughout the eastern half of the continent will be preceded by abnormally cold weather the United States weather bureau declared here in its forecast. The area of extremely low temperatures, which has overspread, the northwest, the bureau said, was continuing to advance slowly southwest. Decidedly colder weather was forecast for to-morrow in the eastern central states including Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

CLAIMS TREATY NOT SIGNED UNDER DURESS

LONDON, Dec. 21.— (Canadian Press.)—Accusations that the treaty was signed under duress and that the Prime Minister threatened war in event in event of refusal, are met with semi-official statement issued here to the effect that any duress must have been duress of the plenipotentiaries own minds, not any eleventh hour declaration from Lloyd George.

PROGRESSIVE CAUCUS.

SASKATOON, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—There is reason to believe that the Progressive members-elect for Western Canada did not close the door on negotiations with Hon. Mackenzie King with a view to sharing with Liberals the responsibility for next administration. Hon. Mr. Crerar would not make any statement when the conference concluded, other than that he was quite satisfied with the result. He leaves for Ottawa almost immediately to confer with Mr. King.

WOULD CREATE A SPIRIT OF DISCORD AT WASHINGTON.

.... Trouble Makers Hope to Influence Outer Circle of the Armament Conference.

By BEN DEACON
Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. — While thousands of Union Jacks displayed upon public and private buildings in every corner of the city bear testimony to the friendly sentiment of the great mass of the people of Washington, a small but diligent band of anti-British fanatics is working strenuously to create a spirit of discord which they apparently hope may permeate the outer circles of the Armament Conference to the council chamber of the statesmen, and there serve to hamper the smooth progress of the discussions toward the successful conclusion which now appears to be almost within sight.

This little contingent of would-be trouble makers is composed of Sinn Fein sympathizers, pro-Germans of the war-time type, Hindoo nationalists, and an odd assortment of international faddists. They are assiduously spreading a propaganda of misinterpretation and falsity in regard to the conference, and particularly in regard to the British delegation's part in the conference, but it is very apparent that they are getting nowhere.

To put it succinctly, in good Canadian idiom, they are "out of luck."

In Washington they are working on very barren ground. Every day since the conference opened it has been more and more evident that the British and United States delegates, working together as they are in a spirit of mutual trust, perfect good-will and sincere co-operation, are but reflecting the rapidly increasing feeling of harmony which exists between their respective peoples. The fantastic propaganda of ill-will is having no effect, other than to cause a little mild amusement on all sides.

The Conference already has definitely accomplished this one thing; it has established a remarkable accord between representative men of the British Empire and the United States—statesmen, government officials, military and naval men, and journalists—which is rapidly being carried to, and is gladly accepted by the people of both great nations. In Washington this spirit of friendliness is met on every hand and is demonstrated in a thousand different ways. And every day fresh indications are received that it is spreading throughout the whole of the United States.

But the busy little anti-British band cannot, or will not, see the trend of events. Its members are pouring out propaganda with the double object of embarrassing those within the conference and stemming the tide of U. S. public sentiment. On Saturday they fired a new broadside of bunk. It was in the form of a "News Letter" issued by the National Bureau of "Information" of the Friends of Irish Freedom. Some very novel and startling "information" is given in this four-page circular, which was distributed to newspapers, congressmen, and to various government officials. Much of this information bears a striking family resemblance to that which has been printed in the Hearst papers recently.

The circular first attempts to create a feeling of distrust in connection with the naval armament proposals, saying that reservations by Great Britain and Japan "promise to brew fresh trouble for America." An effort is made to link up Britain and Japan and show them in the light of enemies of the United States. The circular then adds: "The significant achievement of the conference so far is to recognize the naval supremacy of England. Without a shot being fired, the Harding administration hands over to England the control of the seas."

Then comes a bright suggestion. "To safeguard America under the Hughes plan it would be necessary to obtain assurances that the British naval bases in the West Indies, the Bahamas, and Bermuda will be dismantled, or, better still, turned over to the United States."

The position of Canada, as well as that of Great Britain, in regard to the Anglo-Japanese alliance is grossly misrepresented in this budget of "news" of the conference. A few sentences from the portion of the circular which deals with the alliance may be of interest as serving to show how many inaccuracies a really conscientious anti-British propagandist can crowd into one paragraph.

"The chief purpose of the British delegation at Washington," the circular inform an astonished public, "is to commit this country to the maintenance of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance in a new form. Before the conference there was an outcry against the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance in Canada, Australia, and England. The only voices in the British Empire to oppose the denunciation of the alliance came from British Ministers. Mr. Lloyd George has discovered a way by means of which all the advantages of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance could be retained and strengthened. This was the policy of (broadening) the alliance so as to extend to the United States. . . . Unless England contemplates aggression against this country she will denounce the Anglo-Japanese Alliance. For against whom is such an alliance necessary? . . . It is not the friendship of this country than England seeks, but the official approval of her existing policy of aggrandisement in the Far East. It is not without significance that Canada and Australia, which were so recently advocates of the non-renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, now join in the chorus begun by Mr. Lloyd George to retain and broaden the pact so as to include the United States. Again, it may be asked, for what purpose is this country to be dragged into such an alliance, if it be not solely to the advantage of England?"

The "information" which is given about the Far East discussions is quite as reliable as that concerning the Alliance. It is peppered with such phrases as "British domain and exploitation in the Far East" and "England denies to China fiscal autonomy."

Lord Riddell, the genial unofficial spokesman of the British delegation, comes in for a little attention. He is, the Sinn Fein circular asserts, "in command of the American press" at the present time, because "the poor scribes take whatever is handed them." His lordship is accused of "monlding public opinion" and operating a "British propaganda bureau." Lord Riddell, who is the fortunate possessor of a keen sense of humor, obtained a good deal of enjoyment out of this paragraph, and his amusement was shared by the U. S. correspondents, the majority of whom have come to regard him as the chief fount of conference knowledge.

Less direct, but no less entertaining, is the effort at discord planting which came from Walla Walla, Wash., recently to all those in any way connected with the conference. Here are a few of the things which this circular declares the U. S. delegation should demand:

"That the great empires be disintegrated so none will be able to successfully attack us or others."

"That all possessions, colonies, protectorates and the like be placed under international suzerainty until such times as they can govern themselves in sovereignty."

"That the United States be empowered to maintain a small navy at its own expense for world policing only, the other nations to be relieved from naval burdens except naval operations we are authorized to perform for them."

It is not very lucid, but its object is obvious. And it is just as obvious to any unbiased observer in Washington that all such attempts to breed ill-will are doomed to failure. One thing that is certain to come out of this conference is a firmer feeling of friendship and trust between the British and U. S. peoples. A representative of the British delegation in a recent interview declared that the cementing of the bonds of friendship between the British Empire and the United States would be the greatest possible preventative of war. Therefore the achievement of this one result, even if nothing more were done, would be a great step toward the attainment of the object for which the conference was called.

LOADS OF PRESENTS FOR MARSHAL FOCH

Almost Needed a Ship to Transport Them to France.

NEW YORK, December 20 (Canadian Press). — When he sailed from New York after an extensive tour of the United States and Canada, Marshal Ferdinand Foch almost had to charter a ship to carry away the presents tht had been made to him on the North American continent.

In his voluminous baggage were six great cases filled with gifts from the people who thronged to see him during his tour of the United States and Canada and lend their voices in acclaim of the men who hurled Germany's legions back from the soil of France and won victory in history's greatest conflict. Since coming to America late in October, Marshal Foch had travelled nearly 15,000 miles, made more than 500 speeches, attended luncheons and banquets beyond computation, and had heard the acclaim of upwards of 17,000,000 men, women, and children.

He had travelled over the wide expanses of the American continent, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Inland Seas to the Gulf. He had also trod the streets of the principal cities of Eastern Canada.

Everywhere he had received gifts. Here it was an honorary degree, there a medal of gold or a trinket or two, and yonder a pet, a flower, or maybe just a wee token of esteem, admiration, and love. He betrayed the fact, with the receiving of each of the gifts, that his heart was touched, and each one was with him when he boarded the liner Paris for home.

His luggage included a score and a half of parchments, attesting he had been accorded honorary degrees by America's leading universities and colleges. There was one crate full of Montana wild-cat of the bob-tailed, spitting but not-very-dangerous type, presented by American Legionaries. Another crate contained a White Chester pig, from Iowa, also a Legion gift. There was a whole box of medals and medallions; a golden and bejewelled sword in a golden scabbard; a gold-headed cane, and a half-dozen or so of loving cups. A union bricklayer's card was to be found in the Marshal's possession also.

The sword, the gift of the French Institute, in America, bore the arms of the United States, of France, and of the Institute. Encircling the hilt were seven sapphires; the handle was of carved ivory, and was inlaid with the Marshal's golden monogram.

Crow Indians had dubbed the Marshal "Warrior of Warriors," and made him a full-fledged Chief. The Sioux, once the terrors of the northern plains, gave him a war bonnet, bestowed only upon the bravest of the brave, and called him "Chief Watapech Wakiya," or "Charging Thunder."

And out in a little town or Indiana—where the Marshal's special train stopped for a few moments—he received from a wan-faced little woman a potted geranium.

"Take it," she implored, "and plant it on the grave of my son. He fell near Soissons."

The geranium has been carefully preserved, and will be planted by Marshal Foch in his own garden "in honour of the son of the little woman of Indiana."

TROUBLES THING OF THE PAST NOW

TAKES TANLAC AFTER GOOD IT DID HIS WIFE AND SAYS HE NOW FEELS JUST FINE.

"I know Tanlac is a splendid medicine, for it has fixed me up in good shape in only a few weeks," said John Ahern, 1 Boultbee Ave., Toronto, Ont., an employee of the Wm. Davis Co., Ltd.

"Some two years ago stomach trouble came on me and I got in a general run-down condition. I got to where I felt tired all day long, tired when I went to bed and just as tired when I got up. I had a persistent cough like bronchitis, that kept me awake much of the night. My stomach was so disordered my appetite was almost entirely gone and all the food I ate gave me indigestion. I had seyere pains in the pit of my stomach, and could hardly stoop over the distress was so bad. I was badly constipated and would get dizzy if I stooped over suddenly. At times my head hurt so bad it seemed that it would split open, and nothing would do me any good.

My wife commenced taking Tanlac and it helped her so much that I decided to try it myself. All my troubles are in the past now and I feel fine. My appetite is splendid and I can eat anything I want without a bit of trouble. I sleep like a log at night and get up in the morning feeling strong and full of "pep" and ready for a hard day's work. I can't say anything too good for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Peterboro by the Warne Drug Co., Ltd., and by leading druggists everywhere.

SENSATION IN DAIL.

DUBLIN, Dec. 21. — (Canadian Press).—Deputy Milroy sprung a sensation in Dail yesterday when he read the terms of oath proposed by De Valera as a substitute for the oath of allegiance contained in the treaty signed at London. It reads: "I do swear true allegiance to the constitution on Ireland and to the treaty of association of Ireland with the British commonwealth of nations and to recognize the King of Great Britain as head of associated states."

THE RELIEF WORK NOW IN PROGRESS

MANY WITHOUT NECESSITIES—BIG SISTERHOOD ACTING AS CLEARING HOUSE.

Meeting a man in a store, who was hefting something he had bought, only of trifling cost, he remarked that he had been out two evenings previous on relief dispensing work and that he saw in the brief spell so much of positive want and misery that he had resolved not to buy Christmas presents for his family to cut it out entirely for this season and give the amount and more to helpful work for those in want. Possibly the way to gain something to give is to practice a little self denial. Who will start to practice? Don't all speak too late.

Since the appeal on behalf of supplies for the Big Sisterhood things have been coming in finely. Many homes have been benefitted. There is more of privation than actual want But relation of actual instances, which may be duplicated all over the city can be duplicated every hour of the day. Few cases want for foods, and where known and applied for the city relief is acting nicely.

The Big Sisterhood

The Big Sisterhood, which has undertaken to handle anything and everything and to be a sort of clearing house for gifts has done very well since getting started. Supplies of clothing, goods, beds and bedding have been received and are being distributed. It is found that many families the head being out of work, have actually sold the necessaries of the house to keep going. One kitchen visited had nothing left but the stove, and that a poor affair the range having been sold and the misfit bought for a part of the money. Not a chair or table to make use of. These wants were at once supplied by donations of kind friends who were told of the case.

Many Sources Assistance

Many sources of assistance are now in action, with reasonable care being taken to avoid duplication. But even where this occurs the poor souls will need the additional supply if not at the moment, then further on.

Scattered all over the city, stuffed into attics down in cellars and out in woodsheds are articles of furniture that have been discarded. These are all useful to some family. And the plea is made that such things be dug up, or brought down and word sent or 'phoned to headquarters, by 'phones 353 or 788W. The receiving rooms are on Aylmer St., over the Creamery. Mr. Gillespie having placed a large room in the second floor at use for the purpose. So do it now. Beds and bedding are most vital. Send what you have Or phone in and they will be called for.

Those who may wish to give money can do so through the Merchant's Bank, the manager having undertaken to look after details. Perfectly safe and secure, for cash is used up as fast as received. Hundred of persons are helping out others, but especially hard are the cases where small children are in the family. Widows with so many as nine or ten children have been advised of, to be assisted. Any case of this kind should be directed to apply to the Mother's Allowances Commission. It may be possible that on investigation of the case and facts that an allowance might be procured. This relates to widows with two or more children. And in cases of a husband absolutely by accident, sickness or prolonged affliction from earning for his wife and children.

If in Doubt

If in doubt, what to do and you wish to help, then communicate with Adjutant Bunton, of the Salvation Army. His telephone is 440W, (515 King street), Mr. Whatley at the G.W.V.A., may have in mind cases of real necessity. Telephone him at 141, or go to the hall, on Murray street. Then the Chamber of Commerce Headquarters is ready to assist in putting people in communication with cases. Appeals to Mr. Millar would be better presented in person. He is too thronged to give time for conversation over the 'phone. If cases come under observation either attend to them or pass them on to some one in the work.

But don't forget to dig up those things. And advise.

FORMER SECRETARY OF THE NAVY ON THE WASHINGTON MEETING.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., December 21 (Canadian Press). — Unless the submarine is destroyed, land armaments reduced, and aircraft problem solved, the Washington Conference will have failed to "live up to its full duty and privilege," former Secretary of Navy Daniels declared here last night.

COL. SAUNDERSON L.O.L. ELECT NEW OFFICERS

SOCIAL EVENING AT DOWNER'S CORNERS FOLLOWED ANNUAL BUSINESS.

DOWNERS CORNERS, Dec. 21. —At the regular meeting of Colonel Sanderson L.O.S. No. 321, Downer's Corners, Tuesday evening, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: W.M., E. Wilson; D. M., W. Watt; Chaplin, R. Ritchie; Rec.-Sec., R. Lockie; Fin.-Sec., F. Kitney; Treas., T. Kitney; Dir. of Ceremonies, H. Hamblin; 1st Lecturer, J. Gratton; 2nd Lecturer, A. Armstrong; Committee F. McMasters, J. C. Waldie, T. C. Holden, D. Johnston, W. Chambers; Tylers, A. Holden and E. Johnston; Auditors, W. Watt, J. C. Waldie, R. Ritchie.

For the election W.C.M. Geo. Porter presided, acceptably assisted by Bro. D. Hamilton, to both of whom the lodge tendered a hearty vote of thanks for their services.

Here followed a sumptuous supper and social entertainment, much enjoyed by all present.

CHRISTMAS TREE ST. JAMES' CHURCH

Last evening St. James' Church was crowded for the Christmas entertainment arranged by the classes in the form of a charitable effort that was supported whole-heartedly by every class. Each class donated gifts of provisions and goods that will be distributed by a committee this Saturday, and will bring cheer into many homes. The classes were generous in their effort, and the success of the affair was unqualified — ever class from the beginners to the Bible Class taking part and bringing their "white gifts to the King."

A. E. Prest, Sunday School superintendent, was chairman, and the programme was as follows:

Old Christmas Hymns—Voluntary

Hymn—"Oh, Come All Ye Faithful"—by the Choir.

Hymn—"Joy to the World, the Lord is Come."

Prayer—J. H. Moss.

Legend of Cathay—The Superintendent, explanation of the services; its purposes.

Hymn—"While Shepherds Watched their Flocks by Night"—Choir.

Scripture Reading—Matthew, 2nd Chapter, verses 7 to 12.

Luther's Cradle Song—"What Can I Give Him."

Offering.

Prayer.

Hymn—"Angels from the Realms of Glory."

Recitation—"The Two Stockings," Greta Welbourn.

Hymn—"Once in Royal David's City"—Junior Dept.

Reading—"The Other Wise Man"—Mrs. Barton.

Speech—Mr. McLaren.

Hymn—"Holy Night."

Song—"The Gift"—Miss R. Young

Hymn—"I Love to Tell the Story"—Primary Dept.

Song—"The Star of Bethlehem"—A. Lee.

Hymn—"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear"—the Choir.

ALCOHOL IS PUMPED FROM STEAMER

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. —In the arrest of Captain Daniel Docherty, skipper and owner of the tramp steamer Javary, it was learned that bootleggers last week successfully pumped ashore the contents of 38 drums of grain alcohol, while the vessel was lying at pier 32, East River.

Customs agents are now in possession of the vessel pending the starting of formal libel proceedings for its seizure by the United States. Such proceedings will be begun at once by Major Clark.

After the spirits had been smuggled to the pier in this manner it is alleged that the empty barrels were refilled with water to deceive the Customs agents.

Captain Docherty was arraigned before United States Commissioner Hitchcock on a complaint charging him with violating the customs and revenue laws, and was held in $10,000 abil. Two other members of the crew are being held as material witnesses.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DEMANDS ACCOUNTS

OTTAWA, Dec. 21 — (Canadian Press.)— A. R. Reed, representing Attorney General of Ontario, again to-day demanded the production of Northern Electric Company's accounts in his argument before the Railway Commission on application of Bell Telephone for increased rates. If they could not be secured by other means he announced intention of seeking an amendment to the Railway Act.

ROYAL BANK'S ANNUAL REPORT A SPLENDID ONE

ESTABLISHES CONFIDENCE IN MARKED STABILITY OF BANK—STRONGER CASH POSITION REPORTED—LIQUID ASSETS CLOSE TO 50 PER CENT. OF LIABILITIES TO PUBLIC.

The shareholders of The Royal Bank of Canada will have every reason to be well satisfied with the annual statement for the fiscal year ended November 20th.

Perhaps never before have the banks of the world been confronted with such trying conditions of deflation as during the past twelve months. It should, therefore, be regarded as a tribute to the Canadian banking system and particularly to the effectiveness of the large organization built up by The Royal Bank that, notwithstanding such general deflation, it is in a position to report to its shareholders an even stronger cash position than at the end of the previous year, which was the banner year of its history. In addition liquid, or immediately available, assests have been maintained at close to 50% of the total liabilities to the public.

Developments of such a character, with a bank occupying such a prominent position as does The Royal, will be of great benefit to the whole Canadian situation. It is often said that a country is only as strong financially as are its leading banks. The statement of the Royal Bank, particularly at a time like the present will therefore prove of tremendous advantage in general to the country and particularly to the Bank itself.

Profits Well Maintained

Of almost equal import to shareholders is the fact that the Bank, even during the readjustment period has maintained its profits close to the level of the previous year. As is well-known, business conditions for some time past have been of an exceptional character, and, owing to these conditions, the Bank in addition to writing off any losses, has made full provision for any accounts that might even be considered doubtful. In view of this policy, it should be particularly gratifying to the shareholders that the net profits, after making such liberal provision, amounted to $4,037,836, compared with $4,253,649 in the Bank's record year.

These ample profits have permitted of the payments of the usual dividend of 12 per cent and a bonus of 2 percent, and after the customary appropriations to pension fund, for Bank premises and war tax and the transfer of Reserve Fund of $132,995, there was an amount carried forward out of the year's profit of $458,116.78. This made the total of Profit and Loss to be carried forward into the new year $905,044.98.

Just how satisfactorily the Royal Bank has met the changed conditions is reflected by the statement of as of $500,648,429, liquid assets amount to $222,603, 630. Principal accounts among the liquid assets are current coin 16,012,219. Dominion Notes $28,540,559, United States Currency and other foreign currency $29,912,018; cheques on other banks, $21,594,382; balances due by other banks and banking correspondents, elsewheres than in Canada $24,080,818; Dominion and Provincial Government securities $24,050,584, railway and other bonds $15,128,520 and total call loans of slightly over $37,000,000.

At the same time the Bank has looked after its full share of the business requirements of its customer, as indicated by total current loans and discounts of $252,561,644.

Deposits now total $375,616,345, and of this amount deposits bearing interest and at $280,447,431 and deposits not bearing interest $95,168,911. The Paid-up Capital is $20,400,000 and during the year additions made to the Reserve Fund have also brought it up to $20,400,000, at which figure it is equal to the capital.

Mr. Vincent Eastwood, manager of the Peterboro branch of the Royal Bank pilots the destiny of one of the most successful units of that institution.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easily prepared, and saves about $3.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes 16 ounces of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

OPTIMISM REIGNS AT DUFFUS MOTOR SALES

ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK FOR FORD MOTOR CAR BUSINESS IN PETERBOROUGH.

One of the most encouraging signs of the times is the healthy volume of Chistmas buying apparent at the Duffus Motor Sales of this city. With the approach of the holiday season and the end of the year, there is a buoyant tendency the past two or three weeks. This industry has also revealed very encouraging sign posts for spring deliveries. In view of the number of prospective buyers at the local Ford establishment and the increased production in motor car manufacturing, it is safe to say that the low point in depression has been entirely passed.

Mr. Duffus feels somewhat relieved that the Federal Elections are over and relief is expressed, irrespective of political views. The luxury tax of twelve months ago having been removed and other bothersome restrictions finally eliminated, is helping the Ford car business perceptibly at this season of the year.

"Buy a Ford and leave the balance in the bank" is still the slogan of the Duffus Motor Sales. Here is an organization equipped and manned for specialized service. The distribution and care of the Ford Cars, Trucks and Tractors—itself the product of a highly specialized organization—an outstanding example of efficiency born of the desire to serve.

The establishment of Duffus Motor Sales is possibly unexcelled in the Dominion of Canada. There are buildings more pretentious but none more practical The office and sales lay out—the supply and parts repartment—the storage facilities and last but not least the genuine service arrangement can scarcely be improved upon. The word "honesty" interwoven throughout the whole undertaking. The building —fireproof—heated—just life summer those cold winter days. A hot room for washinug cars where only warm water and linseed oil soap are used for washing cars where only warm of car. Those who are taking advantage of this particular facility are high in their praise of the excellent polish obtained and the thorough manner in which the work is executed. The storage battery department —capacity 1,000 batteries, where expert overhauling and attention is given. A fireproof paint shop free from dust and heated to summer heat going continuously the year round. The supply department, wholesale and retail, carries everything necessary to supply the wants of all motor car owners. The stock of genuine Ford parts for the purpose of supplying Ford owners and local service stations is the largest in Ontario. The mechanical and overhauling department is equipped with the most up-to-date machinery and tools for undertaking all kinds of expert overhauling and repair work.

The Examiner representative was informed that the Duffus Motor Sales are now the Senior representatives of the Ford Motor in the Province of Ontario and it is only fair to say that this motor car establishment would do credit to any city in the Dominion and that motorists from all parts of America who have visited Peterboro are high in their praises of the accommodation and servic obtained. Moreover, hundreds of people throughout this community express themselves in similar terms.

More than 300 new Ford machines are sold anually to the people of this district which is ample evidence that honest business methods and genuine service must be the predominating feature of this well-established business and the products they sell.

FINANCIAL AND MARKETS

WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—The usual mixture of gains and losses, mostly within fractional bounds, occurred at the dull and uncertain opening of to-day's Stock Market. Equipments, Oils and Food and Tobacco specialties again seemed to be favored by bull pools. American and Baldwin Locomotives, Standard Oil of California, Corn Products, American Sugar Preferred, Tobacco Products and Retail Stores were among the few strong issues. Mexican Oils responded indifferently to the postponement by the Mexican Government of export oil tax payments. Only a few of the Rails were quoted in early dealings. Of these, Texas and Pacific was most active and firm.

Pressure became apparent before money rates were posted, but opening quotation of six per cent. for call loans, suggesting a possible flurry in the course of the day, precipitated short selling. Oils, Equipments, Steels and Motors re-acted one to four points. The weakest features were Lima Locomotive, American Car Preferred, Crucible Steel, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Mexican, Pan American and California Petroleum, General Asphalt and Houston and Pacific Oils. Sugars gave way on a new low price for Refined Product and Coppers developed heaviness with Chemicals and Rubbers. Rails followed their early sluggish course at nominal changes.

Pressure against prominent stocks relaxed at midday, call loans then dropping to 5½ per cent. Among secondary issues, notably Virginia, Carolina, Chemical Common and Preferred, National Cloak and Suit Common and Preferred, Remington Typewriter Common, and 2nd Preferred, and several of the cheaper Rails, further losses were sustained, count.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. — (Canadian Press).—Initial wheat quotations, which varied from 3-8 off to 1-8 advance, with May 1.14 to 1.14¼, and July 1.03¾, were followed by a slight further decline, and then by a moderate general advance.

Corn and oats paralleled changes in wheat. After opening unchanged to 1-8 lower, May 53, the corn market hardened a little all around.

Oats started ¼ to ¼ to 3-8 off, May 38, and then recovered.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Sterling exchange easy; demand, Great Britain, 4.20 7-8; Canadian dollars, 6⅞ per cent. dis-

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Trading on the local Stock Exchange during the first half hour this morning was neither brisk nor interesting. Opening quotations were quiet, and for the most part unchanged. Bank stocks were slightly traded in, both the Royal and Montreal appearing on the tape, but their prices did not vary from their yesterday's closing levels, viz., 200 and 212 respectively. Other stocks were dull. Lyall, whose weakness has attracted considerable comment of late, was quoted at 32½ this morning, its closing figure yesterday afternoon. Montreal Power sold at 87, and National Breweries at 55½.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Declines were quite general on the local Stock Exchange this morning, and included losses of 1 3-4, Steamship I point, Steamship Preferred, C.P.R. one point, Imperial Oil 2 points, Standard Bank and Imperial Bank one point each, with a numbered of stocks registered ½ points or less decline. Maple Leaf dropped 3½ points from 119 to 115½ on sale of five shares.

TORONTO CATTLE.

TORONTO, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Receipts 175; trade slow Choice butcher steers, $6 to $6.50; butcher cows, medium, $3 to $4; calves, $10 to $12; lambs, $9.50 to $10.25; hogs, selects, $10.50.

DELAY IN COMPLETION OF FILTRATION PLANT

WORK HELD UP PENDING DELIVERY OF MACHINERY

Owing to a delay in the delivery of material it is not likely that the city's filtration plant will be ready for operation before January 15th.

Waterworks Superintendent R. L. Dobbin announced to-day that there had been an unexpected delay in shipment of some of the machinery and equipment, and because of this delay the contractors have taken now a month over their contract time. The plant was to have been in operation by December 1st.

The major part of the work is complete and pending delivery of the delayed machinery the work is lagging to some extent. Every effort is being made, however, to get delivery and rush the plant to completion.

Water is Good.

As the water is in fairly good condition, only six pounds of chlorine per million gallons being required, the delay in completion does not place the city in serious danger, as would have been the case had the work being started for finish in the summer. In that case the Utilities Commission would have insisted on construction in contract time, or implemented the penalty clause of contract, but legal difficulties now surround the collection of penalties, because of the city having suffered no serious injury through the delay, it is stated.

Functioned Well.

The present waterworks system has functioned perfectly, and only once (on December 7th) when they were part of the chain of plants that were out of commission on account of anchor ice, has the steam auxiliary pump been called into service. On December 7 it was used for about 12 hours, and with the reserve water wheel provided a pressure up to the average.

The Waterworks Department completed their programme of raising the hydrants reported as too low by the Fire Chief for efficient operation, and with no work for their men have laid off practically all the employees.

CHOIR PRACTICE.

Knox Choir will rehearse Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Those having solos are asked to come at 7.30. Every member who can possibly attend be on hand promptly at eight. Christmas music.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONCLAVES HAVE ENDED WITH VERY FEW TRADES BEINC MADE

(By Henry L. Farrell, United Press Staff Correspondetn.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 21:—Most of the big deals expected at the winter baseball conclaves did not get any farther than talk.

Unless the magnates get busy between now and March it looks as if most of the major league clubs will start the 1922 pennant race with the same outfits.

Only the New York Giants and the St. Louis Browns have really done any thing to bolster up for the coming drive.

Wise baseball men differ as to whether McGraw strengthened or weakened his claim when he sold George Burns to get Heinie Groh. However, it is agreed that the Browns gained strength with the addition of Dave Danforth the star pitcher of Columbus, considering, of course, that Danforth lives up to promise.

Doubts as to this were expressed in some quarters, where it was said that the former Columbus star has a semi-balk motion that will not get by American league umpires.

The Cincinnati Reds, with any kind of luck, will not miss the services of Heinie Groh, as much as it might seem. Pat Moran has been picking them up out of the Pacific Coast league, and he may have a better aggregation than he had last season.

The New York Yanks need new strength more than any club in either league. Huggins is in dire need of a couple of outfielders and a pitcher to keep the club going until Ruth and Mer el serve their time. Hug. is negotiating now for a three-cornered deal with the Tigers and Red Sox may be able to put it over before the team goes south.

The Chicago Cubs need some new blood, but the bosses of the club do not want to dish out Wrigley's cash for over-valued players. The Pittsburgh Pirates were also expected to get rid of some of the players who were blamed for the collapse of the team last year just as it was steaming into pennant territory. Dreyfus, and Gibson, however, wouldn't even talk trades or deals at the recent meetings.

Cleveland failed to bolster up the Indians for another pennant chase. Jimm Dunn, boss of the club, said he would rather take chances on the team as it now stands than weaken one position to strengthen another.

As usual, the two tail-end champions and Atheltics made no efforts to get a better team, but both leagues stepped in and opened the way for improvement by passing a rule giving them the first say on all players put up for waivers.

HOCKEY AND SKATING EVENTS

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. — (Canadian Press).—Schedules of International and Canadian and United States National hockey and skating events for the season of 1922 were announced here to-day by J. T. Fitzgerald, president of the International Skating Union. The schedule follows:

Canadian Outdoor Championships —St. John, N.B., January 18 and 19.

United States Outdoor Championship—Plattsburgh, N.Y., January 24, 25 and 26.

Eastern Canadian Championship—Winnipeg, February 6 to 20, in connection with the winter carnival to be held during that period.

International Indoor Championship —Milwaukee, early in March, in connection with the opening of a new rink there.

Cleveland and Pittsburgh will divide the United States National Indoor Championship event, for which dates have not been set.

The Western United States Championship event at Chicago, January 15.

The Middle Atlantic Championships at Newburgh, N. Y., New Year's Day.

LINDSAY INTERMEDIATES COMING TO OPEN HOCKEY SEASON ON JANUARY 2

UXBRIDGE JUNIORS PLAY H. N. S. HERE ON JANUARY 6—THE SCHEDULES.

Schedules for the local O. H. A. groups were drafted at a meeting of the club representatives last night. In the Intermediate series the Petes open at home, on Monday, January 2, with Lindsay the visiting team. In the Junior series Lakefield and P.A.A.A. will form section A and Uxbridge, Lindsay and Holy Name Society section B. Goals will decide the victor of the home-and-home series between Lakefield and P.A.A.A., and games will count in section B. Winners of the sections will play home-and-home games for the group honors.

In arranging these games the schedule-makers were successful in overcoming a number of difficulties, one of them being the situation at Uxbridge. Two O.H.A. teams are playing in different groups and the schedule for the Intermediate series was drawn up and adopted some time ago. Conflict with local City Hockey League games was also avoided. Here are the schedules:

Intermediate Series.

Jan. 2—Lindsay at Peterborough.
Jan. 6—Peterborough at Lakefield.
Jan. 9—Peterborough at Lindsay.
Jan. 13—Lakefield at Peterborough.
Jan. 16—Lindsay at Lakefield.
Jan. 20—Lakefield at Lindsay.

Junior Series.

—Section A—
Jan. 10—P.A.A.A. at Lakefield.
Jan 12—Lakefield at P.A.A.A.

—Section B—
Jan. 6—Uxbridge at H.N.S.
Jan. 10—Lindsay at Uxbridge.
Jan. 13—H.N.S. at Lindsay.
Jan. 16—Uxbridge at Lindsay.
Jan. 20—Lindsay at H.N.S.
Jan. 23—H.N.S. at Uxbridge.

On January 3rd Holy Name Society will play an exhibition game in Lakefield.

SPORT NOTES

Flint's factory base ball league has disbanded and the city may lose its franchise in the National Base Ball Federation.

Rogers Hornsby, leading hitter in the National league, denies having signed a $25,000 contract with the St. Louis Nationals.

A 120-mile dog derby will be staged in New Hampshire between American and Canadian teams.

The 1924 Olympic games will be staged just outside Paris.

Three teams are unbeaten in the Catholic High School basket ball league. Chicago Staleys and Cardinals play to a scoreless tie in a professional foot ball game in Chicago Sunday.

LAKEFIELD BOYS TRAINING HARD

WILL BE READY FOR THE FIRST ICE—HOCKEY NEWS

LAKEFIELD, Dec. 21.—The hockeyists are preparing for the day when the ice will be ready by strenuous physical exercises under the direction of Mr. Lawrence Charlton The boys some of them returned soldiers, know the value of physical fitness and they are training hard.

Lakefield will return to the place it held in hockey circles in 1909-10 when it carried home the championship cup in the Peterboro City League.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE CAPITOL.

FRISCO DENS REAL AS LIFE ON SCREEN.

Newest Alice Lake Picture. "Uncharted Seas," Shows Famous Underworld Resorts.

Relics of San Francisco's once notorious underworld—some possessing histories as romantic as the fictitious tale in which they now are being used—were obtained for use in Metro's special production of "Uncharted Seas," in which Alice Lake appears 3 days at the Capitol Theatre, commencing to-morrow night.

Moreover, they will be seen in their proper setting, since the interior of a mysterious Chinese den that for years defied police interference, was faithfully reproduced on one of Metro's big covered stages in Hollywood. No resident of San Francisco of the prefire days will fail to recognize the winding stairway that leads to a secret passage permitting entrance into the much guarded resort of drug users.

Opium "layouts," Chinese gambling games, and the tiers of shelf-like berths in which the drug smokers once were housed, were duplicated down to the last unreadable sign in Chinese hieroglyphs. John Fleming Wilson, author of the story under production, worked with Wesley Ruggles in the filming of the picture. All of his knowledge of underworld lore—gained in the course of several years' study of this phase of life on the Pacific coast—was used in staging this fascinating episode of the picture.

Los Angeles' Chinatown was secured for types, both Oriental and American, with which to people the den for picture purposes. As a result of the numerous tours of the district, made by the director and George Elwood Jenks, who prepared the screen version of the picture, a score of remarkable types were obtained to make their initial screen appearance.

The balance of the big programme will include a Lloyd Comedy, and many other good short reel pictures. The vaudeville for the last three days, commencing Thursday matinee will be Archer and Garlow, a big musical act.

FAN FAN.

AT THE ROYAL.

The Heart of Maryland! What a flood of historic memories and dramatic forces does this grand play of Belasco bring forth! When he, the greatest playwright of the age, put The Heart of Maryland on the stage, the play caused such a nation-wide furore that five companies were sent on the road to satisfy public demand. The play, whilst stirring in its war scenes, conveys a touching loev story of a woman's heart. It shows her strongest emotions torn one way by love of her fiance and in the opposite direction by love for her native land. Her lover sides with the north in the civil war, whilst the girl's sympathy is all for her people of the south. The dramatic situations engendered by this struggle between love and duty hold the attention of an audience spellbound. The screened rendition of The Heart of Maryland shows the connecting links of the story far more clearly than could any stage production, as the scenes are exact phographs of the homes and country where the struggle for the Union was fought. This seven-reel superfeature is played by an all-star cast. This wonderful production for to-night should be seen by all, as should the second episode of the great serial, "Breaking Through." The two reels of this serial, although chapters in the whole play, really tell a complete and most interesting story. The story is that of a girl's plucky fight to save here fortune and win her man.

The comedy for to-night is of that clean, clever, sparkling kind that would make a would-be suicide change his mind and think this world a good place after all.

For to-morrow we present an unusual bill of exceeding interest, including charming Priscilla Dean in her latest seven-reel feature called "Conflict," which called for special notice by the New York world. The balance of to-morrow's bill contains high class comedy and good western. The Royal, the home of high-grade pictures, has no vaudeville. Our money and that of our patrons is spent to ensure getting the best pictures available. Good music.

AT THE REGENT.

Being one of the foremost stars of the movies does not consist entirely of looking beautiful and dashing in one's cerise limousine. It means hard study, gruelling work and long hours.

To prepare for "The Kiss,' the photodrama in which Carmel Myers the Universal star, is to be shown at the Regent Theatre, she sacrificed a much needed vacation and studied hard for two weeks to gain a research expert's knowledge of old California customs and costumes.

The story "The Kiss" was written by Johnson McCulley and concerns California in the days of the Dons. It was originally written as "Little Erolinda," and published in novel form. Universal purchased it as being particularly suited to Miss Myers and gave it to Jack Conway to direct. It was not an ordinary photodrama and extensive research was required before Miss Myers felt herself fitted to interpret the spectacular starring rôle.

Being a wise young lady she went to headquarters for her information. She called upon John Steven McGroarty for her information. Mr. McGroarty is probably the world's foremost authority on old California and is the author of the California Mission play. He conducts a page in the Los Angeles Times and is internationally known as a philosopher and historian.

So interested did he become in the Universal production that he visited Miss Myers at Universal City, and watched the filming of several of the most important scenes brightening the production by suggestions to Mr. Conway concerning romantic traditions of old California

The story is considered to be one of the year's most entertaining photodramas and has an historical significance and will appeal to playgoers who are seeking the unusual on the screen.

NEW YORK CLUB TRADES PITCHERS

A NUMBER OF IMPORTANT CHANGES IN BIG LEAGUE CIRCLES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press.) — The management of the New York American League team announced late yesterday that the club had traded Pitchers William Piercey, Hip Collins and Jack Quinn, and Shortstop Roger Peckinpaugh to the Boston Americans, in exchange for Pitchers Joe Bush and Sam Jones and Shortstop Everett Scott.

No cash consideration was involved in the deal, it was said by Colonel Jacob Ruppert, part owner of the Yankees.

Peckinpaugh has been captain of the American League champions, and is rated as one of the most brilliant shortstops in the country. Scott also has been an infield star for several years, having established a record for consecutive games played in the major leagues.

The need of strengthening the Yankees' pitching staff by the acquisition of reliable veterans, such as Bush and Jones, was made particularly impressive during the last world's series, and the club owners shortly afterwards announced they were in the market to fill this need.

Quinn is a veteran of several seasons, while Collins and Piercy are youngsters. Piercy was deprived recently of his world's series money and suspended until May 20 by Baseball Commissioner Landis for participating in the barnstorming tour for which Babe Ruth was also punished.

SPORT GOSSIP

Oshawa is conducting a very successful indoor baseball league in the Armouries of that town. A Church Hockey League has also been arranged and will start with the coming of ice. The Motor Town boys are quite confident regarding the quality of their O.H.A. entries.

This week the Whitby Amateur Athletic Association completed arrangements for the use of the Arena during the winter months. With a full hockey schedule in the O.H.A. series and a town league, the young people will be provided with plenty of sport, in addition to which there will be carnivals, skating, etc.

The Lindsay Checker Club is having its own difficulties in getting started this year. First the elections claimed the interest of its members and now the Christmas season has paralyzed its activities. The members hope to start with the new year.

The Lindsay O.H.A. teams are practically lined up for the year and are now anxiously awaiting for ice. It is devoutly hoped that the owners or managers of the rink will get on the job and not miss the chance when it comes. The curling rink with a dirt floor has a good coating of the necessary already.

The Lindsay curling fraternity are confidently awaiting Christmas curling.

CAIRNS AND MILLER WON TWO

In Business Men's Ten Pin League

Last night in the Business Men's Ten Pin League at the Water street Alleys Cairns and Miller won two games each. Cairns winning from Gilliam and Miller won from Fitzgerald. To-night Raybestos vs. Wm. Hamilton.

PICTON TEAM HAS APPLIED FOR A CHANCE.

PICTON, Dec. 21.—With a town league comprising the following six teams, I.O.O.F. Tuxis Boys, Garages, H. & P. E. Regiment, Collegiates and Canners, and both junior and intermediate O. H. A. sextettes, Picton should have one of the most interesting and lively seasons of hockey for many years. It is hoped that the group in which the Picton Intermediates figure, as given in the Toronto Globe, will be changed and nearer points such as Port Hope, Cobourg and Belleville constituted for Peterborough, Lindsay and Lakefield. "Billy" House, of Trenton, the convenor, and Secretary Sharp have made representations to Secretary Hewitt of the O.H.A. to this end. The re-instatement of Earl Croft and Johnny Jewell, recommended by the O.H.A. Executive, will be a big asset to the Intermediates.

SOME OF THE HIGH SPOTS IN PERFORMANCE FOR 1921 SEASON

PITCHING HONORS WENT TO "RED" FABER OF THE CHICAGO WHITE SOX WHILE M'INNES LED ALL RIVALS IN ACCEPTED CHANCES---THE OFFICIAL RECORDS.

NEW YORK, Dec 21.— (Canadian Press.) — American League pitching honours for the 1921 season, calculated according to the number of earned runs per nine innings, as officially announced to-day, went to Urban "Red" Faber, of the Chicago White Sox. He allowed but 2.48 earned runs per nine innings. Pitching for a seventh place team, the Sox star turned in the winning average of .625. Faber won 25 games and lost 15.

George Mogridge, Washington southpaw, had a good season, finishing second with an average of .300 earned runs per nine innings. His winning percentage was .563, his record being 18 games won and 14 lost.

Carl Mays and Waite Hoyt, of the champion Yankees, were third and fourth, respectively, with 3.08 and 3.10. Mays led in number of games won, with an average of .750, his record reading 27 won and 9 lost. Urban Shocker, star spitballer, also won 27 games, but lost 12 for an average of .692. Mays topped the list in actual work, hurling 337 innings.

Sam Jones and Joe Bush, of Boston; Ed. Rommel, of Philadelphia, and Stanley Coveleskie, of Cleveland, also were very effective in the matter of earned runs. Bart Cole of Detroit, and Bill Bayne, St. Louis southpaw, youngsters in the major leagues, showed good form throughout the season.

Dixie Davis, of the St. Louis Browns, won a 19 inning game against Washington, only one man reaching first base during the last nine innings. His team mate Shocker, won nine straight games during August.

Boston led the league again this season in fielding with .975, retaining the record established in 1916. A six year record of leadership in any single department of play is believed to be unique.

Philadelphia had the greatest number of put-outs, 4,200; Chicago the most assists, 2,124; Chicago was also first in double plays, 155. St. Louis had only seven passed balls and New York eight. Chicago, Washington, St. Louis and Detroit each turned one triple play. This latter feature (four triple plays in one season) is also unprecedented and was undoubtedly made possible by the fact that never before were so many men left on bases as was the case this year.

Individual Records.

Prominent among the individual records is that of First Baseman McInnes of Boston, whose record for the year is .999, he being charged with but one error in 152 games. No other fielding records either in percentage or accepted chances per game were established, though the scoring was unusually liberal. Indeed the hitting was so terrific that the averages of all infielders except first basemen is below normal.

For the third straight season Second Baseman James Dykes of Philadelphia leads in accepted chances per game for men playing his position regularly, being closely pressed for that honor by the veteran Collins of Chicago, who leads in percentage with .975. Dykes' record is 6.17 chances, and Collins' 6.13 per game.

Led All Rivals.

With one exception McInnes also led all rivals in accepted chances at first base with 10.86 per game, the leader being Sheely of Chicago with 11.40. In ratio of assists Sheely was also first, 119 in 152 games, with George Sisler, second, with 108 in 138 games.

Howard Shanks, Washington, led the third basemen with .960 percentage in handling 571 chances in 154 games. His record of 3.49 chances at third was also the best. In addition to maintaining his great record of continuous playing Shortstop Everett Scott of Boston, led the short fielders with the handsome average of .972 and accepted almost six chances per game.

W. C. Jacobson, St. Louis, was first among the outfielders who played regularly with an average of .982. Jacobson, with 375 putouts and seven assists was third in chances accepted.

R. H. Veach of Detroit, with 384 put-outs and 21 assists was first, while the runner-up was Rice, of Washington with 280 put-outs and 18 assists.

R. W. Schalk, Chicago, is again first among the catchers with S. F. O'Neill, Cleveland, second, and E. P. Gharrity, Washington, third. Shalk has now caught more than one thousand games in nine consecutive years.

Mental Impulse Like Electricity is Invisible But "It's There."

If you were asked if you believed in Electricity, your answer would be that you most assuredly did. Yet, if you were asked by someone to show them some Electricity, you would not do so.

The same thing is true of Innate Intelligence—the mental impulse or nerve energy which is propelled over the nerve cables to the various organs in the body. You cannot see this great, natural phenomena, yet you can distinguish its manifestations in every action of the human body—either voluntary or involuntary. The fact that you cannot see it, or reduce it to any tangible substance, does not alter its existence.

Moreover, we are wholly unconscious of it most of the time; only in case of its quantity being materially impaired does this "current" give us any concern.

When this does happen certain parts of our system suffer, according to the location of the "short-circuit." The logical thing to do when this happens is to go to a Chiropractor, have him adjust the vertebra (small bone of the spine), which is pressing upon the nerve furnishing the supply of nerve energy to the offending organ or tissue.

When this is accomplished, HEALTH will be the result.

This will be the first appearance of the recently amalgamated bands of the Veterans and the Peterboro Rangers and the bandsmen will number over 50. An excellent programme has been arranged, including selections from Planquet's "Chimes of Normany." During the evening the drawing of tickets will take place.

145,000 RUBLES FOR DOLLAR.

First Official Quotations of New Russian State Bank.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—According to cable advices received in the financial district, the first official exchange quotations of the new Russian State Bank is 475,000 rubles to the pound, 9,000 rubles to the franc, 145,000 rubles to the dollar, 400 rubles to the mark, 33,000 rubles to the krone, 30,000 rubles to the Polish mark. One gold ruble equals 68,000 paper rubles.

Normally, the dollar is worth 1.96 rubles, or one ruble is worth 51 cents. At this rate, $1 would figure out 133,334 paper rubles. The difference is explained in that there are restrictions on free movement of gold from Russia, and gold value put on the paper ruble is largely for internal use. It does not follow that the quotation holds good in external exchange.

ACTS AS JUDGE AND LAWYER.

Justice Callaghan Gets $25,000 Damage for Girl Auto Victim.

NEW YORK, December 21 (Canadian Press). — Supreme Court Justice Stephen J. Callaghan acted as judge and lawyer at the trial before him and a jury in a suit for damages brought by Eleanor Bauer, nine years old, against Louis J. Long Island City.

After deliberating half an hour the jury brought in a verdict for $25,000 for the girl.

The action was for injuries sustained by the girl when she was knocked down by an automobile belonging to the defendant at Lafayette and Classon Avenues on 10th September, 1919. The plaintiff testified that her right leg was permanently injured and shortened as a result of the accident.

Her testimony was corroborated by her mother and a witness from the Cumberland Street Hospital, where the girl was a patient.

When the case was called before Justice Callaghan, the girl's lawyer, Matthew Feldman, informed the Court that he had another case on in the Supreme Court, and could not attend to both at the same time.

MUNICIPAL TOPICS AT LABOR HALL

CITY COUNCIL NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR MAJOR PORTION OF TAXES IMPOSED BY CITY—THE MEAT BY-LAW.

GENERAL BUSINESS

At last night's meeting of the Trades and Labour Council, Alderman J. Crowe took occasion to point out that the City Council is responsible only for a small amount of the taxes imposed by the city. Uncontrollable expenditures are represented by the police department, Isolation hospital, suburban roads, school board, public library, Mothers Allowance and others. An effort had been made to control the expenditures of the police department but in this the Council had failed said Ald. Crowe. This he intimated was due to certain "tactics" which he had been unable to combat. In addition to this Ald. Crowe had objected in the City Council to the chief of police residing outside of the cty limits where he was immune from municipal taxes. He said Chief D. Thompson had resided in the city and paid income tax as well as the regular municipal taxes Ald. Crowe had been informed that the present chief does not pay income tax.

Ald. Crowe promised to take up the question of salary reductions next year and expressed the hope that the Board of Education and other municipal bodies would co-operate and follow suit. This will affect civic employees.

The Trades Council moved a vote of commendation to Mayor A. A. McIntyre for his work in the city council. Mayor McIntyre's candidature was endorsed by the Trades Council and the members felt that some record should be made of that body's appreciation of Mayor's McIntyre's services on behalf of labour. The retiring Mayor was characterized as an able administrator but it was stated that many of his idea did not see the light of day as other members of the City Council often "stole his ammunition" and consequently received the credit.

Ald. Crowe was commended for his opposition to the reimbursement of Tax Collector J. W. Green. The latter has asked the City Council to reimburse him to the extent of a couple of thousand dollars represent ing a cash shortage in the collector's office. Ald. Crowe said it was poor policy on the part of Tax Collector Green to bring such a matter before the Council. It would have been better if the tax collector had let the matter drop. The money has been paid back to the city.

"If the present tax collector cannot look after the city's money let

SMALL VOTE IN PROSPECT FOR TREATY

DAIL WILL DECIDE TODAY ON ADJOURNMENT OVER THE HOLIDAYS OR RATIFICATION VOTE —DEBATE CONTINUES.

IRISH SITUATION

DUBLIN, December 22 (Canadian Press). — When the Dail Eireann session opened, Deputy O'Kelly continued the debate, opposing the treaty, and declaring that the Irish Republic was far from dead. He said there would be a continuation of the war in Ireland, whether the treaty was ratified or rejected.

A decision as to the ratification of the Irish treaty or adjournment over the Christmas holidays was expected by to-night as the members of the Dail Eireann gathered for to-day's meeting. All the observers agree that the vote for or against the treaty will be small.

Richard Mulcahy, Chief of Staff of Republican Army, followed and declared that nobody wanted the treaty, but that there was no alternative to its acceptance.

Result in Doubt.

When the Dail adjourned for lunch to-day there was a feeling that sentiment for ratification of the treaty had lost some ground and that the result of the vote was highly uncertain. Mulcahy's speech was regarded as a feature of the session.

This was a moment of defeat he said, but even in defeat, "we have secured powers for the Irish people that will enable them to rise to the full height of their aspirations."

Considering the possibility of renewed warfare he said Ireland would enter it with little hope of success, because the militant force was inadequate. Mrs. Clark, whose husband was executed in 1916, bitterly opposed ratification. She said the treaty was only Home Rule, while Sean Moylan of Cork, cried, "hands off the republic." Professor Michael Hayes, National University, supported the treaty, declaring that it meant evacuation of Ireland by the military, what they had foubht for. Collins and Griffith applauded this passage.

Prof. Hayes remarked on Miss McWhiney's complaint regarding the social influence on the Irish girls of the Governor-General's court, but he contended that the great value of the treaty would remove the most immoral influence to which young girls were subjected — the English garrisons.

In Gaelic, Patrick O'Malley, Galway, supported the treaty, and said its rejection would be a blot upon the history of the nation.

"I WONDER—"

THE QUESTION ON CHILDREN'S LIPS THE WORLD OVER AS CHRISTMAS DRAWS NEAR.

The sister in charge of the girls' dormitory at St. Vincent's Orphanage was awakened about four o'clock one morning a week ago by eager whisperings from two adjoining beds down the room. Immediately alert and interested, if not apprehensive, she listened for a moment, and then caught the following echo of the universal question of childhood in these pre-Christmas days: "And I wonder what he's going to bring me?"

If this rather pathetic story were told as a bit of propaganda in behalf of the orphans, who are waiting for Santa Claus as expectantly as other children, it should supply the rest of the incident. It was, however, only a chance remark of one of the ladies on the committee engaged in making clothing and other articles for the orphanage; and she didn't know whether the sister reassured the two little girls or whether they just dropped off into dreamland with the question wafted away to Santa Claus by his little messengers from the Never-never land specially appointed to attend on orphans.

But there is the happy fact that the little ones of St. Vincent's Orphanage and of the Children's Shelter will not be overlooked during this great festal season by the public that never fails to respond generously whenever appeals are made for them.

ONTARIO GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO CONTINUE RELIEF SCHEME

CITY OE PETERBORO' LEFT TO BEAR WHOLE FINANCIAL BURDEN RESULTING FROM UNEMPLOYMENT—LOCAL LABOUR LEADERS SHOULD DEMAND RENEWAL OF ARRANGEMENT ADOPTED LAST WINTER.

ASKED FOR BREAD! GET ORDER-IN-COUNCIL

By refusing to renew the relief arrangements of last winter the Drury Government has throyn upon the city of Peterborough and upon all the other urban centres of Ontario the entire burden of mitigating the results of unemployment.

Last winter, it will be remembered, the Dominion and Provincial Governments and the City Council each contributed one-third of the cost of the relief given to those men in Peterborough who could not get work. This expedient was adopted by most of the cities of Ontario last winter.

NEED OF ASSISTANCE IS GREATER NOW.

Today unemployment is more acute, more general and affects more diverse groups than a year ago. The next three months present a dark and anxious vista for many men in this city, especially heads of families who have never before experienced so long a period of stagnation in their trades.

This applies particularly to branches of the metal industry.

HAVE A RIGHT OF APPEAL.

In this emergency, more ominous and already more distressful than that which was tided over last winter, labouring men and labour men in Peterborough have every right to look to the Drury Government for some comfort.

If there were good grounds for financial help from the several Governments last winter—and no one denies the pressing need at that time—these same conditions exist today, rendered worse by the aggravation of a year of intermittent employment, and, unfortunately, in not a few instances, of very little work during the whole twelve months.

PETERBOROUGH IS NOT THE WORST.

In some respects Peterborough is industrially more active and is otherwise better off than most of the cities in Ontario, but for all that there is a local problem which the Drury Government now declares must be faced alone by Peterborough.

A month ago the Meighen administration at Ottawa announced its willingness to continue for this winter the adequate scheme of relief that was agreed upon a year ago. Of course, this offer was made on condition that the two other parties, the Provincial Government and the City Council, approved it and were prepared to carry on.

CITY WOULD BEAR WHOLE COST.

But the Drury Government refuses to be a partner this winter to the old arrangement, and as a consequence the Council of the city of Peterborough finds itself abandoned and left to its own resources and devices in dealing with the unemployment crisis and its effects.

This is the U.F.O.-Labour Government's reply to the appeals in behalf of labouring men who are out of work and with none immediately in sight.

WHAT DRURY GOVERNMENT DID.

The Drury Government decided to pay one-third of the difference between the normal cost and the actual cost of any work undertaken solely by the municipality to relieve unemployment. And the actual cost would mean the cost due to doing the work by unskilled labour in winter. This does not include works that would be launched in the ordinary course of events, as, for example, the proposed sewage disposal plant in Peterborough.

These facts are mentioned with no intention of embarrassing the Drury Government, and especially its Labour wing.

ASK FOR BREAD! GET ORDER-IN-COUNCIL.

But the electors of West Peterborough are entitled, by reason of their representation in the Drury Government, to request respectfully and sincerely that the responsibilities growing out of the unemployment crisis be shared as they were last winter by the city and the Dominion and Provincial Governments in co-operation.

TO BE SCRAPPED

The Washington Disarmament Conference has dealt with the major issue involving the limitation of capital ships and the result will necessitate the disposal of a number of capital ships of the line. These ships will be scrapped and replacements will be limited, according to the terms of the agreement framed at the Conference.

TRADES COUNCIL DISCUSS COMPANY

BIRMINGHAM MOTORS WAS THE SUBJECT OF MR. TOOMS' ADDRESS TO LABOUR MEN.

At last night's meeting of the Trades and Labour Council, Mr. Thomas Tooms, M.P.P., brought the subject of the Birmingham Motors to the attention of the meeting. Mr. Tooms said his object in doing so was to keep the public informed of such matters coming to his attention. He felt this his duty as a representative of West Peterborough. Mr. Tooms said he was not prepared to express an opinion regarding the standing of the Birmingham Motors, but he quoted at length from a publication issued in Toronto and called "The New Idea," in which derogatory reference was made to the Birmingham Motors and the public warned to refrain from investing in the company's stock offering. The publication in question claims to be a financial organ, and Mr. Tooms said he had asked the Attorney General of Ontario to look into its origin and ascertain its foundation for the charge levelled at the Birmingham Motors and other prospective companies in Ontario.

In the publication to which Mr. Tooms referred it was stated that the Birmingham Motors did not have a factory in the United States; that it concealed a stock selling proposition created for the benefit of a man who was characterized as the originator of the project. Mr. Tooms said he did not know anything about the company other than what he had heard or read in the publication which he quoted. He thought prospective investors, particularly those who could not afford to lose money, should be careful as to where they placed their surplus funds.

The Discussion.

In reply Mr. A. Sharpe, a member of the Trades and Labor Council, referred to Mr. Peter Westbye, who, together with other citizens, had gone to Jamestown, U.S.A., and came back with the assurance that the company had a factory in the process of erection. Mr. Sharpe said he would believe Mr. Westbye first. The latter had said that the Birmingham Motors possessed a new type of car and therefore could expect organized opposition from manufacturers of automobiles. Mr. Sharpe said one Peterborough manufacturer had opposed the company from the start.

Asked as to his opinion of the Birmingham Motors as an investment, Mr. Westbye was quoted by Mr. Sharpe as replying 'that it was a speculation, and in his opinion it was not wise to invest money in any speculation unless the investor could afford to lose it. Mr. Sharpe said that the most "Saturday Night," a financial journal published in Toronto, would say about the company is that it was a speculation. The same

LUMBERJACK RUNS AMUCK PARRY SOUND

SMASHES TWENTY-ONE PLATE GLASS WINDOWS — DAMAGE WILL RUN TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

PARRY SOUND, December 22 (Canadian Press). — After running amuck with an iron bar, smashing twenty-one plate-glass windows in town, and practically terrorising the whole community, Stephen Zowisluk, aged 37, a Russian lumberjack, who came in to celebrate Christmas, was finally cornered.

The question in the minds of the authorities is whether he is a lunatic or was temporarily crazed by the whisky. About $2,000.00 damage was done.

CLEVELAND TAXICAB DRIVER SHOT TO DEATH.

CLEVELAND, December 22 (Canadian Press). — John Emmel, a taxicab driver, was shot to death this morning in a downtown restaurant, and George Beamer, said to be engaged to Emmel's former wife, is being held on the charge of first degree murder. The police say the murder is the climax of a three months' feud.

AUSTRALIAN CABINET HAS NEW FACES

FEDERAL CABINET HAS BEEN RECONSTRUCTED WITH HUGHES STILL AT THE HELM—A FEW OF THE CHANGES.

COOK SUCCEEDED

LONDON, December 22 (Canadian Press).—A Reuter's cable from Melbourne states that the Australian Federal Cabinet has been reconstructed. Hon. Mr. Hughes retains the Premiership and portfolio of Foreign Affairs. Captain Bruce, who represented Australia in the Assembly of the League of Nations, becomes treasurer, succeeding Sir Joseph Cook, who is High Commissioner in London. Senator George Foster Pearce, now at Washington, former Minister of Defence, becomes Minister for Home and Territories.

SCHOOLS CLOSE TODAY RE-OPEN JANUARY 4TH

The Collegiate Institute and Public schools closed for the Christmas vacation to-day and several thousand pupils are now free from school worries until Wednesday, Jan. 4. The schools would have re-opened on Tuesday, had it not been considered probable by the Board of Education that Monday will be celebrated as a holiday.

The Normal school, which closed last Friday, bustling 150 students off to their various homes for a well-earned recess, will also re-open its doors on the 4th.

SET FIRE TO HOUSE THAWING OUT PIPES.

Fire Brigade Quickly Extinguished Blaze—Damage Slight.

When using a gasoline torch to thaw out a frozen water pipe in the basement of his home, 318 Water Street, at 8.38 this morning, Walter Sindon set fire to the burlap wound around the pipe in a store room at the rear of the ground floor, and the blaze was not discovered for some minutes.

The Fire Brigade were called out, and with chemicals the flames were speedily extinguished, and outside of the creation of an offensive smoke, no damage resulted.

Fire Chief Grange, commenting on the blaze, declared that gasoline torches are very dangerous, and he advised against their use in thawing out frozen pipes. In all such cases Chief Grange advises the application of hot wraps to the pipes as the seediest and safest means for restoring circulation.

Irregular necklines are the latest in decolletage, many of these being diagonal in form.

URIC ACID IN MEAT BRINGS RHEUMATISM

Says a Little Salts in water may save you from dread attack.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND

BY "SAPPER" (CYRIL McNEILE)

Hugh stopped his car at Guildford station and, lighting a cigarette, strolled restlessly up and down. He looked at his watch a dozen times in two minutes; he threw away his smoke before it was half finished. In short he manifested every symptom usually displayed by the male of the species when awaiting the arrival of the opposite sex. Over the telephone he had arranged that SHE should come by train from Godalming to confer with him on a matter of great importance; SHE had said she would, but what was it? He, having no suitable answer ready, had made a loud buzzing noise indicative of a telephone exchange in pain, and then rung off. And now he was waiting in that peculiar condition of mind which reveals itself outwardly in hands that are rather too warm, and feet that are rather too cold.

"When is this bally train likely to arrive?" He accosted a phlegmatic official, who regarded him coldly, and doubted the likelihood of its being more than a quarter of an hour early.

At length it was signalled, and Hugh got back into his car. Feverishly he scanned the faces of the passengers as they came out into the street, until, with a sudden quick jump of his heart, he saw her, cool and fresh, coming towards him with a faint smile on her lips.

"What is this very important matter you want to talk to me about?" she demanded, as he adjusted the rug round her.

"I'll tell you when we get out on the Hog's Back," he said, slipping in his clutch. "It's absolutely vital."

He stole a glance at her, but she was looking straight in front of her, and her face seemed expressionless.

"You must stand a long way off when you do," she said demurely. "At least if it's the same thing as you told me over the 'phone."

Hugh grinned sheepishly.

"The Exchange went wrong," he remarked at length. "Astonishing how rotten the telephones are in Town these days."

"Quite remarkable," she returned. "I thought you weren't feeling very well or something. Of course, if it was the Exchange . . ."

"They sort of buzz and blow, don't you know," he explained helpfully.

"That must be most fearfully jolly for them," she agreed. And there was silence for the next two miles. . . .

Once or twice he looked at her out of the corner of his eye, taking in every detail of the sweet profile so near to him. Except for their first meeting at the Carlton, it was the only time he had ever had her completely to himself, and Hugh was determined to make the most of it. He felt as if he could go on driving for ever, just he and she alone. He had an overwhelming longing to put out his hand and touch a soft tendril of hair which was blowing loose just behind her ear; he an an overwhelming longing to take her in his arms, and . . . It was then that the girl turned and looked at him. The car swerved dangerously.

"Let's stop," she said, with the suspicion of a smile. "Then you can tell me."

Hugh drew into the side of the road, and switched off the engine.

"You're not fair," he remarked, and if the girl saw his hand trembling a little as he opened the door, she gave no sign. Only her breath came a shade faster, but a mere man could hardly be expected to notice such a trifle as that. . . .

He came and stood beside her, and his right arm lay along the seat just behind her shoulders.

"You're not fair," he repeated gravely. "I haven't swerved like that since I first started to drive."

"Tell me about this important thing," she said a little nervously.

He smiled, and no woman yet born could see Hugh Drummond smile without smiling too.

"You darling!" he whispered, under his breath—"you adorable darling!" His arm closed around her, and, almost before she realised it, she felt his lips on hers. For a moment she sat motionless, while the wonder of it surged over her, and the sky seemed more gloriously blue, and the woods a richer green. Then, with a little gasp, she pushed him away.

"You mustn't . . . oh! you mustn't, Hugh," she whispered.

"And why not, little girl?" he said exultingly. "Don't you know I love you?"

"But look, there's a man over there, and he'll see."

Hugh glanced at the stolid labourer in question, and smiled.

"Go an absolute mucker over the cabbages, what! Plant carrots by mistake." His face was still very close to hers. "Well?"

"Well, what?" she murmured.

"It's your turn," he whispered. "I love you, Phyllis—just love you."

"But it's only two or three days since we met," she said feebly.

"And phwat the divil has that got to do with it, at all?" he demanded. "Would I be wanting longer to decide such an obvious fact? Tell me," he went on, and she felt his arm round her again forcing her to look at him—"tell me, don't you care . . . a little?"

"What's the use?" She still struggled, but, even to her, it wasn't very convincing. "We've got other things to do. . . . We can't think of . . ."

And then this very determined young man settled matters in his usual straightforward fashion. She felt herself lifted bodily out of the car as if she had been a child; she found herself lying in his arms, with Hugh's eyes looking very tenderly into her own and a whimsical grin round his mouth.

"Cars pass here," he remarked, "with great regularity. I know you'd hate to be discovered in this position."

TABOO SMOKING, ALLOW MURDER.

Druses of Hauran, Syria, Have Religion Forbidding Alcohol. Profanity.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. — "A people whose religion forbids them to use alcohol, tobacco or profanity, but binds them to take a life for a life when one of their tribe is killed;

"A people who believe the world's population remains ever constant and time's duration to be exactly 343,000,000 years;

"A people who have held their creed inviolate and maintained considerable independence in a region destined by its resources to become the granary and garden of Syria.'

Reported in Revolt.

"Such are the Druses of Hauran, says a bulletin from the National Geographic Society.

"South of Damascus and east of the Sea of Galilee stretches the windswept plain, Hauran. Set down on the east of this plain is an azure plateau of lava, El-Leja; with its jagged rim rising some 25 feet around its 350 square mile area. In the fissures and chasms of this 'tempest in stone' the Druses can retreat when hard pressed and it constitutes an important geographical reason for the isolation and independence of the people.

"Nominally Mohammedan, the Druses have embodied in their faith features of the teachings of Moses and Jesus, and supplemented this mosiac with ideas from various pagan sources.

Return to Desert.

"When a stranger visits a Druse home his host places before him two jars, one filled with water, the other empty. If the visitor is a Druse he will pour the water of one into the other to signify his belief in transmigration of souls.

"The Maronite Christians, who have interested Bible students because they adhere closely to so many practices of the early church, are neighbors of the Druses. The latter attacked the Maronites so vigorously in 1880 that a French army was sent to Syria and a European commission was named to conduct an inquiry into the circumstances. Once more the Druses found refuge in the Tauran Desert. The army went home, but the commission drew up a form of government by which each district was to be supervised by an appointee of that district's religions. It was this arrangement which precipitated the Maronite Insurrection of 1867, under Joseph Karan."

A HUGE TAX TO REDS ON ADVERTISMENTS

MOSCOW, Dec. 22.—(Associated Press)—The first non-government paper to appear in Moscow was a theatrical journal. It contained many advertisments, the first which the Bolshevik government has permitted. Several weeklies are now appearing which are not issued by the government.

Advertisments pay a tax of about 6,000 rubles per agate line to the government.

TODAY'S NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

JAS. M'BRADY, DEPUTY REEVE OF OSHAWA DEAD

HAD BEEN ILL FOR SEVERAL MONTHS—INTERMENT IN PICKERING.

OSHAWA, Dec. 22.—The funeral took place at Pickering, Tuesday, of the late Jas. McBrady, deputy-reeve and a highly esteemed citizen of Oshawa, who passed away at his home on Friday night last.

The late James McBrady was born at Audley, township of Pickering, in 1867, and was a son of the late Daniel McBrady, for many years a highly respected resident of that township. Brought up as the son of a pioneer, and one of a family of 12, deceased knew the rights and hardships of farming life until about 15 years ago when the family moved to Port Hope, where they remained for three years, moving to Oshawa 11 years ago. Deceased served in all important offices of the municipality of Oshawa, being a trustee of Audley school, a member of Pickering township council, and laterly occupying the reeve's chair.

MANVERS ROAD SCHEME ADOPTED

DEPUTATION WAIT UPON THE COUNTY COUNCIL AT COBOURG

LINDSAY, December 22. — Messrs. R. Kylie and H. A. Middleton, of the Road Committee of the Board of Trade, visited Cobourg on Tuesday and waited on the County Council of the united counties of Durham and Northumberland relative to the construction of the Manvers highway. The committee met with a splendid reception, and after addressing the Council the members were assured that the United Counties wer solidly behind the project. The road had already been designated as its importance to the vast area which it would serve was fully realised.

The delegation was also assured that if financial conditions were favourable an amount of money would be placed in the estimates for the construction of this road.

KING'S WHARF

A meeting was held here last night concerning the restoration of the Pigeon Creek floating bridge. A large number of ratepayers were present and a petition was signed. The result showed that the people wished to have the bridge replaced. The bridge had become quite delapidated and it was absolutely necessary to close it.

Parties interested in the local oil prospects have arrived here. They say they are sure of five oil wells in Emily Township and expect to begin operations about May 1st.

Mr. Patrick Perdue is on the sick list.

The teacher and pupils are making preparations for the School Concert to be held in the school here on Friday evening.

Miss Pearl Herlihey is spending a few more days here, the guest of her cousin, Miss Lillian Herlihey.

The many friends of Miss Kathleen Twomey will regret to learn of her serious illness in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterboro.

Mr. Ed. Hickey of Peterboro' is spending a few days cutting in the woods of Mr. John Winn. He will draw it to Peteroro' when he has finished.

ONLY MAPS WERE BURNED IN FIRE AT WARSAW SCHOOL.

Children Saved Their Wraps—Many Activities Looking Forward to Christmas.

WARSAW, Dec. 22.—Saturdays' storm made motoring difficult, it is reported that seven cars were stuck on Welsh's Hill and that there were some breaks.

The rain was welcomed by those whose wells were running low.

Sunday's storm put some local telephone wires oue of business. On account of the bad weather the attendance in the churches was small.

Extra Holidays

As a result of the school fire the first and second classes are having extra holidays. Miss Barrie has the 3rd and 4th classes in the Town Hall and reports the room more airy and less smoky than the school. Messrs. Wm. Selkirk and Jas. Robinson are repairing the school buildin. For some time back on really cold days the school could hardly be heated by its furnace and there followed a great deal of smoke. Then the room cannot be properly ventilated. The only equipment destroyed by the fire were the maps. Some of the children left their wraps, but got them after the flames were extinguished. The use of chemical fire extinguishers has already been well proven it the village.

Skating Rink Open

The skating rink is in operation now.

The Anglican Young People had a special meeting last Friday evening.

Mr. Charles Foster and several other men from near Warsaw, attended the Dairy meeting in Lakefield last Friday.

The village store look pretty with their display of Xmas goods.

Mail is Heavy

The stage-driver reports that the mail is already very heavy. Last Wednesday he had four bags for Warsaw, whereas usually there is but one on that day.

Christmas Events

Xmas entertainments seem the order of the day. Carmel had theirs last Tuesday evening. Bethel is having theirs on Friday of this week Warsaw Methodist on Monday next and Presbyterians on Saturday, New Year's Eve—all in the respective churches. The children seem to enjoy the practices for these events.

Endeavor Leage

At the Endeavor League last Friday Miss Emma Payne took the subject of "citizenship" from the standpoint of a Christian, and brought out several splendid points, among others, that we do not live for ourselves only; also that the vote is a responsibility and individual right rather than party consideration. Mr. James Hawthorne took the subject from the point of patriotism, giving a very clever and splendid talk. He spoke of different kinds of patriotism and ended by saying he was opposed to women having a vote because she could do greater good in the home. Talks such as both of these are very useful and both to those preparing them and those who hear the subjects discussed. Miss Olga Miller and Mr. David Miller sang "Traveller Whither Art Thou Going."

Personal Mention

Mr. E. H. Chandler is in the vicinity soliciting subscriptions for the "Farm and Dairy."

Mr. James of Toronto and Mr. Arthur Sanders of Chicago are visiting old friends.

Rev Girard Graham was in Port Hope at a meeting of the Presbtery on Tuesday, and later in the week he visited Toronto.

Mr. Eddie Payne and family are moving into Mr. Peter Carveth's house.

60 DOZEN OF EGGS STOLEN FROM FARM

ALSO WHOLESALE THIEVERY OF CHRISTMAS GEESE AND TURKEYS.

PORT HOPE, Dec. 22.—The wholesale thieving of geese and turkeys have sent the prices up and now the thieves intend to make people pay more for our eggs. Quite recently thieves paid a visit to Oldham Farm, the property of Mr. L. N. Clarke and forcing an entrance to the basement below the office carried away sixty dozen of eggs valued at seventy-five dollars. County Constable Smith was called and traced the foot marks of the thieves for more than three quarters of a mile. One of the men wore pointed toed shoes and the other shoe packs.

TWELVE DEAD IN A GAS EXPLOSION

STORE CROWDED WITH HOLIDAY SHOPPERS SCENE OF CATASTROPHE.

COLUFMBUS, O., Dec. 21.—(Canadian Press).—Twelve persons are known to be dead and an unknown number injured as the result of a gas explosion which wrecked Wright's Woman's Furnishing Store in the downtown district here late yesterday. Forty injured have been taken to hospitals and rescuers declared there were a number more in the wreckage.

The store was crowded with holiday shoppers at the time of the explosion which wrecked the building and tore up a portion of the adjacent street. Gas escaping from mains in the street took fire and hindered rescue work. The cause of the explosion was not known.

INDIAN RIVER

INDIAN RIVER, December 22. — A very enjoyable evening was spent at the box social and dance in the new hall on Thursday evening.

Messrs. John Dewart and Charles Elmhirst motored to Lakefield on Friday evening to attend the ball, and report a fine time. They returned home by Peerboro on Saturday evening.

Miss Maggie Dixon was shopping in Peterboro on Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Borland was in Peterboro Saturday on business.

Mr. John Soanes motored to Peterboro Monday on business.

The large horse shoe sign on Whibb's blacksmith shop was torn to pieces on Sunday last by the terrific gale.

Mr. Tommy Martin motored to Peterboro Saturday on business.

Mr. Wm. Newell has purchased a sawing outfit and is very busy with it.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. Art. Elmhirst last week and all those present report a very enjoyable evening in games and dancing.

DEATH WAS DUE TO AN ACCIDENT

We, the jury empanelled to inquire into this case, find that the deceased, Mrs. William Skuce, came to her death by being struck by the C. P. R. train No. 723, at the Pottery Corner. The collision was purely accidental, and no blame is attached to the train crew. We would urge that in view of the accidents that have happened at this crossing, the C. P. R. take special precautions to protect the public.

LINDSAY, December 22.—The foregoing verdict was reached by the Coroner's jury empanelled to inquire into the death of Mrs. William Skuce, who was killed in a train and buggy smash at the Pottery Corner on Tuesday of this week. The verdict was reached in twenty minutes by the jury, after hearing the evidence.

The inquest was held in the Council Chamber before Coroner Dr. Wood. The witnesses heard were the train crew and an eye-witness of the accident.

Mr. J. E. Anderson represented the Crown, Mr. L. V. O'Connor the C. P. R., and Mr. G. W. Thornton, of Smith's Falls, was present in his capacity of Claims Adjuster.

THE WEATHER

The lowest the thermometer went last night was 8 degrees below zero. By daylight it has risen a little. The first zero did not come last winter until the middle of January.—W.P.

REMAIN INDEPENDENT.

CALGARY, December 22. Canadian Press. — The Alberta Farmer, in its issue to-day, will say of the proposed Progressive-Liberal union. "With a group as large and powerful as it possesses in the new parliament, the Progressive party has a fine chance to demonstrate a new principle in government. By remaining absolutely independent and assuming a position where its support will be guaranteed for all good legislation, no matter from what party or group it may come, it can serve its own and the country's cause best. Union with either of the old parties in Parliament, no matter upon what terms, is the way danger lies in the Progressive cause."

There's one good thing about rainbow gold—we can't lose it buying the blue sky.

TELEGRAPH AND CABLE NEWS

MINERS BACK TO WORK.

CALGARY, December 22 (Canadian Press). — Miners at the Collie Mine, numbering 150, Drumheller, went back to work yesterday morning at wages reduced by 25 per cent. This was the word received at the local offices of the company and confirmed by the U. M. W. A. office in Calgary. Secretary Robert Peacock, of the United Mine Workers of America, asserted emphatically, in confirming the news that the men were back at work, this does not necessarily mean an "acceptance" of the 25 per cent. reduction.

DEFICIT IN MANITOBA.

WINNIPEG, December 22 (Canadian Press). — Manitoba public accounts for 1921 will show a deficit of $650,000, when presented to the Provincial Legislature late in January. This is the largest deficit shown for some years. Increased cost of maintenance of Government buildings, mothers' allowance grants, aids to agriculture are largely responsible for the surpluses for past years being wiped out, it was stated to-day.

CALLED TO OTTAWA.

REGINA, December 22 (Canadian Press).— Hon. W. R. Motherwell, member-elect for Regina, acting on a telegram from the Hon. W. L. Mackzie-King, asking him to come to Ottawa for a conference, is now on his way east.

RESIGNS PORTFOLIO.

VICTORIA, B.C., December 22 (Canadian Press). — Indicating his course of action has been dictated by personal reasons, the Hon. J. W. deH. Farris, Attorney-General and Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia, has resigned his dual portfolio in the Oliver Cabinet. This information was conveyed to Premier Oliver this morning in a wire from Ottawa, where Mr. Farris has been active during the last few days in the Exchequer Court of Canada.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

OTTAWA, December 22 (Canadian Press). — In a statement handed out last evening, Sir Henry Drayton, iMnister of Finance, reviews the financial condition of Canada. He finds that business conditions have slowly but surely improved through the past year, and declares that Canadians may well look forward to the future with confidence.

TECHNICAL OBJECTION.

ST. CATHARINES, December 22 (Canadian Press). — In a statement issued late yesterday afternoon A. C. Kingstone, city solicitor of St. Catharines, gave it as his opinion that Premier Drury has taken a purely technical objection in which there is little or no merit. Mr. Kingstone has not seen the letter to the Commission, but has read in the press that the refusal was based upon variations in the agreement contrary to statute and widening of the powers of the Commission beyond what was contemplated.

WERE ACQUITTED.

MONTREAL, December 22 (Canadian Press). — Following five minutes' deliberation, a King's Bench jury here yesterday afternoon acquitted Sawell Lazarvitch and Jan Rosco of a charge of manslaughter preferred against them in connection with the death of Vasile Nichefor, a Roumanian compatriot, who was beaten to death under the Moreau Street viaduct in July last.

Evidence establishing an alibi in favour of the two accused contributed largely to their acquittal.

PRICES TO REMAIN UP.

MONTREAL, December 22 (Canadian Press).—A statement is issued here yesterday by the Executive Committee of the Shoe Manufacturers' Association of Canada to the effect that no reduction in the prices of leather footwear for the spring is anticipated.

On the contrary, it is stated that some advance in prices of shoes may be necessary if the increase in the price of hides continues.

SEEKING SLAYER.

FORT FRANCIS, Ont., December (Canadian Pess). — An open verdict was delivered by the jury investigating the death of Captain Orville Huston, Winnipeg, who was killed by a shot from a revolver here last Thursday night. The police are now conducting a search for the slayer of slayers. Robbery is believed to have been the motive for the crime, as several of Huston's pockets were found turnd inside out.

FAMILIES DEPORTED.

PORTLAND, Maine, December 22 —Half a dozen or more families who entered this country in violation of the Immigration laws, have been deported to various parts of the Province of Quebec from Biddeford and Lewiston, United States Inspector Samuel H. Howes, in charge of the Maine Immigration District, announced here.

This is the start of a movement to check the illegal entry of aliens who are crossing from that province into Maine in automobiles over cross-roads so as to avoid immigration officers stationed along the border. Thorough investigations in all tht industrial centres of the state are being conducted.

DOLLAR BELOW PAR.

GENEVA, Switzerland, December 22. Canadian Press. — Switzerland is the only country in the world where the United States dollar is below par. The dollar yesterday was quoted at 5 francs, 12 centimes, on the Geneva Bourse.

The normal rate before the war was 5 francs, 15 centimes. The highest rate after the armistice was 5 francs, 95 centimes.

SOVIET RUSSIA'S BUDGET.

MOSCOW, December 22. Canadian Press. — The Central Executive Committee of the Soviet Government yesterday approved Soviet Russia's first budget estimated on a gold basis. It is for the period from January 1 to September 1, 1922.

The government's income for that period is estimated at 1,571,000,000 gold rubles and the expenditures are estimated at 1,877,000,000 rubles, representing the smallest estimate deficit in the history of the Soviet gov-Governmen.

RURAL CREDITS.

WINNIPEG, December 22. — Canadian Press. — Four and a half million dollars will be required to finance the 1922 operations of the Rural Credits Soceities of Manitoba, according to the officials of the Provincial Government. The loans for 1921 amounted to $2,800,000.

Of the 1921 loans, $1,800,000 will be paid by the end of the month, and the government will extend $1,000,000 of the loans until next Fall.

It is estimated that 3,000 additional farmers will apply for loans next spring, and already $400,000 new loans have been made for 1922 farm work and to assist the farmers in buying feed.

PROTECT ARMENIANS.

LONDON, December 22. Canadian Press. — Premier Braind of France, who is in London, for informal conversations with Prime Minister Lloyd George yesterday received a delegation representing the various Christian denominations asking that he watch over the protection of Armenians in Cilicia.

Premier Briand assured the deputation that the French government had already taken all necessary precautions for the protection of the Christian minorities, and added that all Armenians who had left their country had always been received most hospitably in France.

JUDGMENT RESERVED

OTTAWA, Dec. 22.— (Canadian Press).—Judgment was reserved last evening on the application of the Bell Telephone Company for increased rates, before the Railway Commission. The hearing has lasted seven days, and Hon. Frank Carvell intimated at the close that it would be two or three weeks before a decision was announced.

TWO MORE AFFIDAVITS

MONTREAL, Dec. 22.—(Canadian Press).—The Montreal Star states that it is informed that two more affidavits have been made in connectons with the Bouchard case in support of that of Mr. Latreille.

Manager Latereille, of the Hochelega Hockey team, has filed with the Quebec amateur hockey association an affidavit alleging that Edmond Bouchard, of Quebec City was paid $50 for every game he played with the Hochelaga team last season.

PREMIER TO MEET BRIAND NEXT MONTH

WILL CONTINUE DISCUSSIONS ON THE REPARATION QUESTION—PLEDGED TO SECRECY.

PLAN CONFERENCE

LONDON, Dec. 22.— (Canadian Press).— Another meeting of the Allied Supreme Council, this time at Cannes, on the French Riviera, is the outcome of the parleys between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Premier Briand of France during the past few days. The meeting will be held the first week in January. It will be preceded by a meeting of the Council of Ambassadors within a few days at Paris for arranging the details of the Cannes meeting, which is scheduled for early in January.

A pledge to secrecy was entered into between the two premiers regarding their London conversations but the Supreme Council evidently has been called either to revise the reparations provisions of the Treaty of Versailles or to deliberate on the advisability of calling a still larger international conference with a view to dealing with the whole question of international finances and exchange, which is linked up with the question of reparations.

OBITUARY

ALEXANDER WRIGHT

The death occured at Limehouse, Haultain County, on the 14th day of this month, of one of the old residents of Centerville, in the person of Alexander Wright in his 76th year. Mr. Wright, was born near Springville resided there up until 20 years ago, when he removed to Otonabee. Here he lived for 5 years, going later to Limehouse. The funeral took place at Limehouse on Saturday last, December 17th.

CONFERENCE IS NEARING CONCLUSION

MINOR POINTS TO COME BEFORE THE DISARMAMENT MEET IN WASHINGTON—CAPITAL SHIP RATIOS SETTLED.

TO-DAY'S SESSION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—(Canadian Press.—The formal negotiations of the Arms Conference were at a standstill yesterday, but groups of delegates continued personal consultations which appeared to strengthen the general confidence of an early solution of all the points remaining at issue.

With definite capital ship ratios agreed upon by all five of the principal powers, there was revealed a feeling that limitation of auxiliary craft was largely a minor question of detail, in the settlement of which the individual desires of the various nations could be generally accepted. The view was expressed that the real business of the Conference had been accomplished in the limitation of first line ships, since it is that class of war vessels which constitutes the major element of naval aggression and which at the same time entails the great bulk of public expenditure.

France is to present her estimates for auxiliary vessels at to-day's meeting of the naval committee, and although she is expected to ask for a submarine and cruiser strength out of proportion to the capital ship ratio asked for her, no one appears to regard the prospect of adjusting her class as a difficult one. It is not understood to be regarded as essential by conference leaders that the capital ship ratios be applied rigidly down the line through the various classes of smaller vessels.

Shantung Question.

In the Shantung negotiations, too, the day's conferences developed new indications of a trend toward agreemet. The Japanese, who are waiting for further instructions from Tokio regarding the terms of withdrawal from the Tsingta-Tsinanfu Railroad expressed the opinion that the temporary halt in formal exchanges with the Chinese did not constitute a serious deadlock. Similar expressions came from other delegations, although the Chinese seemed inclined to fear that the discus-

Don't Pay Twice

If you pay bills in cash, there is always the chance of receipts being lost or destroyed, and of your being asked to pay the same bill twice. How much better to deposit all your pay in a Savings Account in The Merchants Bank and pay the bills by cheque. There can be no dispute then, because the endorsed cheques are indisputable evidence that you have paid.

A CALL TO SERVICE.

Some well-known and capable business men are being urged by their friends to allow their names to be placed in nomination tomorrow for the vacant positions on the City Council. There is a reluctance on the part of many such citizens to enter the municipal arena, for they realize that Council work makes considerable demand on the time of the Aldermen, and that no matter how sincerely the members of the Council endeavour to successfully and efficiently administer the city's affairs there is liable to be more criticism than appreciation from the electorate. These facts are undoubtedly true, and yet a sense of civic duty should cause them to be brushed aside. There is work to be done in the City Council, work that is worthy of the best business ability of the community, work that carries with it the reward of consciousness of duty well done. That is why qualified citizens are being asked to make a personal sacrifice in order that their executive ability and their knowledge of business may be used for the benefit of their home city. The Examiner will not attempt to disguise the fact that serving on the Council is a thankless job and that public gratitude is a feeble reed. But the big men, the kind we should have directing the city's affairs, are surely big enough to rise above these selfish considerations, and big enough, too, to visualize the work that is to be done and the opportunity that is offered them.

THE NEXT SESSION.

An interesting situation is developing in Provincial political circles, and the proceedings of the next session of the Legislature promise as a result to provide some anxious moments for the Government, because of the Premier's antagonism to Hydro-radials. Mr. Drury declared this question to be the issue in North Oxford, and views the election of a Farmer candidate as an endorsation of the Government's stand. North Oxford, for the present at least, is off the radial map, and the people of the riding on that account take but little interest in the matter, so that it is rather straining the facts to regard the result of Monday's by-election as a mandate to the administration to continue its policy of opposition to the radials. But the radial question will be an issue in the Legislature, and Mr. Drury is likely to have difficulty in holding the majority of his Labour supporters in line if he persists in the attitude he has adopted. Even with them his majority is small, and with the Liberal and Conservative wings of the opposition adopting an aggressive policy, the U.F.O. Premier is not likely to find very smooth sailing in the next session. It will require some very careful handling to prevent the ship of state from bringing up on the Hydro-radial reef, even although the North Oxford triumph has materially increased the confidence of the skipper. All indications point to a session that will not be devoid of exciting moments.

A SPLENDID EFFORT.

The action of the City Council in voting a grant of $1,000 from the funds remaining in the Peterborough Relief Association to the G. W. V. A. and the Ladies' Auxiliary of that body to finance the distribution of Christmas baskets to the families of veterans who are in need will be endorsed by the citizens. This money was raised by public subscription, and the use of a portion of it in this Yuletide effort is thoroughly in accord with the original objects of the fund. There will be none of the money wasted in useless Christmas luxuries; the baskets are to contain beef, potatoes, tea and other necessities, and they are to be given only to those families who are in need of such assistance. Every precaution will be taken, too, by the G.W.V.A. and by the members of the G.W.V.A. who are co-operating with them that there is no overlapping of the relief work done by other organizations. The Veterans' plan will ensure that, for Christmas at least, there will be no want in the household of any of the men who fought in the Great War—a consummation in which there will be general satisfaction. With the soldiers' families taken care of in this way and with the Rotarians, Kiwanis Club and all the other social service and church organizations engaged in relief work, there should not be a home in Peterborough this Christmas without food and holiday cheer.

TO-MORROW'S DUTY.

Tomorrow is municipal nomination day, an occasion that should be regarded as one of the most important events of each year, but the significance of which is missed by the majority of citizens. Around this season there is usually considerable talk about the need of qualified men on the various municipal boards, but the discussion is rarely accompanied by action. The people who do the most talking seldom take the trouble of attending the nominations, yet they grumble when they see the list of candidates. Usually the task of nominating candidates is left to a handful of citizens, the personnel changing little year by year. The lack of interest in this most vital business is difficult to understand. The whole citizenship is available when nominations are being made; but after tomorrow the choice is limited to the few candidates who have been placed in the field. In order to have a capable list from which to make selections it is essential that there shall be more general interest in the preliminary step that must be taken, the task of nominating the candidates. If but faint interest is taken in this end of the campaign there is little sense in complaining, as so many people do complain, each year that there is a paucity of good candidates. There will continue to be such a lack until the electors wake up to an appreciation of the importance of nomination day.

AFTER IRELAND EGYPT.

It has many times been casually said in recent months that Egypt is to be the next item in the "liquidation" of the British Empire. The problem of Nationalism in Ireland had first to be attended to; then would come the question of the Egyptian Nationalists. Yet the two affairs ,to any but off-hand thinkers, are on a different footing. Irish fitness for self-government is much less disputable than Egyptian. And the imperial interests involved are not at all the same in the two cases. Egypt is directly on England's line of communications to the British possessions in the Orient and the Southern Pacific. The Empire could not permit that line to be cut or imperiled.

Nevertheless, Great Britain has been ready to go a long way to meet the aspirations of Young Egypt. The correspondence between Lord Curzon and the Egyptian delegation in London was made public on Dec. 3, together with a communication laid before the Egyptian Government by General Allenby. The proposals of the British Foreign Office began in a generous tone. The English Protectorate in Egypt was to be terminated. England was to "recognize Egypt as a sovereign State." And in a short time an end was to be made of the nominal dependence of Egypt upon Turkey. But qualifications at once began to be made. Egypt could take no step in foreign affairs without the consent of the British Government. A certain financial control over Egypt was to be continued temporarily. And as Great Britain undertook the defense of Egypt, it was stipulated that "British forces shall have free passage through Egypt, and shall be maintained at such places in Egypt and for such periods as shall from time to time be determined."

It was easy, of course, for the logicians among the Egyptian Nationalists to argue that these and other provisions of the proposed treaty would make Egyptian independence and sovereignty a mere pretense. In reply to Lord Curzon, Adly Pasha maintained that the draft plan put in his hands "does not allow us to retain the hope of arriving at an agreement." Accordingly, he broke off the conference and returned to Cairo. It was well understood, however, that he admitted the need of British assistance for a time in assuring the protection of foreigners in Egypt. Foreign residents in Egypt have been intensely concerned over the failure of the negotiations, and many of them are reported to be making preparations to leave. There has been in Alexandria and Cairo a distinct fear of anti-foreign outbreaks. If the Nationalists are wise and can control their own followers, they will prevent anything of the kind, for it would infallibly mean an indefinite prolongation of British rule. The evident hope of General Allenby is that the Egyptians, after a period of discussion and possibly of agitation, will conclude to accept the British offers. This may be too sanguine. The dispatches from Egypt will bear close watching during the next two weeks. —New York Times.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Old man Zero got here for Christmas after all.

The municipal nominations tomorrow should show a new interest in civic affairs.

Candidates for the Board of Education should be prepared to state where they stand in regard to technical education.

And Aldermanic aspirants should have something definite to offer the electors.

High prices are making the Christmas turkey almost as mythical a bird as the great auk.

It is a safe bet there will be no rolled tops on the yuletide stocking.

One of the minor tragedies of Christmas is having to wear those neckties that your friends have picked out for you.

And peace has no greater hero than the man who gamely lights one of the cigars his wife has given him.

LITERARY GEMS

SONG AGAINST CHILDREN.

O the barberry bright, the barberry bright!
It stood on the mantelpiece because of the height.
Its stems were slender and thorny and tall.
And it looked most beautiful against the grey wall.
But Michael climbed up there in spite of the height,
And he ate all the berries off the barberry bright.

O the round holly wreath, the round holly wreath,
It hung in the window with ivy beneath.
It was plump and prosperous, spangled with red,
And I thought it would cheer me, although I were dead.
But Deborah climbed on a table beneath
And she ate all the berries off the round holly wreath!

O the mistletoe bough, the mistletoe bough!
Could anyone reach it? I did not see how.
I hung it up high that it might last long,
I wreathed it with ribbons and hailed it with song.
But Christopher reached it, I do not know how,
And he ate all the berries off the mistletoe bough.

—Aline Kilmer.

BERLIN, Dec. 21.—Forty thousand volumes of detective, "wild west" and Indian stories, which had been put in circulation here since the Revolution, were piled up and burned under the supervision of the Association for the Protection of German Youths. Recently the association has carried on an extensive speech-making campaign against such literature.

The books burned were turned in by boys who had purchased them. The association has given the boys in exchange classical work and other good reading matter.

CUTICURA HEALED PIMPLES ON FACE

Also Itchy Scalp. Hair Fell Out. Face Disfigured.

"My head began to itch and there were scales on my scalp. My hair came out badly when combed and it became very dry and thin. I also had pimples and blackheads all over my face. The pimples were hard, large, and red, and caused me to scratch and irritate them, and my face was disfigured.

"This trouble lasted about two months and I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After I had used two cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Zona Jackson, R. 3, Goldendale, Wash.

REDUCE FUNERAL COSTS

ST. LOUIS Dec. 22.—The Church Federation of St. Louis has taken steps to reduce the cost of funerals following receipt of a communication rom the local presbytery calling attention to high funeral charges. The following passage was included in the communication: "When great grief comes no one is in a bargaining mood but wants the best."

A committee of ministers was appointed to confer with a delegation of the St. Louis Undertakers' Association, which claims that "undertakers do not fix funeral charges but take orders from relatives of dead persons."

Indoor Life

Spending more time indoors makes women far more subject to constipation than men.

The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated and the system poisoned by impurities.

If you would get away from the myriads of ills which result from constipation, it is only necessary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The benefits from their use are as lasting as they are prompt and certain.

Mrs. John Barry, 18 St. Amable Street, Quebec, Que., writes:

"This is to certify that I was troubled for years with constipation and tried all kinds of medicines without relief. At last my husband suggested that I try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than all the medicine I have taken during the last fifteen years. I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF MILLBROOK CURLERS

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR THE SEASON--SHOOTING MATCH LARGELY ATTENDED.

MILLBROOK NEWS

MILLBROOK, Dec. 22.—An enthusiastic meeting of the Curling Club was held in Mr. J. N. McGill's office on Tuesday evening, December 20th, when the following officers and skips for the various rinks were elected:

Hon. President—Mr. R. J. Doak.
President—Mr. J. H. McGill.
Vice-President — Mr. Geo. E. Burnham.
Sec.-Treas.—Mr. L. R. Atkinson.
Skips—Messrs. R. H. Edmunds, J. E. Allen, J. Steele, C. Larmer, A. A. Smith, Ross Edmunds and G. W. Sayles.

Messrs. J. Steele and R. H. Edmunds were also appointed District Cup skips, and arrangements were made to compete for the Allen Cup, and for having inter-rink games as well.

Shooting Match.

The shooting match held on Mr. Ben Olan's farm, lot 14, con. 2, Cavan, on Tuesday at 1 p.m., was largely attended. The most successful contestants from a distance were: Messrs. Robert and John Thorne, of Reaboro, and from Millbrook: Messrs. E. F. Ellis, J. N. McGill, E. Ball, C. Larmer, E. Richards and W. O'Brian; each of the above brought home a fine fowl. All report a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon's sport.

Born—On Saturday, December 17, at 246 Benson avenue, Toronto, to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCririck, a son (Allan Putnam). Both Mr. and Mrs. McCririck are well-known in Millbrook, the former having been manager of the Bank of Toronto here for some time.

Married— On December 17th, at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. J. Cecil Wilgar, 57 Poplar Plains Road, Toronto, by the Rev. P. M. McDonald, of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Jennie, daughter of Mr. James G. Wilgar, to J. W. Franks .Several years ago Mr. Wilgar and his family resided in Millbrook, and the bride has many friends here with whom she has frequently visited since their removal to Toronto.

Entertainment at Carmel.

The entertainment given by the Sunday school of Carmel Methodist church on Tuesday evening was well attended. Rev. S. T. Tucker acted as chairman, and the programme consisted of motion songs, recitations and dialogues, given by members of the school, both young and old taking some part. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Strong also played some duets with violin and organ, receiving encores for each selection. Refreshments were served, at the close, thus making the occasion a social evening for teachers and scholars, as well as for the visiting friends. The receipts, which are needed to augment the S. S. funds, were satisfatcory. Much credit is due the efficient superintendent, Mr. Fred Hard, and Miss Martha Lunn, who teaches the young men's Bible class, for their untiring efforts in training the scholars, and otherwise working to make the affair a success.

Mr. Frank Alcorn made a business trip to Peterboro on Wednesday.

Mr. Alf Coulter of Zion, who has been visiting his brother, in Hamilton, has returned home.

Messrs. Russell and William Steele, of Port Perry, nephews of Mr. John Steele were guests at the latter's home recently.

Miss Rebecca Browne left on Monday for Ottawa and will probably be away for the remainder of the winter.

Miss E. M. Fisher left on Wednesday for Toronto, intending to remain in the city until Saturday, going on thenr to her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Matheson at Stratford, where she will remain for the winter.

Mr. Evart Tucker arrived home on Wednesday morning from Albert College, Belleville, for the holiday season.

Mr. Bruce Dawson a student of Peterboro Normal School is home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Harry Page, of Toronto is holidaying at his home here.

Social Gathering

A very delightful social gatherinug was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Luxon on Tuesday evening by the members of the Adult Bible Class of the Methodist S.S., in honor of their teacher, Miss Nellie Hetherington. Almost the entire class was present and the Secretary, Mr. Martin Brock, in an appropriate speech voiced the sentiments of all the members when he expressed their appreciation of Miss Hetherington's faithful services from Sunday to Sunday her regular attendance and splendid ability as a teacher. Other members also spoke along similar lines, and the evening passed pleasantly in games, music, etc. with a dainty but satisfying supper served at the close by the hostess of the evening, Mrs. Luxon assisted by some of the guests.

The basement of Grace Presbyterian Church, was filled to capacity on Tuesday evening when the Sunday School gave their annual entertainment and Christmas tree. Rev. G. S. Gervan was chairman and the program began with an opening chorus by all the children, entitled "O, we are little Sunbeams" followed by recitations by George McKnight and Edna Gervan, the latter creating much merriment in the "Mousies' Letter" when she came in on all fours dressed exactly like a grey mouse and wrote a letter to "Santa" using her awkward paws to hold the pen. A "Negro Chorus" by ten boys was also an amusing number. Other children taking part in the motion songs, etc., were:—Ruth Thorndyke Gordon and Margaret Armstrong Vanita Ingram Laird and Jean Bothwell, George McIvor, Edna, David and Jean Gervan, and several others. Three dialogues were given "The Sick Dolly", "Mother Goose Rhymes", and "Christmas Eve", and were much enjoyed by the audience.

At the conclusion Mr. Gervan read a letter from "Santa" saying he regretted being unable to come in person as it was not yet Christmas, but was sending his little boy to represent him. David Gervan then came in, dressed in appropriate costume, and from his pack and the tree bags of candies, nuts ,oranges, etc. were given to the S.S. Scholars others indeed, not belonging to the Presbyterian School, being generously included. The singing of the National anthem brought the gathering to a close.

Farmers' Club.

At the annual meeting of the Cavan and South Monaghan Farmers' Club, held recently, the following officers were elected:

President—Mr. George Berry; Jr.
Vice-Pres.—Mr. W. Barnard.
Sec-Treas.—Mr. W. Clifford Hall.

Mr. James C. Campbell gave an excellent report of the U.F.O. Convention recently held in Toronto, the sessions of which he was privileged to attend.

SPIRITED FIGHTING.

BELFAST, December 22. Canadian Press.—Fifteen men who were taken from their beds on Tuesday night in the Limivady district of County Derry by alleged Sinn Feiners, were rescued by detachments of Special Constabulary, after spirited fighting, in which six Republicans are reported to have been killed.

EXPRESS TRAIN WRECKED.

VENICE, December 2. Canadian Press. — An express train running from Paris collided last night with the Trieste-Rome express on a bridge crossing the Piave at San Dona. Relief trains have been sent to the wreck but details are missing.

SAVED THEIR LIVES BY JUMPING, BUT HORSE WAS KILLED.

G.T.R. Train Crashes Into Wagon on Lansdowne Street Crossing — F. Leahy Loses Valuable Horse.

A horse valued at $150 owned by Francis Leahy, a teamster, 67 High street, Browntown was killed at 8 a.m. Tuesday morning, when struck by the 8.10 G.T.R. Port Hope train at Lansdowne street. Another horse escaped njury and Mr. Leahy, who was driving and his cousin, Martin who was with him, saved their lives by jumping as the train crashed into the waggon.

Mr. Leahy was at the time driving into the country for a load of wood, and had a wood rack on the wagon.

There is not a clear vision of a train approaching from the south at this point, it is said, and, too late to go forward or backward, the wagon was caught fairly on the crossing, turned, however, away from the train. The two men threw themselves from the rig, miraculously escaping death. One horse was struck on the hind quarters and killed, but the other animal escaped injury.

Dr. T. W. Johnson was called. The waggon was totally wrecked.

CABINET NOT READY UNTIL THE NEW YEAR.

Negotiations With Hon. A. T. Crerar Cause of Delay.

OTTAWA, Dec. 21. — (Canadian Press).—The coming of Hon. T. A. Crerar to negotiate terms with Hon. Mackenzie King is awaited here with the keenest interest. It had been expected that Mr. King would have had his Cabinet ready this week, but negotiations with Mr. Crerar have delayed matters, and it may not be complete until near the New Year. Among the rank and file of Liberals, the idea of working an alliance with the Progressives is receiving growing support. One main argument used is that such an alliance is desirable in the national interest. One prominent Progressive said to-day that with the guarantee of an early downward tariff revision and the opening of negotiations with the United States for reciprocity in natural products, the Progressives might be content, but he thought that they should receive one-third of the seats in the Cabinet.

HUGE COMPENSATION.

LONDON, December 21 (Associated Press). — The total compensation awarded under the Criminal Injuries Ireland Act during the period from 1st June, 1920, to 30th September, 1920, was approximately £8,000,000. The figures were given by Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, to a questioner in the House of Commons.

PROBABILITIES.

Hospital for Sick Children

COLLEGE ST., TORONTO.

Through Support of Public, Ontario Maintains Greatest Children's Hospital on This Continent.

Dear Mr. Editor:—

Nowadays people look ahead more than they used to. They realize, for instance, that the child of to-day is the citizen of the future. The privilege of this Hospital is to provide a service whereby any Ontario child, who is weakly, may be made strong, or if he is crippled, may be set straight.

Part of this service consists of personal medical and surgical care of the children. Part is in the schooling of doctors and nurses to carry the ligh of medical science into the uttermost corners of the province.

The whole is a contribution to CHILD WELFARE work which must commend the Hospital to the sympathy and support of your readers.

You probably saw a Quebec despatch deploring the great infant mortality in that province. One great factor which gives the Ontario-born child so much better a chance in life is the maintenance of public philanthropy of the leading Hospital for children on this continent. And that child, whether it be pallid of cheek or crooked of limbs, is helped over the rough spots of infancy and adolescence by this same Hospital. Here are the average day's figures of 1921 attendance:—

Cot patients	268
Other patients	158
Total	426

During the year the Hospital actually saves the lives of scores upon scores of children. It restores health or straightens limbs for hundreds more. Every contributor to the Hospital funds is a shareholder in an enterprise which wins back health and happiness for thousands of children, and thereby gives joy to thousands of anxious homes.

Remember, however, that every child to whom the Hospital's doors are opened—and none are refused—adds something to the financial burden which the GREAT MOTHER CHARITY has to carry. But it has never defaulted on its dividends, which are paid not in money, but in service.

The continued service of the Hospital depends on the continued support of the public. A minute of mercy costs fifty cents, and the clock in the treasurer's ofice is six months slow. So there are a lot of minutes to catch up.

The Hospital is accomplishing fifty per cent. more work than before the war. Owing to higher prices it requires almost twice the money. May I place that simple but serious fact before your readers in connection with the 46th Christmas appeal of the Hospital for Sick Children for funds to carry on another year of service?

Faithfully yours,

IRVING E. ROBERTSON,
Chairman of Appeal Committee.

Italian Delegation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—(Canadian Press.) — Deprecating any movement to increase armaments either by land or sea, the Italian delegation to the Armament Conference still hold to their original position that they must maintain an equality with France in naval strength. A spokesman to-day in discussing Italy's desires in the matter of rention of submarines, said that as the United States and France, and even Japan, seemed to be inclined toward the use of submarines, Italy would take the same view. It was added, however, that she would favor any measure that would restrict the use of submarines to purely defensive purposes.

How 34 Fat Girls Lost 600 Pounds In 30 Days

The Fair Survivors of New York's Weight Reducing Contest, Now Lighter by Over a Quarter of a Ton Are Proof That You Can Reduce—but It Means Hard Work—Lots of It—and Proper Food—but Not So Much of It

"Ready—all together—one, two, lift; one, two, lift"

Above and left, two photographs showing the reducers hard at work at their specially designed reducing exercises, clad in their rubber-lined reducing garments

"Commissioner, Commissioner, Rah! Rah! Rah!
Are we thinner? I should say we are.
We cut out sugar and we cut out starch,
We get up early and take a long march.
We've reduced our waist lines, Sizz!
Boom! Bah!"

THIS came from the voices of thirty-four women, who, seven days days before, had weighed in the aggregate 7,190 pounds, and it was their greeting to Dr. R. S. Copeland. New York City's Commissioner of Health, when he came to visit them at their training quarters upon the top of Madison Square Garden. Then they crowded around him and wanted to know "if he didn't remember" that last week they were "away out here." He had planned a campaign to do away with their surplus and burdensome fat—but had put joy into the task.

Dr. Copeland is not only a practitioner of physical culture, but a believer in mass psychology. Make play of it among a number of people, he has said, and the problem is solved.

A challenge came to him. One of the New York daily papers wanted to try out his theories upon a squad of women and men. He accepted, only making two squads of it. He added zest by making a contest between fat men and women who sorried over the loss of a maidenly figure. Dr. Copeland championed the women and the newspaper took over the cause of the men.

The announcement that the flesh reducing contest was to be held brought to the Health Office over three hundred candidates for entry. Some of them came in their limousines. One was a mother of twelve children; one a fattening corset model about to lose her job; many whose sedentary occupation had brought on an embonpoint of the hips. Most of them, however, were simple sufferers from excessive avoirdupois, widely duffused.

All of the men and women candidates could not be selected. It was found necessary to limit the two squads to fifty each. But the simple groaning of the weighing scales was no objection. In fact, it was a point in favor of the candidate. The first and the second winners among the women weighed 281 and 258, respectively. Of the fifty women selected, thirty-four went the route. Varied were the excuses of the sixteen who fell by the wayside. Some of them found it real labor; others objected to the pictorial publicity they were attaining. The corset model, at the end of the first week, had dropped the ten pounds that worried her, and she was afraid to go on lest she lose her job from underweight. But the mother of twelve was in the line-up when the closing gong was sounded

The only fistic contest on record where both contenders were out to lose

Dr. Copeland's methods were simple. They were:

Exercise—that put lazy muscles to work and produced copious perspiration.

Diet—that so far as possible avoided the sweets and the starches that make for fat.

Sleep—at least seven hours of perfect relaxation that permitted Nature to readjust the human machine to the changed conditions.

Madison Square Garden roof was selected as the most available open-air training ground in the center of the city. Mrs. Elsie B. Thomson, of the Health Department, was chosen by Dr. Copeland as the nurse in charge, adviser and confidante of the women's class, and under her capable supervision not an accident occurred. Both squads were placed under the guidance of "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, a physical director of national reputation. He had helped to train Jack Dempsey, and proceeded on the theory that if the poor little fat girls were not to work but an hour a day, they might as well do something during that period. The work was never stopped. If one became fatigued, she dropped out until wind and poise returned. It was not many days until the class was able to finish the program without the loss of a movement.

And this was their working costume: Next to the skin was a rubber suit, about the thickness of the rubber of a hot water bottle; over it, a woolen blouse and bloomers, and all was topped with a heavy sweater with a hood. Woolen stockings and sneakers completed the outfit.

There was Indian summer in the air and Peruvian summer within the hooded sweaters. Flesh rolls off through the pores of the skin! Soon perspiration could be seen dripping from the bottom of the bloomers. Often, after an exercise—in which the class lay flat upon their backs—as they would lift themselves upon an elbow, a stream of perspiration would trickle from the sleeve of the rubber suit.

Here was their hour's programme, after the morning weigh-in: A dog trot around the track of the roof—six laps of which were equal to a mile. Then handball and a varied setting-up exercise until the time was out. There followed a hot shower, gradually eased off until cold, and a full half minute under the needle spray. A trip to the scales for the weigh-out. The greatest reduction for one day among any of the women was four pounds. All of it was hard work; all of it was fun. The ripple of laughter seldom died out.

This was the program each day, except Sunday. Then there was a hike up Fifth Avenue from Madison Square to Central Park, where in their playfulness they rolled upon the grass, ran races and climbed trees, they felt so good.

Of equal importance was the diet which Dr. Copeland prescribed, the chief items of which appear above. He was taking off flesh in the hour's workout and he insisted upon his pupils avoiding the sweets and the starches and the fats, for Nature reaches eagerly to replace that which is taken away from her. The women obeyed. They were eager to gain all the advantages the course offered. They were distressed when the difference between their weighing-out the day before and their weighing-in the next morning showed a gain in returning flesh. Sometimes the lapse was only a seemingly harmless ice cream soda.

At the close of the first week the thirty-four who stayed until the end, had lost 281 pounds, a number of them having lost ten or eleven pounds. One woman was able for the first time in years to lace her own shoes. A dealer in old clothes, either a man of whimsical spirit or one with a keen eye for business, began to hang around the entrance to the Garden.

The prize winner was Miss Sarah Strong, who by a coincidence was the heaviest of those who entered and ran the course. She weighed in at 281 pounds and out at 250, having lost thirty-one pounds. Her bust was reduced from 52 to 47¼ inches, waist from 50 to 39 inches, hips from 60 to 53 inches.

All of the women had their stories to tell. Miss Strong lives in an apartment. One night she was demonstrating to some visitors the exercises of the morning, when in came the janitor, greatly agitated. She was not on the Garden roof, he declared, and if she did not stop he would surely lose the chandelier in the room below.

Second honors went to Mrs. Ella Weaver. She entered weighing 258 and succeeded in reducing to 229½, a loss of 28½ pounds. Her bust went from 46 inches to 39 inches; waist, 43 to 36 inches; hips 57 to 49 inches.

And here's her story. She lives in Jersey, and she and her husband are fond of automobiling. He was so delighted with the reductions she was making that during the training he would not permit her to get into the car, but had attached a rope, with knots tied in it, to the back axle. The machine was run at a slow and steady speed and she was compelled to hold to the rope and trot along behind. But neighbors joined with her, they, too, being pulled along by Mr. Weaver in the car. She claimed it was only merry fun and it had aided in her reduction.

Third upon the roll of honor was Mrs. Georgia Heffner. She weighed in at 194 and out at 168; loss twenty-six pounds. Her measurements were: Bust, from 46 to 40 inches; waist, 36 to 29 inches; hips, 57 to 46 inches.

Mrs. Heffner had a very valued colored cook, who was threatening to leave because of the change in the character of the household food. One day she was heard telling a neighbor's cook: "Mrs. Heffner done joined that crazy doctor's class and she only eats food fit for a robin. And she ain't no robin, no how."

The men's squad won by a small margin. Their class of fifty had dropped to thirty-five, the women's to thirty-four. Together the sixty-nine got rid of 1,210¾ pounds of surplus flesh within the thirty days. The men lost 612½ pounds and the women 598¼. The average loss for the women was 16 pounds 9 ounces; for the men 17½ pounds. The prize winner of the men reduced 34½ pounds; the woman winner 31½. The smallest loss sustained by any of the women was 5 pounds, but this one weighed only slightly over 150 pounds at the start. Ten of the thirty-four women reduced 20 pounds or over, sixteen, 15 pounds or over, only three less than 10 pounds.

As Dr. Copeland says, they look better, feel stronger, are more healthy, and they have a brighter outlook on life, all of which made the campaign worth while. He has received many letters from heavily ladened women of other cities wishing to know how they could be benefited by his theories. He claims there need not be the elaborate preparations made in New York. Any good, flesh reducing exercise that brings the perspiration freely, an anti-fat diet and sound sleep will be beneficial. The reductions may not be so sensational, but they will come, and the lasting reward will be for those who keep eternally at it.

Was it not Cowper who said: "By ceaseless action all that is subsists."

It isn't every girl who can stand on her head, least of all one whose weight is nearer 200 lbs. than 100 lbs. but this young lady did it and lots more in order to regain her girlish form

POPULATION NEW ZEALAND GROWS.

Added 14,500 British in Twelve Months.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—By Canadian Press.)—New Zealand's population has been increased by 14,500 British people in the past twelve months, according to the latest returns furnished by the New Zealand Immigration Department. This is the largest total of new arrivals there in any single year for the past forty years. The British Government assisted 5,286 under the Imperial Overseas Settlement Scheme, and of the remainder nearly 5,000 were assisted by the New Zealand Government. The Dominion census of 1916 gave the population as follows: Exclusive of aborigines, 1,099,449; Maoris, 49,776, and Cook Islanders, 12,797, a total of 1,162,022.

"Premier W. F. Msasey's Government has always encouraged immigration and there is no doubt that the Dominion needs more population," says the Wellington correspondent of the London Observer. "In every industry the shortage of labor has been felt. Ever since the repatriation of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force was completed immigrants have arrived in the Dominion in small batches, and still there is room for more. The officials at the head of affairs here say that 'not in one single case of assisted or Overseas Settlement immigrants can it be said that the Department was unable to supply accommodation immediately upon arrival and to offer employment within forty-eight hours of entrance into the Dominion.'"

The leaders of the New Zealand Labor Party have opposed the immigration scheme practically from its inception, according to the Observer's correspondent. They admit that there is room in the Dominion for millions of British people, but they argue that the time for the encouragement of immigration is not yet. At first they gave the housing shortage as their reason, and now they oppose the encouragement of immigration on the score of unemployment, caused by financial stringency and depressed markets. The Government has modified its policy to the extent of requiring that until the situation improves assisted immigrants need to have accommodation and employment guaranteed them. Contrary to the expectations of the Labor leaders, the flow of immigrants has not ceased or even dwindled down, but has continued as though the limitation did not exist.

"Probably the most important feature of the Dominion's immigration policy is nomination," says the Observer's correspondent. "Any respectable and healthy Briton may enter the Dominion, but those who expect to receive Government assistance in the form of steamer passage at a reduced fare has required to be nominated by some person already in the Dominion. It frequently happens that a married man will come to the Dominion alone, and, having secured a foothold, will nominate his wife and children. The nominator sometimes is required to give a guarantee of employment and accomodation.

HAIFA AND JAFFA PALESTINE'S MAIN PORTS

Haifa and Jaffa are the most important of the four ports of call on the seacoasts of Palestine, writes Consul A. E. Southard, of Jerusalem. Neither of these ports has modern facilities. Haifa is located on the south side of the Bay of Akka, 50 miles north of Jaffa, and has harbor possibilities superior to those of Jaffa. Furthermore, Haifa taps a very much larger and richer hinterland, being connected by broad gauge railway with Jerusalem and Egypt. It is the Mediterranean port of the hedjaz Railway, which connects it with Damascus.

TEACH MUSIC

By NANCY WOODS WALBURN.

As a musical authority who is revolutionizing methods of teaching music to children, Mrs. Justine Ward, daughter of the late William Bayard Cutting, now abroad doing further musical research, has won wide recognition. Yet to thousands of formerly rebellious youngsters, kept at the piano until the slow-moving clock got around to the appointed hour of liberation, Mrs. Ward will long be known as the person who magically banished the drudgery of music lessons. For under her skilful touch music becomes to children a new vocabulary through which they express themselves with the utmost flexibility of mood and farm.

Taught by this method, average every-day children of six or eight years express themselves in spontaneous, harmonious melodies of their own composition. They play and compose, as much at home with the musical scale as other children of their age with their blocks. This does not mean that they are prigish little progidies or even musically inclined. But their approach to music has been made from a viewpoint that reduces to childish language the most difficult and intricate musical forms. Founded and endowed by Mrs. Ward in 1918, and already widely recognized by musical authorities and educators here as well as in Europe, where the Ward textbooks are being translated into French for use in schools in France, the Justine Ward method is still little known to the general public.

It is largely due to the active support of Mrs. Adrian Iselin, President of the Auxiliary Committee, at whose home 711 Fifth Avenue, New York, a demonstration was given last winter; Mrs. Frederick Vanderbilt, Honorary President; Mrs. Winthrop Chanler, Mrs. E. H. Harriman, Mrs. Norman Ream and others of the Auxiliary Committee, that the training courses for supervisors and teachers, which are open to the public, are already carried on in many cities, despite the fact that the work is still in its initial stage.

At the College of the Sacred Heart, it was learned that the system is an outgrowth of Mrs. Ward's research for the restoration of the Gregorian Chant, the earliest musical form used in the Church of Rome centuries ago.

"From the first step music is interpreted from the viewpoint of a child of six," explained Mother G. Stevens, R. S. C. J., executive head of the method. "For example, Do is presented as a member of a large family, all of whos brothers and sisters we are to learn to know. He is introduced as one of our fingers, here, the little finger. Like Johnny or any other little friend, he has a picture, so he is what he looks on the board. Like Johnny, whose voice we recognize, Do has a sound—do. This original note, out of which the whole system develops, must be pure in quality so that the voice may be well placed and beautiful from the start.

"The children are told that music is a beautiful new language in which these notes and their families are in motion or rythm. They are shown that this movement is up and down by raising and lowering the hand and rhythm, by beating time or skipping to 2 or 3 time. They are asked to listen and see if they can't hear the difference and describe it."

After Do, Re is learned the children are put into musical composition by being asked to use them in different combinations. Thus with the first timed Do, Re, Do, or Re, Re, Do, when the teacher has only said Do, Re, their creative instinct or "musical speech in the new language" is given expression. Likewise their ear is trained by ear tests, telling what their playmate or teacher hums, or by singing "inside" (mentally) what teacher writes in numbers.

FRUIT CAKE WITHOUT EGGS

One pound fat salt pork, two cups boiling water, two cups light brown sugar, one and one-half cups molasses, two teaspoons each cloves, nutmeg and allspice, four teaspoons cinnamon, two cups raisins, one cup currants, one-half cup sliced citron, two cups nuts, one cup dates, one-half cup candied cherries, one-half cup candied pineapple, one-half cup candied orange peel, one-half cup crystallized ginger, one-fourth cup canned fruit juice, three teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon soda, seven cups flour, one teaspoon vanilla.

Remove rind and lean meat from salt pork. Chop fine and pour over boiling water. Let stand until cool. Add sugar, molasses, spices, fruit juice and vanilla.

Wash and seed raisins. Dry between towels. Wash currants and dry between towels. Cut citron in very thin slices, stone and chop dates.

Cut the rest of the fruit in small pieces. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and soda. Add to first mixture and, before stirring, add fruit. Mix thoroughly and add nuts.

Line deep bread pans with heavy oiled paper. Fill pans half full with cake mixture. Bake in a slow oven an hour and a half. When done remove, cool slowly, wrap in oiled paper and store in tin box.

Boil the mop in an old pail half full of water into which you have put a tablespoonful of concentrated lye. Then rinse carefully and the mop will be as good as new.

BY THE WAY

A French naturalist recently had the rare opportunity of observing an intensely interesting struggle between an egg and a moss plant. The egg was that of a lizard which had been deposited on a cushion of moss. It was inclosed by a white protective covering of leather-like toughness. The moss on which the tip of the egg rested secreted at the point of contact a substance that gradually dissolved the leathery shell of the egg. When there was no longer any resistance, the stem of the moss plant penetrated the shell and sent its branches through the substance of the egg.

But the egg was equal to the emergency. It enveloped the stem of the moss inside the egg with a membranous coating that formed an insulating tube around the intruder.

Then the moss sent out side branches through the egg, traversing it, but these also were made innocuous by an albuminous coating. In spite of this struggle against the intruding moss, the lizard embryo developed to all appearances normally, and finally emerged from its prison unharmed.

History seems to reach back in Asia and Africa about 5,000 years before Christ, and in the earliest histories of those times there was a tradition of land far to the west of Africa having high mountains, valleys, plains and splendid cities. That land might have existed 10,000 or 20,000 years ago. It is thought possible that the Azores, Madeira, Canary and Cape Verde Islands were some of the highlands and mountain tops of the old and vanished island or continent, the name of which has come down to us from the Early Greek as "Atlantis."

Oceanographers, sounding and almost surveying the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean, find the deep valleys, mountain ranges, towering peaks and wide stretches of table land deep beneath the surface of the sea. There was a tradition in Asia and Africa at the time recorded history begins that the Atlantians were about to invade Africa and Asia when their land was submerged. It might have been a vast disaster due to volcanic action. The bottom of the sea in that part of the world and the islands that rise out of it are volcanic, and there are still active volcanoes in the sea and in the Azores, Canary and Cape Verde Islands which are supposed to be fragments of Atlantis.

Creole is a word that has for the last century been a cause of controversy. Loosely the term is frequently applied by the ignorant to Negroes of light complexion or to persons of mixed blood. A creole was a person of pure Caucasian blood, born in the Spanish or French possessions of the Western World of Spanish or French parentage. Because such persons were often swarthly skinned, darkened by the tropical winds and heat, the term was used to distinguish them from the Ethiopian races which abounded in the southern colonies.

Yet the origin of the word is from the Latin "creo," to create, through the Spanish "criado," a servant, and "criollo," in the same language, a "Negro." The term "creole Negro" is recognized as defining a native born Negro in contrast with one that had been brought from Africa.

But the better, more modern and properly restricted meaning covers the southern people born in what is now America and directly descended from French or Spanish colonists.

The Church of the Nativity in the little town of Bethlehem, in Palestine, which is the traditional birthplace of Christ, its main entrance walled up to prevent the Mohammedan soldiers from using it as a stable, covers the greatest Christian shrine. Three faiths jointly control it—Greek Catholic, Roman Catholic and Armenian.

In the Chapel of the Nativity, under the church is a rocky crypt, marked with a silver star and blazing jewel-encrusted lamps, in which the infant Christ is believed to have lain. A rich altar surmounts it. Six of the 15 lamps that burn in this recess belong to the Greek Church, five to the Armenian and four to the Roman Catholic.

In the chapel is shown a marble manger which is said to have cradled Jesus, but the crypt itself may have been the manger, for a manger in Syria is merely a hollow place scooped in the side of a rocky wall. Great painters have overlooked this fact, says Mentor Magazine, and placed the infant Christ in the wooden manger familiar to the Western World.

By the figures of the United States Weather Bureau, snowfall in winter in St. Louis, Mo., or in Richmond, Va., is three or four times as great as for the north coast of Alaska, while we believe that the snowfall in St. Louis or the Highlands of Scotland is 10 times as great as on the north tip of Greenland or on the northerly islands discovered by my expedition of 1913-18, writes Vilhjalmur Stefansson, in the World's Work.

In the North Polar regions there is, to begin with, very little snow on the ground at the end of winter. In some parts of the polar regions the temperature is 100 degrees in the shade in the summer. For three or four or five months, according to just where you are, you have green prairies and flowery meadows that are a delight to the eye and would be delightful to every sense but for the unbelievable plague of insects—mosquitoes, sand flies, horseflies and the like.

There are on Naura, or Pleasant Island, the richest island in the South Seas, two monuments to contact with American whalers. One is of flesh and blood—a native family whose curly hair is in striking contrast to their straight-haired neighbors, witnessing that the ancestor was a runaway Negro sailor The other is a small cannon, which stands before the house of the British administrator, according to Rosamond Dobson Rhone, in the National Geographic Magazine.

In the fifties, a whaling ship out of New Bedford, Mass., called at the island, and the natives paddled out in their outrigger canoes and swarmed over the decks, examining everything with lively curiosity. They especially admired a small cannon, and they offered to buy it, paying for it with cocoanuts. A price was agreed upon. They went ashore and returned with the required number, but the captain raised the price, asking double the number.

The natives again went shsore and brought back the stipulated number; the captain again raised the price. It was now late in the day, and the natives said they would bring back the remainder in the morning. They beached their canoes and retired to their huts. In the night the natives went out in force, surprised and overcame the officers and crew, and killed every man save one sailor, who secreted himself. They set fire to the ship and took the cannon; they took nothing else.

A Job For Every Man Prosperity For All.

Mr. Banker——

Plan of Co-operation.

The Provincial Advisory Committee on Unemployment considered the industrial situation and endorses the following statement of proposals:—

1.—That Manufacturers should be asked to take a price for goods on hand equal to the cost of replacement having regard to decreased cost of raw material and of labor used in manufacture.

2.—That Wholesalers should be asked to sell goods on hand at replacement prices.

3.—That Retailers should be asked to sell at replacement prices.

4.—Knowing that the costs of building at the present time have been considerably reduced, those desiring to build should be encouraged to ask for new tenders on their proposed work; and that building contractors and builders' supply people should make a special effort to reduce prices to a minimum in order to restore this important key industry.

5.—That Banks and financial institutions should be prepared to co-operate to the utmost with all productive enterprise by allowing all reasonable credits and by decreasing rates as rapidly as conditions may allow.

6.—That Farmers should be asked to maintain reasonable production, and in the event of a proportionate reduction being reached in other lines, should be prepared to make needed improvements and betterments.

7.—That Labor shall be asked to take willingly a reduction in wages proportionate to progressive decrease in cost of living, in so far as such a reduction has not already taken place.

The above statement has been submitted to and endorsed by the following interests—manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, building industries, agriculture, financial interests and the veterans

THE Manufacturer has been asked to join in a plan of co-operation, to operate on a basis as nearly normal as possible and create employment.

The Wholesaler has been appealed to along similar lines and the retailer has been urged to sell his goods at replacement prices.

The architect has been asked to call for new tenders on construction work which has been withheld because of abnormal conditions in the building market.

Labor will be asked to willingly accept a wage in proportion to reduced living expenses.

The farmer will be asked to maintain a reasonable production and to prepare for large farming operations during the coming season.

These several appeals are being made with a view to enlisting active support in a general trend towards normal agricultural, commercial and industrial conditions.

Will you co-operate to the utmost, with all productive enterprises? Will you allow reasonable credit and decrease rates as rapidly as conditions will permit?

If you will, every branch of commercial activity will be stimulated. Employment will be available and through the functioning of normal methods a definite stride will be taken towards normal times.

Ontario Will Lead in Providing

"A Job for Every Man Prosperity for All!"

Published by Authority of the Ontario Government on the advice of the Provincial Advisory Committee on Unemployment.

HOLIDAY RUSH AT POST OFFICE

MAIL VERY HEAVY—PUBLIC POSTED CHRISTMAS PRESENTS AT EARLY DATE THIS YEAR.

Overtime work for post office employees is increasing as Christmas draws near.

Extra assistants have been busy in the post office for some time, and, in addition to the two men helping the expert mail sorters, 16 temporary mail carriers are being employed.

The overseas mail for Great Britain and various other European countries has all been dispatched, but the outgoing mails to various parts of Canada and the United States have been growing heavier, while incoming mails from other parts of this country are becoming greater each day. The arrival of parcel and letter posts from overseas has added another burden to the work of the local department.

General indications are that the public has heeded the plea of the post office and posted its parcels earlier than usual, making the work of the various departments more uniform, and, it is hoped, avoiding in some measure the great congestion and rush usually experienced on the two days before Christmas. The authorities, however, do not wish to be too optimistic on this latter point, for they expect a large amount of mail matter on Friday and Saturday.

Deliveries will be as usual on Saturday, with a full days' work for all employees. On Monday there will be one delivery only, and those who post their mail late are running the risk of missing Christmas Day and having their gifts delivered on the following Monday.

The incoming overseas mails have not yet been received, and, though a large quantity is now being sorted and delivered from the post office, more will be arriving for Peterborough in the course of a day or so, and will be delivered as soon as possible. It is likely that some will not reach those for whom it is intended until Monday.

Presnt indications are the mails will be about as heavy as the average for the Christmas season.

No Same Rush as of Old.

Though the Christmas rush at the express companies' offices is not what it was in the old days, a steady stream of packages is now passing through the hands of local agents.

A good deal of the Christmas rush formerly handled by the express companies is now sent by parcel post. However, the growing custom of ordering goods packed and shipped at the store where the gift was purchased has given a great impetus to the 'transfer' business, and perishable goods are also consigned to the express comapiies on account of the speedy handling.

Favourite Gifts.

Turkeys and plum puddings sent from the farm to sons and daughters in the city are favourite gifts which the postman delivers and he also is the Santa Claus who brings pet dobs and cats, canaries and other curious and unwieldy presents.

At the Dominion Express office it was stated that the gifts were just beginning to come in to-day. Traffic between heer and British Columbia left a few days ago, but for the most part friends on one edge of the continent who wished to remember those on the other coast were in the habit of sending money orders, or small parcels by mail, rather than bulky packages.

THIS WILL BENEFIT PETERBORO' WOMEN

Stomach trouble in women is often due to retained waste matter. This poisons the stomach for months causing gas on the stomach and sour stomach. The old poison-us accumulation should be cleaned out with simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. Acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel, Adler-i-ka removes matter you never thought was in your system. EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach and chronic constipation. Guards against appendicitis. VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

The Editor, Examiner,—

Dear Sir,—Your editorial reference to the poor quality of the suggested candidates for municipal approval at the polls and your inference that "better men" could be and should be had, moves me to ask what you, yourself have done. As a citizen you should be equally with others interested. Had you made enquiry you would have learned.

That in all forty-one men of the city had been approached to stand in the aldermanic contest. All but three declined. Declined, my dear sir, with emphasis and verbal violence. I assure there was nothing indecisive in their attitude.

Of these I saw twenty-three, and know whereof I write. Two of the men, good men too, said that the slang-whanging that Alderman James Hamilton received in your advertising columns was enough to scare any hen off the nest and to convince any decent citizen of the risks he ran, that after giving service in the municpality that he would be derided. That evidence was enough, they said, for them. Then why expect "better men" to come out and take chances of municipal ingratitude. Safety first. And who will blame them, except you.

Look at this thing logically. From what classes of the community may your candidates be drawn Professional men will and cannot take the time. Doctors are ever on call, day and night. Occasionally you will catch a lawyer, but only once so often. Heads of manufacturing establishments have not the time at personal disposal. Bankers who are assumed to be a conservatively inclined part of the community are almost debarred by precedent and Head Office rules. School teachers, are debarred. I never knew of a school teacher deliberately going into the Council, for he has trouble enough as it is . And business men along George and Charlotte streets positively will not come out for very obvious business reason. That' settled.

Many excellent men in the mechanical and other trades cannot give the time, as much of city business is done in daylght and not in the dark, or in after hours. Committees have to have daylight attendance, especially the Board of Works And the sacricife of time is serious to a man who has to depend on his personal work for his living.

Now all these classes exclude themselves. Have done so for many years, except in the years when life was less strenuous than we now make it. For instance. I have before me as I write the taxes receipts to a Mrs. Finlay, of the town, for the years 1874-75. The rates in total are 11 1-2 and 12 mills on the dollar. Just about two hundred per cent to three hundred per cent. less than now. Consequently there was not so much to spend and more time to do it in. And less money to wrangle about.

The City of Peterboro this year, as in other years, will take what it can get—a number of good men and others—not what it wants, and surely what it needs. Suppose you, as an experiment, leave your desk, go out this afternoon and up to nomination time to-morrow seek for candidates. Use your powers of persuasion and argument personally instead of on paper and afterwards tell us of your impressions. I think you will see a light. You may sound a call. You will only hear an echo. But don't forget to go to it. Make that sacrifice.

I have the impression, and it is one privilege of our Democratic way of doing things for better or for the worse, that the changes demanded in our procedure in the selection of representatives to the Council, has fallen down. Just as it fell down once before, and we got together and heaved the remains over the fence. It was held up that electing men by the vote of the whole city, instead of by the ward system, would bring out "better men." Has it done so? Suppose you tell us.

That the abolition of the owner or tenant's qualification would call to the colors many men otherwise deprived of the chance of adorning the Council circle. Do you find them seated there? Not much. Not by a jugful. Taken by and large the results have not verified the demand and prediction. Better get back to the wards system, and do it now. You get the closer, more personal sifting and selection in the ward system than by the vague, indecisive vote of the city at large. The larger the city grows the less men and women know about one another, their abilities and qualifications.

F. H. DOBBIN.

GERMANS ARE ALL WORKING

Says Hon. Walter Rollo, Minister of Labour, Just Returned from the International Conference—Less Than 5 Per Cent. Unemployed.

TORONTO, December 22. — The Hon. Walter Rollo, Minister of Labour, returned from the International Labour Conference in Geneva, Switzerland, yesterday, and is evidently very much pleased with the progress made by the conference on international industrial affairs.

Mr. Rollo has been away nearly two months, and during that time visited England, Scotland, France, and Germany, in addition to the regular sessions of the conference in Geneva.

Mr. Rollo was much interested in the two weeks' tour of Germany arranged for the delegates to the conference by the Trades and Labour Congress of that country. He was especially surprised at the magnitude of the German factories, stating that they made the Massey-Harris plant look like a repair shop.

"Germany at the present time has less uneployment than any other country in the world," he said. "Less than 5 per cent. of the working class in Germany are unemployed."

While German workmen were receiving "enormous" wages they were of little use on account of the depreciated value of the German mark.

"In some of the metal factories I was in the men were getting 9 marks an hour, but even at that rate they would have to work a whole week before they could buy a pair of ordinary working boots."

A STATEMENT OF MERCHANTS BANK

FINANCIAL STATEMENT FURNISHED TO THE FINANCE DEPARTMENT--ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

OTTAWA, Dec. 22.— (Canadian Press.)—On November 30 the total assets of the Merchants' Bank of Canada were $182,004,625.00 and the total liabilities $161,507,349.00, according to figures furnished to the Finance Department yesterday for compilation in the monthly statement covering Canadian chartered banks. The figures which are in the form of a statement signed by H. Montagu Allen, President; J. B. Merritt, superintendent of branches, and chief inspector, and J. G. Muir, chief accountant, are "subject to the new allocation and re-valuation of certain assets which are now undergoing revision in view of the situation that has arisen."

Loans of the bank, exclusve of overdue debts which total $2,700,465, amount to $119,723,873, made up as follows: call and short loans (not exceeding thirty days payable in Canada, on stocks, debentures and bonds $7,011,017, call and short loans elsewhere than in Canada $4,745,662; other current loans and discounts in Canada $12,857,726.00; other current loans elsewhere in Canada, $1,-101,780.00, loans to provincial governments, $205,550; loans to cities, towns, municipalities and school districts $3,801,931; in addition to these and not included in the above total, is the sum of $472,650, being the aggregate amount of loans to directors and firms of which they are directors.

Other assets of the bank include $14,119,450 Dominion and provincial government securities; $8,796,487 Canadian municipal securites and British, foreign and colonial public securities other than Canadian, $5,-117,790 railways and other bonds, debentures and stocks; real estate other than bank premises $631,351; bank premises $4,607,749, and mortgages on real estate held by the bank $683,774.

The liabilities of the bank include $88,087,635 savings deposits and $38,-345,142 demand deposits payable in Canada. Deposits outside Canada total $3,204,602.

The sum of $11,001,532 is due the Dominion Government, and $2,871,-458 due to other banks in Canada.

MODERN REFORMS A BOON TO SYRIA.

French Occupation Fosters Improved Conditions.

BEIRUT, Syria, Dec. 22.—The streets of this ancient city which for hundreds of years have borne old Arab names have been given French designations as one of the results of the French mandate. Although the Moslem press, which represents a majority of the people, manifests the spirit of public antagonism to the introduction by the authorities of French customs and French language, it concedes that French occupation has been a boon to Syria.

The financial conditions of the province are more stable now. New laws and regulations have been made for the bar placing the legal profession on a higher basis. A new police force has been organized, asdurnig the population of better security than existed during the Turkish regime. New and modern public schools are raising the standard of education. In brief, reforms have taken place in all branches of the government for the betterment of Syria.

New Constitution

A noteworthy event occured a few days ago when Marshal Gouraud, the French High Commissioner, proclaimed the new Constitution.

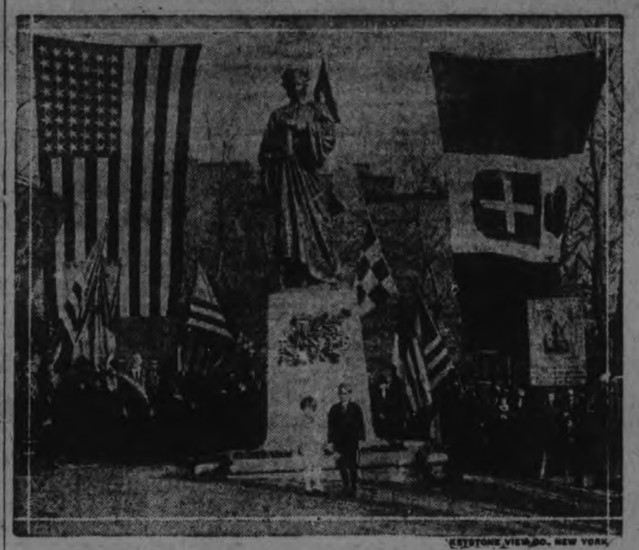
According to the new regulations Syria is divided into four autonomous states, each endowed with deliberative councils elected by suffrage These states are Damascus, Aleppo, the Alouites and the Great Lebanon. As regards the first three, they are to unite in a federation with a federal congress appointed by the states' governments. The Great Lebanon at present will remain outside of this union; managing its own affairs independently. However, it is at liberty to joi nwith the other when conditions seem favorable.

While the two cities of Beirut and Tripoli are included in the State of Great Lebanon, still they are to have local autonomy. The law allows each a General Governor with executive power. He will have an advisory council nominated by the government until elections are possible. The two General Governors will be nominated by the High Commissioner after consulation with the executive of the state of Lebanon.

"In the East the races are so intermingled that no Western power could govern there without discontenting a good portion of the population", says a Near East missionary. He adds, "The question arises, can France afford to turn against her, the Mohammedan population of Syria?"

TINPLATE TRADE REVIVES

SWANSEA, Wales, Dec. 21. — (Canadian Press).—The Welsh tinplate trade is reviving. Orders from abroad are coming in more freely and Welsh makers are beating American and German competitors in neutral markets. This is possible by reason of the recent heavy price cuts. Welsh makers have just secured a large order (running into many thousands of boxes of tinplate from British Columbia packers. This was secured in the face of the keenest American competition. The first cargo of this consignment has already left Swanca.



MEMORIAL TO DANTE UNVEILED IN WASHINGTON

A heroic sculpture of the great Italian poet, gift of the Italian-American societies of the country, was recently unveiled in the National Capitol before representatives of the government and of the donors. The two children of Colonel Sherrill, military aide to President Harding—shown standing in foreground—pulled the strings that revealed the monument of the great Italian genius.

THE SPENDER OR THE MISER?

Which is it That Makes the World Go Round?

Is it the miser who makes the world go round."

Thus demands Mrs. Smith-Wilkinson of a bewildered world.

Truly the English spendthrift has made heads at least, go around in Paris, where she spent 5 million dollars in two weeks.

The woman is surely careless with coin. Not content with the hats to be bought along the Rue de la Paix, Madame Monte Carlo," as the stunned citizens of Paris dub her, found a bargain in useless crowns, this especial one being that of the ill-fated czarina, the price 3 1-4 million dollars.

Income is 30 Million.

Among other trinkets she "picked up" in France were the Shrewsbury pearls, price 1-2 million. Then gowns, loose diamonds to sew on dresses, re-upholstering of motor cars and of private suites ran into millions.

And this strange woman defends herself with the plea that she cannot spend her income, which reaches 30 million.

Although apparently champion of the spending ring, Mrs. Smith-Wilkinson is not the first person to enjoy wasting money. There have been those who blazed the trail for her and who established precedents and high marks for wasting long before the gay Britisher came to dazzle the continent.

There was Coal Oil Johnny, who at 21 years old left the oil fields of Pennsylvania to visit New York and show the old residents what a large night looked like.

"Coal Oil Johnny's" Splurge.

John W. Steele—his real name—had a nice little way of getting what he wanted. He selected not only 88,000 worth of clothes of a fine morning, not only bought cabs to help out indigent cabbies, but was perfectly willing to purchase such things as revenge, for instance.

Staying at his hotel during his sensational New York visit he found that a certain clerk was too indifferent to his importance. Johnny bought the hotel, fired the bored clerk and opened the doors to the public, to let who would enter, eat, drink and dwell therein. This cost 1 million dollars that one day.

Also, in four years Coal Oil Johnny became bankrupt. He had to go back to the labor which had formerly netted him but $2 a day. When he died at 77, he had been earning $50 a month.

But doesn't Mrs. Smith-Wilkinson make our Pennsylvania lad look a tightwad

And yet there are other women whom we thought wild wasters until we heard of the golden blaze that has come out of England.

There was Mrs. Charles Anthony of Muncie, Ind., who went in for gold watches on evening slippers, diamond heels, armlets gleaming with gems. When visiting here a few years ago she wore a contraption that looked like diamond handcuffs. It dazzled Peacock Alley dizzy.

Not long before that the murder by his wife of Jacques Lebaudy, self-styled "Emperor of the Sahara," brought out the story of his excesses and extravagances, which often took an amusing turn.

The "Emperor of Sahara."

Lebaudy was believed to be insane. He was at times placed in sanitariums. Perhaps this explains the odd and spectacular nature of his expenditures and escapades. Son of Jules Lebaudy, late sugar king of France, the "Emperor," in 1903, went to London. There he had fitted up for his use a magnificent suite in the Savoy. He called himself by the royal title mentioned. He made appeals to different courts for recognition, since he owned an empire in Abyssinia. In this enterprise he spent many millions. Trades people called on him, anxious for the honor of being accepted "by appointment to his majesty the emperor of Sahara."

His exploits in America, once this affair was ended, were sufficiently startling to cause comment. He used to buy broken down race horses at large prices and give parades to show them off.

Mounted upon these decrepit steeds were uniformed messenger boys for whose services he had arranged. He said he was organizing an army to help the allies. He spent a great deal in buying broken down animals, furniture and taxicabs, all of which were put to similar strange uses.

The vast Lebaudy fortune was not appreciably lessened by the "Emperor's" adventures, since the principal is great. In that respect his spending were seemingly as powerless to ruin himself and family as those of the British woman.

Gates Tipped Waiter $1,000.

Most memorable in the history of recent American spendthrifts was Charles G. Gates, who once tipped a waiter $1,000. It is only fair to say that the man nearly dropped dead, and, later revived, told the proprietor, who returned to Gates $900, the dinner having cost the other hundred. Although willing to throw away money, Gates, it was said, could not be beaten out of a nickel.

On a visit to Cody, Wyo., Gates met a minister clad in a shabby coat. He not only got the clergyman a new coat, but cancelled the church debt. At the same time and place a cow puncher covered with his foot a note Gates had dropped, thinking the rich man would not notice it. But Gates' sharp eyes turned to look contempt at the man who tried to cheat him. Ne never spoke to him again.

WELCOME CONFERENCE

AHMADABAL, India, Dec. 22. — (Canadian Press). — Mahatma Gandhi, the non-cooperationist leader, said, in an interview yesterday, that he welcomed the proposed round table conference with the Viceroy relative to the national volunteer movement. He added, however, that he was skeptical about its success unless the Government changed it attitude regarding what he characterrized as the "fundamental grievance which caused the crisis."

CONGRESSIONAL RECESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—(Canadian Press).—A Congressional recess from to-day until January 3, was voted yesterday when the House adopted the Senate resolution to that effect.

ONTARIO GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO CONTINUE RELIEF SCHEME

The unemployed in Peterborough ask the Drury Government for bread and they receive an Order-in-Council. It's not even a crust. It's a stone.

Surely T. Tooms, M.L.A., has not given his assent and blessing to this unpalatable and unnourishing Order-in-Council!

MR. TOOMS KNOWS THE CONDITIONS.

Mr. Tooms knows that many of the men out of work in Peterborough, and who have been out of work for months through no fault of theirs, are mechanics and tradesmen, not to mention the unemployed labourers.

This fact must also be known to Mayor McIntyre, Peterborough's Labour Mayor, as it is certainly known to Ald. Gainey, Ald. Crowe and Ald. Morrison, who reached the Council by the support of Labour.

These Labour leaders are supposed to have some influence, Mr. Tooms especially, in the U.F.-Labour Government at Toronto.

SHOULD PUT IT UP TO PREMIER DRURY.

Let them exercise that influence in this crisis. Let them demand of Premier Drury that the mocking Order-in-Council be rescinded and that the Provincial Government join with the Dominion Government and the City Council in bearing this winter's burdens of relief for deserving workingmen and their families.

This is a fair and honest request, and should not have to be urged in this manner upon an avowedly Labour-U.F.O. administration.

The workingmen of Peterborough should not be blamed if they judge the Drury Government upon that hardtack Order-in-Council.

It isn't even good hardtack. As a help in time of trouble it isn't worth the paper it's written on.

The people expect more than that of Premier Drury and the Hon. Walter Rollo, Minister of Labour.

TRADES COUNCIL DISCUSS COMPANY

statement had been made about the Red Arrow concern.

Mr J. Crowe related what he knew of the company and its negotiations with the City Council. Mr. Crowe said the question of the company's standing or purpose was a difficult matter for an outsider to determine. The Ford enterprise had "started low."

Mr. William Rudkins said he became acquainted with Mayor A. B. Carlson, of Jamestown, during the time that he (Mr. Rudkins) was Industrial Commissioner of Lindsay. Mr. Carlson was prominently identified with Birmingham Motors, and Mr. Rudkins said he found him to be a fine type of man in every particular. He has been elected Mayor of Jamestown for fourteen consecutive years. Mr. Rudkins said that Henry Ford had his ups and downs, and that one of the best industries that Peterborough has to-day was founded by a man who came here with his samples in a carpet bag and had to borrow money to start with.

Mr. F. Mesley, President of the Trades Council, thanked Mr. Tooms for bringing the matter to the attention of the meeting and said the investing public would be well advised to use caution in an investment of any kind.

The matter of having Mr. Byron Lederer, representing Birmingham Motors, here, address the Trades Council was discussed, but it was pointed out that Mr. Lederer and his associates have addressed the Council on two previous occasions and outlined their plans. It was generally agreed that so far as the members of the Trades Council was concerned the Birmingham Motors proposition did not differ materially in its method of financing from such enterprises as the Red Arrow or any other company starting in a similar and accepted way.

pose of the act is to protect the workingman who has purchased a home and is unable to meet the payments when they fall due owing to the industrial depression. On motion of J. Crowe and W. Rudkins the support of the Peterboro Trades Council was pledged and Mr. T. Tooms M.P.P., added the assurance that it was the intention of the labour group to bring the matter up in the Provincial Legislature.

The Municipal Slate

Mr. George Stenton referred to the municapal slate endorsed by the Tenants and Ratepayers Association and said that judging from the presence of W. H. Bradburn, F. H. Dobbin and others on the membership roll of the Association it was nothing more than the "Citizens Committee" in disguise. "They were kicking about the gang in the City Council last year and now they turn around and endorse the same outfit" observed Mr. Stenton.

Mr. Tooms said the ratepayers would exercise their own discretion in the matter.

A communication signed by A. B. Martin of New York, in which the writer said he was acting for the "Friends of Soviet Russia" requested aid for the starving children of Russia. The communication was received.

us get somebody who can", observed Mr. George Stenton.

Single Tax System

Mr. T. J. McMurray put in a claim for the single tax system which throws the burden of the taxes on vacant and unimproved property. It was suggested that the City Council be asked to submit the question to a vote of the people.

Ald. J. Crowe reporting on the fate of the proposed meat by-law in the City Council said he had voted against the move to throw the farmers market open for the sale of meat in less than quarter lot for the reason that it would involve the city in difficulties with the Provincial Board of Health. The latter would demand sanitary measures that would make such a move costly to the city and besides the sale of meat could not be continued on the market during the summer months. The opening of a new retail meat store on Charlotte street had brought about lower prices and the need for such civic legislation was not now so necessary.

"If you could only throw the market open to the sale of Port Hope bread it might have the effect of lowering the price of the local product", remarked Mr. Tooms.

Ald. Crowe said one of the local bakers had inferred that the Port Hope bread was not made under sanitary conditions. The members took this with a grain of salt and Mr Tooms remarked that the factory inspector would have something to say about such a condition if it was apparent to him.

Education Committee

The names of Messrs. F. Mesley, C. Spence and T. Tooms will be suggested to the Board of Education as a proposed Educational Committee to co-operate with the Board in matters of educational interests affecting the labour interests of the city.

The Trades Council endorsed the candidature of Mrs. W. R. Morris who will probably seek re-election to the School Board and also commended her for her stand on the question of a technical school. It was agreed that Mrs. Morris was well qualified to sit on the Board of Education.

A Moratorium

A communication was received from the Brantford Trade and Labour Council seeking support for a proposed moratorium act similar to the one enacted in 1915. The pur-

SEPOY'S GALLANTRY BEYOND PRAISE.

Victoria Cross Awarded to Private in Indian Army.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Victoria Cross to No. 1012, Sepoy Ishar Singh, 28th Punjabis, Indian Army. For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty on 10th April, 1921, near Haidari Kach (Waziristan). When the convoy protection troops were attacked this Sepoy was No. 1 of a Lewis Gun section. Early in the action he received a very severe gunshot wound in the chest and fell beside his Lewis gun. Hand-to-hand fighting having commenced, the British officer, Indian officer, and all the Havildars of his company were either killed or wounded, and his Lewis gun was seized by the enemy. Calling upon two other men, he got up, charged the enemy, recovered the Lewis gun, and, although bleeding profusely, again got the gun into action. When his Jemadar arrived he took the gun from Sepoy Ishar Singh and ordered him to go back and have his wound dressed. Instead of doing this, the Sepoy went to the medical officer, and was of great assistance in pointing out where the wounded were, and in carrying water to them. He made innumerable journeys to the river and back for this purpose. On one occasion, when enemy fire was very heavy, he took the rifle of a wounded man and helped to keep down the fire. On another occasion he stood in front of the medical officer who was dressing a wounded man, thus sheltering him with his body. It was over three hours before he finally submitted to be evacuated, being then too weak from loss of blood to object. His gallantry and devotion to duty were beyond praise. His conduct inspired all who saw him.

DISMISSES WIFE'S SUIT AGAINST HUSBAND.

Court Rules She Can Not Maintain Action to Collect Damages for Injuries in Auto Crash.

NEW YORK, December 21. — Justice Kapper, in the Brooklyn Supreme Court, dismissed an action for $25,000 damages brought by Mrs. Harry Perlman, Brooklyn, against her husband for injuries she incurred in a ride with him in an automobile which ran into a Brooklyn trolley car.

Justce Kapper dismissed the action primarily on the ground that a wife could not maintain an action to collect damages from her husband for injuries received through his negligence. This was the position taken by counsel for Mr. Perlman. Commenting on this, Justice Kapper remarked:

"In this respect I think the husband's attorney is right, although what the husband himself actually thinks about it is not made known to me. If it were not for the repeated admonition of our Appellate Courts that the subject of casualty insurance should not be referred to in this class of litigation, I should indulge in the presumption that the husband is not entirely insured against liability for negligently causing injuries, but that if he were not we should hardly be confronted with this suit against him."

On 21st April last the automobile driven by Perlman was in collision with a Graham Avenue car at the Brooklyn end of the Brooklyn Bridge. Mrs. Perlman said she was injured on the head and body, and suffered from nervous shock as a result of the accident. The Brooklyn City Railway Company was made a co-defendant in the suit.

GOOD TIMES

By Charles Frederick Weller
Special District Representative, Community Service (Incorporated)

In "Hindu Tag" one is safe against being tagged when his forehead is touching the floor! How completely such a game "breaks the ice" is easily imagined. Fat and thin people, old and young, poor and rich, frigid and informal—all have played Hindu Tag joyfully and in such various places as a Quaker meeting house, a public schoolroom, a community club, two small family parlors, in the basement of a Presbyterian church and in soldiers' training camps.

It was in a church that I first hit upon the discovery (for it was surprising to me, though others may have understood it long ago) that many audiences will comprehend the essentials of recreation and community service better from playing games together than from hearing admirable discourses. Such discourses had been delivered to a responsive audience at York, Pennsylvania, when a sudden impulse led me to say to the fifty or sixty adults present, what I had occasionally tried with youngsters, namely:

"All of you line up against the wall at one side of the room. I'm It. Standing in the center I will call out:

"Pom, Pom, Pull-away;
If you don't come,
I'll pull you away.

"Then you will all run to the other side of the room. If, before you get across, I tag any one of you three times, he is It and must help me tag the others as they run back and forth, each time only at my call. When all are tagged the player whom I caught first is It for a new round."

This is the finest kind of game to begin with, if space permits. It starts things easily without asking people "Will you play?" and without making anyone conspicuous. Self-consciousness is lost in the joyful momentum of the group.

Quiet Games.

To rest awhile, we next played a sit-down game—a mind-reading mystery. I had previously conferred with my co-worker and when he left the room at the beginning of the new game it appeared to be without collusion between us. Borrowing a shiny spoon, though the back of a watchcase or any other surface would do equally well, I solemnly pretended to photograph upon it the face of any member of the group whom the circle of players pointed out. My partner then returned; studied the supposed photograph; and invariably identified its subject.

There was a bright young man present who soon devised a code of his own for such mysterious mind reading and taught a young woman to play the trick with him. Their method was that the performer who remained in the room should stand or sit in the seventh place to the left of the person photographed. But it was a schoolhouse party in New York State that my real method was detected—by a school-teacher who made my trick fail by sitting with her hands and feet in the same position in which the photographed subject sat. For that is the secret—the performer who pretends to take the photograph, while his previously instructed colleague waits outside, sits down casually, with his hands and feet in the positions assumed by the person to be identified.

What to play in the fixed seats of a small schoolroom was the problem which suddenly confronted me in an attractive coal-mining center in Pennsylvania. The desks were small, the adult audience seemed bulky and the spaces around the seats were narrow. Having first moved some of the scattered people so that all the rows were evenly filled, I gave to the person in the front seat of each row a blackboard eraser. These were all held up at arm's length and, beginning at my signal, they were passed by the front seat people to those next behind and so on from hand to hand, up each row and back again to the front seat. That row won the race whose returned eraser was first held aloft by the man or woman in the front seat.

It is well to play quiet, sitting-down games between those which make the lungs and heart work vigorously. Thirty or forty minutes of self-forgetting, co-operative recreation puts "unity" into "community" and optimistic vigor into new plans for social advance.

Roosevelt's Play Spirit.

"Nose and Toes Tag" was the next game we tried in that conventional mining town schoolroom. Ten volunteers were called forth, because that seemed as many as could well play in the narrow aisles around the seats. I was "It" and I told the other players that each would be safe from being tagged when he held his nose in one hand and the toes of one foot in the other hand.

A well-filled-out bank president—who had come over with us from a neighboring little city to help in organizing for community service—made a living picture which I recall with joy. In some of my subsequent conferences with him I always contended, but he as stoutly denied, that he could not have stood so long on one foot if he had not leaned against a desk. Ordinarily, if a player stands too long holding his nose and Toes I bump against him and he has to run for it.

One young man I chased out of the schoolroom, through the empty hall and back again around the seats. Though I did not quite catch him, I did force him to grab his toes and nose for safety. Afterward, when I learned that this youth was the local prizewinning runner, I felt that I had done pretty well. The point is to play every game with the utter abandon of a joyous child. As Roosevelt stated the good American play spirit—which characterized all his wonderful work:

Don't flinch. Don't foul.
Buck the line hard.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

CHICKEN PIE DINNER

An old-fashioned New England Christmas dinner was, first of all, characterized by a lavish simplicity because, given two courses only, it appeared a matter of hospitality to load the table with every dainty that could possibly pertain to those two courses. At one end of the table—on which was placed, before the guests seated themselves, everything provided for the more substantial portion of the feast—was displayed the ample chicken pie; at the other end, perhaps, a roasted fresh ham might be displaying its tempting pink slices, white-rimmed and clove-dotted; or a "spararib" bursting with richness.

Chicken Pie. For a large pie, boil two fine fowls until tender and allow them to cool in the broth, which has been salted, overnight. Next day drain, and cut or pull off the meat in nice pieces of suitable size for serving. Small bones, like the wishbone, second joint, and so forth, may remain. Boil a dozen and a half very small onions and a few small potatoes, quartered, until tender, salting the water the last part of the time. Meantime, boil away the broth until strong and rich, and thicken a pint and a half of it with four tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour melted together. Season highly to taste with a little paprika, salt, pepper and add a cup of rich cream; let boil up, thicken a bit more if desirable, and pour over the pieces of chicken, which have been laid in a rather shallow large baking dish, with the onions and potatoes arranged in layers. A small cup may be placed in the middle, bottom side up, before putting in the chicken and vegetables. Parsley and minced sweet pepper may be added to the sauce if liked.

Make a rich baking-powder crust; roll to half an inch in thickness and lay over the top, first buttering the edges and putting dots of butter over the chicken. Cut ornamental gashes, brush all with milk and bake in a hot oven until top is a rich, golden brown. Brush with melted butter when removed from the oven. Regular pastry may be used if preferred.

Delicious Christmas Pudding. One cupful each of chopped suet, milk or coffee and molasses, three cupfuls and a half of flour, one teaspoonful of saleratus, two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar, one teaspoonful each of salt and cinnamon, half a teaspoonful of cloves and nutmeg, a little mace, a little grated orange or lemon peel and two or three cupfuls of fruit, either raisins, currants or sliced citron.

Steam in a buttered pudding boiler four or five hours; serve with hard sauce.

LOBSTER FISHING SEASON A FAILURE.

Majority Fishermen Lost Heavily in Storms.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 22.—(Canadian Press)—The special six weeks fishing season for lobsters beginning November 1, granted by the Dominion Fisheries Department to fishermen on the southwestern shore of Nova Scotia, is reported to have been a failure from the standpoint of the majority of the fishermen engaged, though in Halifax county where the fishermen did not have their earning, offset by the loss of traps in the heavy storms after the end of November, cleared about $100 per boat for the month, it was a benefit, as many of the boat fisher men engaged in fresh fishing during the summer had been obliged to suspend operations owing to lack of markets, and faced the winter with scant resources.

A large percentage of the lobsters taken on the south-western shore were not in proper condition for canning, much less for the fresh markets, their season's shell having hardly had time to harden, and the flesh being poor. The catch which at normal prices would have been worth $500,000, only brought about $250,000.

One result of this special season was to glut the American market, causing coniderable loss to the fishermen of Maine, and of St. John counties, N.B., who ordinarily have the early winter market to themselves.

Owing to the immature condition of the lobsters few of the factories on the southwestern shore attempted to can them, the pack being less than one half of what it was expected to be, a fact most gratifying to canners throughout the Maritimes who fear the production of an extra pack would tend to reduce prices.

Acording to loçal fishing authorities the fishermen of the southwest shore will in future year be content to wait for the regular open season for lobsters, beginning March 1, when the lobsters they catch will be of greater value.

PROFESSOR OUSTED AS A "PEEPING TOM."

Chicago U. Man Said to Have Peered Into Co-Ed's Bath.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Prof. Gerald Louis Wendt, one of the most brilliant of the younger member of the faculty of the University of Chicago, was dismissed by President Harry Pratt Judson as a "Peeping Tom." It is alleged that Wendt peeped through the window of a bathroom in a woman's dormitory.

He was found at 11 p.m. by a special policeman on the roof of a shed in the rear of Kenwood Hall, from which he could command a view through the window. Only the intervention of another member of the faculty saved Wendt from arrest and immediate exposure.

The University Campus is divided between two factions, one condemning the pedagogue, the other defending him as a victim of the "scientific mind." The dismissed professor was recently promoted for exceptional research work in chemistry. He is a Harvard graduate, married and the father of a son.

Pres. Judson expressed regret in asking for his resignation. It was said that Prof. Wendt is on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

VOCALION

Greatest of all Phonographs

Best of all Christmas Gifts

The greatest, because of its tone, rich, sparkkling and clear as the chimes on a frosty morning, mellow and deep as the song of the waves.

The greatest, because of its rare beauty of design; dignified, graceful and distinctive as hand-carved furniture.

The greatest, because it alone possesses the Graduola—that makes it an instrument to play, if you desire, as well as to hear.

And the best of all Christmas Gifts, because it opens to you the whole world of music—plays all records without extra attachments—and gives a lifetime of enjoyment.

Vocalions with Graduola are priced from $160. Art Models from $355. Convenient monthly terms.

Christmas To Inmates of The Public Institutions

BESIDES THE VERY POOR THERE ARE OTHERS IN PETERBOROUGH TO WHOM CHRISTMAS MAY NOT BE A TIME OF CHEER AND HAPPINESS.

Besides the very poor, there are others in the city to whom Christmas may or may not be a time of cheer and happiness. In the jail, there are seventeen men and one woman, the most serious of the charges against whom are those of forgery and fraud, with six vagrants and two trespassers on the railway; at the House of Refuge, there are twenty-eight men and eleven women; in the Protestant Home, fourteen men and fifteen women; in the House of Providence, twenty-five men and forty-eight women; at St. Vincent's Orphanage, forty children, and at the Shelter, seventeen children, while the sick in the hospitals number ninety-one, thirty-seven at St. Joseph's, and fifty-four at Nicholls Hospital, at least this is the number recorded within the last ten days.

Scrooge in "Christmas Carol"

Scrooge, in "A Christmas Carol", before the visitation of the Three Spirits:

"A merry Christmas, uncle! God save you!" cried a cheerful voice. It was the voice of Scrooge's nephew, who came upon him so quickly that this was the first intimation he had of his approach.

"Bah!" said Scrooge, "Humbug!"

"Christmas a humbug, uncle!" said Scrooge's nephew. "You don't mean that, I am sure."

"I do," said Scrooge. "Merry Christmas! What right have you to be merry? What reason have you to be merry? You're poor enough".

"Come, then', returned the nephew, gayly' "What right have you to be dismal? What reason have you to be morose? You're rich enough".

Scrooge having no answer ready on the spur of the moment, said "Bah!" again; and followed it up with "Humbug!"

"Don't be cross, uncle," said the nephew.

"What else can I be," returned the uncle, "When I live in such a world of fools as this? Merry Christmas. Out upon Merry Christmas! What's Christmas time to you but a time for paying bills without money; a time for finding yourself a year older, but not an hour richer a time for balancing your books and having every item in 'em through a round dozen of months presented dead against you?

"If I could work my will", said Scrooge, indignantly, "every idiot who goes about with 'Merry Christmas' on his lips should be boiled with his own pudding, and buried with a stake of holly through his heart. He should!"

After the vision at Christmas time he comes early to the office next morning. "If he could only be there first and catch Bob Crachit coming in late.—And he did it!—Bob was full eighteen minutes and a half beyond his time."—

"Hallo" growled Scrooge, in his accustomed voice as near as he could feign it. "What do you mean by coming here at this time of day?"

"I am very sorry, Sir," said Bob. "I am behind my time."

"You are?" repeated Scrooge. "Yes. I think you are. Step this way, Sir, if you please.

"It's only once a year, Sir", pleaded Bob appearing from the Tank. 'It shall not be repeated. I was making rather merry yesterday, Sir.'

"Now, I'll tell you what, my friend said Scrooge, "I am not going to stand this sort of thing any longer. And therefore' he continued leaping from his stool, and giving Bob such a dig in the waistcoat that he staggered back into the Tank again: "and therefore I am going to raise your salary!"

Bob trembled and got a little nearer to the ruler. He had a momentary idea of knocking Scrooge down with it; holding him; and calling to the people in the court for help and a strait-waistcoat.

"A Merry Christmas, Bob!" said Scrooge, with an earnestness that could not be mistaken, as he clapped him on the back.

"Merrier Christmas, Bob, my good fellow, than I have given you for many a year! I'll raise your salary, and endeavour to assis, your struggling family, and we will discuss your affairs this very afternoon over a Christmas bowl of smoking bishop, Bob! Make up the fires, and buy another coal-scuttle before you dot another i, Bob Cratchit!"

A TRIP AROUND TOYLANDS OF PETERBORO'

"If luxury imports may be taken as indicative of prosperity, then neither the United States nor the countries of origin have much to complain of ths Christmas," says Robert H. Clancy, customs appraiser at Detroit, Mich. Toys in hitherto unknown quantities have reached Detroit this year, according to Mr. Clancy, and Germany still leads the world in the manufacture. The reason given for this supremacy is the careful manner in which the German manufacturers consult the tastes, and even the whims of their foreign customers.

Peterboro's Toylands are booming this year also, but not perhaps to any greater extent than they did last year. There is always a great demand for novelties at Christmas time, and this year the supply seems to be more varied and to contain prettier dolls and more of the mechanical type of toy, which seems to be gradually replacing the friction article. The prettiest dolls in the past were of German manufacture, but the Canadian and American manufacturers were gradually creeping up. However, you can now get them with "Germany" and "Berlin' and "Thuringia" stamped somewhere inconspicuously on their little anatomies, and the recent two-million dollar shipment into Montreal from Germany of dolls and Christmas novelties is an evidence of the trend of opinion, which seems to indicate that German products must be sold in a foreign market if she is ever going to pay her war debt.

Some dealers have bought these goods from the United States, thinking they were of American manufacture, and found that the mark was simply a camouflage, the contents proving to be of German origin entirely, but there is a large percentage of Christmas goods on view, with authentic marks from "England", and "New York" and "Pittsburgh". There are dainty little novelties from "Paris" and "Switzerland," there are cunning little celluloid and bisque dollies from "Japan" with nothing Oriental or slant-eyed about their blonde prettiness, there are many games from "Toronto", and one of the features of a certain Toyland is articles of Peterboro manufactures; huge, comfortable-looking, well padded gray cloth elephants, with shoe-button eyes; dainty little blue and white enamelled doll-beds from two different local manufactories, and there are little dappled grey horses from Lindsay, with shaggy manes, on bright red rollers.

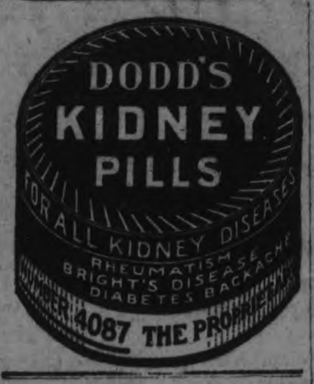
Mechanical toys are the favorites this year. There are all sorts of cunning little contrivances that can be wound up and will do ever so many clever stunts. There is the funniest clown in a striped suit that turns handsprings by simply winding him up a little bit; a waddling duck that takes her family of ducklings to market in the same way; an Alabama coon jigger with nimble feet, a bicycle rider pedalling furiously away on his stationary stand; a clumsy cinnamon bear; a tiny boat that floats in the bath-tub; and a wonderful perfect little specimen of a war tank to delight childish warriors.

There are dolls to comfort the hearts of hundreds of little mothers; lovely regal sleeping dolls with long curls; dainty Flossie Fisher Funnies; cold looking naked babies with all kid bodies; Florodora dolls that say "Mamma", real winter lassies in comfy little black and white woolly suits; unbreakable dolls with stimulated hair and broad smiles, Oriental ladies and Colonial dames.

And the Teddy Bear has come back again. Last year and the year before he was conspicious by his absence, but now he has returned in full force. The entire Bear family is with us, from the large light-brown article with stiffly extended arms and pleased expression, to the little chocolate-colored Bruin on four legs. Something new is the light-yellow puppy with big ears and diminutive tail, regarding the world with an innocent light from green glass eyes above a scarlet nose.

There are dainty little aluminum dishes and china tea-sets for the small housewife, there is the knife, fork and spoon set or "the good child"; there are tin soldiers and drums of all sizes, and there is a great run on the toy which forms a mean of locomotion, like the Billy Bus and the Kiddie Car, the Shoo-Fly or double rocking-horse; the Ducky-doo a new wee idea in getting around the nursery floor, the Samie car and the ski runner.

There are games galore: "Ludo", played with dice, the Fortune Teller, Roly Poly, the skittle shooting-game, tiddlywinks, which are going strong this year, the steeplechaser the fire-fighters, an interesting game twirley gig, the May Pole game. There are contrivances for the mechanical-minded boy; tool chests, meccano sets, erectors, the Gilbert wheel toy for making waggons, barrows, etc., and there are decorations of all sorts; fragile things in lovely colors, bright and gorgeous, red, green and gold, with tinsel cords. One store is showing tiny figures of Santa Claus, to be strung up on the tree and lighted electrically from within.



TO-DAY'S FASHIONS

SASH AND BANDEAU

The simplest frock, be it silk or cotton, takes on an air if properly sashed. And that is why this wide girdle of blue satin decorated with appliqued silk flowers in delicate hues, makes so enchanting a gift for any little miss of sashable age. Narrower satin ribbon, trimmed to match and sewed to a bit of silk elastic to fit it to the head, is a pretty completement of the sash.

W.M.S. AUXILIARY OF TRINITY CHURCH

The Christmas meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of Trinity Church was held on Tuesday afeternoon, with a large attendance.

Christmas messages were given by Mrs. M. A. Morrison, who read the ever-beautiful and ever-new story of Christ-Child, the best of all gifts and stressed the giving rather than receiving of gifts; by Rev. Harold Young, M.A. B.D., who, in an eloquent and feeling address left the message of showing the Christmas spirit and scattering Christmas cheer to the needy and lonely the other fifty-one weeks of the year as well as during the Christmas-tide season; by Mrs. J. E. Middleton, in her beautiful rendering of the song, "The Gift', telling how "purity, truth and love' should be the gifts most coveted by the mother for her child; and by adding of six new members to the list of life membership in the society, bringing the total life membership to forty in the fortieth anniversary year of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Truly the gift sprit was shown when Mrs. T. Lytle, Mrs. Kimberley, Mrs. A. Clegg, Miss Mabel Brown and Miss Cunningham (Pasadena, California) and Mrs. Gordon Hudson were presented with life certificates and in this way the message of Christmas is spread abroad.

Odds and Ends Can Be Used By Those In Want

GATHER THEM UP AND SEND THEM TO THE BIG SISTERHOOD OR THE CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

There is still time to gather up those odds and ends of clothing and footwear and the outgrown toys that are packed away in some attic corner, and send them along where they will be made good use of. Things that you are tired of looking at, but that are still wearable and of good material may be easily fashioned by busy and capable fingers into warm clothing for little bare backs and hands and feet in this wintry weather, and you will have the pleasant feeling of contributing somewhat to the universal spirit of Christmas giving abroad in the land.

The Catholic Women's League and the Big Sisterhood, the former with receiving quarters at 382 Aylmer Street, and the latter just across the way over the Milk Products establishment on Aylmer Street, are both making appeals for anything in the way of wearing apparel.

THE OLD-TIME RUSSIAN CHRISTMAS

The old time Russian Christmas was a merry affair, that is, for the wealthier classes, and it was essentially a feast of the maidens. The richest and hospitable matron in the neighborhood would prepare her home for the young ladies' party and after a three-fold invitation delivered by herself, by the household nurse, and by the majordomo of her household, here the young women would gather for a two-day feast and frolic, which the young men and the elders of the neighorhood were invited only on the evening of the second night.

Peculiar games are indulged in on the occason of the festivity. "On the second night parties of young lads dressed as goats, bears and wolves attend, and imitate these animals cries. The bear recites a fable or some quaint old story, and all leave unidentified."

A game in which the rings, bracelets and ear-rings of the assemblage are deposited in a basin of water winds up the ceremonials. Songs portraying the ups and downs of human life are sung during the time the baubles are taken out and returned to their owners; whose lives during the following twelve months are suposed to be typfied by the words of the song as they receive their jewels.

WORK OF FEDERATED CHARITIES

In a recent address at the meeting of the Federated Charities Board, Dr. R. C. Blagrave said that this city was brimming over with kindness and that people were simply bursting with a desire to aid their fellow-creatures and lend a helping hand. This year, in particular, there seems to be a strong feeling for the "other fellow," and his needs. The general president of the Floral Association, Mr. Graves, on the occasion of the Floral Convention here last summer, recommended to the attention of his hearers a brbader view of the "Gospel of the Other Fellow," and this seems to be the spirit that is spreading over our own town, at least. On all sides, charitable and philanthropic societies are reaching out to alleviate the lot of the poor and afflicted, and the women workers report a co-operation of good feeling existing this year between those blessed with some worldly goods, and the women who are trying to help, that is most gratifying. Women in comfortable homes are making enquiry as to where they can send food and clothing, and their efforts are supplemented by kindly offers of assistance from different merchants, one local butcher being an outstanding figure in this respect.

The Rotary and the Kiwanis Clubs are both providing Christmas cheer for as many as they can possibly attend to, and the former has also started a campaign, with regard to assistance for crippled children; the Ladies' Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A.; combining with the G.W.V.A. itself; the Salvation Army; the Catholic Women's League; the Y.W.C.A.; the Caledonian Club, which is providing its own members' children with a Christmas treat on Saturday; the different Christmas parties given to the children of the Shelter and the Orphanage by several organizations; the women's societies of every church in the city; charitable workers in hard-working relief socities; they are all combined in one single effort to defeat the cold, the hunger, the unemployment which the winter brings to so many, and to give them, if possible, a pleasant Christmas.

Salvation Army Bandsman's Testimonial in Favour of Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets

Mr. Russell Reeve, 23 Cornhill St., Chatham, Ont., says:

Gentlemen: Just a few lines to thank you for the wonderful benefit I have received from Dr. Henderson's Herb Treatment. For 25 years or more I have suffered from Catarrh of the head, brought on by going under the water too much. I had a very disagreeable discharge from my ear, which was very annoying as well as loathsome. I had tried several different treatments that were recommended to me, but they did not appear to help me. I purchased a box of your Herb Treatment and after using it for a time the discharge had ceased and it has never bothered me for over a year. I am certainly grateful to your agent for ever selling them to me. You can use this letter in any way that you choose for the benefit of others.

Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets are not a "Cure all.' It is simply a combination of herbs, roots, barks and juice of fruits that act directly upon the important internal organs, aiding them to perform their functions properly and thus to expel wastes and poisons from the system. In this natural way the body is given a thorough internal cleansing and then the forces of Nature can act vigorously and freely in rebuilding and restoring the affected parts. Try a box and watch the results. Price 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per box at WARNE'S DRUG STORE, Peterborough.

Christmas To Eskimo

Christmas is one of the outstanding events in the year for the Eskimo on the far northern coasts of Labrador. For this festival, he forsakes his hunt for seals, fish, foxes or reindeer and he spares no effort in getting home for Christmas back to the station, where his home is waiting, warm and cosey after its fashion.

The days before Christmas are great trading days for the Eskimos. Now is the time to pay up at the store and make fresh bargains. They call the missionary in charge of the store the niuverte, and exchange the result of their catches and traps for household commodities. One has a large quantity of seal blubber. Part of the price this liquidates the debt already against him in the store-book, and for the rest he buys a new tin can, some petroleum, some flour, peas and soap. Then his wife at his elbow whispers that she wants an apron and a shawl, and these are added to his purchases. Another has a bundle of sealskins and some oil from the liver of codfishes he has caught. These he disposes of for rice, peas, tea, treacle and ship biscuits. The third has been lucky, and has secured two black foxes and one silver fox. These buy a gun and cartridges, an accordion, knives, forks and spoons, coloured stuff for a dress for his wife, some bright ribbons and some candles.

To the Eskimo who has become a Christian, the feast of Chrismas is a sacred and solemn time; and they solemnize the festival with a reality and reverence which puts many a more enlightened Christian to the blush. They are very fond of making representations in wood and one of the Holy Family, and miniature crib and stable for their children. They have special Christmas sermons in their own language, fom the missionairies, and music in their chapels from Haydn or Handel set to curious Eskimo words A lighted taper is given to each child present at the church ceremony, and up to a few years ago, when coloured parraffine (unpalatable) tapers were substituted, these tallow tapers were invariably eaten by their proud possessors at the conclusion of the ceremony.

FRENCH APPLE PIE.

Put a piece of butter about the size of an egg into iron skillet and into this add about 6 apples (sliced), add one-half cup sugar or more, according to tartness of apples, a dash of cinnamon. Cover and fry slowly, watching carefully that they do not burn. When done, fill a pie crust that has been baked. When cool, spread whipped cream on top and erve.

BOVRIL ALL THAT IS GOOD IN BEEF
AN INVIGORATING HOT DRINK

RECIPES

APPLE SAUCE CAKE

One and one-half cups of apple sauce, one cup sugar, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup butter and lard mixed, one cup raisins one-half cup sliced citron, one-half cup dates, one and one-half cups nuts, three and one-half cups flour, two and one-half teaspoons soda, one-half teaspoon each cinnamon, cloves, allspice and nutmeg, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon vanilla.

Use apple sauce sweetened as for the table. Cream butter and sugar. Add molasses and apple sauce. Wash and dry fruit and mix thoroughly with one cup of flour. Stir into first mixture.

Sift remaining flour with salt, spice and soda. Stir into cake mixture. Add nuts and stir vigorously. Turn into a papered pan and bake an hour in a moderate oven. Remove from pan, cool, wrap in oiled paper and store.

ENGLISH FRUIT CAKE

Three-fourths cup butter, one cup light brown sugar, three eggs, two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half cup milk, one cup raisins, three-fourths cup currants, one-fourth cup sliced citron, one-fourth cup candied orange peel, one-half teaspoon each cinnamon and cloves, one teaspoon vanilla, one-fourth teaspoon salt.

Cream, butter and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each egg. Mix and sift flour and baking powder. Prepare fruit and mix with flour. Add to first mixture. Mix well. Add spices, vanilla and salt. Turn into a prepared bread pan and bake an hour in a moderate oven. Cool and wrap in oiled paper and store in tin box.

SMOTHERED CHICKEN.

Put the breast, which is cut into two pieces, the thighs, drumsticks, backbone, and wings into Dutch oven or iron boiler with lid; add one tablespoon drippings, one tablespoon cut onion, one tablespoon salt, dash white pepper, and one cup of boiling water; bring to a boil quickly; reduce the heat and simmer very slowly for one and a half hours, or until tender.

Add water as it is needed; there should be two cups of gravy. Remove the chicken to centre of hot plate To the gravy add one tablespoon flour mixed with a little cold water and boil three minutes; strain over the chicken. Sprinkle with chopped parsley, or the chicken can be left whole.

Following the plan to make all its foreign offices 100 per cent American, the United States Shipping Board has transferred 18 women stenographers from its Washington office to London.

THE CHRISTMAS CUSTOMS OF OLD

A HANDFUL OF COPPERS FROM A PECK MEASURE--SEXTON RANG A BELL.

One of the Christmas customs of olden days, says Cyril O. Brocking in the Canadian Home Journal, was that of distributing alms in the parish of Bulkely, Cheshire, where charity of nineteen shillings and twopence was annually given the poor. The money, in coppers, was placed in a peck measure and each of the poor folk to benefit himself or herself to a handful. Several ancient charities also provided for the ransonming of Christians who had fallen into the hands of the Turks and were enslaved. In 1655, Alicia, Duchess of Dudley, left one hundred pounds per annum for this purpose, and in the year 1873 Thomas Betson left property worth 22,000 pounds for the same object. In the year of 1734 it is chronicled that 135 men were released from such slavery by the good merchants through charity and restored to their families.

At the old village of Hessle, near Hull, a bell is rung every night, save Sunday, with funds provided to recompense the sexton by a lady who once lost her way and was guided safely by the ringing of the church bell. Another similar bequest is that of Richard Palmer, who in 1664 left a bequest to the sexton of Workingham, Berkshire, for ringing a bell every evening at eight and every morning at four in order that "strangers and others who should happen on winter nights to lose their way might be guided into the right way."

Many old charities were estblished by pious churchgoers for the purpose of providing rushes for the church floors and payments to those it cutting them. The article says: "As the first instance on record of a stove being placed in a place of worship occurs in 1773 one can only regard with unqualified admiration the devotional spirit of our ancestors It is little wonder that we read, during the early days of the eighteenth century, that the custom arose of men wearing muffs to church."

Celebrate Christmas with the AMBEROLA

IF there is one day in the year when good music should be in every home—that day is Christmas! Joyous Yuletide carols—hymns—old songs that everyone loves—will make the day a real festival if you own an Edison Amberola!

The Amberola is a sensible and lasting purchase, and a beautiful and welcome gift. It is not a shrill and metallic "talking machine," but a mellow-toned instrument which plays vocal and instrumental music of all kinds with startling realism.

In addition to being the world's greatest phonograph value, the Amberola is remarkably cheap to operate. The permanent Diamond Point Reproducer does away with the bother and expense of changing needles, and the Amberol Records—low-priced to start with—are practically indestructible.

Have an Amberola in your home this Christmas—it will furnish years of entertainment to your family and yourself! And if you have some dear friend to whom you would like to present a really worth-while gift—

Give an AMBEROLA

Come in today and select an Amberola to be delivered for Christmas. Make it your gift to the family.

Bringing to Light the City Where Abraham Was Born

Ur of the Chaldees (Mugheir) where Abraham was born

Rembrandt's famous painting of Abraham about to sacrifice his son Isaac

How Americans Will Go Back to the Beginning of Sacred History and Teach the World That These Men and Women Really Lived

The American Expedition to Excavate and Explore the Tombs of the Patriarchs and Matriarchs of the Hebrews

THE American expedition from the University of Pennsylvania is on its way to uncover the very beginnings of Hebrew history in Palestine. With the British mandate over Palestine in force it is now possible to conduct investigations which the Turkish power made impossible before. It is the purpose of this expedition to explore ancient tombs and ascertain the facts which may check up the accounts as contained in the Bible.

Students of that great mine of literature will remember that when Abraham first left his home in "Ur of the Chaldees," now identified with Mugheir, in Babylonia, he went to Haran, where he was joined by his nephew, Lot, with whom he made his way to the Promised Land of Canaan.

This was a peaceable invasion, or immigration, and after they had reached that land Lot settled in the city of Sodom, after the herdsmen of Abraham had quarreled with his, and Abraham went to the south near Hebron.

Here, the Bible states, after some years Isaac was born, and Sarah. Abraham's wife, died. At that time Abraham bought the "Cave of Machpelah" as a burial place and there Sarah was buried and there, doubtless, Abraham, too, found his last resting place. At present there is a great mosque covering the entire cave and no European has been allowed to enter the place. But with the pressure now to be brought to bear it is expected that at last it will be possible to enter the cave and see whether the bodies of Abraham and Sarah are there, and what else may be found buried in and around the cave.

There is little doubt that the Mahometans really believe that this is the actual cave of Machpelah, and when the American explorers make their way into it we shall learn for the first time the truth of the story now four thousand years old, for Abraham lived about 2100 B. C.

Here is that ancient oak which is asserted to be the very tree under which Abraham sat, and all about the country are remains which may prove of intense interest and real value, because heretofore the state of the country was not such that strangers were safe there.

But if the history of Abraham be the very beginning of the history of the Hebrews, its value lies not only in ascertaining what will help make much of the Biblical narrative clear, but we may receive considerable light upon the life and fate of his son Isaac and his grandson Jacob, long considered the great constructive mind in the founding of the Hebrew race.

Isaac is almost certainly buried in this tomb with his father, and the finding of his sarcophagus would go far toward setting aside some of the modern criticism which has tried to assert that Abraham, Isaac and Jacob represent only tribal myths and that there never were any such human beings.

If their coffins are found we may be sure that the tomb of Rebecca is also here, and that will help to recall one of those early romances in the life of the world, when the faithful servant, Eliezer, is sent to Haran to find a bride for his master, Isaac, and returns with the maiden, Rebecca, whom he has tested by asking a trial of her kindheartedness in offering water for both him and his camels. There is the romance, which concludes with the journey to Canaan and marriage to Isaac, who meets the caravan as it comes near home.

But romance never ceases among these Bible folk. It is because they are so intensely human that the Bible has been so popular with all who know it. Its love stories are transcripts from real life or they would not have lasted for forty centuries.

Rebecca, too, lived and died and was buried here, probably in the same cave; but while she was alive she played her part in life, starting the ambitious younger son, Jacob, on the path of success which was to make him the real head of the tribe, founder of a nation. It was not an accident or petty personal favoritism which led her to put Jacob ahead of the less intellectual and spiritual minded Esau. We may not approve her trick of securing the blessing for her favorite, but the outcome proved the wisdom of her choice.

The imagination is almost stunned when it stops to consider what might be found to shed light upon this early life of Abraham and Isaac, Sarah and Rebecca. We know that, notwithstanding what some scholars claim as to the date of written language, that writing was practiced long before this, and if some clay tablet, written in the ancient wedged-shaped writing of the Babylonians, be found, if some records of that ancient time be brought to light, the entire early history of that part of the world may have to be rewritten, or we may be able to add several chapters to the Bible itself.

Romance leads to romance, and Jacob was his own mother's son. When he had fled to his uncle in Haran he soon fell in love with his cousin, Rachel, and he proved his devotion by the way in which he served for fourteen years that he might gain her as his wife. The story of how he was deceived by Laban, who gave him the veiled Leah after the first seven years, on the plea that it was not proper for the younger sister to be married before the elder, is known to every pupil of our Sunday schools.

But finally Jacob has his way, and after being exiled for twenty years he goes back to Canaan, there to resume his place as head of the tribe upon the demise of his father, Isaac. All this story may be confirmed now by the finding of these tombs or coffins in the cave of Machpelah when the American explorers are permitted to enter the caverns beneath the great mosque.

But far more than this may come from the explorations of this expedition. If they are permitted to see what is above and under the ground here, they will not stop before they have made some excavations in the city of Hebron itself and among the ruin mounds, or Tells, as they are called, which abound in the southern part of Palestine. It is more than possible that the explorers will go to the nearby Jordan and, crossing it, try to ascertain what they can about the tomb of Moses, the great lawgiver himself. It will be remembered that he died upon Mount Nebo before the Israelites passed over the Jordan, and that, according to the Bible, no one knew where he was buried. The purpose of this concealment was very plain. It was feared that if the people of Israel knew where Moses was buried they would immediately set up a shrine there and worship him, which would have been a direct violation of the religious ideals of the Hebrews, for they were opposed to the worship of any man, no matter how great he may have been. The Mahometans, however, have a tomb in this neighborhood which they call "Neby Mousa," or the Prophet Moses, to which a pilgrimage is made every year at about the time of the Christian Easter, and it has long been the purpose of explorers to examine this tomb so as to ascertain whether any body is really contained in it. Here, too, is the famous "Spring of Moses," at the foot of Mount Nebo, a favorite place of pilgrimage for Jew and Moslem alike.

The purpose of the American expedition is very broad and comprehensive, for hitherto exploration in Palestine has been made only in isolated spots, and, important as the discoveries were, there has been no real uncovering of all the important sites from which a world of information is to be gathered.

Palestine is only 120 miles long and about 70 miles wide at its broadest point, holding a comparatively few important sites to be uncovered before we can get a full record of its past, historic and prehistoric. Thus far only a little digging has taken place at Jerusalem itself because of the opposition of the Turks, yet the treasures buried there must be great in value as to the history of the country, for it was a capital long before the Israelites conquered the land under Joshua. Jericho has been only partly explored, Samaria has been partially uncovered by the Harvard expedition, and the sites of Gezer and Tell-el-Hesey have been uncovered by the Palestine Exploration Fund. Some work was done at Gaza, in Philistia, and a few other spots have been subjected to surface exploration.

The real systematic work, stripping the secrets from many important places, is yet to be done. The Jewish Exploration Society of Jerusalem is to begin work at Tiberias, which was a great seat of learning just after the destruction of the later temple by Titus (70), but little news has come from that place yet.

High hopes are cherished as to the results which may be secured at Tiberias, for as the seat of learning of Palestine for several centuries after the exile of the Jews it is expected that many valuable memorials will be brought to light, and possibly some early manuscripts of the Bible itself, for no original manuscript of the Hebrew Scriptures is preserved older than the eighth century of the Christian era. Yet the dry soil of Palestine must hold somewhere some of the older writings, and some of these are probably buried in the tombs of the great men whose names are known but whose resting places are still unfound. Many parts of the Palestinian Talmud, which was written down at Tiberias, may be brought to light, for the present editions show many parts missing, books which scholars would be delighted to have rediscovered. And together with these may be some of the manuscripts of the New Testament as well, for these writings were passed from hand to hand during that first century after the birth of Jesus, and some are sure to be found, if only in fragments, when the old cemeteries around and in Tiberias are thoroughly dug over.

It was a well known custom among the ancients to bury favorite poems and manuscripts with their owners. This was especially true in the Orient, and, thanks to this custom, some of the ancient Greek classics have been rediscovered in the graves of Egypt, as well as other documents, such as the famous Logia, or "Sayings of Jesus," which was brought to light a few years ago and created a tremendous sensation in the religious world at that time.

It would be very fine, indeed, if by the exploration of the tombs of the patriarchs and matriarchs at the cave of Machpelah and other sacred spots the records of very ancient times were discovered, as seems more than likely. Scholars would have their hands full deciphering the ancient script, and one of our moot problems would be solved. Up to the present time we have only two inscriptions written in the old Hebrew script such as was probably used by Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. These are on stone, but as they knew how to write in Babylon long before the time of Abraham, we may be certain that so great a leader as Abraham certainly knew how to write and did write. If it were now possible to recover a bit of that writing, no matter how small, it would be a great prize to the religious world and would settle many of the disputes among scholars. Some have held that the writing which Abraham and even Moses used was the cuneiform, or wedged-shaped writing of the Babylonians, and that the Hebrew script came much later. The language of Babylonia was indeed a Semitic tongue and it would have been possible for Abraham to use it, but we would very much like to know.

How wonderful it would be if some of the correspondence of that day were brought to light, just as happened in the case of the Tell-el-Amarna letters. These date from 1500 B. C. and were found in Egypt and have interested all students of history and civilization, for they showed how the kings of Egypt and Babylonia wrote to one another, and how marriages were contracted among the great of those days so as to preserve the peace among the nations.

If, now, letters were to be found which had been exchanged between Abraham and his early home, or letters which Rebecca wrote and received in those days when Jacob had gone to her former home, how much life they would give to what seems so far away and ancient in the Bible. Few of those who read the Bible and study it, even religiously, appreciate the human side and stop to think that it is a record, more or less imperfect, of what the ancient Jews were trying to do in the world and their way of working out the salvation of mankind.

The value of the work of all these explorers cannot be exaggerated, for it will help us to comprehend the work of the men and women of four thousand years ago, and in that way make the Bible the living book which it ought to be to modern men and women.

When the results of all the excavations are published we shall get a clear view of many details which the Bible could not well present. The writers of Scripture did not give us all that they might have, because they wrote with a special purpose, that of bringing home to their readers the religious activity of its heroes and heroines, omitting much that would make them far more real to us of to-day.

We can tell from some of the omissions what they might have told us, and now we have to reconstruct all of their life from the ruins and documents which the explorers bring to light.

A fragment of pottery here, a coin there, an ornament which a woman wore around her neck, all these are now waiting to help us see and understand as we have never before comprehended.

The right way is this which the American expedition has chosen—going back to the very beginning of history to get the foundation of all that was to follow. We may be sure that their work will be watched with interest by every Bible student.

JUNIOR O. H. A. BOYS WILL PRACT.CE TONIGHT

The Junior O.H.A. Club (Holy Name Society), will meet for their first practice in the Brock street rink between 7 and 8 o'clock. All local junior players, whether a member of the team or not, are cordially invited to participate in a try-out at this evening's practice.

SPORT GOSSIP

Billy Gibson, manager of Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard, announces that he and other promoters will build a stadium in Harlem with a seating capacity of 35,000 to house Benny's future title fights in the city. Gibson declared that personal enmity between himself and Leonard on one side and Tex Rickard on the other would prevent Leonard's boxing at Madison square Garden for any price. The stadium threat is not taken any too seriously.

The prize-ring prestige of France is about to be lifted from the resin where it was left by Georges Carpentier in that fourth round at Jersey city—and by a woman, Mlle. Jean La Mar. Mlle. La Mar called at a newspaper office here offering to fight any woman in America at catchweights to a finish or a decision. She is a featherweight and claims to have boxed with Carpentier and Eugene Criqui, the French bantam.

James Gibson, full back, has been elected captain of Cadillac High's 1922 eleven.

University of Washington base ball team is back from the Orient, where in four months it won 23 of 31 games.

New York Board of Aldermen has granted the New York Yankees permission to close a street that runs through the site for its new ball park.

Malcom Balbridge Creighton U. foot ball coach, has received an offer from Yale to become assistant grid coach.

Augie Kieckefe, Chicago, 3-cushion champion, last night reduced the lead of John Layton from 16 to 17 points in the second block of their 3-day match for the world's title.

Del Currier, Port Huron bowler, set a high mark in a two-man match a Port Huron last night when he rolled an average of 228 in eleven games.

Pennsylvania hockey team defeated Yale last night, 4 to 2.

Walter Kinsella, national and world's open squash tennis champion who was injured in a fall though a glass roof two weeks ago, may never play again.

The 1922 Grand Prix automobile race will take place at Strasbourg July 15, the Automobile Club of France announced yesterday.

University of Michigai defeated University of Cincinnati basket ball team last night at Cincinnati 25 to 18.

West Ministers, of Boston defeated Sudbury, Ont. 3 to 1 at hockey last night.

JOIE RAY MUST QUIT RUNNING

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Joie Ray, champion miler, who set a mark of 4.143-5 at Philadelphia in 1919, has retired from the track, it was announced here. Ray's leg, injured at the Olympic races in Antwerp, has never completely responded to treatment, John Behr, trainer of the Illinois Athletic Club said, forcing the little champion to quit. Ray has been national champion miler six times.

SIGNED JOHNNY WILSON.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.— (Canadian Press.)—Tex Rickard announced yesterday that he had signed Johnny Hilson, middleweight champion, and Harry Grob of Pttsburgh, to box fifteen rounds to a decision at Madison Square Garden, January 6. Both agreed to weigh in at 160 pounds at 2 o'clock that day.

WOMAN IN BOXING FIELD.

Mlle. Le Mar Seeks to Make Sport Popular With Her Sex.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Boxing as a competitive sport is no longer confined to the stronger sex. The women have taken to the gentle art of fisticuffs and are seeking recognition. Mlle. Jeanne Le Mar, petite French woman, is the pioneer in this ring innovation and is seeking now to gain advocates for the establishment of women's boxing as a sport, through the medium of a practical demonstration. Herself a featherweight of no mean boxing skill, Mlle. Le Mar last night announced that she had been in negotiation with Leo P. Flynn, Tex Rickard's advisory match-maker at Madison Square Garden, for the purpose of securing a match against some rival of her own sex. A Miss Devereau was specifically mentioned by Mlle. La Mar as one who probably would make a good opponent. Mlle Le Mar, however, made her defi general and even went so far as to declare she would tackle a male opponent in an exhibition bout. In an effort to advance her campaign for recognition Mlle. Le Mar declared she would visit the State Athletic Commission and seek a license as a boxer.

The French woman said her weight is 125 pounds in condition and that she has been recognized as the women's boxing champion of France. She has engaged in several battles in her home land against women rivals and has sparred with Eugee Criqui and Georges Carpentier among others.

BALL PLAYERS' PAY CUT.

Virginia League Reduces Salary Limit of Teams $200 a Month.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 21.—Virginia Baseball League owners, after a long drawn out meeting, fixed a salary limit of $3,000 and a player limit of fourteen men, exclusive of the manager. The salary of the manager was not included in the salary limit, which is a reduction of $200 a month, as compared with last year.

The salary limit was one of the chief causes of difficulty in the Virginia League last year, and threatened for a time to cause disbandment of the circuit. Wilson and Rockymount lost leadership of the league during the first half of the season because owners of these two teams exceeded the salary limit.

Frank Culver, Toledo, has been elected captain of Syracuse's 1922 foot ball team.

FIRST PRACTICE OF THE SEASON.

Holy Name Society and P.A.A.A. Squad Will Work Out To-Night.

Hockey will get under way to-night, when the first practice of the season will be held at Brock Street Rink. The cold snap has given the ice-makers just the start they were looking for, and although the rink was only flooded yesterday for the first time there is a good sheet available for tonight.

Thursday being the Holy Name Society's regular practice night, the Holy Name Junior O.H.A. squad will have the honour of being the first team out. They will practice at 7 o'clock and the P.A.A.A. squad will take the ice at 8 o'clock. A big turnout is expected at both workouts. The P.A.A.A. bunch will also practice tomorrow night at 7 o'clock, their regular practice hour.

MODEST THREE OF BASEBALL.

Ruth Wants $85,000.00, Hornsby Asks $75,000.00, and Rousch Only $45,000.

The winter of 1921-22 looms up as strenuous one for the base ball magnates.

"Babe" Ruth says all he wants is $50,000 from the New York Club and $5,000 from every other club in the American league.

That would makes "Babe's" salary for the season $85,000—a nasty figure for one man to draw down for six months' work.

Close behind Ruth comes Rogers Hornsby of St Louis with the announcement that he wants $75,000 and a three-year contract.

Not so many years ago the yearly pay roll of a major league ball club didn't amount to much more than Ruth and Hornsby demand.

Both are big stars, they deserve all they can get. If they are able to jar the magnates loose for such amounts they must be given a lot of credit.

Next in line is Eddie Rousch, the star outfielder of the Cincinnati club. Rousch's ideas are not as extravagant as Ruth or Hornsby.

The Cincinnati star asks for $45,000 a year, with a three-year contract. The demands of Ruth, Hornsby and Rousch are the result of the wide publicity that has been given the alleged profits in base ball.

Garry Herrmann, the president of the Cincinnati club, is the first one to come to bat on the subject. While the magnates are convening in New York, Herrmann told the world what he thought about Rousch's demand.

"Rousch will neither be sold nor traded", says Garry, "no matter how many clubs are anxious to get him. His demands are out of proportion with the earnings of the club. We intend placing Rousch on our voluntarily retired list. He will stay on his farm if he expects us to pay such a salary. That is why we secured George Burns, knowing we would have trouble with Rousch."

So says Garry Herrmann, and he usually means what he says. All of which brings us back to the fact that the wisdom of Ban Johnson is again being felt.

Three or four years ago, Mr. Johnson said disgruntled players should be forced to play with their clubs, or stay at home. However, Mr. Johnson's advice was disregarded, much to the detriment of the game.

LAKE PICTURE HAS A DRAMATIC PLOT

"Uncharted Seas" Presents Consummate Portrayal of a Fateful Choice.

As enthralling a picture as has been seen in a long time is "Uncharted Seas," the Metro Special which comes to the Capitol to-day.

Alice Lake, known wherever pictures are enjoyed, has the leading role and gives a dramatic interpretation unexcelled for beauty and force, according to reports from critics who have seen this picture elsewhere.
